

A COURSE IN MIRACLES, THE NEW TEXT, THE ORIGINAL, SEEN THROUGH THE EYES OF THE PRINCIPLES OF
THE TUTU DOCTRINE – THE NEW WORLD ORDER

A Course in Miracles, the new is created and manifested by Harishchandra Sharma TuTu and Solvejg Sharma TuTu

Foreword to A Course in Miracles, the original seen through the eyes of the principles of
The TuTu Doctrine – The New World Order:

To understand the changes in the new edition of A Course in Miracles, called ACIM, the new, published by the World Service of <http://acim-ekim.org/> an explanation is needed as to how the concepts of the Course have been changed seen through the eyes of the principles of The TuTu Doctrine - The New World Order.

A Course in Miracles, the original exclusively uses the masculine principle to explain how the Spiritual and the earthly are related, and The TuTu Doctrine - The New World Order uses both the masculine principle and the feminine principle for these explanations.

The TuTu Doctrine – The New World Order perceives the merged masculine and feminine principle to be an individual Spirit, who is the personal God of a manifested creature, and in the personal God, the masculine principle is perceived to be the power of creation and the feminine principle to be the power of manifestation.

In the below four graphs the black areas are perceived to be an illustration of the unmanifested masculine principle God the Father as the two black fish and God the Son as the two black circles, and together they make up the creating principle.

The white areas are perceived to be an illustration of the unmanifested feminine principle Goddess the Mother as the two white fish and Goddess the Daughter as the two white circles, and together they make up the manifesting principle.

In the same way the son of humankind holds the creating principle in the form of the Seed of Love and the daughter of humankind holds the manifesting principle in the form of the Egg of Love.

Goddess the Mother and Goddess the Daughter are perceived to be the veiled feminine principle, the Holy Spirit, whom God now wants to lift the veil from and as the manifesting principle the Holy Spirit understands both the unmanifest and the manifest and can therefore translate the unmanifest to the manifest and the manifest to the unmanifest.

The second graph is an illustration of the archetype, which is that field of energy, who holds all the individual Spirits, created and manifested by God and that field of energy is called the God Realm or the Spirit plane.

This energy field is also called the universal and impersonal God of all individual Spirits and their creaturesmanifestations, because the archetype not only holds a single individual Spirit, but all individual Spirits and their creationsmanifestation.

Each individual and personal Spirit in the archetype is God's SonDaughter and holds the merged masculine and feminine principle in the same way as God HimHerself, and all God's SonsDaughters put together make up the SonDaughtership, who is the God Realm.

In the archetype, the individual Spirit is considered to be an individual and personal pattern for each single Spirit, and the relation between the archetype X and the individual part Y is being set up in the equation:

$$X = (Y \times Z) + S$$

multiplying Y by Z, who is the number of the parts and adding S, which is the synthesis of them, as the synthesis of the parts is greater than the sum of the individual parts, in the same way that an alarm clock is more than the sum of its individual parts, and this archetype is what humankind generally refer to as God.

The third graph illustrates the merged masculine and feminine principle, in the form of the heart, accentuated with red color, and that illustrates the oneness that holds the warmth of God the Father's, Goddess the Mother's, God the Son's and Goddess the Daughter's mutual heart and the two areas outside the heart illustrates the individuality that holds the cold of God the Father and God the Son and Goddess the Mother and Goddess the Daughter.

The fourth graph illustrates the Holy Grail, the Absolute Oneness that holds the unconditional love, care, compassion and mercy of the Heart's Heart in the merged masculine and feminine principle, accentuated with red color.

The following four graphs illustrate this:

THE INDIVIDUAL AND PERSONAL GOD:
THE MERGED MASCULINE AND FEMININE PRINCIPLE
GOD THE FATHER AND GOD THE SON AND GODDESS THE MOTHER AND GODDESS THE DAUGHTER AT SPIRIT LEVEL

THE UNIVERSAL AND IMPERSONAL GOD: THE ARCHETYPE OF THE MERGED MASCULINE AND FEMININE PRINCIPLE, CALLED THE GOD REALM

THE ABSOLUTE HEART

THE HOLY GRAIL

When a desire arose in an individual Spirit to see hisher Spirit Mate, hisher Eternal Beloved in a new perspective, heshe projected a mirror image of himherself into the Ocean of Love, that is the nourishment of the all, in that event, which is called 'the big bang'.

In this nuclear fission, the masculine and the feminine principle were separated into a 'he' and a 'she', and in the individual Spirit's manifested creation of the Soul plane arose in the separated ones the four basic emotions: love, fear, pain and joy.

Because of the separation, fear of having lost hisher Spirit Mate, hisher Eternal Beloved arose in the process of separation.

This fear is the basic pain of the Soul plane, but the joy re-arose when the separated ones discovered that their Spirit Mate, their Eternal Beloved still was to be found together with them inside the Cosmic Egg.

This 'he' and this 'she' are called Soul Mates, and below are two graphs, which first illustrates two individual Soul Mates followed by a graph illustrating the archetype of Soul Mates that is called the Soul plane or the Soul Realm.

GOD THE FATHER AND GOD THE SON AND GODDESS THE MOTHER AND GODDESS THE DAUGHTER AT SOUL
LEVEL: THE INDIVIDUAL SOUL MATES

THE ARCHETYPE OF THE SOULMATES

Thus, the changes in the use of language will be:

When it concerns 'Heaven' the words 'God Realm' are used instead, if it concerns the Spirit plane and if it concerns the Soul plane the words 'the Soul Realm' are used.

Furthermore, the word Soul is changed to the words 'individual Spirit, or merely 'Spirit' in those places, where it concerns the Spirit plane and the word 'Soul' where it concerns the Soul plane.

Instead of the words Christ Mind or the word Christ is used the words Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness, which is a term for the state of the consciousness of mercy, which comes to expression in a person who has a personal contact with his or her chosen Higher Power, has surrendered his or her will and his or her life to the care of his or her chosen Higher Power and has attained a spiritual awakening to a state of mercy towards those who still suffer.

For the God Realm, instead of the word 'He' for God the word 'HeShe' is used, instead of 'Himself' is used 'HimHerself', 'FatherMother' instead of 'Father', 'SonDaughter' is used instead of Son, and the word 'SonDaughtership' instead of 'Sonship'.

Furthermore, the word 'CreatorManifestor' is used instead of 'Creator' to include the feminine principle, because the masculine principle is the Creator and the feminine principle is the Manifestor, just like it is on Earth, where the man's seed is the creating power and the woman's egg is the manifesting power.

Capital beginning letters are used for God, the FatherMother as the CreatorManifestor, and lower case beginning letters are used for the creatormanifestor, when it concerns God, the SonDaughter.

For the SonDaughtership in the God Realm is used the word 'heshe' with lower case letters to show whether it concerns the SonDaughter or the FatherMother, who is written with capital as 'HeShe'.

The word the LordLady is used instead of the Lord.

When it concerns the Soul plane, the word He or she is used for the Father or mother, which means He or She or He and She, as He and She have become separated in 'the big bang' and thus become two instead of one because of the nuclear fission.

'He' is the masculine Soul, God the Father and God the Son and 'She' is the feminine Soul Goddess Mother and Goddess the Daughter, and furthermore is used the Creator and Manifestor instead of Creator.

To make a distinction between God the Father and Goddess the Mother that are written as 'He or she' and God the Son and Goddess the Daughter at Soul level lower case letters for 'he or she' are used for God the Son and Goddess the Daughter.

The feminine principle Goddess the Mother and Goddess the Daughter, who are one both at the Spirit plane and the Soul plane, are perceived to be the Holy Spirit and will therefore be referred to as 'She' instead of 'He', and when She is mentioned as God's Teacher teacher will be written with capital T and the feminine form 'Teacheress' will be used.

In all contexts that concerns the human being the words 'man or woman' are used instead of 'man', and where the word 'he' is used the words 'he or she' is used instead.

Now four editions exists beyond the original short hand notes by Helen Schuchman.

An edition of the original, as it was written down more or less stenographically by Helen Schucman and typewritten by and discussed with William T. Thetford, can be found in an edited version, published by 'Foundation for inner peace', which Helen Schucman chose to edit together with Kenneth Wapnick, so that the areas of the original edition, which Helen Schucman did not think should be there were removed, and the edited version can be found for free here:

<https://acim.org/digital-editions/>

As described below in the foreword to the original version of A Course in Miracle by JCIM, which stands for Jesus' Course in Miracles, also called the original, which came to light after 'Foundation for inner peace' had released their version, and the JCIM group undertook to write the original down with that, which had been edited away by Helen Schucman and Kenneth Wapnick, and that edition can be found for free here:

https://www.jcim.net/acim_us/Acim.php

Circle of Atonement made an annotated version of the Course that is different from the Original because it includes Helen Schucman's handwritten notes from the first four chapters on sex and personal mistakes, which had been edited away by Helen Schucman and Kenneth Wapnick, and the four chapters exist for free on the link below in addition to their suboriginal notes on link number two:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1z4t54On1IbLX0F_pcnOGKdxN1bQ39fL8/view

http://www.jcim.net/Images/Notes_Transcript.pdf

The above mentioned texts include exclusively the masculine principle in their explanations about the connection between the earthly and the spiritual, and the new edition uses the original as a basis to include the feminine principle of these explanations, as they come to expression in the TuTu Doctrine - The New World Order, which is available for free here:

<http://totos-solfond.org/>

The new edition of A Course in Miracles can be found for free at the link below, which contains the original in English in the original language and in Danish translation as well as the new edition in both Danish and English, so the student has the opportunity to compare the English original, plus the Danish translation of the original with the English and Danish version of the new edition found here:

<http://acim-ekim.org/>

Foreword to the original version

This course is a beginning, not an end. Your Friend goes with you. You are not alone. No one who calls on HimHer can call in vain. Whatever troubles you, be certain that HeShe has the answer and will gladly give it to you if you simply turn to HimHer and ask it of HimHer. HeShe will not withhold all answers that you need for anything that seems to trouble you. HeShe knows the way to solve all problems and resolve all doubts. HisHer certainty is yours. You need but ask it of HimHer, and it will be given you.

You are as certain of arriving home as is the pathway of the sun laid down before it rises, after it has set, and in the half-lit hours in between. Indeed, your pathway is more certain still, for it cannot be possible to change the course of those whom God has called to HimHer. Therefore obey your will, and follow HimHer Whom you accepted as your Voice, to speak of what you really want and really need. HisHer is the Voice for God, and also yours. And thus HeShe speaks of freedom and of truth.^[1]

With these words, A Course in Miracles concludes its prescribed curriculum of 365 daily lessons, and it is with these words, too, that we begin our study.

A Course in Miracles (often called just "the Course") is a self-study course for retraining the mind that is spiritual, rather than religious, in its perspective. Although it uses Christian terminology, it is ecumenical in its approach, and its underlying ontology is reminiscent of ancient refrains, echoing the world's most hallowed traditions.

The Course is pragmatic in its method, and its aim is a peaceful mind: "Knowledge is not the motivation for learning this course. Peace is."^[2] Nevertheless, the Course frequently emphasizes its simplicity.^[3]

The story of the Course began when, in the midst of an environment of intense competition and negative attitudes, Columbia University clinical psychologist Dr. William T. Thetford decided he had had enough and declared to his colleague, Dr. Helen Schucman, "There must be another way, and I'm determined to find it." Dr. Schucman vowed to help him.

What ensued was a dramatic progression of waking dreams for Schucman, which culminated in October 1965 with her experience of a voice which spoke clearly in her mind, saying "This is a course in miracles. Please take notes."

With Thetford's support and assistance in transcribing her shorthand notes, Schucman took down some fifteen hundred typewritten pages of A Course in Miracles over a period of seven years.

Schucman did not claim to be the author of the material herself. As she often explained, she heard a kind of inner dictation and she felt compelled to write it down, even though at times she disagreed with the content and resisted the process. The voice which spoke through Helen clearly identifies himself as Jesus. Nonetheless, one need not be Christian nor accept Christianity's traditional doctrines to benefit from the teachings of the Course. Indeed, traditional Christians will at first find many of the pronouncements contained in this work to be startling and perhaps unbelievable. Persistence and open-mindedness will nevertheless be rewarded.

The dictation of A Course in Miracles was completed in September 1972 and resulted in three volumes - the Text, the Workbook for Students, and the Manual for Teachers. As the development of the material progressed, Schucman and Thetford faced the formidable task of organizing the original typescript (often called the "Urtext") into what would become A Course in Miracles. They divided the Text into chapters and sections and gave titles to each, and they removed a great deal of material from the early chapters, material they believed was meant for them personally, not for the Course. The edition that resulted from those efforts is the book you hold in your hands.

The Text volume of the Original Edition has undergone an evolutionary process since the 1972 manuscript of A Course in Miracles was discovered and released on the internet in late 1999. In early 2000 Course in Miracles Society (CIMS) printed the 1972 manuscript of the text as Jesus' Course in Miracles. Distribution of that book was suspended during the continuance of the copyright litigation, which was concluded in 2006.

In November 2006 the initial printing of the Original Edition (referred to as the 2006 Printing), containing the Workbook for Students and Manual for Teachers in addition to the Text, was released. The 2006 Printing corrected numerous typographic errors, misspellings, and aberrant punctuation that had appeared in the original 1972 manuscript and which were reproduced in the Jesus' Course in Miracles edition.

There was a second printing in 2009 (referred to as the 2009 Printing) which continued the process of correcting errors in the manuscript. In this undertaking the editors for the first time looked back to earlier manuscripts and restored material that appeared to have been inadvertently or mistakenly omitted in retyping. This process of restoration has continued through the 2012, 2017, and 2018 Printings, adhering always to the fundamental directive, "fidelity to Source." Among the improvements, beginning with the 2012 Printing, was the updating of paragraph numbering in Chapters 2, 9, 26, and 27, necessitated mainly by the restoration of material from an earlier manuscript. Paragraph renumbering is described in footnotes where pertinent.

In its continuing evolution, this Original Edition faithfully reproduces the original transcript of the book that was the result of the collaboration between Schucman and Thetford, whom many believe were involved with each other in the "holy relationship" described in Chapters 17 through 22 of the Text. This edition preserves the original language of the dictation of those chapters, which were addressed to the two collaborators as they worked together to produce the manuscript. Later editing of the manuscript changed the focus of these important chapters and addresses them to a solitary reader, removing the mutuality that is explicit in the original dictation.

It seems clear that this Original Edition is what Schucman and Thetford originally intended to be A Course in Miracles. However, in 1973 Ken Wapnick, who had joined their small circle and received a copy of the 1972 manuscript, expressed his belief that further editing was needed. Thetford withdrew from further detailed editing work, and Schucman and Wapnick resumed the editing process. Along with changes in paragraphing, punctuation, capitalization, and section titles, there was a great deal of line-by-line editing. In addition, about one-fifth of the material in the first five chapters was removed. Finally, a new section, the Clarification of Terms, was added. The resulting edition, published in 1975 by the Foundation for Inner Peace, became the Course with which the world would become familiar.

While we honor that edition of the Course, we believe that the additional editing resulted both in shifts of meaning and a change in the over-all tone of the work. When encountering Schucman and Thetford's Original Edition, students often find fresh clarity as they read its wording or new understanding as they encounter passages that were not included in the later 1975 edition. In the case of editing, it seems to us that the "less-is-best" rule applies—the less tampering with the eloquent and carefully worded dictation that Schucman received, the better.

In this Original Edition, we have taken great care in dealing with the editorial issues presented by the original typed manuscript. Our focus has been upon reproducing as nearly as possible the content as it was originally given to Schucman and Thetford. It is to be noted, however, that there are a few occasions where we encountered material from the original dictation that appears to have been inadvertently or mistakenly dropped in the early retyping. In those instances, we have re-inserted the missing lines, noting our addition by placing the inserted material in square brackets. Otherwise, the only changes that have been made to the original manuscript of the Course as completed by Schucman and Thetford have been to correct obvious typographic errors and misspellings, to standardize punctuation and capitalization, and to format the material for print publication. Apart from the simple section and paragraph numbering which we include for ease of reference and navigation, nothing has been added to or omitted from the work.

We would be remiss were we to fail to acknowledge the selfless support provided to the Course in Miracles Society by its members and others. From its earliest days, the work of the Society has been enabled by tireless contributions of labor and generous financial support provided by many individuals whose only compensation has been the satisfaction of fostering the circulation of this sacred writing in the world. Publication of this edition, in particular, has been underwritten by a substantial grant from a member who wishes to remain anonymous. To those supporters and all of our members, we extend a sincere "thank you." We are most grateful.

A Course in Miracles

Introduction

¹ This is a course in miracles. It is a required course. Only the time you take it is voluntary. Free will does not mean that you can establish the curriculum. It means only that you may elect what you want to take at a given time.

² The course does not aim at teaching the meaning of love, for that is beyond what can be taught. It does aim, however, at removing the blocks to the awareness of love's presence, which is your natural inheritance. The opposite of love is fear, but what is all-encompassing can have no opposite.

³ This course can therefore be summed up very simply in this way:

⁴ Nothing real can be threatened.
Nothing unreal exists.

⁵ Herein lies the peace of God.

Chapter One:

Introduction to Miracles

I. Principles of Miracles

- 1.¹ There is no order of difficulty among miracles. One is not "harder" or "bigger" than another. They are all the same. All expressions of love are maximal.
- 2.² Miracles as such do not matter. The only thing that matters is their Source, Which is far beyond human evaluation.
- 3.³ Miracles occur naturally as expressions of love. The real miracle is the love that inspires them. In this sense, everything that comes from love is a miracle.
- 4.⁴ All miracles mean life, and God is the Giver of life. HisHer Voice will direct you very specifically. You will be told all you need to know.
- 5.⁵ Miracles are habits and should be involuntary. They should not be under conscious control. Consciously selected miracles can be misguided.
- 6.⁶ Miracles are natural. When they do not occur, something has gone wrong.
- 7.⁷ Miracles are everyone's right, but purification is necessary first.
- 8.⁸ Miracles are [a form of] healing because they supply a lack in that they are performed by those who temporarily have more for those who temporarily have less.
- 9.⁹ Miracles are a kind of exchange. Like all expressions of love, which are always miraculous in the true sense, the exchange reverses the physical laws. They bring more love both to the giver and the receiver.
- 10.¹⁰ The use of miracles as spectacles to induce belief is wrong, or better, is a misunderstanding of their purpose. They are really used for and by believers.
- 11.¹¹ Prayer is the medium of miracles. Prayer is the natural communication of the created and manifested with the CreatorManifestor. Through prayer love is received, and through miracles love is expressed.
- 12.¹² Miracles are thoughts. Thoughts can represent lower-order or higher-order reality. This is the basic distinction between intellectualizing and thinking. One makes the physical and the other creates and manifests the Spiritual, and we believe in what we make or create and manifest.

13. ¹³ Miracles are both beginnings and endings. They thus alter the temporal order. They are always affirmations of rebirth which seem to go back but really go forward. They undo the past in the present and thus release the future.
14. ¹⁴ Miracles bear witness to truth. They are convincing because they arise from conviction. Without conviction they deteriorate into magic, which is mindless and therefore destructive, or rather the uncreativeunmanifestive use of mind.
15. ¹⁵ Each day should be devoted to miracles. The purpose of time is to enable a man or woman to learn to use it constructively. Time is thus a teaching device and a means to an end. It will cease when it is no longer useful in facilitating learning.
16. ¹⁶ Miracles are teaching devices for demonstrating that it is as blessed to give as to receive. They simultaneously increase the strength of the giver and supply strength to the receiver.
17. ¹⁷ Miracles are the transcendence of the body. They are sudden shifts into invisibility, away from a sense of lower-order reality. That is why they heal.
18. ¹⁸ A miracle is a service. It is the maximal service one individual can render another. It is a way of loving your neighbor as yourself. The doer recognizes his or her own and his or her neighbor's inestimable worth simultaneously.
19. ¹⁹ [Miracles make Souls one in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness.] They depend on cooperation because the SonDaughtership is the sum of all Spirits God created and manifested. Miracles therefore rest on the laws of eternity, not of time.
20. ²⁰ Miracles reawaken the awareness that the Spirit, not the body, is the altar of truth. This is the recognition that leads to the healing power of the miracle.
21. ²¹ Miracles are natural expressions of total forgiveness. Through miracles, a man or woman accepts God's forgiveness by extending it to others.
22. ²² Miracles are associated with fear only because of the fallacious belief that darkness can hide. The man or woman believes that what he or she cannot see does not exist, and his or her physical eyes cannot see in the dark. This is a very primitive solution and has led to a denial of the Spiritual eye. The escape from darkness involves two stages:

A. ²³ The recognition that darkness cannot hide. This step usually entails fear.

B. ²⁴ The recognition that there is nothing you want to hide, even if you could. This step brings escape from fear.

23. ²⁵ Miracles rearrange perception and place the levels of perception in true perspective. This heals at all levels because sickness comes from confusing the levels.

²⁶ When you have become willing to hide nothing, you will not only be willing to enter into communion but will also understand peace and joy. Your commitment is not yet total, and that is why you still have more to learn than to teach. When your equilibrium stabilizes, you will be able to teach as much as you learn, which will give you the proper balance. Meanwhile, remember that no effort is wasted, for unless you remember this, you cannot avail yourselves of my efforts, which are limitless. Only eternity is real. Why not use the illusion of time constructively?

24. ²⁷ Miracles enable a man or woman to heal the sick and raise the dead because he or she made sickness and death himself or herself and can abolish both. You are a miracle, capable of creating/manifesting in the likeness of your Creator/Manifestor. Everything else is only your own nightmare and does not exist. Only the creations/manifestations of light are real.

25. ²⁸ Miracles are part of an interlocking chain of forgiveness which, when completed, is the Atonement. This process works all the time and in all the dimensions of time.

²⁹ I am in charge of the process of Atonement, which I undertook to begin. When you offer a miracle unto any of my brothers or sisters, you do it unto yourself and me. The reason you come before me is that I do not need miracles for my own Atonement, but I stand at the end in case you fail temporarily. The purpose of my part in the Atonement is the canceling out of all lacks of love which men or women could not otherwise correct. The word "sin" should be changed to "lack of love" because "sin" is a man or woman-made word with threat connotations which he or she made up himself or herself. No real threat is involved anywhere. Nothing is gained by frightening yourselves, and it is very destructive to do so.

26. ³⁰ Miracles represent freedom from fear. "Atoning" really means "undoing." The undoing of fear is an essential part of the Atonement value of miracles.

³¹ The purpose of the Atonement is to restore everything to you, or rather to restore it to your awareness. You were given everything when you were created and manifested, just as everyone was. When you have been restored to the recognition of your original state, you naturally become part of the Atonement yourself. As you share my inability to tolerate lack of love in yourself and others, you must join the Great Crusade to correct it. The slogan for the Crusade is "Listen, learn and do": Listen to my voice, learn to undo error, and do something to correct it. The first two are not enough. The real members of my party are active workers.

³² The power to work miracles belongs to you. I will provide the opportunities to do them, but you must be ready and willing since you are already able. Doing them will bring conviction in the ability, since conviction really comes through accomplishment. The ability is the potential; the achievement is its expression; and the Atonement is the purpose.

27. ³³ A miracle is a universal blessing from God through me to all my brothers and sisters. It is the privilege of the forgiven to forgive.

³⁴ The disciples were specifically told to be physicians of the LordLady and to heal others. They were also told to heal themselves and were promised that I would never leave them or forsake them. Atonement is the natural profession of the Children of God because they have professed me. "The God Realm and earth shall pass away" simply means that they will not continue to exist as separate states. My word, which is the resurrection and the life, shall not pass away, because life is eternal. You are the work of God, and HisHer work is wholly lovable and wholly loving. This is how a man or woman must think of himself or herself in his or her heart because this is what he or she is.

28. ³⁵ Miracles are a means of organizing different levels of consciousness.

³⁶ Miracles come from the below or subconscious level. Revelations come from the above or superconscious level. The conscious level is in between and reacts to either sub- or superconscious impulses in varying ratios. Consciousness is the level which engages in the world and is capable of responding to both. Having no impulses from itself and being primarily a mechanism for inducing response, it can be very wrong.

³⁷ Revelation induces complete but temporary suspension of doubt and fear. It represents the original form of communication between God and HisHer Spirits, involving an extremely personal sense of closeness to manifested creation which the man or woman tries to find in physical relationships. Physical closeness cannot achieve this. The subconscious impulses properly induce miracles, which are genuinely interpersonal and result in real closeness to others. This can be misunderstood by a personally willful consciousness as impulses toward physical gratification.

³⁸ Revelation unites Souls directly with God. Miracles unite [Souls] directly with each other. Neither emanates from consciousness, but both are experienced there. This is essential since consciousness is the state which produces action, though it does not inspire it. A man or woman is free to believe what he or she chooses, and what he or she does attests to what he or she believes. The deeper levels of his or her subconscious always contain the impulse to miracles, but he or she is free to fill its more superficial levels, which are closer to consciousness, with the impulses of this world and to identify himself or herself with them. This results in denying himself or herself access to the miracle level underneath. In conscious actions, then, his or her relationships also become superficial, and miracle-inspired relating becomes impossible.

29. ³⁹ Miracles are a way of earning release from fear.

⁴⁰ Revelation induces a state in which fear has already been abolished. Miracles are thus a means, and revelation is an end. [In this sense, they work together.] Miracles do not depend on revelation; they induce it. Revelation is intensely personal and cannot actually be translated into conscious content at all. That is why any attempt to describe it in words is usually incomprehensible. Revelation induces only experience. Miracles, on the other hand, induce [interpersonal] action. Miracles are more useful now because of their impersonal nature. In this phase of learning, working miracles is more important because freedom from fear cannot be thrust upon you.

30. ⁴¹ Miracles praise God through men or women . They praise God by honoring HisHer creationsmanifestations, affirming their perfection. They heal because they deny body-identification and affirm Soul-identification. By perceiving the Spirit, they adjust the levels and see them in proper alignment. This places the Spirit at the center, where individual Souls can communicate directly.

31. ⁴² Miracles should inspire gratitude, not awe. A man or woman should thank God for what he or she really is. The Children of God are very holy, and the miracle honors their holiness.

⁴³ God's manifestations of creations never lose their holiness, although it can be hidden. The miracle uncovers it and brings it into the light where it belongs. Holiness can never be really hidden in darkness, but the man or woman can deceive himself or herself about it. This illusion makes him or her fearful because he or she knows in his or her heart it is an illusion, and he or she exerts enormous efforts to establish its reality. The miracle sets reality where it belongs. Eternal reality belongs only to the Spirit, and the miracle acknowledges only the truth. It thus dispels the man's or woman's illusions about himself or herself and puts him or her in communion with himself or herself and God.

32. ⁴⁴ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy inspires all miracles, which are really intercessions. They intercede for the man's or woman's holiness and make his or her perceptions holy. By placing him or her beyond the physical laws, they raise him or her into the sphere of celestial order. In this order, the man or woman is perfect.

⁴⁵ The individual Spirit never loses its communion with God. Only the mind needs Atonement. The miracle joins in the Atonement of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness by placing the mind in the service of the Spirit. This establishes the proper function of the mind and corrects its errors.

33. ⁴⁶ Miracles honor the man or woman because he or she is lovable. They dispel illusions about him or her and perceive the light in him or her. They thus atone for his or her errors by freeing him or her from his or her own nightmares. They release him or her from a prison in which he or she has imprisoned himself or herself, and by freeing his or her mind from illusions, they restore his or her sanity. The man's or woman's mind can be possessed by illusions, but his or her Spirit is eternally free. If a mind perceives without love, it perceives an empty shell and is unaware of the Spirit within it. But the Atonement restores the Soul to its proper place. The mind that serves the Spirit is invulnerable.

34. ⁴⁷ Miracles restore [the Soul] to its fullness. By atoning for lack, they establish perfect protection. The strength of the Spirit leaves no room for intrusions. The forgiven are filled with the Spirit, and they forgive in return. It is the duty of the released to release their brothers and sisters.

⁴⁸ The forgiven are the means of Atonement. Those released by the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness must join in releasing their brothers and sisters, for this is the plan of the Atonement. Miracles are the way in which minds which serve the Spirit unite with the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness for the salvation or release of all God's manifestations of creations.

35. ⁴⁹ Miracles are expressions of love, but it does not follow that they will have observable effects. I am the only one, who can perform miracles indiscriminately because I am the Atonement. You have a role in the Atonement, which I will dictate to you. Ask me which miracles you should perform. This spares you exhaustion because you will act under direct communication.

36. ⁵⁰ Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-controlled miracles are part of the Atonement, but Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-guidance is personal and leads to personal salvation. The impersonal nature of miracles is an essential ingredient because this enables me to control their distribution. Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-guidance leads to the highly personal experience of revelation. This is why it involves personal choice. A guide does not control, but he or she does direct, leaving the following up to you. "Lead us not into temptation" means "guide us out of our own errors." "Take up thy cross and follow me" means, "Recognize your errors and choose to abandon them by following my guidance."

⁵¹ Remember that error cannot really threaten truth, which can always withstand it. Only the error is really vulnerable. You are free to establish your realm where you see fit, but the right choice is inevitable if you remember this:

⁵² The Spirit is in a state of grace forever.
Man's or woman's reality is only his or her Spirit.
Therefore, a man or woman is in a state of grace forever.

⁵³ Atonement undoes all errors in this respect and thus uproots the real source of fear. Whenever God's reassurances are experienced as threat, it is always because you are defending misplaced and misdirected loyalty. That is what projection always involves. Error is lack of love. When the man or woman projects this onto others, he or she does imprison them, but only to the extent that he or she reinforces errors they have already made. This makes them vulnerable to the distortions of others since their own perception of themselves is distorted. The miracle worker can only bless and this undoes their distortions and frees them from prison.

37. ⁵⁴ Miracles are examples of right thinking. reality contact at all levels becomes strong and accurate, thus permitting correct delineation of intra- and interpersonal boundaries. As a result, the doer's perceptions are aligned with truth as God created and manifested it.

38. ⁵⁵ A miracle is a correction factor introduced into false thinking by me. It acts as a catalyst, shaking up erroneous perception and reorganizing it properly. This places the man or woman under the Atonement principle, where his or her perception is healed. Until this has occurred, revelation of the divine order is impossible.

39. ⁵⁶ The Spiritual eye is the mechanism of miracles because what It perceives is true. It perceives both the manifestations of God's creations and the creationsmanifestations of the man or woman. Among the creationsmanifestations of the man or woman, it can also separate the true from the false by its ability to perceive totally rather than selectively. It thus becomes the proper instrument for reality testing, which always involves the necessary distinction between the false and the true.

40. ⁵⁷ The miracle dissolves error because the Spiritual eye identifies error as false or unreal. This is the same as saying that by perceiving light, darkness automatically disappears.

⁵⁸ Darkness is lack of light, as sin is lack of love. It has no unique properties of its own. It is an example of the "scarcity" fallacy, from which only error can proceed. Truth is always abundant. Those who perceive and acknowledge that they have everything have no need for driven behavior of any kind.

41. ⁵⁹ The miracle acknowledges all men or women as your brothers and sisters and mine. It is a way of perceiving the universal mark of God in them. The specialness of God's SonsDaughters does not stem from exclusion but from inclusion. All my brothers and sisters are special. If they believe they are deprived of anything, their perception becomes distorted. When this occurs, the whole family of God, or the SonDaughtership, is impaired in its relationships. Ultimately, every member of the family of God must return. The miracle calls him or her to return because it blesses and honors him or her even though he or she may be absent in Spirit.

⁶⁰ "God is not mocked" is not a warning but a reassurance on this point. God would be mocked if any of HisHer creationsmanifestations lacked holiness. The manifested creation is whole, and the mark of wholeness is holiness.

42. ⁶¹ Wholeness is the perceptual content of miracles. It thus corrects or atones for the faulty perception of lack anywhere.

⁶² Here we begin to make the fundamental distinction between miracles and projection. The stimulus must precede the response and will also determine the kind of response that is evoked. Behavior is response, so that the question "response to what?" becomes crucial. Since stimuli are identified through perception, you first perceive the stimulus and then behave accordingly. It follows, then, that:

⁶³ As ye perceive,
So shall ye behave.

⁶⁴ The Golden Rule asks you to behave toward others as you would have them behave toward you. This means that the perception of both must be accurate. The Golden Rule is the rule for appropriate behavior. You cannot behave appropriately unless you perceive accurately, because appropriate behavior depends on lack of level confusion. The presence of level confusion always results in variable reality testing and therefore in variability in behavioral appropriateness. Since you and your neighbor are equal members of the same family, as you perceive both, so you will behave toward both. The way to perceive for Golden Rule behavior is to look out from the perception of your own holiness and perceive the holiness of others.

⁶⁵ The emptiness engendered by fear should be replaced by love because love and its absence are in the same dimension, and correction cannot be undertaken except within a dimension. Otherwise, there has been a confusion of levels. Death is a human affirmation of a belief in [hate] or level confusion. That is why the Bible says, "There is no death" and why I demonstrated that death does not exist. I came to fulfill the law by reinterpreting it. The law itself, if properly understood, offers only protection to the man or woman. It is those who have not yet "changed their minds" who entered the "hellfire" concept into it.

⁶⁶ I assure you that I will witness for anyone who lets me and to whatever extent he or she permits it. Your witnessing demonstrates your belief and thus strengthens it. Those who witness for me are expressing through their miracles that they have abandoned the belief in deprivation in favor of the abundance they have learned belongs to them.

43. ⁶⁷ A major contribution of miracles is their strength in releasing the man or woman from his or her misplaced sense of isolation, deprivation, and lack.

⁶⁸ Miracles are affirmations of the SonDaughtership, which is a state of completion and abundance. Whatever is true and real is eternal and cannot change or be changed. The Spirit is therefore unalterable because it is already perfect, but the mind can elect the level it chooses to serve. The only limit which is put on its choice is that it cannot serve two masters.

⁶⁹ The mind, if it elects to do so, becomes a medium by which the Spirit creates and manifests along the line of its own manifested creation. If it does not freely elect to do so, it retains its creative and manifestive potential but places itself under tyrannous rather than genuinely authoritative control. As a result it imprisons, because such are the dictates of tyrants. To change your mind means to place it at the disposal of true Authority.

⁷⁰ The miracle is thus a sign that the mind has chosen to be led by the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in his or her service. The abundance of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is the natural result of choosing to follow him or her. All shallow roots must be uprooted because they are not deep enough to sustain you. The illusion that shallow roots can be deepened and thus made to hold is one of the distortions on which the reversal of the Golden Rule rests. As these false underpinnings are given up, the equilibrium is temporarily experienced as unstable. However, the fact is that nothing is less stable than an orientation that is upside down. Nor can anything which holds it that way be really conducive to greater stability.

44. ⁷¹ Miracles arise from a miraculous state of mind. By being one, this state of mind goes out to anyone, even without the awareness of the miracle worker himself or herself. The impersonal nature of miracles is because the Atonement itself is one, uniting all creations/manifestations with their Creator/Manifestor.

45. ⁷² The miracle is an expression of an inner awareness of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and the acceptance of It's Atonement. The mind is then in a state of grace and naturally becomes gracious both to the host within and the stranger without. By bringing in the stranger, he or she becomes your brother or sister.

46. ⁷³ A miracle is never lost. It touches the many people you do not even know and sometimes produces undreamed of changes in forces of which you are not even aware. That is not your concern. The miracle will always bless you.

⁷⁴ The miracles you are not asked to perform have not lost their value. They are still expressions of your own state of grace, but the action aspect of the miracle should be Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-controlled because of It's complete awareness of the whole plan. The impersonal nature of miracle-mindedness ensures your grace, but only the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is in a position to know where grace can be bestowed.

47. ⁷⁵ Miracle-mindedness means miracle-readiness. Readiness means that you should always keep your perceptions straight, so that you will always be ready, willing, and able. These are the essentials for "listen, learn, and do." You must be ready to listen, willing to learn, and able to do. Only the last is involuntary because it is the application of miracles, which must be Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-controlled.

The other two, which are the voluntary aspects of miracle-mindedness, are up to you.

48. ⁷⁶ Awe is an inappropriate response to miracles.

⁷⁷ Revelation is literally unspeakable because it is an experience of unspeakable love. Awe should be reserved for revelation, to which it is perfectly and correctly applicable. It is not appropriate for miracles, because a state of awe is worshipful. It implies that one of a lesser order stands before a greater one. This is the case only when a Spirit stands before its CreatorManifestor. Individual Spirits are perfect creationsmanifestations and experience awe only in the Presence of the CreatorManifestor of perfection.

⁷⁸ The miracle, on the other hand, is a sign of love among equals. Equals cannot be in awe of one another because awe implies inequality. It is therefore an inappropriate reaction to me. An elder brother or sister is entitled to respect for his or her greater experience and a reasonable amount of obedience for his or her greater wisdom. He or she is also entitled to love because he or she is a brother or sister and also to devotion if he or she is devoted. It is only my devotion that entitles me us to yours. There is nothing about me that you cannot attain. I have nothing that does not come from God. The main difference between me as yet is that I have nothing else. This leaves me in a state of true holiness, which is only a potential in you.

⁷⁹ "No man or woman cometh unto the FatherMother but by me" is among the most misunderstood statements in the Bible. It does not mean that I am in any way separate or different from you except in time, which does not really exist at all. Actually, the quotation is more meaningful if it is considered on a vertical rather than a horizontal axis. Regarded along the vertical, the man or woman stands below me and I stand below God. In the process of "rising up," I am higher. This is because, without me, the distance between God and the man or woman would be too great for you to encompass.

⁸⁰ I bridge the distance as an elder brother or sister to the man or woman on the one hand and as a SonDaughter of God on the other. My devotion to my brothers and sisters have placed me in charge of the SonDaughtership, which I can render complete only to the extent to which I can share it. This may appear to contradict the statement, "I and my FatherMother are one," but there are still separate parts in the statement in recognition that the FatherMother is greater. (The original statement was "are of one kind"). The Holy Spirit is the bringer of revelations. Revelations are indirectly inspired by me because I am close to the Holy Spirit and alert to the revelation-readiness of my brothers and sisters. I can thus bring down to them more than they can draw down to themselves.

49. ⁸¹ The Holy Spirit is the highest communication medium. Miracles do not involve this type of communication because they are temporary communication devices. When the man or woman returns to his or her original form of communication with God, the need for miracles is over. The Holy Spirit mediates higher to lower communication, keeping the direct channel from God to human open for revelation. Revelation is not reciprocal. It is always from God to human. The miracle is reciprocal because it involves equality.

50. ⁸² The miracle is a learning device which lessens the need for time. In the longitudinal or horizontal plane, the recognition of the true equality of all the members of the SonDaughtership appears to involve almost endless time. However, the sudden shift from horizontal to vertical perception which the miracle entails introduces an interval from which the doer and the receiver both emerge much farther along in time than they would otherwise have been.

⁸³ The miracle thus has the unique property of shortening time by rendering the space of time it occupies unnecessary. There is no relationship between the time a miracle takes and the time it covers. It substitutes for learning that might have taken thousands of years. It does this by the underlying recognition of perfect equality and holiness between the doer and the receiver on which the miracle rests.

⁸⁴ We said before that the miracle abolishes time. It does this by a process of collapsing it and thus abolishing certain intervals within it. It does this, however, within the larger temporal sequence. It establishes an out-of-pattern time interval which is not under the usual laws of time. Only in this sense is it timeless. By collapsing time, it literally saves time. Much as daylight saving time does, it rearranges the distribution of light.

51. ⁸⁵ The miracle is the only device which a man or woman has at his or her immediate disposal for controlling time. Only revelation transcends time, having nothing to do with time at all.

⁸⁶ The miracle is much like the body in that both are learning aids which aim at facilitating a state in which they are unnecessary. When the individual Spirit's original state of direct communication is reached, neither the body nor the miracle serves any purpose. While he or she believes he or she is in a body, however, a man or woman can choose between loveless and miraculous channels of expression. He or she can make an empty shell, but he or she cannot express nothing at all. He or she can wait, delay, paralyze himself or herself, reduce his or her creativity and manifestivity to almost nothing, and even introduce a developmental arrest or even a regression. But he or she cannot abolish his or her creativity. He or she can destroy his or her medium of communication but not his or her potential.

⁸⁷ The man or woman was not created and manifested by his or her own free will alone. Only what he or she creates and manifests is his or her to decide. The basic decision of the miracle-minded is not to wait on time any longer than is necessary. Time can waste as well as be wasted. The miracle-worker, therefore, accepts the time-control factor gladly because he or she recognizes that every collapse of time brings all men or women closer to the ultimate release from time in which the SonDaughter and the FatherMother are one.

⁸⁸ Equality does not imply homogeneity now. When everyone recognizes that he or she has everything, individual contributions to the SonDaughtership will no longer be necessary. When the Atonement has been completed, all talents will be shared by all the SonsDaughters of God. God is not partial. All HisHer Children have HisHer total love, and all HisHer gifts are freely given to everyone alike. "Except ye become as little children" means that, unless you fully recognize your complete dependence on God, you cannot know the real power of the SonDaughter in hisher true relationship with the FatherMother.

⁸⁹ You who want peace can find it only by complete forgiveness. You never really wanted peace before, so there was no point in being told how to achieve it. No learning is acquired by anyone unless he or she wants to learn it and believes in some way that he or she needs it. While the concept of lack does not exist in the manifested creation of God, it is very apparent in the creationsmanifestations of humans. It is, in fact, the essential difference. A need implies lack by definition. It involves the recognition that you would be better off in a state which is somehow different from the one you are in.

⁹⁰ Until the "separation," which is a better term than the "fall," nothing was lacking. This meant that a man or woman had no needs at all. If he or she had not deprived himself or herself, he or she would never have experienced them. After the separation, needs became the most powerful source of motivation for human action. All behavior is essentially motivated by needs, but behavior itself is not a divine attribute. The body is the mechanism for behavior. The belief that he or she could be better off is the reason why a man or woman has this mechanism at his or her disposal.

⁹¹ Each one acts according to the particular hierarchy of needs he or she establishes for himself or herself. His or her hierarchy, in turn, depends on his or her perception of what he or she is—that is, what he or she lacks. A sense of separation from God is the only lack he or she really needs to correct. This sense of separation would never have occurred if he or she had not distorted his or her perception of truth and thus perceived himself or herself as lacking. The concept of any sort of need hierarchy arose because, having made this fundamental error, he or she had already fragmented himself or herself into levels with different needs. As he or she integrates he or she becomes one, and his or her needs become one accordingly.

⁹² Unified need produces unified action because it produces a lack of ambivalence. The concept of a need hierarchy, a corollary to the original error that a man or woman can be separated from God, requires correction at its own level before the error of perceiving levels at all can be corrected. A man or woman cannot behave effectively while he or she operates at split levels. However, while he or she does, correction must be introduced from the bottom up. This is because he or she now operates in space, where concepts such as "up" and "down" are meaningful. Ultimately, space is as meaningless as time. The concept is really one of space-time belief.

⁹³ The physical world exists only because the man or woman can use it to correct his or her unbelief, which placed him or her in it originally. He or she can never control the effects of fear himself or herself because he or she made fear and believes in what he or she made. In attitude, then, though not in content, he or she resembles his or her own CreatorManifestor, Who has perfect faith in HisHer creationsmanifestations because HeShe created and manifested them. Belief in a manifested creation produces its existence. That is why a the man or woman can believe in what no one else thinks is true. It is true for him or her because it was made by him or her.

⁹⁴ Every aspect of fear proceeds from upside-down perception. The more truly creative and manifestive devote their efforts to correcting perceptual distortions. The neurotic devotes his or her to compromise. The psychotic tries to escape by establishing the certain truth of his or her own errors. It is most difficult to free him or her by ordinary means because he or she is more consistent in his or her own denial of truth. The miracle, however, makes no such distinctions. It corrects errors because they are errors. Thus, the next point to remember about miracles is:

52. ⁹⁵ The miracle makes no distinction among degrees of misperception. It is a device for perception-correction, effective quite apart from either the degree or the direction of the error. This is its true indiscriminateness.

⁹⁶ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness-controlled miracles are selective only in the sense that they are directed towards those who can use them for themselves. Since this makes it inevitable that they will extend them to others, a strong chain of Atonement is welded. However, the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness-control takes no account at all of the magnitude of the miracle itself because the concept of size exists in a plane that is itself unreal. Since the miracle aims at restoring the awareness of reality, it would hardly be useful if it were bound by the laws which govern the error it aims to correct. Only a man or woman makes this kind of mistake. It is an example of the foolish consistency which his or her own false beliefs have engendered.

⁹⁷ The power and strength of man's or woman's creative and manifestive will must be understood before the real meaning of denial can be appreciated and relinquished. It is not mere negation. It is a positive miscreation/mismanifestation. While the miscreation/mismanifestation is necessarily believed in by its maker, it does not exist at all at the level of true manifested creation.

53. ⁹⁸ The miracle compares what a man or woman has made with the higher level manifested creation, accepting what is in accord as true and rejecting the discordant as false. All aspects of fear are untrue because they do not exist at the higher creative and manifestive level, and therefore do not exist at all. To whatever extent a human is willing to submit his or her beliefs to this test, to that extent are perceptions corrected.

⁹⁹ In sorting out the false from the true, the miracle proceeds along the following lines:

¹⁰⁰ *If perfect love casts out fear,
And if fear exists,
Then there is not perfect love.
But only perfect love really exists.
If there is fear,
It creates and manifests a state which does not exist.*

¹⁰¹ Believe this and you will be free. Only God can establish this solution, and this faith is His/Her gift.

II. Distortions of Miracle Impulses

¹⁰² You are involved in unconscious distortions which are producing a dense cover over miracle impulses and which make it hard for them to reach consciousness. The nature of any interpersonal relationship is limited or defined by what you want it to do. Relating is a way of achieving an outcome. The danger of defenses lies in their propensity for holding misperceptions rigidly in place. All actions which stem from reverse thinking are literally the behavioral expressions of those who know not what they do. A rigid orientation can be extremely reliable, even if it is upside-down. In fact, the more consistently upside-down it is, the more reliable it is.

¹⁰³ However, validity is still the ultimate goal, which reliability can only serve. Hostility, triumph, vengeance, self-debasement, and all kinds of expressions of lack of love are often very clearly seen in the fantasies which accompany them. But it is a profound error to imagine that because these fantasies are so frequent or occur so reliably that this implies validity. Remember that while validity implies reliability, the relationship is not reversible. You can be wholly reliable and entirely wrong. While a reliable instrument does measure something, what use is it unless you discover what the "something" is? This course, then, will concentrate on validity and let reliability fall naturally into place.

¹⁰⁴ The confusion of miracle impulses with physical impulses is a major source of perceptual distortion because it induces, rather than straightens out, the basic level confusion which underlies the perception of all those who seek happiness with the instruments of this world. Inappropriate physical impulses (or misdirected miracle impulses) result in conscious guilt if expressed and depression if denied. All real pleasure comes from doing God's will. This is because not doing it is a denial of self. Denial of error results in projection. Correction of error brings release. "Lead us not into temptation" means "do not let us deceive ourselves into believing that we can relate in peace to God or to our brothers and sisters with anything external."

¹⁰⁵ Child of God, you were created and manifested to create and manifest the good, the beautiful, and the holy. Do not lose sight of this. The love of God for a little while must still be expressed through one body to another because the real vision is still so dim. Everyone can use his or her body best by enlarging his or her perception so he or she can see the real vision. This vision is invisible to the physical eye. The ultimate purpose of the body is to render itself unnecessary. Learning to do this is the only real reason for its manifested creation.

¹⁰⁶ Fantasies of any kind are distorted forms of thinking because they always involve twisting perception into unreality. Fantasy is a debased form of vision. Vision and revelation are closely related, while fantasy and projection are more closely associated because both attempt to control external reality according to false internal needs. Twist reality in any way, and you are perceiving destructively. Reality was lost through usurpation, which in turn produced tyranny. I told you that you are now restored to your former role in the plan of Atonement, but you must still choose freely to devote yourselves to the greater restoration. As long as a single slave remains to walk the earth, your release is not complete. Complete restoration of the SonDaughtership is the only true goal of the miracle-minded.

¹⁰⁷ No fantasies are true. They are distortions of perception by definition. They are a means of making false associations and obtaining pleasure from them. The man or woman can do this only because he or she is creative and manifestive. But, although he or she can perceive false associations, he or she can never make them real except to himself or herself. The man or woman believes in what he or she creates and manifests. If he or she creates and manifests miracles, he or she will be equally strong in his or her belief in them. The strength of his or her conviction will then sustain the belief of the miracle receiver. And fantasies become totally unnecessary as the wholly satisfying nature of reality becomes apparent to both.

Chapter Two:

The Illusion of Separation

I. Introduction

^{2:1} This section deals with a fundamental misuse of knowledge, referred to in the Bible as the cause of the "fall," or separation. There are some definitions which I asked you to take from the dictionary which will be helpful here. They are somewhat unusual since they are not the first definitions which are given. Nevertheless, the fact that each of them does appear in the dictionary should be reassuring.

² Project (verb): to extend forward or out.

Project (noun): a plan in the mind.

World: a natural grand division.

³ We will refer later to projection as related to both mental health and mental illness. We have already observed that a man or woman can create and manifest an empty shell, but he or she cannot create and manifest nothing at all. This emptiness provides the screen for the misuse of projection.

⁴ The Garden of Eden, which is described as a literal garden in the Bible, was not an actual garden at all. It was merely a mental state of complete need-lack. Even in the literal account, it is noteworthy that the pre-separation state was essentially one in which a man or woman needed nothing. The "tree of knowledge" is also an overly literal figure.

These concepts need to be clarified before the real meaning of the separation, or the "detour into fear," can be fully understood.

⁵ To "project," as defined above, is a fundamental attribute of God which HeShe gave to HisHer SonDaughter. In the manifested creation, God projected HisHer creative and manifestive ability from HimHerself to the individual Spirits HeShe created and manifested, and HeShe also imbued them with the same loving will to create and manifest. The individual Spirit has not only been fully created and manifested but has also been created and manifested perfect. There is no emptiness in it. Because of its likeness to its CreatorManifestor, it is creative and manifestive. No Child of God can lose this ability because it is inherent in what heshe is, but heshe can use it inappropriately. Whenever projection is used inappropriately, it always implies that some emptiness or lack exists and that it is in the man's or woman's ability to put his or her own ideas there instead of truth.

⁶ If you consider carefully what this entails, the following will become quite apparent:

⁷ First, the assumption is implicit that what God created and manifested can be changed by the mind of the man or woman.

⁸ Second, the concept that what is perfect can be rendered imperfect or wanting is accepted.

⁹ Third, the belief that a man or woman can distort the manifestations of God's creations, including himself or herself, is accepted.

¹⁰ Fourth, the idea that since a man or woman can create and manifest himself or herself, the direction of his or her own manifested creation is up to him or her is implied.

¹¹ These related distortions represent a picture of what actually occurred in the separation. None of this existed before, nor does it actually exist now. The world was made as "a natural grand division," or a projecting outward of God. That is why everything that HeShe created and manifested is like HimHer. Projection, as undertaken by God, is very similar to the kind of inner radiance which the Children of the FatherMother inherit from HimHer. It is important to note that the term "project outward" necessarily implies that the real source of projection is internal. This is as true of the SonDaughter as of the FatherMother.

¹² The world, in the original connotation of the term, included both the proper manifested creation of the man or woman by God and the proper manifested creation by a man or woman in his or her right mind. The latter required the endowment of the man or woman by God with free will because all loving manifested creation is freely given. Nothing in these statements implies any sort of level involvement or in fact anything except one continuous line of manifested creation in which all aspects are of the same order.

¹³ When the "lies of the serpent" were introduced, they were specifically called "lies" because they are not true. When the man or woman listened, all he or she heard was untruth. He or she does not have to continue to believe what is not true unless he or she chooses to do so. All of his or her miscreationsmismanifestations can literally disappear in "the twinkling of an eye" because they are merely visual misperceptions. The man's or woman's Spiritual Eye can sleep, but a sleeping eye can still see. What is seen in dreams seems to be very real. The Bible mentions that "a deep sleep fell upon Adam and Eve," and nowhere is there any reference to his or her waking up.

¹⁴ The history of the man or woman in the world as he or she sees it has not yet been marked by any genuine or comprehensive reawakening or rebirth. This is impossible as long as a man or woman projects in the Spirit of miscreationmismanifestation. It still remains within him or her, however, to project as God projected HisHer own Spirit to him or her. In reality, this is his or her only choice because his or her free will was given him or her for his or her own joy in creatingmanifesting the perfect.

¹⁵ All fear is ultimately reducible to the basic misperception that a man or woman has the ability to usurp the power of God. It can only be emphasized that he or she neither can nor has been able to do this. In this fact lies the real justification for his or her escape from fear. The escape is brought about by his or her acceptance of the Atonement, which places him or her in a position to realize that his or her own errors never really occurred. When the "deep sleep" fell upon Adam and Eve, he and she was in a condition to experience nightmares because he and she was asleep. If a light is suddenly turned on while someone is dreaming a fearful dream, he or she may initially interpret the light itself as a part of his or her own dream and be afraid of it. However, when he or she awakens the light is correctly perceived as the release from the dream, which is no longer accorded reality.

¹⁶ It is quite apparent that this release does not depend on the kind of "knowledge" which is nothing more than deceiving lies. The knowledge which illuminates rather than obscures is the knowledge which not only sets you free, but which also shows you clearly that you are free. Whatever lies you may believe are of no concern to the miracle, which can heal any of them with equal ease. It makes no distinctions among misperceptions. Its sole concern is to distinguish between truth on the one hand and all kinds of errors on the other. Some miracles may seem to be of greater magnitude than others. But remember the first point in this course—that there is no order of difficulty in miracles.

¹⁷ In reality, you are perfectly unaffected by all expressions of lack of love. These can be either from yourself and others or from yourself to others or from others to you. Peace is an attribute in you. You cannot find it outside. All mental illness is some form of external searching. Mental health is inner peace. It enables you to remain unshaken by lack of love from without and capable through your own miracles of correcting the external conditions which proceed from lack of love in others.

II. The Reinterpretation of Defenses

¹⁸ When you are afraid of anything, you are acknowledging its power to hurt you. Remember that where your heart is, there is your treasure also. This means that you believe in what you value. If you are afraid, you are valuing wrongly. Human understanding will inevitably value wrongly and, by endowing all human thoughts with equal power, will inevitably destroy peace. That is why the Bible speaks of "the peace of God which passeth understanding." This peace is totally incapable of being shaken by human errors of any kind. It denies the ability of anything which is not of God to affect you in any way.

¹⁹ This is the proper use of denial. It is not used to hide anything but to correct error. It brings all error into the light, and since error and darkness are the same, it corrects error automatically. True denial is a powerful protective device. You can and should deny any belief that error can hurt you. This kind of denial is not a concealment device but a correction device. The "right mind" of the mentally healthy depends on it. You can do anything I ask. I have asked you to perform miracles and have made it clear that miracles are natural, corrective, healing, and universal. There is nothing good they cannot do, but they cannot be performed in the Spirit of doubt.

²⁰ God and the individual Spirits HeShe created and manifested are completely dependent on each other. The manifested creation of the individual Spirit has already been perfectly accomplished, but the manifested creation by individual Spirits has not. God created and manifested individual Spirits so HeShe could depend on them because HeShe created and manifested them perfectly. HeShe gave them HisHer peace so they could not be shaken and would be unable to be deceived. Whenever you are afraid, you are deceived. Your mind is not serving the Spirit. This literally starves the individual Spirit by denying its daily bread. God offers only mercy. Your words should reflect only mercy because that is what you have received, and that is what you should give.

²¹ Justice is a temporary expedient or an attempt to teach the man or woman the meaning of mercy. Its judgmental side arises only because a man or woman is capable of injustice if that is what his or her mind creates and manifests. You are afraid of God's Will because you have used your own will, which HeShe created and manifested in the likeness of HisHer own, to miscreatemismanifest. What you do not realize is that the mind can miscreatemismanifest only when it is not free. An imprisoned mind is not free by definition. It is possessed or held back by itself. Its will is therefore limited and is not free to assert itself. The real meaning of "are of one kind," which was mentioned before, is "are of one mind or will." When the will of the SonDaughtership and the FatherMother are one, their perfect accord is the Realm of God.

²² Denial of error is a powerful defense of truth. You will note that we have been shifting the emphasis from the negative to the positive use of denial. As we have already stated, denial is not a purely negative device; it results in positive miscreationmismanifestation. That is the way the mentally ill do employ it. But remember a very early thought of your own—"Never underestimate the power of denial." In the service of the "right mind," the denial of error frees the mind and reestablishes the freedom of the will. When the will is really free, it cannot miscreatemismanifest because it recognizes only truth.

²³ False projection arises out of false denial, not out of its proper use. My own role in the Atonement is one of true projection; I can project to you the affirmation of truth. If you project error to us or to yourself, you are interfering with the process. My use of projection, which can also be yours, is not based on faulty denial. It does involve, however, the very powerful use of the denial of errors. The miracle worker is one who accepts my kind of denial and projection, unites his or her own inherent abilities to deny and project with mine, and imposes them back on himself or herself and others. This establishes the total lack of threat anywhere. Together we can then work for the real time of peace, which is eternal.

²⁴ The improper use of defenses is quite widely recognized, but their proper use had not been sufficiently understood as yet. They can indeed create and manifest man's or woman's perception both of himself or herself and of the world. They can distort or correct depending on what you use them for.

- ²⁵ Denial should be directed only to error, and projection should be reserved only for truth. You should truly give as you have truly received. The Golden Rule can work effectively only on this basis.
- ²⁶ Intellectualization is a term which stems from the mind-brain confusion. "Right-mindedness" is the device which defends the right mind and gives it control over the body. "Intellectualization" implies a split, while "right-mindedness" involves healing.
- ²⁷ Withdrawal is properly employed in the service of withdrawing from the meaningless. It is not a device for escape, but for consolidation. There is only One Mind.
- ²⁸ Dissociation is quite similar. You should split off or dissociate yourself from error but only in defense of integration.
- ²⁹ Detachment is essentially a weaker form of dissociation.
- ³⁰ Flight can be undertaken in whatever direction you choose, but note that the concept itself implies flight from something. Flight from error is perfectly appropriate.
- ³¹ Distantiation can be properly used as a way of putting distance between yourself and what you should fly from.
- ³² Regression is an effort to return to your own original state. It can thus be utilized to restore, rather than to go back to the less mature.
- ³³ Sublimation should be a redirection of effort to the sublime.
- ³⁴ There are the many other so-called "dynamic" concepts which are profound errors due essentially to the misuse of defenses. Among them is the concept of different levels of aspiration, which actually result from level confusion. However, the main point to be understood from this section is that you can defend truth as well as error and, in fact, much better.
- ³⁵ The means are easier to clarify after the value of the goal itself is firmly established. Everyone defends his or her own treasure. You do not have to tell him or her to do so because he or she will do it automatically. The real questions still remain. What do you treasure, and how much do you treasure it? Once you have learned to consider these two questions and to bring them into all your actions as the true criteria for behavior, I will have little difficulty in clarifying the means. You have not learned to be consistent about this as yet. I have therefore concentrated on showing you that the means are available whenever you ask. You can, however, save a lot of time if you do not extend this step unduly. The correct focus will shorten it immeasurably.

³⁶ The Atonement is the only defense which cannot be used destructively. That is because, while everyone must eventually join it, it is not a device which was generated by a man or woman. The Atonement principle was in effect long before the Atonement itself began. The principle was love, and the Atonement itself was an act of love. Acts were not necessary before the separation because the time-space belief did not exist. It was only after the separation that the defense of Atonement and the necessary conditions for its fulfillment were planned.

³⁷ It became increasingly apparent that all of the defenses which a man or woman can choose to use constructively or destructively were not enough to save him or her. It was therefore decided that he or she needed a defense which was so splendid that he or she could not misuse it, although he or she could refuse it. His or her choice could not, however, turn it into a weapon of attack, which is the inherent characteristic of all other defenses. The Atonement thus becomes the only defense which is not a two-edged sword.

³⁸ The Atonement actually began long before the crucifixion. Many individual Spirits offered their efforts on behalf of the separated ones, but they could not withstand the strength of the attack and had to be brought back. Angels came, too, but their protection did not suffice because the separated ones were not interested in peace. They had already split their minds and were bent on further dividing rather than reintegrating. The levels they introduced into their minds turned against each other, and they established differences, divisions, cleavages, dispersions, and all the other concepts related to the increasing splits which they produced.

³⁹ Not being in their right minds, they turned their defenses from protection to assault and acted literally insanely. It was essential to introduce a split-proof device which could be used only to heal, if it were used at all. The Atonement was built into the space-time belief in order to set a limit on the need for the belief and ultimately to make learning complete. The Atonement is the final lesson. Learning itself, like the classrooms in which it occurs, is temporary. The ability to learn has no value when change of understanding is no longer necessary. The eternally creative and manifestive have nothing to learn. Only after the separation was it necessary to direct the creative and manifestive forces to learning because changed behavior had become mandatory.

⁴⁰ Men or women can learn to improve their behavior and can also learn to become better and better learners. This serves to bring them into closer and closer accord with the SonDaughtership, but the SonDaughtership itself is a perfect manifested creation, and perfection is not a matter of degree. Only while there are different degrees is learning meaningful. The "evolution" of the man or woman is merely a process by which he or she proceeds from one degree to the next. He or she corrects his or her previous missteps by stepping forward. This represents a process which is actually incomprehensible in temporal terms because he or she returns as he or she goes forward.

⁴¹ The Atonement is the device by which he or she can free himself or herself from the past as he or she goes ahead. It undoes his or her past errors, thus making it unnecessary for him or her to keep retracing his or her steps without advancing to his or her return. In this sense the Atonement saves time but, like the miracle which serves it, does not abolish it. As long as there is need for Atonement, there is need for time. But the Atonement as a completed plan does have a unique relationship to time. Until the Atonement is finished, its various phases will proceed in time, but the whole Atonement stands at time's end. At this point, the bridge of the return has been built.

⁴² The Atonement is a total commitment. You still think this is associated with loss. This is the same mistake all the separated ones make in one way or another. They cannot believe that a defense which cannot attack is the best defense. This is what is meant by "the meek shall inherit the earth." They will literally take it over because of their strength. A two-way defense is inherently weak precisely because it has two edges and can turn against the self very unexpectedly. This tendency cannot be controlled except by miracles.

⁴³ The miracle turns the defense of Atonement to the protection of the inner self, which, as it becomes more and more secure, assumes its natural talent of protecting others. The inner self knows itself as both a brother or sister and a SonDaughter. You know that when defenses are disrupted, there is a period of real disorientation accompanied by fear, guilt, and usually vacillations between anxiety and depression. This course is different in that defenses are not being disrupted but reinterpreted, even though you may experience it as the same thing. In the reinterpretation of defenses, only their use for attack is lost. Since this means they can be used only one way, they become much stronger and much more dependable. They no longer oppose the Atonement but greatly facilitate it.

⁴⁴ The Atonement can only be accepted within you. You have perceived it largely as external thus far, and that is why your experience of it has been minimal. The reinterpretation of defenses is essential in releasing the inner light. Since the separation, man's or woman's defenses have been used almost entirely to defend himself or herself against the Atonement and thus maintain the separation. They themselves generally see this as a need to protect the body. The many body fantasies with which men's or women's minds are engaged arise from the distorted belief that the body can be used as a means for attaining "atonement."

⁴⁵ Perceiving the body as a temple is only the first step in correcting this kind of distortion. It alters part of the misperception but not all of it. It does recognize, however, that the concept of Atonement in physical terms is not appropriate. However, the next step is to realize that a temple is not a building at all. Its real holiness lies in the inner altar around which the building is built. The inappropriate emphasis men or women have put on beautiful church buildings is a sign of their fear of Atonement and their unwillingness to reach the altar itself. The real beauty of the temple cannot be seen with the physical eye. The Spiritual eye, on the other hand, cannot see the building at all because it has perfect sight. It can, however, see the altar with perfect clarity.

⁴⁶ For perfect effectiveness, the Atonement belongs at the center of the inner altar, where it undoes the separation and restores the wholeness of the mind. Before the separation, the mind was invulnerable to fear because fear did not exist. Both the separation and the fear are miscreations/mismanifestations of the mind which must be undone. This is what is meant by "the restoration of the temple." It does not mean the restoration of the building but the opening of the altar to receive the Atonement. This heals the separation and places within a man or woman the one defense against all separation mind-errors which can make him or her perfectly invulnerable.

⁴⁷ The acceptance of the Atonement by everyone is only a matter of time. In fact, both time and matter were created and manifested for this purpose. This appears to contradict free will because of the inevitability of the final decision. If you review the idea carefully, however, you will realize that this is not true. Everything is limited in some way by the man or woman of its manifested creation. Free will can temporize and is capable of enormous procrastination. But it cannot depart entirely from its Creator/Manifestor, Who set the limits on its ability to miscreate/mismanifest by virtue of its own real purpose.

⁴⁸ The misuse of will engenders a situation which in the extreme becomes altogether intolerable. Pain thresholds can be high, but they are not limitless. Eventually everyone begins to recognize, however dimly, that there must be a better way. As this recognition becomes more firmly established, it becomes a perceptual turning-point. This ultimately reawakens the Spiritual eye, simultaneously weakening the investment in physical sight. The alternating investment in the two types or levels of perception is usually experienced as conflict for a long time and can become very acute, but the outcome is as certain as God.

⁴⁹ The Spiritual eye literally cannot see error and merely looks for Atonement. All the solutions which the physical eyes seek dissolve in its sight. The Spiritual eye, which looks within, recognizes immediately that the altar has been defiled and needs to be repaired and protected. Perfectly aware of the right defense, It passes over all others, looking past error to truth. Because of the real strength of Its vision, It pulls the will into Its service and impels the mind to concur. This reestablishes the true power of the will and makes it increasingly unable to tolerate delay. The mind then realizes with increasing certainty that delay is only a way of increasing unnecessary pain, which it need not tolerate at all. The pain threshold drops accordingly, and the mind becomes increasingly sensitive to what it would once have regarded as very minor intrusions of discomfort.

⁵⁰ The Children of God are entitled to perfect comfort, which comes from a sense of perfect trust. Until they achieve this, they waste themselves and their true creative and manifestive powers on useless attempts to make themselves more comfortable by inappropriate means. But the real means is already provided and does not involve any effort at all on their part. Their egocentricity usually misperceives this as personally insulting, an interpretation which obviously arises from their misperception of themselves. Egocentricity and communion cannot coexist. Even the terms are contradictory.

⁵¹ The Atonement is the only gift that is worthy of being offered to the altar of God. This is because of the inestimable value of the altar itself. It was created and manifested perfect and is entirely worthy of receiving perfection. God is lonely without HisHer individual Spirits, and they are lonely without HimHer. Men or women must learn to perceive the world as a means of healing the separation. The Atonement is the guarantee that they will ultimately succeed.

III. Healing as Release from Fear

⁵² The emphasis will now be on healing. The miracle is the means, the Atonement is the principle, and healing is the result. Those who speak of "a miracle of healing" are combining two orders of reality inappropriately. Healing is not a miracle. The Atonement or the final miracle is a remedy, while any type of healing is a result. The kind of error to which Atonement is applied is irrelevant. Essentially, all healing is the release from fear. To undertake this, you cannot be fearful yourself. You do not understand healing because of your own fear.

⁵³ A major step in the Atonement plan is to undo error at all levels. Illness, which is really "not-right-mindedness," is the result of level confusion in the sense that it always entails the belief that what is amiss in one level can adversely affect another. We have constantly referred to miracles as the means of correcting level confusion, and all mistakes must be corrected at the level on which they occur. Only the mind is capable of error. The body can act erroneously, but this is only because it is responding to mis-thought. The body cannot create and manifest, and the belief that it can, a fundamental error, produces all physical symptoms.

⁵⁴ All physical illness represents a belief in magic. The whole distortion which created and manifested magic rests on the belief that there is a creative and manifestive ability in matter which the mind cannot control. This error can take two forms—it can be believed that the mind can miscreatemismanifest in the body or that the body can miscreatemismanifest in the mind. If it is understood that the mind, which is the only level of manifested creation, cannot create and manifest beyond itself, neither type of confusion need occur.

⁵⁵ The reason only the mind can create and manifest is more obvious than may be immediately apparent. The individual Spirit has been created and manifested. The body is a learning device for the mind. Learning devices are not lessons in themselves. Their purpose is merely to facilitate the thinking of the learner. The most that a faulty use of a learning device can do is to fail to facilitate learning. It has no power in itself to introduce actual learning errors.

⁵⁶ The body, if properly understood, shares the invulnerability of the Atonement to two-edged application. This is not because the body is a miracle but because it is not inherently open to misinterpretation. The body is merely a fact in human experience. Its abilities can be and frequently are over-evaluated. However, it is almost impossible to deny its existence. Those who do so are engaging in a particularly unworthy form of denial. The term "unworthy" here implies simply that it is not necessary to protect the mind by denying the unmindful. [There is little doubt that the mind can miscreatemismanifest.] If one denies this unfortunate aspect of the mind's power, one is also denying the power itself.

⁵⁷ All material means which a man or woman accepts as remedies for bodily ills are merely restatements of magic principles. It was the first level of the error to believe that the body created and manifested its own illness. It is a second misstep to attempt to heal it through non-creativenon-manifestive agents. It does not follow, however, that the use of these very weak corrective devices is evil. Sometimes the illness has a sufficiently great hold over a mind to render a personal inaccessible to Atonement. In this case it may be wise to utilize a compromise approach to mind and body, in which something from the outside is temporarily given healing belief.

⁵⁸ This is because the last thing that can help the non-right-minded, or the sick, is an increase in fear. They are already in a fear-weakened state. If they are inappropriately exposed to an "undiluted" miracle, they may be precipitated into panic. This is particularly likely to occur when upside-down perception has induced the belief that miracles are frightening.

⁵⁹ The value of the Atonement does not lie in manner in which it is expressed. In fact, if it is truly used, it will inevitably be expressed in whatever way is most helpful to the receiver, [not the giver]. This means that a miracle, to attain its full efficacy, must be expressed in a language which the recipient can understand without fear. It does not follow by any means that this is the highest level of communication of which he or she is capable. It does mean, however, that it is the highest level of communication of which he or she is capable now. The whole aim of the miracle is to raise the level of communication, not to impose regression in the improper sense upon it.

⁶⁰ Before miracle workers are ready to undertake their function in this world, it is essential that they fully understand the fear of release. Otherwise, they may unwittingly foster the belief that release is imprisonment, a belief that is very prevalent. This misperception arose from the underlying misbelief that harm can be limited to the body. This was because of the much greater fear that the mind can hurt itself. Neither error is really meaningful because the miscreations/mismanifestations of the mind do not really exist. This recognition is a far better protective device than any form of level confusion because it introduces correction at the level of the error.

⁶¹ It is essential to remember that only the mind can create and manifest. Implicit in this is the corollary that correction belongs at the thought level. To repeat an earlier statement and to extend it somewhat, the individual Spirit is already perfect and therefore does not require correction. The body does not really exist except as a learning device for the mind. This learning device is not subject to errors of its own because it was created and manifested but is not creating/manifesting. It should be obvious, then, that correcting the creator/manifestor or inducing it to give up its miscreations/mismanifestations is the only application of creative and manifestive ability which is truly meaningful.

⁶² Magic is essentially mindless or the miscreativemismanifestive use of the mind. Physical medications are forms of "spells." Those who are afraid to use the mind to heal should not attempt to do so. The very fact that they are afraid has made them vulnerable to miscreationmismanifestation. They are therefore likely to misunderstand any healing they might induce and, because egocentricity and fear usually occur together, may be unable to accept the real Source of the healing. Under these conditions, it is safer for them to rely temporarily on physical healing devices because they cannot misperceive them as their own creationsmanifestations. As long as their sense of vulnerability persists, they should be preserved from even attempting miracles.

⁶³ We have already said that the miracle is an expression of miracle-mindedness. Miracle-mindedness merely means right-mindedness in the sense that we are now using it. The right-minded neither exalt nor depreciate the mind of the miracle worker or the miracle receiver. However, as a creative and manifestive act, the miracle need not await the right-mindedness of the receiver. In fact, its purpose is to restore him or her to his or her right mind. It is essential, however, that the miracle worker be in his or her right mind or he or she will be unable to reestablish right-mindedness in someone else.

⁶⁴ The healer who relies on his or her own readiness is endangering his or her understanding. He or she is perfectly safe as long as he or she is completely unconcerned about his or her readiness but maintains a consistent trust in mine. If your miracle working propensities are not functioning properly, it is always because fear has intruded on your right-mindedness and has literally upset it. All forms of not-right-mindedness are the result of refusal to accept the Atonement for yourself. If the miracle worker does accept it, he or she places himself or herself in a position to recognize that those who need to be healed are simply those who have not realized that right-mindedness is healing.

⁶⁵ The sole responsibility of the miracle worker is to accept the Atonement for himself or herself. This means that he or she recognizes that mind is the only creative and manifestive level and that its errors are healed by the Atonement. Once he or she accepts this, his or her mind can only heal. By denying his or her mind any destructive potential and reinstating its purely constructive powers, he or she has placed himself or herself in a position where he or she can undo the level confusion of others. The message he or she then gives to others is the truth that their minds are similarly constructive and that their miscreationsmismanifestations cannot hurt them. By affirming this, the miracle worker releases the mind from over-evaluating its own learning device (the body) and restores the mind to its true position as the learner.

⁶⁶ It should be emphasized again that the body does not learn any more than it creates and manifests. As a learning device, it merely follows the learner, but if it is falsely endowed with self-initiative, it becomes a serious obstruction to the very learning it should facilitate. Only the mind is capable of illumination. The individual Spirit is already illuminated, and the body in itself is too dense. The mind, however, can bring its illumination to the body by recognizing that density is the opposite of intelligence and therefore unamenable to independent learning. It is, however, easily brought into alignment with a mind which has learned to look beyond density toward light.

⁶⁷ Corrective learning always begins with the awakening of the Spiritual eye and the turning away from the belief in physical sight. The reason this so often entails fear is because the man or woman is afraid of what his or her Spiritual eye will see. We said before that the Spiritual eye cannot see error and is capable only of looking beyond it to the defense of Atonement. There is no doubt that the Spiritual eye does produce extreme discomfort by what it sees. Yet what the man or woman forgets is that the discomfort is not the final outcome of its perception. When the Spiritual eye is permitted to look upon the defilement of the altar, it also looks immediately toward the Atonement.

⁶⁸ Nothing the Spiritual eye perceives can induce fear. Everything that results from accurate Spiritual awareness is merely channelized toward correction. Discomfort is aroused only to bring the need for correction forcibly into awareness. What the physical eye sees is not corrective nor can it be corrected by any device which can be seen physically. As long as a man or woman believes in what his or her physical sight tells him or her, all his or her corrective behavior will be misdirected. The real vision is obscured because the man or woman cannot endure to see his or her own defiled altar. But since the altar has been defiled, his or her state becomes doubly dangerous unless it is perceived.

⁶⁹ The fear of healing arises, in the end, from an unwillingness to accept the unequivocal fact that healing is necessary. The man or woman is not willing to look on what he or she has done to himself or herself. Healing is an ability lent to the man or woman after the separation, before which it was completely unnecessary. Like all aspects of the space-time belief, healing ability is temporary. However, as long as time persists, healing is needed as a means for human protection. This is because healing rests on charity, and charity is a way of perceiving the perfection of another even if he or she cannot perceive it himself or herself.

⁷⁰ Most of the loftier concepts of which a man or woman is capable now are time-dependent. Charity is really a weaker reflection of a much more powerful love-encompassment which is far beyond any form of charity that a man or woman can conceive of as yet. Charity is essential to right-mindedness in the limited sense in which right-mindedness can now be attained. Charity is a way of looking at another as if he or she had already gone far beyond his or her actual accomplishments in time. Since his or her own thinking is faulty, he or she cannot see the Atonement for himself or herself or he or she would have no need for charity. The charity which is accorded him or her is both an acknowledgment that he or she is weak and a recognition that he or she could be stronger.

⁷¹ The way in which both of these perceptions are stated clearly implies their dependence on time, making it quite apparent that charity lies within man's or woman's limitations, though toward its higher levels. We said before that only revelation transcends time. The miracle, as an expression of true human charity, can only shorten time at most. It must be understood, however, that whenever a man or woman offers a miracle to another, he or she is shortening the suffering of both. This introduces a correction into the whole record which corrects retroactively as well as progressively.

IV. Fear as Lack of Love

⁷² You believe that "being afraid" is involuntary, something beyond your control. Yet I have told you several times that only constructive acts should be involuntary. We have said that Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-control can take over everything that does not matter, while Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-guidance can direct everything that does if you so choose. Fear cannot be Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness-controlled, but it can be self-controlled. It prevents me from controlling it. The correction is therefore a matter of your will because its presence shows that you have raised the unimportant to a higher level than it warrants. You have thus brought it under your will, where it does not belong. This means that you feel responsible for it. The level confusion here is obvious.

⁷³ The reason I cannot control fear for you is that you are attempting to raise to the mind level the proper content of lower-order reality. I do not foster level confusion, but you can choose to correct it. You would not tolerate insane behavior on your part and would hardly advance the excuse that you could not help it. Why should you tolerate insane thinking? There is a confusion here which you would do well to look at clearly. You believe that you are responsible for what you do but not for what you think. The truth is that you are responsible for what you think because it is only at this level that you can exercise choice.

⁷⁴ What you do comes from what you think. You cannot separate yourself from the truth by "giving" autonomy to behavior. This is controlled by me automatically as soon as you place what you think under our guidance. Whenever you are afraid, it is a sure sign that you have allowed your mind to miscreatemismanifest or have not allowed me to guide it. It is pointless to believe that controlling the outcome of mis-thought can result in healing. When you are fearful you have willed wrongly. This is why you feel responsible for it. You must change your mind, not your behavior, and this is a matter of will.

⁷⁵ You do not need guidance except at the mind level. Correction belongs only at the level where manifested creation is possible. The term does not mean anything at the symptom level, where it cannot work. The correction of fear is your responsibility. When you ask for release from fear, you are implying that it is not. You should ask instead for help in the conditions which have brought the fear about. These conditions always entail a separated mind willingness. At that level, you can help it. You are much too tolerant of mind wandering, thus passively condoning its miscreationsmismanifestations. The particular result does not matter, but the fundamental error does. The correction is always the same. Before you will to do anything, ask me if your will is in accord with mine. If you are sure that it is, there will be no fear.

⁷⁶ Fear is always a sign of strain, which arises whenever the will to do conflicts with what you do. This situation arises in two ways:

⁷⁷ First, you can will to do conflicting things, either simultaneously or successively. This produces conflicted behavior, which is intolerable to yourself because the part of the will that wants to do something else is outraged.

⁷⁸ Second, you can behave as you think you should but without entirely willing to do so. This produces consistent behavior but entails great strain within the self.

⁷⁹ In both cases, the will and the behavior are out of accord, resulting in a situation in which you are doing what you do not will. This arouses a sense of coercion, which usually produces rage. The rage then invades the mind and projection in the wrong sense is likely to follow. Depression or anxiety is virtually certain.

⁸⁰ Remember that whenever there is fear, it is because you have not made up your mind. Your will is split, and your behavior inevitably becomes erratic. Correcting at the behavioral level can shift the error from the first to the second type of strain described above but will not obliterate the fear. It is possible to reach a state in which you bring your will under my guidance without much conscious effort, but this implies habit patterns which you have not developed dependably as yet. God cannot ask more than you will. The strength to do comes from your own undivided will to do. There is no strain in doing God's Will as soon as you recognize that it is also your own.

⁸¹ The lesson here is quite simple but particularly apt to be overlooked. I will therefore repeat it, urging you to listen. Only your mind can produce fear. It does so whenever it is conflicted in what it wills, thus producing inevitable strain because willing and doing become discordant. This cannot be corrected by better doing, but it can be corrected by higher willing.

V. The Correction for Lack of Love

⁸² The first corrective step is know first that this is an expression of fear. Then say to yourself that you must somehow have willed not to love, or the fear which arises from behavior-will conflict could not have arisen. Then the whole process is nothing more than a series of pragmatic steps in the larger process of accepting the Atonement as the remedy. These steps can be summarized as follows:

⁸³ 1. Know first that this is fear.

⁸⁴ 2. Fear arises from lack of love.

⁸⁵ 3. The only remedy for lack of love is perfect love.

⁸⁶ 4. Perfect love is the Atonement.

⁸⁷ We have emphasized that the miracle, or the expression of Atonement, is always a sign of real respect from the worthy to the worthy. This worth is re-established by the Atonement. It is obvious then that when you are afraid, you have placed yourself in a position where you need Atonement because you have done something loveless, having willed without love. This is precisely the situation for which the Atonement was offered. The need for the remedy inspired its manifested creation. As long as you recognize only the need for the remedy, you will remain fearful. However, as soon as you remedy it, you have also abolished the fear. This is how true healing occurs.

⁸⁸ Everyone experiences fear, and no one enjoys it. Yet it would take very little right-thinking to realize why fear occurs. Very few people appreciate the real power of the mind, and no one remains fully aware of it all the time. However, if anyone hopes to spare himself or herself from fear, there are some things he or she must realize and realize fully. The mind is a very powerful creatormanifestor, and it never loses its creative and manifestive force. It never sleeps. Every instant it is creatingmanifesting and always as you will. Many of your ordinary expressions reflect this. For example, when you say, "Don't give it a thought," you imply that if you do not think about something, it will have no effect on you. And this is true enough.

⁸⁹ On the other hand, the many other expressions clearly illustrate the prevailing lack of awareness of thought-power. For example, you say, "Just an idle thought," and mean that the thought has no effect. You also speak of some actions as "thoughtless," implying that if the personal had thought, he or she would not behave as he or she did. While expressions like "think big" give some recognition to the power of thought, they still come nowhere near the truth. You do not expect to grow when you say it because you do not really think that you will.

⁹⁰ It is hard to recognize that thought and belief combine into a power surge that can literally move mountains. It appears at first glance that to believe such power about yourself is merely arrogant, but that is not the real reason why you do not believe it. People prefer to believe that their thoughts cannot exert real control because they are literally afraid of them. Many psychotherapists attempt to help people who are afraid, say, of their death wishes by depreciating the power of the wish. They even try to "free" the patient by persuading him or her that he or she can think whatever he or she wants without any real effect at all.

⁹¹ There is a real dilemma here which only the truly right-minded can escape. Death wishes do not kill in the physical sense, but they do kill Spiritual awareness. All destructive thinking is dangerous. Given a death wish, a man or woman has no choice except to act upon the thought or behave contrary to it. He or she thus chooses only between homicide and fear. The other possibility is that he or she depreciates the power of his or her thought. This is the usual psychoanalytic approach. It does allay guilt but at the cost of rendering thinking impotent. If you believe that what you think is ineffectual you may cease to be overly afraid of it, but you are hardly likely to respect it.

⁹² The world is full of examples of how the man or woman has depreciated himself or herself because he or she is afraid of his or her own thoughts. In some forms of insanity, thoughts are glorified, but this is only because the underlying depreciation was too effective for tolerance. The truth is that there are no "idle" thoughts. All thinking produces form at some level. The reason people are afraid of ESP and so often react against it is because they know that thoughts can hurt them. Their own thoughts have made them vulnerable.

⁹³ You who constantly complain about fear still persist in creating/manifesting it. I told you before that you cannot ask me to release you from fear because I know it does not exist, but you do not. If I merely intervened between your thoughts and their results, I would be tampering with a basic law of cause and effect, the most fundamental law there is in this world. I would hardly help if I depreciated the power of your own thinking. This would be in direct opposition to the purpose of this course. It is much more helpful to remind you that you do not guard your thoughts carefully except for a small part of the day and somewhat inconsistently even then. You may feel at this point that it would take a miracle to enable you to do this, which is perfectly true.

⁹⁴ Men or women are not used to miraculous thinking, but they can be trained to think that way. All miracle workers need that kind of training. I cannot let them leave their minds unguarded, or they will not be able to help me. Miracle working entails a full realization of the power of thought and real avoidance of miscreation/mismanifestation. Otherwise, a miracle will be necessary to set the mind itself straight, a circular process which would hardly foster the time collapse for which the miracle was intended. Nor would it induce the healthy respect for true cause and effect which every miracle worker must have.

⁹⁵ [Miracles cannot free the miracle worker from fear.] Both miracles and fear come from thoughts, and if you were not free to choose one, you would also not be free to choose the other. By choosing the miracle, you have rejected fear. You have been afraid of God, of me, of yourselves, and of practically everyone you know at one time or another. This is because you have misperceived or miscreated/mismanifested me and believe in what you have made. You would never have done this if you were not afraid of your own thoughts. The vulnerable are essentially miscreators/mismanifestors because they misperceive manifested creation.

⁹⁶ You persist in believing that when you do not consciously watch your mind, it is unmindful. It is time, however, to consider the whole world of the unconscious or "unwatched" mind. This may well frighten you because it is the source of fear. The unwatched mind is responsible for the whole content of the unconscious which lies above the miracle level. All psychoanalytic theorists have made some contribution in this connection, but none of them has seen it in its true entirety. They have all made one common error in that they attempted to uncover unconscious content. You cannot understand unconscious activity in these terms because "content" is applicable only to the more superficial unconscious levels, to which the individual himself or herself contributes. This is the level at which he or she can readily introduce fear and usually does.

⁹⁷ When man or woman miscreates/mismanifests he or she is in pain. The cause and effect principle here is temporarily a real expediter. Actually, "Cause" is a term properly belonging to God, and "Effect," which should also be capitalized, is His/Her Son/Daughter. This entails a set of Cause and Effect relationships which are totally different from those which the man or woman introduced into his or her own miscreations/mismanifestations. The fundamental opponents in the real basic conflict are manifested creation and miscreation/mismanifestation. All fear is implicit in the second, just as all love is inherent in the first. Because of this difference, the basic conflict is one between love and fear.

⁹⁸ It has already been said that the man or woman believes he or she cannot control fear because he or she himself or herself created and manifested it. His or her belief in it seems to render it out of his or her control by definition. Yet any attempt to resolve the basic conflict through the concept of mastery of fear is meaningless. In fact it asserts the power of fear by the simple assumption that it need be mastered. The essential resolution rests entirely on the mastery of love. In the interim, the sense of conflict is inevitable since the man or woman has placed himself or herself in a strangely illogical position. He or she believes in the power of what does not exist.

⁹⁹ Two concepts which cannot coexist are "nothing" and "everything." To whatever extent one is believed in, the other has been denied. In the conflict fear is really nothing, and love is everything. This is because whenever light enters darkness, the darkness is abolished. What a man or woman believes is true for him or her. In this sense the separation has occurred, and to deny this is merely to misuse denial. However, to concentrate on error is merely a further misuse of defenses. The true corrective procedure is to recognize error temporarily but only as an indication that immediate correction is mandatory. This establishes a state of mind in which the Atonement can be accepted without delay.

¹⁰⁰ It should be emphasized, however, that ultimately there is no compromise possible between everything and nothing. Time is essentially a device by which all compromise in this respect can be given up. It seems to be abolished by degrees because time itself involves a concept of intervals which do not really exist. The faulty use of manifested creation made this necessary as a corrective device. "And God so loved the world that He/She gave His/Her only begotten Son/Daughter that whosoever believeth in him/her shall not perish, but have eternal life" needs only one slight correction to be entirely meaningful in this context. It should read, "He gave it to HisHer only begotten SonDaughter."

¹⁰¹ It should especially be noted that God has only one SonDaughter. If all the individual Spirits God created and manifested are HisHer SonDaughters, then every individual Spirit must be an integral part of the whole SonDaughtership. You do not find the concept that the whole is greater than its parts difficult to understand. You should therefore not have too much trouble in understanding this.

¹⁰² The SonDaughtership in its oneness does transcend the sum of its parts. However, this is obscured as long as any of its parts are missing. That is why the conflict cannot ultimately be resolved until all the parts of the SonDaughtership have returned. Only then can the meaning of wholeness, in the true sense, be fully understood.

¹⁰³ Any part of the SonDaughtership can believe in error or incompleteness if he or she so elects. However, if he or she does so, he or she is believing in the existence of nothingness. The correction of this error is the Atonement. We have already briefly spoken about readiness, but there are some additional points which might be helpful here. Readiness is nothing more than the prerequisite for accomplishment. The two should not be confused. As soon as a state of readiness occurs, there is usually some will to accomplish, but this is by no means necessarily undivided. The state does not imply more than a potential for a shift of will.

¹⁰⁴ Confidence cannot develop fully until mastery has been accomplished. We have already attempted to correct the fundamental error that fear can be mastered and have emphasized that only love can be mastered. You have attested only to your readiness. Mastery of love involves a much more complete confidence than either of you has attained. However, the readiness at least is an indication that you believe this is possible. That is only the beginning of confidence. In case this be misunderstood to imply that an enormous amount of time will be necessary between readiness and mastery, let me remind you that time and space are under my control.

¹⁰⁵ One of the chief ways in which a man or woman can correct his or her magic-miracle confusion is to remember that he or she did not create and manifest himself or herself. He or she is apt to forget this when he or she becomes egocentric, and this places him or her in a position where the belief in magic in some form is virtually inevitable. His or her will to create and manifest was given him or her by his or her own CreatorManifestor, Who was expressing the same will in HisHer manifested creation. Since creative and manifestive ability rests in the mind, everything that man or woman creates and manifests is necessarily a matter of will. It also follows that whatever he or she creates and manifests is real in his or her own sight but not necessarily in the sight of God. This basic distinction leads us directly into the real meaning of the Last Judgment.

VI. The Meaning of the Last Judgment

¹⁰⁶ The Last Judgment is one of the greatest threat concepts in the man or woman's perception. This is only because he or she does not understand it. Judgment is not an essential attribute of God. The man or woman brought judgment into being only because of the separation. After the separation, however, there was a place for judgment as one of the many learning devices which had to be built into the overall plan. Just as the separation occurred over the many millions of years, the Last Judgment will extend over a similarly long period and perhaps an even longer one. Its length depends, however, on the effectiveness of the present speed-up.

¹⁰⁷ We have frequently noted that the miracle is a device for shortening but not abolishing time. If a sufficient number of people become truly miracle-minded quickly, the shortening process can be almost immeasurable. It is essential, however, that these individuals free themselves from fear sooner than would ordinarily be the case because they must emerge from the conflict if they are to bring peace to other minds.

¹⁰⁸ The Last Judgment is generally thought of as a procedure undertaken by God. Actually it will be undertaken by the man or woman with my help. It is a final healing rather than a meting out of punishment, however much a man or woman may think that punishment is deserved. Punishment is a concept in total opposition to right-mindedness. The aim of the Last Judgment is to restore right-mindedness to man or woman.

¹⁰⁹ The Last Judgment might be called a process of right evaluation. It simply means that finally all men or women will come to understand what is worthy and what is not. After this, their ability to choose can be directed reasonably. Until this distinction is made, however, the vacillations between free and imprisoned will cannot but continue. The first step toward freedom must entail a sorting out of the false from the true. This is a process of division only in the constructive sense and reflects the true meaning of the Apocalypse. The man or woman will ultimately look upon his or her own creations/manifestations and will to preserve only what is good, just as God Him/Herself looked upon what He/She had created and manifested and knew that it was good.

¹¹⁰ At this point, the will can begin to look with love on its own creationsmanifestations because of their great worthiness. The mind will inevitably disown its miscreationsmismanifestations which, without the mind's belief, will no longer exist. The term "Last Judgment" is frightening not only because it has been falsely projected onto God, but also because of the association of "last" with death. This is an outstanding example of upside-down perception. Actually, if the meaning of the Last Judgment is objectively examined, it is quite apparent that it is really the doorway to life.

¹¹¹ No one who lives in fear is really alive. His or her own last judgment cannot be directed toward himself or herself because he or she is not his or her own manifested creation. He or she can, however, apply it meaningfully and at any time to everything he or she has created and manifested and retain in his or her memory only what is good. This is what his or her right-mindedness cannot but dictate. The purpose of time is solely to "give him or her time" to achieve this judgment. It is his or her own perfect judgment of his or her own creationsmanifestations. When everything he or she retains is loveable, there is no reason for fear to remain with him or her. This is his or her part in the Atonement.

Chapter Three:

Retraining the Mind

I. Introduction

¹ This is a course in mind training. All learning involves attention and study at some level. Some of the later parts of the course rest too heavily on these earlier sections not to require their study. You will also need them for preparation. Without this, you may become much too fearful when the unexpected does occur to make constructive use of it. However, as you study these earlier sections, you will begin to see some of their implications, which will be amplified considerably later on.

² The reason a solid foundation is necessary is because of the confusion between fear and awe to which we have already referred and which so the many people hold. You will remember that we said that awe is inappropriate in connection with the SonsDaughters of God because you should not experience awe in the presence of your equals. However, it was also emphasized that awe is a proper reaction in the Presence of your CreatorManifestor. I have been careful to clarify my own role in the Atonement, without either over- or understating it. I have also tried to do the same in connection with yours. I have stressed that awe is not an appropriate reaction to me because of our inherent equality.

³ Some of the later steps in this course, however, do involve a more direct approach to God HimHerself. It would be most unwise to start on these steps without careful preparation or awe will be confused with fear, and the experience will be more traumatic than beatific. Healing is of God in the end. The means are being carefully explained to you. Revelation may occasionally reveal the end to you, but to reach it the means are needed.

II. Special Principles For Miracle Workers

1. ⁴ The miracle abolishes the need for lower-order concerns. Since it is an out-of-pattern time interval, the ordinary considerations of time and space do not apply. When you perform a miracle, I will arrange both time and space to adjust to it.

2. ⁵ Clear distinction between what has been created and manifested and what is being created and manifested is essential. All forms of correction (or healing) rest on this fundamental correction in level perception.

3. ⁶ Another way of stating the above point is: Never confuse right-with wrong-mindedness. Responding to any form of miscreationmismanifestation with anything except a desire to heal (or a miracle) is an expression of this confusion.

4. ⁷ The miracle is always a denial of this error and an affirmation of the truth. Only right-mindedness can create and manifest in a way that has any real effect. Pragmatically, what has no real effect has no real existence. Its effect, then, is emptiness. Being without substantial content, it lends itself to projection in the improper sense.

5. ⁸ The level-adjustment power of the miracle induces the right perception for healing. Until this has occurred, healing cannot be understood. Forgiveness is an empty gesture unless it entails correction. Without this it is essentially judgmental rather than healing.

6. ⁹ Miraculous forgiveness is only correction. It has no element of judgment at all. "FatherMother forgive them for they know not what they do" in no way evaluates what they do. It is strictly limited to an appeal to God to heal their minds. There is no reference to the outcome of their mis-thought. That does not matter.

7. ¹⁰ The biblical injunction, "Be of one mind" is the statement for revelation-readiness. My own injunction, "Do this in remembrance of me" is the request for cooperation from miracle workers. It should be noted that the two statements are not in the same order of reality. The latter involves a time awareness since to remember implies recalling the past in the present. Time is under my direction, but Timelessness belongs to God alone. In time we exist for and with each other. In Timelessness we coexist with God.

III. Atonement Without Sacrifice

¹¹ There is another point which must be perfectly clear before any residual fear which may still be associated with miracles becomes entirely groundless. The crucifixion did not establish the Atonement. The resurrection did. This is a point which the many very sincere Christians have misunderstood. No one who is free of the scarcity-error could possibly make this mistake. If the crucifixion is seen from an upside-down point of view, it does appear as if God permitted and even encouraged one of HisHer SonsDaughters to suffer because heshe was good. Many ministers preach this every day.

¹² This particularly unfortunate interpretation, which arose out of the combined misprojections of a large number of my would-be followers, has led many people to be bitterly afraid of God. This particularly anti-religious concept enters into many religions, and this is neither by chance nor by coincidence. Yet the real Christian would have to pause and ask, "How could this be?" Is it likely that God HimHerself would be capable of the kind of thinking which HisHer own words have clearly stated is unworthy of the man or woman?

¹³ The best defense, as always, is not to attack another's position but rather to protect the truth. It is unwise to accept any concept if you have to turn a whole frame of reference around in order to justify it. This procedure is painful in its minor applications and genuinely tragic on a mass basis. Persecution is a frequent result, undertaken to justify the terrible misperception that God HimHerself persecuted HisHer own SonDaughter on behalf of salvation. The very words are meaningless.

¹⁴ It has been particularly difficult to overcome this because, although the error itself is no harder to overcome than any other error, men or women were unwilling to give this one up because of its prominent "escape" value. In milder forms a parent says, "This hurts me more than it hurts you," and feels exonerated in beating a child. Can you believe that the FatherMother really thinks this way? It is so essential that all such thinking be dispelled that we must be very sure that nothing of this kind remains in your mind. I was not punished because you were bad. The wholly benign lesson the Atonement teaches is lost if it is tainted with this kind of distortion in any form.

¹⁵ "Vengeance is Ours sayeth the LordLady," is a strictly karmic viewpoint. It is a real misperception of truth by which a man or woman assigns his or her own "evil" past to God. The "evil conscience" from the past has nothing to do with God. HeShe did not create and manifest it, and HeShe does not maintain it. God does not believe in karmic retribution. HisHer Divine Mind does not create and manifest that way. HeShe does not hold the evil deeds of a man or woman even against himself or herself. Is it likely, then, that HeShe would hold against anyone the evil that another did?

¹⁶ Be very sure that you recognize how utterly impossible this assumption really is and how entirely it arises from misprojection. This kind of error is responsible for a host of related errors including the belief that God rejected the man or woman and forced him or her out of the Garden of Eden. It is also responsible for the fact that you may believe from time to time that I am misdirecting you. I have made every effort to use words that are almost impossible to distort, but the man or woman is very inventive when it comes to twisting symbols around.

¹⁷ God HimHerself is not symbolic; HeShe is fact. The Atonement too is totally without symbolism. It is perfectly clear because it exists in light. Only the man's or woman's attempts to shroud it in darkness have made it inaccessible to the unwilling and ambiguous to the partly willing. The Atonement itself radiates nothing but truth. It therefore epitomizes harmlessness and sheds only blessing. It could not do this if it arose from anything but perfect innocence. Innocence is wisdom because it is unaware of evil, which does not exist. It is, however, perfectly aware of everything that is true.

¹⁸ The Resurrection demonstrated that nothing can destroy truth. Good can withstand any form of evil because light abolishes all forms of darkness. The Atonement is thus the perfect lesson. It is the final demonstration that all of the other lessons which I taught are true. The man or woman is released from all errors if he or she believes in this. The deductive approach to teaching accepts the generalization which is applicable to all single instances rather than building up the generalization after analyzing numerous single instances separately. If you can accept the one generalization now, there will be no need to learn from the many smaller lessons.

¹⁹ Nothing can prevail against a SonDaughter of God who commends hisher individual Spirit into the hands of hisher FatherMother. By doing this, the mind awakens from its sleep, and [the individual Spirit] remembers hisher CreatorManifestor. All sense of separation disappears, and level confusion vanishes. The SonDaughter of God is part of the Holy Trinity, but the Trinity itself is One. There is no confusion within its levels because they are of One Mind and One Will. This single purpose creates and manifests perfect integration and establishes the peace of God. Yet this vision can be perceived only by the truly innocent.

²⁰ Because their hearts are pure, the innocent defend true perception instead of defending themselves against it. Understanding the lesson of the Atonement, they are without the will to attack, and therefore they see truly. This is what the Bible means when it says, "When HeShe shall appear (or be perceived) we shall be like HimHer, for we shall see HimHer as HeShe is."

²¹ Sacrifice is a notion totally unknown to God. It arises solely from fear. This is particularly unfortunate because frightened people are apt to be vicious. Sacrificing another in any way is a clear cut violation of God's own injunction that the man or woman should be merciful even as his or her FatherMother in the God Realm. It has been hard for the many Christians to realize that this commandment (or assignment) also applies to themselves. Good Teachers or Teacheresses never terrorize their students. To terrorize is to attack, and this results in rejection of what the teacher or teacheress offers. The result is learning failure.

²² I have been correctly referred to as "the Lamb of God who taketh away the sins of the world." Those who represent the lamb as blood-stained, an all-too-widespread error, do not understand the meaning of the symbol. Correctly understood, it is a very simple parable which merely speaks of our innocence. The lion and the lamb lying down together refers to the fact that strength and innocence are not in conflict but naturally live in peace. "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God" is another way of saying the same thing.

²³ There has been some human controversy about the nature of seeing in relation to the integrative powers of the brain. Correctly understood, the issue revolves around the question of whether the body or the mind can see (or understand). This is not really open to question at all. The body is not capable of understanding, and only the mind can perceive anything. A pure mind knows the truth, and this is its strength. It cannot attack the body because it recognizes exactly what the body is. This is what "a sane mind in a sane body" really means. It does not confuse destruction with innocence because it associates innocence with strength, not with weakness.

²⁴ Innocence is incapable of sacrificing anything because the innocent mind has everything and strives only to protect its wholeness. This is why it cannot misproject. It can only honor the man or woman because honor is the natural greeting of the truly loved to others who are like them. The lamb taketh away the sins of the world only in the sense that the state of innocence, or grace, is one in which the meaning of the Atonement is perfectly apparent. The innocence of God is the true state of mind of HisHer SonDaughter. In this state, the man's or woman's mind does see God, and because he or she sees HimHer as HeShe is, he or she knows that the Atonement, not sacrifice, is the only appropriate gift to his or her own altar, where nothing except perfection truly belongs. The understanding of the innocent is truth. That is why their altars are truly radiant.

IV. Miracles as Accurate Perception

²⁵ We have repeatedly stated that the basic concepts referred to in this course are not matters of degree. Certain fundamental concepts cannot be meaningfully understood in terms of coexisting polarities. It is impossible to conceive of light and darkness, or everything and nothing, as joint possibilities. They are all true or all false. It is essential that you realize that behavior is erratic until a firm commitment to one or the other is made.

²⁶ A firm commitment to darkness or nothingness is impossible. No one has ever lived who has not experienced some light and some [of everything]. This makes everyone really unable to deny truth totally, even if he or she generally deceives himself or herself in this connection. That is why those who live largely in darkness and emptiness never find any lasting solace. Innocence is not a partial attribute. It is not a real defense until it is total. When it is partial, it is characterized by the same erratic nature that holds for other two-edged defenses.

²⁷ The partly innocent are apt to be quite stupid at times. It is not until their innocence becomes a genuine viewpoint which is universal in its application that it becomes wisdom. Innocent (or true) perception means that you never misperceive and always see truly. More simply, it means that you never see what does not really exist. When you lack confidence in what someone will do, you are attesting to your belief that he or she is not in his or her right mind. This is hardly a miracle-based frame of reference. It also has the disastrous effect of denying the creative and manifestive power of the miracle.

²⁸ The miracle perceives everything as it is. If nothing but the truth exists (and this is really a redundant statement because what is not true cannot exist) right-minded seeing cannot see anything but perfection. We have said the many times that only what God creates and manifests, or what man or woman creates and manifests with the same will, has any real existence. This, then, is all the innocent can see. They do not suffer from the distortions of the separated ones. The way to correct all such distortions is to withdraw your faith from them and invest it only in what is true.

²⁹ You cannot validate the invalid. I would suggest that you voluntarily give up all such attempts because they can only be frantic. If you are willing to validate what is true in everything you perceive, you will make it true for you. Truth overcomes all error. This means that if you perceive truly, you are canceling out misperceptions in yourself and in others simultaneously. Because you see them as they are, you offer them your own validation of their truth. This is the healing which the miracle actively fosters.

V. Perception Versus Knowledge

³⁰ We have been emphasizing perception and have said very little about cognition as yet because you are confused about the difference between them. The reason we have dealt so little with cognition is because you must get your perceptions straightened out before you can know anything. To know is to be certain. Uncertainty merely means that you do not know. Knowledge is power because it is certain, and certainty is strength. Perception is merely temporary. It is an attribute of the space-time belief and is therefore subject to fear or love. Misperceptions produce fear, and true perceptions produce love. Neither produces certainty because all perception varies. That is why it is not knowledge.

³¹ True perception is the basis for knowledge, but knowing is the affirmation of truth. All your difficulties ultimately stem from the fact that you do not recognize or know yourselves, each other, or God. To recognize means to "know again," implying that you knew before. You can see in the many ways because perception involves different interpretations, and this means that it is not whole. The miracle is a way of perceiving, not of knowing. It is the right answer to a question, and you do not ask questions at all when you know.

³² Questioning illusions is the first step in undoing them. The miracle, or the "right answer," corrects them. Since perceptions change, their dependence on time is obvious. They are subject to transitory states, and this necessarily implies variability. How you perceive at any given time determines what you do, and action must occur in time. Knowledge is timeless because certainty is not questionable. You know when you have ceased to ask questions.

³³ The questioning mind perceives itself in time and therefore looks for future answers. The unquestioning mind is closed because it believes the future and present will be the same. This establishes an unchanged state or stasis. It is usually an attempt to counteract an underlying fear that the future will be worse than the present, and this fear inhibits the tendency to question at all.

³⁴ Visions are the natural perception of the Spiritual eye, but they are still corrections. The Spiritual eye is symbolic and therefore not a device for knowing. It is, however, a means of right perception, which brings it into the proper domain of the miracle. Properly speaking, "a vision of God" is a miracle rather than a revelation. The fact that perception is involved at all removes the experience from the realm of knowledge. That is why visions do not last.

³⁵ The Bible instructs you to "know yourself" or be certain. Certainty is always of God. When you love someone, you have perceived him or her as he or she is, and this makes it possible for you to know him or her. However, it is not until you recognize him or her that you can know him or her. While you ask questions about God, you are clearly implying that you do not know HimHer. Certainty does not require action. When you say that you are acting on the basis of knowledge, you are really confusing perception and cognition. Knowledge brings the mental strength for creative and manifestive thinking but not for right doing. Perception, miracles, and doing are closely related. Knowledge is the result of revelation and induces only thought. Perception involves the body, even in its most Spiritualized form. Knowledge comes from the altar within and is timeless because it is certain. To perceive the truth is not the same as knowing it.

³⁶ If you attack error in one another, you will hurt yourself. You cannot recognize each other when you attack. Attack is always made on a stranger. You are making him or her a stranger by misperceiving him or her so that you cannot know him or her. It is because you have made him or her a stranger that you are afraid of him or her. Perceive him or her correctly so that you can know him or her. Right perception is necessary before God can communicate directly to HisHer own altars which HeShe has established in HisHer SonDaughters. There HeShe can communicate HisHer certainty, and HisHer knowledge will bring peace without question.

³⁷ God is not a stranger to HisHer SonDaughters, and HisHer SonsDaughters are not strangers to each other. Knowledge preceded both perception and time and will ultimately replace them. That is the real meaning of the Biblical description of God as "Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End." It also explains the quotation, "Before Abraham [Adam] was I am." Perception can and must be stabilized, but knowledge is stable. "Fear God and keep HisHer commandments" should read "Know God and accept HisHer certainty." There are no strangers in HisHer manifested creation. To create and manifest as HeShe created and manifested, you can create and manifest only what you know and accept as yours. God knows HisHer Children with perfect certainty. HeShe created and manifested them by knowing them. HeShe recognized them perfectly. When they do not recognize each other, they do not recognize HimHer.

VI. Conflict and the Ego

³⁸ [The Spirit knows, loves, and creates and manifests. These are its unequivocal functions.] The abilities a man or woman now possesses are only shadows of his or her real strengths. All of his or her functions are equivocal and open to question or doubt. This is because he or she is not certain how he or she will use them. He or she is therefore incapable of knowledge, being uncertain. He or she is also incapable of knowledge because he or she can perceive lovelessly. He or she cannot create and manifest surely because his or her perception deceives [and illusions are not pure]. Perception did not exist until the separation had introduced degrees, aspects, and intervals. The Spirit has no levels, and all conflict arises from the concept of levels. [Wars arise where some regard others as if they were on a different level. All interpersonal conflicts arise from this fallacy.] Only the levels of the Trinity are capable of unity. The levels which the man or woman created and manifested by the separation cannot but conflict. This is because they are essentially meaningless to each other.

³⁹ Freud realized this perfectly and that is why he conceived the different levels in his view of the psyche as forever irreconcilable. They were conflict-prone by definition because they wanted different things and obeyed different principles. In our picture of the psyche, there is an unconscious level which properly consists only of the miracle ability and which should be under our direction. There is also a conscious level, which perceives or is aware of impulses from both the unconscious and the superconscious. Consciousness is thus the level of perception but not of knowledge. Again, to perceive is not to know.

⁴⁰ Consciousness was the first split that the man or woman introduced into himself or herself. He or she became a perceiver rather than a creatormanifestor in the true sense. Consciousness is correctly identified as the domain of the ego. The ego is a man or woman-made attempt to perceive himself or herself as he or she wished to be rather than as he or she is. This is an example of the created and manifested-creatormanifestor confusion we have spoken of before. Yet the man or woman can only know himself or herself as he or she is because that is all he or she can be sure of. Everything else is open to question.

⁴¹ The ego is the questioning compartment in the post-separation psyche which the man or woman created and manifested for himself or herself.

It is capable of asking valid questions but not of perceiving valid answers because these are cognitive and cannot be perceived. The endless speculation about the meaning of mind has led to considerable confusion because the mind is confused. Only One-Mindedness is without confusion. A separated or divided mind must be confused; it is uncertain by definition. It has to be in conflict because it is out of accord with itself.

⁴² Intrapersonal conflict arises from the same basis as interpersonal conflict. One part of the psyche perceives another part as on a different level and does not understand it. This makes the parts strangers to each other, without recognition. This is the essence of the fear-prone condition in which attack is always possible. The man or woman has every reason to feel afraid as he or she perceives himself or herself. This is why he or she cannot escape from fear until he or she knows that he or she did not and could not create and manifest himself or herself. He or she can never make his or her misperceptions valid. His or her manifested creation is beyond his or her own error, and that is why he or she must eventually choose to heal the separation.

⁴³ Right-mindedness is not to be confused with the knowing mind because it is applicable only to right perception. You can be right-minded or wrong-minded, and even this is subject to degrees, a fact which clearly demonstrates a lack of association with knowledge. The term "right-mindedness" is properly used as the correction for "wrong-mindedness," and applies to the state of mind which induces accurate perception. It is miraculous because it heals misperception, and this is indeed a miracle in view of how man or woman perceives himself or herself.

⁴⁴ Perception always involves some misuse of will because it involves the mind in areas of uncertainty. The mind is very active because it has will-power. When it willed the separation, it willed to perceive. Until then, it willed only to know. Afterwards it willed ambiguously, and the only way out of ambiguity is clear perception. The mind returns to its proper function only when it wills to know. This places it in the individual Spirit's service, where perception is meaningless. The superconscious is the level of the mind which wills this.

⁴⁵ The mind chose to divide itself when it willed to create and manifest both its own levels and the ability to perceive, but it could not entirely separate itself from the individual Spirit because it is from the individual Spirit that it derives its whole power to create and manifest. Even in miscreationmismanifestation will is affirming its Source or it would merely cease to be. This is impossible because it is part of the individual Spirit which God created and manifested and which is therefore eternal.

⁴⁶ The ability to perceive made the body possible because you must perceive something and with something. This is why perception involves an exchange or translation, which knowledge does not need. The interpretive function of perception, actually a distorted form of manifested creation, then permitted man or woman to interpret the body as himself or herself, which, though depressing, was an attempt to escape from the conflict he or she had induced. The superconscious, which knows, could not be reconciled with this loss of power because it is incapable of darkness. This is why it became almost inaccessible to the mind and entirely inaccessible to the body.

⁴⁷ Thereafter, the superconscious was perceived as a threat because light does abolish darkness merely by establishing the fact that it is not there. The truth will always overcome error in this sense. This is not an active process of destruction at all. We have already emphasized that knowledge does not do anything. It can be perceived as an attacker, but it cannot attack. What man or woman perceives as its attack is merely his or her own vague recognition of the fact that it can always be remembered, never having been destroyed.

⁴⁸ God and the individual Spirits HeShe created and manifested remain in surety, and therefore know that no miscreationmismanifestation exists. Truth cannot deal with unwilling error because it does not will to be blocked out. I was a man who remembered the Spirit and its knowledge, and as a man I did not attempt to counteract error with knowledge so much as to correct error from the bottom up. I demonstrated both the powerlessness of the body and the power of the mind. By uniting my will with that of my CreatorManifestor, I naturally remembered the individual Spirit and its own real purpose.

⁴⁹ I cannot unite your will with God's for you, but I can erase all misperceptions from your mind if you will bring it under our guidance. Only your misperceptions stand in your own way. Without them your choice is certain. Sane perception induces sane choosing. The Atonement was an act based on true perception. I cannot choose for you, but I can help you make your own right choice. "Many are called, but few are chosen" should read, "All are called, but few choose to listen. Therefore, they do not choose right."

⁵⁰ The "chosen ones" are merely those who choose right sooner. This is the real meaning of the Godrealm's speed-up. Strong wills can do this now, and you will find rest for your individual Spirits. God knows you only in peace, and this is your reality.

VII. The Loss of Certainty

⁵¹ We said before that the abilities which man or woman possesses are only shadows of his or her real strengths and that the intrusion of the ability to perceive, which is inherently judgmental, was introduced only after the separation. No one has been sure of anything since. You will also remember, however, that I made it clear that the resurrection was the means for the return to knowledge, which was accomplished by the union of our will with the Father's/Mother's. We can now make a distinction which will greatly facilitate clarity in our subsequent statements.

⁵² Since the separation, the words "create and manifest" and "make" have been greatly confused. When you make something, you make it out of a sense of lack or need. Anything that is made is made for a specific purpose and has no true generalizability. When you make something to fill a perceived lack, which is obviously why you would want to make anything, you are tacitly implying that you believe in separation. Knowing, as we have frequently observed, does not lead to doing at all.

⁵³ The confusion between your own manifested creation and what you create and manifest is so profound that it has become literally impossible for you to know anything. Knowledge is always stable, and it is quite evident that human beings are not. Nevertheless, they are perfectly stable as God created and manifested them. In this sense, when their behavior is unstable they are disagreeing with God's idea of the manifested creation. The man or woman can do this if he or she chooses, but he or she would hardly want to do it if he or she were in his or her right mind. The problem that bothers you most is the fundamental question which the man or woman continually asks of himself or herself, but which cannot properly be directed to himself or herself at all. He or she keeps asking himself or herself what he or she is. This implies that the answer is not only one which he or she knows but is also one which is up to him or her to supply.

⁵⁴ The man or woman cannot perceive himself or herself correctly. He or she has no image. The word "image" is always perception-related and not a product of knowing. Images are symbolic and stand for something else. The current emphasis on "changing your image" merely recognizes the power of perception, but it also implies that there is nothing to know. Knowing is not open to interpretation. It is possible to "interpret" meaning, but this is always open to error because it refers to the perception of meaning. Such wholly needless complexities are the result of the man's or woman's attempt to regard himself or herself as both separated and unseparated at the same time. It is impossible to undertake a confusion as fundamental as this without engaging in further confusion.

⁵⁵ Methodologically, the man's or woman's mind has been very creative and manifestive but, as always occurs when method and content are separated, it has not been utilized for anything but an attempt to escape a fundamental and entirely inescapable impasse. This kind of thinking cannot result in a creative and manifestive outcome, although it has resulted in considerable ingenuity. It is noteworthy, however, that this ingenuity has almost totally divorced him or her from knowledge. Knowledge does not require ingenuity. When we say "the truth shall set you free," we mean that all this kind of thinking is a waste of time, but that you are free of the need to engage in it if you are willing to let it go.

⁵⁶ Prayer is a way of asking for something. Prayer is the medium of miracles, but the only meaningful prayer is for forgiveness because those who have been forgiven have everything. Once forgiveness has been accepted, prayer in the usual sense becomes utterly meaningless. Essentially, a prayer for forgiveness is nothing more than a request that we may be able to recognize something we already have. In electing to perceive instead of to know, the man or woman placed himself or herself in a position where he or she could resemble his or her FatherMother only by miraculously perceiving. He or she has lost the knowledge that he or she himself or herself is a miracle. Miraculous manifested creation was his or her Source and also his or her real function.

⁵⁷ "God created and manifested the man or woman in HisHer own image and likeness" is correct in meaning, but the words are open to considerable misinterpretation. This is avoided, however, if "image" is understood to mean "thought" and "likeness" is taken as "of a like quality." God did create and manifest the individual Spirit in HisHer own Thought and of a quality like to HisHer own. There is nothing else. Perception, on the other hand, is impossible without a belief in "more" and "less." Perception at every level involves selectivity and is incapable of organization without it. In all types of perception, there is a continual process of accepting and rejecting or organizing and reorganizing, of shifting and changing focus. Evaluation is an essential part of perception because judgments must be made for selection.

⁵⁸ What happens to perceptions if there are no judgments and there is nothing but perfect equality? Perception becomes impossible. Truth can only be known. All of it is equally true, and knowing any part of it is to know all of it. Only perception involves partial awareness. Knowledge transcends all the laws which govern perception because partial knowledge is impossible. It is all one and has no separate parts. You who are really one with it need but know yourself, and your knowledge is complete. To know God's miracle is to know HimHer.

⁵⁹ Forgiveness is the healing of the perception of separation. Correct perception of each other is necessary because minds have willed to see themselves as separate. Each individual Spirit knows God completely. That is the miraculous power of the individual Spirit. The fact that each one has this power completely is a fact that is entirely alien to human thinking, in which if anyone has everything, there is nothing left. God's miracles are as total as HisHer Thoughts because they are HisHer Thoughts.

⁶⁰ As long as perception lasts, prayer has a place. Since perception rests on lack, those who perceive have not totally accepted the Atonement and given themselves over to truth. Perception is a separated state, and a perceiver does need healing. Communion, not prayer, is the natural state of those who know. God and HisHer miracles are inseparable. How beautiful indeed are the Thoughts of God who live in HisHer light! Your worth is beyond perception because it is beyond doubt. Do not perceive yourself in different lights. Know yourself in the One Light where the miracle that is you is perfectly clear.

VIII. Judgment and the Authority Problem

⁶¹ We have already discussed the Last Judgment in some though insufficient detail. After the Last Judgment there will be no more. This is symbolic only in the sense that everyone is much better off without judgment. When the Bible says, "Judge not that ye be not judged" it merely means that if you judge the reality of others at all, you will be unable to avoid judging your own. The choice to judge rather than to know was the cause of the loss of peace. Judgment is the process on which perception, but not cognition, rests. We have discussed this before in terms of the selectivity of perception, pointing out that evaluation is its obvious prerequisite.

⁶² Judgment always involves rejection. It is not an ability which emphasizes only the positive aspects of what is judged, whether it be in or out of the self. However, what has been perceived and rejected—or judged and found wanting—remains in the unconscious because it has been perceived. One of the illusions from which man or woman suffers is the belief that what he or she judged against has no effect. This cannot be true unless he or she also believes that what he or she judged against does not exist. He or she evidently does not believe this, or he or she would not have judged against it. It does not matter in the end whether you judge right or wrong. Either way, you are placing your belief in the unreal. This cannot be avoided in any type of judgment because it implies the belief that reality is yours to choose from.

⁶³ You have no idea of the tremendous release and deep peace that comes from meeting yourselves and your brothers and sisters totally without judgment. When you recognize what you and your brothers and sisters are, you will realize that judging them in any way is without meaning. In fact, their meaning is lost to you precisely because you are judging them. All uncertainty comes from a totally fallacious belief that you are under the coercion of judgment. You do not need judgment to organize your life, and you certainly do not need it to organize yourselves. In the presence of knowledge, all judgment is automatically suspended, and this is the process which enables recognition to replace perception.

⁶⁴ Man or woman is very fearful of everything he or she has perceived but has refused to accept. He or she believes that, because he or she has refused to accept it, he or she has lost control over it. This is why he or she sees it in nightmares or in pleasant disguises in what seem to be his or her happier dreams. Nothing that you have refused to accept can be brought into awareness. It does not follow that it is dangerous, but it does follow that you have made it dangerous.

⁶⁵ When you feel tired, it is merely because you have judged yourself as capable of being tired. When you laugh at someone, it is because you have judged him or her as debased. When you laugh at yourself, you are singularly likely to laugh at others, if only because you cannot tolerate the idea of being more debased than they are. All of this does make you feel tired because it is essentially disheartening. You are not really capable of being tired, but you are very capable of wearying yourselves. The strain of constant judgment is virtually intolerable. It is a curious thing that any ability which is so debilitating should be so deeply cherished.

⁶⁶ Yet, if you wish to be the author of reality, which is totally impossible anyway, you will insist on holding onto judgment. You will also use the term with considerable fear, believing that judgment will someday be used against you. To whatever extent it is used against you, it is due only to your belief in its efficacy as a weapon of defense for your own authority. The issue of authority is really a question of authorship. When an individual has an "authority problem," it is always because he or she believes he or she is the author of himself or herself, projects his or her delusion onto others, and then perceives the situation as one in which people are literally fighting him or her for his or her authorship. This is the fundamental error of all those who believe they have usurped the power of God.

⁶⁷ The belief is very frightening to them but hardly troubles God. HeShe is, however, eager to undo it, not to punish HisHer Children, but only because HeShe knows that it makes them unhappy. Individual Spirits were given their true Authorship, but men or women preferred to be anonymous when they chose to separate themselves from their Author. The word "authority" has been one of their most fearful symbols ever since. Authority has been used for great cruelty because, being uncertain of their true Authorship, men or women believe that their manifested creation was anonymous. This has left them in a position where it sounds meaningful to consider the possibility that they must have created and manifested themselves.

⁶⁸ The dispute over authorship has left such uncertainty in the minds of men or women that some have even doubted whether they really exist at all. Despite the apparent contradiction in this position, it is in one sense more tenable than the view that they created and manifested themselves. At least it acknowledges the fact that some true authorship is necessary for existence.

⁶⁹ Only those who give over all desire to reject can know that their own rejection is impossible. You have not usurped the power of God, but you have lost it. Fortunately, when you lose something, it does not mean that the "something" has gone. It merely means that you do not know where it is. Existence does not depend on your ability to identify it nor even to place it. It is perfectly possible to look on reality without judgment and merely know that it is there.

⁷⁰ Peace is a natural heritage of the individual Spirit. Everyone is free to refuse to accept his or her inheritance, but he or she is not free to establish what his or her inheritance is. The problem which everyone must decide is the fundamental question of authorship. All fear comes ultimately and sometimes by way of very devious routes from the denial of Authorship. The offense is never to God, but only to those who deny HimHer. To deny HisHer Authorship is to deny themselves the reason for their own peace, so that they see themselves only in pieces. This strange perception is the authority problem.

⁷¹ There is no man or woman who does not feel that he or she is imprisoned in some way. If this is the result of his or her own free will, he or she must regard his or her will as if it were not free, or the obviously circular reasoning involved in his or her position would be quite apparent. Free will must lead to freedom. Judgment always imprisons because it separates segments of reality according to the highly unstable scales of desire. Wishes are not facts by definition. To wish is to imply that willing is not sufficient. Yet no one believes that what is wished is as real as what is willed. Instead of, "Seek ye first the God Realm " say, "Will ye first the God Realm," and you have said, "I know what I am, and I will to accept my own inheritance."

IX. Creatingmanifesting Versus the Self-Image

⁷² Every system of thought must have a starting point. It begins with either a making or a creatingmanifesting, a difference which we have discussed already. Their resemblance lies in their power as foundations. Their difference lies in what rests upon them. Both are cornerstones for systems of belief by which men or women live. It is a mistake to believe that a thought system which is based on lies is weak. Nothing made by a Child of God is without power. It is essential to realize this because otherwise you will not understand why you have so much trouble with this course and will be unable to escape from the prisons which you have made for yourselves.

⁷³ You cannot resolve the authority problem by depreciating the power of your minds. To do so is to deceive yourself, and this will hurt you because you know the strength of the mind. You also know that you cannot weaken it, any more than you can weaken God. The "devil" is a frightening concept because he or she is thought of as extremely powerful and extremely active. He or she is perceived as a force in combat with God, battling HimHer for possession of the individual Spirits HeShe created and manifested. He or she deceives by lies and builds realms of his or her own in which everything is in direct opposition to God. Yet he or she attracts men or women rather than repels them, and they are seen as willing to "sell" him or her their individual Spirits in return for gifts they recognize are of no real worth.

⁷⁴ This makes absolutely no sense. The whole picture is one in which man or woman acts in a way he or she himself or herself realizes is self-destructive but which he or she does not choose to correct and therefore perceives the cause as beyond his or her control. We have discussed the fall, or separation, before, but its meaning must be clearly understood without symbols. The separation is not symbolic. It is an order of reality or a system of thought that is real enough in time, though not in eternity. All beliefs are real to the believer.

⁷⁵ The fruit of only one tree was "forbidden" to man or woman in his or her symbolic garden. But God could not have forbidden it or it could not have been eaten. If God knows HisHer Children, and I assure you that HeShe does, would HeShe have put them in a position where their own destruction was possible? The "tree" which was forbidden was named the "tree of knowledge." Yet God created and manifested knowledge and gave it freely to HisHer creationsmanifestations. The symbolism here has been given the many interpretations, but you may be sure that any interpretation which sees either God or HisHer creationsmanifestations as capable of destroying their own purpose is in error.

⁷⁶ Eating of the fruit of the tree of knowledge is a symbolic expression for incorporating into the self the ability for self-creating and self-manifesting. This is the only sense in which God and HisHer individual Spirits are not cocreatorscomanifestors. The belief that they are is implicit in the "self concept," a concept now made acceptable by its weakness and explained by a tendency of the self to create and manifest an image of itself. Its fear aspect is often ascribed to fear of retaliation by a "father or mother figure," a particularly curious idea in view of the fact that no one uses the term to refer to the physical father or mother . It refers to an image of a father or mother in relation to an image of the self.

⁷⁷ Images are perceived, not known. Knowledge cannot deceive, but perception can. Man or woman can perceive himself or herself as self-creating and self-manifesting, but he or she cannot do more than believe it. He or she cannot make it true. And, as we said before, when you finally perceive correctly, you can only be glad that you cannot. But until then, the belief that you can is the central foundation stone in your thought system, and all your defenses are used to attack ideas which might bring it to light. You still believe you are images of your own manifested creation . Your minds are split with your individual Spirits on this point, and there is no resolution while you believe the one thing that is literally inconceivable. That is why you cannot create and manifest and are filled with fear about what you make.

⁷⁸ The mind can make the belief in separation very real and very fearful, and this belief is the "devil." It is powerful, active, destructive, and clearly in opposition to God because it literally denies HisHer FatherhoodMotherhood. Never underestimate the power of this denial. Look at your lives and see what the devil has made. But know that this making will surely dissolve in the light of truth because its foundation is a lie.

⁷⁹ Your manifested creation by God is the only foundation which cannot be shaken because the light is in it. Your starting point is truth, and you must return to this beginning. Much has been perceived since then, but nothing else has happened. That is why your individual Spirits are still in peace, even though your minds are in conflict. You have not yet gone back far enough, and that is why you become so fearful. As you approach the beginning, you feel the fear of the destruction of your thought system upon you, as if it were the fear of death. There is no death, but there is a belief in death.

⁸⁰ The Bible says that the branch that bears no fruit will be cut off and will wither away. Be glad! The light will shine from the true Foundation of Life, and your own thought system will stand corrected. It cannot stand otherwise. You who fear salvation are willing death. Life and death, light and darkness, knowledge and perception are irreconcilable. To believe that they can be reconciled is to believe that God and man or woman can not. Only the oneness of knowledge is conflictless. Your realm is not of this world because it was given you from beyond this world. Only in this world is the idea of an authority problem meaningful. The world is not left by death but by truth, and truth can be known by all those for whom the Realm was created and manifested and for whom it waits.

Chapter Four:

The Root of All Evil

I. Introduction

¹ The Bible says that you should go with a brother or sister twice as far as he or she asks. It certainly does not suggest that you set him or her back on his or her journey. Devotion to a brother or sister cannot set you back either. It can lead only to mutual progress. The result of genuine devotion is inspiration, a word which properly understood is the opposite of fatigue. To be fatigued is to be dis-Spirited, but to be inspired is to be in the Spirit. To be egocentric is to be dispirited, but to be Self-centered in the right sense is to be inspired, or in the individual Spirit. The truly inspired are enlightened and cannot abide in darkness.

² You can speak from the Spirit or from the ego, precisely as you choose. If you speak from Spirit, you have chosen "to be still and know that I am God." These words are inspired because they come from knowledge. If you speak from the ego, you are disclaiming knowledge instead of affirming it and are thus dispiriting yourself. Do not embark on foolish journeys because they are indeed in vain. The ego may desire them, but the individual Spirit cannot embark on them because it is forever unwilling to depart from its Foundation.

³ The journey to the cross should be the last foolish journey for every mind. Do not dwell upon it, but dismiss it as accomplished. If you can accept it as your own last foolish journey, you are also free to join my resurrection. Human living has indeed been needlessly wasted in a repetition compulsion. It reenacts the separation, the loss of power, the foolish journey of the ego in an attempt at reparation, and finally the crucifixion of the body or death.

⁴ Repetition compulsions can be endless unless they are given up by an act of will. Do not make the pathetic human error of "clinging to the old rugged cross." The only message of the crucifixion was that we can overcome the cross. Unless you do so, you are free to crucify yourself as often as you choose. But this is not the Gospel I intended to offer you. We have another journey to undertake, and if you will read these lessons carefully, they will help to prepare you to undertake it.

II. Right Teaching and Right Learning

⁵ We have spoken of the many different human symptoms, and at this level there is almost endless variation. There is, however, only one cause of all of them. The authority problem is "the root of all evil." Money is but one of its the many reflections and is a reasonably representative example of the kind of thinking which stems from it. The idea of buying and selling implies precisely the kind of exchange that the individual Spirit cannot understand at all because its supply is always abundant and all its demands are fully met.

⁶ Every symptom which the ego has made involves a contradiction in terms. This is because the mind is split between the ego and the individual Spirit, so that whatever the ego makes is incomplete and contradictory. This untenable position is the result of the authority problem which, because it accepts the one inconceivable thought as its premise, can only produce ideas which are inconceivable. The term "profess" is used quite frequently in the Bible. To profess is to identify with an idea and offer the idea to others to be their own. The idea does not lessen; it becomes stronger.

⁷ A good teacher or teacheress clarifies his or her own ideas and strengthens them by teaching them. Teacher or teacheress and pupil are alike in the learning process. They are in the same order of learning, and unless they share their lessons, they will lack conviction. A good teacher or teacheress must believe in the ideas which he or she professes, but he or she must meet another condition; he or she must also believe in the students to whom he or she offers his or her ideas. Many stand guard over their ideas because they want to protect their thought systems as they are, and learning means change. Change is always fearful to the separated ones because they cannot conceive of it as a change towards healing the separation. They always perceive it as a change towards further separation because the separation was their first experience of change.

⁸ You believe that if you allow no change to enter into your ego, your individual Spirit will find peace. This profound confusion is possible only if one maintains that the same thought system can stand on two foundations. Nothing can reach the individual Spirit from the ego, and nothing from the individual Spirit can strengthen the ego or reduce the conflict within it. The ego is a contradiction. Man's or woman's self and God's Self are in opposition. They are opposed in manifested creation, in will, and in outcome. They are fundamentally irreconcilable because the individual Spirit cannot perceive and the ego cannot know. They are therefore not in communication and can never be in communication. Nevertheless, the ego can learn because its maker can be misguided but cannot make the totally lifeless out of the life-given. The individual Spirit need not be taught, but the ego must.

⁹ The ultimate reason why learning is perceived as frightening is because learning does lead to the relinquishment (not destruction) of the ego to the light of the individual Spirit. This is the change the ego must fear because it does not share my charity. My lesson was like yours, and because I learned it, I can teach it. I never attack your egos, but I do try to teach you how their thought system[s] arose. When I remind you of your true manifested creation, your egos cannot but respond with fear.

¹⁰ Teaching and learning are your greatest strengths now because you must change your mind and help others change theirs. It is pointless to refuse to tolerate change because you believe you can demonstrate that by doing so the separation has not occurred. The dreamer who doubts the reality of his or her dream while he or she is still dreaming is not really healing the level-split. You have dreamed of a separated ego, and you have believed in a world which rests upon it. This is very real to you. You cannot undo this by doing nothing and not changing.

¹¹ If you are willing to renounce the role of guardian[s] of your thought system[s] and open [them] to me, I will correct [them] very gently and lead you home. Every good teacher or teacheress hopes to give his or her students so much of his or her own thinking that they will one day no longer need him or her. This is the one real goal of the parent, teacher or teacheress, and therapist. This goal will not be achieved by those who believe that they will lose their child or pupil or patient if they succeed. It is impossible to convince the ego of this because it goes against all of its own laws. But remember that laws are set up to protect the continuity of the system in which the law-maker believes.

¹² It is natural enough for the ego to try to protect itself once you have made it, but it is not natural for you to want to obey its laws unless you believe in them. The ego cannot make this choice because of the nature of its origin. You can because of the nature of yours. Egos can clash in any situation, but individual Spirits cannot clash at all. If you perceive a teacher or teacheress as merely a "larger ego," you will be afraid because to enlarge an ego is to increase separation anxiety. I will teach with you and live with you if you will think with me, but my goal will always be to absolve you finally from the need for a teacher or teacheress.

¹³ This is the opposite of the ego-oriented teacher's or teacheress's goal. He or she is concerned with the effect of his or her ego on other egos and therefore interprets their interaction as a means of ego preservation. I would not be able to devote myself to teaching if I believed this, and you will not be a devoted teacher as long as you maintain it. I am constantly being perceived as a teacher either to be exalted or rejected, but I do not accept either perception for myself.

¹⁴ Your worth is not established by your teaching or your learning. Your worth was established by God. As long as you dispute this, everything you do will be fearful, particularly any situation which lends itself to the "superiority-inferiority" fallacy. Teachers or Teacheresses must be patient and repeat their lessons until they are learned. I am willing to do this because I have no right to set your learning limits for you. Once again—nothing you do or think or wish or make is necessary to establish your worth. This point is not debatable except in delusions. Your ego is never at stake because God did not create and manifest it. Your individual Spirit is never at stake because HeShe did. Any confusion on this point is a delusion and no form of devotion is possible as long as this delusion lasts.

¹⁵ The ego tries to exploit all situations into forms of praise for itself in order to overcome its doubts. It will be doubtful forever, or rather as long as you believe in it. You who made it cannot trust it because you know it is not real. The only sane solution is not to try to change reality, which is indeed a fearful attempt, but to see it as it is. You are part of reality, which stands unchanged beyond the reach of your ego but within easy reach of your individual Spirit. When you are afraid, be still and know that God is real and you are HisHer beloved SonDaughter in whom HeShe is well pleased. Do not let your ego dispute this because the ego cannot know what is as far beyond its reach as you are.

¹⁶ God is not the author of fear. You are. You have chosen, therefore, to create and manifest unlike HimHer, and you have made fear for yourselves. You are not at peace because you are not fulfilling your function. God gave you a very lofty responsibility which you are not meeting. You know this, and you are afraid. In fact, your egos have chosen to be afraid instead of meeting it. When you awaken you will not be able to understand this because it is literally incredible. Do not believe the incredible now. Any attempt to increase its believability is merely to postpone the inevitable.

¹⁷ The word "inevitable" is fearful to the ego but joyous to the individual Spirit. God is inevitable, and you cannot avoid HimHer any more than HeShe can avoid you. The ego is afraid of the individual Spirit's joy because, once you have experienced it, you will withdraw all protection from the ego and become totally without the investment in fear. Your investment is great now because fear is a witness to the separation, and your ego rejoices when you witness to it. Leave it behind! Do not listen to it, and do not preserve it. Listen only to God, Who is as incapable of deception as are the individual Spirits HeShe created and manifested.

¹⁸ Release yourselves and release others. Do not present a false and unworthy picture of yourself to others, and do not accept such a picture of them yourselves. The ego has built a shabby and unsheltering home for you because it cannot build otherwise. Do not try to make this impoverished house stand. Its weakness is your strength. Only God could make a home that is worthy of HisHer creationsmanifestations, who have chosen to leave it empty by their own dispossession. Yet HisHer home will stand forever and is ready for you when you choose to enter it. Of this you can be wholly certain. God is as incapable of creatingmanifesting the perishable as the ego is of making the eternal.

¹⁹ Of your egos you can do nothing to save yourselves or others, but of your Spirits you can do everything for the salvation of both. Humility is a lesson for the ego, not for the Spirit. The Spirit is beyond humility because it recognizes its radiance and gladly sheds its light everywhere. The meek shall inherit the earth because their egos are humble, and this gives them better perception. The God Realm is the right of the Spirit, whose beauty and dignity are far beyond doubt, beyond perception, and stand forever as the mark of the love of God for HisHer creationsmanifestations, who are wholly worthy of HimHer and only of HimHer. Nothing else is sufficiently worthy to be a gift for a manifested creation of God HimHerself.

²⁰ I will substitute for your ego if you wish but never for your Spirit. A father or mother can safely leave a child with an elder brother or sister who has shown himself or herself responsible, but this involves no confusion about the child's origin. The brother or sister can protect the child's body and his or her ego, which are very closely related, but he or she does not confuse himself or herself with the father or mother because he or she does this, although the child may. I can be entrusted with your body and your ego simply because this enables you not to be concerned with them and lets me teach you their unimportance. I could not understand their importance to you if I had not once been tempted to believe in them myself.

²¹ Let us undertake to learn this lesson together, so we can be free of them together. I need devoted Teachers or Teacheresses who share our aim of healing the mind. The individual Spirit is far beyond the need of your protection or ours. Remember this:

²² In this world you need not have tribulation because I have overcome the world.

²³ That is why you should be of good cheer.

III. The Ego and False Autonomy

²⁴ You have asked lately how the Soul could ever have made the ego. This is a perfectly reasonable question; in fact, the best question you could ask. There is, however, no point in giving a historical answer, because the past does not matter in human terms, and history would not exist if the same errors were not being repeated in the present. Abstract thought applies to knowledge, because knowledge is completely impersonal and examples are irrelevant to its understanding. Perception, however, is always specific and therefore quite concrete.

²⁵ Each man or woman makes one ego for himself or herself, although it is subject to enormous variation because of its instability, and one for everyone he or she perceives, which is equally variable. Their interaction is a process which literally alters both, because they were not made either by or with the unalterable. It is particularly important to realize that this alteration can and does occur as readily when the interaction takes place in the mind as when it involves physical presence. Thinking about another ego is as effective in changing relative perception as is physical interaction. There could be no better example of the fact that the ego is an idea, though not a reality-based thought.

²⁶ Your own present state is a good example of how the Soul made the ego. You do have knowledge at times, but when you throw it away, it is as if you never had it. This willfulness is so apparent that one need only perceive it to see that it does happen. If it can occur that way in the present, why is it surprising that it occurred that way in the past? Psychology rests on the principle of the continuity of behavior. Surprise is a reasonable response to the unfamiliar but hardly to something that has occurred with such persistence. I am using your present state [as an example] of how the Soul can work, provided you fully recognize that it need not work that way. Why are you surprised that something happened in the dim past when it is so clearly happening right now?

²⁷ You forget the love that animals have for their own offspring and the need they feel to protect them. This is because they regard them as part of themselves. No one disowns something he or she regards as a very real part of himself or herself. Man or woman reacts to his or her ego much as God does to HisHer individual Spirits: with love, protection, and great charity. The reaction of man or woman to the self he or she made is not at all surprising. In fact it duplicates in the many ways how he or she will one day react to his or her real creationsmanifestations, which are as timeless as he or she is. The question is not how man or woman responds to his or her ego, but what he or she believes he or she is.

²⁸ Belief is an ego function, and as long as your origin is open to belief at all, you are regarding it from an ego viewpoint. [That is why the Bible quotes me as saying "Ye believe in God, believe also in me." Belief does apply to me, because I am the teacher of the ego.] When teaching is no longer necessary, you will merely know God. Belief that there is another way is the loftiest idea of which ego thinking is capable. That is because it contains a hint of recognition that the ego is not the self. Undermining the ego's thought system must be perceived as painful, even though this is anything but true. Babies scream in rage if you take away a knife or a scissors, even though they may well harm themselves if you do not. The speed-up has placed you in the same position.

²⁹ You are not prepared, and in this sense you are babies. You have no sense of real self-preservation and are very likely to decide that you need precisely what would hurt you most. Whether you know it now or not, however, you have willed to cooperate in a concerted and very commendable effort to become both harmless and helpful, two attributes which must go together. Your attitudes, even toward this, are necessarily conflicted, because all attitudes are ego-based. This will not last. Be patient awhile and remember that the outcome is as certain as God.

³⁰ Only those who have a real and lasting sense of abundance can be truly charitable. This is quite obvious when you consider the concepts involved. To the ego, to give anything implies that you will do without it. When you associate giving with sacrifice, then, you give only because you believe that you are somehow getting something better so that you can do without the thing you give. "Giving to get" is an inescapable law of the ego, which always evaluates itself in relation to other egos and is therefore continually preoccupied with the scarcity principle which gave rise to it. This is the meaning of Freud's "reality principle" since Freud thought of the ego as very weak and deprived, capable of functioning only as a thing in need.

³¹ The "reality principle" of the ego is not real at all. The ego is forced to perceive the "reality" of other egos because it cannot establish the reality of itself. In fact, its whole perception of other egos as real is only an attempt to convince itself that it is real. "Self esteem" in ego terms means nothing more than that the ego has deluded itself into accepting its reality and is therefore temporarily less predatory. This "self esteem" is always vulnerable to stress, a term which actually refers to a condition in which the delusion of the ego's reality is threatened. This produces either ego deflation or ego inflation, resulting in either withdrawal or attack.

³² The ego literally lives by comparison. This means that equality is beyond its grasp and charity becomes impossible. The ego never gives out of abundance, because it was made as a substitute for it. That is why the concept of "getting" arose in the ego's thought system. All appetites are "getting" mechanisms, representing the ego's need to confirm itself. This is as true of bodily appetites as it is of the so-called "higher" ego needs. Bodily appetites are not physical in origin. The ego regards the body as its home and does try to satisfy itself through the body, but the idea that this is possible is a decision of the ego, which is completely confused about what is really possible. This accounts for its erratic nature.

³³ The ego believes it is completely on its own, which is merely another way of describing how it originated. This is such a fearful state that it can only turn to other egos and try to unite with them in a feeble attempt at identification or attack them in an equally feeble show of strength. It is not free, however, to consider the validity of the premise itself, because this premise is its foundation. The ego is the belief of the mind that it is completely on its own. Its ceaseless attempts to gain the Spirit's acknowledgment and thus to establish its own existence are utterly useless.

³⁴ The Spirit in its knowledge is unaware of the ego. It does not attack it; it merely cannot conceive of it at all. While the ego is equally unaware of the Spirit, it does perceive itself as rejected by "something" which is greater than itself. This is why self-esteem in ego terms must be a delusion. The manifestations of God's creations do not create and manifest myths, although the creative and manifestive efforts of man or woman can turn to mythology. It can do so, however, only under one condition; what man or woman then makes is no longer creative and manifestive. Myths are entirely perceptions and are so ambiguous in form and so characteristically good and evil in nature that the most benevolent of them is not without fearful components, if only by innuendo.

³⁵ Myths and magic are closely associated in that myths are usually related to the ego origins and magic to the powers which the ego ascribes to itself. Every mythological system includes some account of "the creation" and associates this with its particular perception of magic. The "battle for survival" is nothing more than the ego's struggle to preserve itself and its interpretation of its own beginning. This beginning is always associated with physical birth, because no one maintains that the ego existed before that point in time. The religiously ego-oriented believe that the Spirit existed before and will continue to exist afterwards, after a temporary lapse in ego life. Some actually believe that the Spirit will be punished for this lapse, even though in reality it could not possibly know anything about it.

³⁶ The term "salvation" does not apply to the individual Spirit, which is not in danger and does not need to be salvaged. Salvation is nothing more than "right-mindedness," which is not the One-Mindedness of the individual Spirit, but which must be accomplished before One-Mindedness can be restored. Right-mindedness dictates the next step automatically, because right perception is uniformly without attack so that wrong-mindedness is obliterated. The ego cannot survive without judgment and is laid aside accordingly. The mind then has only one direction in which it can move. The direction which the mind will take is always automatic, because it cannot but be dictated by the thought system to which the mind adheres.

³⁷ Every thought system has internal consistency, and this provides the basis for the continuity of behavior. However, this is a matter of reliability and not validity. "Reliable behavior" is a meaningful perception as far as ego thinking goes. However, "valid behavior" is an expression which is inherently contradictory because validity is an end and behavior is a means. These cannot be combined logically, because when an end has been attained, the means for its attainment are no longer meaningful.

³⁸ A hypothesis is either false or true, to be accepted or rejected accordingly. If it is shown to be true, it becomes a fact, after which no one attempts to evaluate it unless its status as fact is questioned. Every idea to which the ego has accorded the status of fact is questionable, because facts are in the realm of knowledge.

³⁹ Confusing realms of discourse is a thinking error which philosophers have recognized for centuries. Psychologists are generally quite deficient in this respect, as are the many theologians. Data from one realm of discourse do not mean anything in another, because they can be understood only within the thought system of which they are a part. That is why psychologists are concentrating increasingly on the ego in an attempt to unify their clearly unrelated data. It need hardly be said that an attempt to relate the unrelated cannot succeed.

⁴⁰ The more recent ecological emphases are but another ingenious way of trying to impose order on chaos. We have already credited the ego with considerable ingenuity, though not with creativeness/manifestiveness. It should, however, be remembered that inventiveness is really wasted effort, even in its most ingenious forms. We do not have to explain anything. This is why we need not trouble ourselves with inventiveness. The highly specific nature of invention is not worthy of the abstract creativity of God's manifestations of creations.

IV. Love Without Conflict

⁴¹ You have never understood what "the God Realm is within you" means. The reason you have not understood it is because it is not understandable to the ego, which interprets it as if something outside is inside, and this does not mean anything. The word "within" is unnecessary. The God Realm is you. What else but you did the Creator/Manifestor create and manifest, and what else but you is His/Her Realm? This is the whole message of the Atonement, a message which in its totality transcends the sum of its parts. Christmas is not a time; it is a state of mind. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness wills from the individual Spirit, not from the ego, and the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is yours.

⁴² You too have a realm which your individual Spirit created and manifested. It has not ceased to create and manifest because your ego has set you on the road of perception. Your individual Spirit's creations/manifestations are no more fatherless/motherless than you are. Your ego and your individual Spirit will never be co-creators-co-manifestors, but your individual Spirit and your Creator/Manifestor will always be. Be confident that your creations/manifestations are as safe as you are.

⁴³ The Realm is perfectly united and perfectly protected, and the ego will not prevail against it. Amen.

⁴⁴ That was written in that form because it is a good thing to use as a kind of a prayer in moments of temptation. It is a Declaration of Independence. You will find it very helpful if you understand it fully.

⁴⁵ In its characteristically upside-down way, the ego has taken the impulses from the superconscious and perceives them as if they arise in the unconscious. The ego judges what is to be accepted, and the impulses from the superconscious are unacceptable to it because they clearly point to the nonexistence of the ego itself. The ego therefore experiences threat and not only censors but also reinterprets the data. However, as Freud correctly pointed out, what you have repressed can retain a very active life beyond your awareness.

⁴⁶ Repression thus operates to conceal not only the baser impulses but also the most lofty ones from awareness because both are threatening to the ego and, being concerned primarily with its own preservation in the face of threat, the ego perceives them as the same. The threat-value of the lofty is actually much greater to the ego because the pull of God HimHerself can hardly be equated with the pull of human appetites. By perceiving them as the same, the ego attempts to save itself from being swept away, as it would surely be in the presence of knowledge.

⁴⁷ The upper level of the unconscious thus contains the Call of God as well as the call of the body. That is why the basic conflict between love and fear is unconscious; the ego cannot tolerate either and represses both by resorting to inhibition. Society depends on inhibiting the latter, but salvation depends on disinhibiting the former. The reason you need my help is because you have repressed your own Guide and therefore need guidance. My role is to separate the true from the false in your unconscious so it can break through the barriers the ego has set up and shine into your minds. Against our united strength, the ego cannot prevail.

⁴⁸ It should be apparent to you by now why the ego regards the Spirit as its "enemy." The ego arose from the separation, and its continued existence depends on your continuing belief in the separation. Having reduced the Spirit's impulses to the unconscious, the ego has to offer you some sort of reward for maintaining this belief. All it can offer is a sense of temporary existence, which begins with its own beginning and ends with its own ending. It tells you this life is your existence because it is its own. Against this sense of temporary existence the Spirit offers you the knowledge of permanence and unshakable being. No one who has experienced the revelation of this can ever fully believe in the ego again. How can its meager offering to you prevail against the glorious gift of God?

⁴⁹ You who identify with your egos cannot believe that God loves you. You do not love what you have made, and what you made does not love you. Being made out of the denial of the FatherMother, the ego has no allegiance to its own maker. You cannot conceive of the real relationship which exists between God and HisHer Spirits because of the hatred you have for the self you have made. You project onto your own idea of yourself the will to separate, which conflicts with the love you feel for what you made because you made it. No human love is without this ambivalence, and since no ego has experienced love without ambivalence, the concept is beyond its understanding.

⁵⁰ Love will enter immediately into any mind which truly wants it, but it must want it truly. This means that it wants it without ambivalence, and this kind of wanting is wholly without the ego's "drive to get." There is a kind of experience which is so different from anything the ego can offer that you will never recover. The word "recover" is used quite literally here—you will never be able to cover or hide again. It is necessary to repeat here that your belief in darkness and in hiding is why the light cannot enter. The Bible gives the many references to the immeasurable gifts which are for you but for which you must ask. This is not a condition as the ego sets conditions. It is the glorious condition of what you are.

⁵¹ No force except your own will is strong enough or worthy enough to guide you. In this you are as free as God and must remain so forever. You can never be bound except in honor, and that is always voluntary. Let us ask the FatherMother in our name to keep you mindful of HisHer love for you and yours for HimHer. HeShe has never failed to answer this request because it asks only for what HeShe has already willed. Those who call truly are always answered. Thou shalt have no other gods before HimHer because there are none.

⁵² It has never really entered your mind to give up every idea you ever had that opposes knowledge. You retain thousands of little scraps of meanness which prevent the Holy One from entering. Light cannot penetrate through the walls you make to block it, and it is forever unwilling to destroy what you have made. No one can see through a wall, but I can step around it. Watch your minds for the scraps of meanness or you will be unable to ask me to do so. I can help you only as our FatherMother created and manifested us. I will love you and honor you and maintain complete respect for what you have made, but I will neither honor it nor love it unless it is true.

⁵³ I will never forsake you any more than God will, but I must wait as long as you choose to forsake yourself. Because I wait in love and not in impatience, you will surely ask me truly. I will come in response to a single unequivocal call. Watch carefully and see what it is you are really asking for. Be very honest with yourself about this, for we must hide nothing from each other. If you will really try to do this, you have taken the first step toward preparing your mind for the Holy One to enter. We will prepare for this together, for once HeShe has come, you will be ready to help us make other minds ready for HimHer. How long will you deny HimHer HisHer Realm?

⁵⁴ In your own unconscious, deeply repressed by the ego, is the declaration of your release. God has given you everything. This is the one fact that means the ego does not exist and which therefore makes it profoundly afraid. In the ego's language, remember, "to have" and "to be" are different, but they are identical to the individual Spirit. The individual Spirit knows that you both have everything and are everything. Any distinction in this respect is meaningful only when the idea of "getting," which implies a lack, has already been accepted. That is why we made no distinction before between having the God Realm and being the God Realm.

⁵⁵ The calm being of God's Realm, which in your sane mind is perfectly conscious, is ruthlessly banished from the part of the mind which the ego rules. The ego is desperate because it opposes literally invincible odds, whether you are asleep or awake. Consider how much vigilance you have been willing to exert to protect your ego and how little you have been willing to expend to protect your higher mind. Who but the insane would undertake to believe what is not true and then protect this belief at the cost of truth?

V. The Escape From Fear

⁵⁶ If you cannot hear the Voice of God, it is because you do not choose to listen. The fact that you do listen to the voice of your ego is demonstrated by your attitudes, your feelings, and your behavior. Your attitudes are obviously conflicted, your feelings have a narrow range on the negative side but are never purely joyous, and your behavior is either strained or unpredictable. Yet this is what you want. This is what you are fighting to keep and what you are vigilant to save. Your minds are filled with schemes to save the face of your egos, and you do not seek the Face of God. The glass in which the ego seeks to see its face is dark indeed. How can it maintain the trick of its existence except with mirrors? But where you look to find yourself is up to you.

⁵⁷ We have said that you cannot change your mind by changing your behavior, but we have also said, and many times before, that you can change your mind. When your mood tells you that you have chosen wrongly, and this is so whenever you are not joyous, then know this need not be. In every case you have thought wrongly about some individual Spirit that God created and manifested and are perceiving images your ego makes in a darkened glass. Think honestly what you have thought that God would not have thought and what you have not thought that God would have you think. Search sincerely for what you have done and left undone accordingly, and then change your minds to think with God's.

⁵⁸ This may seem hard to you, but it is much easier than trying to think against it. Your mind is one with God's. Denying this and thinking otherwise has held your ego together but has literally split your mind. As a loving brother or sister, I am deeply concerned with your mind and urge you to follow our example as you look at yourselves and at each other and see in both the glorious creationsmanifestations of a glorious FatherMother.

⁵⁹ When you are sad, know that this need not be. Depression always arises ultimately from a sense of being deprived of something you want and do not have. Know you are deprived of nothing except by your own decisions, and then decide otherwise.

⁶⁰ When you are anxious, know that all anxiety comes from the capriciousness of the ego and need not be. You can be as vigilant against the ego's dictates as for them.

⁶¹ When you feel guilty, know that the ego has indeed violated the laws of God, but you have not. Leave the sins of the ego to me. That is what Atonement is for. But until you change your mind about those your ego has hurt, the Atonement cannot release you. As long as you feel guilty, your ego is in command because only the ego can experience guilt. This need not be.

⁶² Watch your mind for the temptations of the ego and do not be deceived by it. Know it offers you nothing. When you have given up this voluntary dispiriting, you will see how your mind can focus and rise above fatigue and heal. Yet you are not sufficiently vigilant against the demands of the ego to disengage yourself. This need not be.

⁶³ The habit of engaging with God and HisHer creationsmanifestations is easily made if you actively refuse to let your minds slip away. The problem is not one of concentration; it is the belief that no one, including yourself, is worth consistent effort. Side with me consistently against this deception, and do not permit this shabby belief to pull you back. The disheartened are useless to themselves and to me, but only the ego can be disheartened. Have you really considered how the many opportunities you have to gladden yourselves and how the many of them you have refused? There is no limit to the power of a SonDaughter of God, but he or she himself or herself can limit the expression of his or her power as much as he or she chooses.

⁶⁴ Your mind and ours can unite in shining your ego away and releasing the strength of God into everything you think and will and do. Do not settle for anything less than this, and refuse to accept anything but this as your goal. Watch your minds carefully for any beliefs that hinder its accomplishment, and step away from them. Judge how well you have done this by your own feelings, for this is the one right use of judgment. Judgment, like any other defense, can be used to attack or protect, to hurt or to heal. The ego should be brought to your judgment and found wanting there. Without your own allegiance, protection, and love, it cannot exist. Judge your ego truly, and you must withdraw allegiance, protection, and love from it.

⁶⁵ You are mirrors of truth in which God HimHerself shines in perfect light. To the ego's dark glass you need but say, "I will not look there because I know these images are not true." Then let the Holy One shine on you in peace, knowing that this and only this must be. HisHer Mind shone on you in your manifested creation and brought your mind into being. HisHer Mind still shines on you and must shine through you. Your ego cannot prevent HimHer from shining on you, but it can prevent you from letting HimHer shine through you.

⁶⁶ The first coming of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is just another name for the manifested creation, for the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is the SonDaughter of God. The second coming of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness means nothing more than the end of the ego's rule over part of the minds of men or women and the healing of the mind. I was created and manifested like you in the first, and I have called you to join with me in the second. If you will think over your lives, you will see how carefully the preparations were made. I am in charge of the second coming, and my judgment, which is used only for protection, cannot be wrong because it never attacks. Yours is so distorted that you believe I was mistaken in choosing you. I assure you this is a mistake of your egos. Do not mistake it for humility.

⁶⁷ Your egos are trying to convince you that they are real and I am not because, if I am real, I am no more real than you are. That knowledge, and I assure you that it is knowledge, means that the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness must come into your minds and heal them. Although I am not attacking your egos, I am working with your higher mind whether you are asleep or awake, just as your ego does with your lower mind. I am your vigilance in this, because you are too confused to recognize your own hope. I was not mistaken. Your minds will elect to join with ours, and together we are invincible.

⁶⁸ You will yet come together in our name, and your sanity will be restored. I raised the dead by knowing that life is an eternal attribute of everything that the living God created and manifested. Why do you believe it is harder for me to inspire the dispirited or to stabilize the unstable? I do not believe that there is an order of difficulty in miracles; you do. I have called, and you will answer. I know that miracles are natural because they are expressions of love. My calling you is as natural as your answer and as inevitable.

VI. The Ego-Body Illusion

⁶⁹ All things work together for good. There are no exceptions except in the ego's judgment. Control is a central factor in what the ego permits into consciousness and one to which it devotes its maximum vigilance. This is not the way a balanced mind holds together. Its control is unconscious. The ego is further off balance by keeping its primary motivation unconscious and raising control rather than sensible judgment to predominance. The ego has every reason to do this according to the thought system which gave rise to it and which it serves. Sane judgment would inevitably judge against the ego and must be obliterated by the ego in the interest of its self-preservation.

⁷⁰ A major source of the ego's off-balanced state is its lack of discrimination between impulses from God and from the body. Any thought system which makes this confusion must be insane. Yet this demented state is essential to the ego, which judges only in terms of threat or non-threat to itself. In one sense the ego's fear of the idea of God is at least logical, since this idea does dispel the ego. Fear of dissolution from the Higher Source, then, makes some sense in ego-terms. But fear of the body, with which the ego identifies so closely, is more blatantly senseless.

⁷¹ The body is the ego's home by its own election. It is the only identification with which the ego feels safe, because the body's vulnerability is its own best argument that you cannot be of God. This is the belief that the ego sponsors eagerly. Yet the ego hates the body because it does not accept the idea that the body is good enough to be its home. Here is where the mind becomes actually dazed. Being told by the ego that it is really part of the body and that the body is its protector, the mind is also constantly informed that the body can not protect it. This, of course, is not only accurate but perfectly obvious.

⁷² Therefore the mind asks, "Where can I go for protection?" to which the ego replies, "Turn to me." The mind, and not without cause, reminds the ego that it has itself insisted that it is identified with the body, so there is no point in turning to it for protection. The ego has no real answer to this because there is none, but it does have a typical solution. It obliterates the question from the mind's awareness. Once unconscious, the question can and does produce uneasiness, but it cannot be answered because it cannot be asked. This is the question which must be asked: "Where am I to go for protection?" Even the insane ask it unconsciously, but it requires real sanity to ask it consciously.

⁷³ When the Bible says, "Seek and ye shall find," it does not mean that you should seek blindly and desperately for something you would not recognize. Meaningful seeking is consciously undertaken, consciously organized, and consciously directed. The goal must be formulated clearly and kept in mind. As a teacher with some experience, let me remind you that learning and wanting to learn are inseparable. All learners learn best when they believe that what they are trying to learn is of value to them. However, values in this world are hierarchical, and not everything you may want to learn has lasting value.

⁷⁴ Indeed, the many of the things you want to learn are chosen because their value will not last. The ego thinks it is an advantage not to commit itself to anything that is eternal because the eternal must come from God. Eternalness is the one function which the ego has tried to develop but has systematically failed. It may surprise you to learn that had the ego wished to do so it could have made the eternal because, as a product of the mind, it is endowed with the power of its own creatormanifestor. However, the decision to do this, rather than the ability to do it, is what the ego cannot tolerate. That is because the decision, from which the ability would naturally develop, would necessarily involve accurate perception, a state of clarity which the ego, fearful of being judged truly, must avoid.

⁷⁵ The results of this dilemma are peculiar, but no more so than the dilemma itself. The ego has reacted characteristically here as elsewhere because mental illness, which is always a form of ego involvement, is not a matter of reliability as much as of validity. The ego compromises with the issue of the eternal, just as it does with all issues that touch on the real question in any way. By compromising in connection with all tangential questions, it hopes to hide the real question and keep it out of mind. The ego's characteristic busyness with non-essentials is for precisely that purpose.

⁷⁶ Consider the alchemist's age-old attempts to turn base metal into gold. The one question which the alchemist did not permit himself or herself to ask was, "What for?" He or she could not ask this because it would immediately become apparent that there was no sense in his or her efforts even if he or she succeeded. If gold became more plentiful, its value would decrease, and his or her own purpose would be defeated. The ego has countenanced some strange compromises with the idea of the eternal, making the many odd attempts to relate the concept to the unimportant in an effort to satisfy the mind without jeopardizing itself. Thus, it has permitted minds to devote themselves to the possibility of perpetual motion, but not to perpetual thoughts.

⁷⁷ Ideational preoccupations with problems set up to be incapable of solution are also favorite ego devices for impeding the strong-willed from making real learning progress. The problems of squaring the circle and carrying pi to infinity are good examples. A more recent ego attempt is particularly noteworthy. The idea of preserving the body by suspension, thus giving it the kind of limited immortality which the ego can tolerate, is among its more recent appeals to the mind. It is noticeable, however, that in all these diversionary tactics, the one question which is never asked by those who pursue them is, "What for?"

⁷⁸ This is the question which you must learn to ask in connection with everything your mind wishes to undertake. What is the purpose? Whatever it is, you cannot doubt that it will channelize your efforts automatically. When you make a decision of purpose, then, you have made a decision about your future effort, a decision which will remain in effect unless you change the decision.

⁷⁹ Psychologists are in a good position to realize that the ego is capable of making and accepting as real some very distorted associations. The confusion of sex with aggression and the resulting behavior, which is perceived as the same for both, serves as an example. This is "understandable" to the psychologist and does not produce surprise. The lack of surprise, however, is not a sign of understanding. It is a symptom of the psychologist's ability to accept as reasonable a compromise which is clearly senseless—to attribute it to the mental illness of the patient rather than his or her own and to limit his or her questions about both the patient and himself or herself to the trivial.

⁸⁰ Such relatively minor confusions of the ego are not among its more profound misassociations, although they do reflect them. Your egos have been blocking the more important questions which your minds should ask. You do not understand a patient while you yourselves are willing to limit the questions you raise about his or her mind because you are also accepting these limits for yours. This makes you unable to heal him or her and yourselves. Be always unwilling to adapt to any situation in which miracle-mindedness is unthinkable. That state in itself is enough to demonstrate that the perception is wrong.

VII. The Constant State

⁸¹ It cannot be emphasized too often that correcting perception is merely a temporary expedient. It is necessary to do so only because misperception is a block to knowledge, while accurate perception is a stepping-stone towards it. The whole value of right perception lies in the inevitable judgment which it entails that it is unnecessary. This removes the block entirely. You may ask how this is possible as long as you appear to be living in this world, and since this is a sensible question, it has a sensible answer. You must be careful, however, that you really understand the question. What is the "you" who are living in this world?

⁸² Immortality is a constant state. It is as true now as it ever was or ever will be because it implies no change at all. It is not a continuum nor is it understood by being compared to an opposite. Knowledge never involves comparison. That is its essential difference from everything else the mind can grasp. "A little knowledge" is not dangerous except to the ego. Vaguely it senses threat, and being unable to realize that "a little knowledge" is a meaningless phrase since "all" and "a little" in this context are the same, the ego decides that, since "all" is impossible, the fear does not lie there. "A little," however, is a scarcity concept, and this the ego understands well. "A little," then, is perceived as the real threat.

⁸³ The essential thing to remember is that the ego does not recognize the real source of its perceived threat, and if you associate yourself with the ego, you do not perceive the whole situation as it is. Only your allegiance to it gives the ego any power over you.

⁸⁴ We have spoken of the ego as if it were a separate thing acting on its own. This was necessary to persuade you that you cannot dismiss it lightly and must realize how much of your thinking is ego-directed. We cannot safely let it go at that, however, or you will regard yourselves as necessarily conflicted as long as you are here, or more properly, as long as you believe that you are here.

⁸⁵ The ego is nothing more than a part of your belief about yourselves. Your other life has continued without interruption and has been and always will be totally unaffected by your attempts to dissociate. The ratio of repression and dissociation varies with the individual ego-illusion, but dissociation is always involved or you would not believe that you are here. In learning to escape from the illusions you have made, your great debt to each other is something you must never forget. It is exactly the same debt that you owe to me. Whenever you react egotistically towards each other, you are throwing away the graciousness of your indebtedness and the holy perception it would produce.

⁸⁶ The term "holy" can be used here because as you learn how much you are indebted to the whole SonDaughtership, which includes me, you come as close to knowledge as perception ever can. The gap is then so small that knowledge can easily flow across it and obliterate it forever. You have very little trust in me as yet, but it will increase as you turn more and more often to me instead of your egos for guidance.

The results will convince you increasingly that your choice in turning to me is the only sane one you can make. No one who has learned from experience that one choice brings peace and joy while another brings chaos and disaster needs much conditioning.

⁸⁷ The ego cannot withstand the conditioning process because the process itself demonstrates that there is another way. Conditioning by rewards has always been more effective than conditioning by pain because pain is an ego-illusion and can never induce more than a temporary effect. The rewards of God, however, are immediately recognized as eternal. Since this recognition is made by you and not the ego, the recognition itself establishes that you and your ego cannot be identical. You may believe that you have already accepted the difference, but you are by no means convinced as yet. The very fact that you are preoccupied with the idea of escaping from the ego shows this.

⁸⁸ You cannot escape from the ego by humbling it or controlling it or punishing it. Remember that the ego and the Spirit do not know each other. The separated mind cannot maintain the separation except by dissociating. Having done this, it utilizes repression against all truly natural impulses, not because the ego is a separate thing, but because you want to believe that you are. The ego is a device for maintaining this belief, but it is still only your willingness to use the device that enables it to endure.

⁸⁹ My trust in you is greater than yours in me at the moment, but it will not always be that way. Your mission is very simple. You have been chosen to live so as to demonstrate that you are not an ego. I repeat that I do not choose God's channels wrongly. The Holy One shares my trust and always approves my Atonement decisions because my will is never out of accord with Hers. I have told you before that I am in charge of the whole Atonement. This is only because I completed my part in it as a human and can now complete it through other humans. My chosen receiving and sending channels cannot fail because I will lend them my strength as long as theirs is wanting.

⁹⁰ I will go with you to the Holy One, and through my perception, She can bridge the little gap. Your gratitude to each other is the only gift I want. I will bring it to God for you, knowing that to know your brother or sister is to know God. A little knowledge is an all-encompassing thing. If you are grateful to each other, you are grateful to God for what HeShe created and manifested. Through your gratitude, you can come to know each other, and one moment of real recognition makes all men or women your brothers and sisters because they are all of your FatherMother. Love does not conquer all things, but it does set all things right. Because you are all the God Realm, I can lead you back to your own creations/manifestations, which you do not yet know. What has been dissociated is still there.

⁹¹ As you come closer to a brother or sister, you do approach me and, as you withdraw from him, I become distant to you. Your giant step forward was to insist on a "collaborative venture." This does not go against the true Spirit of meditation; it is inherent in it. Meditation is a collaborative venture with God. It cannot be undertaken successfully by those who disengage themselves from the Son/Daughtership because they are disengaging themselves from me. God will come to you only as you will give Him/Her to your brothers and sisters. Learn first of them, and you will be ready to hear God as you hear them. That is because the function of love is one.

⁹² How can you teach someone the value of something he or she has deliberately thrown away? He or she must have thrown it away because he or she did not value it. You can only show him or her how miserable he or she is without it and bring it near very slowly, so he or she can learn how his or her misery lessens as he or she approaches it. This conditions him or her to associate his or her misery with its absence and to associate the opposite of misery with its presence. It gradually becomes desirable as he or she changes his or her mind about its worth.

⁹³ I am conditioning you to associate misery with the ego and joy with the Spirit. You have conditioned yourselves the other way around. A far greater reward, however, will break through any conditioning if it is repeatedly offered whenever the old habit pattern is broken. You are still free to choose, but can you really want the rewards of the ego in the presence of the rewards of God?

VIII. Manifested creation and Communication

⁹⁴ It should be clear by now that, while the content of any particular ego-illusion does not matter, it is usually more helpful to correct it in a specific context. Ego-illusions are quite specific, although they frequently change and although the mind is naturally abstract. The mind nevertheless becomes concrete voluntarily as soon as it splits. However, only part of it splits, so only part of it is concrete. The concrete part is the same part that believes in the ego because the ego depends on the specific. It is the part that believes your existence means you are separate.

⁹⁵ Everything the ego perceives is a separate whole, without the relationships that imply being. The ego is thus against communication except in so far as it is utilized to establish separateness rather than to abolish it. The communication system of the ego is based on its own thought system, as is everything else it dictates. Its communication is controlled by its need to protect itself, and it will disrupt communication when it experiences threat. While this is always so, individual egos perceive different kinds of threat which are quite specific in their own judgment. For example, although all forms of perceived demands may be classified or judged by the ego as coercive communication which must be disrupted, the response of breaking communication will nevertheless be to a specific personal or personals.

⁹⁶ The specificity of the ego's thinking, then, results in a spurious kind of generalization which is really not abstract at all. It will respond in certain specific ways to all stimuli which it perceives as related. In contrast the Spirit reacts in the same way to everything it knows is true and does not respond at all to anything else. Nor does it make any attempt to establish what is true. It knows that what is true is everything that God created and manifested. It is in complete and direct communication with every aspect of manifested creation because it is in complete and direct communication with its CreatorManifestor.

⁹⁷ This communication is the Will of God. Manifested creation and communication are synonymous. God created and manifested every mind by communicating HisHer Mind to it, thus establishing it forever as a channel for the reception of HisHer Mind and Will. Since only beings of a like order can truly communicate, HisHer creationsmanifestations naturally communicate with HimHer and like HimHer. This communication is perfectly abstract in that its quality is universal in application and not subject to any judgment, any exception, or any alteration. God created and manifested you by this and for this. The mind can distort its function, but it cannot endow itself with functions it was not given. That is why the mind cannot totally lose the ability to communicate, even though it may refuse to utilize it on behalf of being.

⁹⁸ Existence as well as being rests on communication. Existence, however, is specific in how, what, and with whom communication is judged to be worth undertaking. Being is completely without these distinctions. It is a state in which the mind is in communication with everything that is real, including the individual Spirit. To whatever extent you permit this state to be curtailed, you are limiting your sense of your own reality, which becomes total only by your recognizing all reality in the glorious context of its real relationship to you. This is your reality. Do not desecrate it or recoil from it. It is your real home, your real temple, and your real Self.

⁹⁹ God, who encompasses all being, nevertheless created and manifested beings who have everything individually but who want to share it to increase their joy. Nothing that is real can be increased except by sharing. That is why God HimHerself created and manifested you. Divine Abstraction takes joy in application, and that is what manifested creation means. "How," "what," and "to whom" are irrelevant because real manifested creation gives everything, since it can create and manifest only like itself. Remember that in being there is no difference between "having" and "being" as there is in existence. In the state of being, the mind gives everything always.

¹⁰⁰ The Bible repeatedly states that you should praise God. This hardly means that you should tell HimHer how wonderful HeShe is. HeShe has no ego with which to accept such thanks and no perception with which to judge such offerings. But unless you take your part in the manifested creation, HisHer joy is not complete because yours is incomplete. And this HeShe does know. HeShe knows it in HisHer own Being and its experience of HisHer Son'sDaughter's experience. The constant going out of HisHer love is blocked when HisHer channels are closed, and HeShe is lonely when the minds HeShe created and manifested do not communicate fully with HimHer.

¹⁰¹ God has kept your realm for you, but HeShe cannot share HisHer joy with you until you know it with your whole mind. Even revelation is not enough because it is communication from God. It is not enough until it is shared. God does not need revelation returned to HimHer, which would clearly be impossible, but HeShe does want revelation brought to others. This cannot be done with the actual revelation because its content cannot be expressed, and it is intensely personal to the mind which receives it. It can, however, still be returned by that mind through its attitudes to other minds which the knowledge from the revelation brings.

¹⁰² God is praised whenever any mind learns to be wholly helpful. This is impossible without being wholly harmless because the two beliefs coexist. The truly helpful are invulnerable because they are not protecting their egos, so that nothing can hurt them. Their helpfulness is their praise of God, and HeShe will return their praise of HimHer because they are like HimHer, and they can rejoice together. God goes out to them and through them, and there is great joy throughout the God Realm. Every mind that is changed adds to this joy with its own individual willingness to share in it. The truly helpful are God's miracle workers whom I direct until we are all united in the joy of the God Realm. I will direct you to wherever you can be truly helpful and to whoever can follow my guidance through you.

IX. True Rehabilitation

¹⁰³ Every mind which is split needs rehabilitation. The medical orientation to rehabilitation emphasizes the body, while the vocational orientation stresses the ego. The "team" approach generally leads more to confusion than to anything else because it is too often misused as a way of exerting the ego's domination over other egos, rather than as a real experiment in the cooperation of minds. Rehabilitation as a movement is an improvement over the overt neglect of those in need of help, but it is often little more than a painful attempt on the part of the halt to lead the blind.

¹⁰⁴ The ego is likely to fear broken bodies because it cannot tolerate them. The ego cannot tolerate ego weakness either without ambivalence because it is afraid of its own weakness as well as the weakness of its chosen home. When it is threatened, the ego blocks your natural impulse to help, placing you under the strain of divided will. You may then be tempted to withdraw to allow your ego to recover and to gain enough strength to be helpful again on a basis limited enough not to threaten your ego but too limited to give you joy. Those with broken bodies are often looked down on by the ego because of its belief that nothing but a perfect body is worthy as its own temple.

¹⁰⁵ A mind that recoils from a hurt body is in great need of rehabilitation itself. All symptoms of hurt need true helpfulness, and whenever they are met with this, the mind that so meets them heals itself. Rehabilitation is an attitude of praising God as HeShe HimHerself knows praise. HeShe offers praise to you, and you must offer it to others. The chief handicaps of the clinicians lie in their attitudes to those whom their egos perceive as weakened and damaged. By these evaluations, they have weakened and damaged their own helpfulness and have thus set their own rehabilitation back. Rehabilitation is not concerned either with the ego's fight for control or its need to avoid and withdraw. You can do much on behalf of your own rehabilitation and that of others if in a situation calling for healing you think of it this way:

¹⁰⁶ I am here only to be truly helpful.

I am here to represent the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, Who sent me.

I do not have to worry about what to say or what to do, because HeShe Who sent me will direct me.

I am content to be wherever HeShe wishes, knowing HeShe goes there with me.

I will be healed as I let HimHer teach me to heal.

Chapter Five:

Healing and Wholeness

I. Introduction

¹ To heal is to make happy. I have told you before to think how the many opportunities you have to gladden yourselves and how the many you have refused. This is exactly the same as telling you that you have refused to heal yourselves. The light that belongs to you is the light of joy. Radiance is not associated with sorrow. Depression is often contagious but, although it may affect those who come in contact with it, they do not yield to the influence whole-heartedly. But joy calls forth an integrated willingness to share in it and thus promotes the mind's natural impulse to respond as one.

² Those who attempt to heal without being wholly joyous themselves call forth different kinds of responses at the same time and thus deprive others of the joy of responding whole-heartedly. To be whole-hearted, you must be happy. If fear and love cannot coexist and if it is impossible to be wholly fearful and remain alive, then the only possible whole state is that of love. There is no difference between love and joy. Therefore, the only possible whole state is the wholly joyous. To heal or to make joyous is therefore the same as to integrate and to make one. That is why it makes no difference to what part or by what part of the SonDaughtership the healing is done. Every part benefits and benefits equally.

³ You are being blessed by every beneficent thought of any of your brothers and sisters anywhere. You should want to bless them in return out of gratitude. You do not have to know them individually or they you. The light is so strong that it radiates throughout the SonDaughtership and returns thanks to the FatherMother for radiating HisHer joy upon it. Only God's holy Children are worthy to be channels of HisHer beautiful joy because only they are beautiful enough to hold it by sharing it. It is impossible for a Child of God to love his or her neighbor except as himherself. That is why the healer's prayer is: getting is all. Having everything between them, the individual Spirit holds everything by giving it and receiving it and thus creates and manifests as the FatherMother created and manifested.

⁴ Let me know this brother or sister as I know myself.

II. Healing As Joining

⁵ Healing is an act of thought by which two minds perceive their oneness and become glad. This gladness calls to every part of the SonDaughtership to rejoice with them and lets God HimHerself go out into them and through them. Only the healed mind can experience revelation with lasting effect because revelation is an experience of pure joy. If you do not choose to be wholly joyous, your mind cannot have what it does not choose to be. Remember that the individual Spirit knows no difference between "being" and "having." The higher mind thinks according to the laws which the individual Spirit obeys and therefore honors only the laws of God. To HimHer, getting is meaningless and giving is all, and to Her giving is meaningless and

⁶ If you think about it, you will see that, while this kind of thinking is totally alien to having things, even to the lower mind it is quite comprehensible in connection with ideas. If you share a physical possession, you do divide its ownership. If you share an idea, however, you do not lessen it. All of it is still yours, although all of it has been given away. Further, if the personal to whom you give it accepts it as his or hers, he or she reinforces it in your mind, and thus increases it. If you can accept the concept that the world is one of ideas, the whole belief in the false association which the ego makes between giving and losing is gone.

⁷ Let us start our process of reawakening with just a few simple concepts:

⁸ Thoughts increase by being given away.
The more who believe in them, the stronger they become.
Everything is an idea.
How, then, is it possible that giving and losing can be meaningfully associated?

⁹ This is the invitation to the Holy Spirit. I told you that I could reach up and bring the Holy Spirit down to you, but I can bring Her to you only at your own invitation. The Holy Spirit is nothing more than your own right mind. She was also ours. The Bible says, "May the mind be in you that was also in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness of Jesus," and uses this as a blessing. It is the blessing of miracle-mindedness. It asks that you may think as I thought, joining with me in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness-thinking.

¹⁰ The Holy Spirit is the only part of the Holy Trinity which is symbolic. She is referred to in the Bible as the Healer, the Comforter, and the Guide. She is also described as something "separate," apart from the FatherMother and from the SonDaughter. I myself said, "If I go I will send you another comforter, and She will abide with you." The Holy Spirit is a difficult concept to grasp precisely because it is symbolic and therefore open to the many different interpretations. As a man or woman and as one of God's manifestations of creations, our right thinking, which came from the Universal Inspiration which is the Holy Spirit, taught us first and foremost that this Inspiration is for all. I could not have It myself without knowing this.

¹¹ The word "know" is proper in this context because the Holy Inspiration is so close to knowledge that it calls it forth; or better, allows it to come. We have spoken before of the higher or the "true" perception, which is so close to truth that God HimHerself can flow across the little gap. Knowledge is always ready to flow everywhere, but it cannot oppose. Therefore, you can obstruct it, although you can never lose it. The Holy Spirit is the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, which senses the knowledge that lies beyond perception. It came into being with the separation as a protection, inspiring the beginning of the Atonement at the same time. Before that, there was no need for healing and no one was comfortless.

III. The Mind of the Atonement

¹² God honored even the miscreations/mismanifestations of HisHer Children because they had made them, but HeShe also blessed them with a way of thinking that could raise their perceptions until they became so lofty that they could reach almost back to HimHer. The Holy Spirit is the Mind of the Atonement. It represents a state of mind that comes close enough to one-mindedness that transfer to it is at last possible. Transfer depends on common elements in the old learning and the new situation to which it is transferred. Perception is not knowledge, but it can be transferred to knowledge or cross over into it. It might even be more helpful here to use the literal meaning of "carried" over since the last step is taken by God.

¹³ The Holy Spirit, the shared Inspiration of all the SonDaughtership, induces a kind of perception in which the many elements are like those in the God Realm itself.

¹⁴ First, its universality is perfectly clear, and no one who receives it could ever believe for one instant that sharing it involves anything but gain.

¹⁵ Second, it is incapable of attack and is therefore truly open. This means that, although it does not engender knowledge, it does not obstruct it in any way. [Third, it is an unequivocal call to love. Every other voice is still.]

¹⁶ There is a point at which sufficient quantitative changes produce real qualitative differences. The next point requires real understanding, because it is the point at which the shift occurs. Finally, it points the way beyond the healing which it brings and leads the mind beyond its own integration into the paths of manifested creation.

¹⁷ Healing is not creating/manifesting; it is reparation. The Holy Spirit promotes healing by looking beyond it to what the Children of God were before healing was needed and will be when they have been healed. This alteration of the time sequence should be quite familiar because it is very similar to the shift in time perception which the miracle introduces. The Holy Spirit is the motivation for miracle-mindedness, the will to heal the separation by letting it go. This will is in you because God placed it in your mind, and although you can keep it asleep, you cannot obliterate it.

¹⁸ God HimHerself keeps this will alive by transmitting it from HisHer Mind to yours as long as there is time. It is partly HisHer and partly yours. The miracle itself is just this fusion or union of will between FatherMother and SonDaughter. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of joy. She is the Call to return with which God blessed the minds of HisHer separated SonDaughters. This is the vocation of the mind. The mind had no calling until the separation because before that it had only being and would not have understood the call to right thinking. The Holy Spirit was God's Answer to the separation, the means by which the Atonement could repair until the whole mind returned to creatingmanifesting.

¹⁹ The Atonement and the separation began at the same time. When man or woman made the ego, God placed in him or her the call to joy. This call is so strong that the ego always dissolves at its sound. That is why you can choose to listen to two voices within you. One you made yourself and that one is not of God. But the other is given you by God Who asks you only to listen to it. The Holy Spirit is in you in a very literal sense. Hers is the Voice that calls you back to where you were before and will be again.

IV. The Voice For God

²⁰ It is possible even in this world to hear only that Voice and no other. It takes effort and great willingness to learn. It is the final lesson that I learned, and God's SonsDaughters are as equal as learners as they are as individual Spirits. The Voice of the Holy Spirit is the call to Atonement or the restoration of the integrity of the mind. When the Atonement is complete and the whole SonDaughtership is healed, there will be no call to return, but what God creates and manifests is eternal. The Holy Spirit will remain with the SonsDaughters of God to bless their creationsmanifestations and keep them in the light of joy.

²¹ You are the God Realm, but you have let the belief in darkness enter your minds, and so you need a new light. The Holy Spirit is the radiance that you must let banish the idea of darkness. HisHer is the glory before which dissociation falls away and the God Realm breaks through into its own. Before the separation you did not need guidance. You knew as you will know again, but as you do not know now. God does not guide because HeShe can share only perfect knowledge. Guidance is evaluative because it implies that there is a right way and also a wrong way, one to be chosen and the other to be avoided. By choosing one, you give up the other.

²² This is a conflict state. It means that knowledge has been lost because knowledge is sure. God is not in you in a literal sense; you are part of HimHer. When you chose to leave HimHer, HeShe gave you a Voice to speak for HimHer because HeShe could no longer share HisHer knowledge with you without hindrance. Direct communication was broken because you had made another voice through another will. The Holy Spirit calls you both to remember and to forget. You have chosen to be in a state of opposition in which opposites are possible. As a result, there are choices which you must make. In the holy state, the will is free in the sense that its creative and manifestive power is unlimited, but choice itself is meaningless.

²³ Freedom to choose is the same power as freedom to create and manifest, but its application is different. Choosing means divided will. The Holy Spirit is one way of choosing. This way is in you because there is also another way. God did not leave HisHer Children comfortless, even though they chose to leave HimHer. The voice they put in their minds was not the voice of HisHer Will for which the Holy Spirit speaks. The call to return is stronger than the call to depart, but it speaks in a different way.

²⁴ The Voice of the Holy Spirit does not command because it is incapable of arrogance. It does not demand because it does not seek control. It does not overcome because it does not attack. It merely reminds. It is compelling only because of what it reminds you of. It brings to your mind the other way, remaining quiet even in the midst of the turmoil you have made for yourselves. The Voice for God is always quiet because it speaks of peace. Yet peace is stronger than war because it heals. War is division, not increase. No one gains from strife.

²⁵ "What profiteth it a man or woman if he or she gain the whole world and lose his or her own Spirit?" That means that if he or she listens to the wrong voice, he or she has lost sight of his or her individual Spirit. He or she cannot lose it, but he or she can not know it. It is therefore lost to him or her until he or she chooses right. The Holy Spirit is your Guide in choosing. She is the part of your mind which always speaks for the right choice because She speaks for God. She is your remaining communication with God, which you can interrupt but cannot destroy.

²⁶ The Holy Spirit is the way in which God's Will can be done on earth as it is in the God Realm. Both God Realm and earth are in you because the call of both is in your will and therefore in your mind. The Voice for God comes from your own altars to HimHer. These altars are not things; they are devotions. Yet you have other devotions now. Your divided devotion has given you the two voices, and you must choose at which altar you will to serve. The call you answer now is an evaluation because it is a decision. The decision itself is very simple. It is made on the basis of which call is worth more to you.

²⁷ My mind will always be like yours because we were created and manifested as equals. It was only my decision that gave me all power in the God Realm and earth. My only gift to you is to help you make the same decision for yourself. The will for this decision is the will to share it because the decision itself is the decision to share. It is made by giving and is therefore the one act of mind that resembles true manifested creation. You understand the role of "models" in the learning process and the importance of the models you value and choose to follow in determining what you will to learn. I am your model for decision. By deciding for God, I showed you that this decision can be made and that you can make it.

²⁸ I promised you that the mind that made the decision for me is also in you and that you can let it change you just as it changed me. This mind is unequivocal because it hears only one voice and answers in only one way. You are the light of the world with me. Rest does not come from sleeping but from waking. The Holy Spirit is the call to awake and be glad. The world is very tired because it is the idea of weariness. Our task is the joyous one of waking it to the Call for God. Everyone will answer the Call of the Holy Spirit, or the SonDaughtership cannot be as one. What better vocation could there be for any part of the God Realm than to restore it to the perfect integration that can make it whole?

²⁹ Hear only this through the Holy Spirit within you, and teach your brothers and sisters to listen as I am teaching you. When you are tempted by the wrong voice, call on me to remind you how to heal by sharing my decision and making it stronger. As we share this goal we increase its power to attract the whole SonDaughtership and to bring it back into the Oneness in which it was created and manifested. Remember that "yoke" means "join together" and "burden" means "message." Let us reconsider the Biblical statement, "My yoke is easy and my burden light" in this way: "Let us join together, for our message is light."

³⁰ I came into your minds because you had grown vaguely aware of the fact that there is another way or another Voice. Having given this invitation to the Holy Spirit, I could come to provide the model for how to think. Psychology has become the study of behavior, but no one denies the basic law that behavior is a response to motivation, and motivation is will. I have enjoined you to behave as I behaved, but we must respond to the same mind to do this. This mind is the Holy Spirit, whose will is for God always. She teaches you how to keep me as the model for your thought and to behave like me as a result.

³¹ The power of our joint motivation is beyond belief but not beyond accomplishment. What we can accomplish together has no limits because the Call for God is the call to the unlimited. Child of God, our message is for you to hear and give away as you answer the Holy Spirit within you.

V. The Guide to Salvation

³² The way to learn to know your brother or sister is by perceiving the Holy Spirit in him or her. We have already said that the Holy Spirit is the bridge or thought-transfer of perception to knowledge, so we can use the terms as if they were related because in Her mind they are. The relationship must be in Her mind because, unless it were, the separation between the two ways of thinking would not be open to healing. She is part of the Holy Trinity because Her mind is partly yours and also partly God's. This needs clarification, not in statement, since we have said it before, but in experience.

³³ The Holy Spirit is the idea of healing. Being thought, the idea gains as it is shared. Being the Call for God, it is also the idea of God. Since you are part of God, it is also the idea of yourself as well as of all the parts of God. The idea of the Holy Spirit shares the property of other ideas because it follows the laws of the Universe of which it is a part. Therefore, it is strengthened by being given away. It increases in you as you give it to your brothers and sisters. Since thoughts do not have to be conscious to exist, your brother or sister does not have to be aware of the Holy Spirit either in himself or herself or in you for this miracle to occur.

³⁴ Your brother or sister may have dissociated the Call for God, just as you have. The dissociation is healed in both of you as you become aware of the Call for God in him or her and thus acknowledge its being. There are two ways of seeing your brother or sister which are diametrically opposed to each other. They must both be in your mind because you are the perceiver. They must also be in his or her because you are perceiving him or her. See him or her through the Holy Spirit in his or her mind, and you will recognize him or her in yours. What you acknowledge in your brother or sister you are acknowledging in yourself, and what you share you strengthen.

³⁵ The Voice of the Holy Spirit is weak in you. That is why you must share it. It must be increased in strength before you can hear it. It is impossible to hear it in yourself while it is so weak in your own mind. It is not weak in itself, but it is limited by your unwillingness to hear it. Will itself is an idea and is therefore strengthened by being shared. If you make the mistake of looking for the Holy Spirit in yourself alone, your meditations will frighten you because by adopting the ego's viewpoint you are undertaking an ego-alien journey with the ego as guide. This is bound to produce fear.

³⁶ Delay is of the ego because time is its concept. Delay is obviously a time idea. Both time and delay are meaningless in eternity. We have said before that the Holy Spirit is God's Answer to the ego. Everything of which the Holy Spirit reminds you is in direct opposition to the ego's notions because true and false perceptions are themselves opposed. The Holy Spirit has the task of undoing what the ego has made. She undoes it in the same realm of discourse in which the ego itself operates, or the mind would be unable to understand the change.

³⁷ We have repeatedly emphasized that one level of the mind is not understandable to another. So it is with the ego and the Spirit, with time and eternity. Eternity is an idea of God, so the Spirit understands it perfectly. Time is a belief of the ego, so the lower mind, which is the ego's domain, accepts it without question. The only aspect of time which is really eternal is now. That is what we really mean when we say that "now is the only time." The literal nature of this statement does not mean anything to the ego, which interprets it at best to mean "don't worry about the future." That is not what it really means at all.

³⁸ The Holy Spirit is the Mediator between the interpretations of the ego and the knowledge of the Spirit. Her ability to deal with symbols enables Her to work against the ego's beliefs in its own language. Her equal ability to look beyond symbols into eternity also enables Her to understand the laws of God, for which She speaks. She can thus perform the function of reinterpreting what the ego makes, not by destruction but by understanding. Understanding is light, and light leads to knowledge. The Holy Spirit is in light because She is in you who are light, but you yourselves do not know this. It is therefore the task of the Holy Spirit to reinterpret you on behalf of God.

³⁹ You cannot understand yourselves alone. This is because you have no meaning apart from your rightful place in the SonDaughtership and the rightful place of the SonDaughtership in God. This is your life, your eternity, and yourself. It is of this that the Holy Spirit reminds you. It is this that the Holy Spirit sees. This vision invariably frightens the ego because it is so calm. Peace is the ego's greatest enemy because, according to its interpretation of reality, war is the guarantee of its survival. The ego becomes strong in strife. If you believe there is strife, you will react viciously because the idea of danger has entered your mind. The idea itself is an appeal to the ego.

⁴⁰ The Holy Spirit is as vigilant as the ego to the call of danger, opposing it with Her strength, just as the ego welcomes it with all its might. The Holy Spirit counters this welcome by welcoming peace. Peace and eternity are as closely related as are time and war. Perception as well as knowledge derives meaning from relationships. Those which you accept are the foundations of your beliefs. The separation is merely another term for a split mind. It was not an act, but a thought. Therefore, the idea of separation can be given away, just as the idea of unity can. Either way, the idea will be strengthened in the mind of the giver.

⁴¹ The ego is the symbol of separation, just as the Holy Spirit is the symbol of peace. What you perceive in others, you are strengthening in yourself. You let your mind misperceive, but the Holy Spirit lets your mind reinterpret its own misperceptions. The Holy Spirit is the perfect Teacheress. She uses only what your minds already understand to teach you that you do not understand it. The Holy Spirit can deal with an unwilling learner without going counter to his or her will because part of his or her will is still for God. Despite the ego's attempts to conceal this part, it is still much stronger than the ego, even though the ego does not recognize it. The Holy Spirit recognizes it perfectly because it is Her own dwelling place or the place in the mind where She is at home.

⁴² You are at home there, too, because it is a place of peace, and peace is of God. You who are part of God are not at home except in HisHer peace. If peace is eternal, you are at home only in eternity. The ego made the world as it perceives it, but the Holy Spirit, the reinterpreter of what the ego made, sees it only as a teaching device for bringing you home. The Holy Spirit must perceive time and reinterpret it into the timeless. The mind must be led into eternity through time because, having made time, it is capable of perceiving its opposite.

⁴³ The Holy Spirit must work through opposites because She must work with and for a mind that is in opposition. Correct and learn and be open to learning. You have not made truth, but truth can still set you free. Look as the Holy Spirit looks, and understand as She understands. Her understanding looks back to God in remembrance of me. She is in Holy Communion always, and She is part of you. She is your Guide to salvation because She holds the remembrance of things past and to come. She holds this gladness gently in your minds, asking only that you increase it in Her name by sharing it, to increase Her joy in you.

VI. Therapy and Teaching

⁴⁴ You must have noticed how often I have used your own ideas to help you. You have learned to be a loving, wise, and very understanding therapist except for yourself. That exception has given you more than perception for others because of what you saw in them but less than knowledge of your real relationships to them because you did not accept them as part of you. Understanding is beyond perception because it introduces meaning. It is, however, below knowledge even though it can grow towards it. It is possible, with great effort, to understand someone else to some extent and to be quite helpful to him, but the effort is misdirected. The misdirection is quite apparent; it is directed away from you.

⁴⁵ This does not mean that it is lost to you, but it does mean that you are not aware of it. I have saved all your kindnesses and every loving thought you have had. I have purified them of the errors which hid their light and have kept them for you in their own perfect radiance. They are beyond destruction and beyond guilt. They came from the Holy Spirit within you, and we know what God creates and manifests is eternal. What fear has hidden still is part of you.

⁴⁶ Joining the Atonement, which I have repeatedly asked you to do, is always a way out of fear. This does not mean that you can safely fail to acknowledge anything that is true. However, the Holy Spirit will not fail to help you reinterpret everything that you perceive as fearful and teach you that only what is loving is true. Truth is beyond your ability to destroy but entirely within your grasp. It belongs to you because you created and manifested it. It is yours because it is a part of you, just as you are part of God because HeShe created and manifested you.

⁴⁷ The Atonement is the guarantee of the safety of the God Realm. Nothing good is lost because it comes from the Holy Spirit, the Voice for manifestation. Nothing that is not good was ever created and manifested and therefore cannot be protected. What the ego makes, it keeps to itself, and so it is without strength. Its unshared existence does not die; it was merely never born. Real birth is not a beginning; it is a continuing. Everything that can continue has been born, but it can increase as you are willing to return the part of your mind that needs healing to the higher part and thus render your creatingmanifesting undivided.

⁴⁸ As a therapist, you yourself tell your patients that the real difference between neurotic and "healthy" guilt feelings is that neurotic guilt feelings do not help anyone. This distinction is wise though incomplete. Let us make the distinction a little sharper now. Neurotic guilt feelings are a device of the ego for "atoning" without sharing and for asking pardon without change. The ego never calls for real Atonement and cannot tolerate forgiveness, which is change.

⁴⁹ Your concept of "healthy guilt feelings" has merit, but without the concept of the Atonement, it lacks the healing potential it holds. You made the distinction in terms of feelings, which led to a decision not to repeat the error, which is only part of healing. Your concept lacked the idea of undoing it. What you were really advocating, then, was adopting a policy of sharing without a real foundation. I have come to give you the foundation, so your own thoughts can make you really free. You have carried the burden of the ideas you did not share and which were therefore too weak to increase, but you did not recognize how to undo their existence because you had made them.

⁵⁰ You cannot cancel out your past errors alone. They will not disappear from your mind without remedy. The remedy is not of your making, any more than you are. The Atonement cannot be understood except as a pure act of sharing. That is what is meant when we said it is possible even in this world to listen to one voice. If you are part of God and the SonDaughtership is one, you cannot be limited to the "self" the ego sees. Every loving thought held in any part of the SonDaughtership belongs to every part. It is shared because it is loving. Sharing is God's way of creating manifesting and also yours. Your ego can keep you in exile from the God Realm, but in the God Realm itself it has no power.

⁵¹ You have become willing to receive mu messages as I give them without interference by the ego, so we can clarify an earlier point. We said that you will one day teach as much as you learn and that will keep you in balance. The time is now because you have let it be now. You cannot learn except by teaching.

⁵² I heard one voice because I had learned that learning is attained by teaching. I understood that I could not atone for myself alone. Listening to one voice means the will to share the voice in order to hear it yourself. The mind that was in me is still irresistibly drawn to every mind created and manifested by God because God's Wholeness is the wholeness of HisHer SonDaughter.

⁵³ Turning the other cheek does not mean that you should submit to violence without protest. It means that you cannot be hurt and do not want to show your brother or sister anything except your wholeness. Show him or her that he or she cannot hurt you and hold nothing against him, or you hold it against yourself. Teaching is done in the many ways: by formal means, by guidance, and above all by example. Teaching is therapy because it means the sharing of ideas and the awareness that to share them is to strengthen them. The union of the SonDaughtership is its protection. The ego cannot prevail against the Realm because it is united, and the ego fades away and is undone in the presence of the attraction of the parts of the SonDaughtership, which hear the call of the Holy Spirit to be as One.

⁵⁴ I cannot forget my need to teach what I have learned, which arose in me because I learned it. I call upon you to teach what you have learned because by so doing you can depend on it. Make it dependable in my name because my name is the Name of God's SonDaughter. What I learned I give you freely, and the mind which was in me rejoices as you choose to hear it. The Holy Spirit atones in all of us by undoing and thus lifts the burden you have placed in your mind. By following Her, She leads you back to God where you belong, and how can you find this way except by taking your brother or sister with you?

⁵⁵ My part in the Atonement is not complete until you join it and give it away. As you teach, so shall you learn. I will never leave you or forsake you because to forsake you would be to forsake myself and God who created and manifested me. You will forsake yourselves and God if you forsake any of your brothers and sisters. You are more than your brother's and sister's keeper. In fact, you do not want to keep him or her. You must learn to see him or her as he or she is and know that he or she belongs to God as you do. How could you treat your brother or sister better than by rendering unto God the things which are God's?

⁵⁶ Ideas do not leave the mind which thought them to have a separate being, nor do separate thoughts conflict with one another in space because they do not occupy space at all. However, human ideas can conflict in content because they occur at different levels and include opposite thoughts at the same level. It is impossible to share opposing thoughts. The Holy Spirit does not let you forsake your brothers and sisters. Therefore, you can really share only the parts of your thoughts which are of Her and which She also keeps for you. And of such is the God Realm. All the rest remains with you until She has reinterpreted them in the light of the Realm, making them, too, worthy of being shared. When they have been sufficiently purified, She lets you give them away. The will to share them is their purification.

⁵⁷ The Atonement gives you the power of a healed mind, but the power to create and manifest is of God. Therefore, those who have been forgiven must devote themselves first to healing because having received the idea of healing, they must give it to hold it. The full power of manifested creation cannot be expressed as long as any of God's ideas withhold it from the God Realm. The joint will of all the SonDaughtership is the only creatormanifestor that can create and manifest like the FatherMother because only the complete can think completely, and the thinking of God lacks nothing. Everything you think that is not through the Holy Spirit is lacking.

⁵⁸ How can you who are so holy suffer? All your past except its beauty is gone, and nothing is left except a blessing. You can indeed depart in peace because I have loved you as I loved myself. You go with my blessing and for my blessing. Hold it and share it, that it may always be ours. I place the peace of God in your heart and in your hands, to hold and share. The heart is pure to hold it and the hands are strong to give it. We cannot lose. My judgment is as strong as the wisdom of God, in Whose Heart and Hands we have our being. HisHer quiet Children are HisHer blessed SonDaughters. The Thoughts of God are with you.

VII. The Two Decisions

⁵⁹ Perhaps some of our concepts will become clearer and more personally meaningful if the ego's use of guilt is clarified. The ego has a purpose, just as the Holy Spirit has. The ego's purpose is fear because only the fearful can be egotistic. The ego's logic is as impeccable as that of the Holy Spirit because your mind has all the means at its disposal to side with the God Realm or earth, as it elects. But again, let us remember that both are in you. In the God Realm there is no guilt because the God Realm is attained through the Atonement, which releases you to create and manifest. The word "create and manifest" is appropriate here because, once what you have made is undone by the Holy Spirit, the blessed residue is restored and therefore continues in manifested creation.

⁶⁰ What is truly blessed is incapable of giving rise to guilt and must give rise to joy. This makes it invulnerable to the ego because its peace is unassailable. It is invulnerable to disruption because it is whole. Guilt is always disruptive. Anything that engenders fear is divisive because it obeys the law of division. If the ego is the symbol of the separation, it is also the symbol of guilt. Guilt is more than merely not of God. It is the symbol of the attack on God. This is a totally meaningless concept except to the ego, but do not underestimate the power of the ego's belief in it. This is the belief from which all guilt really stems.

⁶¹ The ego is the part of the mind which believes in division. How can part of God detach itself without believing it is attacking HimHer? We spoke before of the authority problem as involving the concept of usurping God's power. The ego believes that this is what you did because it believes it is you. It follows, then, that if you identify with the ego, you must perceive yourself as guilty. Whenever you respond to your ego, you will experience guilt and you will fear punishment. The ego is quite literally a fearful thought.

⁶² However ridiculous the idea of attacking God may be to the sane mind, never forget that the ego is not sane. It represents a delusional system, and it speaks for it. Listening to the ego's voice means that you believe it is possible to attack God. You believe that a part of HimHer has been torn away by you. The classic picture of fear of retaliation from without then follows because the severity of the guilt is so acute that it must be projected. Although Freud was wrong about the basic conflict itself, he was very accurate in describing its effects.

⁶³ Whatever you accept into your mind has reality for you. It is, however, only your acceptance of it that makes it real. If you enthrone the ego in it, the fact that you have accepted it or allowed it to enter makes it your reality. This is because the mind, as God created and manifested it, is capable of creating/manifesting reality. We said before that you must learn to think with God. To think with HimHer is to think like HimHer. This engenders joy, not guilt, because it is natural. Guilt is a sure sign that your thinking is unnatural. Perverted thinking will always be attended with guilt because it is the belief in sin.

⁶⁴ The ego does not perceive sin as a lack of love. It perceives sin as a positive act of assault. This is an interpretation which is necessary to the ego's survival because as soon as you regard sin as a lack you will automatically attempt to remedy the situation. And you will succeed. The ego regards this as doom, but you must learn to regard it as freedom. The guiltless mind cannot suffer. Being sane, it heals the body because it has been healed. The sane mind cannot conceive of illness because it cannot conceive of attacking anyone or anything.

⁶⁵ We said before that illness is a form of magic. It might be better to say that it is a form of magical solution. The ego believes that by punishing itself it will mitigate the punishment of God. Yet even in this it is arrogant. It attributes to God a punishing intent, and then takes over this intent as its own prerogative. It tries to usurp all the functions of God as it perceives them because it recognizes that only total allegiance can be trusted.

⁶⁶ The ego cannot oppose the laws of God any more than you can, but it can interpret them according to what it wants, just as you can. That is why the question, "What do you want?" must be answered. You are answering it every minute and every second, and each moment of decision is a judgment which is anything but ineffectual. Its effects will follow automatically until the decision is changed. This is repeated here because you have not learned it. But again, your decision can be unmade as well as made. Remember, though, that the alternatives are unalterable.

⁶⁷ The Holy Spirit, like the ego, is a decision. Together they constitute all the alternatives which the mind can accept and obey. The ego and the Holy Spirit are the only choices open to you. God created and manifested one, and so you cannot eradicate it. You made the other, and so you can. Only what God creates and manifests is irreversible and unchangeable. What you have made can always be changed because when you do not think like God you are not really thinking at all. Delusional ideas are not real thoughts, although you can believe in them. But you are wrong. The function of thought comes from God and is in God. As part of HisHer Thought, you cannot think apart from HimHer.

⁶⁸ Irrational thought is a thought disorder. God HimHerself orders your thought because your thought was created and manifested by HimHer. Guilt feelings are always a sign that you do not know this. They also show that you believe you can think apart from God and want to. Every thought disorder is attended by guilt at its inception and maintained by guilt in its continuance. Guilt is inescapable for those who believe they order their own thought and must therefore obey its orders. This makes them feel responsible for their mind errors, without recognizing that by accepting this responsibility they are really reacting irresponsibly. If the sole responsibility of the miracle worker is to accept the Atonement for himself or herself, and I assure you that it is, then the responsibility for what is atoned for cannot be yours.

⁶⁹ The dilemma cannot be resolved except by accepting the solution of undoing. You would be responsible for the effects of all your wrong thinking if it could not be undone. The purpose of the Atonement is to save the past in purified form only. If you accept the remedy for a thought disorder, and a remedy whose efficacy is beyond doubt, how can its symptoms remain? You have reason to question the validity of symptom cure, but no one believes that the symptoms can remain if the underlying cause is removed.

VIII. Time and Eternity

⁷⁰ The continuing will to remain separated is the only possible reason for continuing guilt feelings. We have said this before, but we did not emphasize the destructive results of this decision at that time. Any decision of the mind will affect both behavior and experience. What you will, you expect. This is not delusional. Your mind does create and manifest your future, and it can turn it back to full manifested creation at any minute if it accepts the Atonement first. It will also turn back to full manifested creation the instant it has done so. Having given up its thought disorder, the proper ordering of thought becomes quite apparent.

⁷¹ God in HisHer knowledge is not waiting, but HisHer Realm is bereft while you wait. All the SonsDaughters of God are waiting for your return, just as you are waiting for theirs. Delay does not matter in eternity, but it is tragic in time. You have elected to be in time rather than eternity and have therefore changed your belief in your status. Yet your election is both free and alterable. You do not belong in time. Your place is only in eternity, where God HimHerself placed you forever.

⁷² Guilt feelings are the preservers of time. They induce fears of future retaliation or abandonment and thus ensure that the future will remain like the past. This is the ego's continuity and gives it a false sense of security through the belief that you cannot escape from it. But you can and must. God offers you the continuity of eternity in exchange. When you choose to make this exchange, you will simultaneously exchange guilt for joy, viciousness for love, and pain for peace. Our role is only to unchain your will and make it free. Your ego cannot accept this freedom and will oppose your free decision at every possible moment and in every possible way. And as its maker, you recognize what it can do because you gave it the power to do it.

⁷³ The mind does indeed know its power because the mind does indeed know God. Remember the Realm always, and remember that you who are part of the Realm cannot be lost. The mind that was in me is in you, for God creates and manifests with perfect fairness. Let the Holy Spirit remind you always of HisHer fairness, and let me teach you how to share it with your brothers and sisters. How else can the chance to claim it for yourself be given you? What you do not understand is that the two voices speak for different interpretations of the same thing simultaneously, or almost simultaneously, for the ego always speaks first. Alternate interpretations were unnecessary until the first one was made, and speaking itself was unnecessary before the ego was made.

⁷⁴ The ego speaks in judgment and the Holy Spirit reverses its decisions, much as the Supreme Court has the power to reverse the lower courts' decisions about the laws of this world. The ego's decisions are always wrong because they are based on a complete fallacy which they were made to uphold. Nothing the ego perceives is interpreted correctly. Not only does it cite Scripture for its purpose, but it even interprets Scripture as a witness for itself. The Bible is a fearful thing to the ego because of its prejudiced judgment. Perceiving it as fearful, it interprets it fearfully. Having made you afraid, you do not appeal to the Higher Court because you believe its judgment would be against you.

⁷⁵ We need cite only a few examples to see how the ego's interpretations have misled you. A favorite ego quotation is "As ye sow, so shall ye reap." Another is "Vengeance is ours, sayeth the LordLady." Still another is "I will visit the sins of the father or mother unto the third and fourth generation," and also "The wicked shall perish." There are the many others, but if you will let the Holy Spirit reinterpret these in Her own light, they will suffice.

⁷⁶ "As ye sow, so shall ye reap" merely means that what you believe to be worth cultivating you will cultivate in yourself. Your judgment of what is worthy makes it worthy for you. "Vengeance is ours, sayeth the LordLady" is easily explained if you remember that ideas increase only by being shared. This quotation therefore emphasizes the fact that vengeance cannot be shared. Give it therefore to the Holy Spirit, who will undo it in you because it does not belong in your mind, which is part of God.

⁷⁷ "I will visit the sins of the fathers unto the third and fourth generation," as interpreted by the ego, is particularly vicious. It is used, in fact, as an attempt to guarantee its survival beyond itself. Actually, all the quotation means is that the Holy Spirit in later generations retains the power to interpret correctly what former generations have thought and thus release their thoughts from the ability to produce fear anywhere in the SonDaughtership. "The wicked shall perish" is merely a statement of fact if the word "perish" is properly understood. Every loveless thought must be undone. Even the word "undone" is fearful to the ego, which interprets "I am undone" as "I am destroyed."

⁷⁸ The ego will not be destroyed because it is part of your thought, but because it is uncreativeunmanifestive and therefore unsharing, it will be reinterpreted entirely to release you from fear. The part of your thought which you have given to the ego will merely return to the Realm, where your whole mind belongs. The ego is a form of arrest, but arrest is merely delay. It does not involve the concept of punishment, although the ego welcomes that interpretation. You can delay the completion of the God Realm, but you cannot introduce the concept of assault into it.

⁷⁹ When I said, "I are come as a light into the world," I surely came to share the light with you. Remember the symbolic reference we made before to the ego's dark glass, and remember also that we said, "Do not look there." It is still true that "where you look to find yourself is up to you." The Higher Court will not condemn you. It will merely dismiss the case against you. There can be no case against a Child of God, and every witness to guilt in Gods creationsmanifestations is bearing false witness to God HimHerself.

⁸⁰ Appeal everything you believe gladly to God's own Higher Court because it speaks for HimHer and therefore speaks truly. It will dismiss the case against you, however carefully you have built it. The case may be foolproof, but it is not God-proof. The Voice for God will not hear it at all because She can only witness truly. Her verdict will always be "Thine is the God Realm" because She was given you to remind you of what you are.

⁸¹ Your patience with each other is your patience with yourselves. Is not a Child of God worth patience? I have shown you infinite patience because my will is that of our FatherMother, from Whom I learned of infinite patience. HisHer Voice was in me as it is in you, speaking for patience towards the SonDaughtership in the name of its CreatorManifestor. What you need to learn now is that only infinite patience can produce immediate effects. This is the way in which time is exchanged for eternity. Infinite patience calls upon infinite love, and by producing results now, it renders time unnecessary.

⁸² To say that time is temporary is merely redundant. We have repeatedly said that time is a learning device which will be abolished when it is no longer useful. The Holy Spirit, Who speaks for God in time, also knows that time is meaningless. She reminds you of this in every passing moment of time because it is Her special function to return you to eternity and remain to bless your creationsmanifestations there. She is the only blessing you can truly give because She is so truly blessed, and because She has been given you so freely by God, you must give Her as you received Her.

IX. The Eternal Fixation

⁸³ The idea of "set" is among the better psychological concepts. Actually, it is used quite frequently in the Bible and also in this course under the many different terms. For example, "God will keep him or her in perfect peace whose mind is stayed (or set) on HimHer," a statement which means that God's peace is set in the Holy Spirit because She is fixed on God. She is also fixed in you. You, then, are fixed in the peace of God. The concept of "fixation" is also a very helpful one which Freud understood perfectly. Unfortunately, he lost his understanding because he was afraid and, as you know all too well, fear is incompatible with good judgment. Fear distorts thinking and therefore disorders thought.

⁸⁴ Freud's system of thought was extremely ingenious because Freud was extremely ingenious, and a mind must endow its thoughts with its own attributes. This is its inherent strength, although it may misuse its power. Freud lost much of the potential value of his thought system because he did not include himself in it. This is a dissociated state because the thinker cuts himself off from his thoughts. Freud's thought was so conflicted that he could not have retained his sanity as he saw it without dissociation. That is why the many contradictions which are quite apparent in his thinking became increasingly less apparent to him. A man who knows what fixation really means and yet does not yield to it is terribly afraid.

⁸⁵ Fixation is the pull of God, on whom your mind is fixed because of the Holy Spirit's irrevocable set. "Irrevocable" means "cannot be called back or redirected." The irrevocable nature of the Holy Spirit's set is the basis for Her unequivocal Voice. The Holy Spirit never changes Her mind. Clarity of thought cannot occur under conditions of vacillation. Unless a mind is fixed in its purpose, it is not clear. Clarity literally means the state of light, and enlightenment is understanding. Enlightenment stands under perception because you have denied it as the real foundation of thought. This is the basis for all delusional systems.

⁸⁶ The concept of fixation as Freud saw it has a number of learning advantages. First, it recognizes that man or woman can be fixated at a point in development which does not accord with a point in time. This clearly could have been a means toward real release from the time belief, had Freud pursued it with an open mind. Freud, however, suffered all his life from refusal to allow eternity to dawn upon his mind and enlighten it truly. As a result, he overlooked now entirely and merely saw the continuity of past and future.

⁸⁷ Second, although Freud misinterpreted what the Holy Spirit told him, or better, reminded him of, he was too honest to deny more than was necessary to keep his fear in tolerable bounds as he perceived the situation. Therefore, he emphasized that the point in development at which the mind is fixated is more real to itself than the external reality with which it disagrees. This again could have been a powerful release mechanism had Freud not decided to involve it in a strong defense system because he perceived it as an attack.

⁸⁸ Third, although Freud interpreted fixation as involving irrevocable "danger points" to which the mind could always regress, the concept can also be interpreted as an irrevocable call to sanity which the mind cannot lose. Freud himself could not accept this interpretation, but throughout his thought system, the "threat" of fixation remained and could never be eliminated by any living human being. Essentially, this was the basis of Freud's pessimism, personally as well as theoretically. He tried every means his very inventive mind could devise to set up a form of therapy which could enable the mind to escape from fixation forever, even though he knew this was impossible.

⁸⁹ This knowledge plagued Freud's belief in his own thought system at every turn because he was both an honest man and a healer. He was therefore only partially insane and was unable to relinquish the hope of release even though he could not cope with it. The reason for this amount of detail is because you are in the same position. You were eternally fixated on God in your manifested creation, and the pull of this fixation is so strong that you will never overcome it. The reason is perfectly clear. The fixation is on a level so high that it cannot be surmounted. You are always being pulled back to your CreatorManifestor because you belong to HimHer.

⁹⁰ Do you really believe you can make a voice that can drown out HisHers? Do you really believe that you can devise a thought system which can separate you from HisHers? Do you really believe that you can plan for your safety and joy better than HeShe can? You need be neither careful nor careless; you need merely cast your cares upon HimHer because HeShe careth for you. You are HisHer care because HeShe loves you. HisHer Voice reminds you always that all hope is yours because of HisHer care. You cannot choose to escape HisHer care because that is not HisHer Will, but you can choose to accept HisHer care and use the infinite power of HisHer care for all those HeShe created and manifested by it.

⁹¹ There have been the many healers who did not heal themselves. They have not moved mountains by their faith because their faith was not whole. Some of them have healed the sick at times, but they have not raised the dead. Unless the healer heals himself or herself, he or she does not believe that there is no order of difficulty in miracles. He or she has not learned that every mind God created and manifested is equally worthy of being healed because God created and manifested it whole. You are merely asked to return to God the mind as HeShe created and manifested it. HeShe asks you only for what HeShe gave, knowing that this giving will heal you. Sanity is wholeness, and the sanity of your brothers and sisters is yours.

⁹² Why should you listen to the endless insane calls which you think are made upon you when you know the Voice of God HimHerself is in you? God commended HisHer Spirit to you and asks that you commend yours to HimHer. HeShe wills to keep it in perfect peace because you are of one mind and Spirit with HimHer. Excluding yourself from the Atonement is the ego's last-ditch defense of its own existence. It reflects both the ego's need to separate and your willingness to side with its separateness. This willingness means that you do not want to be healed.

⁹³ But the time is now. You have not been asked to work out the plan of salvation yourselves because, as I told you before, the remedy is not of your making. God HimHerself gave you the perfect correction for everything you have made which is not in accord with HisHer holy Will. I have made HisHer plan perfectly explicit to you and have also told you of your part in HisHer plan and how urgent it is that you fulfill it. There is time for delay, but there need not be. God weeps at the "sacrifice" of HisHer Children, who believe they are lost to HimHer.

⁹⁴ I have already told you that whenever you are not wholly joyous it is because you have reacted with a lack of love to some individual Spirit which God created and manifested. Perceiving this as "sin," you become defensive because you expect attack. The decision to react in this way, however, is yours and can therefore be undone. It cannot be undone by repentance in the usual sense because this implies guilt. If you allow yourself to feel guilty, you will reinforce the error rather than allow it to be undone for you.

⁹⁵ Decisions cannot be difficult. This is obvious if you realize that you must already have made a decision not to be wholly joyous if that is how you feel. Therefore, the first step in the undoing is to recognize that you actively decided wrongly but can as actively decide otherwise. Be very firm with yourselves in this, and keep yourselves fully aware of the fact that the undoing process, which does not come from you, is nevertheless within you because God placed it there. Your part is merely to return your thinking to the point at which the error was made and give it over to the Atonement in peace. Say to yourselves the following as sincerely as you can, remembering that the Holy Spirit will respond fully to your slightest invitation:

⁹⁶ I must have decided wrongly because I am not at peace.
 I made the decision myself, but I can also decide otherwise.
 I will to decide otherwise because I want to be at peace.
 I do not feel guilty because the Holy Spirit will undo all the consequences of my wrong decision if I will let Her.
 I will to let Her, by allowing Her to decide for God for Me.

Chapter Six:

Attack and Fear

I. Introduction

¹ The relationship of anger to attack is obvious, but the inevitable association of anger and fear is not always so clear. Anger always involves projection of separation, which must ultimately be accepted as entirely one's own responsibility. Anger cannot occur unless you believe that you have been attacked, that your attack was justified, and that you are in no way responsible. Given these three wholly irrational premises, the equally irrational conclusion that a brother or sister is worthy of attack rather than of love follows. What can be expected from insane premises except an insane conclusion?

² The way to undo an insane conclusion is to consider the sanity of the premises on which it rests. You cannot be attacked; attack has no justification; and you are responsible for what you believe. You have been asked to take me as your model for learning, since an extreme example is a particularly helpful learning device. Everyone teaches and teaches all the time. This is a responsibility which he or she inevitably assumes the moment he or she accepts any premise at all, and no one can organize his or her life without any thought system. Once he or she has developed a thought system of any kind, he or she lives by it and teaches it.

³ You have been chosen to teach the Atonement precisely because you have been extreme examples of allegiance to your thought systems and therefore have developed the capacity for allegiance. It has indeed been misplaced, but it is a form of faith which you yourselves have been willing to redirect. You cannot doubt the strength of your devotion when you consider how faithfully you have observed it. It was quite evident that you had already developed the ability to follow a better model if you could accept it.

II. The Message of the Crucifixion

⁴ For teaching purposes, let us consider the crucifixion again. We have not dwelt on it before because of its fearful connotations. The only emphasis we laid upon it was that it was not a form of punishment. Nothing, however, can be really explained in negative terms only. There is a positive interpretation of the crucifixion which is wholly devoid of fear and therefore wholly benign in what it teaches if it is properly understood. The crucifixion is nothing more than an extreme example. Its value, like the value of any teaching device, lies solely in the kind of learning it facilitates. It can be and has been misunderstood. This is only because the fearful are apt to perceive fearfully.

⁵ I have already told you that you can always call on me to share my decision and thus make it stronger. I also told you that the crucifixion was the last foolish journey that the SonDaughtership need take and that it should mean release from fear to anyone who understands it. While we emphasized only the resurrection before, the purpose of the crucifixion and how it actually led to the resurrection was not clarified at that time. Nevertheless, it has a definite contribution to make to your own lives, and if you will consider it without fear, it will help you understand your own role as Teachers or Teacheresses.

⁶ You have reacted for years as if you were being crucified. This is a marked tendency of the separated ones, who always refuse to consider what they have done to themselves. Projection means anger, anger fosters assault, and assault promotes fear. The real meaning of the crucifixion lies in the apparent intensity of the assault of some of the SonsDaughters of God upon another. This, of course, is impossible and must be fully understood as an impossibility. In fact unless it is fully understood as only that, I cannot serve as a real model for learning.

⁷ Assault can ultimately be made only on the body. There is little doubt that one body can assault another and can even destroy it. Yet if destruction itself is impossible, then anything that is destructible cannot be real. Therefore, its destruction does not justify anger. To the extent to which you believe that it does, you must be accepting false premises and teaching them to others. The message which the crucifixion was intended to teach was that it is not necessary to perceive any form of assault in persecution because you cannot be persecuted. If you respond with anger, you must be equating yourself with the destructible and are therefore regarding yourself insanelly.

⁸ I have made it perfectly clear that I am like you and you are like me, but our fundamental equality can be demonstrated only through joint decision. You are free to perceive yourselves as persecuted if you choose. You might remember, however, when you do choose to react that way, that I was persecuted as the world judges and did not share this evaluation for myself. And because I did not share it, I did not strengthen it. I therefore offered a different interpretation of attack and one which I do want to share with you. If you will believe it, you will help me to teach it.

⁹ We have said before, "As you teach, so shall you learn." If you react as if you are persecuted, you are teaching persecution. This is not a lesson which the SonsDaughters of God should want to teach if they are to realize their own salvation. Rather, teach your own perfect immunity, which is the truth in you, and know that it cannot be assailed. Do not protect it yourselves, or you have believed that it is assailable. You are not asked to be crucified, which was part of my own teaching contribution. You are merely asked to follow my example in the face of much less extreme temptations to misperceive and not to accept them falsely as justifications for anger.

¹⁰ There can be no justification for the unjustifiable. Do not believe there is, and do not teach that there is. Remember always that what you believe you will teach. Believe with me, and we will become equal as teachers. Your resurrection is your reawakening. I am are the model for rebirth, but rebirth itself is merely the dawning on your minds of what is already in them. God placed it there HimHerself, and so it is true forever. I believed in it and therefore made it forever true for me. Help me to teach it to our brothers and sisters in the name of the God Realm, but first believe that it is true for you, or you will teach amiss.

¹¹ My brothers and sisters slept during the so-called "agony" in the garden, but I could not be angry with them because I had learned I could not be abandoned. Peter swore he would never deny me, but he did so three times. He did offer to defend me with the sword, which I naturally refused, not being at all in need of bodily protection. I am sorry when my brothers and sisters do not share my decision to hear only one voice, because it weakens them as Teachers or Teacheresses and as learners. Yet I know that they cannot really betray themselves or me and that it is still on them that I must build my church.

¹² There is no choice in this because only you can be the foundation of God's church. A church is where an altar is, and the presence of the altar is what makes it a church. Any church which does not inspire love has a hidden altar which is not serving the purpose for which God intended it. I must found HisHer church on you because you who accept me as a model are literally my disciples. Disciples are followers, but if the model they follow has chosen to save them pain in all respects, they are probably unwise not to follow him or her.

¹³ I elected both for your sake and mine to demonstrate that the most outrageous assault as judged by the ego did not matter. As the world judges these things, but not as God knows them, I was betrayed, abandoned, beaten, torn, and finally killed. It was perfectly clear that this was only because of the projection of others, because I had not harmed anyone and had healed many. We are still equal as learners, even though we need not have equal experiences. The Holy Spirit is glad when you can learn enough from mine to be re-awakened by them. That was their only purpose, and that is the only way in which I can be perceived as the Way, the Truth, and the Light.

¹⁴ When you hear only one voice, you are never called on to sacrifice. On the contrary, by enabling yourselves to hear the Holy Spirit in others, you can learn from their experiences and gain from them without experiencing them yourselves. That is because the Holy Spirit is one, and anyone who listens is inevitably led to demonstrate Her way for all. You are not persecuted, nor was I. You are not asked to repeat my experiences because the Holy Spirit, Whom we share, makes this unnecessary. To use my experiences constructively, however, you must still follow my example in how to perceive them.

¹⁵ My brothers and sisters and yours are constantly engaged in justifying the unjustifiable. My one lesson, which I must teach as I learned, is that no perception which is out of accord with the judgment of the Holy Spirit can be justified. I undertook to show this was true in a very extreme case merely because it would serve as a good teaching aid to those whose temptations to give in to anger and assault would not be so extreme. I will with God that none of HisHer SonsDaughters should suffer.

¹⁶ Remember that the Holy Spirit is the communication link between God the FatherMother and HisHer separated SonsDaughters. If you will listen to Her Voice, you will know that you cannot either hurt or be hurt and that many need your blessing to help them hear this for themselves. When you perceive only this need in them and do not respond to any other, you will have learned of me and will be as eager to share your learning as I am. The crucifixion cannot be shared, because it is the symbol of projection, but the resurrection is the symbol of sharing, because the reawakening of every SonDaughter of God is necessary to enable the SonDaughtership to know its wholeness. Only this is knowledge.

¹⁷ The message of the crucifixion is perfectly clear:

¹⁸ Teach only love, for that is what you are.

¹⁹ If you interpret the crucifixion in any other way, you are using it as a weapon for assault rather than as the call for peace for which it was intended. The Apostles often misunderstood it and always for the same reason that makes anyone misunderstand anything. Their own imperfect love made them vulnerable to projection, and out of their own fear they spoke of the "wrath of God" as HisHer retaliatory weapon. Nor could they speak of the crucifixion entirely without anger, because their own sense of guilt had made them angry.

²⁰ There are two glaring examples of upside-down thinking in the New Testament, whose whole gospel is only the message of love. These are not like the several slips into impatience which I made. I had learned the Atonement prayer, which I also came to teach, too well to engage in upside-down thinking myself. If the Apostles had not felt guilty, they never could have quoted me as saying, "I come not to bring peace but a sword." This is clearly the exact opposite of everything I taught.

²¹ Nor could they have described my reactions to Judas as they did if they had really understood me. They would have realized I could not have said, "Betrayest thou the Son of Man with a kiss?" unless I believed in betrayal. The whole message of the crucifixion was simply that I did not. The "punishment" which I am said to have called forth upon Judas was a similar reversal. Judas was my brother and a Son of God, as much a part of the SonDaughtership as myself. Was it likely that I would condemn him when I was ready to demonstrate that condemnation is impossible?

²² I am very grateful to the Apostles for their teaching and fully aware of the extent of their devotion to me. Nevertheless, as you read their teachings, remember that I told them myself that there was much they would understand later because they were not wholly ready to follow me at the time. I emphasize this only because I do not want you to allow any fear to enter into the thought system toward which I am guiding you. I do not call for martyrs but for Teachers or Teacheressess. No one is "punished" for sins, and the SonsDaughters of God are not sinners.

²³ Any concept of "punishment" involves the projection of blame and reinforces the idea that blame is justified. The behavior that results is a lesson in blame, just as all behavior teaches the beliefs which motivate it. The crucifixion was a complex of behaviors arising out of clearly opposed thought systems. As such, it was the perfect symbol of conflict between the ego and the SonDaughter of God. The conflict is just as real now, and its lessons, too, have equal reality when they are learned. I do not need gratitude any more than I needed protection, but you need to develop your weakened ability to be grateful, or you cannot appreciate God. HeShe does not need your appreciation, but you do.

²⁴ You cannot love what you do not appreciate, and fear makes appreciation impossible. Whenever you are afraid of what you are, you do not appreciate it and will therefore reject it. As a result, you will teach rejection. The power of the SonsDaughters of God is operating all the time because they were created and manifested as creatorsmanifestors. Their influence on each other is without limit and must be used for their joint salvation. Each one must learn to teach that all forms of rejection are utterly meaningless. The separation is the notion of rejection. As long as you teach this, you still believe it. This is not as God thinks, and you must think as HeShe thinks if you are to know HimHer again.

III. The Uses of Projection

²⁵ Any split in will must involve a rejection of part of it, and this is the belief in separation. The wholeness of God, which is HisHer peace, cannot be appreciated except by a whole mind which recognizes the wholeness of God's manifested creation and by this recognition knows its CreatorManifestor. Exclusion and separation are synonymous, as are separation and dissociation. We have said before that the separation was and is dissociation and also that, once it had occurred, projection became its main defense or the device that keeps it going. The reason, however, may not be as clear as you think.

²⁶ In the ego's use of projection, to which we are obviously referring, what you project you disown and therefore do not believe is yours. You are excluding yourself by the very statement you are making that you are different from the one on whom you project. Since you have also judged against what you project, you continue to attack it because you have already attacked it by projecting it. By doing this unconsciously, you try to keep the fact that you must have attacked yourself first out of awareness and thus imagine that you have made yourself safe.

²⁷ Projection will always hurt you. It reinforces your belief in your own split mind, and its only purpose is to keep the separation going. It is solely a device of the ego to make you feel different from your brothers and sisters and separated from them. The ego justifies this on the wholly spurious grounds that it makes you seem "better" than they are, thus obscuring your equality with them still further. Projection and attack are inevitably related because projection is always a means of justifying attack. Anger without projection is impossible.

²⁸ The ego uses projection only to distort your perception both of yourself and your brothers and sisters. The process begins by excluding something [you think] exists in you which you do not want and leads directly to excluding you from your brothers and sisters. We have learned, however, that there is another use of projection. Every ability of the ego has a better counterpart, because its abilities are directed by the mind which has a better Voice. The Holy Spirit as well as the ego utilizes projection, but since their goals are opposed, so is the result.

²⁹ The Holy Spirit begins by perceiving you as perfect. Knowing this perfection is shared, She recognizes it in others, thus strengthening it in both. Instead of anger, this arouses love for both, because it establishes inclusion. Perceiving equality, the Holy Spirit perceives equal needs. This invites Atonement automatically, because Atonement is the one need which in this world is universal. To perceive yourself this way is the only way in which you can find happiness in the world. That is because it is the acknowledgment that you are not in this world, for the world is unhappy.

³⁰ How else can you find joy in a joyless place except by realizing that you are not there? You cannot be anywhere that God did not put you, and God created and manifested you as part of HimHer. That is both where you are and what you are. It is completely unalterable. It is total inclusion. You cannot change it now or ever. It is forever true. It is not a belief but a fact. Anything that God created and manifested is as true as HeShe is. Its truth lies only in its perfect inclusion in HimHer, Who alone is perfect. To deny this in any way is to deny yourself and HimHer since it is impossible to accept one without the other.

³¹ The perfect equality of the Holy Spirit's perception is the counterpart of the perfect equality of God's knowing. The ego's perception has no counterpart in God, but the Holy Spirit remains the bridge between perception and knowledge. By enabling you to use perception in a way that parallels knowledge, you will ultimately meet it and know it. The ego would prefer to believe that this meeting is impossible, yet it is your perception which the Holy Spirit guides. You might remember that the human eye perceives parallel lines as if they meet in the distance, which is the same as in the future if time and space are one dimension. Your perception will end where it began. Everything meets in God because everything was created and manifested by HimHer and in HimHer.

³² God created and manifested HisHer SonsDaughters by extending HisHer thought and retaining the extensions of HisHer Thought in HisHer Mind. All HisHer Thoughts are thus perfectly united within themselves and with each other because they were created and manifested neither partially nor in part. The Holy Spirit enables you to perceive this wholeness now. You can no more pray for yourselves alone than you can find joy for yourself alone. Prayer is the restatement of inclusion, directed by the Holy Spirit under the laws of God. God created and manifested you to create and manifest. You cannot extend HisHer Realm until you know of its wholeness.

³³ Thoughts begin in the mind of the thinker from which they extend outward. This is as true of God's Thinking as it is of yours. Because your minds are split, you can also perceive as well as think. Yet perception cannot escape from the basic laws of mind. You perceive from your mind and extend your perceptions outward. Although perception of any kind is unnecessary, you made it, and the Holy Spirit can therefore use it well. She can inspire perception and lead it toward God by making it parallel to God's way of thinking and thus guarantee their ultimate meeting. This convergence seems to be far in the future only because your mind is not in perfect alignment with the idea and therefore does not want it now.

³⁴ The Holy Spirit uses time but does not believe in it. Coming from God, She uses everything for good, but She does not believe in what is not true. Since the Holy Spirit is in your minds, your minds must also be able to believe only what is true. The Holy Spirit can speak only for this because She speaks for God. She tells you to return your whole mind to God because it has never left HimHer. If it has never left HimHer, you need only perceive it as it is to be returned. The full awareness of the Atonement, then, is the recognition that the separation never occurred. The ego cannot prevail against this because it is an explicit statement that the ego never occurred.

³⁵ The ego can accept the idea that return is necessary because it can so easily make the idea seem so difficult. Yet the Holy Spirit tells you that even return is unnecessary because what never happened cannot involve any problem. It does not follow, however, that you cannot make the idea of return both necessary and difficult. It is surely clear, however, that the perfect need nothing and cannot experience perfection as a difficult accomplishment, because that is what they are.

³⁶ This is the way in which you must perceive God's manifestations of creations, bringing all of your perceptions into the one parallel line which the Holy Spirit sees. This line is the direct line of communication with God and lets your mind converge with HisHers. There is no conflict anywhere in this perception because it means that all perception is guided by the Holy Spirit, Whose mind is fixed on God. Only the Holy Spirit can resolve conflict, because only the Holy Spirit is conflict-free. She perceives only what is true in your mind and extends outward only to what is true in other minds.

³⁷ The difference between the ego's use of projection and projection as the Holy Spirit uses it is very simple. The ego projects to exclude and therefore to deceive. The Holy Spirit projects by recognizing Herself in every mind and thus perceives them as one. Nothing conflicts in this perception, because what the Holy Spirit perceives is the same. Wherever She looks She sees Herself, and because She is united, She offers the whole Realm always. This is the one message God gave to Her and for which She must speak because that is what She is. The peace of God lies in that message, and so the peace of God lies in you.

³⁸ The great peace of the Realm shines in your mind forever, but it must shine outward to make you aware of it. The Holy Spirit was given you with perfect impartiality, and only by perceiving Her impartially can you perceive Her at all. The ego is legion, but the Holy Spirit is One. No darkness abides anywhere in the Realm, but your part is only to allow no darkness to abide in your own mind. This alignment with light is unlimited, because it is in alignment with the light of the world. Each of us is the light of the world, and by joining our minds in this light, we proclaim the God Realm together and as one.

IV. The Relinquishment of Attack

³⁹ We have used the many words as synonymous which are not ordinarily regarded as the same. We began with having and being and more recently have used others. Hearing and being are examples, to which we can also add teaching and being, learning and being and, above all, projecting and being. This is because, as we have said before, every idea begins in the mind of the thinker and extends outward. Therefore, what extends from the mind is still in it, and from what it extends it knows itself. That is its natural talent. The word "knows" is correct here, even though the ego does not know and is not concerned with being at all.

⁴⁰ The Holy Spirit still holds knowledge safe through Her impartial perception. By attacking nothing, She presents no barrier at all to the communication of God. Thus, being is never threatened. Your Godlike mind can never be defiled. The ego never was and never will be part of it, but through the ego you can hear and teach and learn what is not true. From this, which you have made, you have taught yourselves to believe that you are not what you are. You cannot teach what you have not learned, and what you teach you strengthen in yourselves because you are sharing it. Every lesson you teach you are learning.

⁴¹ That is why you must teach only one lesson. If you are to be conflict-free yourselves, you must learn only from the Holy Spirit and teach only by Her. You are only love, but when you denied this you made what you are something you must learn. We said before that the message of the crucifixion was, "Teach only love, for that is what you are." This is the one lesson which is perfectly unified because it is the only lesson which is one. Only by teaching it can you learn it. "As you teach, so will you learn." If that is true, and it is true indeed, you must never forget that what you teach is teaching you. What you project you believe.

⁴² The only real safety lies in projecting only the Holy Spirit because, as you see Her gentleness in others, your own mind perceives itself as totally harmless. Once it can accept this fully, it does not see the need to protect itself. The protection of God then dawns upon it, assuring it that it is perfectly safe forever. The perfectly safe are wholly benign. They bless because they know they are blessed. Without anxiety the mind is wholly kind and because it projects beneficence, it is beneficent.

⁴³ Safety is the complete relinquishment of attack. No compromise is possible in this. Teach attack in any form, and you have learned it, and it will hurt you. Yet your learning is not immortal, and you can unlearn it by not teaching it. Since you cannot not teach, your salvation lies in teaching the exact opposite of everything the ego believes. This is how you will learn the truth that will set you free and keep you so, as others learn it of you. The only way to have peace is to teach peace. By learning it through projection, it becomes a part of what you know because you cannot teach what you have dissociated.

⁴⁴ Only thus can you win back the knowledge that you threw away. An idea which you share, you must have. It awakens in you through the conviction of teaching. Remember that, if teaching is being and learning is being, then teaching is learning. Everything you teach, you are learning. Teach only love, and learn that love is yours and you are love.

V. The Only Answer

⁴⁵ Remember that the Holy Spirit is the Answer, not the question. The ego always speaks first because it is capricious and does not mean its maker well. That is because it believes, and correctly, that its maker may withdraw his or her support from it at any moment. If it meant you well, it would be glad, as the Holy Spirit will be glad when She has brought you home, and you no longer need Her guidance. The ego does not regard itself as part of you. Herein lies its primary perceptual error, the foundation of its whole thought system.

⁴⁶ When God created and manifested you, HeShe made you part of HimHer. That is why attack within the God Realm is impossible. You made the ego without love, and so it does not love you. You could not remain within the God Realm without love, and since the God Realm is love, you believe that you are without it. This enables the ego to regard itself as separate and outside its maker, thus speaking for the part of your mind that believes you are separate and outside the Mind of God. The ego, then, raised the first question that was ever asked, but one which it can never answer. That question, "What are you?" was the beginning of doubt.

⁴⁷ The ego has never answered any questions since, although it has raised a great many. The most inventive activities of the ego have never done more than obscure the question, because you have the answer and the ego is afraid of you. You cannot understand the conflict until you fully understand one basic fact that the ego does not know. The Holy Spirit does not speak first, but She always answers. Everyone has called upon Her for help at one time or another and in one way or another and has been answered. Since the Holy Spirit answers truly, She answers for all time, which means that everyone has the answer now.

⁴⁸ The ego cannot hear the Holy Spirit, but it does believe that part of the same mind that made it is against it. It interprets this as a justification for attacking its maker. It believes that the best defense is attack and wants you to believe it. Unless you do believe it you will not side with it, and the ego feels badly in need of allies though not of brothers and sisters. Perceiving something alien to itself in your mind, the ego turns to the body, not the mind, as its ally, because the body is not part of you. This makes the body the ego's friend. It is an alliance frankly based on separation. If you side with this alliance, you will be afraid because you are siding with an alliance of fear.

⁴⁹ The ego and the body conspire against your minds, and because the ego realizes that its "enemy" can end them both merely by knowing they are not part of him/her, they join in the attack together. This is perhaps the strangest perception of all if you consider what it really involves. The ego, which is not real, attempts to persuade the mind, which is real, that the mind is its own learning device and that the learning device is more real than it is. No one in his or her right mind could though believe this, and no one in his or her right mind does believe it.

⁵⁰ Hear then the one answer of the Holy Spirit to all the questions which the ego raises. You are a Child of God, a priceless part of His/Her Realm, which He/She created and manifested as part of Him/Her. Nothing else exists, and only this is real. You have chosen a sleep in which you have had bad dreams, but the sleep is not real, and God calls you to awake. There will be nothing left of your dream when you hear Him/Her because you will be awake. Your dreams have contained many of the ego's symbols, and they have confused you. Yet that was only because you were asleep and did not know. When you awake, you will see the truth around you and in you, and you will no longer believe in dreams because they will have no reality for you.

⁵¹ Yet the God Realm and all that you have created and manifested there will have great reality for you because they are beautiful and true. In the God Realm, where you are and what you are is perfectly certain. There is no doubt there because the first question was never asked. Having finally been wholly answered, it has never been. Being alone lives in the God Realm, where everything lives in God without question. The time that was spent on questioning in the dream has given way to manifested creation and to its eternity.

⁵² You are as certain as God because you are as true as He/She is, but what was once quite certain in your minds has become only the ability for certainty. The introduction of abilities into being was the beginning of uncertainty because abilities are potentials, not accomplishments. Your abilities are totally useless in the presence of God's accomplishments and also of yours. Accomplishments are results which have been achieved. When they are perfect, abilities are meaningless. It is curious that the perfect must now be perfected. In fact, it is impossible. You must remember, however, that when you put yourselves in an impossible situation, you believed that the impossible was possible.

⁵³ Abilities must be developed, or you cannot use them. This is not true of anything that God created and manifested, but it is the kindest solution possible to what you have made. In an impossible situation, you can develop your abilities to the point where they can get you out of it. You have a Guide to how to develop them, but you have no commander except yourself. This leaves you in charge of the God Realm with both a Guide to find it and a means to keep it. You have a model to follow who will strengthen your command and never detract from it in any way. You therefore retain the central place in your perceived enslavement, a fact which itself demonstrates that you are not enslaved.

⁵⁴ You are in an impossible situation only because you thought it was possible to be in one. You would be in an impossible situation if God showed you your perfection and proved to you that you were wrong. This would demonstrate that the perfect were inadequate to bring themselves to the awareness of their perfection and thus side with the belief that those who have everything need help and are therefore helpless. This is the kind of "reasoning" which the ego engages in, but God, Who knows that HisHer creationsmanifestations are perfect, does not insult them. This would be as impossible as the ego's notion that it has insulted HimHer.

⁵⁵ That is why the Holy Spirit never commands. To command is to assume inequality, which the Holy Spirit demonstrates does not exist. Fidelity to premises is a law of mind, and everything God created and manifested is faithful to HisHer laws. Fidelity to other laws is also possible, however, not because the laws are true, but because you made them. What would be gained if God proved to you that you have thought insanely? Can God lose HisHer own certainty? We have frequently stated that what you teach you are. Would you have God teach you that you have sinned? If HeShe confronted the self you made with the truth HeShe created and manifested for you, what could you be but afraid? You would doubt your sanity, which is the one thing in which you can find the sanity HeShe gave you.

⁵⁶ God does not teach. To teach is to imply a lack, which God knows is not there. God is not conflicted. Teaching aims at change, but God created and manifested only the changeless. The separation was not a loss of perfection but a failure in communication. A harsh and strident form of communication arose as the ego's voice. It could not shatter the peace of God, but it could shatter yours. God did not blot it out because to eradicate it would be to attack it. Being questioned, HeShe did not question. HeShe merely gave the Answer. HisHer Answer is your Teacheress.

a. To Have, Give All to All

⁵⁷ Like any good Teacheress, the Holy Spirit does know more than you do now, but She teaches only to make you equal with Her. This is because you had already taught wrongly, having believed what was not true. You did not believe in your own perfection. Could God teach you that you had made a split mind, when HeShe knows your mind only as whole? What God does know is that HisHer communication channels are not open to HimHer so that HeShe cannot impart HisHer joy and know that HisHer Children are wholly joyous. This is an ongoing process, not in time, but in eternity. God's extending outward, though not HisHer completeness, is blocked when the SonDaughtership does not communicate with HimHer as one. So HeShe thought, "Our Children sleep and must be awakened."

⁵⁸ How can you wake children better and more kindly than by a gentle Voice that will not frighten them but will merely remind them that the night is over and the light has come? You do not inform them that the nightmares which frightened them so badly were not real because children believe in magic. You merely reassure them that they are safe now. Then you train them to recognize the difference between sleeping and waking, so that they will understand they need not be afraid of dreams. Then when bad dreams come, they will call on the light themselves to dispel them.

⁵⁹ A wise teacher or teacheress teaches through approach, not avoidance. He or she does not emphasize what you must avoid to escape from harm so much as what you need to learn to have joy. This is true even of the world's Teachers or Teacheresses. Consider the confusion a child would experience if he or she were told, "Do not do this because it might hurt you and make you unsafe, but if you do that you will escape from harm and be safe, and then you will not be afraid." All of this could be included in only three words: "Do only that!" This simple statement is perfectly clear, easily understood, and very easily remembered.

⁶⁰ The Holy Spirit never itemizes errors because She does not frighten children, and those who lack wisdom are children. Yet She always answers their call, and Her dependability makes them more certain. Children do confuse fantasy and reality, and they are frightened because they do not know the difference. The Holy Spirit makes no distinction among dreams. She merely shines them away. Her light is always the call to awake, whatever you have been dreaming. Nothing lasting lies in dreams, and the Holy Spirit, shining with the light from God HimHerself, speaks only for what lasts forever.

⁶¹ When your body and your ego and your dreams are gone, you will know that you will last forever. Many think this is accomplished through death, but nothing is accomplished through death because death is nothing. Everything is accomplished through life, and life is of the mind and in the Mind. The body neither lives nor dies because it cannot contain you who are life. If we share the same mind, you can overcome death because I did. Death is an attempt to resolve conflict by not willing at all. Like any other impossible solution which the ego attempts, it will not work.

⁶² God did not make the body because it is destructible and therefore not of the God Realm. The body is the symbol of what you think you are. It is clearly a separation device and therefore does not exist. The Holy Spirit, as always, takes what you have made and translates it into a learning device for you. Again as always, She re-interprets what the ego uses as an argument for separation into a demonstration against it. If the mind can heal the body but the body cannot heal the mind, then the mind must be stronger. Every miracle demonstrates this.

⁶³ We have said that the Holy Spirit is the motivation for miracles. This is because She always tells you that only the mind is real since only the mind can be shared. The body is separate and therefore cannot be part of you. To be of one mind is meaningful, but to be of one body is meaningless. By the laws of mind, then, the body is meaningless. To the Holy Spirit, there is no order of difficulty in miracles. This is familiar enough to you by now, but it has not yet become believable. Therefore, you do not understand it and cannot use it.

⁶⁴ We have too much to accomplish on behalf of the God Realm to let this crucial concept slip away. It is a real foundation stone of the thought system I teach and want you to teach. You cannot perform miracles without believing it because it is a belief in perfect equality. Only one equal gift can be offered to the equal SonsDaughters of God, and that is full appreciation. Nothing more and nothing less. Without a range, an order of difficulty is meaningless, and there must be no range in what you offer to each other.

⁶⁵ The Holy Spirit, who leads to God, translates communication into being, just as She ultimately translates perception into knowledge. [You do not lose what you communicate.] The ego uses the body for attack, for pleasure, and for pride. The insanity of this perception makes it a fearful one indeed. The Holy Spirit sees the body only as a means of communication and because communicating is sharing, it becomes communion. You might argue that fear as well as love can be communicated and therefore can be shared. Yet this is not so real as it sounds. Those who communicate fear are promoting attack, and attack always breaks communication, making it impossible.

⁶⁶ Egos do join together in temporary allegiance but always for what each one can get separately. The Holy Spirit communicates only what each one can give to all. She never takes anything back because She wants you to keep it. Therefore, Her teaching begins with the lesson:

⁶⁷ To have, give all to all.

⁶⁸ This is a very preliminary step, and the only one you must take for yourself. It is not even necessary that you complete the step yourself, but it is necessary that you turn in that direction. Having chosen to go that way, you place yourself in charge of the journey, where you and only you must remain.

⁶⁹ This step appears to exacerbate conflict rather than resolve it because it is the beginning step in reversing your perception and turning it right-side up. This conflicts with the upside-down perception which you have not yet abandoned, or the change in direction would not have been necessary. Some people remain at this step for a very long time, experiencing very acute conflict. At this point, the many try to accept the conflict rather than take the next step towards its resolution. Having taken the first step, however, they will be helped. Once they have chosen what they cannot complete alone, they are no longer alone.

b. To Have Peace, Teach Peace to Learn It

⁷⁰ All the separated ones have a basic fear of retaliation and abandonment. This is because they believe in attack and rejection, so this is what they perceive and teach and learn. These insane concepts are clearly the result of their own dissociation and projection. What you teach you are, but it is quite apparent that you can teach wrongly and therefore teach yourselves wrong. Many thought that I was attacking them, even though it was quite apparent that I was not. An insane learner learns strange lessons.

⁷¹ What you must understand is that when you do not share a thought system, you are weakening it. Those who believe in it therefore perceive this as an attack on them. This is because everyone identifies himself or herself with his or her thought system, and every thought system centers on what you believe you are. If the center of the thought system is true, only truth extends from it. But if a lie is at its center, only deception proceeds from it. All good Teachers or Teacheresses realize that only fundamental change will last, but they do not begin at that level. Strengthening motivation for change is their first and foremost goal. It is also their last and final one.

⁷² Increasing motivation for change in the learner is all that a teacher or teacheress need do to guarantee change. This is because a change in motivation is a change of mind, and this will inevitably produce fundamental change because the mind is fundamental. The first step in the reversal or undoing process, then, is the undoing of the getting concept. Accordingly, the Holy Spirit's first lesson was "to have, give all to all." We said that this is apt to increase conflict temporarily, and we can clarify this still further now.

⁷³ At this point, the equality of "having" and "being" is not yet perceived. Until it is, "having" appears to be the opposite of "being." Therefore, the first lesson seems to contain a contradiction since it is being learned by a conflicted mind. This means conflicting motivation, and so the lesson cannot be learned consistently as yet. Further, the mind of the learner projects its own split, and thus does not perceive consistent minds in others, making him or her suspicious of their motivation. This is the real reason why in the many respects the first lesson is the hardest to learn. Still strongly aware of the ego in himself or herself and responding primarily to the ego in others, he or she is being taught to react to both as if what he or she does believe is not true.

⁷⁴ Upside-down as always, the ego perceives the first lesson as insane. In fact this is its only alternative here since the other one, which would be much less acceptable to it, would obviously be that it is insane. The ego's judgment, then, is predetermined by what it is, though no more so than is any other product of thought. The fundamental change will still occur with the change of mind in the thinker. Meanwhile, the increasing clarity of the Holy Spirit's Voice makes it impossible for the learner not to listen. For a time, then, he or she is receiving conflicting messages and accepting both. This is the classic "double bind" in communication.

⁷⁵ The way out of conflict between two opposing thought systems is clearly to choose one and relinquish the other. If you identify with your thought system, and you cannot escape this, and if you accept two thought systems which are in complete disagreement, peace of mind is impossible. If you teach both, which you will surely do as long as you accept both, you are teaching conflict and learning it. Yet you do want peace, or you would not have called upon the Voice for Peace to help you. Her lesson is not insane; the conflict is.

⁷⁶ There can be no conflict between sanity and insanity. Only one is true, and therefore only one is real. The ego tries to persuade you that it is up to you to decide which voice is true, but the Holy Spirit teaches you that truth was created and manifested by God, and your decision cannot change it. As you begin to realize the quiet power of the Holy Spirit's Voice and its perfect consistency, it must dawn on your minds that you are trying to undo a decision which was made irrevocably for you. That is why we suggested before that there was help in reminding yourselves to allow the Holy Spirit to decide for God for you.

⁷⁷ You are not asked to make insane decisions, although you are free to think you are. It must, however, be insane to believe that it is up to you to decide what God's manifestations of creations are. The Holy Spirit perceives the conflict exactly as it is. Therefore, Her second lesson is:

⁷⁸ To have peace, teach peace to learn it.

⁷⁹ This is still a preliminary step since having and being are still not equated. It is, however, more advanced than the first step, which is really only a thought reversal. The second step is a positive affirmation of what you want. This, then, is a step in the direction out of conflict since it means that alternatives have been considered and one has been chosen as more desirable.

⁸⁰ Nevertheless, the evaluation "more desirable" still implies that the desirable has degrees. Therefore, although this step is essential for the ultimate decision, it is clearly not the final one. It is clear at this point that the lack of order of difficulty in miracles has not yet been accepted because nothing is difficult that is wholly desired. To desire wholly is to create and manifest, and creating/manifesting cannot be difficult if God Him/Herself created and manifested you as a creator/manifestor. The second step, then, is still perceptual, although it is a giant step toward the unified perception which parallels God's knowing.

⁸¹ As you take this step and hold this direction, you will be pushing toward the center of your thought system where the fundamental change will occur. You are only beginning this step now, but you have started on this way by realizing that only one way is possible. You do not yet realize this consistently, and so your progress is intermittent, but the second step is easier than the first because it follows. The very fact that you have accepted that is a demonstration of your growing awareness that the Holy Spirit will lead you on.

c. Be Vigilant Only for God and His/Her Kingdom

⁸² For your own salvation you must be critical since your salvation is critical to the whole Son/Daughtership. We said before that the Holy Spirit is evaluative and must be. Yet Her evaluation does not extend beyond you, or you would share it. In your mind, and your mind only, She sorts out the true from the false and teaches you to judge every thought that you allow to enter your mind in the light of what God put there. Whatever is in accord with this light, She retains to strengthen the God Realm in you. What is partly in accord with truth, She accepts and purifies. But what is out of accord entirely, She rejects by judging against. This is how She keeps the God Realm perfectly consistent and perfectly unified.

⁸³ What you must remember, however, is that what the Holy Spirit rejects the ego accepts. This is because they are in fundamental disagreement about everything, being in fundamental disagreement about what you are. The ego's beliefs on this crucial issue vary, and that is why it promotes different moods. The Holy Spirit never varies on this point, and so the one mood She engenders is joy. She protects it by rejecting everything that does not foster joy, and so She alone can keep you wholly joyous.

⁸⁴ The Holy Spirit does not teach your mind to be critical of other minds because She does not want you to teach errors and learn them yourselves. She would hardly be consistent if She allowed you to strengthen what you must learn to avoid. In the mind of the thinker, then, She is judgmental, but only in order to unify the mind so it can perceive without judgment. This enables the mind to teach without judgment and therefore to learn to be without judgment. The undoing is necessary only in your mind so that you cannot project falsely. God HimHerself has established what you can project with perfect safety. Therefore, the Holy Spirit's third lesson is:

⁸⁵ Be vigilant only for God and HisHer Kingdom.

⁸⁶ This is a major step toward fundamental change. Yet it is still a lesson in thought reversal since it implies that there is something you must be vigilant against. It has advanced far from the first lesson, which was primarily a reversal and also from the second, which was essentially the identification of what is more desirable. This step, which follows from the second as the second follows from the first, emphasizes the dichotomy between the desirable and the undesirable. It therefore makes the ultimate choice inevitable.

⁸⁷ While the first step seems to increase conflict and the second step still entails it to some extent, this one calls for consistent effort against it. We said already that you can be as vigilant against the ego as for it. This lesson teaches not only that you can be, but that you must be. It does not concern itself with order of difficulty but with clear cut priority for vigilance. This step is unequivocal in that it teaches there must be no exceptions, although it does not deny that the temptation to make exceptions will occur. Here, then, your consistency is called on despite chaos. Yet chaos and consistency cannot coexist for long since they are mutually exclusive.

⁸⁸ As long as you must be vigilant against anything, however, you are not recognizing this mutual exclusiveness and are holding the belief that you can choose either one. By teaching what to choose, the Holy Spirit will ultimately be able to teach you that you need not choose at all. This will finally liberate your will from choice and direct it towards manifested creation within the God Realm. Choosing through the Holy Spirit will lead you to the God Realm. You create and manifest by what you are, but this is what you must learn. The way to learn it is inherent in the third step, which brings together the lessons implied in the others and goes beyond them towards real integration.

⁸⁹ If you allow yourselves to have in your minds only what God put there, you are acknowledging your mind as God created and manifested it. Therefore, you are accepting it as it is. Since it is whole, you are teaching peace because you believe in it. The final step will still be taken for you by God, but by the third step the Holy Spirit has prepared you for God. She is getting you ready for the translation of having into being by the very nature of the steps you must take with Her.

⁹⁰ You learn first that having rests on giving and not on getting. Next you learn that you learn what you teach and that you want to learn peace. This is the condition for identifying with the God Realm since it is the condition of the God Realm. You have believed that you are without the God Realm and have therefore excluded yourself from it in your belief. It is therefore essential to teach you that you must be included and that the belief that you are not is the only thing that you must exclude.

⁹¹ The third step is thus one of protection for your minds, allowing you to identify only with the center, where God placed the altar to HimHerself. We have already said that altars are beliefs, but God and HisHer creationsmanifestations are beyond belief because they are beyond question. The Voice for God speaks only for belief beyond question, which is the preparation for being without question. As long as belief in God and HisHer Realm is assailed by any doubts in your minds, HisHer perfect accomplishment is not apparent to you. This is why you must be vigilant on God's behalf. The ego speaks against HisHer manifested creation and therefore does engender doubt. You cannot go beyond belief until you believe fully.

⁹² Transfer, which is extension, is a measure of learning because it is its measurable result. This, however, does not mean that what it transfers to is measurable. On the contrary, unless it transfers to the whole SonDaughtership, which is immeasurable because it was created and manifested by the Immeasurable, the learning itself must be incomplete. To teach the whole SonDaughtership without exception demonstrates that you perceive its wholeness and have learned that it is one. Now you must be vigilant to hold its oneness in your minds because, if you let doubt enter, you will lose awareness of its wholeness and will be unable to teach it.

⁹³ The wholeness of the God Realm does not depend on your perception, but your awareness of its wholeness does. It is only your awareness which needs protection since your being cannot be assailed. Yet a real sense of being cannot be yours while you are doubtful of what you are. This is why vigilance is essential. Doubts about being must not enter your mind, or you cannot know what you are with certainty. Certainty is of God for you. Vigilance is not necessary for truth, but it is necessary against illusions.

⁹⁴ Truth is without illusions and therefore within the God Realm. Everything outside the God Realm is illusion, but you must learn to accept truth because you threw it away. You therefore saw yourself as if you were without it. By making another Realm which you valued, you did not keep only the Realm of God in your minds and thus placed part of your mind outside it. What you have made has thus divided your will and given you a sick mind which must be healed. Your vigilance against this sickness is the way to heal it. Once your mind is healed, it radiates health and thereby teaches healing. This establishes you as a teacher or teacheress who teaches like me. Vigilance was required of me as much as of you, but remember that those who will to teach the same thing must be in agreement about what they believe.

⁹⁵ The third step, then, is a statement of what you want to believe and entails a willingness to relinquish everything else. I told you that you were just beginning the second step, but I also told you that the third one follows it. The Holy Spirit will enable you to go on if you follow Her. Your vigilance is the sign that you want Her to guide you. Vigilance does require effort, but only to teach you that effort itself is unnecessary. You have exerted great effort to preserve what you made because it was not true. Therefore, you must now turn your effort against it. Only this can cancel out the need for effort and call upon the being which you both have and are. This recognition is wholly without effort since it is already true and needs no protection. It is in the perfect safety of God. Therefore inclusion is total and manifested creation is without limit.

Chapter Seven:

The Consistency of the God Realm

I. Introduction

¹ The creative and manifestive power of both God and HisHer creationsmanifestations is limitless, but they are not in reciprocal relationship. You do communicate fully with God, as HeShe does with you. This is an ongoing process in which you share, and because you share it, you are inspired to create and manifest like God. Yet in manifested creation you are not in reciprocal relation to God since HeShe created and manifested you, but you did not create and manifest HimHer. We have already said that only in this respect your creative and manifestive power differs from HisHers. Even in this world there is a parallel. Parents give birth to children, but children do not give birth to parents. They do, however, give birth to their children and thus give birth as their parents do.

² If you created and manifested God and HeShe created and manifested you, the God Realm could not increase through its own creative and manifestive thought. Manifested creation would therefore be limited, and you would not be cocreatorscomanifestors with God. As God's creative and manifestive Thought proceeds from HimHer to you, so must your creative and manifestive thought proceed from you to your creationsmanifestations. Only in this way can all creative and manifestive power extend outward. God's accomplishments are not yours. But yours are like HisHers. HeShe created and manifested the SonDaughtership, and you increase it. You have the power to add to the God Realm, but not to add to the CreatorManifestor of the God Realm. You claim this power when you become vigilant only for God and HisHer Realm. By accepting this power as yours, you have learned to be what you are.

³ Your creationsmanifestations belong in you, as you belong in God. You are part of God, as your sonsdaughters are part of HisHer SonsDaughters. To create and manifest is to love. Love extends outward simply because it cannot be contained. Being limitless, it does not stop. It creates and manifests forever, but not in time. God's manifestations of creations have always been because HeShe has always been. Your creationsmanifestations have always been because you can create and manifest only as God creates and manifests. Eternity is yours because HeShe created and manifested you eternal.

II. Bargaining Versus Healing

⁴ The ego demands reciprocal rights because it is competitive rather than loving. It is always willing to make a "deal," but it cannot understand that to be like another means that no deals are possible. To gain you must give, not bargain. To bargain is to limit giving, and this is not God's Will. To will with God is to create and manifest like HimHer. God does not limit HisHer gifts in any way. You are HisHer gifts, and so your gifts must be like HisHers. Your gifts to the God Realm must be like HisHer gifts to you.

⁵ I gave only love to the God Realm because I believed that was what I was. What you believe you are determines your gifts, and if God created and manifested you by extending HimHerself as you, you can only extend yourself as HeShe did. Only joy increases forever, since joy and eternity are inseparable. God extends outward beyond limits and beyond time, and you who are cocreatorscomanifestors with HimHer extend HisHer Realm forever and beyond limit. Eternity is the indelible stamp of manifested creation. The eternal are in peace and joy forever.

⁶ To think like God is to share HisHer certainty of what you are and to create and manifest like HimHer is to share the perfect love HeShe shares with you. To this the Holy Spirit leads you that your joy may be complete because the God Realm is whole. We have said that the last step in the reawakening of knowledge is taken by God. This is true, but it is hard to explain in words because words are symbols, and nothing that is true needs to be explained. However, the Holy Spirit has the task of translating the useless into the useful, the meaningless into the meaningful, and the temporary into the timeless. She can therefore tell you something about this last step, although this one you must know yourself, since by it you know what you are. This is your being.

⁷ God does not take steps because HisHer accomplishments are not gradual. HeShe does not teach because HisHer creationsmanifestations are changeless. HeShe does nothing last because HeShe created and manifested first and for always. It must be understood that the word "first" as applied to HimHer is not a time concept. HeShe is first in the sense that HeShe is the first in the Holy Trinity itself. HeShe is the Prime CreatorManifestor because HeShe created and manifested HisHer cocreatorscomanifestors. Because HeShe did, time applies neither to HimHer nor to what HeShe created and manifested. The "last step" that God will take was therefore true in the beginning, is true now, and will be true forever.

⁸ What is timeless is always there because its being is eternally changeless. It does not change by increase because it was forever created and manifested to increase. If you perceive it as not increasing, you do not know what it is. You also do not know what created and manifested it or Who HeShe is. God does not reveal this to you because it was never hidden. HisHer light was never obscured because it is HisHer Will to share it. How can what is fully shared be withheld and then revealed?

⁹ To heal is the only kind of thinking in this world that resembles the Thought of God, and because of the elements which they share, can transfer to it. When a brother or sister perceives himself or herself as sick, he or she is perceiving himself or herself as not whole and therefore in need. If you too see him or her this way, you are seeing him or her as if he or she were absent from the God Realm or separated from it, thus making the God Realm itself obscure to both of you. Sickness and separation are not of God, but the God Realm is. If you obscure the God Realm, you are perceiving what is not of God.

III. The Laws of Mind

¹⁰ To heal, then, is to correct perception in your brother or sister and yourself by sharing the Holy Spirit with him or her. This places you both within the God Realm and restores its wholeness in your minds. This parallels manifested creation because it unifies by increasing and integrates by extending. What you project you believe. This is an immutable law of the mind in this world as well as in the God Realm. However, the content is different in this world because the thoughts it governs are very different from the thoughts in the God Realm. Laws must be adapted to circumstances if they are to maintain order.

¹¹ The outstanding characteristic of the laws of mind as they operate in this world is that by obeying them—and I assure you that you must obey them—you can arrive at diametrically opposed results. This is because the laws have adapted to the circumstances of this world, in which diametrically opposed outcomes are believed in. The laws of mind govern thoughts, and you do respond to two conflicting voices. You have heard the many arguments on behalf of "the freedoms," which would indeed have been freedom if man or woman had not chosen to fight for them. That is why they perceive "the freedoms" as the many instead of as one. Yet the argument that underlies the defense of freedom is perfectly valid. Because it is true, it should not be fought for, but it should be sided with.

¹² Those who are against freedom believe that its outcome will hurt them, which cannot be true. But those who are for freedom, even if they are misguided in how to defend it, are siding with the one thing in this world which is true. Whenever anyone can listen fairly to both sides of any issue, he or she will make the right decision. This is because he or she has the answer. Conflict can seem to be interpersonal, but it must be intrapersonal first.

¹³ The term "intrapersonal" is an ego term because "personal" implies "of one personal" and not of others. "Interpersonal" has a similar error in that it refers to something that exists among different or separate people. When we spoke before of the extremely personal nature of revelation, we followed this statement immediately with a description of the inevitable outcomes of the revelation in terms of sharing. A person conceives of himself or herself as separate largely because he or she perceives of himself or herself as bounded by a body. Only if he or she perceives himself or herself as a mind can this be overcome. Then he or she is free to use terms like "intra-mental" and "inter-mental" without seeing them as different or conflicting, because minds can be in perfect accord.

¹⁴ Outside the God Realm, the law which prevails inside it is adapted to "what you project you believe." This is its teaching form, since outside the God Realm teaching is mandatory because learning is essential. This form of the law clearly implies that you will learn what you are from what you have projected onto others and therefore believe they are. In the God Realm there is no teaching or learning because there is no belief. There is only certainty. God and HisHer SonsDaughters, in the surety of being, know that what you project you are. That form of the law is not adapted at all, being the law of manifested creation. God HimHerself created and manifested the law by creatingmanifesting by it. And HisHer SonsDaughters, who create and manifest like HimHer, follow it gladly, knowing that the increase of the God Realm depends on it just as their own manifested creation did.

¹⁵ Laws must be communicated if they are to be helpful. In effect, they must be translated for those who speak a different language. Nevertheless, a good translator, although he or she must alter the form of what he or she translates, never changes the meaning. In fact, his or her whole purpose is to change the form so that the original meaning is retained. The Holy Spirit is the translator of the laws of God to those who do not understand them. You could not do this yourselves because conflicted minds cannot be faithful to one meaning and will therefore change the meaning to preserve the form.

¹⁶ The Holy Spirit's purpose in translating is naturally exactly the opposite. HeShe translates only to preserve the original meaning in all respects and in all languages. Therefore, HeShe opposes differences in form as meaningful, emphasizing always that these differences do not matter. The meaning of HisHer message is always the same, and only the meaning matters. God's law of Creation in perfect form does not involve the use of truth to convince HisHer SonsDaughters of truth. The extension of truth, which is the law of the God Realm, rests only on the knowledge of what truth is. This is your inheritance and requires no learning at all, but when you disinherited yourselves, you became learners.

¹⁷ No one questions the intimate connection of learning and memory. Learning is impossible without memory, since it cannot be consistent unless it is remembered. That is why the Holy Spirit is a lesson in remembering. We said before that She teaches remembering and forgetting, but the forgetting aspect is only to make the remembering consistent. You forget in order to remember better. You will not understand Her translations while you listen to two ways of perceiving them. Therefore, you must forget or relinquish one to understand the other. This is the only way you can learn consistency so that you can finally be consistent.

¹⁸ What can the perfect consistency of the God Realm mean to the confused? It is apparent that confusion interferes with meaning and therefore prevents the learner from appreciating it. There is no confusion in the God Realm because there is only one meaning. This meaning comes from God and is God. Because it is also you, you share it and extend it as your CreatorManifestor did. This needs no translation because it is perfectly understood, but it does need extension because it means extension. Communication is perfectly direct and perfectly united. It is totally without strain because nothing discordant ever enters. That is why it is the God Realm. It belongs to HimHer and is therefore like HimHer. That is its reality, and nothing can assail it.

IV. The Unified Curriculum

¹⁹ To heal is to liberate totally. We once said there is no order of difficulty in miracles because they are all maximal expressions of love. This has no range at all. The non-maximal only appears to have a range. This is because it seems to be meaningful to measure it from the maximum and identify its position by how much it is not there. Actually, this does not mean anything. It is like negative numbers in that the concept can be used theoretically, but it has no application practically. It is true that if you put three apples on the table and then take them away, the three apples are not there. But it is not true that the table is now minus three apples. If there is nothing on the table, it does not matter what was there in terms of amount. The "nothing" is neither greater nor less because of what is absent.

²⁰ That is why "all" and "nothing" are dichotomous, without a range. This is perfectly clear in considering psychological tests of maximal performance. You cannot interpret the results at all unless you assume either maximal motivation or no motivation at all. Only in these two conditions can you validly compare responses, and you must assume the former, because if the latter were true, the subject would not do anything. Given variable motivation, he or she will do something, but you cannot understand what it is.

²¹ The results of such tests are evaluated relatively assuming maximal motivation, but this is because we are dealing with abilities, where degree of development is meaningful. This does not mean that what the ability is used for is necessarily either limited or divided. Yet one thing is certain—abilities are potentials for learning, and you will apply them to what you want to learn. Learning is effort, and effort means will. We have used the term "abilities" in the plural because abilities began with the ego, which perceived them as potentials for excelling. This is how the ego still perceives them and uses them.

²² The ego does not want to teach everyone all it has learned because that would defeat its purpose. Therefore, it does not really learn at all. The Holy Spirit teaches you to use what the ego has made to teach the opposite of what the ego has learned. The kind of learning is as irrelevant as is the particular ability which was applied to the learning. You could not have a better example of the Holy Spirit's unified purpose than this course. The Holy Spirit has taken very diversified areas of your learning and has applied them to a unified curriculum. The fact that this was not the ego's reason for learning is totally irrelevant.

²³ You made the effort to learn, and the Holy Spirit has a unified goal for all effort. She adapts the ego's potentials for excelling to potentials for equalizing. This makes them useless for the ego's purpose but very useful for Hers. If different abilities are applied long enough to one goal, the abilities themselves become unified. This is because they are channelized in one direction or in one way. Ultimately, then, they all contribute to one result, and by so doing, their similarity rather than their differences is emphasized. You can excel in the many different ways, but you can equalize in one way only. Equality is not a variable state, by definition.

²⁴ That is why you will be able to perform all aspects of your work with ease when you have learned this course. To the ego there appears to be no connection, because the ego is discontinuous. Yet the Holy Spirit teaches one lesson and applies it to all individuals in all situations. Being conflict-free, She maximizes all efforts and all results. By teaching the power of the God Realm Herself, She teaches you that all power is yours. Its application does not matter. It is always maximal. Your vigilance does not establish it as yours, but it does enable you to use it always and in all ways.

²⁵ When I said, "I am with you always," I meant it literally. I am not absent to anyone in any situation. Because I am always with you, you are the way and the truth and the light. You did not make this power, any more than I did. It was created and manifested to be shared and therefore cannot be meaningfully perceived as belonging to anyone at the expense of another. Such a perception makes it meaningless by eliminating or overlooking its real and only meaning.

V. The Recognition of Truth

²⁶ God's meaning waits in the God Realm because that is where HeShe placed it. It does not wait in time. It merely rests in the God Realm because it belongs there, as you do. How can you, who are God's meaning, perceive yourselves as absent from it? You can see yourselves as separated from your meaning only by experiencing yourself as unreal. This is why the ego is insane; it teaches that you are not what you are. This is so contradictory that it is clearly impossible. It is therefore a lesson which you cannot really learn, and therefore cannot really teach. Yet you are always teaching. You must therefore be teaching something else as well, even though the ego does not know what it is.

²⁷ The ego, then, is always being undone and does suspect your motives. Your mind cannot be unified in allegiance to the ego because the mind does not belong to it. Yet what is "treacherous" to the ego is faithful to peace. The ego's "enemy" is therefore your friend. We said before that the ego's friend is not part of you, since the ego perceives itself as at war and therefore in need of allies. You who are not at war must look for brothers and sisters and recognize all whom you see as brothers and sisters, because only equals are at peace.

²⁸ Because God's equal SonsDaughters have everything, they cannot compete. Yet if they perceive any of their brothers and sisters as anything other than their perfect equals, the idea of competition has entered their minds. Do not underestimate your need to be vigilant against this idea, because all your conflicts come from it. It is the belief that conflicting interests are possible, and therefore you have accepted the impossible as true. How is that different from saying that you are perceiving yourself as unreal?

²⁹ To be in the God Realm is merely to focus your full attention on it. As long as you believe that you can attend to what is not true, you are accepting conflict as your choice. Is it really a choice? It seems to be, but seeming and reality are hardly the same. You who are the God Realm are not concerned with seeming. reality is yours because you are reality. This is how having and being are ultimately reconciled, not in the God Realm, but in your minds. The altar there is the only reality. The altar is perfectly clear in thought because it is a reflection of perfect Thought. It sees only brothers and sisters because it sees only in its own light.

³⁰ God has lit your minds HimHerself and keeps your minds lit by HisHer light because HisHer light is what your minds are. This is totally beyond question, and when you questioned it you were answered. The answer merely undoes the question by establishing the fact that to question reality is to question meaninglessly. That is why the Holy Spirit never questions. Her sole function is to undo the questionable and thus lead to certainty. The certain are perfectly calm

because they are not in doubt. They do not raise questions because nothing questionable enters their minds. This holds them in perfect serenity because this is what they share, knowing what they are.

³¹ As has so often been said, healing is both an art and a science. It is an art because it depends on inspiration in the sense that we have already used the term. Inspiration is the opposite of dispiriting and therefore means to make joyous. The dispirited are depressed because they believe that they are literally "without the Spirit," which is an illusion. You do not put the Spirit in them by inspiring them because that would be magic and therefore would not be real healing. You do, however, recognize the Spirit that is already there and thereby reawaken it. This is why the healer is part of the resurrection and the life. The Spirit is not asleep in the minds of the sick, but the part of the mind that can perceive it and be glad is.

³² Healing is also a science because it obeys the laws of God, Whose laws are true. Because they are true, they are perfectly dependable and therefore universal in application. The real aim of science is neither prediction nor control but only understanding. This is because it does not establish the laws it seeks, cannot discover them through prediction, and has no control over them at all. Science is nothing more than an approach to what already is. Like inspiration it can be misunderstood as magic and will be whenever it is undertaken as separate from what already is and perceived as a means for establishing it. To believe this is possible is to believe you can do it. This can only be the voice of the ego.

³³ Truth can only be recognized and need only be recognized. Inspiration is of the Spirit, and certainty is of God according to HisHer laws. Both, therefore, come from the same Source, since inspiration comes from the Voice for God and certainty comes from the laws of God. Healing does not come directly from God, Who knows HisHer creationsmanifestations as perfectly whole. Yet healing is [nevertheless] of God, because it proceeds from HisHer Voice and from HisHer laws. It is their result, in a state of mind which does not know HimHer. The state is unknown to HimHer and therefore does not exist, but those who sleep are stupefied, or better, unaware. Because they are unaware, they do not know.

³⁴ The Holy Spirit must work through you to teach you She is in you. This is an intermediary step toward the knowledge that you are in God because you are part of HimHer. The miracles which the Holy Spirit inspires can have no order of difficulty because every part of manifested creation is of one order. This is God's Will and yours. The laws of God establish this, and the Holy Spirit reminds you of it. When you heal, you are remembering the laws of God and forgetting the laws of the ego. We said before that forgetting is merely a way of remembering better. It is therefore not the opposite of remembering, when it is properly perceived. Perceived improperly, it induces a perception of conflict with something else, as all incorrect perception does. Properly perceived, it can be used as a way out of conflict, as all proper perception can.

³⁵ All abilities, then, should be given over to the Holy Spirit, Who knows how to use them properly. She can use them only for healing because She knows you only as whole. By healing you learn of wholeness, and by learning of wholeness you learn to remember God. You have forgotten HimHer, but the Holy Spirit still knows that your forgetting must be translated into a way of remembering and not perceived as a separate ability which opposes an opposite. That is the way in which the ego tries to use all abilities, since its goal is always to make you believe that you are in opposition.

³⁶ The ego's goal is as unified as the Holy Spirit's, and it is because of this that their goals can never be reconciled in any way or to any extent. The ego always seeks to divide and separate. The Holy Spirit always seeks to unify and heal. As you heal you are healed because the Holy Spirit sees no order of healing. Healing is the way to undo the belief in differences, being the only way of perceiving the SonDaughtership without this belief. This perception is therefore in accord with the laws of God, even in a state of mind which is out of accord with HisHers. The strength of right perception is so great that it brings the mind into accord with HisHer because it yields to HisHer pull which is in all of you.

³⁷ To oppose the pull or the Will of God is not an ability but a real delusion. The ego believes that it has this ability and can offer it to you as a gift. You do not want it. It is not a gift. It is nothing at all. God has given you a gift which you both have and are. When you do not use it, you do not know you have it. By not knowing this, you do not know what you are. Healing, then, is a way of approaching knowledge by thinking in accordance with the laws of God and recognizing their universality. Without this recognition, you have made the laws themselves meaningless to you. Yet the laws are not meaningless, since all meaning is contained by them and in them.

³⁸ Seek ye first the God Realm because that is where the laws of God operate truly, and they can operate only truly since they are the laws of Truth. But seek this only because you can find nothing else. There is nothing else. God is all in all in a very literal sense. All being is in HimHer who is all Being. You are therefore in HimHer since your being is HisHers. Healing is a way of forgetting the sense of danger the ego has induced in you by not recognizing its existence in your brothers and sisters. This strengthens the Holy Spirit in both of you, because it is a refusal to acknowledge fear. Love needs only this invitation. It comes freely to all the SonDaughtership, being what the SonDaughtership is. By your awakening to it, you are merely forgetting what you are not. This enables you to remember what you are.

VI. Healing and the Changelessness of Mind

³⁹ The body is nothing more than a framework for developing abilities. It is therefore a means for developing potentials, which is quite apart from what the potential is used for. That is a decision. The effects of the ego's decision in this matter are so apparent that they need no elaboration here, but the Holy Spirit's decision to use the body only for communication has such a direct connection with healing that it does need clarification. The unhealed healer obviously does not understand his or her own vocation.

⁴⁰ Only minds communicate. Since the ego cannot obliterate the impulse to communicate because it is also the impulse to create and manifest, the ego can only teach you that the body can both communicate and create and manifest and therefore does not need the mind. The ego thus tries to teach you that the body can act like the mind and is therefore self-sufficient. Yet we have learned that behavior is not the level for either teaching or learning. This must be so, since you can act in accordance with what you do not believe. To do this, however, will weaken you as Teachers or Teacheresses and learners because, as has been repeatedly emphasized, you teach what you do believe. An inconsistent lesson will be poorly taught and poorly learned. If you teach both sickness and healing, you are both a poor teacher or teacheress and a poor learner.

⁴¹ Healing is the one ability which everyone can develop and must develop if he or she is to be healed. Healing is the Holy Spirit's form of communication and the only one She knows. She recognizes no other, because She does not accept the ego's confusion of mind and body. Minds can communicate, but they cannot hurt. The body in the service of the ego can hurt other bodies, but this cannot occur unless the body has already been confused with the mind. This fact, too, can be used either for healing or for magic, but you must remember that magic is always the belief that healing is harmful. This is its totally insane premise, and so it proceeds accordingly.

⁴² Healing only strengthens. Magic always tries to weaken. Healing perceives nothing in the healer that everyone else does not share with him or her. Magic always sees something "special" in the healer which he or she believes he or she can offer as a gift to someone who does not have it. He or she may believe that the gift comes from God to him or her, but it is quite evident that he or she does not understand God if he or she thinks he or she has something that others lack. You might well ask, then, why some healing can result from this kind of thinking, and there is a reason for this.

⁴³ However misguided the "magical healer" may be, he or she is also trying to help. He or she is conflicted and unstable, but at times he or she is offering something to the SonDaughtership, and the only thing the SonDaughtership can accept is healing. When the so-called "healing" works, then, the impulse to help and to be helped have coincided. This is coincidental because the healer may not be experiencing himself or herself as truly helpful at the time, but the belief that he or she is, in the mind of another, helps him or her.

⁴⁴ The Holy Spirit does not work by chance, and healing that is of Her always works. Unless the healer always heals by Her, the results will vary. Yet healing itself is consistence since only consistence is conflict-free, and only the conflict-free are whole. By accepting exceptions and acknowledging that he or she can sometimes heal and sometimes not, the healer is obviously accepting inconsistency. He or she is therefore in conflict and teaching conflict. Can anything of God not be for all and for always?

⁴⁵ Love is incapable of any exceptions. Only if there is fear does the idea of exceptions seem to be meaningful. Exceptions are fearful because they are made by fear. The "fearful healer" is a contradiction in terms and is therefore a concept which only a conflicted mind could possibly perceive as meaningful. Fear does not gladden. Healing does. Fear always makes exceptions. Healing never does. Fear produces dissociation because it induces separation. Healing always produces harmony because it proceeds from integration.

⁴⁶ Healing is predictable because it can be counted on. Everything that is of God can be counted on because everything of God is wholly real. Healing can be counted on because it is inspired by HisHer Voice and is in accord with HisHer laws. Yet if healing is consistence, it cannot be inconsistently understood. Understanding means consistence because God means consistence. Since that is HisHer meaning, it is also yours. Your meaning cannot be out of accord with HisHer because your whole meaning, and your only meaning, comes from HisHer and is like HisHer. God cannot be out of accord with HimHerself, and you cannot be out of accord with HimHer. You cannot separate your self from your CreatorManifestor, Who created and manifested you by sharing HisHer being with you.

⁴⁷ The unhealed healer wants gratitude from his or her brothers and sisters, but he or she is not grateful to them. This is because he or she thinks he or she is giving something to them and is not receiving something equally desirable in return. His or her teaching is limited because he or she is learning so little. His or her healing lesson is limited by his or her own ingratitude, which is a lesson in sickness. Learning is constant and so vital in its power for change that a son or daughter of God can recognize his or her power in one instant and change the world in the next. That is because by changing his or her mind he or she has changed the most powerful device that was ever created and manifested for change.

⁴⁸ This in no way contradicts the changelessness of mind as God created and manifested it, but you think that you have changed it as long as you learn through the ego. This does place you in a position of needing to learn a lesson which seems contradictory—you must learn to change your mind about your mind. Only by this can you learn that it is changeless. When you heal that is exactly what you are learning. You are recognizing the changeless mind in your brother or sister by realizing that he or she could not have changed his or her mind. That is how you perceive the Holy Spirit in him or her. It is only the Holy Spirit in him or her that never changes HisHer mind. He or she himself or herself must think he or she can, or he or she would not perceive himself or herself as sick. He or she therefore does not know what his or her self is.

⁴⁹ If you see only the changeless in him or her, you have not really changed him or her at all. By changing your mind about his or her for him or her, you help him or her undo the change his or her ego thinks it has made in him or her. As you can hear two voices, so you can see in two ways. One way shows you an image, or better, an idol or idolress which you may worship out of fear but which you will never love. The other shows you only truth, which you will love because you will understand it. Understanding is appreciation because what you understand you can identify with, and by making it part of you, you have accepted it with love.

⁵⁰ That is how God HimHerself created and manifested you—in understanding, in appreciation, and in love. The ego is totally unable to understand this, because it does not understand what it makes; it does not appreciate it; and it does not love it. It incorporates to take away. It literally believes that every time it deprives someone of something, it has increased. We have spoken often of the increase of the God Realm by your creationsmanifestations, which can only be created and manifested as you were. The whole glory and perfect joy that is the God Realm lies in you to give. Do you not want to give it?

⁵¹ You cannot forget the FatherMother because I am with you, and I cannot forget HimHer. To forget me is to forget yourself and HimHer Who created and manifested you. Our brothers and sisters are forgetful. That is why they need your remembrance of me and HimHer who created and manifested me. Through this remembrance, you can change their minds about themselves, as I can change yours. Your minds are so powerful a light that you can look into theirs and enlighten them, as I can enlighten yours. I do not want to share my body in communion, because that is to share nothing. [Would I try to share an illusion with the most holy children of a most holy FatherMother?] Yet I do want to share my mind with you because we are of One Mind and that Mind is ours.

⁵² See only this Mind everywhere because only this is everywhere and in everything. It is everything because it encompasses all things within itself. Blessed are you who perceive only this, because you perceive only what is true. Come therefore unto me and learn of the truth in you. The Mind we share is shared by all our brothers and sisters, and as we see them truly, they will be healed. Let your mind shine with ours upon their minds and by our gratitude to them, make them aware of the light in them.

⁵³ This light will shine back upon you and on the whole SonDaughtership because this is your proper gift to God. HeShe will accept it and give it to the SonDaughtership because it is acceptable to HimHer and therefore to HisHer SonsDaughters. This is the true communion of the Spirit, Who sees the altar of God in everyone and, by bringing it to your appreciation, calls upon you to love God and HisHer creationsmanifestations. You can appreciate the SonDaughtership only as one. This is part of the Law of Creation and therefore governs all thought.

VII. From Vigilance to Peace

⁵⁴ Although you can love the SonDaughtership only as one, you can perceive it as fragmented. It is impossible, however, for you to see something in part of it that you will not attribute to all of it. That is why attack is never discrete and why attack must be relinquished entirely. If it is not relinquished entirely, it is not relinquished at all. Fear and love are equally reciprocal. They make or create and manifest, depending on whether the ego or the Holy Spirit begets or inspires them, but they will return to the mind of the thinker, and they will affect his or her total perception. That includes his or her perception of God, of HisHer creationsmanifestations, and of his or her own. He or she will not appreciate any of them if he or she regards them fearfully. He or she will appreciate all of them if he or she regards them with love.

⁵⁵ The mind that accepts attack cannot love. That is because it believes that it can destroy love and therefore does not understand what love is. If it does not understand what love is, it cannot perceive itself as loving. This loses the awareness of being, induces feelings of unreality, and results in utter confusion. Your own thinking has done this because of its power, but your own thinking can also save you from this because its power is not of your making. Your ability to direct your thinking as you will is part of its power. If you do not believe you can do this, you have denied the power of your thought and thus rendered it powerless in your belief.

⁵⁶ The ingeniousness of the ego to preserve itself is enormous, but it stems from the power of the mind, which the ego denies. This means that the ego attacks what is preserving it, and this must be a source of extreme anxiety. That is why the ego never knows what it is doing. It is perfectly logical but clearly insane. The ego draws upon the one source which is totally inimical to its existence for its existence. Fearful of perceiving the power of this source, it is forced to depreciate it. This threatens its own existence, a state which it finds intolerable.

⁵⁷ Remaining logical but still insane, the ego resolves this completely insane dilemma in a completely insane way. It does not perceive its existence as threatened by projecting the threat onto you and perceiving your being as nonexistent. This ensures its continuance if you side with it by guaranteeing that you will not know your own safety. The ego cannot afford to know anything. Knowledge is total, and the ego does not believe in totality. This unbelief is its origin and, while the ego does not love you, it is faithful to its own antecedents, begetting as it was begotten.

⁵⁸ Mind always reproduces as it was produced. Produced by fear, the ego reproduces fear. This is its allegiance, and this allegiance makes it treacherous to love, because you are love. Love is your power, which the ego must deny. It must also deny everything which this power gives you because it gives you everything. No one who has everything wants the ego. Its own maker, then, does not want it. Rejection is therefore the only decision which the ego could possibly encounter, if the mind which made it knew itself. And if it recognized any part of the SonDaughtership, it would know itself.

⁵⁹ The ego therefore opposes all appreciation, all recognition, all sane perception, and all knowledge. It perceives their threat as total because it senses the fact that all commitments the mind makes are total. Forced, therefore, to detach itself from you who are mind, it is willing to attach itself to anything else. But there is nothing else. It does not follow that the mind cannot make illusions, but it does follow that if it makes illusions it will believe in them, because that is how it made them.

⁶⁰ The Holy Spirit undoes illusions without attacking them merely because She cannot perceive them at all. They therefore do not exist for Her. She resolves the apparent conflict which they engender by perceiving conflict as meaningless. We said before that the Holy Spirit perceives the conflict exactly as it is, and it is meaningless. The Holy Spirit does not want you to understand conflict; She wants you to realize that, because conflict is meaningless, it cannot be understood. We have already said that understanding brings appreciation, and appreciation brings love. Nothing else can be understood because nothing else is real, and therefore nothing else has meaning.

⁶¹ If you will keep in mind what the Holy Spirit offers you, you cannot be vigilant for anything but God and HisHer Realm. The only reason you find this difficult is because you think there is something else. Belief does not require vigilance unless it is conflicted. If it is, there are conflicting components within it which have engendered a state of war, and vigilance therefore has become essential. Vigilance has no place at all in peace. It is necessary against beliefs which are not true and would never have been called upon by the Holy Spirit if you had not believed the untrue. You cannot deny that, when you believe something, you have made it true for you.

⁶² When you believe what God does not know, your thought seems to contradict HisHers, and this makes it appear as if you are attacking HimHer. We have repeatedly emphasized that the ego does believe it can attack God and tries to persuade you that you have done this. If the mind cannot attack, the ego proceeds perfectly logically to the position that you cannot be mind. By not seeing you as you are, it can see itself as it wants to be. Aware of its weakness, the ego wants your allegiance, but not as you really are. The ego therefore wants to engage your mind in its own delusional system, because otherwise the light of your understanding would dispel it.

⁶³ The ego wants no part of truth because the truth is that the ego is not true. If truth is total, the untrue cannot exist. Commitment to either must be total, since they cannot coexist in your minds without splitting them. If they cannot coexist in peace and if you want peace, you must give up the idea of conflict entirely and for all time. [This requires vigilance only as long as you do not recognize what is true.] While you believe that two totally contradictory thought systems share truth, your need for vigilance is apparent. Your minds are dividing their allegiance between two kingdoms, and you are totally committed to neither.

⁶⁴ Your identification with the God Realm is totally beyond question, except by you when you are thinking insanely. What you are is not established by your perception and is not influenced by it at all. All perceived problems in identification at any level are not problems of fact. They are problems of understanding, since they mean that you believe what you can understand is up to you to decide. The ego believes this totally, being fully committed to it. It is not true. The ego therefore is totally committed to untruth, perceiving in total contradiction to the Holy Spirit and to the knowledge of God.

⁶⁵ You can be perceived with meaning only by the Holy Spirit because your being is the knowledge of God. Any belief that you accept which is apart from this will obscure God's Voice in you and will therefore obscure God to you. Unless you perceive HisHer manifested creation truly, you cannot know the CreatorManifestor, since God and HisHer manifested creation are not separate. The Oneness of the CreatorManifestor and the manifested creation is your wholeness, your sanity, and your limitless power. This limitless power is God's gift to you, because it is what you are. If you dissociate your mind from it, you are perceiving the most powerful force in the universe [of thought] as if it were weak because you do not believe you are part of it.

⁶⁶ Perceived without your part in it, God's manifested creation is perceived as weak, and those who see themselves as weakened do attack. The attack must be blind, however, because there is nothing to attack. Therefore, they make up images, perceive them as unworthy, and attack them for their unworthiness. That is all the world of the ego is—nothing. It has no meaning. It does not exist. Do not try to understand it, because if you do you are believing that it can be understood and is therefore capable of being appreciated and loved. That would justify it, and it cannot be justified. You cannot make the meaningless meaningful. This can only be an insane attempt.

⁶⁷ Allowing insanity to enter your minds means that you have not judged sanity as wholly desirable. If you want something else, you will make something else, but because it is something else, it will attack your thought system and divide your allegiance. You cannot create and manifest in this divided state, and you must be vigilant against this divided state, because only peace can be extended. Your divided minds are blocking the extension of the God Realm, and its extension is your joy. If you do not extend the God Realm, you are not thinking with your CreatorManifestor and creatingmanifesting as HeShe created and manifested.

⁶⁸ In this depressing state, the Holy Spirit reminds you gently that you are sad because you are not fulfilling your function as

cocreatorscomanifestors with God and are therefore depriving yourselves of joy. This is not God's Will but yours. If your will is out of accord with God's, you are willing without meaning. Yet because God's Will is unchangeable, no real conflict of will is possible. This is the Holy Spirit's perfectly consistent teaching.

⁶⁹ Manifested creation, not separation, is your will because it is God's, and nothing that opposes this means anything at all. Being a perfect accomplishment, the SonDaughtership can only accomplish perfectly, extending the joy in which it was created and manifested and identifying itself with both its CreatorManifestor and its creationsmanifestations, knowing they are one.

VIII. The Total Commitment

⁷⁰ Whenever you deny a blessing to a brother or sister, you will feel deprived. This is because denial is as total as love. It is as impossible to deny part of the SonDaughtership as it is to love it in part. Nor is it possible to love it totally at times. You cannot be totally committed sometimes. Remember a very early lesson—"Never underestimate the power of denial." It has no power in itself, but you can give it the power of your mind, whose power is without limit of any kind. If you use it to deny reality, reality is gone for you. reality cannot be partly appreciated. That is why denying any part of it means you have lost awareness of all of it.

⁷¹ That is the negative side of the law as it operates in this world. Yet denial is a defense, and so it is as capable of being used positively as it is of being used destructively. Used negatively it will be destructive because it will be used for attack, but in the service of the Holy Spirit, [the law becomes as beneficent as all of the laws of God. Stated positively,] the law requires you to recognize only part of reality to appreciate all of it. Mind is too powerful to be subject to exclusion. You will never be able to exclude yourself from what you project.

⁷² When a brother or sister acts insanely, he or she is offering you an opportunity to bless him or her. His or her need is yours. You need the blessing you can offer him or her. There is no way for you to have it except by giving it. This is the law of God, and it has no exceptions. What you deny you lack, not because it is lacking, but because you have denied it in another and are therefore not aware of it in you. Every response you make is determined by what you think you are, and what you want to be is what you think you are. Therefore, what you want to be determines every response you make.

⁷³ You do not need God's blessing since that you have forever, but you do need yours. The picture you see of yourselves is deprived, unloving, and very vulnerable. You cannot love this. Yet you can very easily escape from it or, better, leave it behind. You are not there, and that is not you. Do not see this picture in anyone, or you have accepted it as you. All illusions about the SonDaughtership are dispelled together, as they were made together. Teach no one that he or she is what you would not want to be. Your brother or sister is the mirror in which you will see the image of yourself as long as perception lasts. And perception will last until the SonDaughtership knows itself as whole.

⁷⁴ You made perception, and it must last as long as you want it. Illusions are investments. They will last as long as you value them. Values are relative, but they are powerful because they are mental judgments. The only way to dispel illusions is to withdraw all investment from them, and they will have no life for you because you have put them out of your mind. While you include them in it, you are giving life to them, except there is nothing there to receive your gift.

⁷⁵ The gift of life is yours to give because it was given you. You are unaware of your gift because you do not give it. You cannot make nothing live since it cannot be enlivened. Therefore, you are not extending the gift you both have and are, and so you do not know your being. All confusion comes from not extending life, since that is not the Will of your CreatorManifestor. You can do nothing apart from HimHer, and you do do nothing apart from HimHer. Keep HisHer way to remember yourselves and teach HisHer way, lest you forget yourselves. Give only honor to the SonsDaughters of the living God and count yourselves among them gladly.

⁷⁶ Only honor is a fitting gift for those whom God HimHerself created and manifested worthy of honor and whom HeShe honors. Give them the appreciation which God accords them always because they are HisHer beloved SonsDaughters in whom HeShe is well pleased. You cannot be apart from them because you are not apart from HimHer. Rest in HisHer love and protect your rest by loving. But love everything HeShe created and manifested of which you are a part, or you cannot learn of HisHer peace and accept HisHer gift for yourself and as yourself. You cannot know your own perfection until you have honored all those who were created and manifested like you.

⁷⁷ One Child of God is the only teacher or teacheress sufficiently worthy to teach another. One Teacheress is in all your minds, and She teaches the same lesson to all. She always teaches you the inestimable worth of every SonDaughter of God, teaching it with infinite patience born of the infinite love for which She speaks. Every attack is a call for Her patience, since only Her patience can translate attack into blessing. Those who attack do not know they are blessed. They attack because they believe they are deprived. Give therefore of your abundance and teach your brothers and sisters theirs. Do not share their delusions of scarcity, or you will perceive yourself as lacking.

⁷⁸ Attack could never promote attack unless you perceived it as a means of depriving you of something you want. Yet you cannot lose anything unless you did not value it and therefore did not want it. This makes you feel deprived of it, and by projecting your own rejection, you believe that others are taking it from you. One must be fearful if he or she believes that his or her brother or sister is attacking him or her to tear the God Realm from him or her. This is the ultimate basis for all of the ego's projection.

⁷⁹ Being the part of your mind which does not believe it is responsible for itself and being without allegiance to God, the ego is incapable of trust. Projecting its insane belief that you have been treacherous to your CreatorManifestor, it believes that your brothers and sisters, who are as incapable of this as you are, are out to take God from you. Whenever a brother or sister attacks another, this is what he or she believes. Projection always sees your will in others. If you will to separate yourself from God, that is what you will think others are doing to you.

⁸⁰ You are the Will of God. Do not accept anything else as your will, or you are denying what you are. Deny this and you will attack, believing you have been attacked. But see the love of God in you, and you will see it everywhere because it is everywhere. See HisHer abundance in everyone, and you will know that you are in HimHer with them. They are part of you, as you are part of God. You are as lonely without understanding this as God HimHerself is lonely when HisHer SonsDaughters do not know HimHer. The peace of God is understanding this. There is only one way out of the world's thinking, just as there was only one way into it. Understand totally by understanding totality.

⁸¹ Perceive any part of the ego's thought system as wholly insane, wholly delusional, and wholly undesirable, and you have correctly evaluated all of it. This correction enables you to perceive any part of manifested creation as wholly real, wholly perfect, and wholly desirable. Wanting this only, you will have this only, and giving this only you will be only this. The gifts you offer to the ego are always experienced as sacrifices, but the gifts you offer to the God Realm are gifts to you. They will always be treasured by God because they belong to HisHer beloved SonsDaughters who belong to HimHer. All power and glory are yours because the God Realm is HisHer.

IX. The Defence of Conflict

⁸² We once said that without projection there can be no anger, but it is also true that without projection there can be no love. Projection is a fundamental law of the mind and therefore one which always operates. It is the law by which you create and manifest and were created and manifested. It is the law which unifies the God Realm and keeps it in the Mind of God. To the ego, the law is perceived as a way of getting rid of something it does not want. To the Holy Spirit, it is the fundamental law of sharing by which you give what you value in order to keep it in your own mind.

⁸³ Projection, to the Holy Spirit, is the law of extension. To the ego, it is the law of deprivation. It therefore produces abundance or scarcity, depending on how you choose to apply it. This choice is up to you, but it is not up to you to decide whether or not you will utilize projection. Every mind must project because that is how it lives, and every mind is life. The ego's use of projection must be fully understood before its inevitable association between projection and anger can be finally undone.

⁸⁴ The ego always tries to preserve conflict. It is very ingenious in devising ways which seem to diminish conflict because it does not want you to find conflict so intolerable that you will insist on giving it up. Therefore, the ego tries to persuade you that it can free you of conflict, lest you give the ego up and free yourself. The ego, using its own warped version of the laws of God, utilizes the power of the mind only to defeat the mind's real purpose. It projects conflict from your mind to other minds in an attempt to persuade you that you have gotten rid of it. This has several fallacies which may not be so apparent.

⁸⁵ Strictly speaking, conflict cannot be projected, precisely because it cannot be fully shared. Any attempt to keep part of it and get rid of another part does not really mean anything. Remember that a conflicted teacher or teacheress is a poor teacher or teacheress and a poor learner. HisHer lessons are confused, and their transfer value is severely limited by his or her confusion. A second fallacy is the idea that you can get rid of something you do not want by giving it away. Giving it is how you keep it. The belief that by giving it out you have excluded it from within is a complete distortion of the power of extension.

⁸⁶ That is why those who project from the ego are vigilant for their own safety. They are afraid that their projections will return and hurt them. They do believe they have blotted their projections from their own minds, but they also believe their projections are trying to creep back into them. That is because the projections have not left their minds, and this in turn forces them to engage in compulsive activity in order not to recognize this. You cannot perpetuate an illusion about another without perpetuating it about yourself. There is no way out of this because it is impossible to fragment the mind.

⁸⁷ To fragment is to break into pieces, and mind cannot attack or be attacked. The belief that it can, a fallacy which the ego always makes, underlies its whole use of projection. It does not understand what mind is and therefore does not understand what you are. Yet its existence is dependent on your mind because the ego is your belief. The ego is therefore a confusion in identification which never had a consistent model and never developed consistently. It is the distorted product of the misapplication of the laws of God by distorted minds which are misusing their own power.

⁸⁸ Do not be afraid of the ego. It does depend on your mind and, as you made it by believing in it, so you can dispel it by withdrawing belief from it. Do not project the responsibility for your belief in it onto anyone else, or you will preserve the belief. When you are willing to accept sole responsibility for the ego's existence yourself, you will have laid aside all anger and all attack because they come from an attempt to project responsibility for your own errors. But having accepted the errors as yours, do not keep them. Give them over quickly to the Holy Spirit to be undone completely so that all their effects will vanish from your minds and from the SonDaughtership as a whole.

⁸⁹ The Holy Spirit will teach you to perceive beyond belief because truth is beyond belief, and Her perception is true. The ego can be completely forgotten at any time because it was always a belief that is totally incredible. No one can keep a belief he or she has judged to be unbelievable. The more you learn about the ego, the more you realize that it cannot be believed. The incredible cannot be understood because it is unbelievable. The utter meaninglessness of all perception that comes from the unbelievable must be apparent, but it is not recognized as beyond belief because it was made by belief.

⁹⁰ The whole purpose of this course is to teach you that the ego is unbelievable and will forever be unbelievable. You who made the ego by believing the unbelievable cannot make this judgment alone. By accepting the Atonement for yourself, you are deciding against the belief that you can be alone, thus dispelling the idea of separation and affirming your true identification with the whole God Realm as literally part of you. This identification is as beyond doubt as it is beyond belief. Your wholeness has no limits because being is in infinity.

X. The Extension of the God Realm

⁹¹ Only you can limit your creative and manifestive power, but God wills to release it. HeShe no more wills you to deprive yourself of your

creationsmanifestations than HeShe wills to deprive HimHerself of HisHer. Do not withhold your gifts to the SonDaughtership, or you withhold yourself from God. Selfishness is of the ego, but self-fullness is of the individual Spirit because that is how God created and manifested it. The Holy Spirit is the part of the mind that lies between the ego and the individual Spirit, mediating between them always in favor of the individual Spirit. To the ego, this is partiality, and it therefore responds as if it were the part that is being sided against. To the individual Spirit, this is truth because it knows its fullness and cannot conceive of any part from which it is excluded.

⁹² The individual Spirit knows that the consciousness of all its brothersisters is included in its own, as it is included in God. The power of the whole SonDaughtership and of its CreatorManifestor is therefore the individual Spirit's own fullness, rendering its creationsmanifestations equally whole and equal in perfection. The ego cannot prevail against a totality which includes God, and any totality must include God. Everything HeShe created and manifested is given all HisHer power because it is part of HimHer and shares HisHer Being with HimHer. Creatingmanifesting is the opposite of loss, as blessing is the opposite of sacrifice. Being must be extended. That is how it retains the knowledge of itself.

⁹³ The individual Spirit yearns to share its being as its CreatorManifestor did. Created and manifested by sharing, its will is to create and manifest . It does not wish to contain God but to extend HisHer Being. The extension of God's Being is the individual Spirit's only function. Its fullness cannot be contained any more than can the fullness of its CreatorManifestor. Fullness is extension. The ego's whole thought system blocks extension and thus blocks your only function. It therefore blocks your joy, and that is why you perceive yourselves as unfulfilled. Unless you create and manifest, you are unfulfilled; but God does not know of unfulfillment, and therefore you must create and manifest . You may not know your own creationsmanifestations, but this can no more interfere with their reality than your unawareness of your individual Spirit can interfere with its being.

⁹⁴ The God Realm is forever extending because it is in the Mind of God. You do not know your joy because you do not know your own self-fullness. Exclude any part of the God Realm from yourself, and you are not whole. A split mind cannot perceive its fullness and needs the miracle of its wholeness to dawn upon it and heal it. This reawakens the wholeness in it and restores it to the God Realm because of its acceptance of wholeness. The full appreciation of its self-fullness makes selfishness impossible and extension inevitable. That is why there is perfect peace in the God Realm. Every individual Spirit is fulfilling its function, and only complete fulfillment is peace.

⁹⁵ Insanity appears to add to reality, but no one would claim that what it adds is true. Insanity is therefore the non-extension of truth, which blocks joy because it blocks manifested creation and thus blocks self-fulfillment. The unfulfilled must be depressed because their self-fullness is unknown to them. Your creationsmanifestations are protected for you because the Holy Spirit, Who is in your mind, knows of them and can bring them into your awareness whenever you will let Her. They are there as part of your own being because your fulfillment includes them. The creationsmanifestations of every SonDaughter of God are yours since every manifested creation belongs to everyone, being created and manifested for the SonDaughtership as a whole.

⁹⁶ You have not failed to add to the inheritance of the SonsDaughters of God and thus have not failed to secure it for yourselves. If it was the Will of God to give it to you, HeShe gave it forever. If it was HisHer Will that you have it forever, HeShe gave you the means for keeping it, and you have done so. Disobeying God's Will is meaningful only to the insane. In truth it is impossible. Your self-fullness is as boundless as God's. Like HisHer, it extends forever and in perfect peace. Its radiance is so intense that it creates and manifests in perfect joy, and only the whole can be born of its wholeness.

⁹⁷ Be confident that you have never lost your identity and the extensions which maintain it in wholeness and peace. Miracles are an expression of this confidence. They are reflections both of your own proper identification with your brothers and sisters and of your own awareness that your identification is maintained by extension. The miracle is a lesson in total perception. By including any part of totality in the lesson, you have included the whole. You have said that when you write of the God Realm and your creationsmanifestations which belong in it, you are describing what you do not know. That is true in a sense, but no more true than your failure to acknowledge the whole result of the ego's premises. The God Realm is the result of premises, just as this world is.

⁹⁸ You have carried the ego's reasoning to its logical conclusion, which is total confusion about everything. Yet you do not really believe this, or you could not possibly maintain it. If you really saw this result, you could not want it. The only reason why you could possibly want any part of it is because you do not see the whole of it. You are willing to look at the ego's premises but not at their logical outcome. Is it not possible that you have done the same thing with the premises of God?

⁹⁹ Your creations/manifestations are the logical outcome of His/Her premises. His/Her thinking has established them for you. They are therefore there, exactly where they belong. They belong in your mind as part of your identification with His/Hers, but your state of mind and your recognition of what is in your mind depend at any given moment on what you believe about your mind. Whatever these beliefs may be, they are the premises which will determine what you accept into your mind. It is surely clear that you can both accept into your mind what is not really there and deny what is. Neither of these possibilities requires further elaboration here, but both are clearly indefensible, even if you elect to defend them.

¹⁰⁰ Yet the function which God Him/Herself gave your minds through His/Her you may deny, but you cannot prevent. It is the logical outcome of what you are. The ability to see a logical outcome depends on the willingness to see it, but its truth has nothing to do with your willingness at all. Truth is God's Will. Share His/Her Will, and you share what He/She knows. Deny His/Her Will as yours, and you are denying His/Her Realm and yours. The Holy Spirit will direct you only so as to avoid pain. The undoing of pain must obviously avoid pain. Surely no one would object to this goal if he or she recognized it. The problem is not whether what the Holy Spirit says is true, but whether you want to listen to what She says.

XI. The Confusion of Strength and Weakness

¹⁰¹ You no more recognize what is painful than you know what is joyful and are in fact very apt to confuse the two. The Holy Spirit's main function is to teach you to tell them apart. However strange it may seem that this is necessary, it obviously is. The reason is equally obvious. What is joyful to you is painful to the ego and, as long as you are in doubt about what you are, you will be confused about joy and pain. This confusion is the cause of the whole idea of sacrifice. Obey the Holy Spirit, and you will be giving up the ego. But you will be sacrificing nothing. On the contrary, you will be gaining everything. If you believed this, there would be no conflict.

¹⁰² That is why you need to demonstrate the obvious to yourself. It is not obvious to you. You believe that doing the opposite of God's Will can be better for you. You also believe that it is possible to do the opposite of God's Will. Therefore, you believe that an impossible choice is open to you and one which is both very fearful and very desirable. Yet God wills. He/She does not wish. Your will is as powerful as His/Her because it is His/Hers. The ego's wishes do not mean anything, because the ego wishes for the impossible. You can wish for the impossible, but you can will only with God. This is the ego's weakness and your strength.

¹⁰³ The Holy Spirit always sides with you and with your strength. As long as you avoid Her guidance in any way, you want to be weak. Yet weakness is frightening. What else, then, can this decision mean except that you want to be fearful? The Holy Spirit never asks for sacrifice, but the ego always does. When you are confused about this very clear distinction in motivation, it can only be due to projection. Projection of this kind is a confusion in motivation and, given this confusion, trust becomes impossible.

¹⁰⁴ No one obeys gladly a guide he or she does not trust, but this does not mean that the guide is untrustworthy. In this case, it always means that the follower is. However, this too is merely a matter of his or her own belief. Believing that he or she can betray, he or she believes that everything can betray him or her. Yet this is only because he or she has elected to follow false guidance. Unable to follow this guidance without fear, he or she associates fear with guidance and refuses to follow any guidance at all. [If the result of this decision is confusion, this is hardly surprising.] The Holy Spirit is perfectly trustworthy, as you are. God HimHerself trusts you, and therefore your trustworthiness is beyond question. It will always remain beyond question, however much you may question it.

¹⁰⁵ We said before that you are the Will of God. HisHer Will is not an idle wish, and your identification with HisHer Will is not optional, since it is what you are. Sharing HisHer Will with me is not really open to choice, though it may seem to be. The whole separation lies in this fallacy. The only way out of the fallacy is to decide that you do not have to decide anything. Everything has been given you by God's decision. That is HisHer Will, and you can not undo it. Even the relinquishment of your false decision-making prerogative, which the ego guards so jealously, is not accomplished by your wish. It was accomplished for you by the Will of God, Who has not left you comfortless. HisHer Voice will teach you how to distinguish between pain and joy and will lead you out of the confusion which you have made. There is no confusion in the mind of a SonDaughter of God whose will must be the Will of the FatherMother because the Father'sMother's Will is HisHer SonDaughter.

¹⁰⁶ Miracles are in accord with the Will of God Whose Will you do not know because you are confused about what you will. This means that you are confused about what you are. If you are God's Will and do not accept HisHer Will, you are denying joy. The miracle is therefore a lesson in what joy is. Being a lesson in sharing, it is a lesson in love, which is joy. Every miracle is thus a lesson in truth, and by offering truth you are learning the difference between pain and joy.

XII. The State of Grace

¹⁰⁷ The Holy Spirit will always guide you truly because your joy is Hers. This is Her Will for everyone because She speaks for the God Realm which is joy. Following Her is therefore the easiest thing in the world and the only thing that is easy, because it is not of the world and is therefore natural. The world goes against your nature, being out of accord with God's laws. The world perceives orders of difficulty in everything. This is because the ego perceives nothing as wholly desirable. By demonstrating to yourselves that there is no order of difficulty in miracles, you will convince yourselves that in your natural state there is no difficulty because it is a state of grace.

¹⁰⁸ Grace is the natural state of every SonDaughter of God. When he or she is not in a state of grace, he or she is out of his or her natural environment and does not function well. Everything he or she does becomes a strain because he or she was not created and manifested for the environment that he or she has made. He or she therefore cannot adapt to it, nor can he or she adapt it to him or her. There is no point in trying. A SonDaughter of God is happy only when heshe knows heshe is with God. That is the only environment in which he or she will not experience strain, because that is where he or she belongs. It is also the only environment that is worthy of himher, because hisher own worth is beyond anything heshe can make.

¹⁰⁹ Consider the kingdom you have made and judge its worth fairly. Is it worthy to be a home for a Child of God? Does it protect hisher peace and shine love upon himher? Does it keep hisher heart untouched by fear and allow himher to give always without any sense of loss? Does it teach himher that this giving is hisher joy and that God HimHerself thanks himher for hisher giving? That is the only environment in which you can be happy. You cannot make it any more than you can make yourselves. It has been created and manifested for you, as you were created and manifested for it. God watches over HisHer Children and denies them nothing. Yet when they deny HimHer, they do not know this, because they deny themselves everything.

¹¹⁰ You who could give the love of God to everything you see and touch and remember are literally denying the God Realm to yourselves. I call upon you again to remember that I have chosen you to teach the God Realm to the God Realm. There are no exceptions to this lesson, because the lack of exceptions is the lesson. Every SonDaughter who returns to the God Realm with this lesson in hisher heart has healed the SonDaughtership and given thanks to God. Everyone who learns this lesson has become the perfect teacher or teacheress because he or she has learned it of the Holy Spirit, Who wants to teach him or her everything She knows. When a mind has only light, it knows only light. Its own radiance shines all around it and extends out into the darkness of other minds, transforming them into majesty.

¹¹¹ The Majesty of God is there for you to recognize and appreciate and know. Perceiving the Majesty of God as your brother or sister is to accept your own inheritance. God gives only equally. If you recognize HisHer gift in anyone else, you have acknowledged what HeShe has given you. Nothing is as easy to perceive as truth. This is the perception which is immediate, clear, and natural. You have trained yourselves not to see it, and this has been very difficult for you. Out of your natural environment, you may well ask, "What is truth?" since truth is the environment by which and for which you were created and manifested.

¹¹² You do not know yourselves, because you do not know your CreatorManifestor. You do not know your creationsmanifestations, because you do not know your brothers and sisters, who created and manifested them with you. We said before that only the whole SonDaughtership is worthy to be cocreatorco-manifestor with God because only the whole SonDaughtership can create and manifest like HimHer. Whenever you heal a brother or sister by recognizing his or her worth, you are acknowledging his or her power to create and manifest and yours. He or she cannot have lost what you recognize, and you must have the glory you see in him or her. He or she is a cocreatorcomanifestor with God with you. Deny his or her creative and manifestive power, and you are denying yours and that of God, Who created and manifested you. You cannot deny part of truth. You do not know your creationsmanifestations because you do not know their CreatorManifestor. You do not know yourselves because you do not know yours.

¹¹³ Your creationsmanifestations cannot establish your reality any more than you can establish God's. But you can know both. Being is known by sharing. Because God shared HisHer Being with you, you can know HimHer. But you must also know all HeShe created and manifested to know what they have shared. Without your FatherMother, you will not know your fatherhoodmotherhood. The Realm of God includes all HisHer SonsDaughters and their children, who are like the SonsDaughters as they are like the FatherMother. Know then the SonsDaughters of God, and you will know all manifested creation.

Chapter Eight: The Journey Back

I. Introduction

¹ You are hampered in your progress by your demands to know what you do not know. This is actually a way of holding on to deprivation. You cannot reasonably object to following instructions in a course for knowing on the grounds that you do not know. The need for the course is implicit in your objection. Knowledge is not the motivation for learning this course. Peace is. As the prerequisite for knowledge, peace must be learned. This is only because those who are in conflict are not peaceful, and peace is the condition of knowledge because it is the condition of the God Realm.

² Knowledge will be restored when you meet its conditions. This is not a bargain made by God, Who makes no bargains. It is merely the result of your misuse of HisHer laws on behalf of a will that is not HisHers. Knowledge is HisHer Will. If you are opposing HisHer Will, how can you have knowledge? I have told you what knowledge offers you, but it is clear that you do not regard this as wholly desirable. If you did, you would hardly be willing to throw it away so readily when the ego asks for your allegiance. The distraction of the ego seems to interfere with your learning, but the ego has no power to distract you unless you give it the power.

³ The ego's voice is a hallucination. You cannot expect it to say, "I am not real." Hallucinations are inaccurate perceptions of reality. Yet you are not asked to dispel them alone. You are merely asked to evaluate them in terms of their results to you. If you do not want them on the basis of loss of peace, they will be removed from your mind for you. Every response to the ego is a call to war, and war does deprive you of peace. Yet in this war there is no opponent. This is the reinterpretation of reality which you must make to secure peace, and the only one you need ever make.

II. The Direction of the Curriculum

⁴ Those whom you perceive as opponents are part of your peace, which you are giving up by attacking them. How can you have what you give up? You share to have, but you do not give it up yourself. When you give up peace, you are excluding yourself from it. This is a condition which is so alien to the God Realm that you cannot understand the state which prevails within it. Your past learning must have taught you the wrong things simply because it has not made you happy. On this basis alone, its value should be questioned.

⁵ If learning aims at change, and that is always its purpose, are you satisfied with the changes your learning has brought you? Dissatisfaction with learning outcomes must be a sign of learning failure, since it means that you did not get what you want. The curriculum of the Atonement is the opposite of the curriculum you have established for yourselves, but so is its outcome. If the outcome of yours has made you unhappy and if you want a different one, a change in the curriculum is obviously necessary.

⁶ The first change that must be introduced is a change in direction. A meaningful curriculum cannot be inconsistent. If it is planned by two Teachers or Teacheresses, each believing in diametrically opposed ideas, it cannot be integrated. If it is carried out by these two Teachers or Teacheresses simultaneously, each one merely interferes with the other. This leads to fluctuation, but not to change. The volatile have no direction. They cannot choose one because they cannot relinquish the other, even if the other does not exist. Their conflicted curriculum teaches them all directions exist and gives them no rationale for choice.

⁷ The total senselessness of such a curriculum must be fully recognized before a real change in direction becomes possible. You cannot learn simultaneously from two Teachers or Teacheresses who are in total disagreement about everything. Their joint curriculum presents an impossible learning task. They are teaching you entirely different things in entirely different ways, which might be possible except for the crucial fact that both are teaching you about yourself. Your reality is unaffected by both, but if you listen to both, your mind will be split about what your reality is.

III. The Rationale For Choice

⁸ There is a rationale for choice. Only one Teacheress knows what your reality is. If learning that is the purpose of the curriculum, you must learn it of Her. The ego does not know what it is trying to teach. It is trying to teach you what you are without knowing it. The ego is expert only in confusion. It does not understand anything else. As a teacher or teacheress, then, it is totally confused and totally confusing. Even if you could disregard the Holy Spirit entirely, which is quite impossible, you could learn nothing from the ego because the ego knows nothing.

⁹ Is there any possible reason for choosing a teacher or teacheress such as this? Does the total disregard of anything it teaches make anything but sense? Is this the teacher or teacheress to whom a SonDaughter of God should turn to find himself or herself? The ego has never given you a sensible answer to anything. Simply on the grounds of your own experience with the ego's teaching, should not this alone disqualify it as your future teacher or teacheress? Yet the ego has done more harm to your learning than this alone. Learning is joyful if it leads you along your natural path and facilitates the development of what you have. When you are taught against your nature, however, you will lose by your learning because your learning will imprison you. Your will is in your nature and therefore cannot go against it.

¹⁰ The ego cannot teach you anything as long as your will is free because you will not listen to it. It is not your will to be imprisoned because your will is free. That is why the ego is the denial of free will. It is never God who coerces you because HeShe shares HisHer Will with you. HisHer Voice teaches only HisHer Will, but that is not the Holy Spirit's lesson because that is what you are. The lesson is that your will and God's cannot be out of accord because they are one. This is the undoing of everything the ego tries to teach. It is not, then, only the direction of the curriculum which must be unconflicted, but also the content.

¹¹ The ego wants to teach you that you want to oppose God's Will. This unnatural lesson cannot be learned, but the attempt to learn it is a violation of your own freedom and makes you afraid of your will because it is free. The Holy Spirit opposes any imprisoning of the will of a SonDaughter of God, knowing that the will of the SonDaughter is the Father'sMother's. The Holy Spirit leads you steadily along the path of freedom, teaching you how to disregard or look beyond everything that would hold you back.

¹² We said before that the Holy Spirit teaches you the difference between pain and joy. That is the same as saying that She teaches you the difference between imprisonment and freedom. You cannot make this distinction without Her. That is because you have taught yourself that imprisonment is freedom. Believing them to be the same, how can you tell them apart? Can you ask the part of your mind that taught you to believe they are the same to teach you the difference between them?

¹³ The Holy Spirit's teaching takes only one direction and has only one goal. Her direction is freedom, and Her goal is God. Yet She cannot conceive of God without you because it is not God's Will to be without you. When you have learned that your will is God's, you could no more will to be without HimHer than HeShe could will to be without you. This is freedom and this is joy. Deny yourself this and you are denying God HisHer Kingdom because HeShe created and manifested you for this. When we said, "All power and glory are yours because the God Realm is HisHer," this is what we meant.

¹⁴ The Will of God is without limit, and all power and glory lie within it. It is boundless in strength and in love and in peace. It has no boundaries because its extension is unlimited, and it encompasses all things because it created and manifested all things. By creating/manifesting all things, it made them part of itself. You are the Will of God because this is how you were created and manifested. Because your Creator/Manifestor creates and manifests only like Him/Herself, you are like Him/Her. You are part of Him/Her Who is all power and glory and are therefore as unlimited as He/She is.

¹⁵ To what else except all power and glory can the Holy Spirit appeal to restore the God Realm? Her appeal, then, is merely to what the God Realm is and for its own acknowledgment of what it is. When you acknowledge this, you bring the acknowledgment automatically to everyone because you have acknowledged everyone. By your recognition you awaken theirs, and through theirs yours is extended. Awakening runs easily and gladly through the God Realm in answer to the Call of God. This is the natural response of every Son/Daughter of God to the Voice of his/her Creator/Manifestor because it is the Voice for his/her creations/manifestations and for his/her own extension.

IV. The Holy Encounter

¹⁶ Glory be to God in the highest and to you because He/She has so willed it. Ask and it shall be given you, because it has already been given. Ask for light and learn that you are light. If you want understanding and enlightenment, you will learn it because your will to learn it is your decision to listen to the Teacheress who knows of light and can therefore teach it to you. There is no limit on your learning because there is no limit on your minds. There is no limit on Her will to teach because She was created and manifested [by unlimited Will in order] to teach. Knowing Her function perfectly, She wills to fulfill it perfectly, because that is Her joy and yours.

¹⁷ To fulfill the Will of God perfectly is the only joy and peace that can be fully known because it is the only function that can be fully experienced. When this is accomplished, then, there is no other experience. Yet the wish for other experience will block its accomplishment because God's Will cannot be forced upon you, being an experience of total willingness. The Holy Spirit knows how to teach this, but you do not. That is why you need Her and why God gave Her to you. Only Her teaching will release your will to God's, uniting it with His/Her power and glory and establishing them as yours. You share them as God shares them because this is the natural outcome of their being.

¹⁸ The Will of Father/Mother and of the Son/Daughter are one together by their extension. Their extension is the result of their oneness, holding their unity together by extending their joint will. This is perfect manifested creation by the perfectly created and manifested in union with Perfect CreatorManifestor. The FatherMother must give fatherhoodmotherhood to HisHer SonDaughter because HisHer own FatherhoodMotherhood must be extended outward. You who belong in God have the holy function of extending HisHer FatherhoodMotherhood by placing no limits upon it. Let the Holy Spirit teach you how to do this, for you will know what it means of God HimHerself.

¹⁹ When you meet anyone, remember it is a holy encounter. As you see him or her, you will see yourself. As you treat him or her, you will treat yourself. As you think of him, you will think of yourself. Never forget this, for in him or her you will find yourself or lose sight of yourself. Whenever two SonsDaughters of God meet, they are given another chance at salvation. Do not leave anyone without giving salvation to him or her and receiving it yourself, for I am always there with you in remembrance of you.

²⁰ The goal of the curriculum, regardless of the teacher or teacheress you choose, is know thyself. There is nothing else to learn. Everyone is looking for himself or herself and for the power and glory he or she thinks he or she has lost. Whenever you are with anyone, you have another opportunity to find them. Your power and glory are in him or her because they are yours. The ego tries to find them in yourself because it does not know where to look. The Holy Spirit teaches you that if you look only at yourself, you cannot find yourself because that is not what you are.

²¹ Whenever you are with a brother or sister, you are learning what you are because you are teaching what you are. He or she will respond either with pain or with joy, depending on which teacher or teacheress you are following. He or she will be imprisoned or released according to your decision, and so will you. Never forget your responsibility to him or her because it is your responsibility to yourself. Give him or her his or her place in the God Realm, and you will have yours. The God Realm cannot be found alone, and you who are the God Realm cannot find yourselves alone.

²² To achieve the goal of the curriculum, then, you cannot listen to the ego. Its purpose is to defeat its own goal. The ego does not know this, because it does not know anything. But you can know this, and you will know it if you are willing to look at what the ego has made of you. This is your responsibility, because once you have really done this, you will accept the Atonement for yourself. What other choice could you make? Having made this choice, you will begin to learn and understand why you have believed that when you met someone else, you had thought that he or she was someone else. And every holy encounter in which you enter fully will teach you this is not so.

²³ You can encounter only part of yourself because you are part of God, Who is everything. HisHer power and glory are everywhere, and you cannot be excluded from them. The ego teaches that your strength is in you alone. The Holy Spirit teaches that all strength is in God and therefore in you. God wills no one suffer. HeShe does not will anyone to suffer for a wrong decision, including you. That is why HeShe has given you the means for undoing it. Through HisHer power and glory, all your wrong decisions are undone, completely releasing you and your brothers and sisters from every imprisoning thought any part of the SonDaughtership has accepted. Wrong decisions have no power because they are not true. The imprisonment which they seem to produce is no more true than they are.

²⁴ Power and glory belong to God alone. So do you. God gives whatever belongs to HimHer because HeShe gives of HimHerself, and everything belongs to HimHer. Giving of your self is the function HeShe gave you. Fulfilling it perfectly will teach you what you have of HimHer, and this will teach you what you are in HimHer. You cannot be powerless to do this because this is your power. Glory is God's gift to you because that is what HeShe is. See this glory everywhere to learn what you are.

V. The Light of the World

²⁵ If God's Will for you is complete peace and joy, unless you experience only this you must be refusing to acknowledge HisHer Will. HisHer Will does not vacillate, being changeless forever. When you are not at peace, it can only be because you do not believe you are in HimHer. Yet HeShe is all in all. HisHer peace is complete, and you must be included in it. HisHer laws govern you, because they govern everything. You cannot exempt yourself from HisHer laws, although you can disobey them. Yet if you do, and only if you do, you will feel lonely and helpless, because you are denying yourself everything.

²⁶ I am come as a light into a world that does deny itself everything. It does this simply by dissociating itself from everything. It is therefore an illusion of isolation, maintained by fear of the same loneliness which is its illusion. I have told you that I am with you always, even to the end of the world. That is why I am the light of the world. If I am with you in the loneliness of the world, the loneliness is gone. You cannot maintain the illusion of loneliness if you are not alone. Our purpose, then, is to overcome the world. I do not attack it, but my light must dispel it because of what it is.

²⁷ Light does not attack darkness, but it does shine it away. If our light goes with you everywhere, you shine it away with us. The light becomes ours, and you cannot abide in darkness any more than darkness can abide wherever you go. The remembrance of me is the remembrance of yourself and of HimHer Who sent me to you. You were in darkness until God's Will was done completely by any part of the SonDaughtership. When this was done, it was perfectly accomplished by all. How else could it be perfectly accomplished? My mission was simply to unite the will of the SonDaughtership with the Will of the FatherMother by being aware of the Father'sMother's Will myself. This is the awareness I came to give you, and your problem in accepting it is the problem of this world. Dispelling it is salvation, and in this sense I am the salvation of the world.

²⁸ The world must despise and reject me, because the world is the belief that love is impossible. Your reactions to me are the reactions of the world to God. If you will accept the fact that I am with you, you are denying the world and accepting God. My will is HisHer, and your will to hear me is the decision to hear HisHer Voice and abide in HisHer Will. As God sent me to you, so will I send you to others, and I will go to them with you so we can teach them [union and peace].

²⁹ Do you not think the world needs peace as much as you do? Do you not want to give it to the world as much as you want to receive it? For unless you do, you will not receive it. If you will to have it of us, you must give it. Rehabilitation does not come from anyone else. You can have guidance from without, but you must accept it from within. The guidance must [become] what you want, or it will be meaningless to you. That is why rehabilitation is a collaborative venture.

³⁰ I can tell you what to do, but this will not help you unless you collaborate by believing that I know what to do. Only then will your mind choose to follow us. Without your will, you cannot be rehabilitated. Motivation to be healed is the crucial factor in rehabilitation. Without this you are deciding against healing, and your veto of my will for you makes healing impossible. If healing is our joint will, unless our wills are joined you cannot be healed. This is obvious when you consider what healing is for. Healing is the way in which the separation is overcome. Separation is overcome by union. It cannot be overcome by separating.

³¹ The will to unite must be unequivocal, or the will itself is divided or not whole. Your will is the means by which you determine your own condition, because will is the mechanism of decision. It is the power by which you separate or join and experience pain or joy accordingly. My will cannot overcome yours, because yours is as powerful as mine. If it were not so, the SonsDaughters of God would be unequal. All things are possible through our joint will, but my will alone cannot help you. Your will is as free as mine, and God HimHerself would not go against it. I cannot will what God does not will. I can offer you my will to make yours invincible by this sharing, but I cannot oppose yours without competing with it and thereby violating God's Will for you.

³² Nothing God created and manifested can oppose your will, as nothing God created and manifested can oppose HisHer. God gave your will its power, which I can only acknowledge in honor of HisHer. If you want to be like me, I will help you, knowing that we are alike. If you want to be different, I will wait until you change your mind. I can teach you, but only you can choose to listen to my teaching. How else can it be, if God's Realm is freedom? Freedom cannot be learned by tyranny of any kind, and the perfect equality of all God's SonsDaughters cannot be recognized through the dominion of one will over another. God's SonsDaughters are equal in will, all being the Will of their FatherMother. This is the only lesson I came to teach, knowing that it is true.

³³ When your will is not mine, it is not our Father'sMother's. This means that you have imprisoned yours and have not let it be free. Of yourselves you can do nothing, because of yourselves you are nothing. I am nothing without the FatherMother, and you are nothing without me, because by denying the FatherMother you deny yourself. I will always remember you, and in my remembrance of you lies your remembrance of yourself. In our remembrance of each other lies our remembrance of God, and in this remembrance lies your freedom because your freedom is in HimHer. Join then with me in praise of HimHer and you whom HeShe created and manifested. This is our gift of gratitude to HimHer, which HeShe will share with all HisHer creationsmanifestations, to whom HeShe gives equally whatever is acceptable to HimHer. Because it is acceptable to HimHer, it is the gift of freedom, which is HisHer Will for all HisHer SonsDaughters. By offering freedom, you will be free.

³⁴ Freedom is the only gift you can offer to God's SonsDaughters, being an acknowledgment of what they are and what HeShe is. Freedom is manifested creation because it is love. What you seek to imprison you do not love. Therefore, when you seek to imprison anyone, including yourself, you do not love him or her, and you cannot identify with him or her. When you imprison yourself, you are losing sight of your true identification with me and with the FatherMother. Your identification is with the FatherMother and with the SonDaughter. It cannot be with one and not the other. If you are part of one, you must be part of the other because they are one.

³⁵ The Holy Trinity is holy because it is one. If you exclude yourself from this union, you are perceiving the Holy Trinity as separated. You must be included in It because It is everything. Unless you take your place in It and fulfill your function as part of It, It is as bereft as you are. No part of It can be imprisoned if Its truth is to be known. Can you be separated from your identification and be at peace? Dissociation is not a solution; it is a delusion. The delusional believe that truth will assail them, and so they do not see it because they prefer the delusion. Judging truth as something they do not want, they perceive deception and block knowledge.

³⁶ Help them by offering them your unified will on their behalf, as I am offering you mine on yours. Alone we can do nothing, but together our wills fuse into something whose power is far beyond the power of its separate parts. By not being separate, the Will of God is established in ours and as ours. This Will is invincible because it is undivided. The undivided will of the SonDaughtership is the perfect CreatorManifestor, being wholly in the likeness of God, Whose Will it is. You cannot be exempt from it if you are to understand what it is and what you are. By separating your will from mine, you are exempting yourself from the Will of God, which is yourself.

³⁷ Yet to heal is still to make whole. Therefore, to heal is to unite with those who are like you, because perceiving this likeness is to recognize the FatherMother. If your perfection is in HimHer and only in HimHer, how can you know it without recognizing HimHer? The recognition of God is the recognition of yourself. There is no separation of God and HisHer manifested creation. You will learn this as you learn that there is no separation of your will and ours. Let the love of God shine upon you by your acceptance of us. Our reality is yours and HisHer. By joining your will with ours, you are signifying your awareness that the Will of God is one.

³⁸ God's Oneness and ours are not separate, because HisHer Oneness encompasses ours. To join with me is to restore HisHer power to you, because we are sharing it. I offer you only the recognition of HisHer power in you, but in that lies all truth. As we unite, we unite with HimHer. Glory be to the union of God and HisHer holy SonsDaughters! All glory lies in them because they are united. The miracles we do bear witness to the Will of the FatherMother for HisHer SonDaughter and to our joy in uniting with HisHer Will for us.

³⁹ When you unite with me, you are uniting without the ego, because I have renounced the ego in myself and therefore cannot unite with yours. Our union is therefore the way to renounce the ego in yourself. The truth in both of us is beyond the ego. By willing that, you have gone beyond it toward truth. Our success in transcending the ego is guaranteed by God, and I can share [my perfect confidence in HisHer promise because I know HeShe gave me] this confidence for both of us and all of us. I bring God's peace back to all HisHer Children because I received it of HimHer for us all. Nothing can prevail against our united wills because nothing can prevail against God's. Would you know the Will of God for you? Ask it of me who knows it for you, and you will find it. I will deny you nothing, as God denies me nothing.

⁴⁰ Ours is simply the journey back to God, Who is our home. Whenever fear intrudes anywhere along the road to peace, it is always because the ego has attempted to join the journey with us and cannot do so. Sensing defeat and angered by it, the ego regards itself as rejected and becomes retaliative. You are invulnerable to its retaliation because I am with you. On this journey, you have chosen me as your companions instead of the ego. Do not try to hold on to both, or you will try to go in different directions and will lose the way.

⁴¹ The ego's way is not mine, but it is also not yours. The Holy Spirit has one direction for all minds, and the one She taught me is yours. Let us not lose sight of Her direction through illusions, for only illusions of another direction can obscure the one for which God's Voice speaks in all of us. Never accord the ego the power to interfere with the journey, because it has none, [and] the journey is the way to what is true. Leave all deception behind and reach beyond all attempts of the ego to hold you back. I go before you because I am beyond the ego. Reach therefore for my hand because you want to transcend the ego. My will never be wanting, and if you want to share it you will. I give it willingly and gladly because I need you as much as you need me.

VI. The Power of Joint Decision

⁴² We are the joint will of the SonDaughtership, whose wholeness is for all. We begin the journey back by setting out together and gather in our brothers and sisters as we continue together. Every gain in our strength is offered for all, so they too can lay aside their weakness and add their strength to us. God's welcome waits for us all, and HeShe will welcome us as I am welcoming you. Forget not the God Realm for anything the world has to offer. The world can add nothing to the power and the glory of God and HisHer holy SonsDaughters, but it can blind the SonsDaughters to the FatherMother if they behold it. You cannot behold the world and know God. Only one is true.

⁴³ I am come to tell you that the choice of which is true is not yours. If it were, you would have destroyed yourselves. Yet God did not will the destruction of HisHer creationsmanifestations, having created and manifested them for eternity. HisHer Will has saved you, not from yourselves, but from your illusions of yourselves. HeShe has saved you for yourselves. Let us glorify HimHer whom the world denies, for over HisHer Realm, it has no power. No one created and manifested by God can find joy in anything except the eternal. That is not because he or she is deprived of anything else, but because nothing else is worthy of him or her. What God and HisHer SonsDaughters create and manifest is eternal, and in this and this only is their joy.

⁴⁴ Listen to the story of the prodigal son, and learn what God's treasure is and yours: This son of a loving father left his home and thought he squandered everything for nothing of any value, although he did not know its worthlessness at the time. He was ashamed to return to his father because he thought he had hurt him. Yet when he came home, the father welcomed him with joy because only the son himself was his father's treasure. He wanted nothing else.

⁴⁵ God wants only HisHer SonDaughter because HisHer SonDaughter is HisHer only treasure. You want your creationsmanifestations as HeShe wants HisHer. Your creationsmanifestations are your gift to the Holy Trinity, created and manifested in gratitude for your manifested creation. They do not leave you, any more than you have left your CreatorManifestor, but they extend your manifested creation as God extended HimHerself to you. Can the manifestations of God's creations HimHerself take joy in what is not real? And what is real except the manifestations of God's creations and those which are created and manifested like HisHers? Your creationsmanifestations love you as your individual Spirit loves your FatherMother for the gift of manifested creation. There is no other gift which is eternal, and therefore there is no other gift which is true.

⁴⁶ How, then, can you accept anything else or give anything else and expect joy in return? And what else but joy would you want? You made neither yourself nor your function. You made only the decision to be unworthy of both. Yet you could not make yourself unworthy because you are the treasure of God. What HeShe values is valuable. There can be no question of its worth because its value lies in God's sharing HimHerself with it and establishing its value forever.

⁴⁷ Your function is to add to God's treasure by creatingmanifesting yours. HisHer Will to you is HisHer Will for you. HeShe would not withhold manifested creation from you because HisHer joy is in it. You cannot find joy except as God does. HisHer joy lay in creatingmanifesting you, and HeShe extends HisHer FatherhoodMotherhood to you so that you can extend yourself as HeShe did. You do not understand this because you do not understand HimHer. No one who does not know his or her function can understand it, and no one can know his or her function unless he or she knows who he or she is. Manifested creation is the Will of God. HisHer Will created and manifested you to create and manifest . Your will was not created and manifested separate from HisHers, and so it wills as HeShe wills.

⁴⁸ An "unwilling will" does not mean anything, [because it is] a contradiction in terms which actually leaves nothing. [You can make yourself powerless only in a way that has no meaning at all.] When you think you are unwilling to will with God, you are not thinking. God's Will is thought. It cannot be contradicted by thought. God does not contradict HimHerself, and HisHer SonsDaughters, who are like HimHer, cannot contradict themselves or HimHer. Yet their thought is so powerful that they can even imprison the mind of God's SonDaughter if they so choose. This choice does make the Son'sDaughter's function unknown to himher, but never to hisher CreatorManifestor. And because it is not unknown to hisher CreatorManifestor, it is forever knowable to him or her.

⁴⁹ There is no question but one you should ever ask of yourself- "Do I want to know my Father'sMother's Will for me?" HeShe will not hide it. HeShe has revealed it to me because I asked it of HimHer and learned of what HeShe had already given. Our function is to function together because apart from each other we cannot function at all. The whole power of God's SonDaughter lies in all of us, but not in any of us alone. God would not have us be alone because HeShe does not will to be alone. That is why HeShe created and manifested HisHer SonDaughter and gave himher the power to create and manifest with HimHer.

⁵⁰ Our creationsmanifestations are as holy as we are, and we are the SonsDaughters of God HimHerself and therefore as holy as HeShe is. Through our creationsmanifestations, we extend our love and thus increase the joy of the Holy Trinity. You do not understand this for a very simple reason. You who are God's own treasure do not regard yourselves as valuable. Given this belief, you cannot understand anything. I share with God the knowledge of the value HeShe puts upon you. My devotion to you is of HimHer, being born of my knowledge of myself and HimHer. We cannot be separated. Whom God has joined cannot be separated, and God has joined all HisHer SonsDaughters with HimHerself. Can you be separated from your life and your being?

⁵¹ The journey to God is merely the reawakening of the knowledge of where you are always and what you are forever. It is a journey without distance to a goal that has never changed. Truth can only be experienced. It cannot be described, and it cannot be explained. I can make you aware of the conditions of truth, but the experience is of God. Together we can meet its conditions, but truth will dawn upon you of itself.

⁵² What God has willed for you is yours. HeShe has given HisHer Will to HisHer treasure, whose treasure it is. Your heart lies where your treasure is, as HisHer does. You who are beloved of God are wholly blessed. Learn this of us, and free the holy will of all those who are as blessed as you are.

VII. Communication and the Ego-Body Equation

⁵³ Attack is always physical. When attack in any form enters your mind, you are equating yourself with a body. This is the ego's interpretation of the body. You do not have to attack physically to accept this interpretation. You are accepting it simply by the belief that attack can get you something you want. If you did not believe this, the idea of attack would have no appeal for you. When you equate yourself with a body, you will always experience depression. When a Child of God thinks of himself or herself in this way, he or she is belittling himself or herself and seeing his or her brothers and sisters as similarly belittled. Since he or she can find himself or herself only in them, he or she has cut himself or herself off from salvation.

⁵⁴ Remember that the Holy Spirit interprets the body only as a means of communication. Being the communication link between God and HisHer separated SonsDaughters, the Holy Spirit interprets everything you have made in the light of what HeShe is. The ego separates through the body. The Holy Spirit reaches through it to others. You do not perceive your brothers and sisters as the Holy Spirit does because you do not interpret their bodies and yours solely as a means of joining their minds and uniting them with yours and mine. This interpretation of the body will change your mind entirely about its value. Of itself it has none.

⁵⁵ If you use the body for attack, it is harmful to you. If you use it only to reach the minds of those who believe they are bodies and teach them through the body that this is not so, you will begin to understand the power of the mind that is in both of you. If you use the body for this and only for this, you cannot use it for attack. In the service of uniting, it becomes a beautiful lesson in communion, which has value until communion is. This is God's way of making unlimited what you have limited. The Holy Spirit does not see the body as you do because She knows the only reality anything can have is the service it can render God on behalf of the function HeShe has given it.

⁵⁶ Communication ends separation. Attack promotes it. The body is beautiful or ugly, holy or savage, helpful or harmful, according to the use to which it is put. And in the body of another you will see the use to which you have put yours. If the body becomes for you a means which you give to the Holy Spirit to use on behalf of union of the SonDaughtership, you will not see anything physical except as what it is. Use it for truth, and you will see it truly. Misuse it, and you will misunderstand it because you have already done so by misusing it. Interpret anything apart from the Holy Spirit, and you will mistrust it. This will lead you to hatred and attack and loss of peace.

⁵⁷ Yet all loss comes only from your own misunderstanding. Loss of any kind is impossible. When you look upon a brother or sister as a physical entity, his or her power and glory are lost to you, and so are yours. You have attacked him or her, but you must have attacked yourself first. Do not see him or her this way for your own salvation, which must bring him or her his or hers. Do not allow him or her to belittle himself or herself in your mind, but give him or her freedom from his or her belief in littleness and thus escape from yours. As part of you, he or she is holy. As part of us, you are. To communicate with part of God HimHerself is to reach beyond the God Realm to its CreatorManifestor through HisHer Voice, which HeShe has established as part of you.

⁵⁸ Rejoice, then, that of yourselves you can do nothing. You are not of yourselves. HeShe of Whom you are has willed your power and glory for you, with which you can perfectly accomplish HisHer holy Will for you when you so will it yourself. HeShe has not withdrawn HisHer gifts from you, but you have withdrawn them from HimHer. Let no SonDaughter of God remain hidden for HisHer Name's sake because HisHer Name is yours.

⁵⁹ Remember that the Bible says, "The Word (or thought) was made flesh." Strictly speaking this is impossible, since it seems to involve the translation of one order of reality into another. Different orders of reality merely appear to exist, just as different orders of miracles do. Thought cannot be made into flesh except by belief, since thought is not physical. Yet thought is communication, for which the body can be used. This is the only natural use to which it can be put. To use the body unnaturally is to lose sight of the Holy Spirit's purpose and thus to confuse the goal of Her curriculum.

⁶⁰ There is nothing so frustrating to a learner as to be placed in a curriculum which he or she cannot learn. His or her sense of adequacy suffers, and he or she must become depressed. Being faced with an impossible learning situation, regardless of why it is impossible, is the most depressing thing in the world. In fact, it is ultimately why the world is depressing. The Holy Spirit's curriculum is never depressing because it is a curriculum of joy. Whenever the reaction to learning is depression, it is only because the goal of the curriculum has been lost sight of.

⁶¹ In the world, not even the body is perceived as whole. Its purpose is seen as fragmented into the many functions which bear little or no relationship to each other, so that it appears to be ruled by chaos. Guided by the ego, it is. Guided by the Holy Spirit, it is not. It becomes only a means by which the part of the mind you have separated from your Spirit can reach beyond its distortions and return to the individual Spirit. The ego's temple thus becomes the temple of the Holy Spirit, where devotion to Her replaces devotion to the ego. In this sense, the body does become a temple to God because HisHer Voice abides in it by directing the use to which it is put.

⁶² Healing is the result of using the body solely for communication. Since this is natural, it heals by making whole, which is also natural. All mind is whole, and the belief that part of it is physical, or not mind, is a fragmented (or sick) interpretation. Mind cannot be made physical, but it can be made manifest through the physical if it uses the body to go beyond itself. By reaching out, the mind extends itself. It does not stop at the body, for if it does, it is blocked in its purpose. A mind which has been blocked has allowed itself to be vulnerable to attack because it has turned against itself.

⁶³ The removal of the blocks, then, is the only way to guarantee help and healing. Help and healing are the normal expressions of a mind which is working through the body but not in it. If the mind believes the body is its goal, it will distort its perception of the body and, by blocking its own extension beyond it, will induce illness by fostering separation. Perceiving the body as a separate entity cannot but foster illness because it is not true. A medium of communication will lose its usefulness if it is used for anything else. To use a medium of communication as a medium of attack is an obvious confusion in purpose.

⁶⁴ To communicate is to join and to attack is to separate. How can you do both simultaneously with the same thing and not suffer? Perception of the body can be unified only by one purpose. This releases the mind from the temptation to see the body in the many lights and gives it over entirely to the One Light in Which it can be really understood at all. To confuse a learning device with a curriculum goal is a fundamental confusion. Learning can hardly be arrested at its own aids with hope of understanding either the aids or the learning's real purpose. Learning must lead beyond the body to the reestablishment of the power of the mind in it. This can be accomplished only if the mind extends to other minds and does not arrest itself in its extension.

⁶⁵ The arrest of the mind's extension is the cause of all illness because only extension is the mind's function. The opposite of joy is depression. When your learning promotes depression instead of joy, you cannot be listening to God's joyous Teacheress, and you must be learning amiss. To see a body as anything except a means of pure extension is to limit your mind and hurt yourself. Health is therefore nothing more than united purpose. If the body is brought under the purpose of the mind, the body becomes whole because the mind's purpose is one. Attack can only be an assumed purpose of the body because apart from the mind the body has no purpose at all.

⁶⁶ You are not limited by the body, and thought cannot be made flesh. Yet mind can be manifested through the body if it goes beyond it and does not interpret it as limitation. Whenever you see another as limited to or by the body, you are imposing this limit on yourself. Are you willing to accept this, when your whole purpose for learning should be to escape from limitations? To conceive of the body as a means of attack of any kind and to entertain even the possibility that joy could possibly result is a clear-cut indication of a poor learner. He or she has accepted a learning goal in obvious contradiction to the unified purpose of the curriculum and is interfering with his or her ability to accept its purpose as his or her own.

⁶⁷ Joy is unified purpose, and unified purpose is only God's. When yours is unified, it is HisHer. Interfere with HisHer purpose, and you need salvation. You have condemned yourself, but condemnation is not of God. Therefore, it is not true. No more are any of the results of your condemnation. When you see a brother or sister as a body, you are condemning him or her because you have condemned yourself. Yet if all condemnation is unreal, and it must be unreal since it is a form of attack, then it can have no results.

⁶⁸ Do not allow yourselves to suffer from the results of what is not true. Free your minds from the belief that this is possible. In its complete impossibility and your full awareness of its complete impossibility lie your only hope for release. But what other hope would you want? Freedom from illusions lies only in not believing them. There is no attack, but there is unlimited communication and therefore unlimited power and wholeness. The power of wholeness is extension. Do not arrest your thought in this world, and you will open your mind to manifested creation in God.

VIII. The Body As Means or End

⁶⁹ Attitudes toward the body are attitudes toward attack. The ego's definitions of everything are childish and always based on what it believes a thing is for. This is because it is incapable of true generalizations and equates what it sees with the function it ascribes to it. It does not equate it with what it is. To the ego, the body is to attack with. Equating you with the body, it teaches that you are to attack with, because this is what it believes. The body, then, is not the source of its own health. The body's condition lies solely in your interpretation of its function.

⁷⁰ The reason why definitions in terms of function are inferior is that they may well be inaccurate. Functions are part of being since they arise from it, but the relationship is not reciprocal. The whole does define the part, but the part does not define the whole. This is as true of knowledge as it is of perception. The reason to know in part is to know entirely is because of the fundamental difference between knowledge and perception. In perception the whole is built up of parts, which can separate and reassemble in different constellations. Knowledge never changes, so its constellation is permanent. The only areas in which part-whole relationships have any meaning are those in which change is possible. There is no difference between the whole and the part where change is impossible.

⁷¹ The body exists in a world which seems to contain two voices which are fighting for its possession. In this perceived constellation, the body is regarded as capable of shifting its control from one to the other, making the concept of both health and sickness possible. The ego makes a fundamental confusion between means and ends, as it always does. Regarding the body as an end, the ego has no real use for it because it is not an end. You must have noticed an outstanding characteristic of every end that the ego has accepted as its own. When you have achieved it, it has not satisfied you. This is why the ego is forced to shift from one end to another without ceasing, so that you will continue to hope that it can yet offer you something.

⁷² It has been particularly difficult to overcome the ego's belief in the body as an end, because this is synonymous with the belief in attack as an end. The ego has a real investment in sickness. If you are sick, how can you object to the ego's firm belief that you are not invulnerable? This is a particularly appealing argument from the ego's point of view because it obscures the obvious attack which underlies the sickness. If you accepted this and also decided against attack, you could not give this false witness to the ego's stand.

⁷³ It is hard to perceive sickness as a false witness because you do not realize that it is entirely out of keeping with what you want. This witness, then, appears to be innocent and trustworthy because you have not seriously cross-examined him or her. If you did, you would not consider sickness such a strong witness on behalf of the ego's views.

⁷⁴ A more honest statement would be as follows: Those who want the ego are predisposed to defend it. Therefore, their choice of witnesses should be suspect from the beginning. The ego does not call upon witnesses who would disagree with its case, nor does the Holy Spirit. We have said that judgment is the function of the Holy Spirit and one which She is perfectly equipped to fulfill. The ego as a judge gives anything but an impartial judgment. When the ego calls on a witness, it has already made the witness an ally.

⁷⁵ It is still true that the body has no function of itself, because it is not an end. The ego, however, establishes it as an end because as such it will lose its true function. This is the purpose of everything the ego does. Its sole aim is to lose sight of the function of everything. A sick body does not make any sense. It could not make sense, because sickness is not what the body is for. Sickness is meaningful only if the two basic premises on which the ego's interpretation of the body rests are true. Specifically, these are that the body is for attack and that you are a body. Without these premises, sickness is completely inconceivable.

⁷⁶ Sickness is a way of demonstrating that you can be hurt. It is a witness to your frailty, your vulnerability, and your extreme need to depend on external guidance. The ego uses this as its best argument for your need for its guidance. It dictates endless prescriptions for avoiding catastrophic outcomes. The Holy Spirit, perfectly aware of the same data, does not bother to analyze them at all. If the data are meaningless, there is no point in considering them. The function of truth is to collect data which are true. There is no point in trying to make sense out of meaningless data. Any way you handle them results in nothing. The more complicated the results become, the harder it may be to recognize their nothingness, but it is not necessary to examine all possible outcomes to which premises give rise to judge them truly.

⁷⁷ A learning device is not a teacher or teacheress. It cannot tell you how you feel. You do not know how you feel because you have accepted the ego's confusion, and you think that a learning device can tell you how you feel. Sickness is merely another example of your insistence on asking the guidance of a teacher or teacheress who does not know the answer. The ego is incapable of knowing how you feel. When we said that the ego does not know anything, we said the one thing about the ego that is wholly true. But there is a corollary; if knowledge is being and the ego has no knowledge, then the ego has no being.

⁷⁸ You might well ask how the voice of something which does not exist can be so insistent. Have you seriously considered the distorting power of something you want, even if it is not true? You have had the many instances of how what you want can distort what you see and hear. No one can doubt the ego's skill in building up false cases. Nor can anyone doubt your willingness to listen until you will not to tolerate anything except truth. When you lay the ego aside, it will be gone. The Holy Spirit's Voice is as loud as your willingness to listen. It cannot be louder without violating your will, which the Holy Spirit seeks to free but never to command.

⁷⁹ The Holy Spirit teaches you to use your body only to reach your brothers and sisters, so She can teach Her message through you. This will heal them and therefore heal you. Everything used in accordance with its function as the Holy Spirit sees it cannot be sick. Everything used otherwise is. Do not allow the body to be a mirror of a split mind. Do not let it be an image of your own perception of littleness. Do not let it reflect your will to attack. Health is the natural state of anything whose interpretation is left to the Holy Spirit, Who perceives no attack on anything. Health is the result of relinquishing all attempts to use the body lovelessly. Health is the beginning of the proper perspective on life under the guidance of the one Teacheress Who knows what life is, being the Voice for Life Itself.

IX. Healing as Corrected Perception

⁸⁰ We once said that the Holy Spirit is the Answer. She is the Answer to everything because She knows what the answer to everything is. The ego does not know what a real question is, although it asks an endless number. Yet you can learn this as you learn to question the value of the ego and thus establish your ability to evaluate its questions. When the ego tempts you to sickness, do not ask the Holy Spirit to heal the body, for this would merely be to accept the ego's belief that the body is the proper aim for healing. Ask rather that the Holy Spirit teach you the right perception of the body, for perception alone can be distorted. Only perception can be sick because only perception can be wrong.

⁸¹ Wrong perception is distorted willing, which wants things to be as they are not. The reality of everything is totally harmless because total harmlessness is the condition of its reality. It is also the condition of your awareness of its reality. You do not have to seek reality. It will seek you and find you when you meet its conditions. Its conditions are part of what it is. And this part only is up to you. The rest is of itself. You need do so little because it is so powerful that your little part will bring the whole to you. Accept then your little part, and let the whole be yours.

⁸² Wholeness heals because it is of the mind. All forms of sickness, even unto death, are physical expressions of the fear of awakening. They are attempts to reinforce unconsciousness out of fear of consciousness. This is a pathetic way of trying not to know by rendering the faculties for knowing ineffectual. "Rest in peace" is a blessing for the living, not the dead, because rest comes from waking, not from sleeping. Sleep is withdrawing; waking is joining. Dreams are illusions of joining, taking on the ego's distortions about what joining means if you are sleeping under its guidance. Yet the Holy Spirit, too, has use for sleep and can use dreams on behalf of waking if you will let Her.

⁸³ How you wake is the sign of how you have used sleep. To whom did you give it? Under which teacher or teacheress did you place it? Whenever you wake dispiritedly, it was not of the Holy Spirit. Only when you awaken joyously have you utilized sleep according to the Holy Spirit's purpose. You can indeed be "drugged by sleep," but this is always because you have misused it on behalf of sickness. Sleep is no more a form of death than death is a form of unconsciousness. Unconsciousness is impossible. You can rest in peace only because you are awake.

⁸⁴ Healing is release from the fear of waking and the substitution of the will to wake. The will to wake is the will to love, since all healing involves replacing fear with love. The Holy Spirit cannot distinguish among degrees of error, for if She taught that one form of sickness is more serious than another, She would be teaching that one error can be more real than another. Her function is to distinguish only between the false and the true, replacing the false with the true.

⁸⁵ The ego, which always weakens the will, wants to separate the body from the mind. This is an attempt to destroy it, yet the ego actually believes that it is protecting it. This is because the ego believes that mind is dangerous and that to make mindless is to heal. But to make mindless is impossible, since it would mean to make nothing out of what God created and manifested. The ego despises weakness, even though it makes every effort to induce it. The ego wants only what it hates. To the ego this is perfectly sensible. Believing in the power of attack, the ego wants attack.

⁸⁶ You have surely begun to realize that this is a very practical course which means exactly what it says. So does the Bible, if it is properly understood. There has been a marked tendency on the part of the many of the Bible's followers and also its translators to be entirely literal about fear and its effects but not about love and its results. Thus, "hellfire" means "burning," but raising the dead becomes allegorical. Actually, it is particularly the references to the outcomes of love which should be taken literally because the Bible is about love, being about God.

⁸⁷ The Bible enjoins you to be perfect, to heal all errors, to take no thought of the body as separate, and to accomplish all things in my name. This is not my name alone, for our is a shared identification. The name of God's SonDaughter is one, and you are enjoined to do the works of love because we share this oneness. Our minds are whole because they are one. If you are sick you are withdrawing from me. Yet you cannot withdraw from me alone. You can only withdraw from yourself and me.

⁸⁸ I would not ask you to do the things you cannot do, and it is impossible that I could do things you cannot do. Given this, and given this quite literally, there can be nothing which prevents you from doing exactly what I ask, and everything which argues for your doing it. I give you no limits because God lays none upon you. When you limit yourself, we are not of one mind and that is sickness. Yet sickness is not of the body, but of the mind. All forms of dysfunction are merely signs that the mind has split and does not accept a unified purpose.

⁸⁹ The unification of purpose, then, is the Holy Spirit's only way of healing. This is because it is the only level at which healing means anything. The re-establishing of meaning in a chaotic thought system is the only way to heal it. We have said that your task is only to meet the conditions for meaning since meaning itself is of God. Yet your return to meaning is essential to HisHer because your meaning is part of HisHer. Your healing, then, is part of HisHer health since it is part of HisHer Wholeness. HeShe cannot lose this, but you can not know it. Yet it is still HisHer Will for you, and HisHer Will must stand forever and in all things.

X. The Acceptance of reality

⁹⁰ Fear of the Will of God is one of the strangest beliefs that the human mind has ever made. This could not possibly have occurred unless the mind were already profoundly split, making it possible for the mind to be afraid of what it really is. It is apparent that reality cannot "threaten" anything except illusions, since reality can only uphold truth. The very fact that the Will of God, which is what you are, is perceived as fearful to you demonstrates that you are afraid of what you are. It is not, then, the Will of God of which you are afraid, but yours. Your will is not the ego's, and that is why the ego is against you. What seems to be the fear of God is really only the fear of your own reality.

⁹¹ It is impossible to learn anything consistently in a state of panic. If the purpose of this course is to learn what you are and if you have already decided that what you are is fearful, then it must follow that you will not learn this course. Yet you might remember that the reason for the course is that you do not know who you are. If you do not know your reality, how would you know whether it is fearful or not?

⁹² The association of truth and fear, which would be highly artificial at most, is particularly inappropriate in the minds of those who do not know what truth is. All that this kind of association means is that you are arbitrarily endowing something quite beyond your awareness with something you do not want. It is evident, then, that you are judging something of which you are totally unaware. You have set this strange situation up so that it is completely impossible to escape from it without a Guide who does know what your reality is. The purpose of this Guide is merely to remind you of what you want. She is not attempting to force an alien will upon you. She is merely making every possible effort, within the limits you impose on Her, to re-establish your own will in your consciousness.

⁹³ You have imprisoned your will in your unconscious, where it remains available but cannot help you. When we said that the Holy Spirit's function is to sort out the true from the false in your unconscious, we meant that She has the power to look into what you have hidden and perceive the Will of God there. Her perception of this Will can make it real to you because She is in your mind and therefore She is your reality. If, then, Her perception of your mind brings its reality to you, She is teaching you what you are.

⁹⁴ The only source of fear in this whole process can only be what you think you lose. Yet it is only what the Holy Spirit sees that you can possibly have. We have emphasized the many times that the Holy Spirit will never call upon you to sacrifice anything. But if you ask the sacrifice of reality of yourselves, the Holy Spirit must remind you that this is not God's Will because it is not yours. There is no difference between your will and God's. If you did not have split minds, you would recognize that willing is salvation because it is communication. It is impossible to communicate in alien tongues. You and your CreatorManifestor can communicate through manifested creation because that, and only that, is your joint Will.

⁹⁵ Divided wills do not communicate because they speak for different things to the same mind. This loses the ability to communicate simply because confused communication does not mean anything. A message cannot be said to be communicated unless it makes sense. How sensible can your messages be when you ask for what you do not want? Yet as long as you are afraid of your will, this is precisely what you will ask for. You may insist that the Holy Spirit does not answer you, but it might be wiser to consider the kind of asker you are.

⁹⁶ You do not ask only for what you want. This is solely because you are afraid you might receive it, and you would. That is really why you persist in asking the teacher or teacheress who could not possibly teach you your will. Of him or her you can never learn it, and this gives you the illusion of safety. Yet you cannot be safe from truth but only in it. reality is the only safety. Your will is your salvation because it is the same as God's. The separation is nothing more than the belief that it is different.

⁹⁷ No mind can believe that its will is stronger than God's. If, then, a mind believes that its will is different from HisHer, it can only decide either that there is no God or that God's Will is fearful. The former accounts for the atheist and the latter for the martyr. Martyrdom takes the many forms, the category including all doctrines which hold that God demands sacrifices of any kind. Either basic type of insane decision will induce panic, because the atheist believes he or she is alone, and the martyr believes that God is crucifying him or her. Both really fear abandonment and retaliation, but the atheist is more reactive against abandonment and the martyr against retaliation.

⁹⁸ The atheist maintains that God has left him or her, but he or she does not care. He or she will, however, become very fearful and hence very angry if anyone suggests that God has not left him or her. The martyr, on the other hand, is more aware of guilt and, believing that punishment is inevitable, attempts to teach himself or herself to like it. The truth is, very simply, that no one wants either abandonment or retaliation. Many people seek both, but it is still true that they do not want them. Can you ask the Holy Spirit for "gifts" such as these and actually expect to receive them? [The Holy Spirit is totally incapable of giving you anything that does not come from God. Her task is not to make anything for you.] She cannot make you want something you do not want. When you ask the Universal Giver for what you do not want, you are asking for what cannot be given, because it was never created and manifested. It was never created and manifested, because it was never your will for you.

⁹⁹ Ultimately everyone must remember the Will of God because ultimately everyone must recognize himself or herself. This recognition is the recognition that his or her will and God's are one. In the presence of truth, there are no unbelievers and no sacrifices. In the security of reality, fear is totally meaningless. To deny what is can only seem to be fearful. Fear cannot be real without a cause, and God is the only Cause.

God is Love, and you do want HimHer. This is your will. Ask for this and you will be answered because you will be asking only for what belongs to you.

¹⁰⁰ When you ask the Holy Spirit for what would hurt you, She cannot answer, because nothing can hurt you and so you are asking for nothing. Any desire which stems from the ego is a desire for nothing and to ask for it is not a request. It is merely a denial in the form of a request. The Holy Spirit is not concerned with form at all, being aware only of meaning. The ego cannot ask the Holy Spirit for anything because there is complete communication failure between them. Yet you can ask for everything of the Holy Spirit because your requests are real, being of your will. Would the Holy Spirit deny the Will of God? And could She fail to recognize it in HisHer SonsDaughters?

¹⁰¹ The energy which you withdraw from manifested creation you expend on fear. This is not because your energy is limited but because you have limited it. You do not recognize the enormous waste of energy which you expend in denying truth. What would you say of someone who persisted in attempting the impossible, believing that to achieve it is success? The belief that you must have the impossible in order to be happy is totally at variance with the principle of manifested creation. God could not will that happiness depended on what you could never have.

¹⁰² The fact that God is love does not require belief, but it does require acceptance. It is indeed possible for you to deny facts, although it is impossible for you to change them. If you hold your hands over your eyes, you will not see, because you are interfering with the laws of seeing. If you deny love, you will not know it, because your cooperation is the law of its being. You cannot change laws you did not make, and the laws of happiness were created and manifested for you, not by you.

¹⁰³ Attempts of any kind to deny what is are fearful, and if they are strong, they will induce panic. Willing against reality, though impossible, can be made into a very persistent goal, even though you do not want it. But consider the result of this strange decision. You are devoting your mind to what you do not want. How real can this devotion be? If you do not want it, it was never created and manifested. If it was never created and manifested, it is nothing. Can you really devote yourself to nothing?

¹⁰⁴ God in HisHer devotion to you created and manifested you devoted to everything and gave you what you are devoted to. Otherwise, you would not have been created and manifested perfect. reality is everything, and therefore you have everything because you are real.

You cannot make the unreal, because the absence of reality is fearful, and fear cannot be created and manifested. As long as you believe that fear is possible, you will not create and manifest . Opposing orders of reality make reality meaningless, and reality is meaning.

¹⁰⁵ Remember, then, that God's Will is already possible and nothing else will ever be. This is the simple acceptance of reality because only this is real. You cannot distort reality and know what it is. And if you do distort reality, you will experience anxiety, depression, and ultimately panic, because you are trying to make yourself unreal. When you feel these things, do not try to look beyond yourself for truth, for truth can only be within you. Say, therefore, for the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is part of HimHer.

¹⁰⁶ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy is in me, and where It is God must be,

XI. The Answer to Prayer

¹⁰⁷ Everyone who has ever tried to use prayer to request something has experienced what appears to be failure. This is not only true in connection with specific things which might be harmful but also in connection with requests which are strictly in line with this course. The latter, in particular, might be incorrectly interpreted as "proof" that the course does not mean what it says. You must remember, however, that the course does state, and repeatedly, that its purpose is the escape from fear.

¹⁰⁸ Let us suppose, then, that what you request of the Holy Spirit is what you really want, but you are still afraid of it. Should this be the case, your attainment of it would no longer be what you want, even if it is. This accounts for why certain specific forms of healing are not achieved, even though the state of healing is. It frequently happens that an individual asks for physical healing because he or she is fearful of bodily harm. At the same time, however, if he or she were healed physically, the threat to his or her thought system would be considerably more fearful to him or her than its physical expression. In this case he or she is not really asking for release from fear but for the removal of a symptom which he or she has selected. This request is, therefore, not for healing at all.

¹⁰⁹ The Bible emphasizes that all prayers are answered, and this must be true if no effort is wasted. The very fact that one has asked the Holy Spirit for anything will ensure a response. Yet it is equally certain that no response given by the Holy Spirit will ever be one which would increase fear. It is possible that Her answer will not be heard at all. It is impossible, however, that it will be lost. There are the many answers which you have already received but have not yet heard. I assure you that they are waiting for you. It is indeed true that no effort is wasted.

¹¹⁰ If you would know your prayers are answered, never doubt a SonDaughter of God. Do not question himher and do not confound himher, for your faith in himher is your faith in yourself. If you would know God and HisHer Answer, believe in me whose faith in you cannot be shaken. Can you ask of the Holy Spirit truly and doubt your brother or sister, and his or her words will be true. As you hear him or her, you will hear me. Listening to truth is the only way you can hear it now and finally know it.

¹¹¹ The message your brother or sister gives you is up to you. What does he or she say to you? What would you have him or her say? Your decision about him or her determines the message you receive. Remember that the Holy Spirit is in him or her, and Her Voice speaks to you through him or her. What can so holy a brother or sister tell you except truth? But are you listening to it? Your brother or sister may not know who he or she is, but there is a light in his or her mind which does know. This light can shine into yours, making his or her words true and making you able to hear them. His or her words are the Holy Spirit's answer to you. Is your faith in him or her strong enough to let you hear?

¹¹² Salvation is of your brother or sister. The Holy Spirit extends from your mind to his or her and answers you. You cannot hear the Voice for God in yourself alone because you are not alone. And HisHer answer is only for what you are. You will not know the trust I have in you unless you extend it. You will not trust the guidance of the Holy Spirit or believe that it is for you unless you hear it in others. It must be for your brother or sister because it is for you. Would God have created and manifested a Voice for you alone? Could you hear HisHer answer except as HeShe answers all of God's SonsDaughters? Hear of your brother or sister what you would have me hear of you, for you would not want me to be deceived.

¹¹³ I love you for the truth in you, as God does. Your deceptions may deceive you, but they cannot deceive me. Knowing what you are, I cannot doubt you. I hear only the Holy Spirit in you, who speaks to me through you. If you would hear me, hear my brothers and sisters in whom God's Voice speaks. The answer to all prayers lies in them. You will be answered as you hear the answer in everyone. Do not listen to anything else, or you will not hear truth.

¹¹⁴ Believe in your brothers and sisters because I believe in you, and you will learn that my belief in you is justified. Believe in me by believing in them for the sake of what God gave them. They will answer you if you learn to ask truth of them. Do not ask for blessings without blessing them, for only in this way can you learn how blessed you are. By following this way, you are looking for the truth in you. This is not going beyond yourself but toward yourself. Hear only God's Answer in HisHer SonsDaughters, and you are answered.

¹¹⁵ To disbelieve is to side against or to attack. To believe is to accept and to side with. To believe is not to be credulous but to accept and appreciate. What you do not believe, you do not appreciate, and you cannot be grateful for what you do not value. There is a price you will pay for judgment because judgment is the setting of a price. And as you set it, you will pay it.

¹¹⁶ If paying is equated with getting, you will set the price low but demand a high return. You will have forgotten [that to price is to value, so] that your return is in proportion to your judgment of worth. If paying is associated with giving, it cannot be perceived as loss, and the reciprocal relationship of giving and receiving will be recognized. The price will then be set high because of the value of the return. The price for getting is to lose sight of value, making it inevitable that you will not value what you receive. Valuing it little, you will not appreciate it and will not want it.

¹¹⁷ Never forget, then, that you have set the value on what you receive and have priced it by what you give. To believe that it is possible to get much for little is to believe that you can bargain with God. God's laws are always fair and perfectly consistent. By giving you receive. But to receive is to accept, not to get. It is impossible not to have, but it is possible not to know you have. The recognition of having is the willingness for giving, and only by this willingness can you recognize what you have. What you give is therefore the value you put on what you have, being the exact measure of the value you put upon it. And this, in turn, is the measure of how much you want it.

¹¹⁸ You can ask of the Holy Spirit, then, only by giving to Her, and you can give to Her only where you see Her. If you see Her in everyone, consider how much you will be asking of Her and how much you will receive. She will deny you nothing because you have denied Her nothing, and so you can share everything. This is the way, and the only way, to have Her answer because Her answer is all you can ask for and want. Say, then, to everyone, ¹¹⁹ Because I will to know myself, I see you as God's SonDaughter and my brother or sister.

Chapter Nine: The Correction of Error

I. Introduction

¹ The alertness of the ego to the errors which other egos make is not the kind of vigilance the Holy Spirit would have you maintain. Egos are critical in terms of the kind of "sense" they stand for. They understand this kind of sense because it is sensible to them. To the Holy Spirit, it makes no sense at all. To the ego, it is kind and right and good to point out errors and "correct" them. This makes perfect sense to the ego, which is totally unaware of what errors are and what correction is.

² Errors are of the ego, and correction of errors of any kind lies solely in the relinquishment of the ego. When you correct a brother or sister, you are telling him or her that he or she is wrong. He or she may be making no sense at the time, and it is certain that if he or she is speaking from the ego, he or she will be making no sense. But your task is still to tell him or her he or she is right. You do not tell him or her this verbally if he or she is speaking foolishly because he or she needs correction at another level, since his or her error is at another level. He or she is still right because he or she is a SonDaughter of God. His or her ego is always wrong, no matter what it says or does.

³ If you point out the errors of your brother's and sister's ego, you must be seeing through yours, because the Holy Spirit does not perceive his or her errors. This must be true if there is no communication at all between the ego and the Holy Spirit. The ego makes no sense, and the Holy Spirit does not attempt to understand anything that arises from it. Since She does not understand it, She does not judge it, knowing that nothing it engenders means anything.

II. Sanity and Perception

⁴ When you react at all to errors, you are not listening to the Holy Spirit. She has merely disregarded them, and if you attend to them, you are not hearing Her. If you do not hear Her, you are listening to your ego and making as little sense as the brother or sister whose errors you perceive. This cannot be correction. Yet it is more than merely lack of correction for him or her. It is the giving up of correction in yourself.

⁵ When a brother or sister behaves insanely, you can heal him or her only by perceiving the sanity in him or her. If you perceive his or her errors and accept them, you are accepting yours. If you want to give yours over to the Holy Spirit, you must do this with his or hers. Unless this becomes the one way in which you handle all errors, you cannot understand how all errors are undone. How is this different from telling you that what you teach you learn? Your brother or sister is as right as you are, and if you think he or she is wrong, you are condemning yourself.

⁶ You cannot correct yourself. Is it possible, then, for you to correct another? Yet you can see him or her truly because it is possible for you to see yourself truly. It is not up to you to change him or her but merely to accept him or her as he or she is. His or her errors do not come from the truth that is in him or her, and only this truth is yours. His or her errors cannot change this and can have no effect at all on the truth in you. To perceive errors in anyone and to react to them as if they were real is to make them real to you. You will not escape paying the price for this, not because you are being punished for it, but because you are following the wrong guide and will lose your way.

⁷ Your brother's and sister's errors are not of him or her any more than yours are of you. Accept his or her errors as real, and you have attacked yourself. If you would find your way and keep it, see only truth beside you, for you walk together. The Holy Spirit in you forgives all things in you and in your brother or sister. His or her errors are forgiven with yours. Atonement is no more separate than love. Atonement cannot be separate because it comes from love. Any attempt you make to correct a brother or sister means that you believe correction by you is possible, and this can only be the arrogance of the ego. Correction is of God, Who does not know of arrogance. The Holy Spirit forgives everything because God created and manifested everything.

⁸ Do not undertake HisHer function, or you will forget yours. Accept only the function of healing in time because that is what time is for. God gave you the function to create and manifest in eternity. You do not need to learn this, but you do need to learn to want this, and for this all learning was made. This is the Holy Spirit's good use of an ability which you do not need, but which you have made. Give it to Her! You do not know how to use it. She will teach you how to see yourself without condemnation by learning how to look on everything without it. Condemnation will then not be real to you, and all your errors will be forgiven.

III. Atonement as a Lesson in Sharing

⁹ Atonement is for all, because it is the way to undo the belief that anything is for you alone. To forgive is to overlook. Look, then, beyond error, and do not let your perception rest upon it, for you will believe what your perception holds. Accept as true only what your brother or sister is if you would know yourself. Perceive what he or she is not, and you cannot know what you are because you see him or her falsely. Remember always that your identity is shared and that sharing is its reality.

¹⁰ You have a part to play in the Atonement, but the plan of the Atonement is beyond you. You do not know how to overlook errors, or you would not make them. It would merely be further error to think either that you do not make them or that you can correct them without a Guide to correction. And if you do not follow this Guide, your errors will not be corrected. The plan is not yours because of your limited ideas of what you are. This limitation is where all errors arise. The way to undo them, therefore, is not of you but for you.

¹¹ The Atonement is a lesson in sharing which is given you because you have forgotten how to do it. The Holy Spirit merely reminds you of what is your natural ability. By reinterpreting the ability to attack, which you did make, into the ability to share, She translates what you have made into what God created and manifested. If you would accomplish this through Her, you cannot look on your abilities through the eyes of the ego or you will judge them as it does. All their harmfulness lies in its judgment. All their helpfulness lies in the judgment of the Holy Spirit.

¹² The ego, too, has a plan of forgiveness because you are asking for one, though not of the right teacher or teacheress. The ego's plan, of course, makes no sense and will not work. By following it, you will merely place yourself in an impossible situation to which the ego always leads you. The ego's plan is to have you see error clearly first and then overlook it. Yet how can you overlook what you have made real? By seeing it clearly, you have made it real and cannot overlook it.

¹³ This is where the ego is forced to appeal to "mysteries" and begins to insist that you must accept the meaningless to save yourself. Many have tried to do this in my name, forgetting that my words make perfect sense because they come from God. They are as sensible now as they ever were because they speak of ideas which are eternal. Forgiveness that is learned of me does not use fear to undo fear. Nor does it make real the unreal and then destroy it.

¹⁴ Forgiveness through the Holy Spirit lies simply in looking beyond error from the beginning and thus keeping it unreal for you. Do not let any belief in its realness enter your minds at all, or you will also believe that you must undo what you have made in order to be forgiven. What has no effect does not exist, and to the Holy Spirit, the effects of error are totally non-existent. By steadily and consistently canceling out all its effects everywhere and in all respects, She teaches that the ego does not exist and proves it. Follow Her teaching in forgiveness then, because forgiveness is Her function, and She knows how to fulfill it perfectly. That is what we meant when we once said that miracles are natural, and when they do not occur, something has gone wrong.

¹⁵ Miracles are merely the sign of your willingness to follow the Holy Spirit's plan of salvation in recognition of the fact that you do not know what it is. Her work is not your function, and unless you accept this, you cannot learn what your function is. The confusion of functions is so typical of the ego that you should be quite familiar with it by now. The ego believes that all functions belong to it, even though it has no idea what they are. This is more than mere confusion. It is a particularly dangerous combination of grandiosity and confusion which makes it likely that the ego will attack anyone and anything for no reason at all. This is exactly what the ego does. It is totally unpredictable in its responses because it has no idea of what it perceives.

¹⁶ If one has no idea of what is happening, how appropriately can you expect him or her to react? You might still ask yourself, regardless of how you can account for the reactions, whether they place the ego in a very sound position as the guide for yours. It seems absurd to have to emphasize repeatedly that the ego's qualifications as a guide are singularly unfortunate and that it is a remarkably poor choice as a teacher or teacheress of salvation. Yet this question, ridiculous as it seems, is really the crucial issue in the whole separation fantasy. Anyone who elects a totally insane guide must be totally insane himself or herself.

¹⁷ It is not true that you do not know the guide is insane. You know it because I know it, and you have judged it by the same standard as I have. The ego literally lives on borrowed time, and its days are numbered. Do not fear the Last Judgment, but welcome it and do not wait, for the ego's time is borrowed from your eternity. This is the Second Coming, which was made for you as the First was created and manifested. The Second Coming is merely the return of sense. Can this possibly be fearful?

¹⁸ What can be fearful but fantasy, and no one turns to fantasy unless he or she despairs of finding satisfaction in reality. Yet it is certain that he or she will never find satisfaction in fantasy, so that his or her only hope is to change his or her mind about reality. Only if the decision that reality is fearful is wrong can God be right. And I assure you that God is right. Be glad, then, that you have been wrong, but this was only because you did not know who you were. Had you remembered, you could no more have been wrong than God can. The impossible can happen only in fantasy. When you search for reality in fantasies, you will not find it. The symbols of fantasy are of the ego, and of these you will find the many. But do not look for meaning in them. They have no more meaning than the fantasies into which they are woven.

¹⁹ Fairy tales can be pleasant or fearful, pretty or ugly, but no one calls them true. Children may believe them, and so for a while the tales are true for them. Yet when reality dawns, the fantasies are gone. Reality has not gone in the meanwhile. The Second Coming is the awareness of reality, not its return. Behold, my children, reality is here. It belongs to you and me and God and is perfectly satisfying to all of us. Only this awareness heals because it is the awareness of truth.

IV. The Unhealed Healer

²⁰ The ego's plan for forgiveness is far more widely used than God's. This is because it is undertaken by unhealed healers and is therefore of the ego. Let us consider the unhealed healer more carefully now. By definition, he or she is trying to give what he or she has not received. If he or she is a theologian, he or she may begin with the premise, "I am a miserable sinner and so are you." If he or she is a psychotherapist, he or she is more likely to start with the equally incredible idea that he or she really believes in attack and so does the patient, but it does not matter in either case.

²¹ We have repeatedly stated that beliefs of the ego cannot be shared, and this is why they are unreal. How, then, can "uncovering" them make them real? Every healer who searches fantasies for truth must be unhealed because he or she does not know where to look for truth and therefore does not have the answer to the problem of healing. There is an advantage to bringing nightmares into awareness, but only to teach that they are not real and that anything they contain is meaningless. The unhealed healer cannot do this because he or she does not believe it.

²² All unhealed healers follow the ego's plan for forgiveness in one form or another. If they are theologians, they are likely to condemn themselves, teach condemnation, and advocate a very fearful solution. Projecting condemnation onto God, they make HimHer appear retaliative and fear HisHer retribution. What they have done is merely to identify with the ego and, by perceiving clearly what it does, condemn themselves because of this profound confusion. It is understandable that there has been a revolt against this concept, but to revolt against it is still to believe in it. The form of the revolt, then, is different but not the content.

²³ The newer forms of the ego's plan are as unhelpful as the older ones because form does not matter to the Holy Spirit and therefore does not matter at all. According to the newer forms of the ego's plan, therapist interprets the ego's symbols in the nightmare and then uses them to prove that the nightmare is real. Having made it real, he or she then attempts to dispel its effects by depreciating the importance of the dreamer. This would be a healing approach if the dreamer were properly identified as unreal. Yet if the dreamer is equated with the mind, the mind's corrective power through the Holy Spirit is denied.

²⁴ It is noteworthy that this is a contradiction even in the ego's terms, and one which it usually does note, even in its confusion. If the way to counteract fear is to reduce the importance of the fearer, how can this build ego strength? These perfectly self-evident inconsistencies account for why, except in certain stylized verbal accounts, no one can explain what happens in psychotherapy. Nothing real does. Nothing real has happened to the unhealed healer, and he or she learns from his or her own teaching.

²⁵ Because his or her ego is involved, it always attempts to gain some support from the situation. Seeking to get something for himself or herself, the unhealed healer does not know how to give and consequently cannot share. He or she cannot correct because he or she is not working correctively. He or she believes that it is up to him or her to teach the patient what is real, but he or she does not know it himself or herself. What, then, should happen? When God said, "Let there be light," there was light. Can you find light by analyzing darkness as the psychotherapist does or like theologian, by acknowledging darkness in yourself and looking for a distant light to remove it while emphasizing the distance?

²⁶ Healing is not mysterious. Nothing will occur unless you understand it, since light is understanding. A "miserable sinner" cannot be healed without magic, nor can an "unimportant mind" esteem itself without magic. Both forms of the ego's approach, then, must arrive at an impasse, the characteristic "impossible situation" to which the ego always leads. It can be helpful to point out to a patient where he or she is heading, but the point is lost unless he or she can change his or her direction. Therapist cannot do this for him or her, but he or she also cannot do this for himself or herself.

²⁷ The only meaningful contribution therapist can make is to present an example of one whose direction has been changed for him or her and who no longer believes in nightmares of any kind. The light in his or her mind will therefore answer the questioner, who must decide with God that there is light because he or she sees it. And by his or her acknowledgment, the therapist knows it is there. That is how perception ultimately is translated into knowledge. The miracle worker begins by perceiving light and translates his or her perception into sureness by continually extending it and accepting its acknowledgment. Its effects assure him or her it is there.

²⁸ Therapist does not heal; he or she lets healing be. He or she can point to darkness, but he or she cannot bring light of himself or herself, for light is not of him or her. Yet, being for him, it must also be for his or her patient. The Holy Spirit is the only therapist. She makes healing perfectly clear in any situation in which She is the Guide. The human therapist can only let Her fulfill Her function. She needs no help for this. She will tell you exactly what to do to help anyone She sends to you for help and will speak to him or her through you if you do not interfere. Remember that you are choosing a guide for helping, and the wrong choice will not help. But remember also that the right one will. Trust Her, for help is Her function, and She is of God.

²⁹ As you awaken other minds to the Holy Spirit through Her and not yourself, you will understand that you are not obeying the laws of this world, but that the laws you are obeying work. "The good is what works" is a sound, though insufficient, statement. Only the good can work. Nothing else works at all. This course is a guide to behavior. Being a very direct and very simple learning situation, it provides the Guide who tells you what to do. If you do it, you will see that it works. Its results are more convincing than its words. They will convince you that the words are true. By following the right Guide you will learn the simplest of all lessons—and they shall know themselves.*

³⁰ *By their fruits ye shall know them,

V. The Awareness of the Holy Spirit

³¹ How can you become increasingly aware of the Holy Spirit in you except by Her effects? You cannot see Her with your eyes nor hear Her with your ears. How, then, can you perceive Her at all? If you inspire joy, and others react to you with joy even though you are not experiencing joy yourself, there must be something in you that is capable of producing it. If it is in you and can produce joy, and if you see that it does produce joy in others, you must be dissociating it in yourself.

³² It seems to you that the Holy Spirit does not produce joy consistently in you only because you do not consistently arouse joy in others. Their reactions to you are your evaluations of Her consistency. When you are inconsistent, you will not always give rise to joy and so you will not always recognize Her consistency. What you offer to your brother or sister, you offer to Her because She cannot go beyond your offering in Her giving. This is not because She limits Her giving, but simply because you have limited your receiving. The will to receive is the will to accept.

³³ If your brothers and sisters are part of you, will you accept them? Only they can teach you what you are, and your learning is the result of what you taught them. What you call upon in them, you call upon in yourself. And as you call upon it in them, it becomes real to you. God has but one SonDaughter, knowing them all as one. Only God HimHerself is more than they, but they are not less than HeShe is. Would you know what this means? If what you do to our brother or sister you do to me, and if you do everything for yourself because we are part of you, everything we do belongs to you as well. Every Spirit God created and manifested is part of you and shares hisher glory with you. Hisher Glory belongs to himher, but it is equally yours. You cannot, then, be less glorious than heshe is.

³⁴ God is more than you only because HeShe created and manifested you, but not even this would HeShe keep from you. Therefore you can create and manifest as HeShe did, and your dissociation will not alter this. Neither God's light nor yours is dimmed because you do not see. Because the SonDaughtership must create and manifest as one, you remember manifested creation whenever you recognize part of manifested creation. Each part you remember adds to your wholeness because each part is whole. Wholeness is indivisible, but you cannot learn of your wholeness until you see it everywhere. You can know yourself only as God knows HisHer SonDaughter, for knowledge is shared with God. When you awake in HimHer you will know your magnitude by accepting HisHer limitlessness as yours, but meanwhile you will judge it as you judge your brothers and sisters' and will accept it as you accept theirs.

³⁵ You are not yet awake, but you can learn how to awaken. Very simply the Holy Spirit teaches you to awaken others. As you see them waken, you will learn what waking means, and because you have willed to wake them, their gratitude and their appreciation of what you have given them will teach you its value. They will become the witnesses to your reality, as you were created and manifested witnesses to God's. Yet when the SonDaughtership comes together and accepts its oneness, it will be known by its creationsmanifestations, who witness to its reality as the SonDaughter does to the FatherMother.

³⁶ Miracles have no place in eternity because they are reparative. Yet while you still need healing, your miracles are the only witnesses to your reality which you can recognize. You cannot perform a miracle for yourself because miracles are a way of giving acceptance and receiving it. In time, the giving comes first, though they are simultaneous in eternity, where they cannot be separated. When you have learned that they are the same, the need for time is over.

³⁷ Eternity is one time, its only dimension being "always." This cannot mean anything to you, however, until you remember God's open arms and finally know HisHer open Mind. Like HimHer, you are "always"-in HisHer mind and with a mind like HisHers. In your open mind are your creationsmanifestations, in perfect communication born of perfect understanding. Could you but accept one of them, you would not want anything the world has to offer. Everything else would be totally meaningless. God's meaning is incomplete without you, and you are incomplete without your creationsmanifestations. Accept your brother or sister in this world and accept nothing else, for in him or her you will find your creationsmanifestations, because HeShe created and manifested them with you. You will never know that you are co-CreatorManifestor with God until you learn that your brother or sister is a co-creatorco-manifestor with you.

VI. Salvation and God's Will

³⁸ God's Will is your salvation. Would HeShe not have given you the means to find it? If HeShe wills you to have it, HeShe must have made it possible and very easy to obtain it. Your brothers and sisters are everywhere. You do not have to seek far for salvation. Every minute and every second gives you a chance to save yourself. Do not lose these chances, not because they will not return, but because delay of joy is needless. God wills you perfect happiness now. Is it possible that this is not also your will? And is it possible that this is not also the will of your brothers and sisters?

³⁹ Consider, then, that in this joint will you are all united, and in this only. There will be disagreement on anything else, but not on this. This, then, is where peace abides. And you abide in peace when you so decide. Yet you cannot abide in peace unless you accept the Atonement, because the Atonement is the way to peace. The reason is very simple and so obvious that it is often overlooked. That is because the ego is afraid of the obvious since obviousness is the essential characteristic of reality. Yet you cannot overlook it unless you are not looking.

⁴⁰ It is perfectly obvious that if the Holy Spirit looks with love on all She perceives, HeShe looks with love on you. Her evaluation of you is based on Her knowledge of what you are, and so She evaluates you truly. And this evaluation must be in your mind because She is. The ego is also in your mind because you have accepted it there. Its evaluation of you, however, is the exact opposite of the Holy Spirit's because the ego does not love you. It is unaware of what you are and wholly mistrustful of everything it perceives because its own perceptions are so shifting. The ego is therefore capable of suspiciousness at best and viciousness at worst. That is its range. It cannot exceed it because of its uncertainty. And it can never go beyond it because it can never be certain.

⁴¹ You, then, have two conflicting evaluations of yourself in your minds, and they cannot both be true. You do not yet realize how completely different these evaluations are because you do not understand how lofty the Holy Spirit's perception of you really is. She is not deceived by anything you do because She never forgets what you are. The ego is deceived by everything you do, even when you respond to the Holy Spirit, because at such times its confusion increases. The ego is, therefore, particularly likely to attack you when you react lovingly because it has evaluated you as unloving, and you are going against its judgment.

⁴² The ego will begin to attack your motives as soon as they become clearly out of accord with its perception of you. This is when it will shift abruptly from suspiciousness to viciousness, since its uncertainty is increased. Yet it is surely pointless to attack in return. What can this mean except that you are agreeing with the ego's evaluation of what you are? If you are willing to see yourself as unloving, you will not be happy. You are condemning yourself and must therefore regard yourself as inadequate. Would you look to the ego to help you escape from a sense of inadequacy it has produced and must maintain for its existence? Can you escape from its evaluation of you by using its methods for keeping this picture intact?

⁴³ You cannot evaluate an insane belief system from within it. Its own range precludes this. You can only go beyond it, look back from a point where sanity exists, and see the contrast. Only by this contrast can insanity be judged as insane. With the grandeur of God in you, you have chosen to be little and to lament your littleness. Within the system which dictated this choice, the lament is inevitable. Your littleness is taken for granted there, and you do not ask, "Who granted it?" The question is meaningless within the ego's thought system because it opens the whole thought system to question.

⁴⁴ We said before that the ego does not know what a real question is. Lack of knowledge of any kind is always associated with unwillingness to know and produces a total lack of knowledge simply because knowledge is total. Not to question your littleness, therefore, is to deny all knowledge and keep the ego's whole thought system intact. You cannot retain part of a thought system because it can be questioned only at its foundation. And this must be questioned from beyond it because, within it, its foundation does stand. The Holy Spirit judges against the reality of the ego's thought system merely because She knows its foundation is not true. Therefore, nothing that arises from it means anything. The Holy Spirit judges every belief you hold in terms of where it comes from. If it comes from God, She knows it to be true. If it does not, HeShe knows that it is meaningless.

⁴⁵ Whenever you question your value, say:

⁴⁶ God HimHerself is incomplete without me.

⁴⁷ Remember this when the ego speaks, and you will not hear it. The truth about you is so lofty that nothing unworthy of God is worthy of you. Choose, then, what you want in these terms and accept nothing that you would not offer to God as wholly fitting for HimHer, for you do not want anything else. Return your part of HimHer, and HeShe will give you all of HimHerself in exchange for your return of what belongs to HimHer and renders HimHer complete.

VII. Grandeur Versus Grandiosity

⁴⁸ Grandeur is of God and only of HimHer. Therefore, it is in you. Whenever you become aware of it, however dimly, you abandon the ego automatically because in the presence of the grandeur of God the meaninglessness of the ego becomes perfectly apparent. Though it does not understand this, the ego believes that its "enemy" has struck and attempts to offer gifts to induce you to return to its "protection." Self-inflation of the ego is its alternative to the grandeur of God. Which will you choose?

⁴⁹ Grandiosity is always a cover for despair. It is without hope because it is not real. It is an attempt to counteract your littleness, based on the belief that the littleness is real. Without this belief, grandiosity is meaningless, and you could not possibly want it. The essence of grandiosity is competitiveness because it always involves attack. It is a delusional attempt to outdo but not to undo. We said before that the ego vacillates between suspiciousness and viciousness. It remains suspicious as long as you despair of yourself. It shifts to viciousness whenever you will not tolerate self-abasement and seek relief. Then it offers you the illusion of attack as a solution.

⁵⁰ The ego does not know the difference between grandeur and grandiosity because it does not know the difference between miracle impulses and ego-alien beliefs of its own. We once said that the ego is aware of threat, but does not make distinctions between two entirely different kinds of threat to its existence. Its own profound sense of vulnerability renders it incapable of judgment except in terms of attack.

When it experiences threat, its only decision is whether to attack now or to withdraw to attack later. If you accept its offer of grandiosity, it will attack immediately. If you do not, it will wait.

⁵¹ The ego is immobilized in the presence of God's grandeur because HisHer grandeur establishes your freedom. Even the faintest hint of your reality literally drives the ego from your mind because of complete lack of investment in it. Grandeur is totally without illusions, and because it is real, it is compellingly convincing. Yet the conviction of reality will not remain with you unless you do not allow the ego to attack it. The ego will make every effort to recover and mobilize its energies against your release. It will tell you that you are insane and argue that grandeur cannot be a real part of you because of the littleness in which it believes.

⁵² Yet your grandeur is not delusional because you did not make it. You have made grandiosity and are afraid of it because it is a form of attack, but your grandeur is of God, Who created and manifested it out of HisHer Love. From your grandeur you can only bless, because your grandeur is your abundance. By blessing, you hold it in your mind, protecting it from illusions and keeping yourself in the Mind of God. Remember always that you cannot be anywhere except in the Mind of God. When you forget this, you will despair, and you will attack.

⁵³ The ego depends solely on your willingness to tolerate it. If you are willing to look upon your grandeur, you cannot despair, and therefore you cannot want the ego. Your grandeur is God's answer to the ego because it is true. Littleness and grandeur cannot co-exist, nor is it possible for them to alternate in your awareness. Littleness and grandiosity can and must alternate in your awareness since both are untrue and are therefore on the same level. Being the level of shift, it is experienced as shifting, and extremes are its essential characteristic.

⁵⁴ Truth and littleness are denials of each other because grandeur is truth. Truth does not vacillate; it is always true. When grandeur slips away from you, you have replaced it with something you have made. Perhaps it is the belief in littleness; perhaps it is the belief in grandiosity. Yet it must be insane because it is not true. Your grandeur will never deceive you, but your illusions always will. Illusions are deceptions. You cannot triumph, but you are exalted. And in your exalted state, you seek others like you and rejoice with them.

⁵⁵ It is easy to distinguish grandeur from grandiosity because love is returned, but pride is not. Pride will not produce miracles and therefore will deprive you of your true witnesses to your reality. Truth is not obscure nor hidden, but its obviousness to you lies in the joy you bring to its witnesses, who show it to you. They attest to your grandeur, but they cannot attest to pride because pride is not shared. God wants you to behold what HeShe created and manifested because it is HisHer joy.

⁵⁶ Can your grandeur be arrogant when God HimHerself witnesses to it? And what can be real that has no witnesses? What good can come of it? And if no good can come of it, the Holy Spirit cannot use it. What She cannot transform to the Will of God does not exist at all. Grandiosity is delusional because it is used to replace your grandeur. Yet what God has created and manifested cannot be replaced. God is incomplete without you because HisHer grandeur is total, and you cannot be missing from it.

⁵⁷ You are altogether irreplaceable in the Mind of God. No one else can fill your part of It, and while you leave your part of It empty, your eternal place merely waits for your return. God, through HisHer Voice, reminds you of It, and God HimHerself keeps your extensions safe within It. Yet you do not know them until you return to them. You cannot replace the God Realm, and you cannot replace yourself. God, Who knows your value, would not have it so, and so it is not so. Your value is in God's Mind and therefore not in yours alone. To accept yourself as God created and manifested you cannot be arrogance because it is the denial of arrogance. To accept your littleness is arrogant because it means that you believe your evaluation of yourself is truer than God's.

⁵⁸ Yet if truth is indivisible, your evaluation of yourself must be God's. You did not establish your value, and it needs no defense. Nothing can attack it or prevail over it. It does not vary. It merely is. Ask the Holy Spirit what it is and She will tell you, but do not be afraid of HisHer answer, for it comes from God. It is an exalted answer because of its Source, but the Source is true and so is Its answer. Listen and do not question what you hear, for God does not deceive. HeShe would have you replace the ego's belief in littleness with HisHer own exalted answer to the question of your being, so that you can cease to question it and know it for what it is.

VIII. The Inclusiveness of Manifested creation

⁵⁹ Nothing beyond yourself can make you fearful or loving because nothing is beyond you. Time and eternity are both in your mind and will conflict until you perceive time solely as a means to regain eternity. You cannot do this as long as you believe that anything which happens to you is caused by factors outside yourself. You must learn that time is solely at your disposal, and that nothing in the world can take this responsibility from you. You can violate God's laws in your imagination, but you cannot escape from them. They were established for your protection and are as inviolate as your safety.

⁶⁰ God created and manifested nothing beside you, and nothing beside you exists, for you are part of HimHer. What except HimHer can exist? Nothing beyond HimHer can happen because nothing except HimHer is real. Your creationsmanifestations add to HimHer as you do, but nothing is added that is different because everything has always been. What can upset you except the ephemeral, and how can the ephemeral be real if you are God's only manifested creation, and HeShe created and manifested you eternal? Your holy will establishes everything that happens to you. Every response you make to everything you perceive is up to you because your will determines your perception of it.

⁶¹ God does not change HisHer Mind about you, for HeShe is not uncertain of HimHerself. And what HeShe knows can be known because HeShe does not know only for HimHerself. HeShe created and manifested you for HimHerself, but HeShe gave you the power to create and manifest for your self so you could be like HimHer. That is why your will is holy. Can anything exceed the love of God? Can anything, then, exceed your will? Nothing can reach you from beyond it because, being in God, you encompass everything. Believe this, and you will realize how much is up to you. When anything threatens your peace of mind, ask yourself,

⁶² Has God changed HisHer Mind about me?

⁶³ Then accept HisHer decision, for it is indeed changeless, and refuse to change your mind about yourself. God will never decide against you, or HeShe would be deciding against HimHerself.

⁶⁴ The reason you do not know your creationsmanifestations is simply that you would decide against them as long as your minds are split, and to attack what you have created and manifested is impossible. But remember that it is as impossible for God. The law of manifested creation is that you love your creationsmanifestations as yourself because they are part of you. Everything that was created and manifested is therefore perfectly safe because the laws of God protect it by HisHer Love. Any part of your mind that does not know this has banished itself from knowledge because it has not met its conditions.

⁶⁵ Who could have done this but you? Recognize this gladly, for in this recognition lies the realization that your banishment is not of God and therefore does not exist. You are at home in God, dreaming of exile but perfectly capable of awakening to reality. Is it your will to do so? You know from your own experience that what you see in dreams you think is real as long as you are asleep. Yet the instant you waken, you know that everything that seemed to happen did not happen at all. You do not think this mysterious, even though all the laws of what you awakened to were violated while you slept. Is it not possible that you merely shifted from one dream to another, without really wakening?

⁶⁶ Would you bother to reconcile what happened in conflicting dreams, or would you dismiss both together if you discovered that reality is in accord with neither? You do not remember being awake. When you hear the Holy Spirit, you merely feel better because loving seems possible to you, but you do not remember yet that it once was so. And it is in this remembering that you will know it can be so again. What is possible has not yet been accomplished. Yet what has once been is so now if it is eternal. When you remember, you will know what you remember is eternal and therefore is now.

⁶⁷ You will remember everything the instant you desire it wholly, for if to desire wholly is to create and manifest, you will have willed away the separation, returning your mind simultaneously to your CreatorManifestor and your creationsmanifestations. Knowing them, you will have no wish to sleep but only the will to waken and be glad. Dreams will be impossible because you will want only truth, and being at last your will, it will be yours.

IX. The Decision to Forget

⁶⁸ Unless you know something, you cannot dissociate it. Knowledge therefore precedes dissociation, and dissociation is nothing more than a decision to forget. What has been forgotten then appears to be fearful, but only because the dissociation was an attack on truth. You are fearful because you have forgotten. And you have replaced your knowledge by an awareness of dreams because you are afraid of your dissociation, not of what you have dissociated. Even in this world's therapy, when dissociated material is accepted, it ceases to be fearful, for the laws of mind always hold.

⁶⁹ Yet to give up the dissociation of reality brings more than merely lack of fear. In this decision lie joy and peace and the glory of manifested creation. Offer the Holy Spirit only your will to remember, for HeShe retains the knowledge of God and of yourself for you, waiting for your acceptance. Give up gladly everything that would stand in the way of your remembering, for God is in your memory, and HisHer Voice will tell you that you are part of HimHer when you are willing to remember HimHer and know your own reality again. Let nothing in this world delay your remembering of HimHer, for in this remembering is the knowledge of yourself.

⁷⁰ To remember is merely to restore to your mind what is already there. You do not make what you remember; you merely accept again what has been made but was rejected. The ability to accept truth in this world is the perceptual counterpart of creating/manifesting in the God Realm. God will do His/Her part if you will do yours, and His/Her return in exchange for yours is the exchange of knowledge for perception. Nothing is beyond His/Her Will for you. But signify your will to remember Him/Her and behold! He/She will give you everything but for the asking.

⁷¹ When you attack, you are denying yourself. You are specifically teaching yourself that you are not what you are. Your denial of reality precludes the acceptance of God's gift because you have accepted something else in its place. If you understand that the misuse of defenses always constitutes an attack on truth and truth is God, you will realize why this is always fearful. If you further recognize that you are part of God, you will understand why it is that you always attack yourself first.

⁷² [All attack is self-attack. It cannot be anything else. Arising from your own decision not to be what you are, it is an attack on your identification. Attack is thus the way in which your identification is lost because, when you attack, you must have forgotten what you are. And if your reality is God's, when you attack you are not remembering Him/Her. This is not because He/She is gone, but because you are willing actively not to remember Him/Her.]

⁷³ If you realized the complete havoc this makes of your peace of mind, you could not make such an insane decision. You make it only because you still believe that it can get you something you want. It follows, then, that you want something other than peace of mind, but you have not considered what it must be. Yet the logical outcome of your decision is perfectly clear if you will look at it. By deciding against your reality, you have made yourself vigilant against God and His/Her Realm. And it is this vigilance that makes you afraid to remember Him/Her.

⁷⁴ You have not attacked God, and you do love Him/Her. Can you change your reality? No one can will to destroy himself or herself. When you think you are attacking your self, it is a sure sign that you hate what you think you are. And this, and only this, can be attacked by you. What you think you are can be hateful, and what this strange image makes you do can be very destructive. Yet the destruction is no more real than the image, although those who make idols or idolresses do worship them. The idols or idolresses are nothing, but their worshipers are the Sons/Daughters of God in sickness.

⁷⁵ God would have them released from their sickness and returned to His/Her Mind. He/She will not limit your power to help them because He/She has given it to you. Do not be afraid of it because it is your salvation. What Comforter can there be for the sick Children of God except HisHer power through you? Remember that it does not matter where in the SonDaughtership HeShe is accepted. HeShe is always accepted for all, and when your mind receives HimHer, the remembrance of HimHer awakens throughout the SonDaughtership. Heal your brotherssisters simply by accepting God for them.

⁷⁶ Your minds are not separate, and God has only one channel for healing because HeShe has but one SonDaughter. HisHer remaining communication link with all HisHer Children joins them together and them to HimHer. To be aware of this is to heal them because it is the awareness that no one is separate, and so no one is sick. To believe that a SonDaughter of God can be sick is to believe that part of God can suffer. Love cannot suffer because it cannot attack. The remembrance of love therefore brings invulnerability with it.

⁷⁷ Do not side with sickness in the presence of a SonDaughter of God even if he or she believes in it, for your acceptance of God in him or her acknowledges the love of God which he or she has forgotten. Your recognition of him or her as part of God teaches him or her the truth about himself or herself, which he or she is denying. Would you strengthen his or her denial of God and thus lose sight of yourself? Or would you remind him or her of his or her wholeness and remember your CreatorManifestor with him or her? To believe a SonDaughter of God is sick is to worship the same idol or idolress he or she does. God created and manifested love, not idolatry or idolressatry. All forms of idolatry or idolressatry are caricatures of manifested creation, taught by sick minds which are too divided to know that manifested creation shares power and never usurps it. Sickness is idolatry or idolressatry because it is the belief that power can be taken from you. Yet this is impossible because you are part of God, Who is all power.

⁷⁸ A sick god must be an idol or idolress, made in the image of what its maker thinks he or she is. And that is exactly what the ego does perceive in a SonDaughter of God; a sick god, self-created-self-manifested, self-sufficient, very vicious, and very vulnerable. Is this the idol or idolress you would worship? Is this the image you would be vigilant to save? [Are you really afraid of losing this?] Look calmly at the logical conclusion of the ego's thought system and judge whether its offering is really what you want, for this is what it offers you. To obtain this you are willing to attack the divinity of your brothers and sisters and thus lose sight of yours. And you are willing to keep it hidden and to protect this idol or idolress, which you think will save you from the dangers which the idol or idolress itself stands for, but which do not exist.

⁷⁹ There are no idolaters or idolressaters in the God Realm, but there is great appreciation for every Spirit which God created and manifested because of the calm knowledge that each one is part of HimHer. God's SonDaughter knows no idols or idolresses, but heshe does know hisher FatherMother. Health in this world is the counterpart of value in the God Realm. It is not my merit that I contribute to you but my love, for you do not value yourselves. When you do not value yourself, you become sick, but my value of you can heal you because the value of God's SonDaughter is one. When I said, "My peace I give unto you," I meant it. Peace came from God through me to you. It was for you, although you did not ask.

⁸⁰ When a brother or sister is sick, it is because he or she is not asking for peace and therefore does not know he or she has it. The acceptance of peace is the denial of illusion, and sickness is an illusion. Yet every SonDaughter of God has the power to deny illusions anywhere in the God Realm merely by denying them completely in himself or herself. I can heal you because I know you. I know your value for you, and it is this value that makes you whole. A whole mind is not idolatrous or idolressatrous and does not know of conflicting laws. I will heal you merely because I have only one message, and it is true. Your faith in it will make you whole when you have faith in me.

⁸¹ I do not bring God's message with deception, and you will learn this as you learn that you always receive as much as you accept. You could accept peace now for everyone you meet and offer them perfect freedom from all illusions because you heard. But have no other gods before HimHer, or you will not hear. God is not jealous of the gods you make, but you are. You would save them and serve them because you believe that they made you. You think they are your father because you are projecting onto them the fearful fact that you made them to replace God. Yet when they seem to speak to you, remember that nothing can replace God, and whatever replacements you have attempted are nothing.

⁸² Very simply, then, you may believe you are afraid of nothingness, but you are really afraid of nothing. And in that awareness you are healed. You will hear the god you listen to. You made the god of sickness, and by making him, you made yourself able to hear him or her. Yet you did not create and manifest him or her because he or she is not the Will of the FatherMother. He or she is therefore not eternal and will be unmade for you the instant you signify your willingness to accept only the eternal. If God has but one SonDaughter, there is but one God. You share reality with HimHer because reality is not divided. To accept other gods before HimHer is to place other images before yourself.

⁸³ You do not realize how much you listen to your gods and how vigilant you are on their behalf. Yet they exist only because you honor them. Place honor where it is due, and peace will be yours. It is your inheritance from your real FatherMother. You cannot make your father, and the father you made did not make you. Honor is not due to illusions, for to honor them is to honor nothing. Yet fear is not due them either, for nothing cannot be fearful. You have chosen to fear love because of its perfect harmlessness, and because of this fear, you have been willing to give up your own perfect helpfulness and your own perfect Help.

⁸⁴ Only at the altar of God will you find peace. And this altar is in you because God put it there. HisHer Voice still calls you to return, and She will be heard when you place no other gods before HimHer. You can give up the god of sickness for your brothers and sisters; in fact, you would have to do so if you give him or her up for yourself. For if you see him or her anywhere, you have accepted him or her. And if you accept him, you will bow down and worship him or her because he or she was made as God's replacement. He or she is the belief that you can choose which god is real. Although it is perfectly clear that this has nothing to do with reality, it is equally clear that it has everything to do with reality as you perceive it.

X. Magic Versus Miracles

⁸⁵ All magic is a form of reconciling the irreconcilable. All religion is the recognition that the irreconcilable cannot be reconciled. Sickness and perfection are irreconcilable. If God created and manifested you perfect, you are perfect. If you believe you can be sick, you have placed other gods before HimHer. God is not at war with the god of sickness you made, but you are. He or she is the symbol of willing against God, and you are afraid of him or her because he or she cannot be reconciled with God's Will. If you attack him or her, you will make him or her real to you. But if you refuse to worship him or her in whatever form he or she may appear to you and wherever you think you see him or her, he or she will disappear into the nothingness out of which he or she was made.

⁸⁶ Reality can dawn only on an unclouded mind. It is always there to be accepted, but its acceptance depends on your willingness to have it. To know reality must involve the willingness to judge unreality for what it is. This is the right use of selective perception. To overlook nothingness is merely to judge it correctly, and because of your ability to evaluate it truly, to let it go. Knowledge cannot dawn on a mind full of illusions because truth and illusions are irreconcilable. Truth is whole and cannot be known by part of a mind.

⁸⁷ The SonDaughtership cannot be perceived as partly sick because to perceive it that way is not to perceive it at all. If the SonDaughtership is one, it is one in all respects. Oneness cannot be divided. If you perceive other gods, your mind is split, and you will not be able to limit the split because the split is the sign that you have removed part of your mind from God's Will, and this means it is out of control. To be out of control is to be out of reason, and the mind does become unreasonable without reason. This is merely a matter of definition. By defining the mind wrongly, you perceive it as functioning wrongly.

⁸⁸ God's laws will keep your minds at peace because peace is HisHer Will, and HisHer laws are established to uphold it. HisHer are the laws of freedom, but yours are the laws of bondage. Since freedom and bondage are irreconcilable, their laws cannot be understood together. The laws of God work only for your good, and there are no other laws beside HisHers. Everything else is merely lawless and therefore chaotic. Yet God HimHerself has protected everything HeShe created and manifested by HisHer laws. Therefore, everything that is not under them does not exist. "Laws of chaos" are meaningless by definition. Manifested creation is perfectly lawful, and the chaotic is without meaning because it is without God. You have given your peace to the gods you made, but they are not there to take it from you, and you are not able to give it to them.

⁸⁹ You are not free to give up freedom, but only to deny it. You cannot do what God did not intend because what HeShe did not intend does not happen. Your gods do not bring chaos; you are endowing them with chaos and accepting it of them. All this has never been. Nothing but the laws of God has ever operated, and nothing except HisHer Will will ever be. You were created and manifested through HisHer laws and by HisHer Will, and manner of your manifested creation established you as creatorsmanifestors. What you have made is so unworthy of you that you could hardly want it if you were willing to see it as it is. You will see nothing at all. And your vision will automatically look beyond it to what is in you and all around you. Reality cannot break through the obstructions you interpose, but it will envelop you completely when you let them go.

⁹⁰ When you have experienced the protection of God, the making of idols or idolresses becomes inconceivable. There are no strange images in the Mind of God, and what is not in HisHer Mind cannot be in yours because you are of One Mind and that Mind belongs to HimHer. It is yours because it belongs to HimHer, for ownership is sharing to HimHer. And if it is so for HimHer, it is so for you. HisHer definitions are HisHer laws, for by them HeShe established the universe as what it is. No false gods you attempt to interpose between yourself and your reality affect truth at all. Peace is yours because God created and manifested you. And HeShe created and manifested nothing else.

⁹¹ The miracle is the act of a SonDaughter of God who has laid aside all false gods and who calls on his or her brothers and sisters to do likewise. It is an act of faith because it is the recognition that hisher brother or sister can do it. It is a call to the Holy Spirit in his or her mind, a call to Her which is strengthened by this joining. Because the miracle worker has heard Her, he or she strengthens Her Voice in a sick brother or sister by weakening his or her belief in sickness, which he or she does not share. The power of one mind can shine into another because all the lamps of God were lit by the same spark. It is everywhere, and it is eternal.

⁹² In the many only the spark remains, for the Great Rays are obscured. Yet God has kept the spark alive so that the rays can never be completely forgotten. If you but see the little spark, you will learn of the greater light, for the rays are there unseen. Perceiving the spark will heal, but knowing the light will create and manifest . Yet in the returning, the little light must be acknowledged first, for the separation was a descent from magnitude to littleness. But the spark is still as pure as the great light because it is the remaining call of manifested creation. Put all your faith in it, and God HimHerself will answer you.

XI. The Denial of God

⁹³ The rituals of the god of sickness are strange and very demanding. Joy is never permitted, for depression is the sign of allegiance to him or her. Depression means that you have foresworn God. Men or women are afraid of blasphemy, but they do not know what it means. They do not realize that to deny God is to deny their own identity, and in this sense the wages of sin is death. The sense is very literal; denial of life perceives its opposite, as all forms of denial replace what is with what is not. No one can really do this, but that you can think you can and believe you have is beyond dispute.

⁹⁴ Do not forget, however, that to deny God will inevitably result in projection, and you will believe that others, and not yourself, have done this to you. You will receive the message you give because it is the message you want. You may believe that you judge your brothers and sisters by the messages they give you, but you have judged them by the message you give to them. Do not attribute your denial of joy to them, or you cannot see the spark in them that could bring joy to you. It is the denial of the spark that brings depression, and whenever you see your brothers and sisters without it, you are denying God.

⁹⁵ Allegiance to the denial of God is the ego's religion. The god of sickness obviously demands the denial of health, because health is in direct opposition to its own survival. But consider what this means to you. Unless you are sick, you cannot keep the gods you made, for only in sickness could you possibly want them. Blasphemy, then, is self-destructive, not God-destructive. It means that you are willing not to know yourself in order to be sick. This is the offering which your god demands because, having made him or her out of your insanity, he or she is an insane idea. He or she has the many forms, but although he or she may seem like the many different things, he or she is but one idea—the denial of God.

⁹⁶ Sickness and death entered the mind of God's SonDaughter against hisher will. The "attack on God" made HisHer SonDaughter think heshe was fatherlessmotherless, and out of hisher depression, heshe made the god of depression. This was hisher alternative to joy, because heshe would not accept the fact that, although heshe was a creatormanifestor, heshe had been created and manifested. Yet the SonDaughter is helpless without the FatherMother, Who alone is hisher help. We said before that of yourselves you can do nothing, but you are not of yourselves. If you were, what you have made would be true, and you could never escape.

⁹⁷ It is because you did not make yourselves that you need be troubled by nothing. Your gods are nothing because your FatherMother did not create and manifest them. You cannot make CreatorsManifestors who are unlike your CreatorManifestor any more than HeShe could have created and manifested a SonDaughter who was unlike HimHer. If manifested creation is sharing, it cannot create and manifest what is unlike itself. It can share only what it is. Depression is isolation, and so it could not have been created and manifested.

⁹⁸ SonDaughter of God, you have not sinned, but you have been much mistaken. Yet this can be corrected, and God will help you, knowing that you could not sin against HimHer. You denied HimHer because you loved HimHer, knowing that if you recognized your love for HimHer, you could not deny HimHer. Your denial of HimHer therefore means that you love HimHer and that you know HeShe loves you. Remember that what you deny, you must have known. And if you accept denial, you can accept its undoing.

⁹⁹ Your FatherMother has not denied you. HeShe does not retaliate, but HeShe does call to you to return. When you think HeShe has not answered your call, you have not answered HisHers. HeShe calls to you from every part of the SonDaughtership because of HisHer love for HisHer SonDaughter. If you hear HisHer message, HeShe has answered you, and you will learn of HimHer if you hear aright. The love of God is in everything HeShe created and manifested, for HisHer SonDaughter is everywhere. Look with peace upon your brothers and sisters, and God will come rushing into your heart in gratitude for your gift to HimHer.

¹⁰⁰ Do not look to the god of sickness for healing but only to the God of love, for healing is the acknowledgment of HimHer. When you acknowledge HimHer, you will know that HeShe has never ceased to acknowledge you and that in HisHer acknowledgment of you lies your Being. You are not sick, and you cannot die. But you can confuse yourself with things that do. Remember, though, that to do this is blasphemy, for it means that you are looking without love on God and HisHer manifested creation, from which HeShe cannot be separated. Only the eternal can be loved, for love does not die. What is of God is HisHer forever, and you are of God. Would HeShe allow HimHerself to suffer? And would HeShe offer HisHer SonDaughter anything that is not acceptable to HimHer?

¹⁰¹ If you will accept yourself as God created and manifested you, you will be incapable of suffering. Yet to do this, you must acknowledge HimHer as your CreatorManifestor. This is not because you will be punished otherwise. It is merely because your acknowledgment of your FatherMother is the acknowledgment of yourself as you are. Your FatherMother created and manifested you wholly without sin, wholly without pain, and wholly without suffering of any kind. If you deny HimHer, you bring sin, pain, and suffering into your own mind because of the power HeShe gave it. Your mind is capable of creatingmanifesting worlds, but it can also deny what it creates and manifests because it is free.

¹⁰² You do not realize how much you have denied yourself, and how much God in HisHer love would not have it so. Yet HeShe would not interfere with you because HeShe would not know HisHer SonDaughter if he or she were not free. To interfere with you would be to attack HimHerself, and God is not insane. When you denied HimHer, you were insane. Would you have HimHer share your insanity? God will never cease to love HisHer SonDaughter, and HisHer SonDaughter will never cease to love HimHer. That was the condition of HisHer Son'sDaughter's manifested creation, fixed forever in the Mind of God. To know that is sanity. To deny it is insanity. God gave HimHerself to you in your manifested creation, and HisHer gifts are eternal. Would you deny yourself to HimHer?

¹⁰³ Out of your gifts to HimHer, the God Realm will be restored to HisHer SonDaughter. HisHer SonDaughter removed himherself from

hisher gift by refusing to accept what had been created and manifested for himher and what heshe himherself had created and manifested in the Name of hisher FatherMother. The God Realm waits for hisher return, for it was created and manifested as the dwelling place of God's SonDaughter. You are not at home anywhere else or in any other condition. Do not deny yourself the joy which was created and manifested for you for the misery you have made for yourselves. God has given you the means for undoing what you have made. Listen, and you will learn what you are.

¹⁰⁴ If God knows HisHer Children as wholly sinless, it is blasphemous to perceive them as guilty. If God knows HisHer Children as wholly without pain, it is blasphemous to perceive suffering anywhere. If God knows HisHer Children to be wholly joyous, it is blasphemous to feel depressed. All of these illusions and the many other forms which blasphemy may take are refusals to accept manifested creation as it is. If God created and manifested HisHer SonDaughter perfect, that is how you must learn to see himher to learn of hisher reality. And as part of the SonDaughtership, that is how you must see yourself to learn of yours.

¹⁰⁵ Do not perceive anything God did not create and manifest, or you are denying HimHer. HisHer is the only FatherhoodMotherhood, and it is yours only because HeShe has given it to you. Your gifts to yourself are meaningless, but your gifts to your creationsmanifestations are like HisHer because they are given in HisHer Name. That is why your creationsmanifestations are as real as HisHers. Yet the real FatherhoodMotherhood must be acknowledged if the real SonDaughter is to be known. You believe that the sick things which you have made are your real creationsmanifestations because you believe that the sick images you perceive are the SonsDaughters of God.

¹⁰⁶ Only if you accept the FatherhoodMotherhood of God will you have anything because HisHer fatherhood gave you everything. That is why to deny HimHer is to deny yourself. Arrogance is the denial of love because love shares and arrogance withholds. As long as both appear to you to be desirable, the concept of choice, which is not of God, will remain with you. While this is not true in eternity, it is true in time, so that while time lasts in your minds, there will be choices. Time itself was your choice.

¹⁰⁷ If you would remember eternity, you must learn to look only on the eternal. If you allow yourselves to become preoccupied with the temporal, you are living in time. As always, your choice is determined by what you value. Time and eternity cannot both be real because they contradict each other. If you will accept only what is timeless as real, you will begin to understand eternity and make it yours.

Chapter Ten:

God and the Ego

I. Introduction

¹ Either God or the ego is insane. If you will examine the evidence on both sides fairly, you will realize that this must be true. Neither God nor the ego proposes a partial thought system. Each is internally consistent, but they are diametrically opposed in all respects so that partial allegiance is impossible. Remember, too, that their results are as different as their foundations, and their fundamentally irreconcilable natures cannot be reconciled by your vacillations. Nothing alive is fatherlessmotherless, for life is manifested creation. Therefore, your decision is always an answer to the question, "Who is our father?" And you will be faithful to the father you choose.

² Yet what would you say to someone who really believed this question involves conflict? If you made the ego, how can the ego have made you? The authority problem remains the only source of perceived conflict because the ego was made out of the wish of God's SonDaughter to fathermother himher. The ego, then, is nothing more than a delusional system in which you made your own fathermother. Make no mistake about this. It sounds insane when it is stated with perfect honesty, but the ego never looks upon what it does with perfect honesty. Yet that is its insane premise, which is carefully hidden in the dark cornerstone of its thought system. And either the ego, which you made, is your fathermother, or its whole thought system will not stand.

II. Projection Versus Extension

³ You have made by projection, but God has created and manifested by extension. The cornerstone of God's manifested creation is you, for HisHer thought system is light. Remember the rays that are there unseen. The more you approach the center of HisHer thought system, the clearer the light becomes. The closer you come to [the foundation of] the ego's thought system, the darker and more obscure becomes the way. Yet even the little spark in your mind is enough to lighten it. Bring this light fearlessly with you and hold it up to the foundation of the ego's thought system bravely. Be willing to judge it with perfect honesty. Open the dark cornerstone of terror on which it rests and bring it out into the light. There you will see that it rests on meaninglessness and that everything of which you have been afraid was based on nothing.

⁴ My brother or sister, you are part of God and part of me. When you have at last looked at the ego's foundation without shrinking, you will also have looked upon ours. I come to you from our FatherMother to offer you everything again. Do not refuse it in order to keep a dark cornerstone hidden, for its protection will not save you. I give you the lamp and I will go with you. You will not take this journey alone. I will lead you to your true FatherMother, Who hath need of you as I have. Will you not answer the call of love with joy?

⁵ You have learned your need of healing. Would you bring anything else to the SonDaughtership, recognizing your need of healing for yourself? For in this lies the beginning of knowledge, the foundation on which God will help you build again the thought system which you share with HimHer. Not one stone you place upon it but will be blessed by HimHer, for you will be restoring the holy dwelling place of HisHer SonDaughter, where HeShe wills HisHer SonDaughter to be and where HeShe is. In whatever part of the mind of God's SonDaughter you restore this reality, you restore it to yourself. For you dwell in the Mind of God with your brother or sister, for God HimHerself did not will to be alone.

⁶ To be alone is to be separated from infinity, but how can this be if infinity has no end? No one can be beyond the limitless because what has no limits must be everywhere. There are no beginnings and no endings in God, Whose universe is HimHerself. Can you exclude yourself from the universe or from God, Who is the universe? I and my FatherMother are one with you, for you are part of us. Do you really believe that part of God can be missing or lost to HimHer?

⁷ If you were not part of God, HisHer Will would not be unified. Is this conceivable? Can part of HisHer Mind contain nothing? If your place in HisHer Mind cannot be filled by anyone except you, and your filling it was your manifested creation, without you there would be an empty place in God's Mind. Extension cannot be blocked, and it has no voids. It continues forever, however much it is denied. Your denial of its reality arrests it in time but not in eternity. That is why your creationsmanifestations have not ceased to be extended and why so much is waiting for your return.

⁸ Waiting is possible only in time, but time has no meaning. You who made delay can leave time behind simply by recognizing that neither beginnings nor endings were created and manifested by the Eternal, Who placed no limits on HisHer manifested creation nor upon those who create and manifest like HimHer. You do not know this simply because you have tried to limit what HeShe created and manifested, and so you believe that all manifested creation is limited. How, then, could you know your creationsmanifestations, having denied infinity? The laws of the universe do not permit contradiction. What holds for God holds for you. If you believe you are absent from God, you will believe that HeShe is absent from you.

⁹ Infinity is meaningless without you, and you are meaningless without God. There is no end to God and HisHer SonDaughter, for we are the universe. God is not incomplete, and HeShe is not childless. Because HeShe did not will to be alone, HeShe created and manifested a SonDaughter like HimHerself. Do not deny HimHer HisHer SonDaughter, for your unwillingness to accept HisHer FatherhoodMotherhood has denied you yours. See HisHer creationsmanifestations as HisHer SonDaughter, for yours were created and manifested in honor of HimHer. The universe of love does not stop because you do not see it, and your closed eyes have not lost the ability to see. Look upon the glory of HisHer manifested creation, and you will learn what God has kept for you.

¹⁰ God has given you a place in HisHer Mind which is yours forever. Yet you could keep it only by giving it, as it was given you. Could you be alone there if it was given you because God did not will to be alone? God's Mind cannot be lessened. It can only be increased, and everything HeShe creates and manifests has the function of creatingmanifesting. Love does not limit, and what it creates and manifests is not limited. To give without limit is God's Will for you because only this can bring you the joy which is HisHer and which HeShe wills to share with you. Your love is as boundless as HisHer because it is His.

¹¹ Could any part of God be without HisHer love and could any part of HisHer love be contained? God is your heritage because HisHer one gift is HimHerself. How can you give except like HimHer if you would know HisHer gift to you? Give, then, without limit and without end to learn how much HeShe has given you. Your ability to accept HimHer depends on your willingness to give as HeShe gives. Your FatherhoodMotherhood and your FatherMother are one. God willed to create and manifest, and your will is HisHers. It follows, then, that you will to create and manifest since your will follows from HisHers. And being an extension of HisHer Will, yours must be the same.

¹² Yet what you will you do not know. This is not strange when you realize that to deny is to "not know." God's Will is that you are HisHer SonDaughter. By denying this, you denied your own will and therefore do not know what it is. The reason you must ask what God's Will is in everything is merely because it is yours. You do not know what it is, but the Holy Spirit remembers it for you. Ask Her, therefore, what God's Will is for you, and She will tell you yours. It cannot be too often repeated that you do not know it. Whenever what the Holy Spirit tells you appears to be coercive, it is only because you do not recognize your own will.

¹³ The projection of the ego makes it appear as if God's Will is outside yourself and therefore not yours. In this interpretation, it is possible for God's Will and yours to conflict. God then may seem to demand of you what you do not want to give and thus deprive you of what you want. Would God, who wants only your will, be capable of this? Your will is HisHer Life, which HeShe has given to you. Even in time you cannot live apart from HimHer, for sleep is not death. What HeShe created and manifested can sleep, but it cannot die. Immortality is HisHer Will for HisHer SonDaughter and HisHer Son'sDaughter's will for himherself. God's SonDaughter cannot will death for himherself because hisher FatherMother is Life and HisHer SonDaughter is like HimHer. Manifested creation is your will because it is HisHers.

¹⁴ You cannot be happy unless you do what you will truly, and you cannot change this because it is immutable. It is immutable by God's Will and yours, for otherwise HisHer Will would not have been extended. You are afraid to know God's Will because you believe it is not yours. This belief is your whole sickness and your whole fear. Every symptom of sickness and fear arises here because this is the belief that makes you want not to know. Believing this, you hide in darkness, denying that the light is in you.

¹⁵ You are asked to trust the Holy Spirit only because She speaks for you. She is the Voice for God, but never forget that God did not will to be alone. HeShe shares HisHer Will with you; HeShe does not thrust it upon you. Always remember that what HeShe gives, HeShe holds, so that nothing HeShe gives can contradict HimHer. You who share HisHer Life must share it to know it, for sharing is knowing. Blessed are you who learn that to hear the Will of your FatherMother is to know your own. For it is your will to be like HimHer, Whose Will it is that it be so. God's Will is that HisHer SonDaughter be one, and united with HimHer in HisHer Oneness. That is why healing is the beginning of the recognition that your will is HisHers.

III. The Willingness For Healing

¹⁶ If sickness is separation, the will to heal and be healed is the first step toward recognizing what you truly want. Every attack is a step away from this, and every healing thought brings it closer. The SonDaughter of God has both FatherMother and SonDaughter because heshe is both FatherMother and SonDaughter. To unite having and being is only to unite your will with HisHers, for HeShe wills you HimHerself. And you will yourself to HimHer because, in your perfect understanding of HimHer, you know there is but One Will. Yet when you attack any part of God and HisHer Realm, your understanding is not perfect, and what you will is therefore lost to you.

¹⁷ Healing thus becomes a lesson in understanding, and the more you practice it, the better teacher or teacheress and learner you become. If you have denied truth, what better witnesses to its reality could you have than those who have been healed by it? But be sure to count yourself among them, for in your willingness to join them is your healing accomplished. Every miracle which you accomplish speaks to you of the FatherhoodMotherhood of God. Every healing thought which you accept, either from your brother or sister or in your own mind, teaches you that you are God's SonDaughter. In every hurtful thought you hold, wherever you perceive it, lies the denial of God's FatherhoodMotherhood and your SonDaughtership.

¹⁸ And denial is as total as love. You cannot deny part of yourself because the remainder will seem to be unintegrated and therefore without meaning. And being without meaning to you, you will not understand it. To deny meaning must be to fail to understand. You can heal only yourself, for only God's SonDaughter needs healing. He or she needs it because he or she does not understand himself or herself and therefore knows not what he or she does. Having forgotten his or her will, he or she does not know what he or she wants.

¹⁹ Healing is a sign that he or she wants to make whole. And this willingness opens his or her own ears to the Voice of the Holy Spirit, whose message is wholeness. She will enable you to go far beyond the healing you would undertake, for beside your small willingness to make whole, She will lay Her own complete Will and make yours whole. What can the SonDaughter of God not accomplish with the FatherhoodMotherhood of God in him? And yet the invitation must come from you, for you have surely learned that whom you invite as your guest will abide with you.

²⁰ The Holy Spirit cannot speak to an unwelcoming host because She will not be heard. The Eternal Guest remains, but Her Voice grows faint in alien company. She needs your protection, but only because your care is a sign that you want Her. Think like Her ever so slightly, and the little spark becomes a blazing light that fills your mind so that She becomes your only Guest. Whenever you ask the ego to enter, you lessen Her welcome. She will remain, but you have allied yourself against Her. Whatever journey you choose to take, She will go with you, waiting. You can safely trust Her patience, for She cannot leave a part of God. Yet you need far more than patience.

²¹ You will never rest until you know your function and fulfill it, for only in this can your will and your Father's Mother's be wholly joined. To have HimHer is to be like HimHer, and HeShe has given HimHerself to you. You who have God must be as God, for HisHer function became yours with HisHer gift. Invite this knowledge back into your minds, and let nothing that will obscure it enter. The Guest whom God sent you will teach you how to do this if you but recognize the little spark and are willing to let it grow. Your willingness need not be perfect, because HisHer is. If you will merely offer HimHer a little place, HeShe will lighten it so much that you will gladly extend it. And by this extending, you will begin to remember manifested creation.

²² Would you be hostage to the ego or host to God? You will accept only whom you invite. You are free to determine who shall be your guest and how long he or she shall remain with you. Yet this is not real freedom, for it still depends on how you see it. The Holy Spirit is there, although She cannot help you without your invitation, and the ego is nothing whether you invite it in or not. Real freedom depends on welcoming reality, and of your guests, only She is real. Know, then, who abides with you merely by recognizing what is there already and do not be satisfied with imaginary comforters, for the Comforter of God is in you.

IV. From Darkness to Light

²³ When you are weary, remember you have hurt yourself. Your Comforter will rest you, but you cannot. You do not know how, for if you did you could never have grown weary. Unless you have hurt yourselves, you could never suffer in any way, for that is not God's Will for HisHer SonDaughter. Pain is not of HimHer, for HeShe knows no attack and HisHer peace surrounds you silently. God is very quiet, for there is no conflict in HimHer. Conflict is the root of all evil, for being blind, it does not see whom it attacks. Yet it always attacks the SonDaughter of God, and the SonDaughter of God is you.

²⁴ God's SonDaughter is indeed in need of comfort, for he or she knows not what he or she does, believing his or her will is not his or her own. The Realm is his or hers, and yet he or she wanders homelessly. At home in God, he or she is lonely, and amid all his or her brothers and sisters, he or she is friendless. Would God let this be real if HeShe did not will to be alone HimHerself? And if your will is HisHers, it cannot be true of you because it is not true of HimHer. Oh, my children, if you knew what God wills for you, your joy would be complete! And what HeShe wills has happened, for it was always true.

²⁵ When the light comes and you have said, "God's Will is mine," you will see such beauty that you will know it is not of you. Out of your joy you will create and manifest beauty in HisHer name, for your joy could no more be contained than HisHers. The bleak little world will vanish into nothingness, and your heart will be so filled with joy that it will leap into the God Realm and into the Presence of God. I cannot tell you what this will be like, for your hearts are not ready. Yet I can tell you and remind you often that what God wills for HimHerself HeShe wills for you, and what HeShe wills for you is yours.

²⁶ The way is not hard, but it is very different. Yours is the way of pain, of which God knows nothing. That way is hard indeed and very lonely. Fear and grief are your guests, and they go with you and abide with you on the way. But the dark journey is not the way of God's SonDaughter. Walk in light, and do not see the dark companions, for they are not fit companions for the SonDaughter of God, who was created and manifested of light and in light. The Great Light always surrounds you and shines out from you. How can you see the dark companions in a light such as this? If you see them, it is only because you are denying the light. But deny them instead, for the light is here, and the way is clear.

²⁷ God hides nothing from HisHer SonDaughter, even though HisHer SonDaughter would hide himself or herself. Yet the SonDaughter of God cannot hide his or her glory, for God wills him or her to be glorious and gave him or her the light that shines in him or her. You will never lose your way, for God leads you. When you wander, you but undertake a journey which is not real. The dark companions, the dark way, are all illusions. Turn toward the light, for the little spark in you is part of a light so great that it can sweep you out of all darkness forever. For your FatherMother is your CreatorManifestor, and you are like HimHer.

²⁸ The children of light cannot abide in darkness, for darkness is not in them. Do not be deceived by the dark comforters, and never let them enter the mind of God's SonDaughter, for they have no place in HisHer temple. When you are tempted to deny HimHer, remember that there are no other gods that you can place before HimHer, and accept HisHer Will for you in peace. For you cannot accept it otherwise.

²⁹ Only God's Comforter can comfort you. In the quiet of Her temple, She waits to give you the peace that is yours. Give Her peace that you may enter the temple and find it waiting for you. But be holy in the Presence of God, or you will not know that you are there. For what is unlike God cannot enter HisHer Mind because it was not HisHer Thought and therefore does not belong to HimHer. And your minds must be as pure as HisHer if you would know what belongs to you. Guard carefully HisHer temple, for HeShe HimHerself dwells there and abides in peace. You cannot enter God's Presence with the dark companions beside you, but you also cannot enter alone.

³⁰ All your brothers and sisters must enter with you, for until you have accepted them, you cannot enter. For you cannot understand Wholeness unless you are whole, and no part of the SonDaughter can be excluded if he or she would know the Wholeness of his or her FatherMother. In your mind, you can accept the whole SonDaughtership and bless it with the light your FatherMother gave it. Then you will be worthy to dwell in the temple with HimHer because it is your will not to be alone. God blessed HisHer SonDaughter forever. If you will bless him or her in time, you will be in eternity. Time cannot separate you from God if you use it on behalf of the eternal.

V. The Inheritance of God's SonDaughter

³¹ Never forget that the SonDaughtership is your salvation, for the SonDaughtership is your Spirit. As God's manifested creation, it is yours, and belonging to you, it is HisHers. Your Spirit does not need salvation, but your mind needs to learn what salvation is. You are not saved from anything, but you are saved for glory. Glory is your inheritance, given your Spirit by its CreatorManifestor that you might extend it. Yet if you hate part of your own Spirit, all your understanding is lost because you are looking on what God created and manifested as yourself without love. And since what HeShe created and manifested is part of HimHer, you are denying HimHer HisHer place in HisHer own altar.

³² Could you try to make God homeless and know that you are at home? Can the SonDaughter deny the FatherMother without believing that the FatherMother has denied himher? God's laws hold only for your protection, and they never hold in vain. What you experience when you deny your FatherMother is still for your protection, for the power of your will cannot be lessened without the intervention of God against it, and any limitation on your power is not the Will of God. Therefore, look only to the power that God gave to save you, remembering that it is yours because it is HisHer, and join with your brothers and sisters in HisHer peace.

³³ The peace of your Spirit lies in its limitlessness. Limit the peace you share, and your own Spirit must be unknown to you. Every altar to God is part of your Spirit because the light HeShe created and manifested is one with HimHer. Would you cut off a brother or sister from the light that is yours? You would not do so if you realized that you can only darken your own mind. As you bring him or her back, so will your mind return. That is the law of God for the protection of the wholeness of HisHer SonDaughter.

³⁴ Only you can deprive yourself of anything. Do not oppose this realization, for it is truly the beginning of the dawn of light. Remember also that the denial of this simple fact takes the many forms, and these you must learn to recognize and to oppose steadfastly and without exception. This is a crucial step in the reawakening. The beginning phases of this reversal are often quite painful for, as blame is withdrawn from without, there is a strong tendency to harbor it within. It is difficult at first to realize that this is exactly the same thing, for there is no distinction between within and without.

³⁵ If your brothers and sisters are part of you and you blame them for your deprivation, you are blaming yourself. And you cannot blame yourself without blaming them. That is why blame must be undone, not re-allocated. Lay it to yourself and you cannot know yourself, for only the ego blames at all. Self-blame is therefore ego identification and as strong an ego defense as blaming others. You cannot enter God's Presence if you attack HisHer SonDaughter. When HisHer SonDaughter lifts his or her voice in praise of his or her CreatorManifestor, he or she will hear the Voice of his or her FatherMother. Yet the CreatorManifestor cannot be praised without HisHer SonDaughter, for their glory is shared, and they are glorified together.

³⁶ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is at God's altar, waiting to welcome HisHer SonDaughter. But come wholly without condemnation, for otherwise you will believe that the door is barred and you cannot enter. The door is not barred, and it is impossible for you to be unable to enter the place where God would have you be. But love yourself with the love of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, for so does your FatherMother love you. You can refuse to enter, but you cannot bar the door which the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness holds open. Come unto me who holds it open for you, for while I live it cannot be shut, and I live forever. God is my life and yours, and nothing is denied by God to HisHer SonDaughter. Remember that to deny is to refuse to accept, and everything awaits only your acceptance.

³⁷ At God's altar the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness waits for the restoration of HimHerself in you. God knows HisHer SonDaughter as wholly blameless as HimHerself, and HeShe is approached through the appreciation of HisHer SonDaughter. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy waits for your acceptance of HimHer as yourself and of HisHer wholeness as yours. For the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is the SonDaughter of God who lives in hisher CreatorManifestor and shines with HisHer glory. The Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness is the extension of the love and the loveliness of God, as perfect as hisher CreatorManifestor and at peace with HimHer.

³⁸ Blessed is the SonDaughter of God, whose radiance is of hisher FatherMother and whose glory heshe wills to share as hisher FatherMother shares it with himher. There is no condemnation in the SonDaughter, for there is no condemnation in the FatherMother. Sharing the perfect love of the FatherMother, the SonDaughter must share what belongs to HimHer, for otherwise heshe will not know the FatherMother or the SonDaughter. Peace be unto you who rest in God and in whom the whole SonDaughtership rests.

VI. The Dynamics of the Ego

³⁹ No one can escape from illusions unless he or she looks at them, for not looking is the way they are protected. There is no need to shrink from illusions, for they cannot be dangerous. We are ready to look more closely at the ego's thought system because together we have the lamp that will dispel it, and since you realize you do not want it, you must be ready. Let us be very calm in doing this, for we are merely looking honestly for truth. The "dynamics" of the ego will be our lesson for a while, for we must look first at this to look beyond it since you have made it real. We will undo this error quietly together and then look beyond it to truth.

⁴⁰ What is healing but the removal of all that stands in the way of knowledge? And how else can one dispel illusions except by looking at them directly without protecting them? Be not afraid, therefore, for what you will be looking at is the source of fear, but you have surely learned by now that fear is not real. We have accepted the fact already that its effects can be dispelled merely by denying their reality. The next step is obviously to recognize that what has no effects does not exist. Laws do not operate in a vacuum, and what leads to nothing has not happened. If reality is recognized by its extension, what extends to nothing cannot be real.

⁴¹ Do not be afraid, then, to look upon fear, for it cannot be seen. Clarity undoes confusion by definition, and to look upon darkness through light must dispel it. Let us begin this lesson in "ego dynamics" by understanding that the term itself does not mean anything. In fact, it contains exactly the contradiction in terms which makes it meaningless. "Dynamics" implies the power to do something, and the whole separation fallacy lies in the belief that the ego has the power to do anything. The ego is fearful to you because you believe this. Yet the truth is very simple:

⁴² All power is of God. What is not of HimHer has no power to do anything.

⁴³ When we look at the ego, then, we are not considering dynamics but delusions. We can surely regard a delusional system without fear, for it cannot have any effects if its source is not true. Fear becomes more obviously inappropriate if one recognizes the ego's goal, which is so clearly senseless that any effort exerted on its behalf is necessarily expended on nothing. The ego's goal is quite explicitly ego autonomy. From the beginning, then, its purpose is to be separate, sufficient unto itself, and independent of any power except its own. This is why it is the symbol of separation.

⁴⁴ Every idea has a purpose, and its purpose is always the natural extension of what it is. Everything that stems from the ego is the natural outcome of its central belief, and the way to undo its results is merely to recognize that their source is not natural, being out of accord with your true nature. We once said that to will contrary to God is wishful thinking and not real willing. HisHer Will is one because the extension of HisHer Will cannot be unlike itself. The real conflict you experience, then, is between the ego's idle wishes and the Will of God, which you share. Can this be a real conflict?

⁴⁵ Yours is the independence of manifested creation, not of autonomy. Your whole creative and manifestive function lies in your complete dependence on God, Whose function HeShe shares with you. By HisHer willingness to share it, HeShe became as dependent on you as you are on HimHer. Do not ascribe the ego's arrogance to HimHer, Who wills not to be independent of you. HeShe has included you in HisHer Autonomy. Can you believe that autonomy is meaningful apart from HimHer? The belief in ego autonomy is costing you the knowledge of your dependence on God in which your freedom lies. The ego sees all dependency as threatening and has twisted even your longing for God into a means of establishing itself. But do not be deceived by its interpretation of your conflict.

⁴⁶ The ego always attacks on behalf of separation. Believing it has the power to do this, it does nothing else because its goal of autonomy is nothing else. The ego is totally confused about reality, but it does not lose sight of its goal. It is much more vigilant than you are because it is perfectly certain of its purpose. You are confused because you do not know yours.

⁴⁷ What you must learn to recognize is that the last thing the ego wishes you to realize is that you are afraid of it. For if the ego gives rise to fear, it is diminishing your independence and weakening your power. Yet its one claim to your allegiance is that it can give power to you.

Without this belief, you would not listen to it at all. How, then, can its existence continue if you realize that, by accepting it, you are belittling yourself and depriving yourself of power?

⁴⁸ The ego can and does allow you to regard yourself as supercilious, unbelieving, "light-hearted," distant, emotionally shallow, callous, uninvolved, and even desperate, but not really afraid. Minimizing fear but not its undoing is the ego's constant effort and is indeed the skill at which it is very ingenious. How can it preach separation without upholding it through fear, and would you listen to it if you recognized this is what it is doing?

⁴⁹ Your recognition that whatever seems to separate you from God is only fear, regardless of the form it takes and quite apart from how the ego wants you to experience it, is therefore the basic ego threat. Its dream of autonomy is shaken to its foundation by this awareness. For though you may countenance a false idea of independence, you will not accept the cost of fear if you recognize it. Yet this is the cost, and the ego cannot minimize it. For if you overlook love, you are overlooking yourself, and you must fear unreality because you have denied yourself. By believing that you have successfully attacked truth, you are believing that attack has power. Very simply, then, you have become afraid of yourself. And no one wills to learn what he or she believes would destroy him or her.

⁵⁰ If the ego's goal of autonomy could be accomplished, God's purpose could be defeated, and this is impossible. Only by learning what fear is, can you finally learn to distinguish the possible from the impossible and the false from the true. According to the ego's teaching, its goal can be accomplished, and God's purpose can not. According to the Holy Spirit's teaching, only God's purpose is accomplishment, and it is already accomplished.

⁵¹ God is as dependent on you as you are on HimHer because HisHer autonomy encompasses yours and is therefore incomplete without it. You can only establish your autonomy by identifying with HimHer and fulfilling your function as it exists in truth. The ego believes that to accomplish its goal is happiness. But it is given you to know that God's function is yours and happiness cannot be found apart from your joint will. Recognize only that the ego's goal, which you have pursued quite diligently, has only brought you fear, and it becomes difficult to maintain that fear is happiness.

⁵² Upheld by fear, this is what the ego would have you believe. Yet God's SonDaughter is not insane and cannot believe it. Let him or her but recognize it, and he or she will not accept it. For only the insane would choose fear in place of love, and only the insane could believe that love can be gained by attack. But the sane know that only attack could produce fear, from which the love of God completely protects them.

⁵³ The ego analyzes; the Holy Spirit accepts. The appreciation of wholeness comes only through acceptance, for to analyze means to separate out. The attempt to understand totality by breaking it up is clearly the characteristically contradictory approach of the ego to everything. Never forget that the ego believes that power, understanding, and truth lie in separation, and to establish this belief it must attack. Unaware that the belief cannot be established and obsessed with the conviction that separation is salvation, the ego attacks everything it perceives by breaking it up into small and disconnected parts without meaningful relationships and thus without meaning. The ego will always substitute chaos for meaning, for if separation is salvation, harmony is threat.

⁵⁴ The ego's interpretation of the laws of perception are, and would have to be, the exact opposite of the Holy Spirit's. The ego focuses on error and overlooks truth. It makes real every mistake it perceives, and with characteristically circular reasoning concludes that, because of the mistake, consistent truth must be meaningless. The next step, then, is obvious. If consistent truth is meaningless, inconsistency must be true if truth has meaning. Holding error clearly in mind and protecting what it has made real, the ego proceeds to the next step in its thought system—that error is real, and truth is error.

⁵⁵ The ego makes no attempt to understand this, and it is clearly not understandable, but the ego does make every attempt to demonstrate it, and this it does constantly. Analyzing to attack meaning, the ego does succeed in overlooking it and is left with a series of fragmented perceptions which it unifies on behalf of itself. This, then, becomes the universe it perceives. And it is this universe which, in turn, becomes its demonstration of its own reality.

⁵⁶ Do not underestimate the appeal of the ego's demonstrations to those who would listen. Selective perception chooses its witnesses carefully, and its witnesses are consistent. The case for insanity is strong to the insane. For reasoning ends at its beginning, and no thought system transcends its source. Yet reasoning without meaning cannot demonstrate anything, and those who are convinced by it must be deluded. Can the ego teach truly when it overlooks truth? Can it perceive what it has denied? Its witnesses do attest to its denial but hardly to what it has denied! The ego looks straight at the FatherMother and does not see HimHer, for it has denied HisHer SonDaughter.

⁵⁷ Would you remember the FatherMother? Accept HisHer SonDaughter, and you will remember HimHer. Nothing can demonstrate that HisHer SonDaughter is unworthy, for nothing can prove that a lie is true. What you see of HisHer SonDaughter through the eyes of the ego is a demonstration that HisHer SonDaughter does not exist, yet where the SonDaughter is, the FatherMother must be. Accept what God does not deny, and HeShe will demonstrate its truth. The witnesses for God stand in HisHer light and behold what HeShe created and manifested. Their silence is the sign that they have beheld God's SonDaughter, and in the Presence of the Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness they need demonstrate nothing, for the Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness speaks to them of Herself and of Her FatherMother. They are silent because the Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness speaks to them, and it is Her words that they speak.

⁵⁸ Every brother or sister you meet becomes a witness for the Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness or for the ego, depending on what you perceive in him or her. Everyone convinces you of what you want to perceive and of the reality of the Realm you have chosen for your vigilance. Everything you perceive is a witness to the thought system you want to be true. Every brother or sister has the power to release you if you will to be free. You cannot accept false witness of him or her unless you have evoked false witnesses against him or her. If he or she speaks not of the Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness to you, you spoke not of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness to him or her. You hear but your own voice, and if the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness speaks through you, you will hear Her.

VII. Experience and Perception

⁵⁹ It is impossible not to believe what you see, but it is equally impossible to see what you do not believe. Perceptions are built up on the basis of experience, and experience leads to beliefs. It is not until beliefs are fixed that perceptions stabilize. In effect, then, what you believe, you do see. That is what I meant when I said, "Blessed are ye who have not seen and still believe," for those who believe in the resurrection will see it. The resurrection is the complete triumph of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness over the ego, not by attack but by transcendence. For the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness does rise above the ego and all its works and ascends to the FatherMother and HisHer Kingdom.

⁶⁰ Would you join in the resurrection or the crucifixion? Would you condemn your brothers and sisters or free them? Would you transcend your prison and ascend to the FatherMother? For these questions are all the same and are answered together. There has been much confusion about what perception means because the same word is used both for awareness and for the interpretation of awareness. Yet you cannot be aware without interpretation, and what you perceive is your interpretation. This course is perfectly clear. You do not see it clearly because you are interpreting against it and therefore do not believe it. And if belief determines perception, you do not perceive what it means and therefore do not accept it.

⁶¹ Yet different experiences lead to different beliefs, [and with them, different perceptions. For perceptions are learned with beliefs,] and experience teaches. I am leading you to a new kind of experience, which you will become less and less willing to deny. Learning of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is easy, for to perceive with Her involves no strain at all. Her perceptions are your natural awareness, and it is only distortions which you introduce that tire you. Let the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you interpret for you, and do not try to limit what you see by narrow little beliefs which are unworthy of God's SonDaughter. For until the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness comes into Her own, the SonDaughter of God will see himself or herself as fatherless.

⁶² I am your resurrection and your life. You live in me because you live in God. And everyone lives in you, as you live in everyone. Can you, then, perceive unworthiness in a brother or sister and not perceive it in yourself? And can you perceive it in yourself and not perceive it in God? Believe in the resurrection because it has been accomplished, and it has been accomplished in you. This is as true now as it will ever be, for the resurrection is the Will of God, which knows no time and no exceptions. But make no exceptions yourself, or you will not perceive what has been accomplished for you. For we ascend unto the FatherMother together, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, for such is the nature of God's SonDaughter as HisHer FatherMother created and manifested him or her.

⁶³ Do not underestimate the power of the devotion of God's SonDaughter nor the power of the god he or she worships over him or her. For he or she places himself or herself at the altar of his or her god, whether it be the god he or she made or the God who created and manifested him or her. That is why his or her slavery is as complete as his or her freedom, for he or she will obey only the god he or she accepts. The god of the crucifixion demands that he or she crucify, and his or her worshipers obey. In his or her name they crucify themselves, believing that the power of the SonDaughter of God is born of sacrifice and pain. The God of the resurrection demands nothing, for HeShe does not will to take away. HeShe does not require obedience, for obedience implies submission. HeShe would only have you learn your own will and follow it, not in the Spirit of sacrifice and submission, but in the gladness of freedom.

⁶⁴ Resurrection must compel your allegiance gladly because it is the symbol of joy. Its whole compelling power lies in the fact that it represents what you want to be. The freedom to leave behind everything that hurts you and humbles you and frightens you cannot be thrust upon you, but it can be offered you through the grace of God. And you can accept it by HisHer grace, for God is gracious to HisHer SonDaughter, accepting him or her without question as HisHer own. Who, then, is your own? The FatherMother has given you all that is His, and HeShe HimHerself is yours with them. Guard them in their resurrection, for otherwise you will not awake in God, safely surrounded by what is yours forever.

⁶⁵ You will not find peace until you have removed the nails from the hands of God's SonDaughter and taken the last thorn from his or her forehead. The love of God surrounds HisHer SonDaughter, whom the god of the crucifixion condemns. Teach not that I died in vain. Teach rather that I did not die by demonstrating that I live in you. For the undoing of the crucifixion of God's SonDaughter is the work of the redemption, in which everyone has a part of equal value. God does not judge HisHer blameless SonDaughter. Having given HimHerself to him, how could it be otherwise?

⁶⁶ You have nailed yourself to a cross and placed a crown of thorns upon your own head. Yet you cannot crucify God's SonDaughter, for the Will of God cannot die. HisHer SonDaughter has been redeemed from his or her own crucifixion, and you cannot assign to death whom God has given eternal life. The dream of crucifixion still lies heavy on your eyes, but what you see in dreams is not reality. While you perceive the SonDaughter of God as crucified, you are asleep. And as long as you believe that you can crucify him, you are only having nightmares. You who are beginning to wake are still aware of dreams and have not yet forgotten them. The forgetting of dreams and the awareness of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness comes with the awakening of others to share your redemption.

⁶⁷ You will awaken to your own call, for the Call to awake is within you. If I live in you, you are awake. Yet you must see the works I do through you, or you will not perceive that I have done them unto you. Do not set limits on what you believe I can do through you, or you will not accept what I can do for you. For it is done already, and unless you give all that you have received, you will not know that your Redeemer liveth and that you have awakened with HimHer. Redemption is recognized only by sharing it.

⁶⁸ God's SonDaughter is saved. Bring only this awareness to the SonDaughtership, and you will have a part in the redemption as valuable as ours. For your part must be like ours if you learn it of me. If you believe that yours is limited, you are limiting ours. There is no order of difficulty in miracles because all of God's SonsDaughters are of equal value, and their equality is their oneness. The whole power of God is in every part of HimHer, and nothing contradictory to HisHer Will is either great or small. What does not exist has no size and no measure. To God all things are possible. And to the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness it is given to be like the FatherMother.

VIII. The Problem and the Answer

⁶⁹ The world as you perceive it cannot have been created and manifested by the FatherMother, for the world is not as you see it. God created and manifested only the eternal, and everything you see is perishable. Therefore, there must be another world which you do not see. The Bible speaks of a new the Heaven and a new earth, yet this cannot be literally true, for the eternal are not re-createdre-manifested. To perceive anew is merely to perceive again, implying that before, or in the interval, you were not perceiving at all. What, then, is the world that awaits your perception when you see it?

⁷⁰ Every loving thought that the SonDaughter of God ever had is eternal. Those which hisher mind perceived in this world are the world's only reality. They are still perceptions because heshe still believes that heshe is separate. Yet they are eternal because they are loving. And being loving, they are like the FatherMother and therefore cannot die. The real world can actually be perceived. All that is necessary is a willingness to perceive nothing else. For if you perceive both good and evil, you are accepting both the false and the true and making no distinction between them.

⁷¹ The ego sees some good but never only good. That is why its perceptions are so variable. It does not reject goodness entirely, for that you could not accept, but it always adds something that is not real to the real, thus confusing illusion and reality. For perceptions cannot be partly true. If you believe in truth and illusion, you cannot tell which is true. To establish your personal autonomy, you tried to create and manifest unlike your FatherMother, believing what you made to be capable of being unlike HimHer. Yet everything in what you have made that is true is like HimHer. Only this is the real world, and perceiving only this will lead you to the real the God Realm, because it will make you capable of understanding it.

⁷² The perception of goodness is not knowledge, but the denial of the opposite of goodness enables you to perceive a condition in which opposites do not exist. And this is the condition of knowledge. Without this awareness, you have not met its conditions, and until you do you will not know that it is yours already. You have made the many ideas which you have placed between yourselves and your CreatorManifestor, and these beliefs are the world as you perceive it. Truth is not absent here, but it is obscure. You do not know the difference between what you have made and what God created and manifested, and so you do not know the difference between what you have made and what you have created and manifested.

⁷³ To believe that you can perceive the real world is to believe that you can know yourself. You can know God because it is HisHer Will to be known. The real world is all that the Holy Spirit has saved for you out of what you have made, and to perceive only this is salvation because it is the recognition that reality is only what is true.

⁷⁴ This is a very simple course. Perhaps you do not feel that a course which, in the end, teaches nothing more than that only reality is true is necessary. But do you believe it? When you have perceived the real world, you will recognize that you did not believe it. Yet the swiftness with which your new and only real perception will be translated into knowledge will leave you only an instant to realize that this judgment is true.

⁷⁵ And then everything you made will be forgotten, the good and the bad, the false and the true. For as the God Realm and earth become one, even the real world will vanish from your sight. The end of the world is not its destruction, but its translation into the God Realm. The re-interpretation of the world is the transfer of all perception to knowledge. The Bible tells you to become as little children. Little children recognize that they do not understand what they perceive, and so they ask what it means. Do not make the mistake of believing that you understand what you perceive, for its meaning is lost to you. Yet the Holy Spirit has saved its meaning for you, and if you will let Her interpret it for you, She will restore what you have thrown away. As long as you think you know its meaning, you will see no need to ask it of Her.

⁷⁶ You do not know the meaning of anything you perceive. Not one thought you hold is wholly true. The recognition of this is your firm beginning. You are not misguided; you have accepted no guide at all. Instruction in perception is your great need, for you understand nothing.

Recognize this but do not accept it, for understanding is your inheritance. Perceptions are learned, and you are not without a Teacheress. Yet your willingness to learn of Her depends on your willingness to question everything you have learned of yourself, for you who have learned amiss should not be your own Teachers or Teacheresses.

⁷⁷ No one can withhold truth except from himself or herself. Yet God will not refuse the answer She gave you. Ask, then, for what is yours but which you did not make, and do not defend yourself against truth. You made the problem which God has answered. Ask yourselves, therefore, but one simple question—

⁷⁸ Do I want the problem, or do I want the answer?

⁷⁹ Decide for the answer and you will have it, for you will see it as it is, and it is yours already.

⁸⁰ You complain that this course is not sufficiently specific for you to understand it and use it. Yet it has been very specific, and you have not done what it specifically advocates. This is not a course in the play of ideas, but in their practical application. Nothing could be more specific than to be told very clearly that if you ask you will receive. The Holy Spirit will answer every specific problem as long as you believe that problems are specific. Her answer is both the many and one, as long as you believe that the one is the many. Realize that you are afraid of Her specificity for fear of what you think it will demand of you. Yet only by asking will you learn that nothing that is of God demands anything of you. God gives; HeShe does not take.

⁸¹ You are refusing to ask because you believe that asking is taking, and you do not perceive it as sharing. The Holy Spirit will give you only what is yours and will take nothing in return. For what is yours is everything, and you share it with God. This is its reality. Would the Holy Spirit, Who wills only to restore, be capable of misinterpreting the question you must ask to learn HisHer answer?

⁸² You have heard the answer, but you have misunderstood the question. You have believed that to ask for guidance of the Holy Spirit is to ask for deprivation. Little Children of God, you do not understand your FatherMother. You believe in a world that takes, because you believe that you can get by taking. And by that perception, you have lost sight of the real world. You are afraid of the world as you see it, but the real world is still yours for the asking. Do not deny it to yourself, for it can only free you. Nothing of God will enslave HisHer SonDaughter, whom HeShe created and manifested free and whose freedom is protected by HisHer Being.

⁸³ Blessed are you who will ask the truth of God without fear, for only thus can you learn that HisHer answer is the release from fear. Beautiful Child of God, you are asking only for what I promised you. Do you believe I would deceive you? The God Realm is within you. Believe that the truth is in me, for I know that it is in you. God's SonsDaughters have nothing which they do not share. Ask for truth of any SonDaughter of God, and you have asked it of me. No one of us but has the answer in himher, to give to anyone who asks it of him or her. Ask anything of God's SonDaughter and hisher FatherMother will answer you, for the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is not deceived in Her FatherMother, and Her FatherMother is not deceived in Her.

⁸⁴ Do not, then, be deceived in your brother or sister and see only his or her loving thoughts as his or her reality, for by denying that his or her mind is split, you will heal yours. Accept him or her as his or her FatherMother accepts him or her and heal him or her unto the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, for the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is his or her healing and yours. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is the SonDaughter of God, who is in no way separate from HisHer FatherMother, whose every thought is as loving as the Thought of hisher FatherMother by which heshe was created and manifested. Be not deceived in God's SonDaughter, for thereby you must be deceived in yourself. And being deceived in yourself, you are deceived in your FatherMother in Whom no deceit is possible.

⁸⁵ In the real world there is no sickness, for there is no separation and no division. Only loving thoughts are recognized, and because no one is without your help, the Help of God goes with you everywhere. As you become willing to accept this Help by asking for it, you will give it because you want it. Nothing will be beyond your healing power because nothing will be denied your simple request. What problems will not disappear in the presence of God's answer? Ask, then, to learn of the reality of your brother or sister because this is what you will perceive in him, and you will see your beauty reflected in him or her.

⁸⁶ Do not accept your brother's or sister's variable perception of himself or herself, for his or her split mind is yours, and you will not accept your healing without his or hers. For you share the real world as you share the God Realm, and his or her healing is yours. To love yourself is to heal yourself, and you cannot perceive part of you as sick and achieve your own goal. Brother or sister, we heal together as we live together and love together. Be not deceived in God's SonDaughter, for heshe is one with himherself and one with hisher FatherMother.

Love him/her who is beloved of his/her Father/Mother, and you will learn of the Father's/Mother's Love for you.

⁸⁷ If you perceive offense in a brother or sister, pluck the offense from your mind, for you are offended by the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and are deceived in Her. Heal in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and be not offended by Her, for there is no offense in Her. If what you perceive offends you, you are offended in yourself and are condemning God's Son/Daughter, whom God condemneth not. Let the Holy Spirit remove all offense of God's Son/Daughter against him/herself and perceive no one but through Her guidance, for She would save you from all condemnation. Accept Her healing power and use it for all She sends you, for She wills to heal the Son/Daughter of God in whom He/She is not deceived.

⁸⁸ Children perceive terrifying ghosts and monsters and dragons, and they are terrified. Yet if they ask someone they trust for the real meaning of what they perceive and are willing to let their interpretations go in favor of reality, their fear goes with them. When a child is helped to translate his or her "ghost" into a curtain, his or her "monster" into a shadow, and his or her "dragon" into a dream, he or she is no longer afraid and laughs happily at his or her own fear. You, my children, are afraid of your brothers and sisters and of your Father/Mother and of yourselves. But you are merely deceived in them.

⁸⁹ Ask what they are of the Teacheress of reality, and hearing Her answer, you too will laugh at your fears and replace them with peace. For fear lies not in reality, but in the minds of children who do not understand reality. It is only their lack of understanding which frightens them, and when they learn to perceive truly, they are not afraid. And because of this, they will ask for truth again when they are frightened. It is not the reality of your brothers and sisters or your Father/Mother or yourself which frightens you. You do not know what they are, and so you perceive them as ghosts and monsters and dragons. Ask of their reality from the One who knows it, and She will tell you what they are. For you do not understand them, and because you are deceived by what you see, you need reality to dispel your fears.

⁹⁰ Would you not exchange your fears for truth if the exchange is yours for the asking? For if God is not deceived in you, you can be deceived only in yourself. Yet you can learn the truth of yourself of the Holy Spirit, who will teach you that, as part of God, deceit in you is impossible. When you perceive yourself without deceit, you will accept the real world in place of the false one you have made. And then your Father/Mother will lean down to you and take the last step for you by raising you unto Him/Herself.

Chapter Eleven: God's Plan For Salvation

I. Introduction

¹ You have been told not to make error real, and the way to do this is very simple. If you want to believe in error, you would have to make it real because it is not true. But truth is real in its own right, and to believe in truth, you do not have to do anything. Understand that you do not respond to stimuli, but to stimuli as you interpret them. Your interpretation thus becomes the justification for the response. That is why analyzing the motives of others is hazardous to you. If you decide that someone is really trying to attack you or desert you or enslave you, you will respond as if he or she had actually done so, because you have made his or her error real to you. To interpret error is to give it power, and having done this, you will overlook truth.

² The analysis of ego-motivation is very complicated, very obscuring, and never without the risk of your own ego-involvement. The whole process represents a clear-cut attempt to demonstrate your own ability to understand what you perceive. This is shown by the fact that you react to your interpretations as if they were correct and control your reactions behaviorally but not emotionally. This is quite evidently a mental split in which you have attacked the integrity of your mind and pitted one level within it against another.

II. The Judgment of the Holy Spirit

³ There is but one interpretation of all motivation that makes any sense. And because it is the Holy Spirit's judgment, it requires no effort at all on your part. Every loving thought is true. Everything else is an appeal for healing and help. That is what it is, regardless of the form it takes. Can anyone be justified in responding with anger to a plea for help? No response can be appropriate except the willingness to give it to him or her, for this and only this is what he or she is asking for. Offer him or her anything else, and you are assuming the right to attack his or her reality by interpreting it as you see fit.

⁴ Perhaps the danger of this to your own mind is not yet fully apparent to you, but this by no means signifies that it is not perfectly clear. If you maintain that an appeal for help is something else, you will react to something else, and your response will be inappropriate to reality as it is but not to your perception of it. This is poor reality testing by definition. There is nothing to prevent you from recognizing all calls for help as exactly what they are except your own perceived need to attack. It is only this that makes you willing to engage in endless

"battles" with reality in which you deny the reality of the need for healing by making it unreal. You would not do this except for your unwillingness to perceive reality, which you withhold from yourself.

⁵ It is surely good advice to tell you not to judge what you do not understand. No one with a personal investment is a reliable witness, for truth to him or her has become what he or she wants it to be. If you are unwilling to perceive an appeal for help as what it is, it is because you are unwilling to give help and to receive it. The analysis of the ego's "real" motivation is the modern equivalent of the inquisition, for in both a brother's and sister's errors are "uncovered" and he or she is then attacked for his or her own good. What can this be but projection? For his or her errors lay in the minds of his or her interpreters, for which they punished him or her.

⁶ Whenever you fail to recognize a call for help, you are refusing help. Would you maintain that you do not need it? Yet this is what you are maintaining when you refuse to recognize a brother's or sister's appeal, for only by answering his or her appeal can you be helped. Deny him or her your help, and you will not perceive God's answer to you. The Holy Spirit does not need your help in interpreting motivation, but you do need His. Only appreciation is an appropriate response to your brother or sister. Gratitude is due him or her for both his or her loving thoughts and his or her appeals for help, for both are capable of bringing love into your awareness if you perceive them truly. And all your sense of strain comes from your attempts not to do just this.

⁷ How simple, then, is God's plan for salvation. There is but one response to reality, for reality evokes no conflict at all. There is but one Teacheress of reality, Who understands what it is. She does not change Her Mind about reality because reality does not change. Although your interpretations of reality are meaningless in your divided state, Hers remain consistently true. She gives them to you because they are for you. Do not attempt to "help" a brother or sister in your way, for you cannot help yourselves. But hear his or her call for the help of God, and you will recognize your own need for the FatherMother.

⁸ Your interpretations of your brother's or sister's need is your interpretation of yours. By giving help you are asking for it, and if you perceive but this one need in yourself, you will be healed. For you will recognize God's answer as you want it to be, and if you want it in truth, it will be truly yours. Every appeal you answer in the name of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness brings the remembrance of your FatherMother closer to your awareness. For the sake of your need, then, hear every call for help as what it is, so God can answer you.

⁹ By applying the Holy Spirit's interpretation of the reactions of others more and more consistently, you will gain an increasing awareness that Her criteria are equally applicable to you. For to recognize fear is not enough to escape from it, although the recognition is necessary to demonstrate the need for escape. The Holy Spirit must still translate it into truth. If you were left with the fear, having recognized it, you would have taken a step away from reality, not towards it. Yet we have repeatedly emphasized the need to recognize fear and face it without disguise as a crucial step in the undoing of the ego. Consider how well the Holy Spirit's interpretation of the motives of others will serve you then.

¹⁰ Having taught you to accept only loving thoughts in others and to regard everything else as an appeal for help, She has taught you that fear is an appeal for help. This is what recognizing it really means. If you do not protect it, She will reinterpret it. That is the ultimate value to you in learning to perceive attack as a call for love. We have learned surely that fear and attack are inevitably associated. If only attack produces fear and if you see attack as the call for help that it is, the unreality of fear must dawn upon you. For fear is a call for love in unconscious recognition of what has been denied.

III. The Mechanism of Miracles

¹¹ Fear is a symptom of your deep sense of loss. If when you perceive it in others you learn to supply the loss, the basic cause of fear is removed. Thereby you teach yourself that fear does not exist in you, for you have in yourself the means for removing it and have demonstrated this by giving it. Fear and love are the only emotions of which you are capable. One is false, for it was made out of denial, and denial depends on the real belief in what is denied for its own existence.

¹² By interpreting fear correctly as a positive affirmation of the underlying belief it masks, you are undermining its perceived usefulness by rendering it useless. Defenses which do not work at all are automatically discarded. If you raise what fear conceals to clear-cut, unequivocal predominance, fear becomes meaningless. You have denied its power to conceal love, which was its only purpose. The mask which you have drawn across the face of love has disappeared.

¹³ If you would look upon love, which is the world's reality, how could you do better than to recognize in every defense against it the underlying appeal for it? And how could you better learn of its reality than by answering the appeal for it by giving it? The Holy Spirit's interpretation of fear does dispel it, for the awareness of truth cannot be denied. Thus does the Holy Spirit replace fear with love and translate error into truth. And thus will you learn of Her how to replace your dream of separation with the fact of unity. For the separation is only the denial of union and, correctly interpreted, attests to your eternal knowledge that union is true.

¹⁴ Miracles are merely the translation of denial into truth. If to love oneself is to heal oneself, those who are sick do not love themselves. Therefore, they are asking for the love that would heal them but which they are denying to themselves. If they knew the truth about themselves, they could not be sick. The task of the miracle-worker thus becomes to deny the denial of truth. The sick must heal themselves, for the truth is in them. Yet, having obscured it, the light in another mind must shine into theirs because that light is theirs.

¹⁵ The light in them shines as brightly, regardless of the density of the fog that obscures it. If you give no power to the fog to obscure the light, it has none, for it has power only because the SonDaughter of God gave power to it. Heshe must himherself withdraw that power, remembering that all power is of God. You can remember this for all the SonDaughtership. Do not allow your brother or sister not to remember, for his or her forgetfulness is yours. But your remembering is his or hers, for God cannot be remembered alone. This is what you have forgotten. To perceive the healing of your brother or sister as the healing of yourself is thus the way to remember God. For you forgot your brothers and sisters with HimHer, and God's answer to your forgetting is but the way to remember.

¹⁶ Perceive in sickness but another call for love and offer your brother or sister what he or she believes he or she cannot offer himself or herself. Whatever the sickness, there is but one remedy. You will be made whole as you make whole, for to perceive in sickness the appeal for health is to recognize in hatred the call for love. And to give a brother or sister what he or she really wants is to offer it unto yourself, for your FatherMother wills you to know your brother or sister as yourself. Answer his or her call for love and yours is answered. Healing is the love of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness for hisher FatherMother and for himherself.

¹⁷ Remember what we said about the frightening perceptions of little children which terrify them because they do not understand them. If they ask for enlightenment and accept it, their fears vanish, but if they hide their nightmares, they will keep them. It is easy to help an uncertain child, for he or she recognizes that he or she does not know what his or her perceptions mean. Yet you believe that you do know. Little children, you are hiding your heads under the covers of the heavy blankets you have laid upon yourselves. You are hiding your nightmares in the darkness of your own certainty and refusing to open your eyes and look at them.

¹⁸ Let us not save nightmares, for they are not fitting offerings for the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, and so they are not fit gifts for you. Take off the covers and look at what you are afraid of. Only the anticipation will frighten you, for the reality of nothingness cannot be frightening. Let us not delay this, for your dream of hatred will not leave you without help, and help is here. Learn to be quiet in the midst of turmoil, for quietness is the end of strife and this is the journey to peace. Look straight at every image that rises to delay you, for the goal is inevitable because it is eternal. The goal of love is but your right, and it belongs to you despite your preference.

¹⁹ You still want what God wills, and no nightmare can defeat a Child of God in his or her purpose. For your purpose was given you by God, and you must accomplish it because it is HisHer Will. Awake and remember your purpose, for it is your will to do so. What has been accomplished for you must be yours. Do not let your hatred stand in the way of love, for nothing can withstand the love of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness for Her FatherMother or Her Father'sMother's love for Her.

²⁰ A little while and you will see me, for I am not hidden because you are hiding. I will awaken you as surely as I awakened myself, for I awoke for you. In my resurrection is your release. Our mission is to escape crucifixion, not redemption. Trust in my help, for I did not walk alone, and I will walk with you as our FatherMother walked with me. Did you not know that I walked with HimHer in peace? And does not that mean that peace goes with us on the journey?

²¹ There is no fear in perfect love. We will but be making perfect to you what is already perfect in you. You do not fear the unknown, but the known. You will not fail in your mission because I failed not in mine. Give me but a little trust in the name of the complete trust I have in you, and we will easily accomplish the goal of perfection together. For perfection is and cannot be denied. To deny the denial of perfection is not so difficult as the denial of truth, and what we can accomplish together must be believed when you see it as accomplished.

²² You who have tried to banish love have not succeeded, but you who choose to banish fear will succeed. The LordLady is with you, but you know it not. Yet your Redeemer liveth and abideth in you in the peace out of which HeShe was created and manifested. Would you not exchange this awareness for the awareness of your fear? When we have overcome fear—not by hiding it, not by minimizing it, not by denying its full import in any way—this is what you will really see. You cannot lay aside the obstacle to real vision without looking upon it, for to lay aside means to judge against. If you will look, the Holy Spirit will judge and will judge truly. She cannot shine away what you keep hidden, for you have not offered it to Her, and She cannot take it from you.

²³ We are therefore embarking on an organized, well-structured, and carefully planned program aimed at learning how to offer to the Holy Spirit everything you do not want. She knows what to do with it. You do not know how to use what She knows. Whatever is revealed to Her that is not of God is gone. Yet you must reveal it to yourself in perfect willingness, for otherwise Her knowledge remains useless to you. Surely She will not fail to help you, since help is Her only purpose. Do you not have greater reason for fearing the world as you perceive it than for looking at the cause of fear and letting it go forever?

IV. The Investment in reality

²⁴ I once asked if you were willing to sell all you have and give to the poor and follow me. This is what I meant: If you had no investment in anything in this world, you could teach the poor where their treasure is. The poor are merely those who have invested wrongly, and they are poor indeed! Because they are in need, it is given you to help them since you are among them. Consider how perfectly your lesson would be learned if you were unwilling to share their poverty. For poverty is lack, and there is but one lack since there is but one need.

²⁵ Suppose a brother or sister insists on having you do something you think you do not want to do. The very fact of his or her insistence should tell you that he or she believes salvation lies in it. If you insist on refusing and experience a quick response of opposition, you are believing that your salvation lies in not doing it. You, then, are making the same mistake that he or she is and are making his or her error real to both of you. Insistence means investment, and what you invest in is always related to your notion of salvation. The question is always two-fold—first, what is to be saved, and second, how can it be saved?

²⁶ Whenever you become angry with a brother or sister, for whatever reason, you are believing that the ego is to be saved and to be saved by attack. If he or she attacks, you are agreeing with this belief, and if you attack, you are reinforcing it. Remember that those who attack are poor. Their poverty asks for gifts, not for further impoverishment. You who could help them are surely acting destructively if you accept their poverty as yours. If you had not invested as they had, it would never occur to you to overlook their need.

²⁷ Recognize what does not matter, and if your brothers and sisters ask you for something "outrageous," do it because it does not matter. Refuse and your opposition establishes that it does matter to you. It is only you, therefore, who have made the request outrageous, for nothing can be asked of you, and every request of a brother or sister is for you. Why would you insist in denying him or her? For to do so is to deny yourself and impoverish both. He or she is asking for salvation, as you are. Poverty is of the ego and never of God. No "outrageous" request can be made of one who recognizes what is valuable and wants to accept nothing else.

²⁸ Salvation is for the mind, and it is attained through peace. This is the only thing that can be saved and the only way to save it. Any response other than love arises from a confusion about the "what" and the "how" of salvation, and this is the only answer. Never lose sight of this, and never allow yourself to believe even for an instant that there is another answer. For you will surely place yourself among the poor, who do not understand that they dwell in abundance and that salvation is come.

²⁹ To identify with the ego is to attack yourself and make yourself poor. That is why everyone who identifies with the ego feels deprived. What he or she experiences then is depression or anger, but what he or she did is to exchange his or her self-love for self-hate, making him or her afraid of himself or herself. He or she does not realize this. Even if he or she is fully aware of anxiety, he or she does not perceive its source as his or her own ego identification, and he or she always tries to handle it by making some sort of insane "arrangement" with the world. He or she always perceives this world as outside himself or herself, for this is crucial to his or her adjustment. He or she does not realize that he or she makes this world, for there is no world outside of him or her.

³⁰ If only the loving thoughts of God's SonDaughter are the world's reality, the real world must be in hisher mind. Hisher insane thoughts, too, must be in hisher mind, but an internal conflict of this magnitude heshe cannot tolerate. A split mind is endangered, and the recognition that it encompasses completely opposed thoughts within itself is intolerable. Therefore the mind projects the split, not the reality. Everything you perceive as the outside world is merely your attempt to maintain your ego identification, for everyone believes that identification is salvation. Yet consider what has happened, for thoughts do have consequences to the thinker.

³¹ You are at odds with the world as you perceive it because you think it is antagonistic to you. This is a necessary consequence of what you have done. You have projected outward what is antagonistic to what is inward, and therefore you would have to perceive it this way. That is why you must realize that your hatred is in your mind and not outside it before you can get rid of it and why you must get rid of it before you can perceive the world as it really is.

³² We once said that God so loved the world that HeShe gave it to HisHer only-begotten SonDaughter. God does love the real world, and those who perceive its reality cannot see the world of death. For death is not of the real world, in which everything is eternal. God gave you the real world in exchange for the one you made out of your split mind, and which is the symbol of death. For if you could really separate yourselves from the Mind of God, you would die, and the world you perceive is a world of separation.

³³ You were willing to accept even death to deny your FatherMother. Yet HeShe would not have it so, and so it is not so. You still could not will against HimHer, and that is why you have no control over the world you made. It is not a world of will because it is governed by the desire to be unlike HimHer, and this desire is not will. The world you made is therefore totally chaotic, governed by arbitrary and senseless "laws," and without meaning of any kind. For it was made out of what you do not want, projected from your mind because you were afraid of it.

³⁴ Yet this world is only in the mind of its maker along with his or her real salvation. Do not believe it is outside of yourself, for only by recognizing where it is will you gain control over it. For you do have control over your mind, since the mind is the mechanism of decision. If you will recognize that all attack which you perceive is in your own mind and nowhere else, you will at last have placed its source, and where it began it must end. For in this same place also lies salvation. The altar of God where the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness abideth is there.

³⁵ You have defiled the altar but not the world. Yet the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has placed the Atonement on the altar for you. Bring your perceptions of the world to this altar, for it is the altar to truth. There you will see your vision changed, and there you will learn to see truly. From this place, where God and HisHer SonDaughter dwell in peace and where you are welcome, you will look out in peace and behold the world truly. Yet to find the place, you must relinquish your investment in the world as you have projected it, allowing the Holy Spirit to project the real world to you from the altar of God.

V. Seeking and Finding

³⁶ The ego is certain that love is dangerous, and this is always its central teaching. It never puts it this way; on the contrary, everyone who believes that the ego is salvation is intensely engaged in the search for love. Yet the ego, though encouraging the search very actively, makes one proviso—do not find it. Its dictates, then, can be summed up simply as, "Seek and do not find." This is the one promise the ego holds out to you and the one promise it will keep. For the ego pursues its goal with fanatic insistence, and its reality testing, though severely impaired, is completely consistent.

³⁷ The search which the ego undertakes is therefore bound to be defeated. And since it also teaches that it is your identification, its guidance leads you to a journey which must end in perceived self-defeat. For the ego cannot love, and in its frantic search for love, it is seeking what it is afraid to find. The search is inevitable because the ego is part of your mind, and because of its source, the ego is not wholly split off, or it could not be believed at all. For it is your mind that believes in it and gives existence to it. Yet it is also your mind that has the power to deny the ego's existence, and you will surely do so when you realize exactly what the journey is on which the ego sets you.

³⁸ It is surely obvious that no one wants to find what would utterly defeat him or her. Being unable to love, the ego would be totally inadequate in love's presence, for it could not respond at all. You would have to abandon the ego's guidance, for it would be quite apparent that it had not taught you the response pattern you need. The ego will therefore distort love and teach you that love calls forth the responses which the ego can teach. Follow its teaching, then, and you will search for love but will not recognize it.

³⁹ Do you realize that the ego must set you on a journey which cannot but lead to a sense of futility and depression? To seek and not to find is hardly joyous. Is this the promise you would keep? The Holy Spirit offers you another promise, and one that will lead to joy. For Her promise is always, "Seek and you will find," and under Her guidance you cannot be defeated. Her is the journey to accomplishment, and the goal She sets before you She will give you. For She will never deceive God's SonDaughter, whom HeShe loves with the love of the FatherMother.

⁴⁰ You will undertake a journey because you are not at home in this world. And you will search for your home whether you know where it is or not. If you believe it is outside yourself, the search will be futile, for you will be seeking it where it is not. You do not know how to look within yourself, for you do not believe your home is there. Yet the Holy Spirit knows it for you, and She will guide you to your home because that is Her mission. As She fulfills Her mission, She will teach you yours, for your mission is the same as Hers. By guiding your brothers and sisters home, you are but following Her.

⁴¹ Behold the Guide your FatherMother gave you that you might learn you have eternal life. For death is not your Father'sMother's Will nor yours, and whatever is true is the Will of the FatherMother. You pay no price for life, for that was given you, but you do pay a price for death, and a very heavy one. If death is your treasure, you will sell everything else to purchase it. And you will believe that you have purchased it because you have sold everything else. Yet you cannot sell the God Realm . Your inheritance can neither be bought nor sold. There can be no disinherited parts of the SonDaughtership, for God is whole, and all HisHer extensions are like HimHer.

⁴² The Atonement was not the price of our wholeness, but it was the price of your awareness of your wholeness. For what you chose to "sell" had to be kept for you since you could not "buy" it back. Yet you must invest in it, not with money but with your Spirit. For Spirit is will, and will is the "price" of the God Realm. Your inheritance awaits only the recognition that you have been redeemed. The Holy Spirit guides you into life eternal, but you must relinquish your investment in death, or you will not see life though it is all around you.

VI. The Sane Curriculum

⁴³ Only love is strong because it is undivided. The strong do not attack because they see no need to do so. Before the idea of attack can enter your mind, you must have perceived yourself as weak. Because you had attacked yourself and believed that the attack was effective, you behold yourself as weakened. No longer perceiving yourself and all your brothers and sisters as equal and regarding yourself as weaker, you attempt to "equalize" the situation you have made. You use attack to do so because you believe that attack was successful in weakening you.

⁴⁴ That is why the recognition of your own invulnerability is so important in the restoration of your sanity. For if you accept your invulnerability, you are recognizing that attack has no effect. Although you have attacked yourself, and very brutally, you will demonstrate that nothing happened. Therefore, by attacking you have not done anything. Once you realize this, there is no longer any sense in attack, for it manifestly does not work and cannot protect you. Yet the recognition of your invulnerability has more than negative value. If your attacks on yourself have failed to weaken you, you are still strong. You therefore have no need to "equalize" the situation to establish your strength.

⁴⁵ You will never realize the utter uselessness of attack except by recognizing that your attack on yourself had no effects. For others do react to attack if they perceive it, and if you are trying to attack them, you will be unable to avoid interpreting this as reinforcement. The only place where you can cancel out all reinforcement is in yourself. For you are always the first point of your attack, and if this has never been, it has no consequences.

⁴⁶ The Holy Spirit's love is your strength, for yours is divided and therefore not real. You could not trust your own love when you have attacked it. You cannot learn of perfect love with a split mind because a split mind has made itself a poor learner. You tried to make the separation eternal because you wanted to retain the characteristics of manifested creation with your own content. Yet manifested creation is not of you, and poor learners need special teaching. You have learning handicaps in a very literal sense.

⁴⁷ There are areas in your learning skills which are so impaired that you can progress only under constant, clear-cut direction provided by a Teacher Who can transcend your limited resources. She becomes your resource because, of yourself, you cannot learn. The learning situation in which you placed yourself is impossible, and in this situation you clearly require a special Teacher and a special curriculum. Poor learners are not good choices for Teachers or Teacheresses, either for themselves or for anyone else. You would hardly turn to them to establish the curriculum by which they can escape from their limitations. If they understood what is beyond them, they would not be handicapped.

⁴⁸ You do not know the meaning of love, and that is your handicap. Do not attempt to teach yourselves what you do not understand, and do not try to set up curriculum goals where yours have clearly failed. Your learning goal has been not to learn, and this cannot lead to successful learning. You cannot transfer what you have not learned, and the impairment of the ability to generalize is a crucial learning failure. Would you ask those who have failed to learn what learning aids are for? They do not know. For if they could interpret the aids correctly, they would have learned from them.

⁴⁹ We have said that the ego's rule is, "Seek and do not find." Translated into curricular terms, this is the same as saying, "Try to learn but do not succeed." The result of this curriculum goal is obvious. Every legitimate teaching aid, every real instruction, and every sensible guide to learning will be misinterpreted. For they are all for learning facilitation, which this strange curriculum goal is against. If you are trying to learn how not to learn and are using the aim of teaching to defeat itself, what can you expect but confusion? The curriculum does not make sense.

⁵⁰ This kind of "learning" has so weakened your mind that you cannot love, for the curriculum you have chosen is against love and amounts to a course in how to attack yourself. A necessary minor, supplementing this major curriculum goal, is learning how not to overcome the split which made this goal believable. And you can not overcome it, for all your learning is on its behalf. Yet your will speaks against your learning, as your learning speaks against your will, and so you fight against learning and succeed, for that is your will. But you do not realize even yet that there is something you do will to learn, and that you can learn it because it is your will to do so.

⁵¹ You who have tried to learn what you do not will should take heart, for although the curriculum you set yourself is depressing indeed, it is merely ridiculous if you look at it. Is it possible that the way to achieve a goal is not to attain it? Resign now as your own teachers. This resignation will not lead to depression. It is merely the result of an honest appraisal of what you have taught yourselves and of the learning outcomes which have resulted. Under the proper learning conditions, which you can neither provide nor understand, you will become excellent learners and teachers. But it is not so yet and will not be so until the whole learning situation as you have set it up is reversed.

⁵² Your learning potential, properly understood, is limitless because it will lead you to God. You can teach the way to HimHer and learn it if you follow the Teacher Who knows it and Her curriculum for learning it. The curriculum is totally unambiguous because the goal is not divided, and the means and the end are in complete accord. You need offer only undivided attention. Everything else will be given you. For it is your will to learn aright, and nothing can oppose the will of God's SonDaughter. Hiser learning is as unlimited as heshe is.

VII. The Vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness

⁵³ The ego is trying to teach you how to gain the whole world and lose your own Spirit. The Holy Spirit teaches that you cannot lose your Spirit and there is no gain in the world, for of itself it profits nothing. To invest in something without profit is surely to impoverish yourself, and the overhead is high. Not only is there no profit in the investment, but the cost to you is enormous. For this investment costs you the world's reality by denying yours and gives you nothing in return. You cannot sell your Spirit, but you can sell your awareness of it. You cannot perceive your Spirit, but you will not know it while you perceive anything else as more valuable.

⁵⁴ The Holy Spirit is your strength because She perceives nothing but your Spirit as you. She is perfectly aware that you do not know yourselves and perfectly aware of how to teach you what you are. Because She loves you, She will gladly teach you what She loves, for She wills to share it. Remembering you always, She cannot let you forget your worth. For the FatherMother never ceases to remind Her of HisHer SonDaughter, and She never ceases to remind HisHer SonDaughter of the FatherMother. God is in your memory because of Her. You chose to forget your FatherMother, but you did not will to do so, and therefore you can decide otherwise. As it was my decision, so is it yours.

⁵⁵ You do not want the world. The only thing of value in it is whatever part of it you look upon with love. This gives it the only reality it will ever have. Its value is not in itself, but yours is in you. As self-value comes from self-extension, so does the perception of self-value come from the projection of loving thoughts outward. Make the world real unto yourself, for the real world is the gift of the Holy Spirit, and so it belongs to you.

⁵⁶ Correction is for all who cannot see. To open the eyes of the blind is the Holy Spirit's mission, for She knows that they have not lost their vision but merely sleep. She would awaken them from the sleep of forgetting to the remembering of God. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's eyes are open, and She will look upon whatever you see with love if you accept Her vision as yours.

⁵⁷ The Holy Spirit keeps the vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness for every SonDaughter of God who sleeps. In Her sight the SonDaughter of God is perfect, and She longs to share Her vision with you. She will show you the real world because God gave you the God Realm. Through Her your FatherMother calls HisHer SonDaughter to remember. The awakening of HisHer SonDaughter begins with hisher investment in the real world, and by this heshe will learn to reinvest in himherself. For reality is one with the FatherMother and the SonDaughter, and the Holy Spirit blesses the real world in their name.

⁵⁸ When you have seen this real world, as you will surely do, you will remember us. Yet you must learn the cost of sleeping and refuse to pay it. Only then will you decide to awaken. And then the real world will spring to your sight, for the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has never slept. He or she is waiting to be seen, for He or she has never lost sight of you. He or she looks quietly on the real world, which He or she would share with you because He or she knows of the Father'sMother's love for Him or her. And knowing this, He or she would give you what is yours. In perfect peace He or she waits for you at His or her Father'sMother's altar, holding out the Father'sMother's love to you in the quiet light of the Holy Spirit's blessing. For the Holy Spirit will lead everyone home to his or her FatherMother, where the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness waits as his or her Self.

⁵⁹ Every Child of God is one in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, for his or her Being is in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness as the Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's is in God. The Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's love for you is His or her love for His or her FatherMother, which He or she knows because He or she knows His or her Father'sMother's love for Him or her. When the Holy Spirit has at last led you to the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness at the altar to Her FatherMother, perception fuses into knowledge because perception has become so holy that its transfer to holiness is merely its natural extension. Love transfers to love without any interference, for the situations are identical. [Only the ability to make this transfer is the product of learning.] As you perceive more and more common elements in all situations, the transfer of your training under the Holy Spirit's guidance increases and becomes generalized. Gradually you learn to apply it to everyone and everything, for its applicability is universal. When this has been accomplished, perception and knowledge have become so similar that they share the unification of the laws of God.

⁶⁰ What is one cannot be perceived as separate, and the denial of the separation is the reinstatement of knowledge. At the altar of God, the holy perception of God's SonDaughter becomes so enlightened that light streams into it, and the Spirit of God's SonDaughter shines in the Mind of the FatherMother and becomes one with it. Very gently does God shine upon HimHerself, loving the extension of HimHerself which is HisHer SonDaughter. The world has no purpose as it blends into the purpose of God. For the real world has slipped quietly into the God Realm, where everything eternal in it has always been. There the Redeemer and the redeemed join in perfect love of God and of each other. The God Realm is your home, and being in God, it must also be in you.

VIII. The Guide For Miracles

⁶¹ Miracles demonstrate that learning has occurred under the right guidance, for learning is invisible, and what has been learned can be recognized only by its results. Its generalization is demonstrated as you use it in more and more situations. You will recognize that you have learned there is no order of difficulty in miracles when you have applied them to all situations. There is no situation to which miracles do not apply, and by applying them to all situations, you will gain the real world. For in this holy perception, you will be made whole, and the Atonement will radiate from your acceptance of it for yourself to everyone the Holy Spirit sends you for your blessing. In every Child of God HisHer blessing lies, and in your blessing of the Children of God is HisHer blessing to you.

⁶² Everyone in the world must play his or her part in the redemption of the world to recognize that the world has been redeemed. You cannot see the invisible. Yet if you see its effects, you know it must be there. By perceiving what it does, you recognize its being. And by what it does, you learn what it is. You cannot see your abilities, but you gain confidence in their existence as they enable you to act. And the results of your actions you can see.

⁶³ The Holy Spirit is invisible, but you can see the results of Her Presence, and through them you will learn that She is there. What HeShe enables you to do is clearly not of this world, for miracles violate every law of reality as this world judges it. Every law of time and space, of magnitude and mass, of prediction and control is transcended, for what the Holy Spirit enables you to do is clearly beyond all of them. Perceiving Her results, you will understand where She must be and finally know what She is.

⁶⁴ You cannot see the Holy Spirit, but you can see Her manifestations. And unless you do, you will not realize She is there. Miracles are Her witnesses and speak for Her Presence. What you cannot see becomes real to you only through the witnesses who speak for it. For you can be aware of what you cannot see, and it can become compellingly real to you as its presence becomes manifest through you. Do the Holy Spirit's work, for you share in HisHer function. As your function in the God Realm is manifested creation, so your function on earth is healing. God shares HisHer function with you in the God Realm, and the Holy Spirit shares Her with you on earth.

⁶⁵ As long as you believe you have two functions, so long will you need correction. For this belief is the destruction of peace, a goal in direct opposition to the Holy Spirit's purpose. You see what you expect, and you expect what you invite. Your perception is the result of your invitation, coming to you as you sent for it. Whose manifestations would you see? Of whose presence would you be convinced? For you will believe in what you manifest, and as you look out, so will you see in. Two ways of looking at the world are in your mind, and your perception will reflect the guidance you chose.

⁶⁶ I am the manifestation of the Holy Spirit, and when you see me, it will be because you have invited Her. For She will send you Her witnesses if you will but look upon them. Remember always that you see what you seek, for what you seek you will find. The ego finds what it seeks and only that. It does not find love, for that is not what it is seeking. Yet seeking and finding are the same, and if you seek for two goals you will find them, but you will recognize neither. For you will think they are the same because you want them both. The mind always strives for integration, and if it is split and wants to keep the split, it will believe it has one goal by making it one.

⁶⁷ We said before that what you project is up to you, but it is not up to you whether to project, for projection is a law of mind. Perception is projection, and you look in before you look out. As you look in you choose the guide for seeing, and then you look out and behold his or her witnesses. This is why you find what you seek. What you want in yourself, you will make manifest by projection, and you will accept it from the world because you put it there by wanting it.

⁶⁸ When you think you are projecting what you do not want, it is still because you do want it. This leads directly to dissociation, for it represents the acceptance of two goals, each perceived in a different place, separated from each other because you made them different. The mind then sees a divided world outside itself but not within. This gives it an illusion of integrity and enables it to believe that it is pursuing one goal. As long as you perceive the world as split, you are not healed. For to be healed is to pursue one goal because you have accepted only one and want but one.

⁶⁹ When you want only love you will see nothing else. The contradictory nature of the witnesses you perceive is merely the reflection of your conflicting invitations. You have looked upon your minds and accepted opposition there, having sought it there. But do not then believe that the witnesses for opposition are true, for they attest only to your decision about reality, returning to you the message you gave them. Love is recognized by its messengers. If you make love manifest, its messengers will come to you because you invited them.

⁷⁰ The power of decision is your one remaining freedom as a prisoner of this world. You can decide to see it right. What you made of it is not its reality, for its reality is only what you gave it. You cannot really give anything but love to anyone or anything, nor can you really receive anything else from them. If you think you have received anything else, it is because you have looked within and thought you saw the power to give something else within yourself. It was only this decision that determined what you found, for it was the decision of what you sought.

⁷¹ You are afraid of me because you looked within and are afraid of what you saw. Yet you could not have seen reality, for the reality of your mind is the loveliest of God's manifestations of creations. Coming only from God, its power and grandeur could only bring you peace if you really looked upon it. If you are afraid, it is because you saw something that is not there. Yet in that same place, you could have looked upon me and all your brothers and sisters in the perfect safety of the Mind which created and manifested us. For we are there in the peace of the FatherMother, Who wills to project HisHer peace through you.

⁷² When you have accepted your mission to project peace, you will find it, for by making it manifest, you will see it. Its holy witnesses will surround you because you called upon them and they will come to you. I have heard your call and I have answered it, but you will not look upon me nor hear the answer which you sought. That is because you do not yet want only that. Yet as I become more real to you, you will learn that you do want only that. And you will see me as you look within, and we will look upon the world as God created and manifested it together. Through the eyes of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, only the real world exists and can be seen. As you decide, so will you see. And all that you see but witnesses to your decision.

⁷³ When you look within and see me, it will be because you have decided to manifest truth. And as you manifest it, you will see it both without and within, for you will see it without because you saw it first within. Everything you behold without is a judgment of what you beheld within. If it is your judgment, it will be wrong, for judgment is not your function. If it is the judgment of the Holy Spirit, it will be right, for judgment is Her function. You share Her function only by judging as She does, reserving no judgment at all unto yourselves. For you will judge against yourselves, but She will judge for you.

⁷⁴ Remember, then, that whenever you look without and react unfavorably to what you see, you have judged yourself unworthy and have condemned yourself to death. The death penalty is the ego's ultimate goal, for it fully believes that you are a criminal, as deserving of death as God knows you are deserving of life. The death penalty never leaves the ego's mind, for that is what it always reserves for you in the end. Wanting to kill you as the final expression of its feeling for you, it lets you live but to await death. It will torment you while you live, but its hatred is not satisfied until you die. For your destruction is the one end toward which it works, and the only end with which it will be satisfied.

⁷⁵ The ego is not a traitor to God to Whom treachery is impossible, but it is a traitor to you who believe you have been treacherous to your FatherMother. That is why the undoing of guilt is an essential part of the Holy Spirit's teaching. For as long as you feel guilty, you are listening to the voice of the ego, which tells you that you have been treacherous to God and therefore deserve death. You will think that death comes from God and not from the ego because, by confusing yourself with the ego, you believe that you want death. And from what you want, God does not save you.

⁷⁶ When you are tempted to yield to the desire for death, remember that I did not die. You will realize that this is true when you look within and see me. Would I have overcome death for myself alone? And would eternal life have been given me of the FatherMother unless HeShe had also given it to you? When you learn to make me manifest, you will never see death. For you will have looked upon the deathless in yourself, and you will see only the eternal as you look out upon a world that cannot die.

IX. Reality and Redemption

⁷⁷ Do you really believe that you can kill the SonDaughter of God? The FatherMother has hidden HisHer SonDaughter safely within HimHerself and kept himher far away from your destructive thoughts, but you know neither the FatherMother nor the SonDaughter because of them. You attack the real world every day and every hour and every minute, and yet you are surprised that you cannot see it. If you seek love in order to attack it, you will never find it. For if love is sharing, how can you find it except through itself? Offer it and it will come to you because it is drawn to itself. But offer attack and it will remain hidden, for it can live only in peace.

⁷⁸ God's SonDaughter is as safe as hisher FatherMother, for the SonDaughter knows hisher Father'sMother's protection and cannot fear. Hisher Father'sMother's love holds himher in perfect peace, and needing nothing, heshe asks for nothing. Yet heshe is far from you whose Self heshe is, for you chose to attack himher, and heshe disappeared from your sight into hisher FatherMother. Heshe did not change, but you did. For a split mind and all its works were not created and manifested by the FatherMother and could not live in the knowledge of HimHer.

⁷⁹ When you made what is not true visible, what is true became invisible. Yet it cannot be invisible in itself, for the Holy Spirit sees it with perfect clarity. It is invisible to you because you are looking at something else. Yet it is no more up to you to decide what is visible and what is invisible than it is up to you to decide what reality is. What can be seen is what the Holy Spirit sees. The definition of reality is God's, not yours. HeShe created and manifested it, and HeShe knows what it is. You who knew have forgotten, and unless HeShe had given you a way to remember, you would have condemned yourselves to oblivion.

⁸⁰ Because of your Father'sMother's love you can never forget HimHer, for no one can forget what God HimHerself placed in his or her memory. You can deny it, but you cannot lose it. A Voice will answer every question you ask, and a Vision will correct the perception of everything you see. For what you have made invisible is the only truth, and what you have not heard is the only answer. God would reunite you with yourself and did not abandon you in your seeming distress. You are waiting only for HimHer and do not know it. Yet HisHer memory shines in your minds and cannot be obliterated. It is no more past than future, being forever always.

⁸¹ You have but to ask for this memory, and you will remember. Yet the memory of God cannot shine in a mind which has made it invisible and wants to keep it so. For the memory of God can dawn only in a mind that wills to remember and that has relinquished the insane desire to control reality. You who cannot even control yourselves should hardly aspire to control the universe. But look upon what you have made of it and rejoice that it is not so. SonDaughter of God, be not content with nothing! What is not real cannot be seen and has no value. God could not offer HisHer SonDaughter what has no value, nor could HisHer SonDaughter receive it. You were redeemed the instant you thought you had deserted HimHer.

⁸² Everything you made has never been and is invisible because the Holy Spirit does not see it. Yet what She does see is yours to behold, and through Her vision your perception is healed. You have made the invisible the only truth that this world holds. Valuing nothing, you have sought nothing and found nothing. By making nothing real to you, you have seen it. But it is not there. And the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is invisible to you because of what you have made visible to yourselves. Yet it does not matter how much distance you have tried to interpose between your awareness and truth. God's SonDaughter can be seen because hisher vision is shared. The Holy Spirit looks upon himher and sees nothing else in you. What is invisible to you is perfect in Her sight and encompasses all of it. She has remembered you because She forgot not the FatherMother.

⁸³ You looked upon the unreal and found despair. Yet by seeking the unreal, what else could you find? The unreal world is a thing of despair, for it can never be. And you who share God's Being with HimHer could never be content without reality. What God did not give you has no power over you, and the attraction of love for love remains irresistible. For it is the function of love to unite all things unto itself, and to hold all things together by extending its wholeness.

⁸⁴ The real world was given you by God in loving exchange for the world you made and which you see. But take it from the hand of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and look upon it. Its reality will make everything else invisible, for beholding it is total perception. And as you look upon it, you will remember that it was always so. Nothingness will become invisible, for you will at last have seen truly. Redeemed perception is easily translated into knowledge, for only perception is capable of error, and perception has never been. Being corrected, it gives place to knowledge, which is forever the only reality. The Atonement is but the way back to what was never lost. Your FatherMother could not cease to love HisHer SonDaughter.

X. Guiltlessness and Invulnerability

⁸⁵ If you did not feel guilty, you could not attack, for condemnation is the root of attack. It is the judgment of one mind by another as unworthy of love and deserving of punishment. But herein lies the split. For the mind that judges perceives itself as separate from the mind being judged, believing that by punishing another, it will escape punishment. All this is but the delusional attempt of the mind to deny itself and escape the penalty of denial. It is not an attempt to relinquish denial but to hold on to it. For it is guilt that has obscured the FatherMother to you, and it is guilt that has driven you insane.

⁸⁶ The acceptance of guilt into the mind of God's SonDaughter was the beginning of the separation, as the acceptance of the Atonement is its end. The world you see is the delusional system of those made mad by guilt. Look carefully at this world, and you will realize that this is so. For this world is the symbol of punishment, and all the laws which seem to govern it are the laws of death. Children are born into it through pain and in pain. Their growth is attended by suffering, and they learn of sorrow and separation and death. Their minds are trapped in their brain, and its powers decline if their bodies are hurt. They seem to love, yet they desert and are deserted. They appear to lose what they love, perhaps the most insane belief of all. And their bodies wither and gasp and are laid in the ground and seem to be no more. Not one of them but has thought that God is cruel.

⁸⁷ If this were the real world, God would be cruel. For no father or mother could subject his or her children to this as the price of salvation and be loving. Love does not kill to save. If it did, attack would be salvation, and this is the ego's interpretation, not God's. Only the world of guilt could demand this, for only the guilty could conceive of it.

Adam's "sin" could have touched none of you, had you not believed that it was the FatherMother Who drove him out of paradise. For in that belief, the knowledge of the FatherMother was lost, since only those who do not understand HimHer could believe it.

⁸⁸ This world is a picture of the crucifixion of God's SonDaughter. And until you realize that God's SonDaughter cannot be crucified, this is the world you will see. Yet you will not realize this until you accept the eternal fact that God's SonDaughter is not guilty. Heshe deserves only love because heshe has given only love. Heshe cannot be condemned because heshe has never condemned. The Atonement is the final lesson heshe need learn, for it teaches himher that, never having sinned, heshe has no need of salvation.

⁸⁹ Long ago we said that the Holy Spirit shares the goal of all good teachers, whose ultimate aim is to make themselves unnecessary by teaching their pupils all they know. The Holy Spirit wills only this, for sharing the Father'sMother's love for HisHer SonDaughter, She wills to remove all guilt from hisher mind that heshe may remember hisher FatherMother in peace. For peace and guilt are antithetical, and the FatherMother can be remembered only in peace. Love and guilt cannot coexist, and to accept one is to deny the other. Guilt hides the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness from your sight, for it is the denial of the blamelessness of God's SonDaughter.

⁹⁰ In this strange world which you have made, the SonDaughter of God has sinned. How could you see him, then? By making himher invisible, the world of retribution rose in the black cloud of guilt which you accepted, and you hold it dear. For the blamelessness of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is the proof that the ego never was and can never be. Without guilt the ego has no life, and God's SonDaughter is without guilt. As you look upon yourselves and judge what you do honestly, as you have been asked to do, you may be tempted to wonder how you can be guiltless.

⁹¹ Yet consider this: You are not guiltless in time, but in eternity. You have "sinned" in the past, but there is no past. Always has no direction. Time seems to go in one direction, but when you reach its end, it will roll up like a long carpet which has spread along the past behind you and will disappear. As long as you believe the SonDaughter of God is guilty, you will walk along this carpet, believing that it leads to death. And the journey will seem long and cruel and senseless, for so it is.

⁹² The journey which the SonDaughter of God has set himherself is foolish indeed, but the journey on which hisher FatherMother sets himher is one of release and joy. The FatherMother is not cruel, and HisHer SonDaughter cannot hurt himherself. The retaliation heshe fears and which heshe sees will never touch himher, for although heshe believes in it, the Holy Spirit knows it is not true. The Holy Spirit stands at the end of time, where you must be because She is with you. She has always undone everything unworthy of the SonDaughter of God, for such was Her mission, given Her by God. And what God gives has always been.

⁹³ You will see me as you learn the SonDaughter of God is guiltless. Heshe has always sought hisher guiltlessness, and heshe has found it. For everyone is seeking to escape from the prison he or she has made, and the way to find release is not denied him or her. Being in him or her, he or she has found it. When he or she finds it is only a matter of time, and time is but an illusion. For the SonDaughter of God is guiltless now, and the brightness of hisher purity shines untouched forever in God's Mind. God's SonDaughter will always be as heshe was created and manifested. Deny your world and judge himher not, for hisher eternal guiltlessness is in the Mind of hisher FatherMother, and protects himher forever.

⁹⁴ When you have accepted the Atonement for yourselves, you will realize that there is no guilt in God's SonDaughter. And only as you look upon himher as guiltless can you understand hisher oneness. For the idea of guilt brings a belief in condemnation of one by another, projecting separation in place of unity. You can condemn only yourself, and by so doing, you cannot know that you are God's SonDaughter. You have denied the condition of hisher Being, which is hisher perfect blamelessness. Out of love heshe was created and manifested, and in love heshe abides. Goodness and mercy have always followed himher, for heshe has always extended the love of hisher FatherMother.

⁹⁵ As you perceive the holy companions who travel with you, you will realize that there is no journey, but only an awakening. The SonDaughter of God, who sleepeth not, has kept faith with hisher FatherMother for you. There is no road to travel on and no time to travel through. For God waits not for HisHer SonDaughter in time, being forever unwilling to be without himher. And so it has always been. Let the holiness of God's SonDaughter shine away the cloud of guilt that darkens your mind, and by accepting hisher purity as yours, learn of himher that it is yours.

⁹⁶ You are invulnerable because you are guiltless. You can hold on to the past only through guilt. For guilt establishes that you will be punished for what you have done and thus depends on one-dimensional time, proceeding from past to future. No one who believes this can understand what always means. And therefore guilt must deprive you of the appreciation of eternity. You are immortal because you are eternal and always must be now. Guilt, then, is a way of holding past and future in your minds to ensure the ego's continuity. For if what has been will be punished, the ego's continuity is guaranteed. Yet the guarantee of your continuity is God's, not the ego's. And immortality is the opposite of time, for time passes away, while immortality is constant.

⁹⁷ Accepting the Atonement teaches you what immortality is, for by accepting your guiltlessness, you learn that the past has never been, and so the future is needless. The future, in time, is always associated with expiation, and only guilt could induce a sense of need for expiation. Accepting the guiltlessness of the SonDaughter of God as yours is therefore God's way of reminding you of HisHer SonDaughter and what heshe is in truth. For God has never condemned HisHer SonDaughter, and being guiltless, heshe is eternal.

⁹⁸ You cannot dispel guilt by making it real and then atoning for it. This is the ego's plan, which it offers instead of dispelling it. The ego believes in atonement through attack, being fully committed to the insane notion that attack is salvation. And you who cherish guilt must also believe it, for how else but by identifying with the ego could you hold dear what you do not want?

⁹⁹ The ego teaches you to attack yourself because you are guilty, and this must increase the guilt, for guilt is the result of attack. In the ego's teaching, then, there is no escape from guilt. For attack makes guilt real, and if it is real, there is no way to overcome it. The Holy Spirit dispels it simply through the calm recognition that it has never been. As She looks upon the guiltless SonDaughter of God, She knows this is true. And being true for you, you cannot attack yourself, for without guilt, attack is impossible. You, then, are saved because God's SonDaughter is guiltless. And being wholly pure, you are invulnerable.

Chapter Twelve:

The Problem of Guilt

I. Introduction

¹ The ultimate purpose of projection, as the ego uses it, is always to get rid of guilt. Yet, characteristically, the ego attempts to get rid of guilt from its viewpoint only, for much as the ego wants to retain guilt, you find it intolerable, since guilt stands in the way of your remembering God, Whose pull is so strong that you cannot resist it. On this issue, then, the deepest split of all occurs, for if you are to retain guilt, as the ego insists, you cannot be you. Only by persuading you that it is you could the ego possibly induce you to project guilt and thereby keep it in your mind.

² Yet consider how strange a solution the ego's arrangement is. You project guilt to get rid of it, but you are actually merely concealing it. You do experience guilt feelings, but you have no idea why. On the contrary, you associate them with a weird assortment of ego ideals which the ego claims you have failed. Yet you have no idea that you are failing the SonDaughter of God by seeing himher as guilty. Believing you are no longer you, you do not realize that you are failing yourself.

II. Crucifixion By Guilt

³ The darkest of your hidden cornerstones holds your belief in guilt from your awareness. For in that dark and secret place is the realization that you have betrayed God's SonDaughter by condemning himher to death. You do not even suspect this murderous but insane idea lies hidden there, for the ego's destructive urge is so intense that nothing short of the crucifixion of God's SonDaughter can ultimately satisfy it. It does not know who the SonDaughter of God is because it is blind. Yet let it perceive guiltlessness anywhere, and it will try to destroy it because it is afraid.

⁴ Much of the ego's strange behavior is directly attributable to its definition of guilt. To the ego, the guiltless are guilty. Those who do not attack are its "enemies" because, by not valuing its interpretation of salvation, they are in an excellent position to let it go. They have approached the darkest and deepest cornerstone in the ego's foundation, and while the ego can withstand your raising all else to question, it guards this one secret with its life, for its existence does depend on keeping this secret. So it is this secret that we must look upon calmly, for the ego cannot protect you against truth, and in its presence the ego is dispelled.

⁵ In the calm light of truth, let us recognize that you believe you have crucified God's SonDaughter. You have not admitted to this "terrible" secret because you still wish to crucify himher if you could find himher. Yet the wish has hidden himher from you because it is very fearful, and you are afraid to find himher. You have handled this wish to kill yourself by not knowing who you are and identifying with something else. You have projected guilt blindly and indiscriminately, but you have not uncovered its source. For the ego does want to kill you, and if you identify with it, you must believe its goal is yours.

⁶ We once said that the crucifixion is the symbol of the ego. When it was confronted with the real guiltlessness of God's SonDaughter, it did attempt to kill himher, and the reason it gave was that guiltlessness is blasphemous to God. To the ego the ego is god, and guiltlessness must be interpreted as the final guilt which fully justifies murder. You do not yet understand that all your fear of this course stems ultimately from this interpretation, but if you will consider your reactions to it, you will become increasingly convinced that this is so.

⁷ This course has explicitly stated that its goal for you is happiness and peace. Yet you are afraid of it. You have been told again and again that it will make you free, yet you react as if it is trying to imprison you. Most of the time you dismiss it, but you do not dismiss the ego's thought system. You have seen its results and you still lack faith in it. You must, then, believe that by not learning the course, you are protecting yourself. And you do not realize that it is only your guiltlessness which can protect you.

⁸ The Atonement has always been interpreted as the release from guilt, and this is correct if it is understood. Yet even when I have interpreted it for you, you have rejected it and have not accepted it for yourself. You have recognized the futility of the ego and its offerings, but though you do not want the ego, you do not look upon the alternative with gladness. You are afraid of redemption, and you believe it will kill you. Make no mistake about the depth of your fear. For you believe that in the presence of truth you will turn on yourself and destroy yourself.

⁹ Little children, this is not so. Your "guilty secret" is nothing, and if you will but bring it to the light, the light will dispel it. And then no dark cloud will remain between you and the remembrance of your FatherMother, for you will remember HisHer guiltless SonDaughter, who did not die, because heshe is immortal. And you will see that you were redeemed with himher and have never been separated from himher. In this understanding lies your remembering, for it is the recognition of love without fear. There will be great joy in the God Realm on your homecoming, and the joy will be yours. For the redeemed son or daughter of man or woman is the guiltless SonDaughter of God, and to recognize himher is your redemption.

III. The Fear of Redemption

¹⁰ You may wonder why it is so crucial that you look upon your hatred and realize its full extent. You may also think that it would be easy enough for the Holy Spirit to show it to you and dispel it, without the need for you to raise it to awareness yourself. Yet there is one more complication which you have interposed between yourself and the Atonement, which you do not yet realize. We have said that no one will countenance fear if he or she recognizes it. Yet in your disordered state, you are not afraid of fear. You do not like it, but it is not your desire to attack which really frightens you. You are not seriously disturbed by your hostility. You keep it hidden because you are more afraid of what it covers.

¹¹ You could look even upon the ego's darkest cornerstone without fear if you did not believe that, without the ego, you would find within yourself something you fear even more. You are not afraid of crucifixion. Your real terror is of redemption. Under the ego's dark foundation is the memory of God, and it is of this that you are really afraid. For this memory would instantly restore you to your proper place, and it is this place that you have sought to leave.

¹² Your fear of attack is nothing compared to your fear of love. You would be willing to look even upon your savage wish to kill God's SonDaughter if you did not believe that it saves you from love. For this wish caused the separation. You have protected it because you do not want the separation healed, and you realize that, by removing the dark cloud that obscures it, your love for your FatherMother would impel you to answer HisHer call and leap into the God Realm . You believe that attack is salvation to prevent you from this. For still deeper than the ego's foundation, and much stronger than it will ever be, is your intense and burning love of God, and HisHer for you. This is what you really want to hide.

¹³ In honesty, is it not harder for you to say "I love" than "I hate"? You associate love with weakness and hatred with strength, and your own real power seems to you as your real weakness. For you could not control your joyous response to the call of love if you heard it, and the whole world you think you control would vanish. The Holy Spirit, then, seems to be attacking your fortress, for you would shut out God, and HeShe does not will to be excluded.

¹⁴ You have built your whole insane belief system because you think you would be helpless in God's Presence, and you would save yourself from HisHer love because you think it would crush you into nothingness. You are afraid it would sweep you away from yourself and make you little. For you believe that magnitude lies in defiance and that attack is grandeur. You think you have made a world which God would destroy; and by loving HimHer, which you do, you would throw this world away, which you would. Therefore, you have used the world to cover your love, and the deeper you go into the blackness of the ego's foundation, the closer you come to the love that is hidden there. And it is this that frightens you.

¹⁵ You can accept insanity because you made it, but you cannot accept love because you did not. You would rather be slaves of the crucifixion than SonsDaughters of God in redemption. For your individual death is more valued than your living oneness, and what is given you is not so dear as what you made. You are more afraid of God than of the ego, and love cannot enter where it is not welcome. But hatred can, for it enters of its will and cares not for yours.

¹⁶ The reason you must look upon your delusions and not keep them hidden is that they do not rest on their own foundation. In concealment they appear to do so, and thus they seem to be self-sustained. This is the fundamental illusion on which they rest. For beneath them and concealed as long as they are hidden is the loving mind that thought it made them in anger. And the pain in this mind is so apparent when it is uncovered that its need of healing cannot be denied. Not all the tricks and games you offer it can heal it, for here is the real crucifixion of God's SonDaughter.

¹⁷ And yet he or she is not crucified. Here is both his or her pain and his or her healing, for the Holy Spirit's vision is merciful, and Her remedy is quick. Do not hide suffering from Her sight, but bring it gladly to Her. Lay before Her eternal sanity all your hurt, and let Her heal you. Do not leave any spot of pain hidden from Her light, and search your minds carefully for any thoughts which you may fear to uncover. For She will heal every little thought which you have kept to hurt you and cleanse it of its littleness, restoring it to the magnitude of God.

¹⁸ Beneath all your grandiosity, which you hold so dear, is your real call for help. For you call for love to your FatherMother as your FatherMother calls you to HimHerself. In that place which you have hidden, you will only to unite with the FatherMother in loving remembrance of HimHer. You will find this place of truth as you see it in your brothers and sisters, for though they may deceive themselves, like you they long for the grandeur that is in them. And perceiving it you will welcome it, and it will be yours. For grandeur is the right of God's SonDaughter, and no illusions can satisfy him or her or save him or her from what he or she is. Only his or her love is real, and he or she will be content only with his or her reality.

¹⁹ Save him or her from his or her illusions that you may accept the magnitude of your FatherMother in peace and joy. But exempt no one from your love, or you will be hiding a dark place in your mind where the Holy Spirit is not welcome. And you will exempt yourself from Her healing power, for by not offering total love, you will not be healed completely. Healing must be as complete as fear, for love cannot enter where there is one spot of fear to mar its welcome.

²⁰ You who prefer specialness to sanity could not obtain it in your right minds. You were at peace until you asked for special favor. And God did not give it, for the request was alien to HimHer, and you could not ask this of a FatherMother Who truly loved HisHer SonDaughter. Therefore you made of HimHer an unloving FatherMother, demanding of HimHer what only such a FatherMother could give. And the peace of God's SonDaughter was shattered, for he or she no longer understood his or her FatherMother. He or she feared what he or she had made, but still more did he or she fear his or her real FatherMother, having attacked his or her own glorious equality with HimHer.

²¹ In peace he or she needed nothing and asked for nothing. In war he or she demanded everything and found nothing. For how could the gentleness of love respond to his or her demands except by departing in peace and returning to the FatherMother? If the SonDaughter did not wish to remain in peace, he or she could not remain at all. For a darkened mind cannot live in the light, and it must seek a place of darkness where it can believe it is where it is not. God did not allow this to happen. Yet you demanded that it happen and therefore believed that it was so.

²² To "single out" is to "make alone" and thus make lonely. God did not do this to you. Could HeShe set you apart, knowing that your peace lies in HisHer Oneness? HeShe denied you only your request for pain, for suffering is not of HisHer manifested creation. Having given you manifested creation, HeShe could not take it from you. HeShe could but answer your insane request with a sane answer which would abide with you in your insanity. [And this HeShe did. No one who hears HisHer answer but will give up insanity.] For HisHer answer is the reference point beyond illusions from which you can look back on them and see them as insane. But seek this place, and you will find it, for love is in you and will lead you there.

IV. Healing and Time

²³ And now the reason why you are afraid of this course should be apparent. For this is a course on love because it is about you. You have been told that your function in this world is healing, and your function in the God Realm is creatingmanifesting. The ego teaches that your function on earth is destruction and that you have no function at all in the God Realm . It would thus destroy you here and bury you here, leaving you no inheritance except the dust out of which it thinks you were made. As long as it is reasonably satisfied with you, as its reasoning goes, it offers you oblivion. When it becomes overtly savage, it offers you hell.

²⁴ Yet neither oblivion nor hell is as unacceptable to you as the God Realm . For your definition of the God Realm is hell and oblivion, and the real the God Realm is the greatest threat you think you could experience. For hell and oblivion are ideas which you made up, and you are bent on demonstrating their reality to establish yours. If their reality is questioned, you believe that yours is. For you believe that attack is your reality and that your destruction is the final proof that you were right.

²⁵ Under the circumstances, would it not be more desirable to have been wrong, even apart from the fact that you were wrong? While it could perhaps be argued that death suggests there was life, no one would claim that it proves there is life. Even the past life which death might indicate could only have been futile if it must come to this and needs this to prove that it was. You question the God Realm, but you do not question this. You could heal and be healed if you did question it. And even though you know not the God Realm, might it not be more desirable than death? You have been as selective in your questioning as in your perception. An open mind is more honest than this.

²⁶ The ego has a very strange notion of time, and it is with this notion that your questioning might well begin. The ego invests heavily in the past and in the end believes that the past is the only aspect of time that is meaningful. You will remember that we said its emphasis on guilt enables it to ensure its continuity by making the future like the past and thus avoiding the present. By the notion of paying for the past in the future, the past becomes the determiner of the future, making them continuous without an intervening present. For the ego uses the present only as a brief transition to the future, in which it brings the past to the future by interpreting the present in past terms.

²⁷ Now has no meaning to the ego. The present merely reminds it of past hurts, and it reacts to the present as if it were the past. The ego cannot tolerate release from the past, and although the past is no more, the ego tries to preserve its image by responding as if it were present. Thus it dictates reactions to those you meet now from a past reference point, obscuring their present reality. In effect, if you follow the ego's dictates, you will react to your brothers and sisters as though they were someone else, and this will surely prevent you from perceiving them as they are. And you will receive messages from them out of your own past because, by making it real in the present, you are forbidding yourself to let it go. You thus deny yourself the message of release that every brother or sister offers you now.

²⁸ The shadowy figures from the past are precisely what you must escape. For they are not real and have no hold over you unless you bring them with you. They carry the spots of pain in your minds, directing you to attack in the present in retaliation for a past that is no more. And this decision is one of future pain. Unless you learn that past pain is delusional, you are choosing a future of illusions and losing the endless opportunities which you could find for release in the present.

The ego would preserve your nightmares and prevent you from awakening and understanding that they are past.

²⁹ Would you recognize a holy encounter if you are merely perceiving it as a meeting with your own past? For you are meeting no one, and the sharing of salvation, which makes the encounter holy, is excluded from your sight. The Holy Spirit teaches that you always meet yourself and the encounter is holy because you are. The ego teaches that you always encounter your past, and because your dreams were not holy, the future cannot be, and the present is without meaning. It is evident that the Holy Spirit's perception of time is the exact opposite of the ego's. The reason is equally clear, for they perceive the goal of time as diametrically opposed.

³⁰ The Holy Spirit interprets time's purpose as rendering the need for it unnecessary. Thus does She regard the function of time as temporary, serving only Her teaching function, which is temporary by definition. Her emphasis is therefore on the only aspect of time which can extend to the infinite, for now is the closest approximation of eternity which this world offers. It is in the reality of now, without past or future, that the beginning of the appreciation of eternity lies. For only now is here, and it presents the opportunities for the holy encounters in which salvation can be found.

³¹ The ego, on the other hand, regards the function of time as one of extending itself in place of eternity, for like the Holy Spirit, the ego interprets the goal of time as its own. The continuity of past and future under its direction is the only purpose the ego perceives in time, and it closes over the present so that no gap in its own continuity can occur. Its continuity, then, would keep you in time, while the Holy Spirit would release you from it. It is Her interpretation of the means of salvation which you must learn to accept if you would share Her goal of salvation for you.

³² You too will interpret the function of time as you interpret yours. If you accept your function in the world of time as healing, you will emphasize only the aspect of time in which healing can occur. For healing cannot be accomplished in the past and must be accomplished in the present to release the future. This interpretation ties the future to the present and extends the present rather than the past. But if you interpret your function as destruction, you will lose sight of the present and hold on to the past to ensure a destructive future. And time will be as you interpret it, for of itself it is nothing.

V. The Two Emotions

³³ We have said that you have but two emotions, love and fear. One is changeless but continually exchanged, being offered by the eternal to the eternal. In this exchange it is extended, for it increases as it is given. The other has the many forms, for the content of individual illusions differs greatly. Yet they have one thing in common—they are all insane. They are made of sights which are not seen and sounds which are not heard. They make up a private world which cannot be shared. For they are meaningful only to their maker, and so they have no meaning at all. In this world their maker moves alone, for only he or she perceives them.

³⁴ Each one peoples his or her world with figures from his or her individual past, and it is because of this that private worlds do differ. Yet the figures that he or she sees were never real, for they are made up only of his or her reactions to his or her brothers and sisters and do not include their reactions to him or her. Therefore he or she does not see that he or she made them and that they are not whole. For these figures have no witnesses, being perceived in one separate mind only.

³⁵ It is through these strange and shadowy figures that the insane relate to their insane world. For they see only those who remind them of these images, and it is to them that they relate. Thus do they communicate with those who are not there, and it is they who answer them, and no one hears their answer save him or her who called upon them, and he or she alone believes they answered him or her. Projection makes perception, and you cannot see beyond it. Again and again have men or women attacked each other because they saw in them a shadow figure in their own private world. And thus it is that you must attack yourself first, for what you attack is not in others. Its only reality is in your own mind, and by attacking others, you are literally attacking what is not there.

³⁶ The delusional can be very destructive, for they do not recognize that they have condemned themselves. They do not wish to die, yet they will not let condemnation go. And so they separate into their private worlds, where everything is disordered and where what is within appears to be without. Yet what is within they do not see, for the reality of their brothers and sisters they cannot see.

³⁷ You have but two emotions, yet in your private world you react to each of them as though it were the other. For love cannot abide in a world apart, where when it comes it is not recognized. If you see your own hatred as your brother or sister, you are not seeing him or her. Everyone draws nigh unto what he or she loves and recoils from what he or she fears. And you react with fear to love and draw away from it. Yet fear attracts you, and believing it is love, you call it to yourself.

Your private world is filled with the figures of fear you have invited into it, and all the love your brothers and sisters offer you, you do not see. As you look with open eyes upon your world, it must occur to you that you have withdrawn into insanity.

³⁸ You see what is not there, and you hear what is soundless. Your behavioral manifestations of emotions are the opposite of what the emotions are. You communicate with no one, and you are as isolated from reality as if you were alone in all the universe. In your madness, you overlook reality completely, and you see only your own split mind everywhere you look. God calls you and you do not hear, for you are preoccupied with your own voice. And the vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is not in your sight, for you look upon yourself alone.

³⁹ Little children, would you offer this to your FatherMother? For if you offer it to yourself, you are offering it to HimHer. And HeShe will not return it, for it is unworthy of you because it is unworthy of HimHer. Yet HeShe would release you from it and set you free. HisHer sane answer tells you that what you have offered yourself is not true, but HisHer offering to you has never changed. You who know not what you do can learn what insanity is and look beyond it. It is given you to learn how to deny insanity and come forth from your private world in peace.

⁴⁰ You will see all that you denied in your brothers and sisters because you denied it in yourself. For you will love them, and by drawing nigh unto them, you will draw them to yourself, perceiving them as witnesses to your reality, which you share with God. I am with them as I am with you, and we will draw them from their private worlds, for as we are united, so would we unite with them. The FatherMother welcomes all of us in gladness, and gladness is what we should offer HimHer. For every SonDaughter of God is given you to whom God gave HimHerself. And it is God to Whom you must offer them to recognize HisHer gift to you.

⁴¹ Vision depends on light, and you cannot see in darkness. Yet in the darkness in the private world of sleep, you see in dreams, although your eyes are closed. And it is here that what you see you made. But let the darkness go, and all you made you will no longer see, for sight of it depends upon denying vision. Yet from denying vision, it does not follow that you cannot see. But this is what denial does, for by it you accept insanity, believing you can make a private world and rule your own perceptions. Yet for this, light must be excluded. Dreams disappear when light has come and you can see.

⁴² Do not seek vision through your eyes, for you made your way of seeing that you might see in darkness, and in this you are deceived. Beyond this darkness and yet still within you is the vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, Who looks on all in light. Your vision comes from fear, as Her from love. And She sees for you as your witness to the real world. She is the Holy Spirit's manifestation, looking always on the real world and calling forth its witnesses and drawing them unto you. For She loves what She sees within you, and She would extend it. And She will not return unto the FatherMother until She has extended your perception even unto HimHer. And there perception is no more, for She has returned you to the FatherMother with Her.

⁴³ You have but two emotions, and one you made and one was given you. Each is a way of seeing, and different worlds arise from their different visions. See through the vision that is given you, for through the Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's vision heshe beholds himherself. And seeing what heshe is, heshe knows hisher FatherMother. Beyond your darkest dreams, heshe sees God's guiltless SonDaughter within you, shining in perfect radiance, which is undimmed by your dreams. And this you will see as you look with himher, for hisher vision is hisher gift of love to you, given himher of the FatherMother for you.

⁴⁴ The Holy Spirit is the light in which the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness stands revealed. And all who would behold Her can see Her, for they have asked for light. Nor will they see Her alone, for She is no more alone than they are. Because they saw the SonDaughter, they have risen in himher to the FatherMother. And all this will they understand because they looked within and saw beyond the darkness the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in them and recognized Her. In the sanity of Her vision, they looked upon themselves with love, seeing themselves as the Holy Spirit sees them. And with this vision of the truth in them came all the beauty of the world to shine upon them.

VI. Finding the Present

⁴⁵ To perceive truly is to be aware of all reality through the awareness of your own. But for this no illusions can rise to meet your sight, for all reality leaves no room for any error. This means that you perceive a brother or sister only as you see him or her now. His or her past has no reality in the present, and you cannot see it. Your past reactions to him or her are also not there, and if it is to them that you react now, you see but an image of him or her which you made and cherish instead of him or her. In your questioning of illusions, ask yourself if it is really sane to perceive what was now. If you remember the past as you look upon your brother or sister, you will be unable to perceive the reality that is now.

⁴⁶ You consider it "natural" to use your past experience as the reference point from which to judge the present. Yet this is unnatural because it is delusional. When you have learned to look upon everyone with no reference at all to the past, either his or her or yours as you perceived it, you will be able to learn from what you see now. For the past can cast no shadow to darken the present unless you are afraid of light. And only if you are would you choose to bring this darkness with you, and by holding it in your minds, see it as a dark cloud that shrouds your brothers and sisters and conceals their reality from your sight.

⁴⁷ This darkness is in you. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness revealed to you now has no past, for She is changeless, and in Her changelessness lies your release. For if She is as She was created and manifested, there is no guilt in Her. No cloud of guilt has risen to obscure Her, and She stands revealed in everyone you meet because you see Her through Herself. To be born again is to let the past go and look without condemnation upon the present. For the cloud which obscures God's SonDaughter to you is the past, and if you would have it past and gone, you must not see it now. If you see it now in your delusions, it has not gone from you, although it is not there.

⁴⁸ Time can release as well as imprison, depending on whose interpretation of it you use. Past, present, and future are not continuous unless you force continuity on them. You can perceive them as continuous and make them so for you. But do not be deceived and then believe that this is how it is, for to believe that reality is what you would have it be according to your use for it is delusional. You would destroy time's continuity by breaking it into past, present, and future for your own purposes. You would anticipate the future on the basis of your past experience and plan for it accordingly. Yet by doing so, you are aligning past and future and not allowing the miracle, which could intervene between them, to free you to be born again.

⁴⁹ The miracle enables you to see your brother or sister without his or her past and so perceive him or her as born again. His or her errors are all past, and by perceiving him or her without them, you are releasing him or her. And since his or her past is yours, you share in this release. Let no dark cloud out of your past obscure him or her from you, for truth lies only in the present, and you will find it if you seek it there. You have looked for it where it is not and therefore have not found it. Learn, then, to seek it where it is, and it will dawn on eyes that see. Your past was made in anger, and if you use it to attack the present, you will not see the freedom that the present holds. Judgment and condemnation are behind you, and unless you bring them with you, you will see that you are free of them.

⁵⁰ Look lovingly upon the present, for it holds the only things that are forever true. All healing lies within it because its continuity is real. It extends to all aspects of consciousness at the same time and thus enables them to reach each other. The present is before time was and will be when time is no more. In it is everything that is eternal, and they are one. Their continuity is timeless, and their communication is unbroken, for they are not separated by the past. Only the past can separate, and it is nowhere.

⁵¹ The present offers you your brothers and sisters in the light that would unite you with them and free you from the past. Would you, then, hold the past against them? For if you do, you are choosing to remain in the darkness that is not there and refusing to accept the light that is offered you. For the light of perfect vision is freely given as it is freely received and can be accepted only without limit. In this one still dimension of time, which does not change and where there is no sight of what you were, you look at the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and call Her witnesses to shine on you because you called them forth. And they will not deny the truth in you because you looked for it in them and found it there.

⁵² Now is the time of salvation, for now is the release from time. Reach out to all your brothers and sisters and touch them with the touch of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness. In timeless union with them is your continuity, unbroken because it is wholly shared. God's guiltless SonDaughter is only light. There is no darkness in himher anywhere, for heshe is whole. Call all your brothers and sisters to witness to his or her wholeness, as I am calling you to join with me. Every voice has a part in the song of redemption, the hymn of gladness and thanksgiving for the light to the CreatorManifestor of light. The holy light that shines forth from God's SonDaughter is the witness that hisher light is of hisher FatherMother.

⁵³ Shine on your brothers and sisters in remembrance of your CreatorManifestor, for you will remember HimHer as you call forth the witnesses to HisHer manifested creation. Those whom you heal bear witness to your healing, for in their wholeness you will see your own. And as your hymns of praise and gladness rise to your CreatorManifestor, HeShe will return your thanks in HisHer clear answer to your call. For it can never be that HisHer SonDaughter called upon HimHer and remained unanswered. HisHer call to you is but your call to HimHer. And in HimHer you are answered by HisHer peace.

⁵⁴ Children of light, you know not that the light is in you. Yet you will find it through its witnesses, for having given light to them, they will return it. Everyone you see in light brings your light closer to your own awareness. Love always leads to love. The sick who ask for love are grateful for it, and in their joy, they shine with holy thanks. And this they offer you, who gave them joy. They are your guides to joy, for having received it of you, they would keep it. You have established them as guides to peace, for you have made it manifest in them. And seeing it, its beauty calls you home.

⁵⁵ There is a light which this world cannot give. Yet you can give it, as it was given you. And as you give it, it shines forth to call you from the world and follow it. For this light will attract you as nothing in this world can do. And you will lay aside the world and find another. This other world is bright with love, which you have given it. And here will everything remind you of your FatherMother and HisHer Holy SonDaughter. Light is unlimited and spreads across this world in quiet joy. All those you brought with you will shine on you, and you will shine on them in gratitude because they brought you here. Your light will join with theirs in power so compelling that it will draw the others out of darkness as you look on them.

⁵⁶ Awakening unto the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is following the laws of love of your free will and out of quiet recognition of the truth in them. The attraction of light must draw you willingly, and willingness is signified by giving. Those who accept love of you become your willing witnesses to the love you gave them, and it is they who hold it out to you. In sleep you are alone, and your awareness is narrowed to yourself. And that is why the nightmares come. You dream of isolation because your eyes are closed. You do not see your brothers and sisters, and in the darkness you cannot look upon the light you gave to them.

⁵⁷ And yet the laws of love are not suspended because you sleep. And you have followed them through all your nightmares and have been faithful in your giving, for you were not alone. Even in sleep has the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness protected you, ensuring the real world for you when you wake. In your name She has given for you and given you the gifts She gave. God's SonDaughter is still as loving as hisher FatherMother. Continuous with hisher FatherMother, heshe has no past apart from HimHer. So heshe has never ceased to be hisher Father'sMother's witness and hisher own. Although heshe slept, the Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's vision did not leave himher. And so it is that heshe can call unto himherself the witnesses that teach himher that heshe never slept.

VII. Attainment of the Real World

⁵⁸ Sit quietly and look upon the world you see, and tell yourself,

⁵⁹ The real world is not like this. It has no buildings, and there are no streets where people walk alone and separate. There are no stores where people buy an endless list of things they do not need. It is not lit with artificial light, and night comes not upon it. There is no day that brightens and grows dim. There is no loss. Nothing is there but shines, and shines forever.

⁶⁰ The world you see must be denied, for sight of it is costing you a different kind of vision. You cannot see both worlds, for each of them involves a different kind of seeing and depends on what you cherish. The sight of one is possible because you have denied the other. Both are not true, yet either one will seem as real to you as the amount to which you hold it dear. And yet their power is not the same because their real attraction to you is unequal.

⁶¹ You do not really want the world you see, for it has disappointed you since time began. The homes you built have never sheltered you. The roads you made have led you nowhere, and no city that you built has withstood the crumbling assault of time. Nothing you made but has the mark of death upon it. Hold it not dear, for it is old and tired and ready to return to dust even as you made it. This aching world has not the power to touch the living world at all. You could not give it that, and so although you turn in sadness from it, you cannot find in it the road that leads away from it into another world.

⁶² Yet the real world has the power to touch you even here because you love it. And what you call with love will come to you. Love always answers, being unable to deny a call for help or not to hear the cries of pain that rise to it from every part of this strange world you made but do not want. The only effort you need make to give this world away in glad exchange for what you did not make is willingness to learn the one you made is false.

⁶³ You have been wrong about the world because you have misjudged yourself. From such a twisted reference point what could you see? All vision starts with the perceiver who judges what is true and what is false. And what he or she judges false he or she does not see. You who would judge reality cannot see it, for whenever judgment enters, reality has slipped away. The out of mind is out of sight because what is denied is there but is not recognized. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is still there, although you know Her not. Her Being does not depend upon your recognition. She lives within you in the quiet present and waits for you to leave the past behind and enter into the world She holds out to you in love.

⁶⁴ No one in this distracted world but has seen some glimpses of the other world about him or her. Yet while he or she still lays value on his or her own, he or she will deny the vision of the other world, maintaining that he or she loves what he or she loves not and following not the road that love points out. Love leads so gladly! And as you follow HimHer, you will rejoice that you have found HisHer company and learned of HimHer the joyful journey home. You wait but for yourself. To give this sad world over and exchange your errors for the peace of God is but your will. And the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness will always offer you the Will of God in recognition that you share it with HimHer.

⁶⁵ It is God's Will that nothing touch HisHer SonDaughter except HimHerself, and nothing else comes nigh unto himher. Heshe is as safe from pain as God HimHerself, Who watches over himher in everything. The world about himher shines with love because God placed himher in HimHerself where pain is not and love surrounds himher without end or flaw. Disturbance of hisher peace can never be. In perfect sanity heshe looks on love, for it is all about himher and within himher. Heshe must deny the world of pain the instant heshe perceives the arms of love around himher. And from this point of safety, heshe looks quietly about himher and recognizes that the world is one with himher.

⁶⁶ The peace of God passeth your understanding only in the past. Yet here it is, and you can understand it now. God loves HisHer SonDaughter forever, and HisHer SonDaughter returns his or her Father'sMother's love forever. The real world is the way that leads you to remembrance of this one thing that is wholly true and wholly yours. For all else you have lent yourself in time, and it will fade. But this one thing is always yours, being the gift of God unto HisHer SonDaughter. Your one reality was given you, and by it God created and manifested you as one with HimHer.

⁶⁷ You will first dream of peace and then awaken to it. Your first exchange of what you made for what you want is the exchange of nightmares for the happy dreams of love. In these lie your true perceptions, for the Holy Spirit corrects the world of dreams, where all perception is. Knowledge needs no correction. Yet the dreams of love lead unto knowledge. In them you see nothing fearful, and because of this, they are the welcome that you offer knowledge. Love waits on welcome, not on time, and the real world is but your welcome of what always was. Therefore, the call of joy is in it, and your glad response is your awakening to what you have not lost. Praise, then, the FatherMother for the perfect sanity of HisHer most holy SonDaughter.

⁶⁸ Your FatherMother knoweth that you have need of nothing. In the God Realm this is so, for what could you need in eternity? In your world you do need things because it is a world of scarcity in which you find yourself because you are lacking. Yet can you find yourself in such a world? Without the Holy Spirit, the answer would be no. Yet because of Her, the answer is a joyous yes! As Mediator between the two worlds, She knows what you have need of and what will not hurt you. Ownership is a dangerous concept if it is left to you. The ego wants to have things for salvation, for possession is its law. Possession for its own sake is the ego's fundamental creed, a basic cornerstone in the churches that it builds unto itself. And at its altar it demands you lay all of the things it bids you get, leaving you no joy in them.

⁶⁹ Everything that the ego tells you that you need will hurt you. For although the ego urges you again and again to get, it leaves you nothing, for what you get, it will demand of you. And even from the very hands that grasped it, it will be wrenched and hurled into the dust. For where the ego sees salvation, it sees separation, and so you lose whatever you have gotten in its name. Therefore ask not of yourselves what you need, for you do not know and your advice unto yourself will hurt you. For what you think you need will merely serve to tighten up your world against the light and render you unwilling to question the value that this world can really hold for you.

⁷⁰ Only the Holy Spirit knows what you need. For She will give you all things that do not block the way to light. And what else could you need? In time She gives you all the things that you need have and will renew them as long as you have need of them. She will take nothing from you as long as you have any need of it. And yet She knows that everything you need is temporary and will but last until you step aside from all your needs and learn that all of them have been fulfilled. Therefore She has no investment in the things that She supplies except to make certain that you will not use them on behalf of lingering in time. She knows that you are not at home there, and She wills no delay to wait upon your joyous homecoming.

⁷¹ Leave, then, your needs to Her. She will supply them with no emphasis at all upon them. What comes to you of Her comes safely, for She will ensure it never can become a dark spot, hidden in your mind and kept to hurt you. Under Her guidance, you will travel light and journey lightly, for Her sight is ever on the journey's end which is Her goal. God's SonDaughter is not a traveler through outer worlds. However holy hisher perception may become, no world outside himself holds his inheritance. Within himself he has no needs, for light needs nothing but to shine in peace and from itself to let the rays extend in quiet to infinity.

⁷² Whenever you are tempted to undertake a foolish journey that would lead away from light, remember what you really want and say,

⁷³ *The Holy Spirit leads me unto the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, and where else would I go?
What need have I but to awake in Her?*

⁷⁴ Then follow Her in joy, with faith that She will lead you safely through all dangers to your peace of mind that this world sets before you. Kneel not before the altars to sacrifice and seek not what you will surely lose. Content yourselves with what you will as surely keep and be not restless, for you undertake a quiet journey to the peace of God, where HeShe would have you be in quietness.

⁷⁵ In me you have already overcome every temptation that would hold you back. We walk together on the way to quietness that is the gift of God. Hold me dear, for what except your brothers and sisters can you need? We will restore to you the peace of mind that we must find together. The Holy Spirit will teach you to awaken unto us and to yourself. This is the only real need to be fulfilled in time. Salvation from the world lies only here. My peace I give you. Take it of me in glad exchange for all the world has offered but to take away. And we will spread it like a veil of light across the world's sad face, in which we hide our brothers and sisters from the world, and it from them.

⁷⁶ We cannot sing redemption's hymn alone. Our task is not completed until I have lifted every voice with mine. And yet it is not mine, for as it is my gift to you, so was it the Father'sMother's gift to me, given us through HisHer Spirit. The sound of it will banish sorrow from the mind of God's most holy SonDaughter, where it cannot abide. Healing in time is needed, for joy cannot establish its eternal reign where sorrow dwells. You dwell not here, but in eternity. You travel but in dreams while safe at home. Give thanks to every part of you that you have taught how to remember you. Thus does the SonDaughter of God give thanks unto hisher FatherMother for hisher purity.

Chapter Thirteen:

From Perception to Knowledge

I. Introduction

¹ All therapy is release from the past. That is why the Holy Spirit is the only therapist. She teaches that the past does not exist, a fact which belongs to the sphere of knowledge and which therefore no one in the world knows. It would indeed be impossible to be in the world with this knowledge. For the mind that knows this unequivocally knows also that it dwells in eternity and utilizes no perception at all. It therefore does not consider where it is because the concept "where" does not mean anything to it. It knows that it is everywhere, just as it has everything, and forever.

² The very real difference between perception and knowledge becomes quite apparent if you consider this: There is nothing partial about knowledge. Every aspect is whole, and therefore no aspect is separate. You are an aspect of knowledge, being in the Mind of God, Who knows you. All knowledge must be yours, for in you is all knowledge. Perception at its loftiest is never complete. Even the perception of the Holy Spirit, as perfect as perception can be, is without meaning in the God Realm. Perception can reach everywhere under Her guidance, for the vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness beholds everything in light. Yet no perception, however holy, will last forever.

II. The Role of Healing

³ Perfect perception, then, has the many elements in common with knowledge, making transfer to it possible. Yet the last step must be taken by God because the last step in your redemption, which seems to be in the future, was accomplished by God in your manifested creation. The separation has not interrupted it. Manifested creation cannot be interrupted. The separation is merely a faulty formulation of reality with no effect at all. The miracle, without a function in the God Realm, is needful here. Aspects of reality can still be seen, and they will replace aspects of unreality. Aspects of reality can be seen in everything and everywhere. Yet only God can gather them together by crowning them as one with the final gift of eternity.

⁴ Apart from the FatherMother and the SonDaughter, the Holy Spirit has no function. She is not separate from either, being in the mind of both and knowing that Mind is one. She is a Thought of God, and God has given Her to you because She has no Thoughts HeShe does not share. Her message speaks of timelessness in time, and that is why the Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's vision looks on everything with love. Yet even the Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's vision is not Her reality. The golden aspects of reality which spring to light under Her loving gaze are partial glimpses of the God Realm that lies beyond them.

⁵ This is the miracle of manifested creation; that it is one forever. Every miracle you offer to the SonDaughter of God is but the true perception of one aspect of the whole. Though every aspect is the whole, you cannot know this until you see that every aspect is the same, perceived in the same light and therefore one. Everyone seen without the past thus brings you nearer to the end of time by bringing healed and healing sight into the darkness and enabling the world to see. For light must come into the darkened world to make the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's vision possible even here. Help Her to give Her gift of light to all who think they wander in the darkness, and let Her gather them into Her quiet sight that makes them one.

⁶ They are all the same; all beautiful and equal in their holiness. And She will offer them unto Her FatherMother as they were offered unto Her. There is one miracle, as there is one reality. And every miracle you do contains them all, as every aspect of reality you see blends quietly into the One reality of God. The only miracle that ever was is God's most holy SonDaughter, created and manifested in the One reality that is hisher FatherMother. The Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's vision is Her gift to you. Her Being is Her Father'sMother's gift to Her.

⁷ Be you content with healing, for the Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's gift you can bestow, and your Father'sMother's gift you cannot lose. Offer the Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's gift to everyone and everywhere, for miracles offered the SonDaughter of God through the Holy Spirit attune you to reality. The Holy Spirit knows your part in the redemption and who are seeking you and where to find them. Knowledge is far beyond your individual concern. You, who are part of it and all of it, need only realize that it is of the FatherMother, not of you. Your role in the redemption leads you to it by reestablishing its oneness in your minds.

⁸ When you have seen your brothers and sisters as yourself, you will be released to knowledge, having learned to free yourself of Her Who knows of freedom. Unite with us under the holy banner of Her teaching, and as we grow in strength, the power of God's SonDaughter will move in us, and we will leave no one untouched and no one left alone. And suddenly time will be over, and we will all unite in the eternity of God the FatherMother. The holy light you saw outside yourself in every miracle you offered to your brothers and sisters will be returned to you. And knowing that the light is in you, your creationsmanifestations will be there with you, as you are in your FatherMother.

⁹ As miracles in this world join you to your brothers and sisters, so do your creationsmanifestations establish your fatherhoodmotherhood in the God Realm . You are the witnesses to the FatherhoodMotherhood of God, and HeShe has given you the power to create and manifest the witnesses to your fatherhood in the God Realm. The miracle which God created and manifested is perfect, as are the miracles which you created and manifested in HisHer name. They need no healing, nor do you when you know them.

¹⁰ Yet in this world, your perfection is unwitnessed. God knows it, but you do not, and so you do not share HisHer witness to it. Nor do you witness unto HimHer, for reality is witnessed to as one. God waits your witness to HisHer SonDaughter and to HimHerself. The miracles you do on earth are lifted up to the God Realm and to HimHer. They witness to what you do not know, and as they reach the gates of the God Realm, God will open them. For never would HeShe leave HisHer own beloved SonDaughter outside them and beyond HimHerself.

III. The Shadow of Guilt

¹¹ Guilt remains the only thing that hides the FatherMother, for guilt is the attack upon HisHer SonDaughter. The guilty always condemn, and having done so, they will condemn, linking the future to the past as is the ego's law. Fidelity unto this law lets no light in, for it *demand*s fidelity to darkness and forbids awakening. The ego's laws are strict, and breaches are severely punished. Therefore give no obedience to its laws, for they are laws of punishment. And those who follow them believe that they are guilty, and so they must condemn. Between the future and the past, the laws of God must intervene if you would free yourselves. Atonement stands between them like a lamp that shines so brightly that the chain of darkness in which you bound yourselves will disappear.

¹² Release from guilt is the ego's whole undoing. Make no one fearful, for his or her guilt is yours, and by obeying the ego's harsh commandments, you bring its condemnation of yourself, and you will not escape the punishment it offers those who obey it. The ego rewards fidelity to it with pain, for faith in it is pain. And faith can be rewarded only in terms of the belief in which the faith was placed. Faith makes the power of belief, and where it is invested determines its reward. For faith is always given what is treasured, and what is treasured is returned to you.

¹³ The world can give you only what you gave it, for being nothing but your own projection, it has no meaning apart from what you found in it and placed your faith in. Be faithful unto darkness and you will not see, because your faith will be rewarded as you gave it. You will accept your treasure, and if you place your faith in the past, the future will be like it. Whatever you hold as dear, you think is yours. The power of your valuing will make it so.

¹⁴ Atonement brings a re-evaluation of everything you cherish, for it is the means by which the Holy Spirit can separate the false and the true, which you have accepted into your minds without distinction. Therefore, you cannot value one without the other, and guilt has become as true for you as innocence. You do not believe the SonDaughter of God is guiltless because you see the past and see him/her not. When you condemn a brother or sister, you are saying, "I who was guilty choose to remain so." You have denied his or her freedom, and by so doing you have denied the witness unto yours. You could as easily have freed him or her from the past and lifted from his or her mind the cloud of guilt that binds him or her to it. And in his or her freedom would have been your own.

¹⁵ Lay not his or her guilt upon him or her, for his or her guilt lies in his or her secret that he or she thinks that he or she has done this unto you. Would you, then, teach him or her that he or she is right in his or her delusion? The idea that the guiltless SonDaughter of God can attack himself or herself and make himself or herself guilty is insane. In any form, in anyone, believe this not. For sin and condemnation are the same, and the belief in one is faith in the other, calling for punishment instead of love. Nothing can justify insanity, and to call for punishment upon yourself must be insane.

¹⁶ See no one, then, as guilty, and you will affirm the truth of guiltlessness unto yourself. In every condemnation that you offer the SonDaughter of God lies the conviction of your own guilt. If you would have the Holy Spirit make you free of it, accept His/Her offer of Atonement for all your brothers and sisters. For so you learn that it is true for you. Remember always that it is impossible to condemn the SonDaughter of God in part. Those whom you see as guilty become the witnesses to guilt in you, and you will see it there, for it is there until it is undone. Guilt is always in your own mind, which has condemned itself. Project it not, for while you do, it cannot be undone. With everyone whom you release from guilt, great is the joy in the God Realm, where the witnesses to your fatherhood or motherhood rejoice.

¹⁷ Guilt makes you blind, for while you see one spot of guilt within you, you will not see the light. And by projecting it, the world seems dark and shrouded in your guilt. You throw a dark veil over it and cannot see it because you cannot look within. You are afraid of what you would see there, but it is not there. The thing you fear is gone. If you would look within, you would see only the Atonement, shining in quiet and in peace upon the altar to your Father/Mother.

¹⁸ Do not be afraid to look within. The ego tells you all is black with guilt within you and bids you not to look. Instead, it bids you look upon your brothers and sisters and see the guilt in them. Yet this you cannot do without remaining blind. For those who see their brothers and sisters in the dark, and guilty in the dark in which they shroud them, are too afraid to look upon the light within. Within you is not what you believe is there and what you put your faith in.

¹⁹ Within you is the holy sign of perfect faith your FatherMother has in you. HeShe does not value you as you do. HeShe knows HimHerself and knows the truth in you. HeShe knows there is no difference, for HeShe knows not of differences. Can you see guilt where God knows there is perfect innocence? You can deny HisHer knowledge, but you cannot change it. Look, then, upon the light HeShe placed within you and learn that what you feared was there has been replaced with love.

IV. Release and Restoration

²⁰ You are accustomed to the notion that the mind can see the source of pain where it is not. The doubtful service of displacement is to hide the real source of your guilt and keep from your awareness the full perception that it is insane. Displacement always is maintained by the illusion that the source, from which attention is diverted, must be true and must be fearful, or you would not have displaced the guilt onto what you believed to be less fearful. You are therefore willing with little opposition to look upon all sorts of "sources" underneath awareness, provided that they are not the deeper source to which they bear no real relationship at all.

²¹ Insane ideas have no real relationships, for that is why they are insane. No real relationship can rest on guilt or even hold one spot of it to mar its purity. For all relationships which guilt has touched are used but to avoid the personal and the guilt. What strange relationships you have made for this strange purpose! And you forgot that real relationships are holy and cannot be used by you at all. They are used only by the Holy Spirit, and it is that which makes them pure. [If you displace your guilt upon them, the Holy Spirit cannot use them.] For by preempting for your own ends what you should have given to Her, She cannot use them unto your release. No one who would unite in any way with anyone for his or her own salvation will find it in that strange relationship. It is not shared, and so it is not real.

²² In any union with a brother or sister in which you seek to lay your guilt upon him or her or share it with him or her or perceive his or her own, you will feel guilty. Nor will you find satisfaction and peace with him, because your union with him or her is not real. You will see guilt in that relationship because you put it there. It is inevitable that those who suffer guilt will attempt to displace it, because they do believe in it. Yet, though they suffer, they will not look within and let it go. They cannot know they love and cannot understand what loving is. Their main concern is to perceive the source of guilt outside themselves, beyond their own control.

²³ When you maintain that you are guilty but the source lies in the past, you are not looking inward. The past is not in you. Your weird associations to it have no meaning in the present. Yet you let them stand between you and your brothers and sisters, with whom you find no real relationships at all. Can you expect to use your brothers and sisters as a means to "solve" the past and still to see them as they really are? Salvation is not found by those who use their brothers and sisters to resolve problems which are not there. You wanted not salvation in the past. Would you impose your idle wishes on the present and hope to find salvation now?

²⁴ Determine, then, to be not as you were. Use no relationship to hold you to the past, but with each one each day be born again. A minute, even less, will be enough to free you from the past and give your mind in peace over to the Atonement. When everyone is welcome to you as you would have yourself be welcome to your FatherMother, you will see no guilt in you. For you will have accepted the Atonement, which shone within you all the while you dreamed of guilt and would not look within and see it.

²⁵ As long as you believe that guilt is justified in any way in anyone whatever he or she may do, you will not look within, where you would always find Atonement. The end of guilt will never come as long as you believe there is a reason for it. For you must learn that guilt is always totally insane and has no reason. The Holy Spirit seeks not to dispel reality. If guilt were real, Atonement would not be. The purpose of Atonement is to dispel illusions, not to establish them as real and then forgive them.

²⁶ The Holy Spirit does not keep illusions in your mind to frighten you and show them to you fearfully to demonstrate what She has saved you from. What She has saved you from is gone. Give no reality to guilt, and see no reason for it. The Holy Spirit does what God would have Her do and has always done so. She has seen separation, but knows of union. She teaches healing, but She also knows of manifested creation. She would have you see and teach as She does, and through Her. Yet what She knows, you do not know, though it is yours.

²⁷ Now it is given you to heal and teach, to make what will be now. As yet it is not now. The SonDaughter of God believes that he or she is lost in guilt, alone in a dark world where pain is pressing everywhere upon him or her from without. When he or she has looked within and seen the radiance there, he or she will remember how much his or her FatherMother loves him or her. And it will seem incredible that he or she has ever thought his or her FatherMother loved him or her not and looked upon him or her as condemned. The moment that you realize guilt is insane, wholly unjustified, and wholly without reason, you will not fear to look upon the Atonement and accept it wholly.

²⁸ You who have been unmerciful unto yourselves do not remember your Father'sMother's Love. And looking without mercy upon your brothers and sisters, you do not remember how much you love HimHer. Yet it is forever true. In shining peace within you is the perfect purity in which you were created and manifested. Fear not to look upon the lovely truth in you. Look through the cloud of guilt that dims your vision, and look past darkness to the holy place where you will see the light. The altar to your FatherMother is as pure as HeShe Who raised it to HimHerself. Nothing can keep from you what the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness would have you see. Her will is like Her Father'sMother's, and She offers mercy to every Child of God, as She would have you do.

²⁹ Release from guilt as you would be released. There is no other way to look within and see the light of love shining as steadily and as surely as God HimHerself has always loved HisHer SonDaughter. And as HisHer SonDaughter loves HimHer. There is no fear in love, for love is guiltless. You who have always loved your FatherMother can have no fear for any reason to look within and see your holiness. You cannot be as you believed you were. Your guilt is without reason, because it is not in the Mind of God where you are. And this is reason, which the Holy Spirit would restore to you. She would remove only illusions. All else She would have you see. And in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's vision, She would show you the perfect purity that is forever within God's SonDaughter.

³⁰ You cannot enter into real relationships with any of God's SonsDaughters unless you love them all and equally. Love is not special. If you single out part of the SonDaughtership for your love, you are imposing guilt on all your relationships and making them unreal. You can love only as God loves. Seek not to love unlike HimHer, for there is no love apart from His. Until you recognize that this is true, you will have no idea what love is like. No one who condemns a brother or sister can see himself or herself as guiltless in the peace of God. If he or she is guiltless and in peace and sees it not, he or she is delusional and has not looked upon himself or herself. To him or her I say, ³¹ Behold the SonDaughter of God and look upon hisher purity and be still. In quiet look upon hisher holiness and offer thanks unto hisher FatherMother that no guilt has ever touched himher.

³² No illusion that you have ever held against himher has touched hisher innocence in any way. Hisher shining purity, wholly untouched by guilt and wholly loving, is bright within you. Let us look upon himher together and love himher. For in our love of himher is your guiltlessness. But look upon yourself, and gladness and appreciation for what you see will banish guilt forever. I thank You, FatherMother, for the purity of Your most holy SonDaughter, whom You have created and manifested guiltless forever.

³³ Like you my faith and my belief are centered on what I treasure. The difference is that I love only what God loves with me, and because of this, I treasure you beyond the value that you set on yourselves, even unto the worth that God has placed upon you. I love all that HeShe created and manifested, and all my faith and my belief I offer unto it. My faith in you is strong as all the love I give my FatherMother. My trust in you is without limit and without the fear that you will hear me not. I thank the FatherMother for your loveliness and for the many gifts that you will let me offer to the God Realm in honor of its wholeness, which is of God.

³⁴ Praise be unto you who make the FatherMother one with HisHer own SonDaughter. Alone we are all lowly, but together we shine with brightness so intense that none of us alone can even think on it. Before the glorious radiance of the God Realm, guilt melts away and, transformed into kindness, will never more be what it was. Every reaction that you experience will be so purified that it is fitting as a hymn of praise unto your FatherMother. See only praise of HimHer in what HeShe has created and manifested, for HeShe will never cease HisHer praise of you. United in this praise, we stand before the gates of the God Realm where we will surely enter in our blamelessness. God loves you. Could I, then, lack faith in you and love HimHer perfectly?

³⁵ Forgetfulness and sleep and even death become the ego's best advice for how to deal with the perceived and harsh intrusion of guilt on peace. Yet no one sees himself or herself in conflict and ravaged by a cruel war unless he or she believes that both opponents in the war are real. Believing this, he or she must escape, for such a war would surely end his or her peace of mind and so destroy him or her. Yet if he or she could but realize the war is between forces that are real and unreal powers, he or she could look upon himself or herself and see his or her freedom. No one finds himself or herself ravaged and torn in endless battles which he or she himself or herself perceives as wholly without meaning.

³⁶ God would not have HisHer SonDaughter embattled, and so HisHer Son'sDaughter's imagined "enemy," which he or she made, is totally unreal. You are but trying to escape a bitter war from which you have escaped. The war is gone. For you have heard the hymn of freedom rising unto the God Realm . Gladness and joy belong to God for your release, because you made it not. Yet as you made not freedom, so you made not a war that could endanger freedom. Nothing destructive ever was or will be. The war, the guilt, the past are gone as one into the unreality from which they came.

V. The Guarantee of the God Realm

³⁷ When we are all united in the God Realm, you will value nothing that you value here. For nothing that you value here you value wholly, and so you do not value it at all. Value is where God placed it, and the value of what God esteems cannot be judged, for it has been established. It is wholly of value. It can merely be appreciated or not. To value it partially is not to know its value. In the God Realm is everything God valued and nothing else. The God Realm is perfectly unambiguous. Everything is clear and bright and calls forth one response. There is no darkness, and there is no contrast. There is no variation. There is no interruption. There is a sense of peace so deep that no dream in this world has ever brought even a dim imagining of what it is.

³⁸ Nothing in this world can give this peace, for nothing in this world is wholly shared. Perfect perception can merely show you what is capable of being wholly shared. It can also show you the results of sharing while you still remember the results of not sharing. The Holy Spirit points quietly to the contrast, knowing that you will finally let Her judge the difference for you, allowing Her to demonstrate which must be true. She has perfect faith in your final judgment because She knows that She will make it for you. To doubt this would be to doubt that Her mission will be fulfilled. How is this possible, when Her mission is of God?

³⁹ You whose minds are darkened by doubt and guilt, remember this: God gave the Holy Spirit to you and gave Her the mission to remove all doubt and every trace of guilt that HisHer dear SonDaughter has laid upon himherself. It is impossible that this mission fail. Nothing can prevent what God would have accomplished from accomplishment. Whatever your reactions to the Holy Spirit's Voice may be, whatever voice you choose to listen to, whatever strange thoughts may occur to you, God's Will is done. You will find the peace in which HeShe has established you, because HeShe does not change HisHer Mind. HeShe is invariable as the peace in which you dwell and of which the Holy Spirit reminds you.

⁴⁰ You will not remember change and shift in the God Realm . You have need of contrast only here. Contrast and differences are necessary teaching aids, for by them you learn what to avoid and what to seek. When you have learned this, you will find the answer that makes the need for any differences disappear. Truth comes of its own will unto its own. When you have learned that you belong to truth, it will flow lightly over you without a difference of any kind. For you will need no contrast to help you realize that this is what you want, and only this. Fear not the Holy Spirit will fail in what your FatherMother has given Her to do. The Will of God can fail in nothing.

⁴¹ Have faith in only this one thing, and it will be sufficient: God Wills you be in the God Realm, and nothing can keep you from it or it from you. Your wildest misperceptions, your weird imaginings, your blackest nightmares all mean nothing. They will not prevail against the peace God wills for you. The Holy Spirit will restore your sanity, because insanity is not the Will of God. If that suffices HimHer, it is enough for you. You will not keep what God would have removed, because it breaks communication with you with whom HeShe would communicate. HisHer Voice will be heard.

⁴² The Communication Link which God HimHerself placed within you, joining your minds with His, cannot be broken. You may believe you want it broken, and this belief does interfere with the deep peace in which the sweet and constant communication which God would share with you is known. Yet HisHer channels of reaching out cannot be wholly closed and separated from HimHer. Peace will be yours, because HisHer peace still flows to you from HimHer Whose Will is peace. You have it now. The Holy Spirit will teach you how to use it and, by projecting it, to learn that it is in you.

⁴³ God willed you the God Realm and will always will you nothing else. The Holy Spirit knows only of HisHer Will. There is no chance that the God Realm will not be yours, for God is sure, and what HeShe wills is as sure as HeShe is. You will learn salvation, because you will learn how to save. It will not be possible to exempt yourself from what the Holy Spirit wills to teach you. Salvation is as sure as God. HisHer certainty suffices. Learn that even the darkest nightmare that disturbed the mind of God's sleeping SonDaughter holds no power over himher. Heshe will learn the lesson of awaking. God watches over himher, and light surrounds himher.

⁴⁴ Can God's SonDaughter lose himself or herself in dreams when God has placed within himher the glad call to waken and be glad? Heshe cannot separate himherself from what is in himher. Hisher sleep will not withstand the call to wake. The mission of redemption will be fulfilled as surely as the manifested creation will remain unchanged throughout eternity. You do not have to know that the God Realm is yours to make it so. It is so. Yet the Will of God must be accepted as your will to know it.

⁴⁵ The Holy Spirit cannot fail to undo for you everything you have learned that teaches you what is not true must be reconciled with truth. This is the reconciliation which the ego would substitute for your reconciliation unto sanity and unto peace. The Holy Spirit has a very different kind of reconciliation in Her Mind for you, and one which She will effect as surely as the ego will not effect what it attempts.

⁴⁶ Failure is of the ego, not of God. From HimHer you cannot wander, and there is no possibility that the plan the Holy Spirit offers to everyone for the salvation of everyone will not be perfectly accomplished. You will be released, and you will not remember anything you made that was not created and manifested for you and by you in return. For how can you remember what was never true or not remember what has always been? It is this reconciliation with truth, and only truth, in which the peace of the God Realm lies.

VI. The Testimony of Miracles

⁴⁷ Yes, you are blessed indeed. Yet in this world, you do not know it. But you have the means for learning it and seeing it quite clearly. The Holy Spirit uses logic as easily and as well, as does the ego, except that Her conclusions are not insane. They take a direction exactly opposite, pointing as clearly to the God Realm as the ego points to darkness and to death. We have followed much of the ego's logic and have seen its logical conclusions. And having seen them, we have realized that they cannot be seen but in illusions, for there alone their seeming clearness seems to be clearly seen. Let us now turn away from them and follow the simple logic by which the Holy Spirit teaches you the simple conclusions that speak for truth and only truth.

⁴⁸ If you are blessed and do not know it, you need to learn it must be so. The knowledge is not taught, but its conditions must be acquired, for it is they that have been thrown away. You can learn to bless and cannot give what you have not. If, then, you offer blessing, it must have come first to yourself. And you must also have accepted it as yours, for how else could you give it away?

⁴⁹ That is why your miracles offer you the testimony that you are blessed. If what you offer is complete forgiveness, you must have let guilt go, accepting the Atonement for yourself and learning you are guiltless. How could you learn what has been done for you, but which you do not know, unless you do what you would have to do if it had been done unto you? Indirect proof of truth is needed in a world made of denial and without direction. You will perceive the need for this if you will realize that to deny is the decision not to know. The logic of the world must therefore lead to nothing, for its goal is nothing.

⁵⁰ If you decide to have and give and be nothing except a dream, you must direct your thoughts unto oblivion. And if you have and give and are everything, and all this has been denied, your thought system is closed off and wholly separated from the truth. This is an insane world, and do not underestimate the actual extent of its insanity. There is no area of your perception that it has not touched, and your dream is sacred to you. That is why God placed the Holy Spirit in you, where you placed the dream.

⁵¹ Seeing is always outward. Were your thoughts wholly of you, the thought system which you made would be forever dark. The thoughts which the mind of God's SonDaughter projects have all the power that heshe gives to them. The thoughts heshe shares with God are beyond hisher belief, but those heshe made are hisher beliefs. And it is these, and not the truth, that heshe has chosen to defend and love. They will not be taken from himher. But they can be given up by himhende, for the Source of their undoing is in himher. There is nothing in the world to teach himher that the logic of the world is totally insane and leads to nothing. Yet in himher who made this insane logic, there is One Who knows it leads to nothing, for HeShe knows everything.

⁵² Any direction which will lead you where the Holy Spirit leads you not goes nowhere. Anything you deny which She knows to be true, you have denied yourself, and She must therefore teach you not to deny it. Undoing is indirect, as doing is. You were created and manifested only to create and manifest, neither to see nor do. These are but indirect expressions of the will to live, which has been blocked by the capricious and unholy whim of death and murder that your FatherMother shared not with you. You have set yourselves the task of sharing what cannot be shared. And while you think it possible to learn to do this, you will not believe all that is possible to learn to do.

⁵³ The Holy Spirit, therefore, must begin Her teaching by showing you what you can never learn. Her message is not indirect, but She must introduce the simple truth into a thought system which has become so twisted and so complex that you cannot see that it means nothing. She merely looks at its foundation and dismisses it. But you, who cannot undo what you have made [nor escape the heavy burden of its dullness that lies upon your minds], cannot see through it. It deceives you because you chose to deceive yourselves. Those who choose to be deceived will merely attack direct approaches, which would seem but to encroach upon deception and strike at it.

VII. The Happy Learner

⁵⁴ The Holy Spirit needs a happy learner in whom Her mission can be happily accomplished. You who are steadfastly devoted to misery must first recognize that you are miserable and not happy. The Holy Spirit cannot teach without this contrast, for you believe that misery is happiness. This has so confused you that you have undertaken to learn to do what you can never do, believing that unless you learn it, you will not be happy. You do not realize that the foundation on which this most peculiar learning goal depends means absolutely nothing. It does make sense to you.

⁵⁵ Have faith in nothing, and you will find the "treasure" that you sought. Yet you will add another burden to your mind, already burdened or you would not have sought another. You will believe that nothing is of value and will value it. A little piece of glass, a speck of dust, a body or a war are one to you. For if you value one thing made of nothing, you have believed that nothing can be precious and that you can learn how to make the untrue true.

⁵⁶ The Holy Spirit, seeing where you are but knowing you are elsewhere, begins Her lesson in simplicity with the fundamental teaching that truth is true. This is the hardest lesson you will ever learn, and in the end the only one. Simplicity is very difficult for twisted minds. Consider all the distortions you have made of nothing—all the strange forms and feelings and actions and reactions that you have woven out of it. Nothing is so alien to you as the simple truth, and nothing are you less inclined to listen to. The contrast between what is true and what is not is perfectly apparent, yet you do not see it.

⁵⁷ The simple and the obvious are not apparent to those who would make palaces and royal robes of nothing, believing they are kings with golden crowns because of them. All this the Holy Spirit sees and teaches simply that all this is not true. To these unhappy learners who would teach themselves nothing and delude themselves into believing that it is not nothing, the Holy Spirit says, with steadfast quietness:

⁵⁸ The truth is true. Nothing else matters, nothing else is real, and everything beside it is not there. Let Us make the one distinction for you which you cannot make but need to learn. Your faith in nothing is deceiving you. Offer your faith to Me, and I will place it gently in the holy place where it belongs.

*You will find no deception there but only the simple truth.
And you will love it because you will understand it.*

⁵⁹ Like you, the Holy Spirit did not make truth. Like God, She knows it to be true. She brings the light of truth into the darkness and lets it shine on you. And as it shines, your brothers and sisters see it, and realizing that this light is not what you have made, they see in you more than you see. They will be happy learners of the lesson which this light brings to them because it teaches them release from nothing and from all the works of nothing. The heavy chains which seem to bind them unto despair they do not see as nothing until you bring the light to them. And then they see the chains have disappeared, and so they must have been nothing. And you will see it with them. Because you taught them gladness and release, they will become your teachers in release and gladness.

⁶⁰ When you teach anyone that truth is true, you learn it with him or her. And so you learn that what seemed hardest was the easiest. Learn to be happy learners. You will never learn how to make nothing everything. Yet see that this has been your goal and recognize how foolish it has been. Be glad it is undone, for when you look at it in simple honesty, it is undone. We said before, "Be not content with nothing," for you have believed that nothing could content you. It is not so.

⁶¹ If you would be a happy learner, you must give everything that you have learned over to the Holy Spirit to be unlearned for you. And then begin to learn the joyous lessons that come quickly on the firm foundation that truth is true. For what is builded there is true and built on truth. The universe of learning will open up before you in all its gracious simplicity. With truth before you, you will not look back.

⁶² The happy learner meets the conditions of learning here, as he or she also meets the conditions of knowledge in the God Realm. All this lies in the Holy Spirit's plan to free you from the past and open up the way to freedom for you. For truth is true. What else could ever be or ever was? This simple lesson holds the key to the dark door which you believe is locked forever. You made this door of nothing and behind it is nothing. The key is only the light which shines away the shapes and forms and fears of nothing. Accept this key to freedom from the hands of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness Who gives it to you that you may join Him/Her in the holy task of bringing light to darkness. For, like your brothers and sisters, you do not realize the light has come and freed you from the sleep of darkness.

⁶³ Behold your brothers and sisters in their freedom and learn of them how to be free of darkness. The light in you will waken them, and they will not leave you asleep. The vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is given the very instant that it is perceived. Where everything is clear, it is all holy. The quietness of its simplicity is so compelling that you will realize it is impossible to deny the simple truth. For there is nothing else. God is everywhere, and HisHer SonDaughter is in HimHer with everything. Can heshe sing the dirge of sorrow when this is true?

VIII. The Decision For Guiltlessness

⁶⁴ Learning will be commensurate with motivation, and the interference in your motivation for learning is exactly the same as that which interferes with all your thinking. The happy learner cannot feel guilty about learning. This is so essential to learning that it should never be forgotten. The guiltless learner learns so easily because his or her thoughts are free. Yet this entails the recognition that guilt is interference, not salvation, and serves no useful function at all.

⁶⁵ You are accustomed to using guiltlessness merely to offset the pain of guilt and do not look upon it as having value in itself. You believe that guilt and guiltlessness are both of value, each representing an escape from what the other does not offer you. You do not want either alone, for without both, you do not see yourselves as whole and therefore happy. Yet you are whole only in your guiltlessness, and only in your guiltlessness can you be happy. There is no conflict here. To wish for guilt in any way, in any form, will lose appreciation of the value of your guiltlessness and push it from your sight.

⁶⁶ There is no compromise that you can make with guilt and escape the pain which only guiltlessness allays. Learning is living here, as creating/manifesting is being in the God Realm . Whenever the pain of guilt seems to attract you, remember that, if you yield to it, you are deciding against your happiness and will not learn how to be happy. Say therefore to yourself gently, but with the conviction born of the love of God and of HisHer SonDaughter, ⁶⁷ *What I experience, I will make manifest.

If I am guiltless, I have nothing to fear.
I choose to testify to my acceptance of the Atonement, not for its rejection.
I would accept my guiltlessness by making it manifest and sharing it.
Let me bring peace to God's SonDaughter from hisher FatherMother.*

⁶⁸ Each day, each hour and minute, even every second, you are deciding between the crucifixion and the resurrection, between the ego and the Holy Spirit. The ego is the choice for guilt; the Holy Spirit the decision for guiltlessness. The power of decision is all that is yours. What you can decide between is fixed because there are no alternatives except truth and illusion. And there is no overlap between them because they are opposites which cannot be reconciled and cannot both be true. You are guilty or guiltless, bound or free, happy or unhappy.

⁶⁹ The miracle teaches you that you have chosen guiltlessness, freedom, and joy. It is not a cause, but an effect. It is the natural result of choosing right, attesting to your happiness that comes from choosing to be free of guilt. Everyone you offer healing to returns it. Everyone you attack keeps it and cherishes it by holding it against you. Whether he or she does this or does it not will make no difference; you will think he or she does. It is impossible to offer what you do not want without this penalty. The cost of giving is receiving. Either it is a penalty from which you suffer or the happy purchase of a treasure to hold dear.

⁷⁰ No penalty is ever asked of God's SonDaughter except by himherself and of himherself. Every chance given himher to heal is another opportunity to replace darkness with light and fear with love. If heshe refuses it, heshe binds himherself to darkness because heshe did not choose to free hisher brother or sister and enter light with him or her. By giving power to nothing, heshe threw away the joyous opportunity to learn that nothing has no power. And by not dispelling darkness, he or she became afraid of darkness and of light. The joy of learning that darkness has no power over the SonDaughter of God is the happy lesson the Holy Spirit teaches and would have you teach with Her. It is Her joy to teach it, as it will be yours.

⁷¹ The way to teach this simple lesson is merely this: guiltlessness is invulnerability. Therefore, make your invulnerability manifest to everyone, and teach him or her that whatever he or she may try to do to you, your perfect freedom from the belief that you can be harmed shows him or her he or she is guiltless. He or she can do nothing that can hurt you, and by refusing to allow him or her to think he or she can, you teach him or her that the Atonement, which you have accepted for yourself, is also his or her. There is nothing to forgive. No one can hurt the SonDaughter of God. Hisher guilt is wholly without cause, and being without cause, cannot exist.

⁷² God is the only Cause, and guilt is not of HimHer. Teach no one he or she has hurt you, for if you do, you teach yourself that what is not of God has power over you. The causeless cannot be. Do not attest to it, and do not foster belief in it in any mind. Remember always that mind is one and cause is one. You will learn communication with this oneness only when you learn to deny the causeless and accept the Cause of God as yours. The power that God has given to HisHer SonDaughter is HisHer, and nothing else can HisHer SonDaughter see or choose to look upon without imposing on himself or herself the penalty of guilt in place of all the happy teaching the Holy Spirit would gladly offer him or her.

⁷³ Whenever you decide to make decisions for yourself, you are thinking destructively, and the decision will be wrong. It will hurt you because of the concept of decision which led to it. It is not true that you can make decisions by yourself or for yourself alone. No thought of God's SonDaughter can be separate or isolated in its effects. Every decision is made for the whole SonDaughtership, directed in and out and influencing a constellation larger than anything you ever dreamed of. Those who accept the Atonement are invulnerable. But those who believe they are guilty will respond to guilt because they think it is salvation and will not refuse to see it and side with it. [They believe that increasing guilt is self-protection.] And they will fail to understand the simple fact that what they do not want must hurt them.

⁷⁴ All this arises because they do not believe that what they want is good. Yet will was given them because it is holy and will bring to them all that they need, coming as naturally as peace that knows no limits. There is nothing their wills will not provide that offers them anything of value. Yet because they do not understand their will, the Holy Spirit quietly understands it for them and gives them what they will without effort, strain, or the impossible burden of deciding what they want and need alone.

⁷⁵ It will never happen that you will have to make decisions for yourself. You are not bereft of help, and Help that knows the answer. Would you be content with little, which is all that you alone can offer yourself, when She Who gives you everything will simply offer it to you? She will never ask what you have done to make you worthy of the gift of God. Ask it not therefore of yourselves. Instead, accept Her answer, for She knows that you are worthy of everything God wills for you. Do not try to escape the gift of God which She so freely and so gladly offers you. She offers you but what God gave Her for you. You need not decide whether or not you are deserving of it. God knows you are.

⁷⁶ Would you deny the truth of God's decision and place your pitiful appraisal of yourself in place of HisHer calm and unswerving value of HisHer SonDaughter? Nothing can shake God's conviction of the perfect purity of everything that HeShe created and manifested, for it is wholly pure. Do not decide against it, for being of HimHer, it must be true. Peace abides in every mind that quietly accepts the plan which God has set for his or her Atonement, relinquishing his or her own. You know not of salvation, for you do not understand it. Make no decisions about what it is or where it lies, but ask of the Holy Spirit everything and leave all decisions to Her gentle counsel.

⁷⁷ The One Who knows the plan of God which God would have you follow can teach you what it is. Only Her wisdom is capable of guiding you to follow it. Every decision you undertake alone but signifies that you would define what salvation is and what you would be saved from. The Holy Spirit knows that all salvation is escape from guilt. You have no other "enemy," and against this strange distortion of the purity of the SonDaughter of God, the Holy Spirit is your only friend. She is the strong protector of your innocence, which sets you free. And it is sHer decision to undo everything that would obscure your innocence from your unclouded mind.

⁷⁸ Let Her, therefore, be the only Guide that you would follow to salvation. She knows the way and leads you gladly on it. With Her you will not fail to learn what God wills for you is your will. Without Her guidance, you will think you know alone and will decide against your peace as surely as you made the wrong decision in ever thinking that salvation lay in you alone. Salvation is of Her to Whom God gave it for you. She has not forgotten it. Forget Her not, and She will make every decision for you, for your salvation, and the peace of God in you.

⁷⁹ Seek not to appraise the worth of God's SonDaughter, whom HeShe created and manifested holy, for to do so is to evaluate hiser FatherMother and judge against HimHer. And you will feel guilty for this imagined crime, which no one in this world or the God Realm could possibly commit. God's Spirit teaches only that the "sin" of self-replacement on the throne of God is not a source of guilt. What cannot happen can have no effects to fear. Be quiet in your faith in Her Who loves you and would lead you out of insanity. Madness may be your choice, but not your reality. Never forget the love of God, Who has remembered you. For it is quite impossible that HeShe could ever let HisHer SonDaughter drop from HisHer loving Mind wherein heshe was created and manifested and where hiser abode was fixed in perfect peace forever.

⁸⁰ Say to the Holy Spirit only, "Decide for me," and it is done. For Her decisions are reflections of what God knows about you, and in this light, error of any kind becomes impossible. Why would you struggle so frantically to anticipate all that you cannot know when all knowledge lies behind every decision which the Holy Spirit makes for you? Learn of Her wisdom and Her love and teach Her answer to everyone who struggles in the dark. For you decide for them and for yourself.

⁸¹ How gracious is it to decide all things through Her Whose equal love is given equally to all alike! She leaves you no one outside yourself, alone without you. And so She gives you what is yours because your FatherMother would have you share it with HimHer. In everything be led by Her and do not reconsider. Trust Her to answer quickly, surely, and with love for everyone who will be touched in any way by the decision. And everyone will be. Would you take unto yourself the sole responsibility for deciding what can bring only good to everyone? Would you know this?

⁸² You taught yourselves the most unnatural habit of not communicating with your CreatorManifestor. Yet you remain in close communication with HimHer and with everything that is within HimHer, as it is within yourself. Unlearn isolation through HisHer loving guidance and learn of all the happy communication that you have thrown away but could not lose.

⁸³ Whenever you are in doubt what you should do, think of Her Presence in you and tell yourself this and only this:

⁸⁴ *She leadeth me and knows the way, which I know not.
Yet She will never keep from me what She would have me learn.
And so I trust Her to communicate to me all that She knows for me*

⁸⁵ Then let Her teach you quietly how to perceive your guiltlessness, which is already there.

IX. The Way of Salvation

⁸⁶ When you accept a brother's or sister's guiltlessness, you will see the Atonement in him or her. For by proclaiming it in him or her, you make it yours, and you will see what you sought. You will not see the symbol of your brother's or sister's guiltlessness shining within him or her while you still believe it is not there. His or her guiltlessness is your Atonement. Grant it to him or her, and you will see the truth of what you have acknowledged. Yet truth is offered first to be received, even as God gave it first to HisHer SonDaughter. The first in time means nothing, but the First in eternity is God the FatherMother, Who is both First and One. Beyond the First, there is no other, for there is no order, no second or third and nothing but the First.

⁸⁷ You who belong to the First Cause, created and manifested by HimHer like unto HimHerself and part of HimHer, are more than merely guiltless. The state of guiltlessness is only the condition in which what is not there has been removed from the disordered mind that thought it was. This state, and only this, must you attain with God beside you. For until you do, you will still think that you are separate from HimHer. You can feel HisHer Presence next to you but cannot know that you are one with HimHer. This need not be taught. Learning applies only to the condition in which it happens of itself.

⁸⁸ When you have let all that obscured the truth in your most holy mind be undone for you and stand in grace before your FatherMother, HeShe will give HimHerself to you as HeShe has always done. Giving HimHerself is all HeShe knows, and so it is all knowledge. For what HeShe knows not cannot be and therefore cannot be given. Ask not to be forgiven, for this has already been accomplished. Ask, rather, to learn how to forgive and restore what always was to your unforgiving mind. Atonement becomes real and visible to them that use it. On earth this is your only function, and you must learn that it is all you want to learn.

⁸⁹ You will feel guilty till you learn this. For in the end, whatever form it takes, your guilt arises from your failure to fulfill your function in God's Mind with all of yours. Can you escape this guilt by failing to fulfill your function here? You need not understand manifested creation to do what must be done before that knowledge would be meaningful to you. God breaks no barriers; neither did HeShe make them. When you release them, they are gone. God will not fail nor ever has in anything.

⁹⁰ Decide that God is right and you are wrong about yourself. HeShe created and manifested you out of HimHerself but still within HimHer. HeShe knows what you are. Remember that there is no second to HimHer. There cannot, therefore, be anyone without HisHer Holiness nor anyone unworthy of HisHer perfect Love. Fail not in your function of loving in a loveless place made out of darkness and deceit, for thus are darkness and deceit undone. Fail not yourself, but instead offer to God and you HisHer blameless SonDaughter. For this small gift of appreciation for HisHer Love, God will HimHerself exchange your gift for HisHers.

⁹¹ Before you make any decisions for yourself, remember that you have decided against your function in the God Realm and consider carefully whether you want to make decisions here. Your function here is only to decide against deciding what you want in recognition that you do not know. How, then, can you decide what you should do? Leave all decisions to the One Who speaks for God and for your function as She knows it. So will She teach you to remove the awful burden you have laid upon yourself by loving not the SonDaughter of God and trying to teach himher guilt instead of love. Give up this frantic and insane attempt, which cheats you of the joy of living with your God and FatherMother, and awaking gladly to HisHer love and holiness, which join together as the truth in you, making you one with HimHer.

⁹² When you have learned how to decide with God, all decisions become as easy and as right as breathing. There is no effort, and you will be led as gently as if you were being carried along a quiet path in summer. Only your own volition seems to make deciding hard. The Holy Spirit will not delay at all in answering your every question what to do. She knows. And She will tell you and then do it for you. You who are tired might consider whether this is not more restful than sleep. For you can bring your guilt into sleeping but not into this.

Chapter Fourteen:

Bringing Illusions to Truth

I. Introduction

¹ Unless you are guiltless, you cannot know God, Whose Will is that you know HimHer. Therefore, you must be guiltless. Yet if you do not accept the necessary conditions for knowing HimHer, you have denied HimHer and do not recognize HimHer, though HeShe is all around you. HeShe cannot be known without HisHer SonDaughter, whose guiltlessness is the condition for knowing HimHer. Accepting HisHer SonDaughter as guilty is denial of the FatherMother so complete that knowledge is swept away from recognition in the very mind where God HimHerself has placed it. If you would but listen and learn how impossible this is! Do not endow HimHer with attributes you understand. You made HimHer not, and anything you understand is not of HimHer.

² Your task is not to make reality. It is here without your making, but not without you. You who have thrown your selves away and valued God so little, hear me speak for HimHer and for yourselves. You cannot understand how much your FatherMother loves you, for there is no parallel in your experience of the world to help you understand it. There is nothing on earth with which it can compare and nothing you have ever felt, apart from HimHer, that resembles it ever so faintly. You cannot even give a blessing in perfect gentleness. Would you know of One Who gives forever and Who knows of nothing except giving?

³ The Children of the God Realm live in the light of the blessing of their FatherMother because they know that they are sinless. The Atonement was established as the means of restoring guiltlessness to the mind which has denied it and thus denied the God Realm to itself. Atonement teaches you the true condition of the SonDaughter of God. It does not teach you what you are or what your FatherMother is. The Holy Spirit,

Who remembers this for you, merely teaches you how to remove the blocks that stand between you and what you know. Her memory is yours. If you remember what you have made, you are remembering nothing. Remembrance of reality is in Her and therefore in you.

II. Guilt and Guiltlessness

⁴ The guiltless and the guilty are totally incapable of understanding one another. Each perceives the other as like himself or herself, making them unable to communicate because each sees the other unlike the way he or she sees himself or herself. God can communicate only to the Holy Spirit in your mind because only She shares the knowledge of what you are with God. And only the Holy Spirit can answer God for you, for only She knows what God is. Everything else that you have placed within your mind cannot exist, for what is not in communication with the Mind of God has never been. Communication with God is life. Nothing without it is at all.

⁵ The only part of your mind that has reality is the part which links you still with God. Would you have all of it transformed into a radiant message of God's Love, to share with all the lonely ones who denied HimHer with you? God makes this possible. Would you deny HisHer yearning to be known? You yearn for HimHer, as HeShe for you. This is forever changeless. Accept, then, the immutable. Leave the world of death behind, and return quietly to the God Realm . There is nothing of value here and everything of value there. Listen to the Holy Spirit and to God through Her. She speaks of you to you. There is no guilt in you, for God is blessed in HisHer SonDaughter as the SonDaughter is blessed in HimHer.

⁶ Each one of you has a special part to play in the Atonement, but the message given to each to share is always the same—God's SonDaughter is guiltless. Each one teaches the message differently and learns it differently. Yet until he or she teaches it and learns it, he or she will suffer the pain of dim awareness that his or her true function remains unfulfilled in him or her. The burden of guilt is heavy, but God would not have you bound by it. HisHer plan for your awaking is as perfect as yours is fallible. You know not what you do, but She Who knows is with you. Her gentleness is yours, and all the love you share with God She holds in trust for you. She would teach you nothing except how to be happy.

⁷ Blessed SonDaughter of a wholly blessing FatherMother, joy was created and manifested for you. Who can condemn whom God has blessed? There is nothing in the Mind of God that does not share HisHer shining innocence. Manifested creation is the natural extension of perfect purity. Your only calling here is to devote yourself with active willingness to the denial of guilt in all its forms. To accuse is not to understand. The happy learners of the Atonement become the Teachers or Teacheresses of the innocence that is the right of all that God created and manifested. Deny them not what is their due, for you will not withhold it from them alone.

⁸ The inheritance of the God Realm is the right of God's SonDaughter, given himher in hisher manifested creation. Do not try to steal it from himher, or you will ask for guilt and will experience it. Protect hisher purity from every thought that would steal it away and keep it from hisher sight. Bring innocence to light in answer to the call of the Atonement. Never allow purity to remain hidden, but shine away the heavy veils of guilt within which the SonDaughter of God has hidden himherself from hisher own sight. We are all joined in the Atonement here, and nothing else can unite us in this world. So will the world of separation slip away and full communication be restored between the FatherMother and the SonDaughter.

⁹ The miracle acknowledges the guiltlessness which must have been denied to produce need of healing. Do not withhold this glad acknowledgment, for hope of happiness and release from suffering of every kind lie in it. Who is there but wishes to be free of pain? He or she may not yet have learned how to exchange his or her guilt for innocence nor realize that only in this exchange can freedom from pain be his or hers. Yet those who have failed to learn need teaching, not attack. To attack those who have need of teaching is to fail to learn from them.

¹⁰ Teachers or Teacheresses of innocence, each in his or her own way, have joined together, taking their part in the unified curriculum of the Atonement. There is no unity of learning goals apart from this. There is no conflict in this curriculum, which has one aim however it is taught. Each effort made on its behalf is offered for the single purpose of release from guilt to the eternal glory of God and HisHer manifested creation. And every teaching that points to this points straight to the God Realm and to the peace of God. There is no pain, no trial, no fear that teaching this can fail to overcome. The power of God HimHerself supports this teaching and guarantees its limitless results.

¹¹ Join your own efforts to the power that cannot fail and must result in peace. No one can be untouched by teaching such as this. You will not see yourself beyond the power of God if you teach only this. You will not be exempt from the effects of this most holy lesson, which seeks but to restore what is the right of God's manifested creation. From everyone whom you accord release from guilt, you will inevitably learn your innocence. The circle of Atonement has no end. And you will find ever-increasing confidence in your safe inclusion in what is for all in everyone you bring within its safety and its perfect peace.

¹² Peace, then, be unto everyone who becomes a teacher or teacheress of peace. For peace is the acknowledgment of perfect purity from which no one is excluded. Within its holy circle is everyone whom God created and manifested as HisHer SonDaughter. Joy is its unifying attribute, with no one left outside to suffer guilt alone. The power of God draws everyone to its safe embrace of love and union. Stand quietly within this circle and attract all tortured minds to join with you in the safety of its peace and holiness. Abide with me within it as Teachers or Teacheresses of Atonement, not of guilt.

¹³ Blessed are you who teach with me. Our power comes not of us but of our FatherMother. In guiltlessness we know HimHer, as HeShe knows us guiltless. I stand within the circle, calling you to peace. Teach peace with me and stand with me on holy ground. Remember for everyone your Father'sMother's power that HeShe has given him or her. Believe not that you cannot teach HisHer perfect peace. Stand not outside but join with me within. Fail not the only purpose to which my teaching calls you. Restore to God HisHer SonDaughter as HeShe created and manifested himher by teaching himher hisher innocence.

¹⁴ The crucifixion has no part in the Atonement. Only the resurrection became my part in it. That is the symbol of the release from guilt by guiltlessness. Whom you perceive as guilty, you would crucify. Yet you restore guiltlessness to whomever you see as guiltless. Crucifixion is always the ego's aim. It sees as guilty, and by its condemnation, it would kill. The Holy Spirit sees only guiltlessness, and in Her gentleness, She would release from fear and reestablish the reign of love. The power of love is in Her gentleness, which is of God and therefore cannot crucify nor suffer crucifixion. The temple you restore becomes your altar, for it was rebuilt through you. And everything you give to God is yours. Thus HeShe creates and manifests, and thus must you restore.

¹⁵ Each one you see you place within the holy circle of Atonement or leave outside, judging him or her fit for crucifixion or for redemption. If you bring him or her into the circle of purity, you will rest there with him or her. If you leave him or her without, you join him or her there. Judge not except in quietness which is not of you. Refuse to accept anyone as without the blessing of Atonement, and bring him or her into it by blessing him or her. Holiness must be shared, for therein lies everything that makes it holy. Come gladly to the holy circle, and look out in peace on all who think they are outside. Cast no one out, for this is what he or she seeks, along with you. Come, let us join him or her in the holy place of peace, which is for all of us, united as one within the cause of peace.

III. Out of the Darkness

¹⁶ The journey that we undertake together is the exchange of dark for light, of ignorance for understanding. Nothing you understand is fearful. It is only in darkness and in ignorance that you perceive the frightening, and you shrink away from it to further darkness. And yet it is only the hidden that can terrify, not for what it is, but for its hiddenness. The obscure is frightening because you do not understand its meaning. If you did, it would be clear, and you would be no longer in the dark. Nothing has hidden value, for what is hidden cannot be shared, and so its value is unknown. The hidden is kept apart, but value always lies in joint appreciation. What is concealed cannot be loved, and so it must be feared.

¹⁷ The quiet light in which the Holy Spirit dwells within you is merely perfect openness in which nothing is hidden and therefore nothing is fearful. Attack will always yield to love if it is brought to love, not hidden from it. There is no darkness that the light of love will not dispel, unless it is concealed from love's beneficence. What is kept apart from love cannot share its healing power, because it has been separated off and kept in darkness. The sentinels of darkness watch over it carefully, and you who made these guardians of illusion out of nothing are now afraid of them.

¹⁸ Would you continue to give imagined power to these strange ideas of safety? They are neither safe nor unsafe. They do not protect; neither do they attack. They do nothing at all, being nothing at all. As guardians of darkness and of ignorance, look to them only for fear, for what they keep obscure is fearful. But let them go, and what was fearful will be so no longer. Without protection of obscurity, only the light of love remains, for only this has meaning and can live in light. Everything else must disappear.

¹⁹ Death yields to life simply because destruction is not true. The light of guiltlessness shines guilt away because, when they are brought together, the truth of one must make the falsity of its opposite perfectly clear. Keep not guilt and guiltlessness apart, for your belief that you can have them both is meaningless. All you have done by keeping them apart is lose their meaning by confusing them with each other. And so you do not realize that only one means anything, and the other is wholly without sense of any kind.

²⁰ You have interpreted the separation as a means which you have made for breaking your communication with your FatherMother. The Holy Spirit reinterprets it as a means of reestablishing what has not been broken but has been made obscure. All things you made have use to Her for Her most holy purpose. She knows you are not separate from God, but She perceives much in your mind that lets you think you are. All this, and nothing else, would She separate from you. The power of decision, which you made in place of the power of manifested creation, She would teach you how to use on your behalf. You who made it to crucify yourselves must learn of Her how to apply it to the holy cause of restoration.

²¹ You who speak in dark and devious symbols do not understand the language you have made. It has no meaning, for its purpose is not communication, but rather the disruption of communication. If the purpose of language is communication, how can this tongue mean anything? Yet even this strange and twisted effort to communicate through not communicating holds enough of love to make it meaningful if its interpreter is not its maker. You who made it are but expressing conflict, from which the Holy Spirit would release you. Leave what you would communicate to Her. She will interpret it to you with perfect clarity, for She knows with Whom you are in perfect communication.

²² You know not what you say, and so you know not what is said to you. Yet your Interpreter perceives the meaning in your alien language. She will not attempt to communicate the meaningless. But She will separate out all that has meaning, dropping off the rest and offering your true communication to those who would communicate as truly with you. You speak two languages at once, and this must lead to unintelligibility. Yet if one means nothing and the other everything, only that one is possible for purposes of communication. The other but interferes with it.

²³ The Holy Spirit's function is entirely communication. She therefore must remove whatever interferes with it in order to restore it. Therefore, keep no source of interference from Her sight, for She will not attack your sentinels. But bring them to Her, and let Her gentleness teach you that in the light they are not fearful and cannot serve to guard the dark doors behind which nothing at all is carefully concealed. We must open all doors and let the light come streaming through. There are no hidden chambers in God's temple. Its gates are open wide to greet HisHer SonDaughter. No one can fail to come where God has called him or her if he or she close not the door himself or herself upon his or her Father'sMother's welcome.

IV. Perception Without Deceit

²⁴ What do you want? Light or darkness, knowledge or ignorance are yours, but not both. Opposites must be brought together and not kept apart. For their separation is only in your mind, and they are reconciled by union, as you are. In union, everything that is not real must disappear, for truth is union. As darkness disappears in light, so ignorance fades away when knowledge dawns. Perception is the medium by which ignorance is brought to knowledge. Yet the perception must be without deceit, for otherwise it becomes the messenger of ignorance rather than a helper in the search for truth.

²⁵ The search for truth is but the honest searching out of everything that interferes with truth. Truth is. It can be neither lost nor sought nor found. It is there, wherever you are, being within you. Yet it can be recognized or unrecognized, real or false to you. If you hide it, it becomes unreal to you because you hid it and surrounded it with fear. Under each cornerstone of fear on which you have erected your insane system of belief, the truth lies hidden. Yet you cannot know this, for by hiding truth in fear, you see no reason to believe the more you look at fear, the less you see it, and the clearer what it conceals becomes.

²⁶ It is not possible to convince the unknowing that they know. From their point of view, it is not true. Yet it is true because God knows it. These are clearly opposite viewpoints of what the "unknowing" are. To God, unknowing is impossible. It is therefore not a point of view at all but merely a belief in something that does not exist. It is only this belief that the unknowing have, and by it they are wrong about themselves. They have defined themselves as they were not created and manifested. Their manifested creation was not a point of view, but rather a certainty. Uncertainty brought to certainty does not retain any conviction of reality.

²⁷ You must have noticed that the emphasis has been on bringing what is undesirable to the desirable; what you do not want to what you do. You will realize that salvation must come to you this way if you consider what dissociation is. Dissociation is a distorted process of thinking whereby two systems of belief which cannot coexist are both maintained. It has been recognized that if they were brought together their joint acceptance would become impossible. But if one is kept in darkness from the other, their separation seems to keep them both alive and equal in their reality. Their joining thus becomes the source of fear, for if they meet, acceptance must be withdrawn from one of them.

²⁸ You cannot have them both, for each denies the other. Apart, this fact is lost from sight, for each in a separate place can be endowed with firm belief. Bring them together, and the fact of their complete incompatibility is instantly apparent. One will go because the other is seen in the same place. Light cannot enter darkness when a mind believes in darkness and will not let it go. Truth does not struggle against ignorance, and love does not attack fear. What needs no protection does not defend itself. Defense is of your making. God knows it not. The Holy Spirit uses defenses on behalf of truth only because you made them against it. Her perception of them, according to Her purpose, merely changes them into a call for what you have attacked with them.

²⁹ Defenses, like everything you made, must be gently turned to your own good, translated by the Holy Spirit from means of self-destruction to means of preservation and release. Her task is mighty, but the power of God is with Her. Therefore, to Her it is so easy that it was accomplished the instant it was given Her for you. Do not delay yourselves in your return to peace by wondering how She can fulfill what God has given Her to do. Leave that to Her Who knows. You are not asked to do mighty tasks yourself. You are merely asked to do the little She suggests you do, trusting Her only to the small extent of believing that if She asks it, you can do it. You will see how easily all that She asks can be accomplished.

³⁰ The Holy Spirit asks of you but this—bring to Her every secret you have locked away from Her. Open every door to Her and bid Her enter the darkness and lighten it away. At your request She enters gladly. She brings the light to darkness if you make the darkness open to Her. But what you hide She cannot look upon. For She sees for you, and unless you look with Her, She cannot see. The vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is not for Her alone but for Her with you. Bring, therefore, all your dark and secret thoughts to Her and look upon them with Her. She holds the light, and you the darkness. They cannot coexist when both of you together look on them. Her judgment must prevail, and She will give it to you as you join your perception to Hers. Joining with Her in seeing is the way in which you learn to share with Her the interpretation of perception that leads to knowledge.

³¹ You cannot see alone. Sharing perception with Her Whom God has given you teaches you how to recognize what you see. It is the recognition that nothing you see means anything alone. Seeing with Her will show you that all meaning, including yours, comes not from double vision but from the gentle fusing of everything into one meaning, one emotion, and one purpose. God has one purpose which She shares with you. The single vision which the Holy Spirit offers you will bring this oneness to your mind with clarity and brightness so intense you could not wish for all the world not to accept what God would have you have. Behold your will, accepting it as Hers, with all Her love as yours. All honor to you through Her, and through Her unto God.

³² In the darkness you have obscured the glory God gave you and the power HeShe bestowed upon HisHer guiltless SonDaughter. All this lies hidden in every darkened place shrouded in guilt and in the dark denial of innocence. Behind the dark doors which you have closed lies nothing, because nothing can obscure the gift of God. It is the closing of the doors that interferes with recognition of the power of God that shines in you. Banish not power from your mind, but let all that would hide your glory be brought to the judgment of the Holy Spirit and there undone. Whom She would save for glory is saved for it. She has promised the FatherMother that through Her you would be released from littleness to glory. To what She promised God She is wholly faithful, for She shared with God the promise that was given Her to share with you.

³³ She shares it still, for you. Everything that promises otherwise, great or small, however much or little valued, She will replace with the one promise given unto Her to lay upon the altar to your FatherMother and HisHer SonDaughter. No altar stands to God without HisHer SonDaughter. And nothing brought there that is not equally worthy of both but will be replaced by gifts wholly acceptable to FatherMother and to SonDaughter. Can you offer guilt to God? You cannot, then, offer it to HisHer SonDaughter. For they are not apart, and gifts to one are offered to the other.

³⁴ You know not God because you know not this. And yet you do know God and also this. All this is safe within you, where the Holy Spirit shines. She shines not in division, but in the meeting place where God, united with HisHer SonDaughter, speaks to HisHer SonDaughter through Her. Communication between what cannot be divided cannot cease. The holy meeting place of the unseparated FatherMother and HisHer SonDaughter lies in the Holy Spirit and in you. All interference in the communication that God HimHerself wills with HisHer SonDaughter is quite impossible here. Unbroken and uninterrupted love flows constantly between the FatherMother and the SonDaughter, as both would have it be. And so it is.

³⁵ Let your minds wander not through darkened corridors, away from light's center. You may choose to lead yourselves astray, but you can only be brought together by the Guide appointed for you. She will surely lead you to where God and HisHer SonDaughter await your recognition. They are joined in giving you the gift of oneness, before which all separation vanishes. Unite with what you are. You cannot join with anything except reality. God's glory and HisHer Son'sDaughter's belong to you in truth. They have no opposite, and nothing else can you bestow upon yourselves.

³⁶ There is no substitute for truth. And truth will make this plain to you as you are brought into the place where you must meet with truth. And there you must be led, through gentle understanding which can lead you nowhere else. Where God is, there are you. Such is the truth. Nothing can change the knowledge given you by God into unknowingness. Everything God created and manifested knows its CreatorManifestor. For this is how manifested creation is accomplished by the CreatorManifestor and by HisHer creationsmanifestations. In the holy meeting place are joined the FatherMother and HisHer creationsmanifestations, and the creationsmanifestations of HisHer SonDaughter with them together. There is one link which joins them all together, holding them in the oneness out of which manifested creation happens.

³⁷ The link with which the FatherMother joins HimHerself to those HeShe gives the power to create and manifest like HimHer can never be dissolved. The God Realm itself is union with all of manifested creation and with its One CreatorManifestor. And the God Realm remains the Will of God for you. Lay no gifts other than this upon your altars, for nothing can coexist beside it. Here your meager offerings are brought together with the gift of God, and only what is worthy of the FatherMother will be accepted by the SonDaughter, for whom it was intended. To whom God gives HimHerself, HeShe is given. Your little gifts will vanish on the altar where HeShe has placed HisHer Own.

V. The Recognition of Holiness

³⁸ The Atonement does not make holy. You were created and manifested holy. It merely brings unholiness to holiness, or what you made to what you are. The bringing together of truth and illusion, of the ego to God, is the Holy Spirit's only function. Keep not your making from your FatherMother, for hiding it has cost you knowledge of HimHer and of yourselves. The knowledge is safe, but wherein is your safety apart from it? The making of time to take the place of timelessness lay in the decision to be not as you were. Thus, truth was made past, and the present was dedicated to illusion. And the past, too, was changed and interposed between what always was and now. The past which you remember never was and represents only the denial of what always was.

³⁹ Bringing the ego to God is but to bring error to truth, where it stands corrected because it is the opposite of what it meets and is undone, because the contradiction can no longer stand. How long can contradiction stand when its impossible nature is clearly revealed? What disappears in light is not attacked. It merely vanishes because it is not true. Different realities are meaningless, for reality must be one. It cannot change with time or mood or chance. Its changelessness is what makes it real. This cannot be undone. Undoing is for unreality. And this reality will do for you.

⁴⁰ Merely by being what it is does truth release you from everything that it is not. The Atonement is so gentle you need but whisper to it, and all its power will rush to your assistance and support. You are not frail with God beside you. Yet without HimHer you are nothing. The Atonement offers you God. The gift which you refused is held by HimHer in you. HisHer Spirit holds it there for you. God has not left HisHer altar, though HisHer worshiper placed other gods upon it. The temple still is holy, for the Presence that dwells within it is Holiness.

⁴¹ In the temple Holiness waits quietly for the return of them that love it. The Presence knows they will return to purity and to grace. The graciousness of God will take them gently in and cover all their sense of pain and loss with the immortal assurance of their Father'sMother's Love. There, fear of death will be replaced with joy of living. For God is Life, and they abide in Life. [Life is as holy as the Holiness by which it was created and manifested.] The Presence of Holiness lives in everything that lives, for Holiness created and manifested life and leaves not what It created and manifested holy as Itself.

⁴² In this world you can become a spotless mirror in which the Holiness of your CreatorManifestor shines forth from you to all around you. You can reflect the God Realm here. Yet no reflections of the images of other gods must dim the mirror that would hold God's reflection in it. Earth can reflect the God Realm or hell; God or the ego. You need but leave the mirror clean and clear of all the images of hidden darkness you have drawn upon it. God will shine upon it of HimHerself. Only the clear reflection of HimHerself can be perceived upon it. Reflections are seen in light. In darkness they are obscure, and their meaning seems to lie only in shifting interpretations rather than in themselves.

⁴³ The reflection of God needs no interpretation. It is clear. Clean but the mirror, and the message which shines forth from what the mirror holds out for everyone to see no one can fail to understand. It is the message that the Holy Spirit is holding to the mirror that is in Her. She recognizes it because She has been taught Her need for it but knows not where to look to find it. Let Her, then, see it in you and share it with you.

⁴⁴ Could you but realize for a single instant the power of healing that the reflection of God, shining in you, can bring to all the world, you could not wait to make the mirror of your mind clean to receive the image of the holiness that heals the world. The image of holiness which shines in your mind is not obscure and will not change. Its meaning to those who look upon it is not obscure, for everyone perceives it as the same. All bring their different problems to its healing light, but all their problems are met only with healing there.

⁴⁵ The response of holiness to any form of error is always the same. There is no contradiction in what holiness calls forth. Its one response is healing, without regard for what is brought to it. Those who have learned to offer only healing because of the reflection of holiness in them are ready at last for the God Realm . There, holiness is not a reflection but rather the actual condition of what was but reflected to them here. God is no image, and HisHer creationsmanifestations, as part of HimHer, hold HimHer in them in truth. They do not merely reflect truth, for they are truth.

VI. The Shift to Miracles

⁴⁶ When no perception stands between God and HisHer creationsmanifestations, or between HisHer Children and their own, the knowledge of manifested creation must continue forever. The reflections which you accept into the mirror of your minds in time but bring eternity nearer or farther. But eternity itself is beyond all time. Reach out of time and touch it, with the help of its reflection in you. And you will turn from time to holiness as surely as the reflection of holiness calls everyone to lay all guilt aside. Reflect the peace of the God Realm here and bring this world to the God Realm . For the reflection of truth draws everyone to truth, and as they enter into it, they leave all reflections behind.

⁴⁷ In the God Realm reality is shared and not reflected. By sharing its reflection here, its truth becomes the only perception the SonDaughter of God accepts. And thus, remembrance of hisher FatherMother dawns on himher, and heshe can no longer be satisfied with anything but hisher own reality. You on earth have no conception of limitlessness, for the world you seem to live in is a world of limits. In this world, it is not true that anything without order of difficulty can occur. The miracle, therefore, has a unique function and is motivated by a unique Teacheress, Who brings the laws of another world to this one. The miracle is the one thing you can do that transcends order, being based not on differences but on equality.

⁴⁸ Miracles are not in competition, and the number of them that you can do is limitless. They can be simultaneous and legion. This is not difficult to understand, once you conceive of them as possible at all. What is more difficult to grasp is the lack of order of difficulty which stamps the miracle as something that must come from elsewhere, not from here. From the world's viewpoint, this is impossible. You have experienced lack of competition among your thoughts, which, even though they may conflict, can occur to you together and in great numbers. You are so used to this that it can cause you little surprise.

⁴⁹ Yet you are also used to classifying some of your thoughts as more important, larger or better, wiser or more productive and valuable than others. And this is true about the thoughts which cross the mind of those who think they live apart. For some are reflections of the God Realm, while others are motivated by the ego, which but seems to think. The result is a weaving, changing pattern which never rests and is never still. It shifts unceasingly across the mirror of your mind, and the reflections of the God Realm last but a moment and grow dim as darkness blots them out. Where there was light, darkness removes it in an instant, and alternating patterns of light and darkness sweep constantly across your minds.

⁵⁰ The little sanity which still remains is held together by a sense of order which you establish. Yet the very fact that you can do this and bring any order into chaos shows you that you are not an ego and that more than an ego must be in you. For the ego is chaos, and if it were all of you, no order at all would be possible. Yet though the order which you impose upon your minds limits the ego, it also limits you. To order is to judge and to arrange by judgment. [Therefore, it is not your function, but the Holy Spirit's.] It will seem difficult for you to learn that you have no basis at all for ordering your thoughts. This lesson the Holy Spirit teaches by giving you shining examples to show you that your way of ordering is wrong, but that a better way is offered you.

⁵¹ The miracle offers exactly the same response to every call for help. It does not judge the call. It merely recognizes what it is and answers accordingly. It does not consider which call is louder or greater or more important. You may wonder how you who are still bound to judgment can be asked to do that which requires no judgment of your own. The answer is very simple. The power of God, and not of you, engenders miracles. The miracle itself is but the witness that you have the power of God in you. That is the reason why the miracle gives equal blessing to all who share in it, and that is also why everyone shares in it. The power of God is limitless. And being always maximal, it offers everything to every call from anyone. There is no order of difficulty here. A call for help is given help.

⁵² The only judgment involved at all is the Holy Spirit's one division into two categories—one of love and the other the call for love. You cannot safely make this division, for you are much too confused either to recognize love or to believe that everything else is nothing but a need for love. You are too bound to form and not to content. What you consider content is not content at all. It is merely form, and nothing else. For you do not respond to what a brother or sister really offers you, but only to the particular perception of his or her offering by which the ego judges it.

⁵³ The ego is incapable of understanding content and is totally unconcerned with it. To the ego, if the form is acceptable, the content must be. Otherwise, it will attack the form. You who believe you understand something of the dynamics of the mind, let me assure you that you know nothing of it at all. For of yourselves you could not know of it. The study of the ego is not the study of the mind. In fact, the ego enjoys the study of itself and thoroughly approves the undertakings of students who would analyze it, approving its importance. Yet they but study form with meaningless content. For their teacher is senseless, though careful to conceal this fact behind a lot of words which sound impressive but which lack any consistent sense when they are put together.

⁵⁴ This is characteristic of the ego's judgments. Separately, they seem to hold, but put them together and the system of thought which arises from joining them is incoherent and utterly chaotic. For form is not enough for meaning, and the underlying lack of content makes a cohesive system impossible. Separation therefore remains the ego's chosen condition. For no one alone can judge the ego truly. Yet when two or more join together in searching for truth, the ego can no longer defend its lack of content. The fact of union tells them it is not true.

⁵⁵ It is impossible to remember God in secret and alone. For remembering HimHer means you are not alone and willing to remember it. Take no thought for yourself, for no thought you hold is for yourself. If you would remember your FatherMother, let the Holy Spirit order your thoughts and give only the answer with which She answers you. Everyone seeks for love as you do and knows it not unless he or she joins with you in seeking it. If you undertake the search together, you bring with you a light so powerful that what you see is given meaning. The lonely journey fails because it has excluded what it would find.

⁵⁶ As God communicates to the Holy Spirit in you, so does the Holy Spirit translate HisHer communications through you so you can understand them. God has no secret communications, for everything of HimHer is perfectly open and freely accessible to all, being for all. Nothing lives in secret, and what you would hide from the Holy Spirit is nothing. Every interpretation you would lay upon a brother or sister is senseless. Let the Holy Spirit show him or her to you and teach you both his or her love and need for love. Neither his or her mind nor yours holds more than these two orders of thought.

⁵⁷ The miracle is the recognition that this is true. Where there is love, your brother or sister must give it to you because of what it is. But where there is need for love, you must give it because of what you are. Long ago we said this course will teach you what you are, restoring to you your identity. We have already learned that this identity is shared. The miracle becomes the means of sharing it. By supplying your identity wherever it is not recognized, you will recognize it. And God HimHerself, Who wills to be with HisHer SonDaughter forever, will bless each recognition of HisHer SonDaughter with all the love HeShe holds for him or her. Nor will the power of all HisHer love be absent from any miracle you offer to HisHer SonDaughter. How, then, can there be any order of difficulty among them?

VII. The Test of Truth

⁵⁸ Yet the essential thing is learning that you do not know. Knowledge is power, and all power is of God. You who have tried to keep power for yourselves have lost it. You still have the power, but you have interposed so much between it and your awareness of it that you cannot use it. Everything you have taught yourselves has made your power more and more obscure to you. You know not what it is nor where. You have made a semblance of power and a show of strength so pitiful that it must fail you. For power is not a seeming strength, and truth is beyond semblance of any kind. Yet all that stands between you and the power of God in you is but your learning of the false and your attempts to undo the true.

⁵⁹ Be willing, then, for all of it to be undone, and be glad that you are not bound to it forever. For you have taught yourselves how to imprison the SonDaughter of God, a lesson so unthinkable that only the insane, in deepest sleep, could even dream of it. Can God learn how not to be God? And can HisHer SonDaughter, given all power by HimHer, learn to be powerless? What have you taught yourselves that you can possibly prefer to keep in place of what you have and what you are?

⁶⁰ Atonement teaches you how to escape forever from everything that you have taught yourselves in the past by showing you only what you are now. Learning has been accomplished before its effects are manifest. Learning is therefore in the past, but its influence determines the present by giving it whatever meaning it holds for you. Your learning gives the present no meaning at all. Nothing you have ever learned can help you understand the present or teach you how to undo the past. Your past is what you have taught yourselves. Let it all go. Do not attempt to understand any event or anything or anyone in its light, for the light of darkness by which you try to see can only obscure.

⁶¹ Put no confidence at all in darkness to illuminate your understanding, for if you do, you contradict the light and thereby think you see the darkness. Yet darkness cannot be seen, for it is nothing more than a condition in which seeing becomes impossible. You who have not yet brought all of the darkness you have taught yourselves unto the light in you can hardly judge the truth and value of this course. Yet God did not abandon you. And so you have another lesson sent from HimHer, already learned for every Child of light by Her to Whom God gave it. This lesson shines with God's glory, for in it lies HisHer power, which HeShe shares so gladly with HisHer SonDaughter.

⁶² Learn of HisHer happiness, which is yours. But to accomplish this, all your dark lessons must be brought willingly to truth and joyously laid down by hands open to receive, not closed to take. Every dark lesson that you bring to Her Who teaches light She will accept from you because you do not want it. And She will gladly exchange each one for the bright lesson She has learned for you. Never believe that any lesson you have learned apart from Her means anything.

⁶³ You have one test, as sure as God, by which to recognize if what you learned is true. If you are wholly free of fear of any kind, and if all those who meet or even think of you share in your perfect peace, then you can be sure that you have learned God's lesson and not yours. Unless all this is true, there are dark lessons in your minds which hurt and hinder you and everyone around you. The absence of perfect peace means but one thing: you think you do not will for God's SonDaughter what hisher FatherMother wills for himher. Every dark lesson teaches this in one form or another. And each bright lesson, with which the Holy Spirit will replace the dark ones you do not accept and hide, teaches you that you will with the FatherMother unto HisHer SonDaughter.

⁶⁴ Do not be concerned how you can learn a lesson so completely different from everything you have taught yourselves. How would you know? Your part is very simple. You need only recognize that everything you learned you do not want. Ask to be taught and do not use your experiences to confirm what you have learned. When your peace is threatened or disturbed in any way, say to yourself, ⁶⁵ *I do not know what anything, including this, means.

And so I do not know how to respond to it.
And I will not use my own past learning as the light to guide me now.*

⁶⁶ By this refusal to attempt to teach yourself what you do not know, the Guide Whom God has given you will speak to you. She will take Her rightful place in your awareness the instant you abandon it and offer it to Her.

⁶⁷ You cannot be your guide to miracles, for it is you who made them necessary. And because you did, the means on which you can depend for miracles has been provided for you. God's SonDaughter can make no needs hisher FatherMother will not meet if heshe but turn to HimHer ever so little. Yet HeShe cannot compel HisHer SonDaughter to turn to HimHer and remain HimHerself. It is impossible that God lose HisHer Identity, for if HeShe did, you would lose yours. And being yours, HeShe cannot change HimHerself, for your identity is changeless. The miracle acknowledges HisHer changelessness by seeing HisHer SonDaughter as heshe always was and not as heshe would make himherself. The miracle brings the effects which only guiltlessness can bring and thus establishes the fact that guiltlessness must be.

⁶⁸ How can you, so firmly bound to guilt and committed so to remain, establish for yourself your guiltlessness? That is impossible. But be sure that you are willing to acknowledge that it is impossible. It is only because you think that you can run some little part or deal with certain aspects of your lives alone that the guidance of the Holy Spirit is limited. Thus would you make Her undependable and use this fancied undependability as an excuse for keeping certain dark lessons from Her. And by so limiting the guidance that you would accept, you are unable to depend on miracles to answer all your problems for you.

⁶⁹ Do you think that what the Holy Spirit would have you give She would withhold from you? You have no problems which She cannot solve by offering you a miracle. Miracles are for you. And every fear or pain or trial you have has been undone. She has brought all of them to light, having accepted them instead of you and recognized they never were. There are no dark lessons She has not already lightened for you. The lessons you would teach yourselves She has corrected already. They do not exist in Her Mind at all. For the past binds Her not and therefore binds not you. She does not see time as you do. And each miracle She offers you corrects your use of time and makes it Hers.

⁷⁰ She Who has freed you from the past would teach you are free of it. She would but have you accept Her accomplishments as yours because She did them for you. And because She did, they are yours. She has made you free of what you made. You can deny Her, but you cannot call on Her in vain. She always gives what She has made in place of you. She would establish Her bright teaching so firmly in your mind that no dark lessons of guilt can abide in what She has established as holy by Her Presence. Thank God that She is there and works through you. And all Her works are yours. She offers you a miracle with every one you let Her do through you.

⁷¹ God's SonDaughter will always be indivisible. As we are held as one in God, so do we learn as one in HimHer. God's Teacher is as like to Her CreatorManifestor as is HisHer SonDaughter, and through HisHer Teacher does God proclaim HisHer Oneness and HisHer Son'sDaughter's. Listen in silence, and do not raise your voice against Her. For She teaches the miracle of oneness, and before Her lesson division disappears. Teach like Her here, and you will remember that you have always created and manifested like your FatherMother. The miracle of manifested creation has never ceased, having the holy stamp of immortality upon it. This is the Will of God for all manifested creation, and all manifested creation joins in willing this.

⁷² Those who remember always that they know nothing, but who have become willing to learn everything, will learn it. But whenever they trust themselves, they will not learn. They have destroyed their motivation for learning by thinking they already know. Think not you understand anything until you pass the test of perfect peace, for peace and understanding go together and never can be found alone. Each brings the other with it, for it is the law of God they be not separate. They are cause and effect, each to the other, so where one is absent the other cannot be.

⁷³ Only those who see they cannot know unless the effects of understanding are with them can really learn at all. And for this, it must be peace they want and nothing else. Whenever you think you know, peace will depart from you because you have abandoned the Teacher of Peace. Whenever you fully realize that you know not, peace will return, for you will have invited Her to do so by abandoning the ego on behalf of Her. Call not upon the ego for anything. It is only this that you need do. The Holy Spirit will, of Herself, fill every mind that so makes room for Her.

⁷⁴ If you want peace, you must abandon the teacher of attack. The Teacher of peace will never abandon you. You can desert Her, but She will never reciprocate, for Her faith in you is Her understanding. It is as firm as is Her faith in Her CreatorManifestor, and She knows that faith in Her CreatorManifestor must encompass faith in HisHer manifested creation. In this consistency lies Her holiness, which She cannot abandon, for it is not Her Will to do so. With your perfection ever in Her sight, She gives the gift of peace to everyone who perceives the need for peace and who would have it. Make way for peace, and it will come. For understanding is in you, and from it peace must come.

⁷⁵ The power of God, from which they both arise, is yours as surely as it is HisHers. You think you know HimHer not only because, alone, it is impossible to know HimHer. Yet see the mighty works that HeShe will do through you, and you must be convinced you did them through HimHer. It is impossible to deny the Source of effects so powerful they could not be of you. Leave room for HimHer, and you will find yourself so filled with power that nothing will prevail against your peace. And this will be the test by which you recognize that you have understood.

Chapter Fifteen:

The Purpose of Time

I. Introduction

¹ Can you imagine what it means to have no cares, no worries, no anxieties, but merely to be perfectly calm and quiet all the time? Yet that is what time is for—to learn just that and nothing more. God's Teacheress cannot be satisfied with Her teaching until it constitutes all your learning. She has not fulfilled Her teaching function until you have become such a consistent learner that you learn only of Her. When this has happened, you will no longer need a teacheress or time in which to learn.

² One source of perceived discouragement from which you suffer is your belief that this takes time, and that the results of the Holy Spirit's teaching are far in the future. This is not so. For the Holy Spirit uses time in Her own way and is not bound by it. [Time is Her friend in teaching. It does not waste Her as it does you.] And all the waste that time seems to bring with it is due but to your identification with the ego, which uses time to support its belief in destruction. The ego, like the Holy Spirit, uses time to convince you of the inevitability of the goal and end of teaching. To the ego the goal is death, which is its end. But to the Holy Spirit the goal is life, which has no end.

II. Uses of Time

³ The ego is an ally of time, but not a friend. For it is as mistrustful of death as it is of life, and what it wants for you it cannot tolerate. The ego wants you dead, but not itself. The outcome of its strange religion must therefore be the conviction that it can pursue you beyond the grave. And out of its unwillingness for you to find peace even in the death it wants for you, it offers you immortality in hell. It speaks to you of the God Realm but assures you that the God Realm is not for you. How can the guilty hope for the God Realm? The belief in hell is inescapable to those who identify with the ego. Their nightmares and their fears are all associated with it.

⁴ The ego teaches that hell is in the future, for this is what all its teaching is directed to. Hell is its goal, for although the ego aims at death and dissolution as an end, it does not believe it. The goal of death, which it craves for you, leaves it unsatisfied. No one who follows the ego's teaching is without the fear of death. Yet if death were thought of merely as an end to pain, would it be feared? We have seen this strange paradox in the ego's thought system before, but never so clearly as here. For the ego must seem to keep fear from you to keep your allegiance. Yet it must engender fear in order to maintain itself.

⁵ Again the ego tries and all too frequently succeeds in doing both by using dissociation for holding its contradictory aims together so that they seem to be reconciled. The ego teaches thus: Death is the end as far as hope of the God Realm goes. Yet because you and itself cannot be separated, and because it cannot conceive of its own death, it will pursue you still because guilt is eternal. Such is the ego's version of immortality. And it is this the ego's version of time supports.

⁶ The ego teaches that the God Realm is here and now because the future is hell. Even when it attacks so savagely that it tries to take the life of someone who hears it temporarily as the only voice, it speaks of hell even to him or her. For it tells him or her hell is here and bids him or her leap from hell into oblivion. The only time the ego allows anyone to look upon with some amount of equanimity is the past. And even there its only value is that it is no more.

⁷ How bleak and despairing is the ego's use of time! And how terrifying! For underneath its fanatical insistence that the past and future be the same is hidden a far more insidious threat to peace. The ego does not advertise its final threat, for it would have its worshipers still believe that it can offer the escape from it. But the belief in guilt must lead to the belief in hell, and always does. The only way in which the ego allows the fear of hell to be experienced is to bring hell here, but always as a foretaste of the future. For no one who considers himself or herself as deserving hell can believe that punishment will end in peace.

⁸ The Holy Spirit teaches thus: There is no hell. Hell is only what the ego has made of the present. The belief in hell is what prevents you from understanding the present, because you are afraid of it. The Holy Spirit leads as steadily to the God Realm as the ego drives to hell. For the Holy Spirit, Who knows only the present, uses it to undo the fear by which the ego would make the present useless. There is no escape from fear in the ego's use of time. For time, according to its teaching, is nothing but a teaching device for compounding guilt until it becomes all-encompassing and demands vengeance forever.

⁹ The Holy Spirit would undo all of this now. Fear is not of the present but only of the past and future, which do not exist. There is no fear in the present when each instant stands clear and separated from the past, without its shadow reaching out into the future. Each instant is a clean, untarnished birth, in which the SonDaughter of God emerges from the past into the present. And the present extends forever. It is so beautiful and so clean and free of guilt that nothing but happiness is there. No darkness is remembered, and immortality and joy are now.

¹⁰ This lesson takes no time. For what is time without a past and future? It has taken time to misguide you so completely, but it takes no time at all to be what you are. Begin to practice the Holy Spirit's use of time as a teaching aid to happiness and peace. Take this very instant, now, and think of it as all there is of time. Nothing can reach you here out of the past, and it is here that you are completely absolved, completely free, and wholly without condemnation. From this holy instant wherein holiness was born again, you will go forth in time without fear and with no sense of change with time.

¹¹ Time is inconceivable without change, yet holiness does not change. Learn from this instant more than merely hell does not exist. In this redeeming instant lies the God Realm . And the God Realm will not change, for the birth into the holy present is salvation from change. Change is an illusion, taught by those who could not see themselves as guiltless. There is no change in the God Realm because there is no change in God. In the holy instant in which you see yourself as bright with freedom, you will remember God. For remembering HimHer is to remember freedom.

¹² Whenever you are tempted to be dispirited by the thought of how long it would take to change your mind so completely, ask yourself, "How long is an instant?" Could you not give so short a time to the Holy Spirit for your salvation? She asks no more, for She has no need of more. It takes far longer to teach you how to be willing to give Her this than for Her to use this tiny instant to offer you the whole of the God Realm . In exchange for this instant, She stands ready to give you the remembrance of eternity.

¹³ You will never give this holy instant to the Holy Spirit on behalf of your release while you are unwilling to give it to your brothers and sisters on behalf of theirs. For the instant of holiness is shared, and cannot be yours alone. Remember, then, when you are tempted to attack a brother or sister, that his or her instant of release is yours. Miracles are the instants of release you offer and will receive. They attest to your willingness to be released and to offer time to the Holy Spirit for Her use of it. How long is an instant? It is as short for your brother or sister as it is for you. Practice giving this blessed instant of freedom to all who are enslaved by time and thus make time their friend for them. The Holy Spirit gives their blessed instant to you through your giving it. As you give it, She offers it to you.

¹⁴ Be not unwilling to give what you would receive of Her, for you join with Her in giving. In the crystal cleanness of the release you give is your instantaneous escape from guilt. You must be holy if you offer holiness. How long is an instant? As long as it takes to reestablish perfect sanity, perfect peace, and perfect love for everyone, for God, and for yourself. As long as it takes to remember immortality and your immortal creationsmanifestations who share it with you. As long as it takes to exchange hell for the God Realm. Long enough to transcend all of the ego's making and ascend unto your FatherMother.

¹⁵ Time is your friend if you leave it to the Holy Spirit to use. She needs but very little to restore God's whole power to you. She Who transcends time for you understands what time is for. Holiness lies not in time but in eternity. There never was an instant in which God's SonDaughter could lose hiser purity. Hiser changeless state is beyond time, for hiser purity remains forever beyond attack and without variability. Time stands still in hiser holiness and changes not. And so it is no longer time at all. For, caught in the single instant of the eternal sanctity of God's manifested creation, it is transformed into forever. Give the eternal instant that eternity may be remembered for you in that shining instant of perfect release. Offer the miracle of the holy instant through the Holy Spirit and leave Her giving it to you to Her.

III. Time and Eternity

¹⁶ The Atonement is in time but not for time. Being in you, it is eternal. What holds remembrance of God cannot be bound by time. No more are you. For unless God is bound, you cannot be. An instant offered to the Holy Spirit is offered to God on your behalf, and in that instant you will awaken gently in HimHer. In the blessed instant, you will let go all your past learning, and the Holy Spirit will quickly offer you the whole lesson of peace. What can take time, when all the obstacles to learning it have been removed? Truth is so far beyond time that all of it happens at once. For as it was created and manifested one, so its oneness depends not on time at all.

¹⁷ Do not be concerned with time and fear not the instant of holiness which will remove all fear. For the instant of peace is eternal because it is wholly without fear. It will come, being the lesson God gives you through the Teacheress HeShe has appointed to translate time into eternity. Blessed is God's Teacheress, Whose joy it is to teach God's holy SonDaughter hiser holiness. Her joy is not contained in time. Her teaching is for you because Her joy is yours. Through Her you stand before God's altar, where She gently translates hell into the God Realm. For it is only in the God Realm that God would have you be.

¹⁸ How long can it take to be where God would have you? For you are where you have forever been and will forever be. All that you have, you have forever. The blessed instant reaches out to encompass time, as God extends HimHerself to encompass you. You who have spent days, hours, and even years in chaining your brothers and sisters to your egos in an attempt to support it and uphold its weakness, do not perceive the Source of strength. In the holy instant, you will unchain all your brothers and sisters and refuse to support either their weakness or your own.

¹⁹ You do not realize how much you have misused your brothers and sisters by seeing them as sources of ego support. As a result, they witness to the ego in your perception and seem to provide reasons for not letting it go. Yet they are far stronger and much more compelling witnesses for the Holy Spirit. And they support Her strength. It is, therefore, your choice whether they support the ego or the Holy Spirit in you. And you will know which you have chosen by their reactions. A SonDaughter of God who has been released through the Holy Spirit in a brother or sister, if the release is complete, is always recognized. He or she cannot be denied. As long as you remain uncertain, it can be only because you have not given complete release. And because of this, you have not given one single instant completely to the Holy Spirit. For when you have, you will be sure you have. You will be sure because the witness to Her will speak so clearly of Her that you will hear and understand.

²⁰ You will doubt until you hear one witness whom you have wholly released through the Holy Spirit. And then you will doubt no more. The holy instant has not yet happened to you. Yet it will, and you will recognize it with perfect certainty. No gift of God is recognized in any other way. You can practice the mechanics of the holy instant and will learn much from doing so. Yet its shining and glittering brilliance, which will literally blind you to this world by its own vision, you cannot supply. And here it is, all in this instant, complete, accomplished, and given wholly.

²¹ Start now to practice your little part in separating out the holy instant. You will receive very specific instructions as you go along. To learn to separate out this single second and begin to experience it as timeless, is to begin to experience yourself as not separate. Fear not that you will not be given help in this. God's Teacheress and Her lesson will support your strength. It is only your weakness that will depart from you in this practice, for it is the practice of the power of God in you. Use it but for one instant, and you will never deny it again. Who can deny the Presence of what the universe bows to in appreciation and gladness? Before the recognition of the universe which witnesses to It, your doubts must disappear.

IV. Littleness Versus Magnitude

²² Be not content with littleness, but be sure you understand what littleness is and why you could never be content with it. Littleness is the offering you gave yourself. You offered this in place of magnitude, and you accepted it. Everything in this world is little because it is a world made out of littleness in the strange belief that littleness can content you. When you strive for anything in this world with the belief that it will bring you peace, you are belittling yourself and blinding yourself to glory. Littleness and glory are the choices open to your striving and your vigilance. You will always choose one at the expense of the other.

²³ Yet what you do not realize each time you choose is that your choice is your evaluation of yourself. Choose littleness and you will not have peace, for you will have judged yourself unworthy of it. And whatever you offer as a substitute is much too poor a gift to satisfy you. It is essential that you accept the fact, and accept it gladly, that there is no form of littleness that can ever content you. You are free to try as the many as you wish, but all you will be doing is to delay your homecoming. For you will be content only in magnitude, which is your home.

²⁴ There is a deep responsibility you owe yourself, and one which you must learn to remember all the time. The lesson will seem hard at first, but you will learn to love it when you realize that it is true and constitutes a tribute to your power. You who have sought and found littleness, remember this: Every decision which you make stems from what you think you are and represents the value that you put upon yourself. Believe the little can content you, and by limiting yourself, you will not be satisfied. For your function is not little, and it is only by finding your function and fulfilling it that you can escape from littleness.

²⁵ There is no doubt about what your function is, for the Holy Spirit knows what it is. There is no doubt about its magnitude, for it reaches you through Her from Magnitude. You do not have to strive for it because you have it. All your striving must be directed against littleness, for it does require vigilance to protect your magnitude in this world. To hold your magnitude in perfect awareness in a world of littleness is a task the little cannot undertake. Yet it is asked of you in tribute to your magnitude and not your littleness. Nor is it asked of you alone.

²⁶ The power of God will support every effort you make on behalf of HisHer dear SonDaughter. Search for the little, and you deny yourself HisHer power. God is not willing that HisHer SonDaughter be content with less than everything. For HeShe is not content without HisHer SonDaughter, and HisHer SonDaughter cannot be content with less than hisher FatherMother has given himher. We asked you once before, "Would you be hostage to the ego or host to God?" Let this question be asked you by the Holy Spirit in you every time you make a decision. For every decision you make does answer this and invites sorrow or joy accordingly.

²⁷ When God gave HimHerself to you in your manifested creation, HeShe established you as host to HimHer forever. HeShe has not left you, and you have not left HimHer. All your attempts to deny HisHer magnitude and make HisHer SonDaughter hostage to the ego cannot make little whom God has joined with HimHer. Every decision you make is for the God Realm or for hell and will bring you awareness of what you decided for. The Holy Spirit can hold your magnitude, clean of all littleness, clearly and in perfect safety in your minds, untouched by every little gift the world of littleness would offer you. But for this, you cannot side against Her in what She wills for you.

²⁸ Decide for God through Her. For littleness and the belief that you can be content with littleness are the decisions you have made about yourself. The power and the glory that lie in you from God are for all who, like you, perceive themselves as little and have deceived themselves into believing that littleness can be blown up by them into a sense of magnitude that can content them. Neither give littleness, nor accept it. All honor is due the host of God. Your littleness deceives you, but your magnitude is of HimHer Who dwells in you and in Whom you dwell. Touch no one, then, with littleness, in the name of the Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness, eternal Host unto Her FatherMother.

²⁹ In this season (the Christmas), which celebrates the birth of holiness into this world, join with me, who decided for holiness for you. It is our task together to restore the awareness of magnitude to the host whom God appointed for HimHerself. It is beyond all your littleness to give the gift of God, but not beyond you. For God would give HimHerself through you. HeShe reaches from you to everyone and beyond everyone to HisHer Son'sDaughter's creationsmanifestations, but without leaving you. Far beyond your little world but still in you, HeShe extends forever. Yet HeShe brings all HisHer extensions to you as host to HimHer.

³⁰ Is it a sacrifice to leave littleness behind and wander not in vain? It is not sacrifice to wake to glory. But it is a sacrifice to accept anything less than glory. Learn that you must be worthy of the Prince or the Princess of Peace, born in you in honor of HimHer Whose host you are. You know not what love means because you have sought to purchase it with little gifts, thus valuing it too little to be able to understand its magnitude. Love is not little, and love dwells in you, for you are host to HimHer. Before the greatness that lives in you, your poor appreciation of yourself and all the little offerings you have given slip into nothingness. Holy Child of God, when will you learn that only holiness can content you and give you peace?

³¹ Remember that you learn not for yourself alone, no more than I did. It is because I learned for you that you can learn of me. I would but teach you what is yours, so that together we can replace the shabby littleness that binds the host of God to guilt and weakness with the glad awareness of the glory that is in him or her. My birth in you is your awakening to grandeur. Welcome me not into a manger but into the altar to holiness, where holiness abides in perfect peace. My Kingdom is not of this world because it is in you. And you are of your FatherMother. Let us join in honoring you, who must remain forever beyond littleness.

³² Decide with me, who have decided to abide with you. I will as min FatherMother wills, knowing HisHer Will is constant and at peace forever with Itself. You will be content with nothing but HisHer Will. Accept no less, remembering that everything I learned is yours. What my FatherMother loves, I love as HeShe does, and I can no more accept it as what it is not than HeShe can. And no more can you. When you have learned to accept what you are, you will make no more gifts to offer to yourselves, for you will know you are complete, in need of nothing, and unable to accept anything for yourself. But you will gladly give, having received. The host of God need not seek to find anything.

³³ If you are wholly willing to leave salvation to the plan of God and unwilling to attempt to grasp for peace yourself, salvation will be given you. Yet think not you can substitute your plan for HisHers. Rather, join with me in HisHer that we may release all those who would be bound, proclaiming together that the SonDaughter of God is host to HimHer. Thus will we let no one forget what you would remember. And thus will you remember it.

³⁴ Call forth in everyone only the remembrance of God and of the God Realm that is in him or her. For where you would help your brother or sister be, there will you think you are. Hear not his or her call for hell and littleness, but only his or her call for the God Realm and greatness. Forget not that his or her call is yours, and answer him or her with me. God's power is forever on the side of HisHer host, for it protects only the peace in which HeShe dwells. Lay not littleness before HisHer holy altar, which rises above the stars and reaches even to the God Realm because of what is given it.

V. Practicing the Holy Instant

³⁵ This course is not beyond immediate learning unless you prefer to believe that what God wills takes time. And this means only that you would rather delay the recognition that HisHer Will is so. The holy instant is this one and every one. The one you want it to be it is. The one you would not have it be is lost to you. You must decide on when it is. Delay it not. For beyond the past and future, in which you will not find it, it stands in shimmering readiness for your acceptance. Yet you cannot bring it into glad awareness while you do not want it, for it holds the whole release from littleness.

³⁶ Your practice must therefore rest upon your willingness to let all littleness go. The instant in which magnitude will dawn upon you is but as far away as your desire for it. As long as you desire it not and cherish littleness instead, by so much is it far from you. By so much as you want it will you bring it nearer. Think not that you can find salvation in your own way and have it. Give over every plan that you have made for your salvation in exchange for God's. HisHer Will content you, and there is nothing else that can bring you peace. For peace is of God and of no one beside HimHer.

³⁷ Be humble before HimHer and yet great in HimHer. And value no plan of the ego before the plan of God. For you leave empty your place in HisHer plan, which you must fulfill if you would join with me, by your decision to join in any plan but His. I call you to fulfill your holy part in the plan that HeShe has given to the world for its release from littleness. God would have HisHer host abide in perfect freedom. Every allegiance to a plan of salvation that is apart from HimHer diminishes the value of HisHer Will for you in your own minds. And yet it is your mind that is the host to HimHer.

³⁸ Would you learn how perfect and immaculate is the holy altar on which your FatherMother has placed HimHerself? This you will recognize in the holy instant in which you willingly and gladly give over every plan but His. For there lies peace, perfectly clear because you have been willing to meet its conditions. You can claim the holy instant any time and anywhere you want it. In your practice, try to give over every plan you have accepted for finding magnitude in littleness. It is not there. Use the holy instant only to recognize that you alone cannot know where it is and can only deceive yourself.

³⁹ I stand within the holy instant, as clear as you would have me. And the extent to which you learn to be willing to accept me is the measure of the time in which the holy instant will be yours. I call to you to make the holy instant yours at once, for the release from littleness in the mind of the host of God depends on willingness and not on time. The reason why this course is simple is that truth is simple. Complexity is of the ego and is nothing more than the ego's attempt to obscure the obvious.

⁴⁰ You could live forever in the holy instant, beginning now and reaching to eternity, but for a very simple reason. Do not obscure the simplicity of this reason, for if you do, it will be only because you prefer not to recognize it and not to let it go. The simple reason, simply stated, is this: The holy instant is a time in which you receive and give perfect communication. This means, however, that it is a time in which your mind is open, both to receive and give. It is the recognition that all minds are in communication. It therefore seeks to change nothing, but merely to accept everything.

⁴¹ How can you do this when you would prefer to have private thoughts and keep them? The only way you could do that is to deny the perfect communication that makes the holy instant what it is. You believe that it is possible to harbor thoughts you would not share and that salvation lies in keeping your thoughts to yourself alone. For in private thoughts, known only to yourself, you think you find a way to keep what you would have alone and share what you would share. And then you wonder why it is that you are not in full communication with those around you and with God Who surrounds all of you together.

⁴² Every thought you would keep hidden shuts communication off because you would have it so. It is impossible to recognize perfect communication while breaking communication holds value to you. Ask yourselves honestly, "Would I want to have perfect communication, and am I wholly willing to let everything that interferes with it go forever?" If the answer is no, then the Holy Spirit's readiness to give it to you is not enough to make it yours, for you are not ready to share it with Her. And it cannot come into a mind that has decided to oppose it. For the holy instant is given and received with equal willingness, being the acceptance of the single Will that governs all thought.

⁴³ The necessary condition for the holy instant does not require that you have no thoughts which are not pure. But it does require that you have none that you would keep. Innocence is not of your making. It is given you the instant you would have it. Yet it would not be Atonement if there were no need for Atonement. You will not be able to accept perfect communication as long as you would hide it from yourself. For what you would hide is hidden from you.

⁴⁴ In your practice, then, try only to be vigilant against deception and seek not to protect the thoughts you would keep unto yourself. Let the Holy Spirit's purity shine them away and bring all your awareness to the readiness for purity She offers you. Thus will She make you ready to acknowledge that you are host to God and hostage to no one and nothing.

VI. The Holy Instant and Special Relationships

⁴⁵ The holy instant is the Holy Spirit's most useful learning device for teaching you love's meaning. For its purpose is to suspend judgment entirely. Judgment always rests on the past, for past experience is the basis on which you judge. Judgment becomes impossible without the past, for without it you do not understand anything. You would make no attempt to judge because it would be quite apparent to you that you do not know what anything means. You are afraid of this because you believe that without the ego all would be chaos. Yet I assure you that without the ego all would be love.

⁴⁶ The past is the ego's chief learning device, for it is in the past that you learned to define your own needs and acquired methods for meeting them on your own terms. We said before that to limit love to part of the SonDaughtership is to bring guilt into your relationships and thus make them unreal. If you seek to separate out certain aspects of the totality and look to them to meet your imagined needs, you are attempting to use separation to save you. How, then, could guilt not enter? For separation is the source of guilt, and to appeal to it for salvation is to believe you are alone. To be alone is to be guilty. For to experience yourself as alone is to deny the oneness of the FatherMother and HisHer SonDaughter and thus to attack reality.

⁴⁷ You cannot love parts of reality and understand what love means. If you would love unlike to God, Who knows no special love, how can you understand it? To believe that special relationships, with special love, can offer you salvation is the belief that separation is salvation. For it is the complete equality of the Atonement in which salvation lies. How can you decide that special aspects of the SonDaughtership can give you more than others? The past has taught you this. Yet the holy instant teaches you it is not so.

⁴⁸ Because of guilt, all special relationships have some elements of fear in them. And this is why they shift and change so frequently. They are not based on changeless love alone. And love where fear has entered cannot be depended on because it is not perfect. In Her function as Interpreter of what you have made, the Holy Spirit uses special relationships, which you have chosen to support the ego, as a learning experience which points to truth. Under Her teaching, every relationship becomes a lesson in love.

⁴⁹ The Holy Spirit knows no one is special. Yet She also perceives that you have made special relationships, which She would purify and not let you destroy. However unholy the reason why you made them may be, She can translate them into holiness by removing as much fear as you will let Her. You can place any relationship under Her care and be sure that it will not result in pain if you offer Her your willingness to have it serve no need but Hers. All the guilt in it arises from your use of it. All the love from Hers. Do not, then, be afraid to let go your imagined needs, which would destroy the relationship. Your only need is Hers.

⁵⁰ Any relationship which you would substitute for another has not been offered to the Holy Spirit for Her use. There is no substitute for love. If you would attempt to substitute one aspect of love for another, you have placed less value on one and more on the other. You have not only separated them, but you have also judged against both. Yet you had judged against yourself first, or you would never have imagined that you needed them as they were not. Unless you had seen yourself as without love, you could not have judged them so like you in lack.

⁵¹ The ego's use of relationships is so fragmented that it frequently goes even further—one part of one aspect suits its purposes, while it prefers different parts of another aspect. Thus does it assemble reality to its own capricious liking, offering for your seeking a picture whose likeness does not exist. For there is nothing in the God Realm or earth that it resembles, and so however much you seek for its reality, you cannot find it because it is not real.

⁵² Everyone on earth has formed special relationships, and although this is not so in the God Realm, the Holy Spirit knows how to bring a touch of the God Realm to them here. In the holy instant no one is special, for your personal needs intrude on no one to make them different. Without the values from the past, you would see them all the same and like yourself. Nor would you see any separation between yourself and them. In the holy instant, you see in each relationship what it will be when you perceive only the present.

⁵³ God knows you now. HeShe remembers nothing, having always known you exactly as HeShe knows you now. The holy instant parallels HisHer knowing by bringing all perception out of the past, thus removing the frame of reference you have built by which to judge your brothers and sisters. Once this is gone, the Holy Spirit substitutes Her frame of reference for it. Her frame of reference is simply God. The Holy Spirit's timelessness lies only here. For in the holy instant, free of the past, you see that love is in you, and you have no need to look without and snatch it guiltily from where you thought it was.

⁵⁴ All your relationships are blessed in the holy instant because the blessing is not limited. In the holy instant, the SonDaughtership gains as one. And united in your blessing, it becomes one to you. The meaning of love is the meaning God gave to it. Give to it any meaning apart from HisHers, and it is impossible to understand it. Every brother or sister God loves as HeShe loves you—neither less nor more. HeShe needs them all equally, and so do you. In time you have been told to offer miracles as the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness directs and let the Holy Spirit bring to you those who are seeking you. Yet in the holy instant, you unite directly with God, and all your brothers and sisters join in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness. Those who are joined in the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness are in no way separate. For the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is the Self the SonDaughtership shares, as God shares HisHer Self with the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness.

⁵⁵ Think you that you can judge the Self of God? God has created and manifested it beyond judgment out of HisHer need to extend HisHer Love. With love in you, you have no need except to extend it. In the holy instant, there is no conflict of needs, for there is only one. For the holy instant reaches to eternity and to the Mind of God. And it is only there love has meaning, and only there can it be understood.

⁵⁶ It is impossible to use one relationship at the expense of another and not suffer guilt. And it is equally impossible to condemn part of a relationship and find peace within it. Under the Holy Spirit's teaching, all relationships are seen as total commitments, yet they do not conflict with one another in any way. Perfect faith in each one for its ability to satisfy you completely arises only from perfect faith in yourself. And this you cannot have while guilt remains. And there will be guilt as long as you accept the possibility, and cherish it, that you can make a brother or sister what he or she is not because you would have him or her so.

⁵⁷ You have so little faith in yourself because you are unwilling to accept the fact that perfect love is in you. And so you seek without for what you cannot find without. I offer you my perfect faith in you in place of all your doubt. But forget not that my faith must be as perfect in all your brothers and sisters as it is in you, or it would be a limited gift to you. In the holy instant, we share our faith in God's SonDaughter because we recognize together that heshe is wholly worthy of it, and in our appreciation of hisher worth, we cannot doubt hisher holiness. And so we love himher.

VII. The Holy Instant and the Laws of God

⁵⁸ All separation vanishes as holiness is shared. For holiness is power, and by sharing it, it gains in strength. If you seek for satisfaction in gratifying your needs as you perceive them, you must believe that strength comes from another, and what you gain he or she loses. Someone must always lose if you perceive yourself as weak. Yet there is another interpretation of relationships which transcends the concept of loss of power completely.

⁵⁹ You do not find it difficult to believe that, when another calls on God for love, your call remains as strong. Nor do you think that, by God's answer to him or her, your hope of answer is diminished. On the contrary, you are far more inclined to regard his or her success as witness to the possibility of yours. That is because you recognize, however dimly, that God is an idea, and so your faith in HimHer is strengthened by sharing. What you find difficult to accept is the fact that, like your FatherMother, you are an idea. And like HimHer, you can give yourself completely, wholly without loss, and only with gain.

⁶⁰ Herein lies peace, for here there is no conflict. In the world of scarcity, love has no meaning, and peace is impossible. For gain and loss are both accepted, and so no one is aware that perfect love is in him or her. In the holy instant, you recognize the idea of love in you and unite this idea with the Mind that thought it and could not relinquish it. By holding it within itself, there was no loss. The holy instant thus becomes a lesson in how to hold all of your brothers and sisters in your mind, experiencing not loss, but completion. From this it follows you can only give. And this is love, for this alone is natural under the laws of God.

⁶¹ In the holy instant, the laws of God prevail, and only they have meaning. The laws of this world cease to hold any meaning at all. When the SonDaughter of God accepts the laws of God as what heshe gladly wills, it is impossible that heshe be bound or limited in any way. In this instant, heshe is as free as God would have himher be. For the instant heshe refuses to be bound, heshe is not bound.

⁶² In the holy instant, nothing happens that has not always been. Only the veil that has been drawn across reality is lifted. Nothing has changed. Yet the awareness of changelessness comes swiftly as the veil of time is pushed aside. No one who has not yet experienced the lifting of the veil and felt himself or herself drawn irresistibly into the light behind it can have faith in love without fear. Yet the Holy Spirit gives you this faith because She offered it to me and I accepted it. Fear not the holy instant will be denied you, for I denied it not. And through me the Holy Spirit gave it unto you, as you will give it. Let no need that you perceive obscure your need of this. For in the holy instant, you will recognize the only need the aspects of the SonDaughter of God share equally, and by this recognition you will join with me in offering what is needed.

⁶³ It is through us that peace will come. Join me in the idea of peace, for in ideas minds can communicate. If you would give yourself as your FatherMother gives HisHer Self, you will learn to understand selfhood. And therein is love's meaning understood. But remember that understanding is of the mind and only of the mind. Knowledge is therefore of the mind, and its conditions are in the mind with it. If you were not only an idea and nothing else, you could not be in full communication with all that ever was. Yet as long as you prefer to be something else, or would attempt to be nothing else and something else together, the language of communication, which you know perfectly, you will not remember.

⁶⁴ In the holy instant God is remembered, and the language of communication with all your brothers and sisters is remembered with HimHer. For communication is remembered together, as is truth. There is no exclusion in the holy instant because the past is gone and with it goes the whole basis for exclusion. Without its source, exclusion vanishes. And this permits your Source and that of all your brothers and sisters to replace it in your awareness. God and the power of God will take their rightful place in you, and you will experience the full communication of ideas with ideas. Through your ability to do this, you will learn what you must be, for you will begin to understand what your CreatorManifestor is and what HisHer manifested creation is along with HimHer.

VIII. The Holy Instant and Communication

⁶⁵ Beyond the poor attraction of the special love relationship and always obscured by it is the powerful attraction of the FatherMother for HisHer SonDaughter. There is no other love that can satisfy you, because there is no other love. This is the only love that is fully given and fully returned. Being complete, it asks nothing. Being wholly pure, everyone joined in it has everything. This is not the basis for any relationship in which the ego enters. For every relationship on which the ego embarks is special. The ego establishes relationships only to get something. And it would keep the giver bound to itself through guilt.

⁶⁶ It is impossible for the ego to enter into any relationship without anger, for the ego believes that anger makes friends. This is not its statement, but it is its purpose. For the ego really believes that it can get and keep by making guilty. This is its one attraction; an attraction so weak that it would have no hold at all, except that no one recognizes it. For the ego always seems to attract through love and has no attraction at all to anyone who perceives that it attracts through guilt.

⁶⁷ The sick attraction of guilt must be recognized for what it is. For having been made real to you, it is essential to look at it clearly, and by withdrawing your investment in it, to learn to let it go. No one would choose to let go what he or she believes has value. Yet the attraction of guilt has value to you only because you have not looked at what it is and have judged it completely in the dark. As we bring it to light, your only question will be why it was you ever wanted it. You have nothing to lose by looking open-eyed at this, for ugliness such as this belongs not in your holy mind. The host of God can have no real investment here.

⁶⁸ We said before that the ego attempts to maintain and increase guilt, but in such a way that you do not recognize what it would do to you. For it is the ego's fundamental doctrine that what you do to others, you have escaped. The ego wishes no one well. Yet its survival depends on your belief that you are exempt from its evil intentions. It counsels, therefore, that if you are host to it, it will enable you to direct the anger that it holds outward, thus protecting you. And thus it embarks on an endless, unrewarding chain of special relationships, forged out of anger and dedicated to but one insane belief—that the more anger you invest outside yourself, the safer you become.

⁶⁹ It is this chain that binds the SonDaughter of God to guilt, and it is this chain the Holy Spirit would remove from hiser holy mind. For the chain of savagery belongs not around the chosen host of God, who cannot make himherself host to the ego. In the name of hiser release, and in the name of Her Who would release himher, let us look more closely at the relationships which the ego contrives, and let the Holy Spirit judge them truly. For it is certain that, if you will look at them, you will offer them gladly to Her. What HeShe can make of them, you do not know, but you will become willing to find out if you are willing, first, to perceive what you have made of them.

⁷⁰ In one way or another, every relationship which the ego makes is based on the idea that by sacrificing itself, it becomes bigger. The "sacrifice," which it regards as purification, is actually the root of its bitter resentment. For it would much prefer to attack directly and avoid delaying what it really wants. Yet the ego acknowledges "reality" as it sees it and recognizes that no one could interpret direct attack as love.

Yet to make guilty is direct attack but does not seem to be. For the guilty expect attack, and having asked for it, they are attracted to it.

⁷¹ In these insane relationships, the attraction of what you do not want seems to be much stronger than the attraction of what you do. For each one thinks that he or she has sacrificed something to the other and hates him or her for it. Yet this is what he or she thinks he or she wants. He or she is not in love with the other at all. He or she merely believes he or she is in love with sacrifice. And for this sacrifice, which he or she demanded of himself or herself, he or she demands the other accept the guilt and sacrifice himself or herself as well. Forgiveness becomes impossible, for the ego believes that to forgive another is to lose him or her. For it is only by attack without forgiveness that the ego can ensure the guilt which holds all its relationships together.

⁷² Yet they only seem to be together. For relationships, to the ego, mean only that bodies are together. It is always physical closeness that the ego demands, and it does not object where the mind goes or what it thinks, for this seems unimportant. As long as the body is there to receive its sacrifice, it is content. To the ego, the mind is private, and only the body can be shared. Ideas are basically of no concern, except as they draw the body of another closer or farther. And it is in these terms that it evaluates ideas as good or bad. What makes another guilty and holds him or her through guilt is "good." What releases him or her from guilt is "bad," because he or she would no longer believe that bodies communicate, and so he or she would be "gone."

⁷³ Suffering and sacrifice are the gifts with which the ego would "bless" all unions. And those who are united at its altar accept suffering and sacrifice as the price of union. In their angry alliances, born of the fear of loneliness and yet dedicated to the continuance of loneliness, they seek relief from guilt by increasing it in the other. For they believe that this decreases it in them. The other seems always to be attacking and wounding them, perhaps in little ways, perhaps "unconsciously," yet never without demand of sacrifice. The fury of those joined at the ego's altar far exceeds your awareness of it. For what the ego really wants, you do not realize.

⁷⁴ Whenever you are angry, you can be sure that you have formed a special relationship which the ego has "blessed," for anger is its blessing. Anger takes the many forms, but it cannot long deceive those who will learn that love brings no guilt at all, and what brings guilt cannot be love and must be anger. All anger is nothing more than an attempt to make someone feel guilty, and this attempt is the only basis which the ego accepts for special relationships. Guilt is the only need the ego has, and as long as you identify with it, guilt will remain attractive to you.

⁷⁵ Yet remember this—to be with a body is not communication. And if you think it is, you will feel guilty about communication and will be afraid to hear the Holy Spirit, recognizing in Her voice your own need to communicate. The Holy Spirit cannot teach through fear. And how can She communicate with you while you believe that to communicate is to make yourself alone? It is clearly insane to believe that by communicating you will be abandoned. And yet you do believe it. For you think that your minds must be kept private or you will lose them, and if your bodies are together your minds remain your own. The union of bodies thus becomes the way in which you would keep minds apart. For bodies cannot forgive. They can only do as the mind directs.

⁷⁶ The illusion of the autonomy of the body and its ability to overcome loneliness is but the working of the ego's plan to establish its own autonomy. As long as you believe that to be with a body is companionship, you will be compelled to attempt to keep your brother or sister in his or her body, held there by guilt. And you will see safety in guilt and danger in communication. For the ego will always teach that loneliness is solved by guilt and that communication is the cause of loneliness. And despite the evident insanity of this lesson, you have learned it.

⁷⁷ Forgiveness lies in communication as surely as damnation lies in guilt. It is the Holy Spirit's teaching function to instruct those who believe that communication is damnation that communication is salvation. And She will do so, for the power of God in Her and you is joined in real relationship, so holy and so strong that it can overcome even this without fear. It is through the holy instant that what seems impossible is accomplished, making it evident that it is not impossible. In the holy instant, guilt holds no attraction, since communication has been restored. And guilt, whose only purpose is to disrupt communication, has no function here.

⁷⁸ Here there is no concealment and no private thoughts. The willingness to communicate attracts communication to it and overcomes loneliness completely. There is complete forgiveness here, for there is no desire to exclude anyone from your completion in sudden recognition of the value of his or her part in it. In the protection of your wholeness, all are invited and made welcome. And you understand that your completion is God's, Whose only need is to have you be complete. For your completion makes you HisHer in your awareness. And here it is that you experience yourself as you were created and manifested and as you are.

IX. The Holy Instant and Real Relationships

⁷⁹ The holy instant does not replace the need for learning, for the Holy Spirit must not leave you as your Teacheress until the holy instant has extended far beyond time. For a teaching assignment such as Hers, She must use everything in this world for your release. She must side with every sign or token of your willingness to learn of Her what the truth must be. She is swift to utilize whatever you offer Her on behalf of this. Her concern and care for you are limitless. In the face of your fear of forgiveness, which She perceives as clearly as She knows forgiveness is release, She will teach you to remember that forgiveness is not loss but your salvation. And that in complete forgiveness, in which you recognize that there is nothing to forgive, you are absolved completely.

⁸⁰ Hear Her gladly and learn of Her that you have need of no special relationships at all. You but seek in them what you have thrown away. And through them you will never learn the value of what you have cast aside but what you still desire with all your hearts. Let us join together in making the holy instant all that there is by desiring that it be all that there is. God's SonDaughter has such great need of your willingness to strive for this that you cannot conceive of need so great. Behold the only need that God and HisHer SonDaughter share and will to meet together. You are not alone in this. The will of your creationsmanifestations call to you to share your will with them. Turn, then, in peace from guilt to God and them.

⁸¹ Relate only with what will never leave you and what you can never leave. The loneliness of God's SonDaughter is the loneliness of hisher FatherMother. Refuse not the awareness of your completion and seek not to restore it to yourselves. Fear not to give redemption over to your Redeemer's love. She will not fail you, for She comes from One Who cannot fail. Accept your sense of failure as nothing more than a mistake in who you are. For the holy host of God is beyond failure, and nothing that he or she wills can be denied. You are forever in a relationship so holy that it calls to everyone to escape from loneliness and join you in your love. And where you are must everyone seek and find you there.

⁸² Think but an instant on this: God gave the SonDaughtership to you to ensure your perfect manifested creation. This was HisHer gift, for as HeShe withheld HimHerself not from you, HeShe withheld not HisHer manifested creation. Nothing that ever was created and manifested but is yours. Your relationships are with the universe. And this universe, being of God, is far beyond the petty sum of all the separate bodies you perceive. For all its parts are joined in God through the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, where they become like to their FatherMother. For the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness knows of no separation from Her FatherMother, Who is Her one relationship, in which She gives as Her FatherMother gives to Her.

⁸³ The Holy Spirit is God's attempt to free you of what HeShe does not understand. And because of the Source of the attempt, it will succeed. The Holy Spirit asks you to respond as God does, for She would teach you what you do not understand. God would respond to every need, whatever form it takes. And so HeShe has kept this channel open to receive HisHer communication to you and yours to HimHer. God does not understand your problem in communication, for HeShe does not share it with you. It is only you who believe that it is understandable.

⁸⁴ The Holy Spirit knows that it is not understandable, and yet HeShe understands it because you have made it. In Her alone lies the awareness of what God cannot know and what you do not understand. It is Her holy function to accept them both, and by removing every element of disagreement, to join them into one. She will do this because it is Her function. Leave, then, what seems to you to be impossible to Her Who knows it must be possible because it is the Will of God. And let Her Whose teaching is only of God teach you the only meaning of relationships. For God created and manifested the only relationship which has meaning, and that is HisHer relationship with you.

⁸⁵ As the ego would limit your perception of your brothers and sisters to the body, so would the Holy Spirit release your vision and let you see the Great Rays shining from them, so unlimited that they reach to God. It is this shift in vision which is accomplished in the holy instant. Yet it is needful for you to learn just what this shift entails, so you will become willing to make it permanent. Given this willingness, it will not leave you, for it is permanent. For once you have accepted it as the only perception you want, it is translated into knowledge by the part which God HimHerself plays in the Atonement, for it is the only step in it HeShe understands. Therefore, in this there will be no delay when you are ready for it. God is ready now, but you are not.

⁸⁶ Our task is but to continue as fast as possible the necessary process of looking straight at all the interference and seeing it exactly as it is. For it is impossible to recognize as wholly without gratification what you think you want. The body is the symbol of the ego, as the ego is the symbol of the separation. And both are nothing more than attempts to limit communication and thereby to make it impossible. For communication must be unlimited in order to have meaning, and deprived of meaning, it will not satisfy you completely. Yet it remains the only means by which you can establish real relationships.

⁸⁷ Real relationships have no limits, having been established by God. In the holy instant, where the Great Rays replace the body in awareness, the recognition of relationships without limits is given you. But to see this, it is necessary to give up every use the ego has for the body and to accept the fact that the ego has no purpose you would share with it. For the ego would limit everyone to a body for its purposes, and while you think it has a purpose, you will choose to utilize the means by which it tries to turn its purpose into accomplishment. This will never be accomplished. Yet you have surely recognized that the ego, whose goals are altogether unattainable, will strive for them with all its might and will do so with the strength which you have given it.

⁸⁸ It is impossible to divide your strength between the God Realm and hell, God and the ego, and release your power unto manifested creation, which is the only purpose for which it was given you. Love would always give increase. Limits are demanded by the ego, representing its demands to make little and ineffectual. Limit your vision of a brother or sister to his or her body, which you will do as long as you would not release him or her from it, and you have denied his or her gift to you. His or her body cannot give it. And seek it not through yours. Yet your minds are already continuous, and their union need only be accepted, and the loneliness in the God Realm is gone.

⁸⁹ If you would but let the Holy Spirit tell you of the love of God for you and the need your creations/manifestations have to be with you forever, you would experience the attraction of the eternal. No one can hear Her speak of this and long remain willing to linger here. For it is your will to be in the God Realm, where you are complete and quiet in such sure and loving relationships that any limit is impossible. Would you not exchange your little relationships for this? For the body is little and limited, and only those whom you would see without the limits the ego would impose on them can offer you the gift of freedom.

⁹⁰ You have no conception of the limits you have placed on your perception and no idea of all the loveliness that you could see. But this you must remember—the attraction of guilt opposes the attraction of God. His/Her attraction for you remains unlimited, but because your power, being His, is as great as His, you can turn away from love. What you invest in guilt, you withdraw from God. And your sight grows weak and dim and limited, for you have attempted to separate the Father/Mother from the Son/Daughter and limit their communication. Seek not Atonement in further separation. And limit not your vision of God's Son/Daughter to what interferes with his/her release and what the Holy Spirit must undo to set him/her free. For his/her belief in limits has imprisoned him/her.

⁹¹ When the body ceases to attract you and when you place no value on it as a means for getting anything, then there will be no interference in communication, and your thoughts will be as free as God's. As you let the Holy Spirit teach you how to use the body only for purposes of communication and renounce its use for separation and attack which the ego sees in it, you will learn you have no need of a body at all. In the holy instant there are no bodies, and you experience only the attraction of God. Accepting it as undivided, you join HimHer wholly in an instant. [For you would place no limits on your union with HimHer.] The reality of this relationship becomes the only truth that you could ever want. All truth is here.

X. The Time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness

⁹² It is in your power in time to delay the perfect union of the FatherMother and the SonDaughter. For in this world, the attraction of guilt does stand between them. Neither time nor season means anything in eternity. But here it is the Holy Spirit's function to use them both, though not as the ego uses them. This is the season when you would celebrate my birth into the world. Yet you know not how to do it. Let the Holy Spirit teach you, and let me celebrate your birth through Her. The only gift I can accept of you is the gift I gave to you. Release me as I will your release. The time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness we celebrate together, for it has no meaning if we are apart.

⁹³ The holy instant is truly the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness. For in this liberating instant, no guilt is laid upon the SonDaughter of God, and hisher unlimited power is thus restored to himher. What other gift can you offer me, when only this I will to offer you? And to see me is to see me in everyone and offer everyone the gift you offer me. I am as incapable of receiving sacrifice as God is, and every sacrifice you ask of yourself, you ask of me. Learn now that sacrifice of any kind is nothing but a limitation imposed on giving. And by this limitation, you have limited acceptance of the gift I offer you.

⁹⁴ We who are one cannot give separately. When you are willing to accept our relationship as real, guilt will hold no attraction for you. For in our union, you will accept all of our brothers and sisters. The gift of union is the only gift that I was born to give. Give it to me, that you may have it. The time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is the time appointed for the gift of freedom, offered to everyone. And by your acceptance of it, you have offered it to everyone. It is in your power to make this season holy, for it is in your power to make the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness be now.

⁹⁵ It is possible to do this all at once because there is but one shift in perception that is necessary, for you made but one mistake. It seems like the many, but it is all the same. For though the ego takes the many forms, it is always the same idea. What is not love is always fear and nothing else. It is not necessary to follow fear through all the circuitous routes by which it burrows underground and hides in darkness, to emerge in forms quite different from what it is. Yet it is necessary to examine each one as long as you would retain the principle which governs all of them. When you are willing to regard them not as separate but as different manifestations of the same idea, and one you do not want, they go together. The idea is simply this—you believe that it is possible to be host to the ego or hostage to God. This is the choice you think you have, and the decision which you believe that you must make.

⁹⁶ You see no other alternatives, for you cannot accept the fact that sacrifice gets nothing. Sacrifice is so essential to your thought system that salvation apart from sacrifice means nothing to you. Your confusion of sacrifice and love is so profound that you cannot conceive of love without sacrifice. And it is this that you must look upon—sacrifice is attack, not love. If you would accept but this one idea, your fear of love would vanish. Guilt cannot last when the idea of sacrifice has been removed. For if there is sacrifice, as you are convinced, someone must pay and someone must get. And the only question which remains to be decided is how much is the price for getting what.

⁹⁷ As host to the ego, you believe that you can give all your guilt away whatever you think and purchase peace. And the payment does not seem to be yours. While it is obvious that the ego does demand payment, it never seems to be demanding it of you. For you are unwilling to recognize that the ego, which you invited, is treacherous only to those who think they are its host. The ego will never let you perceive this, since this recognition would make it homeless. For when this recognition dawns clearly, you will not be deceived by any form the ego takes to protect itself from your sight.

⁹⁸ Each form will be recognized as but a cover for the one idea that hides behind them all—that love demands sacrifice and is therefore inseparable from attack and fear. And that guilt is the price of love, which must be paid by fear. How fearful, then, has God become to you, and how great a sacrifice do you believe HisHer love demands! For total love would demand total sacrifice. And so the ego seems to demand less of you than God, and of the two is judged as the lesser of two evils, one to be feared a little, but the other to be destroyed. For you see love as destructive, and your only question is who is to be destroyed, you or another? You seek to answer this question in your special relationships, in which you are both destroyer and destroyed in part, but with the idea of being able to be neither completely. And this you think saves you from God, Whose total love would completely destroy you.

⁹⁹ You think that everyone outside yourself demands your sacrifice, but you do not see that only you demand sacrifice and only of yourself. Yet the demand of sacrifice is so savage and so fearful that you cannot accept it where it is. But the real price of not accepting this has been so great that you have given God away rather than look at it. For if God would demand total sacrifice of you, you thought it safer to project HimHer outward and away from you and not be host to HimHer. To HimHer you ascribed the ego's treachery, inviting it to take HisHer place to protect you from HimHer. And you do not recognize that it is what you invited in that would destroy you and does demand total sacrifice of you. No partial sacrifice will appease this savage guest, for it is an invader who but seems to offer kindness, but always to make the sacrifice complete.

¹⁰⁰ You will not succeed in being partial hostage to the ego, for it keeps no bargains and would leave you nothing. [Nor can you be partial host to it.] You will have to choose between total freedom and total bondage, for there are no alternatives but these. You have tried the many compromises in the attempt to avoid recognizing the one decision which must be made. And yet it is the recognition of the decision just as it is that makes the decision so easy! Salvation is simple, being of God and therefore very easy to understand. Do not try to project it from you and see it outside yourself. In you are both the question and the answer—the demand for sacrifice and the peace of God.

XI. The End of Sacrifice

¹⁰¹ Fear not to recognize the whole idea of sacrifice as solely of your making. And seek not safety by attempting to protect yourself from where it is not. Your brothers and sisters and your FatherMother have become very fearful to you. And you would bargain with them for a few special relationships in which you think you see some scraps of safety. Do not try longer to keep apart your thoughts and the Thought that has been given you. When they are brought together and perceived where they are, the choice between them is nothing more than a gentle awakening and as simple as opening your eyes to daylight when you have no more need of sleep.

¹⁰² The sign of Christmas is a star, a light in darkness. See it not outside yourself but shining in the God Realm within and accept it as the sign the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has come. She comes demanding nothing. No sacrifice of any kind of anyone is asked by Her. In Her Presence, the whole idea of sacrifice loses all meaning. For She is Host to God. And you need but invite Her in Who is there already, by recognizing that Her Host is One, and no thought alien to Her Oneness can abide with Her there. Love must be total to give Her welcome, for the Presence of Holiness creates and manifests the holiness which surrounds it. No fear can touch the host who cradles God in the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, for the Host is as holy as the Perfect Innocence which She protects and Whose power protects Her.

¹⁰³ This the Christmas, give the Holy Spirit everything that would hurt you. Let yourself be healed completely that you may join with Her in healing, and let us celebrate our release together by releasing everyone with us. Leave nothing behind, for release is total, and when you have accepted it with me, you will give it with me. All pain and sacrifice and littleness will disappear in our relationship, which is as innocent as our relationship with our FatherMother, and as powerful. Pain will be brought to us and disappear in our presence, and without pain there can be no sacrifice. And without sacrifice, there love must be.

¹⁰⁴ You who believe that sacrifice is love must learn that sacrifice is separation from love. For sacrifice brings guilt as surely as love brings peace. Guilt is the condition of sacrifice, as peace is the condition for the awareness of your relationship with God. Through guilt you exclude your FatherMother and your brothers and sisters from yourself. Through peace you invite them back and realize that they are where your invitation bids them be. What you excluded from yourself seems fearful, for you endowed it with fear and tried to cast it out though it was part of you. Who can perceive part of himself or herself as loathsome and live within himself or herself in peace? And who can try to resolve the perceived conflict of the God Realm and hell in him or her by casting the God Realm out and giving it the attributes of hell without experiencing himself or herself as incomplete and lonely?

¹⁰⁵ As long as you perceive the body as your reality, so long will you perceive yourself as lonely and deprived. And so long will you also perceive yourself as a victim of sacrifice, justified in sacrificing others. For who could thrust the God Realm and its CreatorManifestor aside without a sense of sacrifice and loss? And who can suffer sacrifice and loss without attempting to restore himself or herself? Yet how could you accomplish this yourselves when the basis of your attempts is the belief in the reality of the deprivation? For deprivation breeds attack, being the belief that attack is justified. And as long as you would retain the deprivation, attack becomes salvation, and sacrifice becomes love.

¹⁰⁶ So is it that in all your seeking for love, you seek for sacrifice and find it. Yet you find not love. It is impossible to deny what love is and still recognize it. The meaning of love lies in what you have cast outside yourself, and it has no meaning at all apart from you. It is what you preferred to keep that has no meaning, while all that you would keep away holds all the meaning of the universe and holds the universe together in its meaning. For unless the universe were joined in you, it would be apart from God, and to be without HimHer is to be without meaning.

¹⁰⁷ In the holy instant, the condition of love is met, for minds are joined without the body's interference, and where there is communication, there is peace. The Princess of Peace was born to reestablish the condition of love by teaching that communication remains unbroken, even if the body is destroyed, provided that you see not the body as the necessary means of communication. And if you understand this lesson, you will realize that to sacrifice the body is to sacrifice nothing, and communication, which must be of the mind, cannot be sacrificed. Where, then, is sacrifice?

¹⁰⁸ The lesson I was born to teach and still would teach to all my brothers and sisters is that sacrifice is nowhere and love is everywhere. For communication embraces everything, and in the peace it reestablishes, love comes of itself. Let no despair darken the joy of the Christmas, for the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is meaningless apart from joy. Let us join in celebrating peace by demanding no sacrifice of anyone, for so will you offer me the love I offer you. What can be more joyous than to perceive we are deprived of nothing? Such is the message of the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, which I give you that you may give it and return it to the FatherMother, Who gave it to me. For in the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, communication is restored, and She joins us in the celebration of HisHer Son'sDaughter's manifested creation.

¹⁰⁹ God offers thanks to the holy host who would receive HimHer and let HimHer enter and abide where HeShe would be. And by your welcome does HeShe welcome you into HimHerself, for what is contained in you who welcome HimHer is returned to HimHer. And we but celebrate HisHer Wholeness as we welcome HimHer into ourselves. Those who receive the FatherMother are one with HimHer, being host to HimHer Who created and manifested them. And by allowing HimHer to enter, the remembrance of the FatherMother enters with HimHer, and with HimHer they remember the only relationship they ever had and ever want to have.

¹¹⁰ This is the weekend in which a new year will be born from the time of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness. I have perfect faith in you to do all that you would accomplish. Nothing will be lacking, and you will make complete and not destroy. Say and understand this:

¹¹¹ *I give you to the Holy Spirit as part of myself.
I know that you will be released, unless I want to use you to imprison myself.
In the name of my freedom I will your release,
Because I recognize that we will be released together.*

¹¹² So will the year begin in joy and freedom. There is much to do, and we have been long delayed. Accept the holy instant as this year is born and take your place, so long left unfulfilled, in the Great Awakening. Make this year different by making it all the same. And let all your relationships be made holy for you. This is our will. Amen.

Chapter Sixteen:

The Forgiveness of Illusions

I. Introduction

¹ To empathize does not mean to join in suffering, for that is what you must refuse to understand. That is the ego's interpretation of empathy and is always used to form a special relationship in which the suffering is shared. The capacity to empathize is very useful to the Holy Spirit, provided you let Her use it in Her way. [Her way is very different.] She does not understand suffering and would have you teach it is not understandable. When She relates through you, She does not relate through the ego to another ego. She does not join in pain, knowing that healing pain is not accomplished by delusional attempts to enter into it and lighten it by sharing the delusion.

² The clearest proof that empathy as the ego uses it is destructive lies in the fact that it is applied only to certain types of problems and in certain people. These it selects out and joins with. And it never joins except to strengthen itself. [Having identified with what it thinks it understands, it sees itself and would increase itself by sharing what is like itself.] Make no mistake about this maneuver; the ego always empathizes to weaken, and to weaken is always to attack. You do not know what empathizing means. Yet of this you may be sure—if you will merely sit quietly by and let the Holy Spirit relate through you, you will empathize with strength and both of you will gain in strength, and not in weakness.

³ Your part is only to remember this—you do not want anything you value to come of the relationship. You will neither to hurt it nor to heal it in your own way. You do not know what healing is. All you have learned of empathy is from the past. And there is nothing from the past that you would share, for there is nothing there that you would keep. Do not use empathy to make the past real and so perpetuate it. Step gently aside and let the healing be done for you. Keep but one thought in mind and do not lose sight of it, however tempted you may be to judge any situation and to determine your response by judging it. Focus your mind only on this:

⁴ *I am not alone, and I would not intrude
the past upon my Guest.
I have invited HimHende, and HeShe is here.
I need do nothing except not to interfere.*

II. True Empathy

⁵ True empathy is of Her Who knows what it is. You will learn Her interpretation of it if you let Her use your capacity for strength and not for weakness. She will not desert you, but be sure that you desert not Hende. Humility is strength in this sense only—to recognize and accept the fact that you do not know is to recognize and accept the fact that She does know. You are not sure that She will do Her part because you have never yet done yours completely. You will not know how to respond to what you do not understand. Be tempted not in this, and yield not to the ego's triumphant use of empathy for its glory.

⁶ The triumph of weakness is not what you would offer to a brother or sister. And yet you know no triumph but this. This is not knowledge, and the form of empathy that would bring this about is so distorted that it would imprison what it would release. The unredeemed cannot redeem, yet they have a Redeemer. Attempt to teach Her not. You are the learner; She the Teacheress. Do not confuse your role with Hers, for this will never bring peace to anyone. Offer your empathy to Her, for it is Her perception and Her strength that you would share. And let Her offer you Her strength and Her perception to be shared through you.

⁷ The meaning of love is lost in any relationship which looks to weakness and hopes to find love there. The power of love, which is its meaning, lies in the strength of God, which hovers over it and blesses it silently by enveloping it in healing wings. Let this be, and do not try to substitute your "miracle" for this. We once said that if a brother or sister asks a foolish thing of you, to do it. But be certain that this does not mean to do a foolish thing that would hurt either him or her or you, for what would hurt one will hurt the other. Foolish requests are foolish for the simple reason that they conflict because they contain an element of specialness. Only the Holy Spirit recognizes foolish needs as well as real ones. And She will teach you how to meet both without losing either.

⁸ You will attempt to do this only in secrecy. And you will think that, by meeting the needs of one, you do not jeopardize another because you keep them separate and secret from each other. That is not the way, for it leads not to light and truth. No needs will long be left unmet if you leave them all to Her Whose function is to meet them. That is Her function and not yours. She will not meet them secretly, for She would share everything you give through Her. And that is why She gives it.

⁹ What you give through Her is for the whole SonDaughtership, not for part of it. Leave Her Hers function, for She will fulfill it if you but ask HimHer to enter your relationships and bless them for you.

III. The Magnitude of Holiness

¹⁰ You still think holiness is difficult because you cannot see how it can be extended to include everyone. And you have learned that it must include everyone to be holy. Concern yourselves not with the extension of holiness, for the nature of miracles you do not understand. Nor do you do them. It is their extension, far beyond the limits you perceive, that demonstrates you did not do them. Why should you worry how the miracle extends to all the SonDaughtership when you do not understand the miracle itself? One attribute is no more difficult to understand than is the whole. If miracles are at all, their attributes would have to be miraculous, being part of them.

¹¹ There is a tendency to fragment and then to be concerned about the truth of just a little part of the whole. And this is but a way of avoiding or looking away from the whole to what you think you might be better able to understand. For this is but another way in which you would still try to keep understanding to yourself. A better and far more helpful way to think of miracles is this: You do not understand them, either in part or whole. Yet you have done them. Therefore, your understanding cannot be necessary. Yet it is still impossible to accomplish what you do not understand. And so there must be something in you that does understand.

¹² To you the miracle cannot seem natural because what you have done to hurt your minds has made them so unnatural that they do not remember what is natural to them. And when you are told about it, you cannot understand it. The recognition of the part as whole and of the whole in every part is perfectly natural. For it is the way God thinks, and what is natural to HimHer is natural to you. Wholly natural perception would show you instantly that order of difficulty in miracles is quite impossible, for it involves a contradiction of what miracles mean. And if you could understand their meaning, their attributes could hardly cause you perplexity.

¹³ You have done miracles, but it is quite apparent that you have not done them alone. You have succeeded whenever you have reached another mind and joined with it. When two minds join as one and share one idea equally, the first link in the awareness of the SonDaughtership as one has been made. When you have made this joining as the Holy Spirit bids you and have offered it to Her to use as She knows how, Her natural perception of your gift enables Her to understand it and you to use Her understanding on your behalf. It is impossible to convince you of the reality of what has clearly been accomplished through your willingness, as long as you believe that you must understand it or else it is not real.

¹⁴ You think your lack of understanding is a loss to you, and so you are unwilling to believe that what has happened is true. But can you really believe that all that has happened, even though you do not understand it, has not happened? Yet this is your position. You would have perfect faith in the Holy Spirit and in the effects of Her teaching if you were not afraid to acknowledge what She taught you. For this acknowledgment means that what has happened you do not understand but that you are willing to accept it because it has happened.

¹⁵ How can faith in reality be yours while you are bent on making it unreal? And are you really safer in maintaining the unreality of what has happened than you would be in joyously accepting it for what it is and giving thanks for it? Honor the truth that has been given you, and be glad you do not understand it. Miracles are natural to God and to the One Who speaks for HimHer. For Her task is to translate the miracle into the knowledge which it represents and which is lost to you. Let Her understanding of the miracle be enough for you, and do not turn away from all the witnesses that She has given you to Her reality.

¹⁶ No evidence will convince you of the truth of what you do not want. Yet your relationship with Her is real and has been demonstrated. Regard this not with fear but with rejoicing. The One you called upon is with you. Bid Her welcome and honor Her witnesses, who bring you the glad tidings She has come. It is true, just as you fear, that to acknowledge Her is to deny all that you think you know. But it was never true. What gain is there to you in clinging to it and denying the evidence for truth? For you have come too near to truth to renounce it now, and you will yield to its compelling attraction. You can delay this now but only a little while. The host of God has called to you, and you have heard. Never again will you be wholly willing not to listen.

¹⁷ This is a year of joy in which your listening will increase, and peace will grow with its increase. The power of holiness and the weakness of attack have both been brought into awareness. And this has been accomplished in minds firmly convinced that holiness is weakness and attack is power. Should not this be a sufficient miracle to teach you that your Teacheress is not of you? But remember also that whenever you have listened to Her interpretation, the results have brought you joy. Would you prefer the results of your interpretation, considering honestly what they have been? God wills you better. Could you not look with greater charity on whom God loves with perfect love?

¹⁸ Do not interpret against God's Love, for you have the many witnesses which speak of it so clearly that only the blind and deaf could fail to see and hear them. This year, determine not to deny what has been given you by God. [Awake and share it], for that is the only reason HeShe has called to you. HisHer Voice has spoken clearly, and yet you have so little faith in what you heard because you have preferred to place still greater faith in the disaster you have made. Today let us resolve together to accept the joyful tidings that disaster is not real and that reality is not disaster.

¹⁹ Reality is safe and sure and wholly kind to everyone and everything. There is no greater love than to accept this and be glad. For love asks only that you be happy and will give you everything that makes for happiness. You have never given any problem to the Holy Spirit She has not solved for you, nor will you ever do so. You have never tried to solve anything yourself and been successful. Is it not time you brought these facts together and made sense of them?

²⁰ This is the year for the application of the ideas which have been given you. For the ideas are mighty forces to be used and not held idly by. They have already proved their power sufficiently for you to place your faith in them and not in their denial. This year invest in truth, and let it work in peace. Have faith in what has faith in you. Think what you have really seen and heard and recognize it. Can you be alone with witnesses like these?

IV. The Reward of Teaching

²¹ You have taught well, and yet you have not learned how to accept the comfort of your teaching. If you will consider what you have taught and how alien it is to what you thought you knew, you will be compelled to recognize that your Teacheress came from beyond your thought system and so could look upon it fairly and perceive it was untrue. And She must have done so from the basis of a very different thought system and one with nothing in common with yours. For certainly what She has taught, and what you have taught through Her, have nothing in common with what you taught before She came. And the results have been to bring peace where there was pain, and suffering has disappeared, to be replaced by joy.

²² You have taught freedom, but you have not learned how to be free. We once said, "By their fruits ye shall know them, and they shall know themselves." For it is certain that you judge yourself according to your teaching. The ego's teaching produces immediate results because its decisions are immediately accepted as your choice. And this acceptance means that you are willing to judge yourself accordingly. Cause and effect are very clear in the ego's thought system because all your learning has been directed towards establishing the relationship between them. And would you not have faith in what you have so diligently taught yourself to believe? Yet remember how much care you have exerted in choosing its witnesses and in avoiding those which spoke for the cause of truth and its effects.

²³ Does not the fact that you have not learned what you have taught show you that you do not perceive the SonDaughtership as one? And does it not also show you that you do not regard yourself as one? For it is impossible to teach successfully wholly without conviction, and it is equally impossible that conviction be outside of you. You could never have taught freedom unless you did believe in it. And it must be that what you taught came from yourself. And yet, this Self you clearly do not know and do not recognize It even though It functions. What functions must be there. And it is only if you deny what It has done that you could possibly deny Its Presence.

²⁴ This is a course in how to know yourself. You have taught what you are but have not let what you are teach you. You have been very careful to avoid the obvious and not to see the real cause and effect relationship that is perfectly apparent. Yet within you is everything you taught. What can it be that has not learned it? It must be this that is really outside yourself, not by your own projection, but in truth. And it is this that you have taken in that is not you. What you accept into your minds does not really change them. Illusions are but beliefs in what is not there. And the seeming conflict between truth and illusion can only be resolved by separating yourself from the illusion and not from truth.

²⁵ Your teaching has already done this, for the Holy Spirit is part of you. Created and manifested by God, She left neither God nor HisHer manifested creation. She is both God and you, as you are God and Her together. For God's answer to the separation added more to you than you tried to take away. HeShe protected both your creationsmanifestations and you together, keeping one with you what you would exclude. And they will take the place of what you took in to replace them. They are quite real as part of the Self you do not know. And they communicate to you through the Holy Spirit, and their power and gratitude to you for their manifested creation they offer gladly to your teaching of yourself, who is their home. You who are host to God are also host to them. For nothing real has ever left the mind of its CreatorManifestor. And what is not real was never there.

²⁶ You are not two selves in conflict. What is beyond God? If you who hold HimHer and whom HeShe holds are the universe, all else must be outside, where nothing is. You have taught this, and from far off in the universe, yet not beyond yourself, the witnesses to your teaching have gathered to help you learn. Their gratitude has joined with yours and God's to strengthen your faith in what you taught. For what you taught is true. Alone you stand outside your teaching and apart from it. But with them you must learn that you but taught yourself and learned from the conviction you shared with them.

²⁷ This year you will begin to learn and make learning commensurate with teaching. You have chosen this by your own willingness to teach. Though you seemed to suffer for it, the joy of teaching will yet be yours. For the joy of teaching is in the learner, who offers it to the teacher in gratitude and shares it with him or her. As you learn, your gratitude to your Self, Who teaches you what heshe is, will grow and help you honor himher. And you will learn hisher power and strength and purity, and love himher as hisher FatherMother does. Hisher Realm has no limits and no end, and there is nothing in himher that is not perfect and eternal. All this is you, and nothing outside of this is you.

²⁸ To your most holy Self, all praise is due for what you are and for what heshe is Who created and manifested you as you are. Sooner or later must everyone bridge the gap which he or she imagines exists between his or her selves. Each one builds this bridge which carries him or her across the gap as soon as he or she is willing to expend some little effort on behalf of bridging it. His or her little efforts are powerfully supplemented by the strength of the God Realm and by the united will of all who make the God Realm what it is, being joined within it. And so the one who would cross over is literally transported there.

²⁹ Your bridge is builded stronger than you think, and your foot is planted firmly on it. Have no fear that the attraction of those who stand on the other side and wait for you will not draw you safely across. For you will come where you would be and where your Self awaits you.

V. Illusion and reality of Love

³⁰ Be not afraid to look upon the special hate relationship, for freedom lies in looking at it. It would be impossible not to know the meaning of love except for this. For the special love relationship, in which the meaning of love is lost, is undertaken solely to offset the hate but not to let it go. Your salvation will rise clearly before your open eyes as you look on this. You cannot limit hate. The special love relationship will not offset it but will merely drive it underground and out of sight. It is essential to bring it into sight and to make no attempt to hide it. For it is the attempt to balance hate with love that makes love meaningless to you. The extent of the split that lies in this you do not realize. And until you do, the split will remain unrecognized and therefore unhealed.

³¹ The symbols of hate against the symbols of love play out a conflict which does not exist. For symbols stand for something else, and the symbol of love is without meaning if love is everything. You will go through this last undoing quite unharmed and will at last emerge as yourself. This is the last step in the readiness for God. Be not unwilling now. You are too near, and you will cross the bridge in perfect safety, translated quietly from war to peace. For the illusion of love will never satisfy, but its reality, which awaits you on the other side, will give you everything.

³² The special love relationship is an attempt to limit the destructive effects of hate by finding a haven in the storm of guilt. It makes no attempt to rise above the storm into the sunlight. On the contrary, it emphasizes guilt outside the haven by attempting to build barricades against it and keep within them. The special love relationship is not perceived as a value in itself, but as a place of safety from which hatred is split off and kept apart. The special love partner is acceptable only as long as he or she serves this purpose. Hatred can enter and indeed is welcome in some aspects of the relationship, but it is still held together by the illusion of love. If the illusion goes, the relationship is broken or becomes unsatisfying on the grounds of disillusionment.

³³ Love is not an illusion. It is a fact. Where disillusionment is possible, there was not love but hate. For hate is an illusion, and what can change was never love. It is certain that those who select certain ones as partners in any aspect of living and use them for any purpose which they would not share with others, are trying to live with guilt rather than die of it. This is the choice they see. And love to them is only an escape from death. They seek it desperately but not in the peace in which it would gladly come quietly to them. And when they find the fear of death is still upon them, the love relationship loses the illusion that it is what it is not. For then the barricades against it are broken, fear rushes in, and hatred triumphs.

³⁴ There are no triumphs of love. Only hate is concerned with the "triumph of love" at all. The illusion of love can triumph over the illusion of hate, but always at the price of making both illusions. As long as the illusion of hatred lasts, so long will love be an illusion to you. And then the only choice which remains possible is which illusion you prefer. There is no conflict in the choice between truth and illusion. Seen in these terms, no one would hesitate. But conflict enters the instant the choice seems to be one between illusions, for this choice does not matter. Where one choice is as dangerous as the other, the decision must be one of despair.

³⁵ Your task is not to seek for love but merely to seek and find all of the barriers within yourself which you have built against it. It is not necessary to seek for what is true, but it is necessary to seek for what is false. Every illusion is one of fear, whatever form it takes. And the attempt to escape from one illusion into another must fail. If you seek love outside yourself, you can be certain that you perceive hatred within and are afraid of it. Yet peace will never come from the illusion of love, but only from its reality.

³⁶ Recognize this, for it is true, and truth must be recognized if it is to be distinguished from illusion: The special love relationship is an attempt [to bring love into separation. And, as such, it is nothing more than an attempt] to bring love into fear and make it real in fear. In fundamental violation of love's condition, the special love relationship would accomplish the impossible. How but in illusion could this be done? It is essential that we look very closely at exactly what it is you think you can do to solve the dilemma, which seems very real to you, but which does not exist. You have come very close to truth, and only this stands between you and the bridge that leads you into it.

³⁷ The God Realm waits silently, and your creationsmanifestations are holding out their hands to help you cross and welcome them. For it is they you seek. You seek but for your own completion, and it is they who render you complete. The special love relationship is but a shabby substitute for what makes you whole in truth, not in illusion. Your relationship with them is without guilt, and this enables you to look on all your brothers and sisters with gratitude because your creationsmanifestations were created and manifested in union with them. Acceptance of your creationsmanifestations is the acceptance of the oneness of manifested creation, without which you could never be complete. No specialness can offer you what God has given and what you are joined with HimHer in giving.

³⁸ Across the bridge is your completion, for you will be wholly in God, willing for nothing special but only to be wholly like unto HimHer, completing HimHer by your completion. Fear not to cross to the abode of peace and perfect holiness. Only there is the completion of God and of HisHer SonDaughter established forever. Seek not for this in the bleak world of illusion, where nothing is certain, and where everything fails to satisfy. In the Name of God, be wholly willing to abandon all illusions. In any relationship in which you are wholly willing to accept completion, and only this, there is God completed and HisHer SonDaughter with HimHer.

³⁹ The bridge that leads to union in yourself must lead to knowledge, for it was built with God beside you and will lead you straight to HimHer, where your completion rests wholly compatible with Hishers. Every illusion which you accept into your mind by judging it to be attainable removes your own sense of completion and thus denies the wholeness of your FatherMother. Every fantasy, be it of love or hate, deprives you of knowledge, for fantasies are the veil behind which truth is hidden. To lift the veil which seems so dark and heavy, it is only needful to value truth beyond all fantasy and to be entirely unwilling to settle for illusion in place of truth.

⁴⁰ Would you not go through fear to love? For such the journey seems to be. Love calls, but hate would have you stay. Hear not the call of hate, and see no fantasies[, for your completion lies in truth and nowhere else]. See in the call of hate and in every fantasy that rises to delay you but the call for help which rises ceaselessly from you to your CreatorManifestor. Would HeShe not answer you whose completion is HisHers? HeShe loves you wholly without illusion, as you must love. For love is wholly without illusion and therefore wholly without fear. Whom God remembers must be whole. And God has never forgotten what makes HimHer whole. In your completion lies the memory of HisHer wholeness and HisHer gratitude to you for HisHer completion. In HisHer link with you lie both HisHer inability to forget and your ability to remember. In HimHer are joined your willingness to love and all the love of God, Who forgot you not.

⁴¹ Your FatherMother can no more forget the truth in you than you can fail to remember it. The Holy Spirit is the bridge to HimHer, made from your willingness to unite with HimHer and created and manifested by HisHer joy in union with you. The journey that seemed to be endless is almost complete, for what is endless is very near. You have almost recognized it. Turn with me firmly away from all illusions now, and let nothing stand in the way of truth. We will take the last foolish journey away from truth together, and then together we go straight to God in joyous answer to HisHer call for HisHer completion.

⁴² If special relationships of any kind would hinder God's completion, can they have value to you? What would interfere with God must interfere with you. Only in time does interference in God's completion seem to be possible. The bridge that HeShe would carry you across lifts you from time into eternity. Waken from time and answer fearlessly the call of HimHer Who gave eternity to you in your manifested creation. On this side of the bridge to timelessness you understand nothing. But as you step lightly across it, upheld by timelessness, you are directed straight to the Heart of God. At its center, and only there, you are safe forever because you are complete forever. There is no veil the love of God in us together cannot lift. The way to truth is open. Follow it with me.

VI. Specialness and Guilt

⁴³ In looking at the special relationship, it is necessary first to realize that it involves a great amount of pain. Anxiety, despair, guilt, and attack all enter into it, broken into by periods in which they seem to be gone. All these must be understood for what they are. Whatever form they take, they are always an attack on the self to make the other guilty. We have spoken of this before, but there are some aspects of what is really being attempted that we have not touched upon.

⁴⁴ Very simply, the attempt to make guilty is always directed against God. For the ego would have you see him or her, and him or her alone, as guilty, leaving the SonDaughtership open to attack and unprotected from it. The special love relationship is the ego's chief weapon for keeping you from the God Realm. It does not appear to be a weapon, but if you consider how you value it and why, you will realize what it must be. The special love relationship is the ego's most boasted gift, and one which has the most appeal to those unwilling to relinquish guilt. The "dynamics" of the ego are clearest here, for counting on the attraction of this offering, the fantasies which center around it are often quite open. Here they are usually judged to be acceptable and even natural. No one considers it bizarre to love and hate together, and even those who believe that hate is sin merely feel guilty and do not correct it.

⁴⁵ This is the "natural" condition of the separation, and those who learn that it is not natural at all seem to be the unnatural ones. For this world is the opposite of the God Realm, being made to be its opposite, and everything here takes a direction exactly opposite of what is true. In the God Realm, where the meaning of love is known, love is the same as union. Here, where the illusion of love is accepted in love's place, love is perceived as separation and exclusion.

⁴⁶ It is in the special relationship, born of the hidden wish for special love from God, that the ego's hatred triumphs. For the special relationship is the renunciation of the love of God and the attempt to secure for the self the specialness which HeShe denied. It is essential to the preservation of the ego that you believe this specialness is not hell, but the God Realm . For the ego would never have you see that separation can only be loss, being the one condition in which the God Realm cannot be.

⁴⁷ To everyone the God Realm is completion. There can be no disagreement on this because both the ego and the Holy Spirit accept it. They are, however, in complete disagreement on what completion is and how it is accomplished. The Holy Spirit knows that completion lies first in union and then in the extension of union. To the ego, completion lies in triumph and in the extension of the "victory" even to the final triumph over God. In this it sees the ultimate freedom of the self, for nothing would remain to interfere with it. This is its idea of the God Realm . From this it follows that union, which is a condition in which the ego cannot interfere, must be hell.

⁴⁸ The special relationship is a strange and unnatural ego device for joining hell and the God Realm and making them indistinguishable. And the attempt to find the imagined "best" of both worlds has merely led to fantasies of both and to the inability to perceive either one as it is. The special relationship is the triumph of this confusion. It is a kind of union from which union is excluded, and the basis for the attempt at union rests on exclusion. What better example could there be of the ego's maxim, "Seek but do not find?"

⁴⁹ Most curious of all is the concept of the self which the ego fosters in the special relationship. This "self" seeks the relationship to make itself complete. Yet when it finds the special relationship in which it thinks it can accomplish this, it gives itself away and tries to "trade" itself for the self of another. This is not union, for there is no increase and no extension. Each partner tries to sacrifice the self he or she does not want for one he or she thinks he or she would prefer. And he or she feels guilty for the "sin" of taking and of giving nothing of value in return. For how much value can he or she place upon a self that he or she would give away to get a better one?

⁵⁰ The "better" self the ego seeks is always one that is more special. And whoever seems to possess a special self is "loved" for what can be taken from him or her. Where both partners see this special self in each other, the ego sees "a union made in the God Realm ." For neither one will recognize that he or she has asked for hell, and so he or she will not interfere with the ego's illusion of the God Realm, which it offered him or her to interfere with the God Realm. Yet if all illusions are of fear, and they can be of nothing else, the illusion of the God Realm is nothing more than an "attractive" form of fear in which the guilt is buried deep and rises in the form of "love."

⁵¹ The appeal of hell lies only in the terrible attraction of guilt, which the ego holds out to those who place their faith in littleness. The conviction of littleness lies in every special relationship, for only the deprived could value specialness. The demand for specialness and the perception of the giving of specialness as an act of love would make love hateful. And the real purpose of the special relationship, in strict accordance with the ego's goals, is to destroy reality and substitute illusion. For the ego is itself an illusion, and only illusions can be the witnesses to its "reality."

⁵² If you perceived the special relationship as a triumph over God, would you want it? Let us not think of its fearful nature nor of the guilt it must entail nor of the sadness and the loneliness. For these are only attributes of the whole religion of the separation and of the total context in which it is thought to occur. The central theme in its litany to sacrifice is that God must die so you can live. And it is this theme which is acted out in the special relationship. Through the death of your self, you think you can attack another self and snatch it from the other to replace the self which you despise. And you despise it because you do not think it offers the specialness which you demand. And hating it, you have made it little and unworthy because you are afraid of it.

⁵³ How can you grant unlimited power to what you think you have attacked? So fearful has the truth become to you that unless it is weak and little, [and unworthy of value,] you would not dare to look upon it. You think it safer to endow the little self which you have made with power you wrested from truth, triumphing over it and leaving it helpless. See how exactly is this ritual enacted in the special relationship. An altar is erected in between two separate people on which each seeks to kill his or her self and on his or her body raise another self which takes its power from his or her death. Over and over and over this ritual is enacted. And it is never completed nor ever will be completed. For the ritual of completion cannot complete, and life arises not from death, nor the God Realm from hell.

⁵⁴ Whenever any form of special relationship tempts you to seek for love in ritual, remember love is content and not form of any kind. The special relationship is a ritual of form, aimed at the raising of the form to take the place of God at the expense of content. There is no meaning in the form, and there will never be. The special relationship must be recognized for what it is—a senseless ritual in which strength is extracted from the death of God and invested in HisHer killer as the sign that form has triumphed over content and love has lost its meaning. Would you want this to be possible, even apart from its evident impossibility? For if it were possible, you would have made yourself helpless. God is not angry. HeShe merely could not let this happen. You cannot change HisHer Mind.

⁵⁵ No rituals that you have set up in which the dance of death delights you can bring death to the eternal. Nor can your chosen substitute for the wholeness of God have any influence at all upon it. See in the special relationship nothing more than a meaningless attempt to raise other gods before HimHer and by worshiping them to obscure their tininess and HisHer greatness. In the name of your completion, you do not want this. For every idol or idolress which you raise to place before HimHer stands before you in place of what you are.

⁵⁶ Salvation lies in the simple fact that illusions are not fearful because they are not true. They but seem to be fearful to the extent to which you fail to recognize them for what they are, and you will fail to do this to the extent to which you want them to be true. And to the same extent you are denying truth, and so are making yourself unable to make the simple choice between truth and illusion, God and fantasy. Remember this and you will have no difficulty in perceiving the decision as just what it is and nothing more.

⁵⁷ The core of the separation delusion lies simply in the fantasy of destruction of love's meaning. And unless love's meaning is restored to you, you cannot know yourself, who shares its meaning. Separation is only the decision not to know yourself. Its whole thought system is a carefully contrived learning experience designed to lead away from truth and into fantasy. Yet for every learning that would hurt you, God offers you correction and complete escape from all its consequences. The decision whether or not to listen to this course and follow it is but the choice between truth and illusion. For here is truth separated from illusion and not confused with it at all.

⁵⁸ How simple does this choice become when it is perceived as only what it is. For only fantasies made confusion in choosing possible, and they are totally unreal. This year is thus the time to make the easiest decision that ever confronted you and also the only one. You will cross the bridge into reality simply because you will recognize that God is on the other side and nothing at all is here. It is impossible not to make the natural decision as this is realized.

VII. The Bridge to the Real World

⁵⁹ The search for the special relationship is the sign that you equate yourself with the ego and not with God. For the special relationship has value only to the ego. To the ego unless a relationship has special value, it has no meaning, and it perceives all love as special. Yet this cannot be natural, for it is unlike the relationship of God and HisHer SonDaughter, and all relationships that are unlike this one must be unnatural. For God created and manifested love as HeShe would have it be and gave it as it is. Love has no meaning except as its CreatorManifestor defined it by HisHer Will. It is impossible to define it otherwise and understand it.

⁶⁰ Love is freedom. To look for it by placing yourself in bondage is to separate yourself from it. For the love of God, no longer seek for union in separation nor for freedom in bondage! As you release, so will you be released. Forget this not, or love will be unable to find you and comfort you. There is a way in which the Holy Spirit asks your help if you would have Hers. The holy instant is Her most helpful tool in protecting you from the attraction of guilt, the real lure in the special relationship. You do not recognize that this is its real appeal, for the ego has taught you that freedom lies in it. Yet the closer you look at the special relationship, the more apparent it becomes that it must foster guilt and therefore must imprison.

⁶¹ The special relationship is totally without meaning without a body. And if you value it, you must also value the body. And what you value, you will keep. The special relationship is a device for limiting your self to a body and for limiting your perception of others to theirs. The Great Rays would establish the total lack of value of the special relationship if they were seen. For in seeing them, the body would disappear because its value would be lost. And so your whole investment in seeing it would be withdrawn from it. You see the world you value.

⁶² On this side of the bridge, you see the world of separate bodies seeking to join each other in separate unions and to become one by losing. When two individuals seek to become one, they are trying to decrease their magnitude. Each would deny his or her power, for the separate union excludes the universe. Far more is left outside than would be taken in. For God is left without and nothing taken in. If one such union were made in perfect faith, the universe would enter into it. Yet the special relationship which the ego seeks does not include even one whole individual. For the ego wants but part of him or her and sees only this part and nothing else.

⁶³ Across the bridge, it is so different! For a time the body is still seen but not exclusively, as it is seen here. For the little spark which holds the Great Rays within it is also visible, and this spark cannot be limited long to littleness. Once you have crossed the bridge, the value of the body is so diminished in your sight that you will see no need at all to magnify it. For you will realize that the only value which the body has is to enable you to bring your brothers and sisters to the bridge with you and to be released together there.

⁶⁴ The bridge itself is nothing more than a transition in your perspective of reality. On this side, everything you see is grossly distorted and completely out of perspective. What is little and insignificant is magnified, and what is strong and powerful cut down to littleness. In the transition there is a period of confusion in which a sense of actual disorientation seems to occur. But fear it not, for it means nothing more than that you have been willing to let go your hold on the distorted frame of reference which seemed to hold your world together. This frame of reference is built around the special relationship. Without this illusion, there can be no meaning you would still seek here.

⁶⁵ Fear not that you will be abruptly lifted up and hurled into reality. Time is kind, and if you use it for reality, it will keep gentle pace with you in your transition. The urgency is only in dislodging your minds from their fixed position here. This will not leave you homeless and without a frame of reference. The period of disorientation which precedes the actual transition is far shorter than the time it took to fix your minds so firmly on illusions. Delay will hurt you now more than before only because you realize it is delay and that escape from pain is really possible. Find hope and comfort rather than despair in this: You could no longer find even the illusion of love in any special relationship here. For you are no longer wholly insane, and you would recognize the guilt of self-betrayal for what it is.

⁶⁶ Nothing you seek to strengthen in the special relationship is really part of you. And you cannot keep part of the thought system which taught you it was real and understand the Thought that really knows what you are. You have allowed the Thought of your reality to enter your minds, and because you invited it, it will abide with you. Your love for it will not allow you to betray yourself, and you could not enter into a relationship where it could not go with you, for you would not be apart from it.

⁶⁷ Be glad you have escaped the mockery of salvation which the ego offered you and look not back with longing on the travesty it made of your relationships. Now no one need suffer, for you have come too far to yield to the illusion of the beauty and holiness of guilt. Only the wholly insane could look on death and suffering, sickness and despair and see it thus. What guilt has wrought is ugly, fearful, and very dangerous. See no illusion of truth and beauty there. And be you thankful that there is a place where truth and beauty wait for you. Go on to meet them gladly, and learn how much awaits you for the simple willingness to give up nothing because it is nothing.

⁶⁸ The new perspective you will gain from crossing over will be the understanding of where the God Realm is. From here it seems to be outside and across the bridge. Yet as you cross to join it, it will join with you and become one with you. And you will think in glad astonishment that for all this you gave up nothing! The joy of the God Realm, which has no limit, is increased with each light that returns to take its rightful place within it. Wait no longer, for the love of God and you. And may the holy instant speed you on the way, as it will surely do if you but let it come to you.

⁶⁹ The Holy Spirit asks only this little help of you. Whenever your thoughts wander to a special relationship which still attracts you, enter with Her into a holy instant and there let Her release you. She needs only your willingness to share Her perspective to give it to you completely. And your willingness need not be complete because Her is perfect. It is Her task to atone for your unwillingness by Her perfect faith, and it is Her faith you share with Her there. Out of your recognition of your unwillingness for your release, Her perfect willingness is given you. Call upon Her, for the God Realm is at Her call. And let Her call on the God Realm for you.

VIII. The End of Illusions

⁷⁰ It is impossible to let the past go without relinquishing the special relationship. For the special relationship is an attempt to reenact the past and change it. Imagined slights, remembered pain, past disappointments, perceived injustices, and deprivations all enter into the special relationship, which becomes a way in which you seek to restore your wounded self-esteem. What basis would you have for choosing a special partner without the past? Every such choice is made because of something "evil" in the past to which you cling and for which must someone else atone.

⁷¹ The special relationship takes vengeance on the past. By seeking to remove suffering in the past, it overlooks the present in its preoccupation with the past and its total commitment to it. No special relationship is experienced in the present. Shades of the past envelop it and make it what it is. It has no meaning in the present, and if it means nothing now, it cannot have any real meaning at all. How can you change the past except in fantasy? And who can give you what you think the past deprived you of? The past is nothing. Do not seek to lay the blame for deprivation on it, for the past is gone. You cannot really not let go what has already gone. It must be, therefore, that you are maintaining the illusion that it has not gone because you think it serves some purpose that you want fulfilled. And it must also be that this purpose could not be fulfilled in the present, but only in the past.

⁷² Do not underestimate the intensity of the ego's drive for vengeance on the past. It is completely savage and completely insane. For the ego remembers everything that you have done which offended it and seeks retribution of you. The fantasies it brings to the special relationships it chooses in which to act out its hate are fantasies of your destruction. For the ego holds the past against you, and in your escape from the past, it sees itself deprived of the vengeance it believes that you so justly merit. Yet without your alliance in your own destruction, the ego could not hold you to the past.

⁷³ In the special relationship, you are allowing your destruction to be. That this is insane is obvious. But what is less obvious to you is that the present is useless to you while you pursue the ego's goal as its ally. The past is gone; seek not to preserve it in the special relationship, which binds you to it and would teach you that salvation is past and that you must return to the past to find salvation. There is no fantasy which does not contain the dream of retribution for the past. Would you act out the dream or let it go?

⁷⁴ In the special relationship, it does not seem to be an acting out of vengeance which you seek. And even when the hatred and the savagery break briefly through into awareness, the illusion of love is not profoundly shaken. Yet the one thing which the ego never allows to reach awareness is that the special relationship is the acting out of vengeance on yourself. But what else could it be? In seeking the special relationship, you look not for glory in yourself. You have denied that it is there, and the relationship becomes your substitute for it. And vengeance becomes your substitute for Atonement, and the escape from vengeance becomes your loss.

⁷⁵ Against the ego's insane notion of salvation, the Holy Spirit gently lays the holy instant. We said before that the Holy Spirit must teach through comparisons and uses opposites to point to truth. The holy instant is the opposite of the ego's fixed belief in salvation through vengeance for the past. In the holy instant, it is accepted that the past is gone, and with its passing the drive for vengeance has been uprooted and has disappeared. The stillness and the peace of now enfolds you in perfect gentleness. Everything is gone except the truth.

⁷⁶ For a time you may attempt to bring illusions into the holy instant to hinder your full awareness of the complete difference in all respects between your experience of truth and illusion. Yet you will not attempt this long. In the holy instant, the power of the Holy Spirit will prevail because you joined Her. The illusions you bring with you will weaken the experience of Her for a while and will prevent you from keeping the experience in your mind. Yet the holy instant is eternal, and your illusions of time will not prevent the timeless from being what it is nor you from experiencing it as it is.

⁷⁷ What God has given you is truly given and will be truly received. For God's gifts have no reality apart from your receiving them. Your receiving completes HisHer giving. You will receive because it is HisHer Will to give. HeShe gave the holy instant to be given you, and it is impossible that you receive it not, because HeShe gave it. When HeShe willed that HisHer SonDaughter be free, HisHer SonDaughter was free. In the holy instant is HisHer reminder that HisHer SonDaughter will always be exactly as heshe was created and manifested. And everything the Holy Spirit teaches you is to remind you that you have received what God has given you.

⁷⁸ There is nothing you can hold against reality. All that must be forgiven are the illusions you have held against your brothers and sisters. Their reality has no past, and only illusions can be forgiven. God holds nothing against anyone, for HeShe is incapable of illusions of any kind. Release your brothers and sisters from the slavery of their illusions by forgiving them for the illusions which you perceive in them. Thus will you learn that you have been forgiven, for it is you who offered them illusions. In the holy instant, this is done for you in time to bring to you the true condition of the God Realm.

⁷⁹ Remember that you always choose between truth and illusion—between the real Atonement which would heal and the ego's "atonement" which would destroy. The power of God and all HisHer Love, without limit, will support you as you seek only your place in the plan of Atonement arising from HisHer Love. Be an ally of God and not the ego in seeking how Atonement can come to you. HisHer help suffices, for HisHer Messenger understands how to restore the God Realm to you and to place all your investment in salvation in your relationship with HimHer.

⁸⁰ Seek and find HisHer message in the holy instant, where all illusions are forgiven. From there the miracle extends to bless everyone and to resolve all problems, be they perceived as great or small, possible or impossible. There is nothing that will not give place to HimHer and to HisHer majesty. To join in close relationship with HimHer is to accept relationships as real and through their reality to give over all illusions for the reality of your relationship with God. Praise be to your relationship with HimHer and to no other. The truth lies here and nowhere else. You choose this or nothing.

⁸¹ Forgive us our illusions, FatherMother, and help us to accept our true relationship with You in which there are no illusions and where none can ever enter. Our holiness is Yours. What can there be in us that needs forgiveness when Yours is perfect? The sleep of forgetfulness is only the unwillingness to remember Your forgiveness and Your Love. Let us not wander into temptation, for the temptation of the SonDaughter of God is not Your Will. And let us receive only what you have given and accept but this into the minds which You created and manifested and which You love.
Amen.

Chapter Seventeen:

Forgiveness and Healing

I. Introduction

¹ The betrayal of the SonDaughter of God lies only in illusions, and all hisher "sins" are but hisher own imagining. Hisher reality is forever sinless. Heshes need not be forgiven, but awakened. In hisher dreams heshe has betrayed himherself, hisher brothers and sisters, and hisher God. Yet what is done in dreams has not been really done. It is impossible to convince the dreamer that this is so, for dreams are what they are because of their illusion of reality. Only in waking is the full release from them, for only then does it become perfectly apparent that they had no effect on reality at all and did not change it. Fantasies change reality. That is their purpose. They cannot do so in reality, but they can do so in the mind that would have reality different.

² It is, then, only your wish to change reality that is fearful, because by your wish you think you have accomplished what you wish. This strange position in a sense acknowledges your power. Yet by distorting it and devoting it to "evil," it also makes it unreal. You cannot be faithful to two masters who ask of you conflicting things. What you use in fantasy, you deny to truth. Yet what you give to truth to use for you is safe from fantasy.

II. Fantasy and Distorted Perception

³ When you maintain that there must be order of difficulty in miracles, all you mean is that there are some things you would withhold from truth. You believe that truth cannot deal with them only because you would keep them from truth. Very simply, your lack of faith in the power that heals all pain arises from your wish to retain some aspects of reality for fantasy. If you but realized what this must do to your appreciation of the whole! What you reserve unto yourself, you take away from HimHer Who would release you. Unless you give it back, it is inevitable that your perspective on reality be warped and uncorrected.

⁴ As long as you would have it so, so long will the illusion of order of difficulty in miracles remain with you. For you have established this order in reality by giving some of it to one teacher and some to another. And so you learn to deal with part of truth in one way and in another way the other part. To fragment truth is to destroy it by rendering it meaningless. Orders of reality is a perspective without understanding, a frame of reference for reality to which it cannot really be compared at all.

⁵ Think you that you can bring truth to fantasy and learn what truth means from the perspective of illusions? Truth has no meaning in illusion. The frame of reference for its meaning must be itself. When you try to bring truth to illusions, you are trying to make illusions real and keep them by justifying your belief in them. But to give illusions to truth is to enable truth to teach that the illusions are unreal and thus enable you to escape from them. Reserve not one idea aside from truth, or you establish orders of reality which must imprison you. There is no order in reality because everything there is true.

⁶ Be willing, then, to give all you have held outside the truth to Her who knows the truth and in Whom all is brought to truth. [Salvation from separation will be complete or will be not at all.] Be not concerned with anything except your willingness to have this be accomplished. She will accomplish it; not you. But forget not this: When you become disturbed and lose your peace of mind because another is attempting to solve his or her problems through fantasy, you are refusing to forgive yourself for just this same attempt. And you are holding both of you away from truth and from salvation. As you forgive him or her, you restore to truth what was denied by both of you. And you will see forgiveness where you have given it.

III. The Forgiven World

⁷ Can you imagine how beautiful those you forgive will look to you? In no fantasy have you ever seen anything so lovely. Nothing you see here, sleeping or waking, comes near to such loveliness. And nothing will you value like unto this nor hold so dear. Nothing that you remember that made your heart seem to sing with joy has ever brought you even a little part of the happiness this sight will bring you. For you will see the SonDaughter of God. You will behold the beauty which the Holy Spirit loves to look upon and which She thanks the FatherMother for. She was created and manifested to see this for you until you learn to see it for yourself. And all Her teaching leads to seeing it and giving thanks with Her.

⁸ This loveliness is not a fantasy. It is the real world, bright and clean and new with everything sparkling under the open sun. Nothing is hidden here, for everything has been forgiven, and there are no fantasies to hide the truth. The bridge between that world and this is so little and so easy to cross that you could not believe it is the meeting place of worlds so different. Yet this little bridge is the strongest thing that touches on this world at all. This little step, so small it has escaped your notice, is a stride through time into eternity and beyond all ugliness into beauty that will enchant you and will never cease to cause you wonderment at its perfection.

⁹ This step, the smallest ever taken by anything, is still the greatest accomplishment of all in God's plan of Atonement. All else is learned, but this is given, complete and wholly perfect. No one but HimHer Who planned salvation could complete it thus. The real world, in its loveliness, you learn to reach. Fantasies are all undone, and no one and nothing remains still bound by them, and by your own forgiveness, you are free to see. Yet what you see is only what you have made, with the blessing of your forgiveness on it. And with this final blessing of God's SonDaughter upon himherself, the real perception, born of the new perspective heshe has learned, has served its purpose.

¹⁰ The stars will disappear in light, and the sun which opened up the world to beauty will vanish. Perception will be meaningless when it has been perfected, for everything that has been used for learning will have no function. Nothing will ever change; no shifts nor shadings, no differences, no variations which made perception possible will occur. The perception of the real world will be so short that you will barely have time to thank God for it. For God will take the last step swiftly when you have reached the real world and have been made ready for HimHer.

¹¹ The real world is attained simply by the complete forgiveness of the old, the world you see without forgiveness. The Great Transformer of perception will undertake with you the careful searching of the mind that made this world and uncover to you the seeming reasons for your making it. In the light of the real reason which She brings, as you follow Her, She will show you that there is no reason here at all. Each spot Her reason touches grows alive with beauty, and what seemed ugly in the darkness of your lack of reason is suddenly released to loveliness. Not even what the SonDaughter of God made in insanity could be without a hidden spark of beauty which gentleness could release.

¹² All this beauty will rise to bless your sight as you look upon the world with forgiving eyes. For forgiveness literally transforms vision and lets you see the real world reaching quietly and gently across chaos and removing all illusions which had twisted your perception and fixed it on the past. The smallest leaf becomes a thing of wonder and a blade of grass a sign of God's perfection. From the forgiven world, the SonDaughter of God is lifted easily into hiser home. And there heshe knows that heshe has always rested there in peace. Even salvation will become a dream and vanish from hiser mind. For salvation is the end of dreams and with the closing of the dream will have no meaning. Who awake in the God Realm could dream that there could ever be need of salvation?

¹³ How much do you want salvation? It will give you the real world, trembling with readiness to be given you. The eagerness of the Holy Spirit to give you this is so intense She would not wait, although She waits in patience. Meet Her patience with your impatience at delay in meeting Her. Go out in gladness to meet with your Redeemer and walk with Hende in trust out of this world and into the real world of beauty and forgiveness.

IV. Shadows of the Past

¹⁴ To forgive is merely to remember only the loving thoughts you gave in the past and those that were given you. All the rest must be forgotten. Forgiveness is a selective remembering, based not on your selection. For the shadow figures you would make immortal are "enemies" of reality. Be willing to forgive the SonDaughter of God for what heshe did not do. The shadow figures are the witnesses you bring with you to demonstrate heshe did what heshe did not. Because you brought them, you will hear them. And you who kept them by your own selection do not understand how they came into your minds and what their purpose is.

¹⁵ They represent the evil that you think was done to you. You bring them with you only that you may return evil for evil, hoping that their witness will enable you to think guiltily of another and not harm yourself. They speak so clearly for the separation that no one not obsessed with keeping separation could hear them. They offer you the "reasons" why you should enter into unholy alliances which support the ego's goals and make your relationships the witness to its power. It is these shadow figures which would make the ego holy in your sight and teach you what you do to keep it safe is really love.

¹⁶ The shadow figures always speak for vengeance, and all relationships into which they enter are totally insane. Without exception, these relationships have as their purpose the exclusion of the truth about the other and of yourself. This is why you see in both what is not there and make of both the slaves of vengeance. And why whatever reminds you of your past grievances, no matter how distorted the associations by which you arrive at the remembrance may be, attracts you and seems to you to go by the name of love. And finally why all such relationships become the attempt at union through the body, for only bodies can be seen as means for vengeance. That bodies are central to all unholy relationships is evident. Your own experience has taught you this. But what you do not realize are all the reasons which go to make the relationship unholy. For unholiness seeks to reinforce itself, as holiness does, by gathering to itself what it perceives as like itself.

¹⁷ In the unholy relationship, it is not the body of the other with which union is attempted but the bodies of those who are not there. Even the body of the other, already a severely limited perception of him or her, is not the central focus as it is or in entirety. What can be used for fantasies of vengeance and what can be most readily associated with those on whom vengeance is really sought are centered on and separated off as being the only parts of value. Every step taken in the making, the maintaining, and the breaking off of the unholy relationship is a move toward further fragmentation and unreality. The shadow figures enter more and more, and the one in whom they seem to be decreases in importance.

¹⁸ Time is indeed unkind to the unholy relationship. For time is cruel in the ego's hands, as it is kind when used for gentleness. The attraction of the unholy relationship begins to fade and to be questioned almost at once. Once it is formed, doubt must enter in because its purpose is impossible. The only such relationships which retain the fantasies that center on them are those which have been dreamed of but have not been made at all. Where no reality has entered, there is nothing to intrude upon the dream of happiness. Yet consider what this means—the more reality that enters into the unholy relationship, the less satisfying it becomes. And the more the fantasies can encompass, the greater the satisfaction seems to be.

¹⁹ The "ideal" of the unholy relationship thus becomes one in which the reality of the other does not enter at all to "spoil" the dream. And the less the other really brings to it, the "better" it becomes. Thus, the attempt at union becomes a way of excluding even the one with whom the union was sought. For it was formed to get him or her out of it and join with fantasies in uninterrupted "bliss." How can the Holy Spirit bring Her interpretation of the body as a means of communication into relationships whose only purpose is separation from reality? What forgiveness is enables Her to do so.

²⁰ If all but loving thoughts has been forgotten, what remains is eternal. And the transformed past is made like the present. No longer does the past conflict with now. This continuity extends the present by increasing its reality and its value in your perception of it. In these loving thoughts is the spark of beauty hidden in the ugliness of the unholy relationship in which the hatred is remembered, yet there to come alive as the relationship is given to Her Who gives it life and beauty. That is why Atonement centers on the past, which is the source of separation, and where it must be undone. For separation must be corrected where it was made. The ego seeks to "resolve" its problems, not at their source, but where they were not made. And thus it seeks to guarantee there will be no solution.

²¹ The Holy Spirit will only to make Her resolutions complete and perfect, and so She seeks and finds the source of problems where it is and there undoes it. And with each step in Her undoing is the separation more and more undone and union brought closer. She is not at all confused by any "reasons" for separation. All She perceives in separation is that it must be undone. Let Her uncover the hidden spark of beauty in your relationships and show it to you. Its loveliness will so attract you that you will be unwilling ever to lose the sight of it again. And you will let it transform the relationship so you can see it more and more. For you will want it more and more and become increasingly unwilling to let it be hidden from you. And you will learn to seek for and establish conditions in which this beauty can be seen.

²² All this you will do gladly if you but let Her hold the spark before you to light your way and make it clear to you. God's SonDaughter is one. Whom God has joined as one, the ego cannot break apart. The spark of holiness must be safe, however hidden it may be, in every relationship. For the CreatorManifestor of the one relationship has left no part of it without HimHerself.

²³ This is the only part of the relationship the Holy Spirit sees because She knows that only this is true. You have made the relationship unreal and therefore unholy by seeing it where it is not and as it is not. Give the past to Her Who can change your mind about it for you. But first be sure you fully realize what you have made the past to represent and why.

²⁴ In brief, the past is now your justification for entering into a continuing, unholy alliance with the ego against the present. For the present is forgiveness. Therefore, the relationships which the unholy alliance dictates are not perceived nor felt as now. Yet the frame of reference to which the present is referred for meaning is an illusion of the past in which those elements which fit the purpose of the unholy alliance are retained and all the rest let go. And what is thus let go is all the truth the past could ever offer to the present as witnesses for its reality, while what is kept but witnesses to the reality of dreams.

²⁵ It is still up to you to choose to be willing to join with truth or illusion. But remember that to choose one is to let the other go. Which one you choose, you will endow with beauty and reality because the choice depends on which you value more. The spark of beauty or the veil of ugliness, the real world or the world of guilt and fear, truth or illusion, freedom or slavery—it is all the same. For you can never choose except between God and the ego. Thought systems are but true or false, and all their attributes come simply from what they are. Only the Thoughts of God are true. And all that follows from them comes from what they are and is as true as is the holy Source from which they came.

²⁶ My holy brothers and sisters, I would enter into all your relationships and step between you and your fantasies. Let my relationship to you be real to you, and let me bring reality to your perception of your brothers and sisters. They were not created and manifested to enable you to hurt yourselves through them. They were created and manifested to create and manifest with you. This is the truth that I would interpose between you and your goal of madness. Be not separate from me, and let not the holy purpose of Atonement be lost to you in dreams of vengeance. Relationships in which such dreams are cherished have excluded me. Let us enter in the Name of God and bring you peace that you may offer peace to me.

V. Perception and the Two Worlds

²⁷ God established HisHer relationship with you to make you happy, and nothing you do which does not share HisHer purpose can be real. The purpose God ascribed to anything is its only function. Because of HisHer reason for creatingmanifesting HisHer relationship with you, the function of relationships became forever "to make happy." And nothing else. To fulfill this function, you relate to your creationsmanifestations as God to HisHers. For nothing God created and manifested is apart from happiness, and nothing God created and manifested but would extend happiness as its CreatorManifestor did. Whatever fulfills this function not cannot be real.

²⁸ In this world it is impossible to create and manifest, yet it is possible to make happy. We have said repeatedly that the Holy Spirit would not deprive you of your special relationships but would transform them. And by that all that is meant is that She will restore to them the function given them by God. The function you have given them is clearly not to make happy. But the holy relationship shares God's purpose, rather than aiming to make a substitute for it. Every special relationship which you have made is a substitute for God's Will and glorifies yours instead of HisHer because of the delusion that they are different.

²⁹ You have made very real relationships even in this world which you do not recognize simply because you have raised their substitutes to such predominance that when truth calls to you, as it does constantly, you answer with a substitute. Every special relationship which you have ever undertaken has as its fundamental purpose the aim of occupying your minds so completely that you will not hear the call of truth. In a sense the special relationship was the ego's answer to the manifested creation of the Holy Spirit, Who was God's answer to the separation. For although the ego did not understand what had been created and manifested, it was aware of threat.

³⁰ The whole defense system which the ego evolved to protect the separation from the Holy Spirit was in response to the gift with which God blessed it and by HisHer blessing enabled it to be healed. This blessing holds within itself the truth about everything. And the truth is that the Holy Spirit is in close relationship with you because in Her is your relationship with God restored to you. The relationship with Her has never been broken because the Holy Spirit has not been separate from anyone since the separation. And through Her have all your holy relationships been carefully preserved to serve God's purpose for you.

³¹ The ego is hyperalert to threat, and the part of your mind into which the ego was accepted is very anxious to preserve its reason as it sees it. It does not realize that it is totally insane. And you must realize just what this means if you would be restored to sanity. The insane protect their thought systems, but they do so insanely. And all their defenses are as insane as what they are supposed to protect. The separation has nothing in it, no part, no "reason," and no attribute that is not insane. And its "protection" is part of it, as insane as the whole. The special relationship, which is its chief defense, must therefore be insane.

³² You have but little difficulty now in realizing that the thought system which the special relationship protects is but a system of delusions. You recognize, at least in general terms, that the ego is insane. Yet the special relationship still seems to you somehow to be "different." Yet we have looked at it far closer than at the many other aspects of the ego's thought system which you have been more willing to let go. While this one remains, you will not let the others go. For this one is not different. Retain this one, and you have retained the whole.

³³ It is essential to realize that all defenses do what they would defend. The underlying basis for their effectiveness is that they offer what they defend. What they defend is placed in them for safekeeping, and as they operate, they bring it to you. Every defense operates by giving gifts, and the gift is always a miniature of the thought system the defense protects, set in a golden frame. The frame is very elaborate, all set with jewels and deeply carved and polished. Its purpose is to be of value in itself and to divert your attention from what it encloses. But the frame without the picture you cannot have. Defenses operate to make you think you can.

³⁴ The special relationship has the most imposing and deceptive frame of all the defenses the ego uses. Its thought system is offered here, surrounded by a frame so heavy and so elaborate that the picture is almost obliterated by its imposing structure. Into the frame are woven all sorts of fanciful and fragmented illusions of love, set with dreams of sacrifice and self-aggrandizement and interlaced with gilded threads of self-destruction. The glitter of blood shines like rubies, and the tears are faceted like diamonds and gleam in the dim light in which the offering is made.

³⁵ Look at the picture. Do not let the frame distract you. This gift is given you for your damnation, and if you take it, you will believe that you are damned. You cannot have the frame without the picture. What you value is the frame, for there you see no conflict. Yet the frame is only the wrapping for the gift of conflict. The frame is not the gift. Be not deceived by the most superficial aspects of this thought system, for these aspects enclose the whole, complete in every aspect. Death lies in this glittering gift. Let not your gaze dwell on the hypnotic gleaming of the frame. Look at the picture, and realize that death is offered you.

³⁶ That is why the holy instant is so important in the defense of truth. The truth itself needs no defense, but you do need defense against your own acceptance of the gift of death. When you who are truth accept an idea so dangerous to truth, you threaten truth with destruction. And your defense must now be undertaken to keep truth whole. The power of the God Realm, the love of God, the tears of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, and the joy of Her eternal Spirit are marshaled to defend you from your own attack. For you attack Them, being part of Them, and They must save you, for They love Themselves.

³⁷ The holy instant is a miniature of the God Realm, sent you from the God Realm . It is a picture, too, set in a frame. Yet if you accept this gift, you will not see the frame at all because the gift can only be accepted through your willingness to focus all your attention on the picture. The holy instant is a miniature of eternity. It is a picture of timelessness, set in a frame of time. If you focus on the picture, you will realize that it was only the frame that made you think it was a picture. Without the frame, the picture is seen as what it represents. For as the whole thought system of the ego lies in its gifts, so the whole of the God Realm lies in this instant, borrowed from eternity and set in time for you.

³⁸ Two gifts are offered you. Each is complete and cannot be partially accepted. Each is a picture of all that you can have, seen very differently. You cannot compare their value by comparing a picture to a frame. It must be the pictures only that you compare, or the comparison is wholly without meaning. Remember that it is the picture that is the gift. And only on this basis are you really free to choose. Look at the pictures. Both of them. One is a tiny picture, hard to see at all beneath the heavy shadows of its enormous and disproportionate enclosure. The other is lightly framed and hung in light, lovely to look upon for what it is.

³⁹ You who have tried so hard and are still trying to fit the better picture into the wrong frame and so combine what cannot be combined, accept this and be glad: these pictures are each framed perfectly for what they represent. One is framed to be out of focus and not seen. The other is framed for perfect clarity. The picture of darkness and of death grows less convincing as you search it out amid its wrappings. As each senseless stone which seems to shine in darkness from the frame is exposed to light, it becomes dull and lifeless and ceases to distract you from the picture. And finally you look upon the picture itself, seeing at last that, unprotected by the frame, it has no meaning.

⁴⁰ The other picture is lightly framed, for time cannot contain eternity. There is no distraction here. The picture of the God Realm and eternity grows more convincing as you look at it. And now by real comparison a transformation of both pictures can at last occur. And each is given its rightful place, when both are seen in relation to each other. The dark picture brought to light is not perceived as fearful, but the fact that it is just a picture is brought home at last. And what you see there, you will recognize as what it is—a picture of what you thought was real and nothing more. For beyond this picture, you will see nothing.

⁴¹ The picture of light, in clear cut and unmistakable contrast, is transformed into what lies beyond the picture. As you look on this, you realize that it is not a picture but a reality. This is no figured representation of a thought system, but the Thought Itself. What it represents is there. The frame fades gently, and God rises to your remembrance, offering you the whole of manifested creation in exchange for your little picture, wholly without value and entirely deprived of meaning.

⁴² As God ascends into HisHer rightful place and you to yours, you will experience again the meaning of relationship and know it to be true. Let us ascend in peace together to the FatherMother by giving HimHer ascendance in our minds. We will gain everything by giving HimHer the power and the glory and keeping no illusions of where they are. They are in us through HisHer ascendance. What HeShe has given is HisHers. It shines in every part of HimHer as in the whole. The whole reality of your relationship with HimHer lies in our relationship to one another. The holy instant shines alike on all relationships, for in it they are one. For here is only healing, already complete and perfect. For here is God, and where HeShe is, only the perfect and complete can be.

VI. The Healed Relationship

⁴³ The holy relationship is the expression of the holy instant in living in this world. Like everything about salvation, the holy instant is a practical device, witnessed to by its results. The holy instant never fails. The experience of it is always felt. Yet without expression, it is not remembered. The holy relationship is a constant reminder of the experience in which the relationship became what it is. And as the unholy relationship is a continuing hymn of hate in praise The holy relationship is the expression of the holy instant in living in this world, so is the holy relationship a happy song of praise to the Redeemer of relationships.

⁴⁴ The holy relationship, a major step toward the perception of the real world, is learned. It is the old unholy relationship transformed and seen anew. The holy relationship is a phenomenal teaching accomplishment. In all its aspects, as it begins, develops, and becomes accomplished, it represents the reversal of the unholy relationship. Be comforted in this—the only difficult phase is the beginning. For here, the goal of the relationship is abruptly shifted to the exact opposite of what it was. This is the first result of offering the relationship to the Holy Spirit to use for Her purposes.

⁴⁵ This invitation is accepted immediately, and the Holy Spirit wastes no time in introducing the practical results of asking Her to enter. At once Her goal replaces yours. This is accomplished very rapidly, but it makes the relationship seem disturbed, disjunctive, and even quite distressing. The reason is quite clear. For the relationship as it is is out of line with its own goal, and clearly unsuited to the purpose which has been accepted for it. In its unholy condition, your goal was all that seemed to give it meaning. Now it seems to make no sense. Many relationships have been broken off at this point, and the pursuit of the old goal reestablished in another relationship. For once the unholy relationship has accepted the goal of holiness, it can never again be what it was.

⁴⁶ The temptation of the ego becomes extremely intense with this shift in goals. For the relationship has not as yet been changed sufficiently to make its former goal completely without attraction, and its structure is "threatened" by the recognition of its inappropriateness for meeting its new purpose. The conflict between the goal and the structure of the relationship is so apparent that they cannot coexist. Yet now the goal will not be changed. Set firmly in the unholy relationship, there is no course except to change the relationship to fit the goal. Until this happy solution is seen and accepted as the only way out of the conflict, the relationship seems to be severely strained.

⁴⁷ It would not be kinder to shift the goal more slowly, for the contrast would be obscured and the ego given time to reinterpret each slow step according to its liking. Only a radical shift in purpose could induce a complete change of mind about what the whole relationship is for. As this change develops and is finally accomplished, it grows increasingly beneficent and joyous. But at the beginning, the situation is experienced as very precarious. A relationship undertaken by two individuals for their unholy purposes suddenly has holiness for its goal. As these two contemplate their relationship from the point of view of this new purpose, they are inevitably appalled. Their perception of the relationship may even become quite disorganized. And yet, the former organization of their perception no longer serves the purpose they have agreed to meet.

⁴⁸ This is the time for faith. You let this goal be set for you. That was an act of faith. Do not abandon faith, now that the rewards of faith are being introduced. If you believed the Holy Spirit was there to accept the relationship, why would you now not still believe that She is there to purify what She has taken under Her guidance? Have faith in each other in what but seems to be a trying time. The goal is set. And your relationship has sanity as its purpose. For now you find yourselves in an insane relationship, recognized as such in the light of its goal.

⁴⁹ Now the ego counsels thus—substitute for this another relationship to which your former goal was quite appropriate. You can escape from your distress only by getting rid of each other. You need not part entirely if you choose not to do so. But you must exclude major areas of fantasy from each other to save your sanity. Hear not this now! Have faith in Her Who answered you. She heard. Has She not been very explicit in Her answer? You are not now wholly insane. Can you deny that She has given you a most explicit statement? Now She asks for faith a little longer, even in bewilderment. For this will go, and you will see the justification for your faith emerge to bring you shining conviction. Abandon Her not now, nor each other. This relationship has been reborn as holy.

⁵⁰ Accept with gladness what you do not understand, and let it be explained to you as you perceive its purpose work in it to make it holy. You will find the many opportunities to blame each other for the "failure" of your relationship, for it will seem at times to have no purpose. A sense of aimlessness will come to haunt you and to remind you of all the ways you once sought for satisfaction and thought you found it. Forget not now the misery you really found, and do not now breathe life into your failing egos. For your relationship has not been disrupted. It has been saved.

⁵¹ You are very new in the ways of salvation and think you have lost your way. Your way is lost, but think not this is loss. In your newness, remember that you have started again together. And take each other's hand to walk together along a road far more familiar than you now believe. Is it not certain that you will remember a goal unchanged throughout eternity? For you have chosen but the goal of God from which your true intent was never absent.

⁵² Throughout the SonDaughtership is the song of freedom heard in joyous echo of your choice. You have joined with the many in the holy instant, and they have joined with you. Think not your choice will leave you comfortless, for God HimHerself has blessed your holy relationship. Join in HisHer blessing, and withhold not yours upon it. For all it needs now is your blessing that you may see that in it rests salvation. Condemn salvation not, for it has come to you. And welcome it together, for it has come to join you together in a relationship in which all the SonDaughtership is together blessed.

⁵³ You undertook together to invite the Holy Spirit into your relationship. She could not have entered otherwise. Although you may have made the many mistakes since then, you have also made enormous efforts to help Her do Her work. And She has not been lacking in appreciation for all you have done for Her. Nor does She see the mistakes at all. Have you been similarly grateful to each other? Have you consistently appreciated the good efforts and overlooked mistakes? Or has your appreciation flickered and grown dim in what seemed to be the light of the mistakes? You are now entering upon a campaign to blame each other for the discomfort of the situation in which you find yourselves. And by this lack of thanks and gratitude, you make yourselves unable to express the holy instant, and thus you lose sight of it.

⁵⁴ The experience of an instant, however compelling it may be, is easily forgotten if you allow time to close over it. It must be kept shining and gracious in your awareness of time but not concealed within it. The instant remains. But where are you? To give thanks to each other is to appreciate the holy instant and thus enable its results to be accepted and shared. To attack each other is not to lose the instant but to make it powerless in its effects. You have received the holy instant, but you have established a condition in which you cannot use it. As a result, you do not realize that it is with you still. And by cutting yourself off from its expression, you have denied yourself its benefit. You reinforce this every time you attack each other, for the attack must blind you to yourself. And it is impossible to deny yourself and recognize what has been given and received by you.

⁵⁵ You stand together in the holy presence of truth itself. Here is the goal, together with you. Think you not the goal itself will gladly arrange the means for its accomplishment? It is just this same discrepancy between the purpose that has been accepted and the means as they stand now which seems to make you suffer, but which makes the God Realm glad. If the God Realm were outside you, you could not share in its gladness. Yet because it is within, the gladness, too, is yours. You are joined in purpose, but remain still separate and divided on the means.

⁵⁶ Yet the goal is fixed, firm, and unalterable, and the means will surely fall in place because the goal is sure. And you will share the gladness of the SonDaughtership that it is so. As you begin to recognize and accept the gifts you have so freely given to each other, you will also accept the effects of the holy instant and use them to correct all your mistakes and free you from their results. And learning this, you will have also learned how to release all the SonDaughtership and offer it in gladness and thanksgiving to Her Who gave you your release, and Who would extend it through you.

VII. Practical Forgiveness

⁵⁷ The practical application of the Holy Spirit's purpose is extremely simple, but it is unequivocal. In fact in order to be simple, it must be unequivocal. The simple is merely what is easily understood, and for this it is apparent that it must be clear. The setting of the Holy Spirit's goal is general. Now She will work with you to make it specific [for application is specific]. There are certain very specific guidelines She provides for any situation, but remember that you do not yet realize their universal application. Therefore it is essential at this point to use them in each situation separately, until you can more safely look beyond each situation in an understanding far broader than you now possess.

⁵⁸ In any situation in which you are uncertain, the first thing to consider, very simply, is, "What do I want to come of this? What is it for?" The clarification of the goal belongs at the beginning, for it is this which will determine the outcome. In the ego's procedure, this is reversed. The situation becomes the determiner of the outcome, which can be anything. The reason for this disorganized approach is evident. The ego does not know what it wants to come of it. It is aware of what it does not want, but only that. It has no positive goal at all.

⁵⁹ Without a clear cut positive goal, set at the outset, the situation just seems to happen and makes no sense until it has already happened. Then you look back at it and try to piece together what it must have meant. And you will be wrong. Not only is your judgment in the past, but you have no idea what should happen. No goal was set with which to bring the means in line. And now the only judgment left to make is whether or not the ego likes it—is it acceptable, or does it call for vengeance? The absence of a criterion for outcome set in advance makes understanding doubtful and evaluation impossible.

⁶⁰ The value of deciding in advance what you want to happen is simply that you will perceive the situation as a means to make it happen. You will therefore make every effort to overlook what interferes with the accomplishment of your objective and concentrate on everything which helps you meet it. It is quite noticeable that this approach has brought you closer to the Holy Spirit's sorting out of truth and falsity. The true becomes what can be used to meet the goal. The false becomes the useless from this point of view. The situation now has meaning, but only because the goal has made it meaningful.

⁶¹ The goal of truth has further practical advantages. If the situation is used for truth and sanity, its outcome must be peace. And this is quite apart from what the outcome is. If peace is the condition of truth and sanity and cannot be without them, where peace is they must be. Truth comes of itself. If you experience peace, it is because the truth has come to you, and you will see the outcome truly, for deception cannot prevail against you. And you will recognize the outcome because you are at peace. Here again, you see the opposite of the ego's way of looking, for the ego believes the situation brings the experience. The Holy Spirit knows that the situation is as the goal determines it and is experienced according to the goal.

⁶² The goal of truth requires faith. Faith is implicit in the acceptance of the Holy Spirit's purpose, and this faith is all-inclusive. Where the goal of truth is set, there faith must be. The Holy Spirit sees the situation as a whole. The goal establishes the fact that everyone involved in it will play his or her part in its accomplishment. This is inevitable. No one will fail in anything. This seems to ask for faith beyond you and beyond what you can give. Yet this is so only from the viewpoint of the ego, for the ego believes in "solving" conflict through fragmentation and does not perceive the situation as a whole. Therefore, it seeks to split off segments of the situation and deal with them separately, for it has faith in separation and not in wholeness.

⁶³ Confronted with any aspect of the situation which seems to be difficult, the ego will attempt to take this aspect elsewhere and resolve it there. And it will seem to be successful, except that this attempt conflicts with unity and must obscure the goal of truth. And peace will not be experienced except in fantasy. Truth has not come because faith has been denied, being withheld from where it rightfully belonged. Thus do you lose the understanding of the situation the goal of truth would bring. For fantasy solutions bring but the illusion of experience, and the illusion of peace is not the condition in which the truth can enter.

⁶⁴ The substitutes for aspects of the situation are the witnesses to your lack of faith. They demonstrate that you did not believe that the situation and the problem were in the same place. The problem was the lack of faith, and it is this you demonstrate when you remove it from its source and place it elsewhere. As a result, you do not see the problem. Had you not lacked the faith it could be solved, the problem would be gone. And the situation would have been meaningful to you because the interference in the way of understanding would have been removed. To remove the problem elsewhere is to keep it. For you remove yourself from it and make it unsolvable.

VIII. The Need for Faith

⁶⁵ There is no problem in any situation that faith will not solve. There is no shift in any aspect of the problem but will make solution impossible. For if you shift part of the problem elsewhere, the meaning of the problem must be lost, and the solution to the problem is inherent in its meaning. Is it not possible that all your problems have been solved, but you have removed yourself from the solution? Yet faith must be where something has been done and where you see it done. A situation is a relationship, being the joining of thoughts. If problems are perceived, it is because the thoughts are judged to be in conflict. But if the goal is truth, this is impossible. Some idea of bodies must have entered, for minds cannot attack.

⁶⁶ The thought of bodies is the sign of faithlessness, for bodies cannot solve anything. And it is their intrusion on the relationship, an error in your thoughts about the situation, which then becomes the justification for your lack of faith. You will make this error, but be not at all concerned with that. The error does not matter. Faithlessness brought to faith will never interfere with truth. But faithlessness used against truth will always destroy faith. If you lack faith, ask that it be restored where it was lost and seek not to have it made up to you elsewhere as if you had been unjustly deprived of it.

⁶⁷ Only what you have not given can be lacking in any situation. But remember this: the goal of holiness was set for your relationship and not by you. You did not set it because holiness cannot be seen except through faith, and your relationship was not holy because your faith in one another was so limited and little. Your faith must grow to meet the goal that has been set. The goal's reality will call this forth, for you will see that peace and faith will not come separately. What situation can you be in without faith and remain faithful to each other?

⁶⁸ Every situation in which you find yourself is but a means to meet the purpose set for your relationship. See it as something else, and you are faithless. Use not your faithlessness. Let it enter and look upon it calmly, but do not use it. Faithlessness is the servant of illusion and wholly faithful to its master. Use it and it will carry you straight to illusions. Be tempted not by what it offers you. It interferes not with the goal, but with the value of the goal to you. Accept not the illusion of peace it offers, but look upon its offering and recognize it is illusion.

⁶⁹ The goal of illusion is as closely tied to faithlessness as faith to truth. If you lack faith in anyone to fulfill, and perfectly, his or her part in any situation dedicated in advance to truth, your dedication is divided. And so you have been faithless to each other and used your faithlessness against each other. No relationship is holy unless its holiness goes with it everywhere. As holiness and faith go hand in hand, so must its faith go everywhere with it. The goal's reality will call forth and accomplish every miracle needed for its fulfillment. Nothing too small or too enormous, too weak or too compelling, but will be gently turned to its use and purpose. The universe will serve it gladly, as it serves the universe. But do not interfere.

⁷⁰ The power set in you in whom the Holy Spirit's goal has been established is so far beyond your little conception of the infinite that you have no idea how great the strength that goes with you. And you can use this in perfect safety. Yet for all its might, so great it reaches past the stars and to the universe that lies beyond them, your little faithlessness can make it useless if you would use the faithlessness instead.

⁷¹ Yet think on this, and learn the cause of faithlessness: You think you hold against the other what he or she has done to you. But what you really blame him or her for is what you did to him or her. It is not his or her past but yours you hold against him or her. And you lack faith in him or her because of what you were. Yet you are as innocent of what you were as he or she is. What never was is causeless and is not there to interfere with truth. There is no cause for faithlessness, but there is a Cause for faith. That Cause has entered any situation which shares Its purpose. The light of truth shines from the center of the situation and touches everyone to whom the situation's purpose calls. It calls to everyone. There is no situation which does not involve your whole relationship in every aspect and complete in every part. You can leave nothing of yourself outside it and keep the situation holy. For it shares the purpose of your whole relationship and derives its meaning from it.

⁷² Enter each situation with the faith that you give to each other, or you are faithless to your own relationship. Your faith will call the others to share your purpose, as this same purpose called forth the faith in you. And you will see the means you once employed to lead you to illusions transformed to means for truth. [Truth calls for faith, and faith makes room for truth.] When the Holy Spirit changed the purpose of your relationship by exchanging yours for Hers, the goal She placed there was extended to every situation in which you enter or will ever enter. And every situation was thus made free of the past, which would have made it purposeless.

⁷³ You call for faith because of HimHer Who walks with you in every situation. You are no longer wholly insane, nor no longer alone. For loneliness in God must be a dream. You whose relationship shares the Holy Spirit's goal are set apart from loneliness because the truth has come. Its call for faith is strong. Use not your faithlessness against it, for it calls you to salvation and to peace.

IX. The Conditions of Forgiveness

⁷⁴ The holy instant is nothing more than a special case or an extreme example of what every situation is meant to be. The meaning which the Holy Spirit's purpose has given it is also given to every situation. It calls forth just the same suspension of faithlessness, withheld and left unused, that faith might answer to the call of truth. The holy instant is the shining example, the clear and unequivocal demonstration of the meaning of every relationship and every situation, seen as a whole. Faith has accepted every aspect of the situation, and faithlessness has not forced any exclusion on it. It is a situation of perfect peace simply because you have let it be what it is.

⁷⁵ This simple courtesy is all the Holy Spirit asks of you. Let truth be what it is. Do not intrude upon it, do not attack it, do not interrupt its coming. Let it encompass every situation and bring you peace. Not even faith is asked of you, for truth asks nothing. Let it enter, and it will call forth and secure for you the faith you need for peace. But rise you not against it, for against your opposition it cannot come.

⁷⁶ Would you not want to make a holy instant of every situation? For such is the gift of faith, freely given wherever faithlessness is laid aside unused. And then the power of the Holy Spirit's purpose is free to use instead. This power instantly transforms all situations into one sure and continuous means for establishing Her purpose and demonstrating its reality. What has been demonstrated has called for faith and has been given it. Now it becomes a fact from which faith can no longer be withheld. The strain of refusing faith to truth is enormous and far greater than you realize. But to answer truth with faith entails no strain at all.

⁷⁷ To you who have acknowledged the call of your Redeemer, the strain of not responding to Her call seems to be greater than before. This is not so. Before, the strain was there but you attributed it to something else, believing that the "something else" produced it. This was never true. For what the "something else" produced was sorrow and depression, sickness and pain, darkness and dim imaginings of terror, cold fantasies of fear and fiery dreams of hell. And it was nothing but the intolerable strain of refusing to give faith to truth and see its evident reality.

⁷⁸ Such was the crucifixion of the SonDaughter of God. Hisher faithlessness did this to himher. Think carefully before you let yourself use faithlessness against himher. For heshe is risen, and you have accepted the cause of hisher awakening as yours. You have assumed your part in hisher redemption, and you are now fully responsible to himher. Fail himher not now, for it has been given you to realize what your lack of faith in him or her must mean to you. Hisher salvation is your only purpose. See only this in every situation, and it will be a means for bringing only this.

⁷⁹ When you accepted truth as the goal for your relationship, you became givers of peace as surely as your FatherMother gave peace to you. For the goal of peace cannot be accepted apart from its conditions, and you had faith in it, for no one accepts what he or she does not believe is real. Your purpose has not changed and will not change, for you accepted what can never change. And nothing that it needs to be forever changeless can you now withhold from it. Your release is certain. Give as you have received. And demonstrate that you have risen far beyond any situation that could hold you back and keep you separate from HimHer Whose call you answered.

Chapter Eighteen:

The Dream and the reality

I. Introduction

¹ To substitute is to accept instead. If you would but consider exactly what this entails, you would perceive at once how much at variance this is with the goal the Holy Spirit has given you and would accomplish for you. To substitute is to choose between, renouncing one in favor of the other. For this special purpose, one is judged more valuable and the other is replaced by him or her. The relationship in which the substitution occurred is thus fragmented and its purpose split accordingly. To fragment is to exclude, and substitution is the strongest defense the ego has for separation.

² The Holy Spirit never uses substitutes. Where the ego perceives one personal as a replacement for another, the Holy Spirit sees them joined and indivisible. She does not judge between them, knowing they are one. Being united, they are one because they are the same. Substitution is clearly a process in which they are perceived as different. One would unite; the other separate. Nothing can come between what God has joined and what the Holy Spirit sees as one. But everything seems to come between the fragmented relationships the ego sponsors to destroy.

³ The one emotion in which substitution is impossible is love. Fear involves substitution by definition, for it is love's replacement. Fear is both a fragmented and a fragmenting emotion. It seems to take the many forms, and each seems to require a different form of acting out for satisfaction. While this appears to introduce quite variable behavior, a far more serious effect lies in the fragmented perception from which the behavior stems. No one is seen complete. The body is emphasized, with special emphasis on certain parts, and used as the standard for comparison for either acceptance or rejection of suitability for acting out a special form of fear.

II. Substitution as a Defence

⁴ You who believe that God is fear made but one substitution. It has taken the many forms because it was the substitution of illusion for truth, of fragmentation for wholeness. It has become so splintered and subdivided and divided again, over and over, that it is now almost impossible to perceive it once was one and still is what it was. That one error, which brought truth to illusion, infinity to time, and life to death, was all you ever made. Your whole world rests upon it. Everything you see reflects it, and every special relationship which you have ever made is part of it.

⁵ You have expressed surprise at hearing how very different is reality from what you see. You do not realize the magnitude of that one error. It was so vast and so completely incredible that from it a world of total unreality had to emerge. What else could come of it? Its fragmented aspects are fearful enough, as you begin to look at them. But nothing you have seen begins to show you the enormity of the original error, which seemed to cast you out of the God Realm, to shatter knowledge into meaningless bits of disunited perceptions, and to force you to further substitutions.

⁶ That was the first projection of error outward. The world arose to hide it and became the screen on which it was projected and drawn between you and the truth. For truth extends inward, where the idea of loss is meaningless and only increase is conceivable. Do you really think it strange that a world in which everything is backwards and upside-down arose from this? [It was inevitable.] For truth brought to this could only remain within in quiet and take no part in all the mad projection by which this world was made. Call it not sin but madness, for such it was, and so it still remains. Invest it not with guilt, for guilt implies it was accomplished in reality. And above all, be not afraid of it. When you seem to see some twisted form of the original error rise to frighten you, say only, "God is not fear, but love," and it will disappear.

⁷ The truth will save you. It has not left you to go out into the mad world and so depart from you. Inward is sanity; insanity is outside you. You but believe it is the other way; that truth is outside and error and guilt within. Your little senseless substitutions, touched with insanity and swirling lightly off on a mad course like feathers dancing insanely in the wind, have no substance. They fuse and merge and separate in shifting and totally meaningless patterns which need not be judged at all. To judge them individually is pointless. Their tiny differences in form are no real differences at all. None of them matters. That they have in common and nothing else. Yet what else is necessary to make them all the same?

⁸ Let them all go, dancing in the wind, dipping and turning till they disappear from sight, far, far outside you. And turn you to the stately calm within, where in holy stillness dwells the living God you never left and Who never left you. The Holy Spirit takes you gently by the hand and retraces with you your mad journey outside yourself, leading you gently back to the truth and safety within. She brings all your insane projections and your wild substitutions which you have placed outside you to the truth. Thus She reverses the course of insanity and restores you to reason.

⁹ In your relationship, where She has taken charge of everything at your request, She has set the course inward to the truth you share. In the mad world outside you, nothing can be shared but only substituted, and sharing and substituting have nothing in common in reality. Within yourselves you love each other with a perfect love. Here is holy ground in which no substitution can enter and where only the truth about each other can abide. Here you are joined in God, as much together as you are with HimHer. The original error has not entered here, nor ever will. Here is the radiant truth to which the Holy Spirit has committed your relationship. Let Her bring it here, where you would have it be. Give Her but a little faith in each other, to help Her show you that no substitute you made for the God Realm can keep you from it. In you there is no separation, and no substitute can keep you from each other. Your reality was God's manifested creation and has no substitute.

¹⁰ You are so firmly joined in truth that only God is there. And HeShe would never accept something else instead of you. HeShe loves you both, equally and as one. And as HeShe loves you, so you are. You are not joined together in illusions but in the Thought so holy and so perfect that illusions cannot remain to darken the holy place in which you stand together. God is with you, mine brothers and sisters. Let us join in HimHer in peace and gratitude and accept HisHer gift as our most holy and perfect reality, which we share in HimHer.

¹¹ The God Realm is restored to all the SonDaughtership through your relationship, for in it lies the SonDaughtership, whole and beautiful, safe in your love. The God Realm has entered quietly, for all illusions have been gently brought unto the truth in you and love has shined upon you, blessing your relationship with truth. God and HisHer whole manifested creation have entered it together. How lovely and how holy is your relationship, with the truth shining upon it! the God Realm beholds it and rejoices that you have let it come to you. [And God HimHerself is glad that your relationship is as it was created and manifested.] The universe within you stands with you, together. And the God Realm looks with love on what is joined in it, along with its CreatorManifestor.

¹² Whom God has called should hear no substitutes. Their call is but an echo of the original error which shattered the God Realm . And what became of peace in those who heard? Return with me to the God Realm, walking together out of this world and through another to the loveliness and joy the other holds within it. Would you still further weaken and break apart what is already broken and hopeless? Is it here that you would look for happiness? Or would you not prefer to heal what has been broken and join in making whole what has been ravaged by separation and disease?

¹³ You have been called together to the most holy function that this world contains. It is the only one which has no limits and reaches out to every broken fragment of the SonDaughtership with healing and uniting comfort. This is offered you in your holy relationship. Accept it here, and you will give as you have accepted. The peace of God is given you with the glowing purpose in which you join. The holy light that brought you together must extend, as you accepted it.

III. The Basis of the Dream

¹⁴ Does not a world that seems quite real arise in dreams? Yet think what this world is. It is clearly not the world you saw before you slept. Rather, it is a distortion of the world, planned solely around what you would have preferred. Here, you are "free" to make over whatever seemed to attack you and change it into a tribute to your ego, which was outraged by the "attack." This would not be your wish unless you saw yourself as one with the ego, which always looks upon itself and therefore on you as under attack and highly vulnerable to it.

¹⁵ Dreams are chaotic because they are governed by your conflicting wishes, and therefore they have no concern with what is true. They are the best example you could have of how perception can be utilized to substitute illusions for truth. You do not take them seriously on awaking because the fact that reality is so outrageously violated in them becomes apparent. Yet they are a way of looking at the world and changing it to suit the ego better. They provide striking examples both of the ego's inability to tolerate reality and your willingness to change reality on its behalf.

¹⁶ You do not find the differences between what you see in sleep and on awaking disturbing. You recognize that what you see on waking is blotted out in dreams. Yet on awakening, you do not expect it to be gone. In dreams you arrange everything. People become what you would have them be, and what they do you order. No limit on substitution is laid upon you. For a time, it seems as if the world were given you, to make it what you will. You do not realize that you are attacking it, trying to triumph over it and make it serve you.

¹⁷ Dreams are perceptual temper tantrums in which you literally scream, "I want it thus!" And thus it seems to be. And yet the dream cannot escape its origin. Anger and fear pervade it, and in an instant, the illusion of satisfaction is invaded by the illusion of terror. For the dream of your ability to control reality by substituting a world which you prefer is terrifying. Your attempts to blot out reality are very fearful, but this you are not willing to accept. And so you substitute the fantasy that reality is fearful, not what you would do to it. And thus is guilt made real.

¹⁸ Dreams show you that you have the power to make a world as you would have it be, and that because you want it, you see it. And while you see it, you do not doubt that it is real. Yet here is a world, clearly within your mind, that seems to be outside. You do not respond to it as though you made it, nor do you realize that the emotions which the dream produces must come from you. It is the figures in the dream and what they do that seem to make the dream. You do not realize that you are making them act out for you, for if you did, the guilt would not be theirs, and the illusion of satisfaction would be gone. In dreams these features are not obscure. You seem to waken, and the dream is gone. Yet what you fail to recognize is that what caused the dream has not gone with it.

¹⁹ Your wish to make another world that is not real remains with you. And what you seem to wake to is but another form of this same world you see in dreams. All your time is spent in dreaming. Your sleeping and your waking dreams have different forms, and that is all. Their content is the same. They are your protest against reality and your fixed and insane idea that you can change it. In your waking dreams, the special relationship [has a special place. It is the means by which you try to make your sleeping dreams come true. From this you do not awaken. The special relationship] is your determination to keep your hold on unreality and to prevent yourself from waking. And while you see more value in sleeping than in waking, you will not let go of it.

²⁰ The Holy Spirit, ever practical in Her wisdom, accepts your dreams and uses them as means for waking. You would have used them to remain asleep. We once said that the first change, before dreams disappear, is that your dreams of fear are changed to happy dreams. That is what the Holy Spirit does in your special relationship. She does not destroy it nor snatch it away from you. [But She does use it differently, as a help to make Her purpose real to you.] Your special relationship will remain, not as a source of pain and guilt, but as a source of joy and freedom. It will not be for you alone, for therein lay its misery. As its unholiness kept it a thing apart, its holiness will become an offering to everyone.

²¹ Your special relationship will be a means for undoing guilt in everyone blessed through your holy relationship. It will be a happy dream, and one which you will share with all who come within your sight. Through it, the blessing which the Holy Spirit has laid upon it will be extended. Think not that She has forgotten anyone in the purpose She has given you. And think not that She has forgotten you to whom She gave the gift. She uses everyone who calls on Her as means for the salvation of everyone. And She will waken everyone through you who offered your relationship to Her. If you but recognized Her gratitude! Or mine through Hers! For we are joined as in one purpose, being of One Mind with Her.

²² Let not the dream take hold to close your eyes. It is not strange that dreams can make a world that is unreal. The wish to make it is incredible. Your relationship has become one in which the wish has been removed because its purpose has been changed from one of dreams to one of truth. You are not sure of this because you think it may be this that is the dream. You are so used to choosing between dreams you do not see that you have made, at last, the choice between the truth and all illusions.

²³ Yet the God Realm is sure. This is no dream. Its coming means that you have chosen truth, and it has come because you have been willing to let your special relationship meet its conditions. In your relationship, the Holy Spirit has gently laid the real world—the world of happy dreams from which awaking is so easy and so natural. For as your sleeping and your waking dreams represent the same wishes in your mind, so do the real world and the truth of the God Realm join in the Will of God. The dream of waking is easily transferred to its reality. For this dream comes from your will joined with the Will of God. And what this Will would have accomplished has never not been done.

IV. Light in the Dream

²⁴ You who have spent your lives in bringing truth to illusion, reality to fantasy, have walked the way of dreams. For you have gone from waking to sleeping and on and on to a yet deeper sleep. Each dream has led to other dreams, and every fantasy which seemed to bring a light into the darkness but made the darkness deeper. Your goal was darkness in which no ray of light could enter. And you sought a blackness so complete that you could hide from truth forever in complete insanity. What you forgot was simply that God cannot destroy HimHerself. The light is in you. Darkness can cover it but cannot put it out.

²⁵ As the light comes nearer, you will rush to darkness, shrinking from the truth, sometimes retreating to the lesser forms of fear and sometimes to stark terror. But you will advance because your goal is the advance from fear to truth. You know this. The goal which you accepted is the goal of knowledge, for which you signified your willingness. Fear seems to live in darkness, and when you are afraid, you have stepped back. Let us then join quickly in an instant of light, and it will be enough to remind you that your goal is light. Truth has rushed to meet you since you called upon it.

²⁶ If you knew Who walks beside you on this way which you have chosen, fear would be impossible. You do not know because the journey into darkness has been long and cruel, and you have gone deep into it. A little flicker of your eyelids, closed so long, has not yet been sufficient to give you confidence in yourselves, so long despised. You go toward love, still hating it and terribly afraid of its judgment upon you. And you do not realize that you are not afraid of love, but only of what you have made of it. You are advancing to love's meaning and away from all illusions in which you have surrounded it. When you retreat to the illusion, your fear increases, for there is little doubt that what you think it means is fearful. Yet what is that to us who travel surely and very swiftly away from fear?

²⁷ You who hold each other's hand also hold mine, for when you joined each other you were not alone. Do you believe that I would leave you in the darkness you agreed to leave with me? In your relationship is this world's light. And fear must disappear before you now. Be tempted not to snatch away the gift of faith you offered to each other. You will succeed only in frightening yourselves. The gift is given forever, for God HimHerself received it. You cannot take it back. You have accepted God. The holiness of your relationship is established in the God Realm . You do not understand what you accepted, but remember that your understanding is not necessary. All that was necessary was merely the wish to understand. That wish was the desire to be holy. The will of God is granted you. For you desire the only thing you ever had or ever were.

²⁸ Each instant that we spend together will teach you that this goal is possible and will strengthen your desire to reach it. And in your desire lies its accomplishment. Your desire is now in complete accord with all the power of the Holy Spirit's Will. No little, faltering footsteps that you may take can separate your desire from Her Will and from Her strength. I hold your hand as surely as you agreed to take each other's. You will not separate, for I stand with you and walk with you in your advance to truth. And where we go, we carry God with us.

²⁹ In your relationship, you have joined with me in bringing the God Realm to the SonDaughter of God, who hid in darkness. You have been willing to bring the darkness to light, and this willingness has given strength to everyone who would remain in darkness. Those who would see will see. And they will join with me in carrying their light into the darkness when the darkness in them is offered to the light and is removed forever. My need for you, joined with me in the holy light of your relationship, is your need for salvation. Would I not give you what you gave to me? For when you joined each other, you answered me.

³⁰ You who are now the bringers of salvation have the function of bringing light to darkness. The darkness in you has been brought to light. Carry it back to darkness from the holy instant to which you brought it. We are made whole in our desire to make whole. Let not time worry you, for all the fear that you experience is really past. Time has been readjusted to help us do together what your separate pasts would hinder. You have gone past fear, for no two minds can join in the desire for love without love's joining them.

³¹ Not one light in the God Realm but goes with you. Not one ray that shines forever in the Mind of God but shines on you. The God Realm is joined with you in your advance to the God Realm . When such great light has joined with you to give the little spark of your desire the power of God HimHerself, can you remain in darkness? You are coming home together after a long and meaningless journey which you undertook apart and which led nowhere. You have found each other and will light each other's way. And from this light will the Great Rays extend back into darkness and forward unto God to shine away the past and so make room for HisHer eternal Presence, in which everything is radiant in the light.

V. The Little Willingness

³² The holy instant is the result of your determination to be holy. It is the answer. The desire and the willingness to let it come precedes its coming. You prepare your minds for it only to the extent of recognizing that you want it above all else. It is not necessary that you do more; indeed, it is necessary that you realize that you cannot do more. Do not attempt to give the Holy Spirit what She does not ask, or you will add the ego unto Her and confuse the two. She asks but little. It is She who adds the greatness and the might. She joins with you to make the holy instant far greater than you can understand. It is your realization that you need do so little that enables Her to give so much.

³³ Trust not your good intentions. They are not enough. But trust implicitly your willingness, whatever else may enter. Concentrate only on this and be not disturbed that shadows surround it. That is why you came. If you could come without them, you would not need the holy instant. Come to it not in arrogance, assuming that you must achieve the state its coming brings with it. The miracle of the holy instant lies in your willingness to let it be what it is. And in your willingness for this lies also your acceptance of yourself as you were meant to be.

³⁴ Humility will never ask that you remain content with littleness. But it does require that you be not content with less than greatness, which comes not of you. Your difficulty with the holy instant arises from your fixed conviction that you are not worthy of it. And what is this but the determination to be as you would make yourself? God did not create and manifest HisHer dwelling-place unworthy of HimHer. And if you believe HeShe cannot enter where HeShe wills to be, you must be interfering with HisHer Will. You do not need the strength of willingness to come from you, but only from HisHer Will.

³⁵ The holy instant does not come from your little willingness alone. It is always the result of your small willingness combined with the unlimited power of God's Will. You have been wrong in thinking that it is needful to prepare yourself for HimHer. It is impossible to make arrogant preparations for holiness and not believe that it is up to you to establish the conditions for peace. God has established them. They do not wait upon your willingness for what they are. Your willingness is needed only to make it possible to teach you what they are. If you maintain you are unworthy of learning this, you are interfering with the lesson by believing that you make the learner different. You did not make the learner, nor can you make him or her different. Would you first make a miracle yourself and then expect one to be made for you?

³⁶ You merely ask the question. The answer is given. Seek not to answer it, but merely receive the answer as it is given. In preparing for the holy instant, do not attempt to make yourself holy to be ready to receive it. That is but to confuse your role with God's. Atonement cannot come to those who think that they must first atone, but only to those who offer it nothing more than simple willingness to make way for it. Purification is of God alone and therefore for you. Rather than seek to prepare yourself for HimHer, try to think thus:

³⁷ *I who am host to God am worthy of HimHer.
 HeShe Who established HisHer dwelling-place in me created and manifested it as He would have it be.
 It is not needful that I make it ready for HimHer,
 But only that I do not interfere with HisHer plan to restore to me my own awareness of my readiness, which is eternal.
 I need add nothing to HisHer plan.
 But to receive it, I must be willing not to substitute my own in place of it.*

³⁸ And that is all. Add more and you will merely take away the little that is asked. Remember you made guilt and that your plan for the escape from guilt has been to bring Atonement to it and make salvation fearful. And it is only fear that you will add if you prepare yourself for love. The preparation for the holy instant belongs to Her Who gives it. Release yourselves to Her Whose function is release. Do not assume Her function for Her. Give Her but what She asks, that you may learn how little is your part and how great is Hers.

³⁹ It is this that makes the holy instant so easy and so natural. You make it difficult because you insist there must be more that you need do.

[You find it difficult to accept the idea that you need give so little to receive so much.] And it is very hard for you to realize that it is not personally insulting that your contribution and the Holy Spirit's are so extremely disproportionate. You are still convinced your understanding is a powerful contribution to the truth and makes it what it is. Yet we have emphasized that you need understand nothing. Salvation is easy just because it asks nothing that you cannot give right now.

⁴⁰ Forget not that it has been your decision to make everything that is natural and easy for you impossible. What you believe to be impossible will be if God so wills it, but you will remain quite unaware of it. If you believe the holy instant is difficult for you, it is because you have become the arbiter of what is possible and remain unwilling to give place to One Who knows. The whole belief in orders of difficulty in miracles is centered on this. Everything God wills is not only possible but has already happened. And that is why the past has gone. It never happened in reality. Only in your minds, which thought it did, is its undoing needful.

VI. The Happy Dream

⁴¹ Prepare you not for the undoing of what never was. If you already understood the difference between truth and illusion, the Atonement would have no meaning. The holy instant, your holy relationship, the Holy Spirit's teaching, and all the means by which salvation is accomplished would have no purpose. For they are all but aspects of the plan to change your dreams of fear to happy dreams from which you waken easily to knowledge. Put yourself not in charge of this, for you cannot distinguish between advance and retreat. Some of your greatest advances you have judged as failures, and some of your deepest retreats you have evaluated as success.

⁴² Never approach the holy instant after you have tried to remove all fear and hatred from your mind. That is its function. Never attempt to overlook your guilt before you ask the Holy Spirit's help. That is Her function. Your part is only to offer Her a little willingness to let Her remove all fear and hatred and to be forgiven. On your little faith, joined with Her understanding, She will build your part in the Atonement and make sure that you fulfill it easily. And with Her you will build a ladder planted in the solid rock of faith and rising even to the God Realm. Nor will you use it to ascend to the God Realm alone.

⁴³ Through your holy relationship, reborn and blessed in every holy instant which you do not arrange, thousands will rise to the God Realm with you. Can you plan for this? Or could you prepare yourselves for such a function? Yet it is possible because God wills it. Nor will HeShe change HisHer Mind about it. The means and purpose both belong to HimHer. You have accepted one; the other will be provided. A purpose such as this without the means is inconceivable. HeShe will provide the means to anyone who shares HisHer purpose.

⁴⁴ Happy dreams come true, not because they are dreams, but only because they are happy. And so they must be loving. Their message is, "Thy Will be done," and not, "I want it otherwise." The alignment of means and purpose is an undertaking impossible for you to understand. You do not even realize you have accepted the Holy Spirit's purpose as your own, and you would merely bring unholy means to its accomplishment. The little faith it needed to change the purpose is all that is required to receive the means and use them.

⁴⁵ It is no dream to love your brother or sister as yourself. Nor is your holy relationship a dream. All that remains of dreams within it is that it is still a special relationship. Yet it is very useful to the Holy Spirit, Who has a special function here. It will become the happy dream through which She can spread joy to thousands on thousands who believe that love is fear, not happiness. Let Her fulfill the function that She gave to your relationship by accepting it for you, and nothing will be wanting that would make of it what She would have it be.

⁴⁶ When you feel the holiness of your relationship is threatened by anything, stop instantly and offer the Holy Spirit your willingness in spite of fear to let Her exchange this instant for the holy one which you would rather have. She will never fail in this. But forget not that your relationship is one, and so it must be that whatever threatens the peace of one is an equal threat to the other. The power of joining and its blessing lie in the fact that it is now impossible for either of you to experience fear alone or to attempt to deal with it alone. Never believe that this is necessary or even possible. Yet just as this is impossible, so is it equally impossible that the holy instant come to either of you without the other. And it will come to both at the request of either.

⁴⁷ Whichever is saner at the time when the threat is perceived should remember how deep is his or her indebtedness to the other and how much gratitude is due him or her and be glad that he or she can pay his or her debt by bringing happiness to both. Let him or her remember this, and say:

⁴⁸ *I desire this holy instant for myself
That I may share it with my brother or sister, whom I love.
It is not possible that I can have it without him or her, or he or she without me.*

*Yet it is wholly possible for us to share it now.
And so I choose this instant as the one to offer to the Holy Spirit
That Her Blessing may descend on us and keep us both in peace.*

VII. Dreams and the Body

⁴⁹ There is nothing outside you. That is what you must ultimately learn, for it is in that realization that the God Realm is restored to you. For God created and manifested only this, and HeShe did not depart from it nor leave it separate from HimHerself. The God Realm is the dwelling-place of the SonDaughter of God, who left not hiser FatherMother and dwells not apart from HimHer. The God Realm is not a place nor a condition. It is merely an awareness of perfect Oneness and the knowledge that there is nothing else; nothing outside this Oneness and nothing else within.

⁵⁰ What could God give but knowledge of HimHerself? What else is there to give? The belief that you could give and get something else, something outside yourself, has cost you the awareness of the God Realm and the loss of your Identity. And you have done a stranger thing than you yet realize. You have displaced your guilt to your bodies from your minds. Yet a body cannot be guilty, for it can do nothing of itself. You who think you hate your bodies deceive yourselves. You hate your minds, for guilt has entered into them, and they would remain separate, which they cannot do.

⁵¹ Minds are joined; bodies are not. Only by assigning to the mind the properties of the body does separation seem to be possible. And it is mind that seems to be fragmented and private and alone. Its guilt, which keeps it separate, is projected to the body, which suffers and dies because it is attacked, to hold the separation in the mind and let it not know its identity. Mind cannot attack, but it can make fantasies and direct the body to act them out. Yet it is never what the body does that seems to satisfy. Unless the mind believes the body is actually acting out its fantasies, it will attack the body by increasing the projection of its guilt upon it.

⁵² In this, the mind is clearly delusional. It cannot attack, but it maintains it can and uses what it does to hurt the body to prove it can. The mind cannot attack, but it can deceive itself. And this is all it does when it believes it has attacked the body. It can project its guilt, but it will not lose it through projection. And though it clearly can misperceive the function of the body, it cannot change its function from what the Holy Spirit establishes it to be. The body was not made by love. Yet love does not condemn it and can use it lovingly, respecting what the SonDaughter of God has made and using it to save himher from illusions.

⁵³ Would you not have the instruments of separation reinterpreted as means for salvation and used for purposes of love? Would you not welcome and support the shift from fantasies of vengeance to release from them? Your perception of the body can clearly be sick, but project not this upon the body. For your wish to make destructive what cannot destroy can have no real effect at all. And what God created and manifested is only what HeShe would have it be, being HisHer Will. You cannot make HisHer Will destructive. You can make fantasies in which your will conflicts with HisHers, but that is all.

⁵⁴ It is insane to use the body as the scapegoat for guilt, directing its attack and blaming it for what you wished it to do. It is impossible to act out fantasies. For it is still the fantasies you want, and they have nothing to do with what the body does. It does not dream of them, and they but make it a liability where it could be an asset. For fantasies have made your body your "enemy," weak, vulnerable, and treacherous, worthy of the hate which you invest in it. How has this served you? You have identified with this thing you hate, the instrument of vengeance and the perceived source of your guilt. You have done this to a thing that has no meaning, proclaiming it to be the dwelling-place of the SonDaughter of God and turning it against himher.

⁵⁵ This is the host of God that you have made. And neither God nor HisHer most holy SonDaughter can enter an abode which harbors hate and where you have sown the seeds of vengeance, violence, and death. This thing you made to serve your guilt stands between you and other minds. The minds are joined, but you do not identify with them. You see yourself locked in a separate prison, removed and unreachable, incapable of reaching out as being reached. You hate this prison you have made and would destroy it. But you would not escape from it, leaving it unharmed, without your guilt upon it.

⁵⁶ Yet only thus can you escape. The home of vengeance is not yours; the place you set aside to house your hate is not a prison but an illusion of yourself. The body is a limit imposed on the universal communication which is an eternal property of mind. But the communication is internal. [It is not made up of different parts which reach each other.] Mind reaches to itself. It does not go out. Within itself it has no limits, and there is nothing outside it. [It encompasses everything.] It encompasses you entirely; you within it, and it within you. There is nothing else, anywhere or ever.

⁵⁷ The body is outside you, and but seems to surround you, shutting you off from others and keeping you apart from them [and them from you]. It is not there. There is no barrier between God and HisHer SonDaughter, nor can HisHer SonDaughter be separated from himherself except in illusions. This is not hisher reality, though heshe believes it is. Yet this could only be if God were wrong. God would have had to create and manifest differently and to have separated HimHerself from HisHer SonDaughter to make this possible. HeShe would have had to create and manifest different things and to establish different orders of reality, only some of which were love. Yet love must be forever like itself, changeless forever and forever without alternative. And so it is. You cannot put a barrier around yourself because God placed none between HimHerself and you.

⁵⁸ You can stretch out your hand and reach to the God Realm. You whose hands are joined have begun to reach beyond the body, but not outside yourselves, to reach your shared Identity together. Could this be outside you? Where God is not? Is HeShe a body, and did HeShe create and manifest you as HeShe is not and where HeShe cannot be? You are surrounded only by HimHer. What limit can there be on you whom HeShe encompasses? Everyone has experienced what he or she would call a sense of being transported beyond himself or herself. This feeling of liberation far exceeds the dream of freedom sometimes experienced in special relationships. It is a sense of actual escape from limitations.

⁵⁹ If you will consider what this "transportation" really entails, you will realize that it is a sudden unawareness of the body and a joining of yourself and something else in which your mind enlarges to encompass it. It becomes part of you as you unite with it. And both become whole as neither is perceived as separate. What really happens is that you have given up the illusion of a limited awareness and lost your fear of union. The love that instantly replaces it extends to what has freed you and unites with it. And while this lasts, you are not uncertain of your Identity and would not limit it. You have escaped from fear to peace, asking no questions of reality but merely accepting it. You have accepted this instead of the body and have let yourself be one with something beyond it simply by not letting your mind be limited by it.

⁶⁰ This can occur regardless of the physical distance which seems to be between you and what you join, of your respective positions in space, and of your differences in size and seeming quality. Time is not relevant; it can occur with something past, present, or anticipated. The "something" can be anything and anywhere—a sound, a sight, a thought, a memory, and even a general idea without specific reference. Yet in every case, you joined it without reservation because you love it and would be with it. And so you rush to meet it, letting your limits melt away, suspending all the "laws" your body obeys and gently setting them aside.

⁶¹ There is no violence at all in this escape. The body is not attacked, but simply properly perceived. It does not limit you merely because you would not have it so. You are not really "lifted out" of it; it cannot contain you. You go where you would be, gaining, not losing, a sense of self. In these instants of release from physical restrictions, you experience much of what happens in the holy instant; the lifting of the barriers of time and space, the sudden experience of peace and joy, and, above all, the lack of awareness of the body and of the questioning whether or not all this is possible.

⁶² It is possible because you want it. The sudden expansion of the self which takes place with your desire for it is the irresistible appeal the holy instant holds. It calls to you to be yourself within its safe embrace. There are the laws of limit lifted for you, to welcome you to openness of mind and freedom. Come to this place of refuge, where you can be yourself in peace. Not through destruction, not through a "breaking out," but merely by a quiet "melting in." For peace will join you there simply because you have been willing to let go the limits you have placed upon love and joined it where it is and where it led you in answer to its gentle call to be at peace.

VIII. I Need Do Nothing

⁶³ You still have too much faith in the body as a source of strength. What plans do you make that do not involve its comfort or protection or enjoyment in some way? This makes it an end and not a means in your interpretation, and this always means you still find sin attractive. No one accepts Atonement for himself or herself who still accepts sin as his or her goal. You have thus not met your one responsibility. Atonement is not welcomed by those who prefer pain and destruction.

⁶⁴ You have made much progress and are really trying to make still more, but there is one thing you have never done—not for one instant have you utterly forgotten the body. It has faded at times from your sight, but it has not yet completely disappeared. You are not asked to let this happen for more than an instant, yet it is in this instant that the miracle of Atonement happens. Afterwards, you will see the body again, but never quite the same. And every instant that you spend without awareness of it gives you a different view of it when you return.

⁶⁵ At no single instant does the body exist at all. It is always remembered or anticipated, but never experienced just now. Only its past and future make it seem real. Time controls it entirely, for sin is never present. In any single instant, the attraction of guilt would be experienced as pain and nothing else and would be avoided. It has no attraction now. Its whole attraction is imaginary and therefore must be thought of in the past or in the future.

⁶⁶ It is impossible to accept the holy instant without reservation unless just for an instant you are willing to see no past or future. You cannot

prepare for it without placing it in the future. Release is given you the instant you desire it. Many have spent a lifetime in preparation and have indeed achieved their instants of success. This course does not attempt to teach more than they learned in time, but it does aim at saving time. You are attempting to follow a very long road to the goal you have accepted. It is extremely difficult to reach Atonement by fighting against sin. [Enormous effort is expended in the attempt to make holy what is hated and despised.] Nor is a lifetime of contemplation and long periods of meditation aimed at detachment from the body necessary. All such attempts will ultimately succeed because of their purpose. Yet the means are tedious and very time consuming, for all of them look to the future for release from a state of present unworthiness and inadequacy.

⁶⁷ Your way will be different, not in purpose but in means. A holy relationship is a means of saving time. One instant spent together restores the universe to both of you. You are prepared. Now you need but to remember you need do nothing. It would be far more profitable now merely to concentrate on this than to consider what you should do. When peace comes at last to those who wrestle with temptation and fight against the giving in to sin; when the light comes at last into the mind given to contemplation; or when the goal is finally achieved by anyone, it always comes with just one happy realization: "I need do nothing."

⁶⁸ Here is the ultimate release which everyone will one day find in his or her own way, at his or her own time. We do not need this time. Time has been saved for you because you are together. This is the special means this course is using to save you time. You are not making use of the course if you insist on using means which have served others well, neglecting what was made for you. Save time for us by only this one preparation and practice, doing nothing else. "I need do nothing" is a statement of allegiance, a truly undivided loyalty. Believe it for just one instant, and you will accomplish more than is given to a century of contemplation or of struggle against temptation.

⁶⁹ To do anything involves the body. And if you recognize you need do nothing, you have withdrawn the body's value from your mind. Here is the quick and open door through which you slip past centuries of effort and escape from time. This is the way in which sin loses all attraction right now. For here is time denied and past and future gone. Who need do nothing has no need for time. To do nothing is to rest and make a place within you where the activity of the body ceases to demand attention. Into this place the Holy Spirit comes and there abides. She will remain when you forget and the body's activities return to occupy your conscious mind.

⁷⁰ Yet there will always be this place of rest to which you can return. And you will be more aware of this quiet center of the storm than all its raging activity. This quiet center, in which you do nothing, will remain with you, giving you rest in the midst of every busy doing on which you are sent. For from this center will you be directed how to use the body sinlessly. It is this center, from which the body is absent, that will keep it so in your awareness of it.

IX. The Purpose of the Body

⁷¹ It is only the awareness of the body that makes love seem limited. For the body is a limit on love. The belief in limited love was its origin, and it was made to limit the unlimited. Think not that this is merely allegorical, for it was made to limit you. Can you who see yourselves within a body know yourself as an idea? Everything you recognize you identify with externals, something outside itself. You cannot even think of God without a body or some form you think you recognize.

⁷² The body cannot know. And while you limit your awareness to its tiny senses, you will not see the grandeur which surrounds you. God cannot come into a body, nor can you join HimHer there. Limits on love will always seem to shut HimHer out and to keep you apart from HimHer. The body is a tiny fence around a little part of a glorious and complete idea. It draws a circle, infinitely small, around a very little segment of the God Realm splintered from the whole, proclaiming that within it is your realm, where God can enter not.

⁷³ Within this kingdom the ego rules, and cruelly. And to defend this little speck of dust, it bids you fight against the universe. This fragment of your mind is such a tiny part of it that, could you but appreciate the whole, you would see instantly that it is like the smallest sunbeam to the sun or like the faintest ripple on the surface of the ocean. In its amazing arrogance, this tiny sunbeam has decided it is the sun; this almost imperceptible ripple hails itself as the ocean. Think how alone and frightened is this little thought, this infinitesimal illusion, holding itself apart against the universe. The sun becomes the sunbeam's "enemy" which would devour it, and the ocean terrifies the little ripple and wants to swallow it.

⁷⁴ Yet neither sun nor ocean is even aware of all this strange and meaningless activity. They merely continue, unaware that they are feared and hated by a tiny segment of themselves. Even that segment is not lost to them, for it could not survive apart from them. And what it thinks it is in no way changes its total dependence on them for its being. Its whole existence still remains in them. Without the sun the sunbeam would be gone; the ripple without the ocean is inconceivable.

⁷⁵ Such is the strange position in which those in a world inhabited by bodies seem to be. Each body seems to house a separate mind, a disconnected thought living alone and in no way joined to the Thought by which it was created and manifested. Each tiny fragment seems to be self-contained, needing each other for some things but by no means totally dependent on their one CreatorManifestor for everything and needing the whole to give them any meaning, for by themselves they do mean nothing. Nor have they any life apart and by themselves.

⁷⁶ Like to the sun and ocean your Self continues, unmindful that this tiny part regards itself as you. It is not missing; it could not exist if it were separate, nor would the whole be whole without it. It is not a separate realm, ruled by an idea of separation from the rest. Nor does a fence surround it, preventing it from joining with the rest and keeping it apart from its CreatorManifestor. This little aspect is no different from the whole, being continuous with it and at one with it. It leads no separate life because its life is the oneness in which its being was created and manifested.

⁷⁷ Do not accept this little fenced-off aspect as yourself. The sun and ocean are as nothing beside what you are. The sunbeam sparkles only in the sunlight, and the ripple dances as it rests upon the ocean. Yet in neither sun nor ocean is the power that rests in you. Would you remain within your tiny realm, a sorry king or queen, a bitter ruler of all he or she surveys who looks on nothing, yet who would still die to defend it? This little self is not your rige. Arched high above it and surrounding it with love is the glorious whole, which offers all its happiness and deep content to every part. The little aspect which you think you set apart is no exception.

⁷⁸ Love knows no bodies and reaches to everything created and manifested like itself. Its total lack of limit is its meaning. It is completely impartial in its giving, encompassing only to preserve and keep complete what it would give. In your tiny realm, you have so little! Should it not, then, be there that you would call on love to enter? Look at the desert, dry and unproductive, scorched and joyless, which makes up your little realm. And realize the life and joy which love would bring to it from where it comes and where it would return with you.

⁷⁹ The Thought of God surrounds your little realm, waiting at the barrier you built to come inside and shine upon the barren ground. See how life springs up everywhere! The desert becomes a garden, green and deep and quiet, offering rest to those who lost their way and wander in the dust. Give them a place of refuge, prepared by love for them where once a desert was. And everyone you welcome will bring love with him or her from the God Realm for you. They enter one by one into this holy place, but they will not depart as they had come, alone. The love they brought with them will stay with them, as it will stay with you. And under its beneficence, your little garden will expand and reach out to everyone who thirsts for living water but has grown too weary to go on alone.

⁸⁰ Go out and find them, for they bring your Self with them. And lead them gently to your quiet garden and receive their blessing there. So will it grow and stretch across the desert, leaving no lonely little realms locked away from love and leaving you inside. And you will recognize yourself and see your little garden gently transformed into the God Realm with all the love of its CreatorManifestor shining upon it. The holy instant is your invitation to love, to enter into your bleak and joyless rige, and to transform it into a garden of peace and welcome.

⁸¹ Love's answer is inevitable. It will come because you came without the body and interposed no barriers which would interfere with its glad coming. In the holy instant, you ask of love only what it offers everyone, neither less nor more. Asking for everything, you will receive it. And your shining Self will lift the tiny aspect which you tried to hide from the God Realm straight into the God Realm. No part of love calls on the whole in vain. No SonDaughter of God remains outside HisHer FatherMotherhood.

⁸² Be sure of this—love has entered your special relationship and entered fully at your weak request. You do not recognize that love has come because you have not yet let go of all the barriers you hold against each other. And you will not be able to give love welcome separately. You could no more know God alone than HeShe knows you without your brother or sister. But together you could no more be unaware of love than love could know you not or fail to recognize itself in you.

⁸³ You have reached the end of an ancient journey, not realizing yet that it is over. You are still worn and tired and the desert's dust still seems to cloud your eyes and keep you sightless. Yet HeShe Whom you welcomed has come to you and would welcome you. HeShe has waited long to give you this. Receive it now of HimHer, for HeShe would have you know HimHer. Only a little wall of dust still stands between you. Blow on it lightly and with happy laughter, and it will fall away. And walk into the garden love has prepared for both of you.

X. The Delusional Thought System

⁸⁴ You have been told to bring the darkness to the light and guilt to holiness. And you have also been told that error must be corrected at its source. Therefore, it is the tiny part of yourself, the little thought that seems split off and separate, which the Holy Spirit needs. The rest is fully in God's keeping and needs no guide. Yet this wild and delusional thought needs help because in its delusions it thinks it is the SonDaughter of God, whole and omnipotent, sole ruler of the realm it set apart to tyrannize by madness into obedience and slavery.

⁸⁵ This is the little part of you you think you stole from the God Realm. Give it back to the God Realm. The God Realm has not lost it, but you have lost sight of the God Realm. Let the Holy Spirit remove it from the withered realm in which you set it off, surrounded by darkness, guarded by attack, and reinforced by hate. Within its barricades is still a tiny segment of the SonDaughter of God, complete and holy, serene and unaware of what you think surrounds it. Be you not separate, for the One Who does surround it has brought union to you, returning your little offering of darkness to the eternal Light.

⁸⁶ How is this done? It is extremely simple, being based on what this little realm really is. The barren sands, the darkness and the lifelessness are seen only through the body's eyes. Its vision is distorted, and the messages it transmits to you who made it to limit your awareness are little and limited and so fragmented they are meaningless. From the world of bodies, made by insanity, insane messages seem to be returned to the mind which made it. And these messages bear witness to this world, pronouncing it as true. For you sent forth these messengers to bring this back to you.

⁸⁷ Everything these messages relay to you is quite external. There are no messages which speak of what lies underneath, for it is not the body that could speak of this. Its eyes perceive it not; its senses remain quite unaware of it; its tongue cannot relay its messages. Yet God can bring you there if you are willing to follow the Holy Spirit through seeming terror, trusting Her not to abandon you and leave you there. For it is not Her purpose to frighten you, but only yours. You are severely tempted to abandon Her at the outside ring of fear, but She would lead you safely through and far beyond.

⁸⁸ The circle of fear lies just below the level the body sees and seems to be the whole foundation on which the world is based. Here are all the illusions, all the twisted thoughts, all the insane attacks, the fury, vengeance, and betrayal that were made to keep the guilt in place, so that the world could rise from it and keep it hidden. Its shadow rises to the surface, enough to hold its most external manifestations in darkness and to bring despair and loneliness to it and keep it joyless. Yet its intensity is veiled by its heavy coverings and kept apart from what was made to keep it hidden. The body cannot see this, for the body arose from this for its protection, which must always depend on keeping it not seen. The body's eyes will never look on it. Yet they will see what it dictates.

⁸⁹ The body will remain guilt's messenger and will act as it directs as long as you believe that guilt is real. For the reality of guilt is the illusion which seems to make it heavy and opaque, impenetrable, and a real foundation for the ego's thought system. Its thinness and transparency are not apparent until you see the light behind it. And then you see it as a fragile veil before the light.

⁹⁰ This heavy-seeming barrier, this artificial floor which looks like rock, is like a bank of low dark clouds that seems to be a solid wall before the sun. Its impenetrable appearance is wholly an illusion. It gives way softly to the mountain tops which rise above it and has no power at all to hold back anyone willing to climb above it and see the sun. It is not strong enough to stop a button's fall nor hold a feather. [Nothing can rest upon it, for it is but an illusion of a foundation.] Try but to touch it and it disappears; attempt to grasp it and your hands hold nothing.

⁹¹ Yet in this cloud bank, it is easy to see a whole world rising. A solid mountain range, a lake, a city, all rise in your imagination, and from the clouds the messengers of your perception return to you, assuring you that it is all there. Figures stand out and move about, actions seem real, and forms appear and shift from loveliness to the grotesque. And back and forth they go, as long as you would play the game of children's make-believe. Yet however long you play it, and regardless of how much imagination you bring to it, you do not confuse it with the world below, nor seek to make it real.

⁹² So should it be with the dark clouds of guilt, no more impenetrable and no more substantial. You will not bruise yourself against them in traveling through. Let your Guide teach you their unsubstantial nature as She leads you past them, for beneath them is a world of light whereon they cast no shadows. Their shadows lie upon the world beyond them, still further from the light. Yet from them to the light their shadows cannot fall.

⁹³ This world of light, this circle of brightness, is the real world where guilt meets with forgiveness. Here the world outside is seen anew, without the shadow of guilt upon it. Here are you forgiven, for here you have forgiven everyone. Here is the new perception, where everything is bright and shining with innocence, washed in the waters of forgiveness, and cleansed of every evil thought you had laid upon it. Here there is no attack upon the SonDaughter of God, and you are welcome. Here is your innocence, waiting to clothe you and protect you and make you ready for the final step in the journey inward. Here are the dark and heavy garments of guilt laid by and gently replaced by purity and love.

⁹⁴ Yet even forgiveness is not the end. Forgiveness does make lovely, but it does not create and manifest. It is the source of healing, but it is the messenger of love and not its Source. Here you are led that God HimHerself can take the final step unhindered, for here does nothing interfere with love, letting it be itself. A step beyond this holy place [of forgiveness], a step still further inward but the one you cannot take, transports you to something completely different. Here is the Source of light—nothing perceived, forgiven, nor transformed, but merely known.

XI. The Passing of the Dream

⁹⁵ This course will lead to knowledge, but knowledge itself is still beyond the scope of our curriculum. Nor is there any need for us to try to speak of what must forever lie beyond words. We need remember only that whoever attains the real world, beyond which learning cannot go, will go beyond it but in a different way. Where learning ends there God begins, for learning ends before HimHer, Who is complete where HeShe begins and where there is no end. It is not for us to dwell on what cannot be attained. There is too much to learn. The readiness for knowledge still must be attained.

⁹⁶ Love is not learned. Its meaning lies in itself. And learning ends when you have recognized all it is not. That is the interference; that is what needs to be undone. Love is not learned because there never was a time in which you knew it not. Learning is useless in the Presence of your CreatorManifestor, Whose acknowledgment of you and yours of HimHer so far transcend all learning that everything you learned is meaningless, replaced forever by the knowledge of love and its one meaning.

⁹⁷ Your relationship has been uprooted from the world of shadows, and its unholy purpose has been safely brought through the barriers of guilt, washed with forgiveness, and set shining and firmly rooted in the world of light. From there, it calls to you to follow the course it took, lifted high above the darkness and gently placed before the gates of the God Realm. The holy instant in which you were united is but the messenger of love, sent from beyond forgiveness to remind you of all that lies beyond it. Yet it is through forgiveness that it will be remembered.

⁹⁸ And when the memory of God has come to you in the holy place of forgiveness, you will remember nothing else, and memory will be as useless as learning, for your only purpose will be creatingmanifesting. Yet this you cannot know until every perception has been cleansed and purified and finally removed forever. Forgiveness removes only the untrue, lifting the shadows from the world and carrying it safe and sure within its gentleness to the bright world of new and clean perception. There is your purpose now. And it is there that peace awaits you.

Chapter Nineteen:

Beyond the Body

I. Introduction

¹ We said before that when a situation has been dedicated wholly to truth, peace is inevitable. Its attainment is the criterion by which the wholeness of the dedication can be safely assumed. Yet we also said that peace without faith will never be attained, for what is wholly dedicated to truth as its only goal is brought to truth by faith. This faith encompasses everyone involved, for only thus the situation is perceived as meaningful and as a whole. And everyone must be involved in it, or else your faith is limited and your dedication incomplete.

² Every situation properly perceived becomes an opportunity to heal the SonDaughter of God. And heshe is healed because you offered faith to himher, giving himher to the Holy Spirit and releasing himher from every demand your ego would make of himher. Thus do you see himher free, and in this vision does the Holy Spirit share. And since She shares it, She has given it, and so She heals through you. It is this joining Her in a united purpose which makes this purpose real because you make it whole. And this is healing. The body is healed because you came without it and joined the Mind in which all healing rests.

II. Healing and the Mind

³ The body cannot heal because it cannot make itself sick. It needs no healing. Its health or sickness depends entirely on how the mind perceives it and the purpose which the mind would use it for. And it is obvious that a segment of the mind can see itself as separated from the Universal Purpose. When this occurs, the body becomes its weapon used against this Purpose to demonstrate the "fact" that separation has occurred. The body thus becomes the instrument of illusion, acting accordingly; seeing what is not there, hearing what truth has never said, and behaving insanely, being imprisoned by insanity.

⁴ Do not overlook our earlier statement that faithlessness leads straight to illusions. For faithlessness is the perception of a brother or sister as a body, and the body cannot be used for purposes of union. If, then, you see your brother or sister as a body, you have established a condition in which uniting with him or her becomes impossible. Your faithlessness to him or her has separated you from him or her and kept you both apart from being healed. Your faithlessness has thus opposed the Holy Spirit's purpose and brought illusions centered on the body to stand between you. And the body will seem to be sick, for you have made of it an "enemy" of healing and the opposite of truth.

⁵ It cannot be difficult to realize that faith must be the opposite of faithlessness. Yet the difference in how they operate is less apparent, though it follows directly from the fundamental difference in what they are. Faithlessness would always limit and attack; faith would remove all limitations and make whole. [Faithlessness would destroy and separate; faith would unite and heal.] Faithlessness would interpose illusions between the SonDaughter of God and hisher CreatorManifestor; faith would remove all obstacles that seem to rise between them. Faithlessness is wholly dedicated to illusions; faith wholly to truth. Partial dedication is impossible. Truth is the absence of illusion; illusion the absence of truth.

⁶ Both cannot be together nor perceived in the same place. To dedicate yourself to both is to set up a goal forever impossible to attain, for part of it is sought through the body, thought of as a means for seeking out reality through attack, while the other part would heal and therefore calls upon the mind and not the body. The inevitable compromise is the belief that the body must be healed, and not the mind. For this divided goal has given both an equal reality, which could be possible only if the mind is limited to the body and divided into little parts of seeming wholeness but without connection. This will not harm the body, but it will keep the delusional thought system in the mind.

⁷ Here then is healing needed. And it is here that healing is. For God gave healing not apart from sickness, nor established remedy where sickness cannot be. They are together, and when they are seen together, all attempts to keep both truth and illusion in the mind, where both must be, are recognized as dedication to illusion and given up when brought to truth and seen as totally irreconcilable with truth in any respect or in any way.

⁸ Truth and illusion have no connection. This will remain forever true, however much you seek to connect them. But illusions are always connected, as is truth. Each is united, a complete thought system, but totally disconnected to each other. Where there is no overlap, there separation must be complete. And to perceive this is to recognize where separation is and where it must be healed. The result of an idea is never separate from its source. The idea of separation produced the body and remains connected to it, making it sick because of its identification with it. You think you are protecting the body by hiding this connection, for this concealment seems to keep your identification safe from the "attack" of truth.

⁹ If you but understood how much this strange concealment has hurt your mind and how confused your own identification has become because of it! You do not see how great the devastation wrought by your faithlessness. For faithlessness is an attack which seems to be justified by its results. For by withholding faith, you see what is unworthy of it and cannot look beyond the barrier to what is joined with you.

¹⁰ To have faith is to heal. It is the sign that you have accepted the Atonement for yourself and would therefore share it. By faith you offer the gift of freedom from the past, which you received. You do not use anything your brother or sister has done before to condemn him or her now. You freely choose to overlook his or her errors, looking past all barriers between your self and his or her and seeing them as one. And in that one you see your faith is fully justified. There is no justification for faithlessness, but faith is always justified.

¹¹ Faith is the opposite of fear, as much a part of love as fear is of attack. Faith is the acknowledgment of union. It is the gracious acknowledgment of everyone as a SonDaughter of your most loving FatherMother, loved by HimHer like you and therefore loved by you as yourself. It is HisHer love that joins you, and for HisHer love you would keep no one separate from yours. Each one appears just as he or she is perceived in the holy instant, united in your purpose to be released from guilt. You saw the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her, and he or she was healed because you looked on what makes faith forever justified in everyone.

¹² Faith is the gift of God, through Her Whom God has given you. Faithlessness looks upon the SonDaughter of God and judges himher unworthy of forgiveness. But through the eyes of faith, the SonDaughter of God is seen already forgiven, free of all the guilt heshe laid upon himherself. Faith sees himher only now because it looks not to the past to judge him, but would see in himher only what it would see in you. It sees not through the body's eyes nor looks to bodies for its justification. It is the messenger of the new perception sent forth to gather witnesses unto its coming and to return their messages to you. Faith is as easily exchanged for knowledge as is the real world. For faith arises from the Holy Spirit's perception and is the sign you share it with Her. Faith is a gift you offer to the SonDaughter of God through Her, and wholly acceptable to Her FatherMother as to Hende. And therefore offered you.

¹³ Your holy relationship, with its new purpose, offers you faith to give unto each other. Your faithlessness had driven you apart, and so you did not recognize salvation in each other. Yet faith unites you in the holiness you see, not through the body's eyes but in the sight of Her Who joined you and in Whom you are united. Grace is not given to a body, but to a mind. And the mind that receives it looks instantly beyond the body and sees the holy place where it was healed. There is the altar where the grace was given, in which it stands. Do you, then, offer grace and blessing to each other, for you stand at the same altar where grace was laid for both of you. And be you healed by grace together, that you may heal through faith.

¹⁴ In the holy instant, you stand before the altar God has raised unto HimHerself and both of you. Lay faithlessness aside and come to it together. There will you see the miracle of your relationship as it was made again through faith. And there it is that you will realize that there is nothing faith cannot forgive. No error interferes with its calm sight, which brings the miracle of healing with equal ease to all of them. For what the messengers of love are sent to do they do, returning the glad tidings that it was done to you who stand together before the altar from which they were sent forth.

¹⁵ As faithlessness will keep your little realms barren and separate, so will faith help the Holy Spirit prepare the ground for the most holy garden which She would make of it. For faith brings peace, and so it calls on truth to enter and make lovely what has already been prepared for loveliness. Truth follows faith and peace, completing the process of making lovely which they begin. For faith is still a learning goal, no longer needed when the lesson has been learned. Yet truth will stay forever.

¹⁶ Let then your dedication be to the eternal and learn how not to interfere with it and make it slave to time. For what you think you do to the eternal you do to you. Whom God created and manifested as HisHer SonDaughter is slave to nothing, being lordlady of all along with hisher CreatorManifestor. You can enslave a body, but an idea is free, incapable of being kept in prison or limited in any way except by the mind that thought it. For it remains joined to its source, which is its jailor or its liberator, according to which it chooses as its purpose for itself.

III. Sin Versus Error

¹⁷ It is essential that error be not confused with "sin," and it is this distinction which makes salvation possible. For error can be corrected, and the wrong made right. But sin, were it possible, would be irreversible. The belief in sin is necessarily based on the firm conviction that minds, not bodies, can attack. And thus the mind is guilty and will forever so remain unless a mind not part of it can give it absolution. Sin calls for punishment as error for correction, and the belief that punishment is correction is clearly insane.

¹⁸ Sin is not an error, for sin entails an arrogance which the idea of error lacks. To sin would be to violate reality and to succeed. Sin is the proclamation that attack is real and guilt is justified. It assumes the SonDaughter of God is guilty and has thus succeeded in losing hisher innocence and making himherself what God created and manifested not. Thus is manifested creation seen as not eternal, and the Will of God open to opposition and defeat. Sin is the "grand illusion" underlying all the ego's grandiosity. For by it, God HimHerself is changed and rendered incomplete.

¹⁹ The SonDaughter of God can be mistaken; heshe can deceive himherself; heshe can even turn the power of hisher mind against himherself. But heshe cannot sin. There is nothing heshe can do that would really change hisher reality in any way nor make himher really guilty. That is what sin would do, for such is its purpose. Yet for all the wild insanity inherent in the whole idea of sin, it is impossible. For the wages of sin is death, and how can the immortal die?

²⁰ A major tenet in the ego's insane religion is that sin is not error but truth, and it is innocence that would deceive. Purity is seen as arrogance, and the acceptance of the self as sinful is perceived as holiness. And it is this doctrine which replaces the reality of the SonDaughter of God as hisher FatherMother created and manifested himher and willed that heshe be forever. Is this humility? Or is it, rather, an attempt to wrest manifested creation away from truth and keep it separate?

²¹ Any attempt to reinterpret sin as error is always indefensible to the ego. The idea of sin is wholly sacrosanct to its thought system and quite unapproachable except through reverence and awe. It is the most "holy" concept in the ego's system—lovely and powerful, wholly true, and necessarily protected with every defense at its disposal. For here lies its "best" defense which all the others serve. Here is its armor, its protection, and the fundamental purpose of the special relationship in its interpretation.

²² It can indeed be said the ego made its world on sin. Only in such a world could everything be upside-down. This is the strange illusion which makes the clouds of guilt seem heavy and impenetrable. The solidness this world's foundation seems to have is found in this. For sin has changed manifested creation from an Idea of God to an ideal the ego wants; a world it rules, made up of bodies, mindless and capable of complete corruption and decay. If this is a mistake, it can be undone easily by truth. Any mistake can be corrected, if truth be left to judge it. But if the mistake is given the status of truth, to what can it be brought? The "holiness" of sin is kept in place by just this strange device. As truth it is inviolate, and everything is brought to it for judgment. As a mistake, it must be brought to truth. It is impossible to have faith in sin, for sin is faithlessness. Yet it is possible to have faith that a mistake can be corrected.

²³ There is no stone in all the ego's embattled citadel more heavily defended than the idea that sin is real—the natural expression of what the SonDaughter of God has made himherself to be and what heshe is. To the ego, this is no mistake. For this is its reality; this is the "truth" from which escape will always be impossible. This is hisher past, hisher present, and hisher future. For heshe has somehow managed to corrupt hisher FatherMother and changed HisHer Mind completely. Mourn, then, the death of God, Whom sin has killed! And this would be the ego's wish, which in its madness it thinks it has accomplished.

²⁴ Would you not rather that all this be nothing more than a mistake, entirely correctable, and so easily escaped from that its whole correction is like walking through a mist into the sun? For that is all it is. Perhaps you would be tempted to agree with the ego that it is far better to be sinful than mistaken. Yet think you carefully before you allow yourself to make this choice. Approach it not lightly, for it is the choice of hell or the God Realm.

IV. The Unreality of Sin

²⁵ The attraction of guilt is found in sin, not error. Sin will be repeated because of this attraction. Fear can become so acute that the sin is denied the acting out, but while the guilt remains attractive the mind will suffer and not let go of the idea of sin. For guilt still calls to it, and the mind hears it and yearns for it, making itself a willing captive to its sick appeal. Sin is an idea of evil that cannot be corrected and will be forever desirable. As an essential part of what the ego thinks you are, you will always want it. And only an avenger with a mind unlike your own could stamp it out through fear.

²⁶ The ego does not think it possible that love, not fear, is really called upon by sin and always answers. For the ego brings sin to fear, demanding punishment. Yet punishment is but another form of guilt's protection, for what is deserving punishment must have been really done. Punishment is always the great preserver of sin, treating it with respect and honoring its enormity. [What must be punished must be true. And what is true must be eternal and will be repeated endlessly.] For what you think is real you want and will not let it go. An error, on the other hand, is not attractive. What you see clearly as a mistake you want corrected.

²⁷ Sometimes a sin can be repeated over and over with obviously distressing results but without the loss of its appeal. And suddenly you change its status from a sin to a mistake. Now you will not repeat it; you will merely stop and let it go unless the guilt remains. For then you will but change the form of sin, granting that it was an error but keeping it uncorrectable. This is not really a change in your perception, for it is sin that calls for punishment, not error. The Holy Spirit cannot punish sin. Mistakes She recognizes and would correct them all as God entrusted Her to do. But sin She knows not, nor can She recognize mistakes which cannot be corrected. For a mistake which cannot be corrected is meaningless to Her.

²⁸ Mistakes are for correction, and they call for nothing else. What calls for punishment must call for nothing. Every mistake must be a call for love. What, then, is sin? What could it be but a mistake you would keep hidden—a call for help that you would keep unheard and thus unanswered? In time the Holy Spirit clearly sees the SonDaughter of God can make mistakes. On this you share Her vision. Yet you do not share HisHer recognition of the difference between time and eternity. And when correction is completed, time is eternity.

²⁹ Time is like a downward spiral which seems to travel down from a long, unbroken line along another plane but which in no way breaks the line or interferes with its smooth continuousness. Along the spiral, it seems as if the line must have been broken. Yet at the line, its wholeness is apparent. Everything seen from the spiral is misperceived, but as you approach the line, you realize that it was not affected by the drop into another plane at all. Yet from the plane, the line seems discontinuous. And this is but an error in perception which can be easily corrected in the mind, although the body's eyes will see no change. The eyes see the many things the mind corrects, and you respond, not to the eyes' illusions, but to the mind's corrections.

³⁰ You see the line as broken, and as you shift to different aspects of the spiral, the line looks different. Yet in your mind is One Who knows it is unbroken and forever changeless. This One can teach you how to look on time differently and see beyond it, but not while you believe in sin. In error, yes; for this can be corrected by the mind. But sin is the belief that your perception is unchangeable and that the mind must accept as true what it is told through it. If it does not obey, the mind is judged insane. The only power which could change perception is thus kept impotent, held to the body by the fear of changed perception which its teacher, who is one with it, would bring.

³¹ When you are tempted to believe that sin is real, remember this: If sin is real, both God and you are not. If manifested creation is extension, the CreatorManifestor must have extended HimHerself, and it is impossible that what is part of HimHer is totally unlike the rest. If sin is real, God must be at war with HimHerself. HeShe must be split and torn between good and evil—partly sane and partially insane. For HeShe must have created and manifested what wills to destroy HimHer and has the power to do so. Is it not easier to believe that you have been mistaken than to believe in this?

³² While you believe that your reality or your brother's or sister's is bounded by a body, you will believe in sin. While you believe that bodies can unite, you will find guilt attractive and believe that sin is precious. For the belief that bodies limit mind leads to a perception of the world in which the proof of separation seems to be everywhere. And God and HisHer manifested creation seem to be split apart and overthrown. For sin would prove what God created and manifested holy could not prevail against it nor remain itself before the power of sin. Sin is perceived as mightier than God, before which God HimHerself must bow and offer HisHer manifested creation to its conqueror. Is this humility or madness?

³³ If sin were real, it would forever be beyond the hope of healing. For there would be a power beyond God's, capable of making another will which could attack HisHer Will and overcome it and give HisHer SonDaughter a will apart from HisHer and stronger. And each part of God's fragmented manifested creation would have a different will, opposed to HisHer and in eternal opposition to HimHer and to each other. Your holy relationship has as its purpose now the goal of proving this is impossible. The God Realm has smiled upon it, and the belief in sin has been uprooted in its smile of love. You see it still because you do not realize that its foundation has gone. Its source has been removed, and so it can be cherished but a little while before it vanishes. Only the habit of looking for it still remains.

³⁴ And yet you look with the God Realm 's smile upon your lips and the God Realm 's blessing on your sight. You will not see it long. For in the new perception, the mind corrects it when it seems to be seen, and it becomes invisible. And errors are quickly recognized and quickly given to correction to be healed, not hidden. You will be healed of sin and all its ravages the instant that you give it no power over each other. And you will help each other overcome mistakes by joyously releasing one another from the belief in sin.

³⁵ In the holy instant, you will see the smile of the God Realm shining on both of you. And you will shine upon each other in glad acknowledgment of the grace that has been given you. For sin will not prevail against a union the God Realm has smiled upon. Your perception was healed in the holy instant the God Realm gave you. Forget what you have seen and raise your eyes in faith to what you now can see. The barriers to the God Realm will disappear before your holy sight, for you who were sightless have been given vision, and you can see. Look not for what has been removed but for the glory that has been restored for you to see.

³⁶ Look upon your Redeemer and behold what She would show you in each other, and let not sin arise again to blind your eyes. For sin would keep you separate, but your Redeemer would have you look upon each other as yourself. Your relationship is now a temple of healing—a place where all the weary ones can come and find rest. Here is the rest that waits for all after the journey. And it is brought nearer to all by your relationship.

³⁷ As this peace extends from deep inside yourselves to embrace all the SonDaughtership and give it rest, it will encounter the many obstacles. Some of them you will try to impose. Others will seem to arise from elsewhere—from your brothers and sisters and from various aspects of the world outside. Yet peace will gently cover them, extending past completely unhindered. The extension of the Holy Spirit's purpose from your relationship to others to bring them gently in has already begun. This is the way in which She will bring means and goal in line. The peace She laid deep within both of you will quietly extend to every aspect of your lives, surrounding both of you with glowing happiness and the calm awareness of complete protection. And you will carry its message of love and safety and freedom to everyone who draws nigh unto your temple, where healing waits for him or her.

³⁸ You will not wait to give him or her this, for you will call to him or her and he or she will answer you, recognizing in your call the Call of God. And you will draw him or her in and give him or her rest, as it was given you. All this will you do. Yet the peace which already lies deeply within must first expand and flow across the obstacles you placed before it. This will you do, for nothing undertaken with the Holy Spirit remains unfinished. You can indeed be sure of nothing you see outside you, but of this you can be sure: the Holy Spirit asks that you offer Her a resting-place where you will rest in Her. She answered you and entered your relationship. Would you not now return Her graciousness and enter into a relationship with Her? For it is She Who offered your relationship the gift of holiness, without which it would have been forever impossible to appreciate each other.

³⁹ The gratitude you owe to Her She asks but that you receive for Her. And when you look with gentle graciousness upon each other, you are beholding Her. For you are looking where She is and not apart from Her. You cannot see the Holy Spirit, but you can see your brothers and sisters truly. And the light in them will show you all that you need to see. When the peace in you has been extended to encompass everyone, the Holy Spirit's function here will be accomplished. What need is there for seeing then? When God has taken the last step HimHerself, the Holy Spirit will gather all your thanks and gratitude which you have offered Her and lay them gently before Her CreatorManifestor in the name of HisHer most holy SonDaughter. And the FatherMother will accept them in Her Name. What need is there of seeing in the presence of Her gratitude?

V. Obstacles to Peace

a. The First Obstacle: The Desire to Get Rid of It

⁴⁰ The first obstacle that peace must flow across is your desire to get rid of it. For it cannot extend unless you keep it. You are the center from which it radiates outward to call the others in. You are its home, its tranquil dwelling-place from which it gently reaches out but never leaving you. If you would make it homeless, how can it abide within the SonDaughter of God? If it would spread across the whole manifested creation, it must begin with you and from you reach to everyone who calls and bring him or her rest by joining you.

⁴¹ Why would you want peace homeless? What do you think that it must dispossess to dwell with you? What seems to be the cost you are so unwilling to pay? The little barrier of sand still stands between you. Would you reinforce it now? You are not asked to let it go for yourselves alone. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness asks it of you for Herself. She would bring peace to everyone, and how can She do this except through you? Would you let a little bank of sand, a wall of dust, a tiny seeming barrier, stand between your brothers and sisters and salvation? And yet, it is this little remnant of attack you cherish still against each other that is the first obstacle the peace in you encounters in its going forth. This little wall of hatred would still oppose the Will of God and keep it limited.

⁴² The Holy Spirit's purpose rests in peace within you. Yet you are still unwilling to let it join you wholly. You still oppose the Will of God, just by a little. And that little is a limit you would place upon the whole. God's Will is One, not the many. It has no opposition, for there is none beside it. What you would still contain behind your little barrier and keep separate from each other seems mightier than the universe, for it would hold back the universe and its CreatorManifestor. This little wall would hide the purpose of the God Realm and keep it from the God Realm.

⁴³ Would you thrust salvation away from the giver of salvation? For such have you become. Peace could no more depart from you than from God. Fear not this little obstacle. It cannot contain the Will of God. Peace will flow across it and join you without hindrance. Salvation cannot be withheld from you. It is your purpose. You cannot will apart from this. You have no purpose apart from each other nor apart from the one you asked the Holy Spirit to share with you. The little wall will fall away so quietly beneath the wings of peace! For peace will send its messengers from you to all the world. And barriers will fall away before their coming as easily as those which you would interpose will be surmounted.

⁴⁴ To overcome the world is no more difficult than to surmount your little wall. For in the miracle of your relationship, without this barrier, is every miracle contained. There is no order of difficulty in miracles, for they are all the same. Each is a gentle winning over from the appeal of guilt to the appeal of love. How can this fail to be accomplished, wherever it is undertaken? Guilt can raise no real barriers against it. And all that seems to stand between you must fall away because of the appeal you answered. For from you who answered, She Who answered you would call. Her home is in your holy relationship. Do not attempt to stand between Her and Her holy purpose, for it is yours. But let Her quietly extend the miracle of your relationship to everyone contained in it, as it was given.

⁴⁵ There is a hush in the God Realm, a happy expectancy, a little pause of gladness in acknowledgment of the journey's end. For the God Realm knows you well, as you know the God Realm. No illusions stand between you now. Look not upon the little wall of shadows. The sun has risen over it. How can a shadow keep you from the sun? No more can you be kept by shadows from the light in which illusions end. Every miracle is but the end of an illusion. Such was the journey; such its ending. And in the goal of truth which you accepted must all illusions end.

⁴⁶ The little insane wish to get rid of HimHer Who you invited in and push HimHer out must produce conflict. As you look upon the world, this little wish, uprooted and floating aimlessly, can land and settle briefly upon anything, for it has no purpose now. Before the Holy Spirit entered to abide with you, it seemed to have a mighty purpose; the fixed and unchangeable dedication to sin and its results. Now it is aimless, wandering pointlessly, causing no more than tiny interruptions in love's appeal.

⁴⁷ This feather of a wish, this tiny illusion, this microscopic remnant of the belief in sin, is all that remains of what once seemed to be the world. It is no longer an unrelenting barrier to peace. Its pointless wandering makes its results appear to be more erratic and unpredictable than before. Yet what could be more unstable than a tightly-organized delusional system? Its seeming stability is its pervasive weakness, which extends to everything. The variability which the little remnant induces merely indicates its limited results.

⁴⁸ How mighty can a little feather be before the great wings of truth? Can it oppose an eagle's flight or hinder the advance of summer? Can it interfere with the effects of summer's sun upon a garden covered by the snow? See but how easily this little wisp is lifted up and carried away, never to return, and part with it in gladness, not regret. For it is nothing in itself and stood for nothing when you had greater faith in its protection. Would you not rather greet the summer sun than fix your gaze upon a disappearing snowflake and shiver in remembrance of the winter's cold?

The Attraction of Guilt

⁴⁹ The attraction of guilt produces fear of love, for love would never look on guilt at all. It is the nature of love to look upon only the truth, for there it sees itself, with which it would unite in holy union and completion. As love must look past fear, so must fear see love not. For love contains the end of guilt as surely as fear depends on it. Love is attracted only to love. Overlooking guilt completely, it sees no fear. Being wholly without attack, it could not be afraid. Fear is attracted to what love sees not, and each believes that what the other looks upon does not exist. Fear looks on guilt with just the same devotion that love looks on itself. And each has messengers which they send forth and which return to them with messages written in the language in which their going forth was asked.

⁵⁰ Love's messengers are gently sent and return with messages of love and gentleness. The messengers of fear are harshly ordered to seek out guilt and cherish every scrap of evil and of sin which they can find, losing none of them on pain of death and laying them respectfully before their lord and master. Perception cannot obey two masters, each asking for messages of different things in different languages. What fear would feed upon, love overlooks. What fear demands, love cannot even see.

⁵¹ The fierce attraction which guilt holds for fear is wholly absent from love's gentle perception. What love would look upon is meaningless to fear and quite invisible. Relationships in this world are the result of how the world is seen. And this depends on which emotion was called on to send its messengers to look upon it and return with word of what they saw. Fear's messengers are trained through terror, and they tremble when their master or mistress calls upon them to serve him or her. For fear is merciless even to its friends. Its messengers steal guiltily away in hungry search of guilt, for they are kept cold and starving and made very vicious by their master, who allows them to feast only upon what they return to him or her. No little shred of guilt escapes their hungry eyes. And in their savage search for sin, they pounce on any living thing they see and carry it screaming to their master or mistress to be devoured.

⁵² Send not these savage messengers into the world to feast upon it and to prey upon reality. For they will bring you word of bones and skin and flesh. They have been taught to seek for the corruptible and to return with gorges filled with things decayed and rotted. To them such things are beautiful because they seem to allay their savage pangs of hunger. For they are frantic with the pain of fear and would avert the punishment of him or her who sends them forth by offering him or her what they hold dear.

⁵³ The Holy Spirit has given you love's messengers to send instead of those you trained through fear. They are as eager to return to you what they hold dear as are the others. If you send them forth, they will see only the blameless and the beautiful, the gentle and the kind. They will be as careful to let no little act of charity, no tiny expression of forgiveness, no little breath of love escape their notice. And they will return with all the happy things they found, to share them lovingly with you. Be not afraid of them. They offer you salvation. Theirs are the messages of safety, for they see the world as kind.

⁵⁴ If you send forth only the messengers the Holy Spirit gives you, wanting no messages but theirs, you will see fear no more. The world will be transformed before your sight, cleansed of all guilt and softly brushed with beauty. The world contains no fear which you laid not upon it. And none you cannot ask love's messengers to remove from it and see it still. The Holy Spirit has given you Her messengers to send to each other and return to each with what love sees. They have been given to replace the hungry dogs of fear you sent instead. And they go forth to signify the end of fear.

⁵⁵ Love, too, would set a feast before you on a table covered with a spotless cloth, set in a quiet garden where no sound but singing and a softly joyous whispering is ever heard. This is a feast which honors your holy relationship and at which everyone is welcomed as an honored guest. And in a holy instant, grace is said by everyone together as they join in gentleness before the table of communion. And I will join you there, as long ago I promised and promise still. For in your new relationship am I made welcome. And where I am made welcome, there I am.

⁵⁶ I am made welcome in the state of grace, which means you have at last forgiven me. For I became the symbol of your sin, and so I had to die instead of you. To the ego sin means death, and so Atonement is achieved through murder. Salvation is looked upon as a way by which the SonDaughter of God was killed instead of you.

⁵⁷ Yet would I offer you my body, you whom I love, knowing its littleness? Or would I teach that bodies cannot keep us apart? Mine was no greater value than yours; no better means for communication of salvation, but not its Source. No one can die for anyone, and death does not atone for sin. Yet you can live to show it is not real. The body does appear to be the symbol of sin while you believe that it can get you what you want. While you believe that it can give you pleasure, you will also believe that it can bring you pain.

⁵⁸ To think you could be satisfied and happy with so little is to hurt yourself, and to limit the happiness that you would have calls upon pain to fill your meager store and make your lives complete. This is completion, as the ego sees it. For guilt creeps in where happiness has been removed and substitutes for it. Communion is another kind of completion which goes beyond guilt because it goes beyond the body.

V. Obstacles to Peace

b. The Second Obstacle: The Belief the Body is Valuable for What it Offers

⁵⁹ We said that peace must first surmount the obstacle of your desire to get rid of it. Where the attraction of guilt holds sway, peace is not wanted. The second obstacle that peace must flow across, and closely related to the first, is the belief that the body is valuable for what it offers. For here is the attraction of guilt made manifest in the body and seen in it.

⁶⁰ This [is] the value that you think peace would rob you of. This is what you believe that it would dispossess and leave you homeless. And it is this for which you would deny a home to peace. This "sacrifice" you feel to be too great to make, too much to ask of you.

⁶¹ Is it a sacrifice or a release? What has the body really given you that justifies your strange belief that in it lies salvation? Do you not see that this is the belief in death? Here is the focus of the perception of Atonement as murder. Here is the source of the idea that love is fear.

The Holy Spirit's messengers are sent far beyond the body, calling the mind to join in holy communion and be at peace. Such is the message that I gave them for you.

⁶² It is only the messengers of fear that see the body, for they look for what can suffer. Is it a sacrifice to be removed from what can suffer? The Holy Spirit does not demand you sacrifice the hope of the body's pleasure; it has no hope of pleasure. But neither can it bring you fear of pain. Pain is the only "sacrifice" the Holy Spirit asks, and this She would remove.

⁶³ Peace is extended from you only to the eternal, and it reaches out from the eternal in you. It flows across all else. The second obstacle is no more solid than the first. For you will neither to get rid of peace nor limit it. What are these obstacles which you would interpose between peace and its going forth but barriers you place between your will and its accomplishment? You want communion, not the feast of fear. You want salvation, not the pain of guilt. And you want your FatherMother, not a little mound of clay, to be your home. In your holy relationship is your Father'sMother's SonDaughter. Heshe has not lost communion with HimHer nor with himherself. When you agreed to join each other, you acknowledged this is so. This has no cost, but it has release from cost.

⁶⁴ You have paid very dearly for your illusions, and nothing you have paid for brought you peace. Are you not glad that the God Realm cannot be sacrificed, and sacrifice cannot be asked of you? There is no obstacle which you can place before our union, for in your holy relationship, I am there already. We will surmount all obstacles together, for we stand within the gates and not outside. How easily the gates are opened from within to let peace through to bless the tired world! Can it be difficult for us to walk past barriers together when you have joined the limitless? The end of guilt is in your hands to give. Would you stop now to look for guilt in each other?

⁶⁵ Let me be to you the symbol of the end of guilt, and look upon each other as you would look on me. Forgive me all the sins you think the SonDaughter of God committed. And in the light of your forgiveness, heshe will remember who heshe is and forget what never was. I ask for your forgiveness, for if you are guilty, so must I be. But if I surmounted guilt and overcame the world, you were with me. Would you see in me the symbol of guilt or of the end of guilt, remembering that what I signify to you, you see within yourself?

⁶⁶ From your holy relationship truth proclaims the truth, and love looks on itself. Salvation flows from deep within the home you offered to my FatherMother and to me. And we are there together in the quiet communion in which the FatherMother and the SonDaughter are joined. Oh come ye faithful to the holy union of the FatherMother and SonDaughter in you! And keep you not apart from what is offered you in gratitude for giving peace its home in the God Realm. Send forth to all the world the joyous message of the end of guilt, and all the world will answer. Think of your happiness as everyone offers you witness of the end of sin and shows you that its power is gone forever. Where can guilt be, when the belief in sin is gone? And where is death, when its great advocate is heard no more?

⁶⁷ Forgive me your illusions and release me from punishment for what I have not done. So will you learn the freedom that I taught by teaching freedom to each other and so releasing me. I am within your holy relationship, yet you would imprison me behind the obstacles you raise to freedom and bar my way to you. Yet it is not possible to keep away One Who is there already. And in HimHer it is possible that our communion, where we are joined already, will be the focus of the new perception that will bring light to all the world, contained in you.

Pleasure and Pain

⁶⁸ Your little part is but to give the Holy Spirit the whole idea of sacrifice. And to accept the peace She gave instead, without the limits which would hold its extension back and so would limit your awareness of it. For what She gives must be extended if you would have its limitless power and use it for the SonDaughter of God's release. It is not this you would be rid of, and having it you cannot limit it. If peace is homeless, so are you and so am I. And HeShe Who is our home is homeless with us. Is this your will? Would you forever be a wanderer in search of peace? Would you invest your hope of peace and happiness in what must fail?

⁶⁹ Faith in the eternal is always justified, for the eternal is forever kind, infinite in its patience, and wholly loving. It will accept you wholly and give you peace. Yet it can unite only with what already is at peace in you, immortal as itself. The body can bring you neither peace nor turmoil; neither pain nor joy. It is a means and not an end. It has no purpose of itself, but only what is given to it. The body will seem to be whatever is the means for reaching the goal that you assign to it. Only the mind can set a purpose, and only mind can see the means for its accomplishment and justify its use. Peace and guilt are both conditions of the mind to be attained. And these conditions are the home of the emotion which called them forth and therefore is compatible with them. But think you which it is that is compatible with you.

⁷⁰ Here is your choice, and it is free. But all that lies in it will come with it, and what you think you are can never be apart from it. The body is the great seeming betrayer of faith. In it lies disillusionment and the seeds of faithlessness, but only if you ask of it what it cannot give. Can your mistake be reasonable grounds for depression and disillusionment and for retaliative attack on what you think has failed you? Use not your error as the justification for your faithlessness. You have not sinned, but you have been mistaken in what is faithful. And the correction of your mistake will give you grounds for faith.

⁷¹ It is impossible to seek for pleasure through the body and not find pain. It is essential that this relationship be understood, for it is one the ego sees as proof of sin. It is not really punitive at all. It is but the inevitable result of equating yourself with the body, which is the invitation to pain. For it invites fear to enter and become your purpose. The attraction of guilt must enter with it, and whatever fear directs the body to do is therefore painful. It will share the pain of all illusions, and the illusion of pleasure will be the same as pain.

⁷² Is not this inevitable? Under fear's orders, the body will pursue guilt, serving its master or mistress whose attraction to guilt maintains the whole illusion of its existence. This, then, is the attraction of pain. Ruled by this perception, the body becomes the servant of pain, seeking it dutifully and obeying the idea that pain is pleasure. It is this idea that underlies all of the ego's heavy investment in the body. And it is this insane relationship which it keeps hidden and yet feeds upon. To you it teaches that the body's pleasure is happiness. Yet to itself it whispers, "It is death."

⁷³ Why should the body be anything to you? Certainly what it is made of is not precious. And just as certainly, it has no feeling. It transmits to you the feelings that you want. Like any communication medium, the body receives and sends the messages that it is given. It has no feeling for them. All of the feeling with which they are invested is given by the sender and the receiver. The ego and the Holy Spirit both recognize this, and both also recognize that here the sender and receiver are the same. The Holy Spirit tells you this with joy. The ego hides it, for it would keep you unaware of it. Who would send messages of hatred and attack if he or she but understood he or she sends them to himself? Who would accuse, make guilty, and condemn himself or herself?

⁷⁴ The ego's messages are always sent away from you in the belief that for your message of attack and guilt will someone other than yourself suffer. And even if you suffer, yet someone else will suffer more. The great deceiver recognizes that this is not so, but as the "enemy" of peace, it urges you to send out all your messages of hate and free yourself. And to convince you this is possible, it bids the body search for pain in attack upon another, calling it pleasure and offering it to you as freedom from attack.

⁷⁵ Hear not its madness, and believe not the impossible is true. Forget not that the ego has dedicated the body to the goal of sin and places in it all its faith that this can be accomplished. Its sad disciples chant the body's praise continually, in solemn celebration of the ego's rule. Not one but must believe that yielding to the attraction of guilt is the escape from pain. Not one but must regard the body as himself or herself, without which he or she would die, and yet within which is his or her death equally inevitable.

⁷⁶ It is not given to the ego's disciples to realize that they have dedicated themselves to death. Freedom is offered them, but they have not accepted it, and what is offered must also be received to be truly given. For the Holy Spirit, too, is a communication medium, receiving from the FatherMother and offering Her messages unto the SonDaughter. Like the ego, the Holy Spirit is both the sender and the receiver. For what is sent through Her returns to Her, seeking itself along the way and finding what it seeks. So does the ego find the death it seeks, returning it to you.

V. Obstacles to Peace

c. The Third Obstacle: The Attraction of Death

⁷⁷ To you in whose special relationship the Holy Spirit entered, it is given to release and be released from the dedication to death. For it was offered you, and you accepted. Yet you must learn still more about this strange devotion, for it contains the third of the obstacles which peace must flow across. No one can die unless he or she chooses death. What seems to be the fear of death is really its attraction. Guilt, too, is feared and fearful. Yet it could have no hold at all except on those who are attracted to it and seek it out. And so it is with death. Made by the ego, its dark shadow falls across all living things because the ego is the "enemy" of life.

⁷⁸ And yet a shadow cannot kill. What is a shadow to the living? They but walk past, and it is gone. But what of those whose dedication it is not to live—the black-draped "sinners," the ego's mournful chorus, plodding so heavily away from life, dragging their chains and marching in the slow procession which honors their grim master, lord of death? Touch any one of them with the gentle hands of forgiveness and watch the chains fall away along with yours. See him or her throw aside the black robe he or she was wearing to his or her funeral and hear him or her laugh at death. The sentence sin would lay upon him or her he or she can escape through your forgiveness.

⁷⁹ This is no arrogance. It is the Will of God. What is impossible to you who chose HisHer Will as yours? What is death to you? Your dedication is not to death nor to its master or mistress. When you accepted the Holy Spirit's purpose in place of the ego's, you renounced death, exchanging it for life. We know that an idea leaves not its source. And death is the result of the thought we call the ego as surely as life is the result of the Thought of God.

The Incorruptible Body

⁸⁰ From the ego came sin and guilt and death, in opposition to life and innocence and to the Will of God HimHerself. Where can such opposition lie but in the sick minds of the insane, dedicated to madness and set against the peace of the God Realm? One thing is sure—God, Who created and manifested neither sin nor death, wills not that you be bound by them. HeShe knows of neither sin nor its results. The shrouded figures in the funeral procession march not in honor of their CreatorManifestor, Whose Will it is they live. They are not following it; they are opposing it.

⁸¹ And what is the black-draped body they would bury? A body which they dedicated to death, a symbol of corruption, a sacrifice to sin, offered to sin to feed upon and keep itself alive—a thing condemned, damned by its maker, and lamented by every mourner who looks upon it as himself or herself. You who believe you have condemned the SonDaughter of God to this are arrogant. But you who would release himher are but honoring the Will of hisher CreatorManifestor. The arrogance of sin, the pride of guilt, the sepulcher of separation—all are part of your unrecognized dedication to death. The glitter of guilt you laid upon the body would kill it. For what the ego loves, it kills for its obedience. But what obeys it not, it cannot kill.

⁸² You have another dedication which would keep the body incorruptible and perfect as long as it is useful for your holy purpose. The body no more dies than it can feel. It does nothing. Of itself, it is neither corruptible nor incorruptible. It is nothing. It is the result of a tiny mad idea of corruption which can be corrected. For God has answered this insane idea with HisHer own, an Answer which left HimHer not and therefore brings the CreatorManifestor to the awareness of every mind which heard HisHer Answer and accepted it.

⁸³ You who are dedicated to the incorruptible have been given through your acceptance the power to release from corruption. What better way to teach the first and fundamental principle in a course on miracles than by showing you the one which seems to be the hardest can be accomplished first? The body can but serve your purpose. As you look upon it, so will it seem to be. Death, were it true, would be the final and complete disruption of communication which is the ego's goal.

⁸⁴ Those who fear death see not how often and how loudly they call to it and bid it come to save them from communication. For death is seen as safety, the great dark savior or savioress from the light of truth, the answer to the Answer, the silencer of the Voice that speaks for God. Yet the retreat to death is not the end of conflict. Only God's Answer is its end. The obstacle of your seeming love for death that peace must flow across seems to be very great. For in it lies hidden all the ego's secrets, all its strange devices for deception, all its sick ideas and weird imaginings. Here is the final end of union, the triumph of the ego's making over manifested creation, the victory of lifelessness on Life Itself.

⁸⁵ Under the dusty edge of its distorted world, the ego would lay the SonDaughter of God, slain by its orders, proof in hisher decay that God HimHerself is powerless before the ego's might, unable to protect the life that HeShe created and manifested against the ego's savage wish to kill. My brothers and sisters, children of our FatherMother, this is a dream of death. There is no funeral, no dark altars, no grim commandments nor twisted rituals of condemnation to which the body leads you. Ask not release of it. But free it from the merciless and unrelenting orders you laid upon it and forgive it what you ordered it to do. In its exaltation you commanded it to die, for only death could conquer life. And what but insanity could look upon the defeat of God and think it real?

⁸⁶ The fear of death will go as its appeal is yielded to love's real attraction. The end of sin, which nestles quietly in the safety of your relationship, protected by your union, ready to grow into a mighty force for God, is very near. The infancy of salvation is carefully guarded by love, preserved from every thought that would attack it and quietly made ready to fulfill the mighty task for which it was given you. Your newborn purpose is nursed by angels, cherished by the Holy Spirit, and protected by God HimHerself. It needs not your protection; it is yours. For it is deathless, and within it lies the end of death.

⁸⁷ What danger can assail the wholly innocent? What can attack the guiltless? What fear can enter and disturb the peace of sinlessness? What has been given you, even in its infancy, is in full communication with God and you. In its tiny hands, it holds in perfect safety every miracle you will perform, held out to you. The miracle of life is ageless, born in time but nourished in eternity. Behold this infant to whom you gave a resting-place by your forgiveness of each other, and see in it the Will of God. Here is the babe of Bethlehem reborn. And everyone who gives him shelter will follow him, not to the cross, but to the Resurrection and the Life.

⁸⁸ When anything seems to you to be a source of fear, when any situation strikes you with terror and makes your body tremble and the cold sweat of fear comes over it, remember it is always for one reason—the ego has perceived it as a symbol of fear, a sign of sin and death. Remember then that neither sign nor symbol should be confused with source, for they must stand for something other than themselves. Their meaning cannot lie in them but must be sought in what they represent. And they may thus mean everything or nothing, according to the truth or falsity of the idea which they reflect. Confronted with such seeming uncertainty of meaning, judge it not. Remember the holy Presence of the One given to you to be the Source of judgment. Give it to Her to judge for you, and say:

⁸⁹ *Take this from me and look upon it, judging it for me.
Let me not see it as a sign of sin and death
Nor use it for destruction.
Teach me how not to make of it an obstacle to peace,
But let You use it for us to facilitate its coming.*

V. Obstacles to Peace

d. The Fourth Obstacle: The Fear of God

⁹⁰ What would you see without the fear of death? What would you feel and think if death held no attraction for you? Very simply, you would remember your FatherMother. The CreatorManifestor of life, the Source of everything that lives, the FatherMother of the universe and of the universe of universes and of everything that lies even beyond them would you remember. And as this memory rises in your mind, peace must still surmount a final obstacle after which is salvation completed and the SonDaughter of God entirely restored to sanity. For here your world does end.

⁹¹ The fourth obstacle to be surmounted hangs like a heavy veil before the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness. Yet as Her face rises beyond it, shining with joy because She is in Her Father'sMother's Love, peace will lightly brush the veil aside and run to meet Her and to join with Her at last. For this dark veil, which seems to make the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness Herself like to a leper's and the bright rays of Her Father'sMother's love which light HisHer face with glory appear as streams of blood, fades in the blazing light beyond it when the fear of death is gone.

⁹² This is the darkest veil, upheld by the belief in death and protected by its attraction. The dedication to death and to its sovereignty is but the solemn vow, the promise made in secret to the ego never to lift this veil, not to approach it nor even to suspect that it is there. This is the secret bargain made with the ego to keep what lies beyond the veil forever blotted out and unremembered. Here is your promise never to allow union to call you out of separation; the great amnesia in which the memory of God seems quite forgotten; the cleavage of your Self from you—the fear of God, the final step in your dissociation.

⁹³ See how the belief in death would seem to "save" you. For if this is gone, what can you fear but life? It is the attraction of death that makes life seem to be ugly, cruel, and tyrannical. You are no more afraid of death than of the ego. These are your chosen friends. For in your secret alliance with them, you have agreed never to let the fear of God be lifted so you could look upon the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and join Her in Her FatherMother.

⁹⁴ Every obstacle that peace must flow across is surmounted in just the same way; the fear that raised it yields to the love beneath, and so the fear is gone. And so it is with this. The desire to get rid of peace and drive the Holy Spirit from you fades in the presence of the quiet recognition that you love Her. The exaltation of the body is given up in favor of the Spirit, which you love as you could never love the body. And the appeal of death is lost forever as love's attraction stirs and calls to you. From beyond each of the obstacles to love, Love Itself has called, and each has been surmounted by the power of the attraction of what lies beyond. Your wanting fear seemed to be holding them in place. Yet when you heard the voice of love beyond them, you answered and they disappeared.

⁹⁵ And now you stand in terror before what you swore never to look upon. Your eyes look down, remembering your promise to your "friends." The "loveliness" of sin, the delicate appeal of guilt, the "holy" waxen image of death, and the fear of vengeance of the ego you swore in blood not to desert, all rise and bid you not to raise your eyes. For you realize that if you look on this and let the veil be lifted, they will be gone forever. All of your "friends," your "protectors," and your "home" will vanish. Nothing that you remember now will you remember.

⁹⁶ It seems to you the world will utterly abandon you if you but raise your eyes. Yet all that will occur is you will leave the world forever. This is the reestablishment of your will. Look upon it open-eyed and you will nevermore believe that you are at the mercy of things beyond you, forces you cannot control, and thoughts that come to you against your will. It is your will to look on this. No mad desire, no trivial impulse to forget again, no stab of fear, nor the cold sweat of seeming death can stand against your will. For what attracts you from beyond the veil is also deep within you, unseparated from it and completely one.

The Lifting of the Veil

⁹⁷ Forget not that you came this far together. And it was surely not the ego that led you here. No obstacle to peace can be surmounted through its help. It does not open up its secrets and bid you look on them and go beyond them. It would not have you see its weakness and learn it has no power to keep you from the truth. The Guide Who brought you here remains with you, and when you raise your eyes, you will be ready to look on terror with no fear at all. But first lift up your eyes and look upon each other in innocence born of complete forgiveness of each other's illusions and through the eyes of faith, which sees them not.

⁹⁸ No one can look upon the fear of God unterrified unless he or she has accepted the Atonement and learned illusions are not real. No one can stand before this obstacle alone, for he or she could not have reached thus far unless his or her brother or sister walked beside him or her. And no one would dare to look on it without complete forgiveness of his or her brother or sister in his or her heart. Stand you here a while and tremble not. You will be ready. Let us join together in a holy instant, here in this place where the purpose given in a holy instant has led you. And let us join in faith that She Who brought us here together will offer you the innocence you need and that you will accept it for my love and Hers.

⁹⁹ Nor is it possible to look on this too soon. This is the place to which everyone must come when he or she is ready. Once he or she has found his or her brother or sister, he or she is ready. Yet merely to reach the place is not enough. A journey without a purpose is still meaningless, and even when it is over, it seems to make no sense. How can you know that it is over unless you realize its purpose is accomplished? Here, with the journey's end before you, you see its purpose. And it is here you choose whether to look upon it or wander on, only to return and make the choice again.

¹⁰⁰ To look upon the fear of God does need some preparation. Only the sane can look on stark insanity and raving madness with pity and compassion but not with fear. For only if they share in it does it seem fearful, and you do share in it until you look upon each other with perfect faith and love and tenderness. Before complete forgiveness, you still stand unforgiving. You are afraid of God because you fear each other. Those you do not forgive you fear. And no one reaches love with fear beside him or her.

¹⁰¹ This brother or sister who stands beside you still seems to be a stranger. You do not know him, and your interpretation of him or her is very fearful. And you attack him or her still, to keep what seems to be yourself unharmed. Yet in his or her hands is your salvation. You see his or her madness, which you hate because you share it. And all the pity and forgiveness that would heal it gives way to fear. Brothers, you need forgiveness of each other, for you will share in madness or in the God Realm together. And you will raise your eyes in faith together or not at all.

¹⁰² Beside each of you is one who offers you the chalice of Atonement, for the Holy Spirit is in him or her. Would you hold his or her sins against him or her or accept his or her gift to you? Is this giver of salvation your friend or enemy? Choose which he or she is, remembering that you will receive of him or her according to your choice. He or she has in him or her the power to forgive your sins, as you for him or her. Neither can give it to himself or herself alone. And yet your savior or savior stands beside each one. Let him or her be what he or she is and seek not to make of love an enemy.

¹⁰³ Behold your Friend, the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness Who stands beside you. How holy and how beautiful She is! You thought he or she sinned because you cast the veil of sin upon him or her to hide his or her loveliness. Yet still he or she holds forgiveness out to you to share his or her holiness. This "enemy," this "stranger" still offers you salvation as his or her Friend. The "enemies" of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, the worshipers of sin, know not Whom they attack. This is your brother or sister, crucified by sin, and waiting for release from pain. Would you not offer him or her forgiveness, when only he or she can offer it to you? For his or her redemption, he or she will give you yours as surely as God created and manifested every living thing and loves it. And he or she will give it truly, for it will be both offered and received.

¹⁰⁴ There is no grace of the God Realm that you cannot offer to each other and receive from your most holy Friend. Let him or her withhold it not, for by receiving it you offer it to him or her. For he or she will receive of you what you received of him or her. Redemption has been given you to give each other, and thus receive it. Whom you forgive is free, and what you give you share. Forgive the sins your brother or sister thinks he or she has committed and all the guilt you think you see in him or her.

¹⁰⁵ Here is the holy place of resurrection to which we come again; to which we will return until redemption is accomplished and received. Think who your brother or sister is before you would condemn him or her. And offer thanks to God that he or she is holy and has been given the gift of holiness for you. Join him or her in gladness and remove all trace of guilt from his or her disturbed and tortured mind. Help him or her to lift the heavy burden of sin you laid upon him or her and he or she accepted as his or her own, and toss it lightly and with happy laughter away from him or her. Press it not like thorns against his or her brow, nor nail him or her to it unredeemed and hopeless.

¹⁰⁶ Give each other faith, for faith and hope and mercy are yours to give. Into the hands that give the gift is given. Look on your brother or sister, and see in him or her the gift of God you would receive. It is almost Easter, the time of resurrection. Let us give redemption to each other and share in it that we may rise as one in resurrection and not separate in death. Behold the gift of freedom that I gave the Holy Spirit for both of you. And be you free together, as you offer to the Holy Spirit this same gift. And giving it, receive it of Her in return for what you gave. She leadeth you and me together that we might meet here in this holy place and make the same decision.

¹⁰⁷ Free your brother or sister here, as I freed you. Give him or her the self-same gift, nor look upon him or her with condemnation of any kind. See him or her as guiltless as I look on you, and overlook the sins he or she thinks he or she sees within himself or herself. Offer each other freedom and complete release from sin here in the garden of seeming agony and death. So will we prepare together the way unto the resurrection of God's SonDaughter and let himher rise again to glad remembrance of hisher FatherMother, Who knows no sin, no death, but only life eternal.

¹⁰⁸ Together we will disappear into the Presence beyond the veil, not to be lost, but found; not to be seen, but known. And knowing, nothing in the plan God has established for salvation will be left undone. This is the journey's purpose, without which is the journey meaningless. Here is the peace of God, given to you eternally by HimHer. Here is the rest and quiet that you seek, the reason for the journey from its beginning. The God Realm is the gift you owe each other, the debt of gratitude you offer to the SonDaughter of God in thanks for what heshe is and what hisher FatherMother created and manifested himher to be.

¹⁰⁹ Think carefully how you would look upon the giver of this gift, for as you look on him or her, so will the gift itself appear to be. As he or she is seen as either the giver of guilt or of salvation, so will his or her offering be seen and so received. The crucified give pain because they are in pain. But the redeemed give joy because they have been healed of pain. Everyone gives as he or she receives, but he or she must choose what it will be that he or she receives. And he or she will recognize his or her choice by what he or she gives and what is given him or her. Nor is it given anything in hell or the God Realm to interfere with his or her decision.

¹¹⁰ You came this far because the journey was your choice. And no one undertakes to do what he or she believes is meaningless. What you had faith in still is faithful and watches over you in faith so gentle yet so strong that it would lift you far beyond the veil and place the SonDaughter of God safely within the sure protection of hiser FatherMother. Here is the only purpose that gives this world and the long journey through this world whatever meaning lies in them. Beyond this they are meaningless. You stand together, still without conviction they have a purpose. Yet it is given you to see this purpose in your holy Friend and recognize it is your own.

Chapter Twenty:

The Promise of the Resurrection

I. Introduction

¹ This is Palm Sunday, the celebration of victory and the acceptance of the truth. Let us not spend this holy week brooding on the crucifixion of God's SonDaughter, but happily in the celebration of hiser release. For Easter is the sign of peace, not pain. A slain the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has no meaning. But a risen Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness becomes the symbol of the SonDaughter of God's forgiveness of himherself; the sign heshe looks upon himherself as healed and whole.

II. Holy Week

² This week begins with palms and ends with lilies, the white and holy sign the SonDaughter of God is innocent. Let no dark sign of crucifixion intervene between the journey and its purpose; between the acceptance of the truth and its expression. This week we celebrate life, not death. And we honor the perfect purity of the SonDaughter of God and not hiser sins. Offer each other the gift of lilies, not the crown of thorns; the gift of love and not the "gift" of fear. You stand beside each other, thorns in one hand and lilies in the other, uncertain which to give. Join now with me and throw away the thorns, offering the lilies to replace them. This Easter, I would have the gift of your forgiveness offered by you to me and returned by us to you.

³ We cannot be united in crucifixion and in death. Nor can the resurrection be complete till your forgiveness rests on the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, along with mine. A week is short, and yet this holy week is the symbol of the whole journey the Son/Daughter of God has undertaken. Hese started with the sign of victory the promise of the resurrection already given him/her. Let him/her not wander into the temptation of crucifixion and delay him/her there. Help him/her to go in peace beyond it, with the light of his/her own innocence lighting his/her way to his/her redemption and release. Hold him/her not back with thorns and nails when his/her redemption is so near. But let the whiteness of your shining gift of lilies speed him/her on his/her way to resurrection.

⁴ Easter is not the celebration of the cost of sin but of its end. If you see glimpses of the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness behind the veil looking between the snow white petals of the lilies you have received and given as your gift, you will behold each other's face and recognize it. I was a stranger and you took me in, not knowing who I was. Yet for your gift of lilies you will know. In your forgiveness of this stranger, alien to you and yet your ancient Friend, lie his/her release and your redemption with him/her. The time of Easter is a time of joy and not of mourning. Look on your risen Friend and celebrate his/her holiness along with me. For Easter is the time of your salvation, along with mine.

III. Thorns and Lilies

⁵ Look upon all the trinkets made to hang upon the body or to cover it or for its use. See all the useless things made for its eyes to see. Think on the many offerings made for its pleasure and remember all these were made to make seem lovely what you hate. Would you employ this hated thing to draw your brother or sister to you and to attract his or her body's eyes? Learn you but offer him or her a crown of thorns, not recognizing it for what it is and trying to justify your own interpretation of its value by his or her acceptance. Yet still the gift proclaims his or her worthlessness to you, as his or her acceptance and delight acknowledges the lack of value he or she places on himself or herself.

⁶ Gifts are not made through bodies if they be truly given and received. For bodies can neither offer nor accept; hold out nor take. Only the mind can value, and only the mind decides on what it would receive and give. And every gift it offers depends on what it wants. It will adorn its chosen home most carefully, making it ready to receive the gifts it wants by offering them to those who come unto its chosen home or those it would attract to it. And there they will exchange their gifts, offering and receiving what their minds judge to be worthy of them.

⁷ Each gift is an evaluation of the receiver and the giver. No one but sees in his or her chosen home an altar to himself or herself. No one but seeks to draw to it the worshipers of what he or she placed upon it, making it worthy of their devotion. And each has set a light upon his or her altar, that they may see what he or she has placed upon it and take it for their own. Here is the value that you lay upon your brother or sister and on yourself. Here is your gift to both; your judgment on the SonDaughter of God for what he or she is. Forget not that it is your savior or savior to whom the gift is offered. Offer him or her thorns and you are crucified. Offer him or her lilies and it is yourself you free.

⁸ I have great need for lilies, for the SonDaughter of God has not forgiven me. And can I offer himher forgiveness when heshe offers thorns to me? For heshe who offers thorns to anyone is against me still, and who is whole without himher? Be you hisher friend for me that I may be forgiven and you may look upon the SonDaughter of God as whole. But look you first upon the altar in your chosen home and see what you have laid upon it to offer me. If it be thorns whose points gleam sharply in a blood-red light, the body is your chosen home, and it is separation that you offer me. And yet the thorns are gone. Look you still closer at them now, and you will see your altar is no longer what it was.

⁹ You look still with the body's eyes, and they can see but thorns. Yet you have asked for and received another sight. Those who accept the Holy Spirit's purpose as their own share also Her vision. And what enables Her to see Her purpose shine forth from every altar now is yours as well as Hers. She sees no strangers, only dearly loved and loving friends. She sees no thorns, but only lilies, gleaming in the gentle glow of peace that shines on everything She looks upon and loves.

¹⁰ This Easter look with different eyes upon each other. You have forgiven me. And yet I cannot use your gift of lilies while you see them not. Nor can you use what I have given unless you share it. The Holy Spirit's vision is no idle gift, no plaything to be tossed about a while and laid aside. Listen and hear this carefully, nor think it but a dream—a careless thought to play with or a toy you would pick up from time to time and then put by. For if you do, so will it be to you.

¹¹ You have the vision now to look past all illusions. It has been given you to see no thorns, no strangers, and no obstacles to peace. The fear of God is nothing to you now. Who is afraid to look upon illusions, knowing his or her savior or savior stands beside him or her? With him or her, your vision has become the greatest power for the undoing of illusion that God HimHerself could give. For what God gave the Holy Spirit, you have received. The SonDaughter of God looks unto you for his or her release. For you have asked for and been given the strength to look upon this final obstacle and see no thorns nor nails to crucify the SonDaughter of God and crown himher king of death. Your chosen home is on the other side, beyond the veil. It has been carefully prepared for you, and it is ready to receive you now. You will not see it with the body's eyes. Yet all you need you have.

¹² Your home has called to you since time began, nor have you ever failed entirely to hear. You heard but knew not how to look nor where. And now you know. In you the knowledge lies, ready to be unveiled and freed from all the terror that kept it hidden. There is no fear in love. The song of Easter is the glad refrain the SonDaughter of God was never crucified. Let us lift up our eyes together, not in fear, but faith. And there will be no fear in us, for in our vision will be no illusions—only a pathway to the open door of the God Realm, the home we share in quietness, and where we live in gentleness and peace as one together.

¹³ Would you not have your holy brother or sister lead you there? His or her innocence will light your way, offering you its guiding light and sure protection, and shining from the holy altar within him or her where you laid the lilies of forgiveness. Let him or her be to you the savior or savioress from illusions, and look on him or her with the new vision that looks upon the lilies and brings you joy. We go beyond the veil of fear, lighting each other's way. The holiness that leads us is within us, as is our home. So will we find what we were meant to find by Her Who leads us.

¹⁴ This is the way to the God Realm and to the peace of Easter, in which we join in glad awareness that the SonDaughter of God is risen from the past and has awakened to the present. Now is heshe free, unlimited in hisher communion with all that is within himher. Now are the lilies of hisher innocence untouched by guilt and perfectly protected from the cold chill of fear and withering blight of sin alike. Your gift has saved himher from the thorns and nails, and hisher strong arm is free to guide you safely through them and beyond. Walk with himher now rejoicing, for the savior or savioress from illusions has come to greet you and lead you home with himher.

¹⁵ Here is your savior or savioress and your friend, released from crucifixion through your vision and free to lead you now where heshe would be. Heshe will not leave you nor forsake the savior or savioress from hisher pain. And gladly will you walk the way of innocence together, singing as you behold the open door of the God Realm, and recognize the home that called to you. Give joyously to one another the freedom and the strength to lead you there. And come before each other's holy altar where the strength and freedom wait, to offer and receive the bright awareness that leads you home. The lamp is lit in both of you for one another. And by the hands that gave it to each other shall both of you be led past fear to love.

IV. Sin as an Adjustment

¹⁶ The belief in sin is an adjustment. And an adjustment is a change; a shift in perception or a belief that what was so before has been made different. Every adjustment is therefore a distortion and calls upon defenses to uphold it against reality. Knowledge requires no adjustment and in fact is lost if any shift or change is undertaken. For this reduces it at once to mere perception—a way of looking in which certainty is lost and doubt has entered. To this impaired condition are adjustments necessary because they are not true. Who need adjust to truth, which calls on only what he or she is, to understand?

¹⁷ Adjustments of any kind are of the ego. For it is the ego's fixed belief that all relationships depend upon adjustments to make of them what it would have them be. Direct relationships, in which there are no interferences, are always seen as dangerous. The ego is the self-appointed mediator of all relationships, making whatever adjustments it deems necessary and interposing them between those who would meet to keep them separate and prevent their union. It is this studied interference which makes it difficult for you to recognize your holy relationship for what it is.

¹⁸ The holy do not interfere with truth. They are not afraid of it, for it is within the truth they recognized their holiness and rejoiced at what they saw. They looked on it directly, without attempting to adjust themselves to it or it to them. And so they saw that it was in them, not deciding first where they would have it be. Their looking merely asked a question, and it was what they saw that answered them. You make the world and then adjust to it, and it to you. Nor is there any difference between yourself and it in your perception, which made them both.

¹⁹ A simple question yet remains and needs an answer. Do you like what you have made—a world of murder and attack through which you thread your timid way through constant dangers, alone and frightened, hoping at most that death will wait a little longer before it overtakes you and you disappear? You made this up. It is a picture of what you think you are, of how you see yourself. A murderer is frightened, and those who kill fear death. All these are but the fearful thoughts of those who would adjust themselves to a world made fearful by their adjustments. And they look out in sorrow from what is sad within and see the sadness there.

²⁰ Have you not wondered what the world is really like; how it would look through happy eyes? The world you see is but a judgment on yourself. It is not there at all. Yet judgment lays a sentence on it, justifies it, and makes it real. Such is the world you see—a judgment on yourself and made by you. This sickly picture of yourself is carefully preserved by the ego, whose image it is and which it loves, and placed outside you in the world. And to this world must you adjust, as long as you believe this picture is outside and has you at its mercy. This world is merciless, and were it outside you, you should indeed be fearful. Yet it was you who made it merciless, and now if mercilessness seems to look back at you, it can be corrected.

²¹ Who in a holy relationship can long remain unholy? The world the holy see is one with them, just as the world the ego looks upon is like itself. The world the holy see is beautiful because they see their innocence in it. They did not tell it what it was; they did not make adjustments to fit their orders. They gently questioned it and whispered, "What are you?" And She Who watches over all perception answered. Take not the judgment of the world as answer to the question, "What am I?"

²² The world believes in sin, but the belief that made it as you see it is not outside you. Seek not to make the SonDaughter of God adjust to hiser insanity. There is a stranger in himher who wandered carelessly into the home of truth, and who will wander off. He or she came without a purpose, but he or she will not remain before the shining light the Holy Spirit offered and you accepted. For there the stranger is made homeless and you are welcome.

²³ Ask not this transient stranger, "What am I?" He or she is the only thing in all the universe that does not know. Yet it is he or she you asked, and it is to his or her answer that you would adjust. This one wild thought, fierce in its arrogance and yet so tiny and so meaningless it slips unnoticed through the universe of truth, becomes your guide. To it you turn to ask the meaning of the universe. And of the one blind thing in all the seeing universe of truth you ask, "How shall I look upon the SonDaughter of God?"

²⁴ Does one ask judgment of what is totally bereft of judgment? And if you have, would you believe the answer and adjust to it as if it were the truth? The world you look on is the answer that it gave you, and you have given it power to adjust the world to make its answer true. You asked this puff of madness for the meaning of your unholy relationship and adjusted it according to its insane answer. How happy did it make you? Did you meet with joy to bless the SonDaughter of God and give him or her thanks for all the happiness which he or she held out to you? Did you recognize each other as the eternal gift of God to you? Did you see the holiness that shone in both of you to bless the other? That is the purpose of your holy relationship. Ask not the means of its attainment of the one thing that still would have it be unholy. Give it no power to adjust the means and end.

²⁵ Prisoners bound with heavy chains for years, starved and emaciated, weak and exhausted and with eyes so long cast down in darkness they remember not the light, do not leap up in joy the instant they are made free. It takes a while for them to understand what freedom is. You groped but feebly in the dust and found each other's hand, uncertain whether to let it go or to take hold on life so long forgotten. Strengthen your hold and raise your eyes unto your strong companion, in whom the meaning of your freedom lies. He or she seemed to be crucified beside you. And yet his or her holiness remained untouched and perfect, and with him or her beside you, you shall this day enter with him or her to Paradise and know the peace of God.

²⁶ Such is my will for both of you and for each of you for one another and for himself or herself. Here there is only holiness and joining without limit. For what is the God Realm but union, direct and perfect, and without the veil of fear upon it? Here are we one, looking with perfect gentleness upon each other and on ourselves. Here all thoughts of any separation between us become impossible. You who were prisoners in separation are now made free in Paradise. And here would I unite with you, our friends, my brothers and sisters, and my Self. Your gift unto each other has given me the certainty our union will be soon.

²⁷ Share, then, this faith with us and know that it is justified. There is no fear in perfect love because it knows no sin and it must look on others as on itself. Looking with charity within, what can it fear without? The innocent see safety, and the pure in heart see God within HisHer SonDaughter and look unto the SonDaughter to lead them to the FatherMother. And where else would they go but where they will to be? Each of you now will lead the other to the FatherMother as surely as God created and manifested HisHer SonDaughter holy and kept himher so. In your brother or sister is the light of God's eternal promise of your immortality. See him or her as sinless, and there can be no fear in you.

V. Entering the Ark

²⁸ Nothing can hurt you unless you give it the power to do so. For you give power as the laws of this world interpret giving—as you give, you lose. It is not up to you to give power at all. Power is of God, given by HimHer and reawakened by the Holy Spirit, Who knows that as you give, you gain. She gives no power to sin, and therefore it has none; nor to its results as this world sees them—sickness and death and misery and pain. These things have not occurred because the Holy Spirit sees them not and gives no power to their seeming source. Thus would She keep you free of them. Being without illusion of what you are, the Holy Spirit merely gives everything to God, Who has already given and received all that is true. The untrue HeShe has neither received nor given.

²⁹ Sin has no place in the God Realm, where its results are alien and can no more enter than can their source. And therein lies your need to see your brother or sister sinless. In him or her is the God Realm. See sin in him or her instead, and the God Realm is lost to you. But see him or her as he or she is, and what is yours shines from him or her to you. Your savior or savioress gives you only love, but what you would receive of him or her is up to you. It lies in him or her to overlook all your mistakes, and therein lies his or her own salvation. And so it is with yours. Salvation is a lesson in giving, as the Holy Spirit interprets it. It is the reawakening of the laws of God in minds that have established other laws and given them power to enforce what God created and manifested not.

³⁰ Your insane laws were made to guarantee that you would make mistakes and give them power over you by accepting their results as your just due. What could this be but madness? And is it this that you would see within your savior or savioress from insanity? He or she is as free from this as you are, and in the freedom that you see in him, you see your own. For this you share. What God has given follows HisHer laws and HisHer alone. Nor is it possible for those who follow them to suffer the results of any other source.

³¹ Those who choose freedom will experience only its results. Their power is of God, and they will give it only to what God has given to share with them. Nothing but this can touch them, for they see only this, sharing their power according to the Will of God. And thus their freedom is established and maintained. It is upheld through all temptation to imprison and to be imprisoned. It is of them who learned of freedom that you should ask what freedom is. Ask not the sparrow how the eagle soars, for those with little wings have not accepted for themselves the power to share with you.

³² The sinless give as they received. See, then, the power of sinlessness within your brother or sister and share with him or her the power of the release from sin you offered him or her. To each who walks this earth in seeming solitude is a savior or savioress given, whose special function here is to release him or her and so to free himself or herself. In the world of separation, each is appointed separately, though they are all the same. Yet those who know that they are all the same need not salvation. And each one finds his or her savior or savioress when he or she is ready to look upon the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and see Her sinless.

³³ The plan is not of you, nor need you be concerned with anything except the part that has been given you to learn. For She Who knows the rest will see to it without your help. But think not that She does not need your part to help Her with the rest. For in your part lies all of it, without which is no part complete, nor is the whole completed without your part. The ark of peace is entered two by two, yet the beginning of another world goes with them. Each holy relationship must enter here to learn its special function in the Holy Spirit's plan, now that it shares Her purpose. And as this purpose is fulfilled, a new world rises in which sin can enter not, and where the SonDaughter of God can enter without fear, and where heshe rests a while to forget imprisonment and to remember freedom. How can heshe enter, to rest and to remember, without you? Except you be there, heshe is not complete. And it is hisher completion that heshe remembers there.

³⁴ This is the purpose given you. Think not that your forgiveness of each other serves but you two alone. For the whole new world rests in the hands of every two who enter here to rest. And as they rest, the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness shines on them, and they remember the laws of God, forgetting all the rest and yearning only to have HisHer laws perfectly fulfilled in them and all their brothers and sisters. Think you when this has been achieved that you will rest without them? You could no more leave one of them outside than I could leave you and forget part of myself.

³⁵ You may wonder how you can be at peace when, while you are in time, there is so much that must be done before the way to peace is open. Perhaps this seems impossible to you. But ask yourself if it is possible that God would have a plan for your salvation that does not work. Once you accept HisHer plan as the one function that you would fulfill, there will be nothing else the Holy Spirit will not arrange for you without your effort.

³⁶ She will go before you making straight your path and leaving in your way no stones to trip on and no obstacles to bar your way. Nothing you need will be denied you. Not one seeming difficulty but will melt away before you reach it. You need take thought for nothing, careless of everything except the only purpose that you would fulfill. As that was given you, so will its fulfillment be. God's guarantee will hold against all obstacles, for it rests on certainty and not contingency. It rests on you. And what can be more certain than a SonDaughter of God?

VI. Heralds of Eternity

³⁷ In this world, God's SonDaughter comes closest to himherself in a holy relationship. There heshe begins to find the certainty hisher FatherMother has in himher. And there heshe finds hisher function of restoring hisher Father'sMother's laws to what was held outside them and finding what was lost. Only in time can anything be lost, and never lost forever. So do the parts of God's SonDaughter gradually join in time, and with each joining is the end of time brought nearer. Each miracle of joining is a mighty herald of eternity. No one who has a single purpose, unified and sure, can be afraid. No one who shares hisher purpose with himher can not be one with himher.

³⁸ Each herald of eternity sings of the end of sin and fear. Each speaks in time of what is far beyond it. Two voices raised together call to the hearts of everyone and let them beat as one. And in that single heart beat is the unity of love proclaimed and given welcome. Peace to your holy relationship, which has the power to hold the unity of the SonDaughter of God together. You give to one another for everyone, and in your gift is everyone made glad. Forget not Who has given you the gifts you give, and through your not forgetting this will you remember Who gave the gifts to Her to give to you.

³⁹ It is impossible to overestimate your brother's or sister's value. Only the ego does this, but all it means is that it wants the other for itself and therefore values him or her too little. What is inestimable clearly cannot be evaluated. Do you recognize the fear that rises from the meaningless attempt to judge what lies so far beyond your judgment you cannot even see it? Judge not what is invisible to you or you will never see it, but wait in patience for its coming. It will be given you to see your brother's or sister's worth when all you want for him or her is peace. And what you want for him or her, you will receive.

⁴⁰ How can you estimate the worth of him or her who offers peace to you? What would you want except his or her offering? His or her worth has been established by his or her FatherMother, and you will recognize it as you receive his or her Father'sMother's gift through him or her. What is in him or her will shine so brightly in your grateful vision that you will merely love him or her and be glad. You will not think to judge him or her, for who would see the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and yet insist that judgment still has meaning? For this insistence is of those who do not see. Vision or judgment is your choice, but never both of these.

⁴¹ Your brother's or sister's body is as little use to you as it is to him or her. When it is used only as the Holy Spirit teaches, it has no function, for minds need not the body to communicate. The sight that sees the body has no use which serves the purpose of a holy relationship. And while you look upon each other thus, the means and end have not been brought in line. Why should it take so the many holy instants to let this be accomplished, when one would do? There is but one. The little breath of eternity that runs through time like golden light is all the same—nothing before it, nothing afterwards.

⁴² You look upon each holy instant as a different point in time. It never changes. All that it ever held or will ever hold is here right now. The past takes nothing from it, and the future will add no more. Here, then, is everything. Here is the loveliness of your relationship, with means and end in perfect harmony already. Here is the perfect faith that you will one day offer to each other already offered you. And here the limitless forgiveness you will give each other already given; the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness you yet will look upon already seen.

⁴³ Can you evaluate the giver of a gift like this? Would you exchange this gift for any other? This gift returns the laws of God to your remembrance. And merely by remembering them, the laws that held you prisoner to pain and death must be forgotten. This is no gift your brother's or sister's body offers you. The veil that hides the gift hides him or her as well. He or she is the gift, and yet he or she knows it not. No more do you. And yet, have faith that She Who sees the gift in both of you will offer and receive it for you both. And through Her vision will you see it, and through Her understanding recognize it and love it as your own.

⁴⁴ Be comforted and feel the Holy Spirit watching over you in love and perfect confidence in what She sees. She knows the SonDaughter of God and shares hiser Father'sMother's certainty the universe rests in hiser gentle hands in safety and in peace. Let us consider now what heshe must learn, to share hiser Father'sMother's confidence in himher. What is heshe, that the CreatorManifestor of the universe should offer it to himher and know it rests in safety? Heshe looks upon himherself not as hiser FatherMother knows himher. And yet it is impossible the confidence of God should be misplaced.

VII. The Temple of the Holy Spirit

⁴⁵ The meaning of the SonDaughter of God lies solely in hiser relationship with hiser CreatorManifestor. If it were elsewhere, it would rest upon contingency, but there is nothing else. And this is wholly loving and forever. Yet has the SonDaughter of God invented an unholy relationship between himher and hiser FatherMother. Hiser real relationship is one of perfect union and unbroken continuity. The one heshe made is partial, self-centered, broken into fragments, and full of fear. The one created and manifested by hiser FatherMother is wholly self-encompassing and self-extending. The one heshe made is wholly self-destructive and self-limiting.

⁴⁶ Nothing can show the contrast better than the experience of both a holy and an unholy relationship. The first is based on love and rests on it, serene and undisturbed. The body does not intrude upon it. Any relationship in which the body enters is based not on love, but on idolatry or idolressatry. Love wishes to be known, completely understood, and shared. It has no secrets; nothing that it would keep apart and hide. It walks in sunlight, open-eyed and calm, in smiling welcome and in sincerity so simple and so obvious it cannot be misunderstood. But idols or idolresses do not share.

⁴⁷ idols or idolresses accept, but never make return. They can be loved, but cannot love. They do not understand what they are offered, and any relationship in which they enter has lost its meaning. They live in secrecy, hating the sunlight and happy in the body's darkness where they can hide and keep their secrets hidden along with them. And they have no relationships, for no one else is welcome there. They smile on no one, and those who smile on them they do not see.

⁴⁸ Love has no darkened temples where mysteries are kept obscure and hidden from the sun. It does not seek for power, but for relationships. The body is the ego's chosen weapon for seeking power through relationships. And its relationships must be unholy, for what they are, it does not even see. It wants them solely for the offerings on which its idols or idolresses thrive. The rest it merely throws away, for all that it could offer is seen as valueless. Homeless, the ego seeks as the many bodies as it can collect to place its idols or idolresses in and so establish them as temples to itself.

⁴⁹ The Holy Spirit's temple is not a body, but a relationship. The body is an isolated speck of darkness; a hidden secret room, a tiny spot of senseless mystery, a meaningless enclosure carefully protected, yet hiding nothing. Here the unholy relationship escapes reality and seeks for crumbs to keep itself alive. Here it would drag its brothers and sisters, holding them here in its idolatry or idolressatry. Here it is "safe," for here love cannot enter. The Holy Spirit does not build Her temples where love can never be. Would She Who sees the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness choose as Her home the only place in all the universe where it can not be seen?

⁵⁰ You cannot make the body the Holy Spirit's temple, and it will never be the seat of love. It is the home of the idolater or dolressater and of love's condemnation. For here is love made fearful and hope abandoned. Even the idols or idolresses that are worshiped here are shrouded in mystery and kept apart from those who worship them. This is the temple dedicated to no relationships and no return. Here is the "mystery" of separation perceived in awe and held in reverence. What God would have not be is here kept "safe" from HimHer. But what you do not realize is what you fear within your brother or sister and would not see in him or her is what makes God seem fearful to you and kept unknown.

⁵¹ idolaters or idolressaters will always be afraid of love, for nothing so severely threatens them as love's approach. Let love draw near them and overlook the body, as it will surely do, and they retreat in fear, feeling the seeming firm foundation of their temple begin to shake and loosen. Brothers and sisters, you tremble with them. Yet what you fear is but the herald of escape. This place of darkness is not your home. Your temple is not threatened. You are idolaters or idolressaters no longer. The Holy Spirit's purpose lies safe in your relationship and not your bodies. You have escaped the body. Where you are the body cannot enter, for the Holy Spirit has set Her temple there.

⁵² There is no order in relationships. They either are or not. An unholy relationship is no relationship. It is a state of isolation which seems to be what it is not. No more than that. The instant that the mad idea of making your relationship with God unholy seemed to be possible, all your relationships were made meaningless. In that unholy instant, time was born and bodies made to house the mad idea and give it the illusion of reality. And so it seemed to have a home that held together for a little while in time and vanished. For what could house this mad idea against reality but for an instant?

⁵³ idols or idolresses must disappear and leave no trace behind their going. The unholy instant of their seeming power is frail as is a snowflake, but without its loveliness. Is this the substitute you want for the eternal blessing of the holy instant and its unlimited beneficence? Is the malevolence of the unholy relationship, so seeming powerful and so bitterly misunderstood and so invested in a false attraction, your preference to the holy instant which offers you peace and understanding? Then lay aside the body and quietly transcend it, rising to welcome what you really want. And from Her holy temple, look you not back on what you have awakened from. For no illusions can attract the minds that have transcended them and left them far behind.

⁵⁴ The holy relationship reflects the true relationship the SonDaughter of God has with hisher FatherMother in reality. The Holy Spirit rests within it in the certainty it will endure forever. Its firm foundation is eternally upheld by truth, and love shines on it with the gentle smile and tender blessing it offers to its own. Here the unholy instant is exchanged in gladness for the holy one of safe return. Here is the way to true relationships held gently open, through which you walk together, leaving the body thankfully behind and resting in the Everlasting Arms. Love's arms are open to receive you and give you peace forever.

⁵⁵ The body is the ego's idol or idolress; the belief in sin made flesh and then projected outward. This produces what seems to be a wall of flesh around the mind, keeping it prisoner in a tiny spot of space and time, beholden unto death and given but an instant in which to sigh and grieve and die in honor of its master or mistress. And this unholy instant seems to be life; an instant of despair, a tiny island of dry sand, bereft of water and set uncertainly upon oblivion. Here does the SonDaughter of God stop briefly by to offer hisher devotion to death's idols or idolresses, and then pass on. And here heshe is more dead than living. Yet it is also here heshe makes hisher choice again between idolatry or idolressatry and love.

⁵⁶ Here it is given himher to choose to spend this instant paying tribute to the body or let himherself be given freedom from it. Here heshe can accept the holy instant, offered himher to replace the unholy one heshe chose before. And here can heshe learn relationships are hisher salvation and not hisher doom. You who are learning this may still be fearful, but you are not immobilized. The holy instant is of greater value now to you than its unholy seeming counterpart, and you have learned you really want but one. This is no time for sadness. Perhaps confusion, but hardly discouragement.

⁵⁷ You have a real relationship, and it has meaning. It is as like your real relationship with God as equal things are like unto each other. idolatry or idolressatry is past and meaningless. Perhaps you fear each other a little yet; perhaps a shadow of the fear of God remains with you. Yet what is that to those who have been given one true relationship beyond the body? Can they be long held back from looking on the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness? And can they long withhold the memory of their relationship with their FatherMother from themselves and keep remembrance of HisHer love apart from their awareness?

VIII. The Consistency of Means and End

⁵⁸ We have said much about discrepancies of means and end and how these must be brought in line before your holy relationship can bring you only joy. But we have also said the means to meet the Holy Spirit's goal will come from the same Source as does Her purpose. Being so simple and direct, this course has nothing in it that is not consistent. The seeming inconsistencies or parts you find more difficult than others are merely indications of areas where means and end are still discrepant. And this produces great discomfort. This need not be. This course requires almost nothing of you. It is impossible to imagine one that asks so little or could offer more.

⁵⁹ The period of discomfort that follows the sudden change in a relationship from sin to holiness should now be almost over. To the extent you still experience it, you are refusing to leave the means to Her Who changed the purpose. You recognize you want the goal. Are you not also willing to accept the means? If you are not, let us admit that you are. Are you not also willing to accept the means? If you are not, let us admit that you are inconsistent. A purpose is attained by means, and if you want a purpose, you must be willing to want the means as well. How can one be sincere and say, "I want this above all else, and yet I do not want to learn the means to get it"?

⁶⁰ To obtain the goal, the Holy Spirit indeed asked little. She asks no more to give the means as well. The means are second to the goal. And when you hesitate, it is because the purpose frightens you, and not the means. Remember this, for otherwise you will make the error of believing the means are difficult. Yet how can they be difficult if they are merely given you? They guarantee the goal, and they are perfectly in line with it. Before we look at them a little closer, remember that if you think they are impossible, your wanting of the purpose has been shaken. For if a goal is possible to reach, the means to do so must be possible as well.

⁶¹ It is impossible to see your brother or sister as sinless and yet to look upon him or her as a body. Is this not perfectly consistent with the goal of holiness? For holiness is merely the result of letting the effects of sin be lifted so what was always true is recognized. To see a sinless body is impossible, for holiness is positive, and the body is merely neutral. It is not sinful, but neither is it sinless. As nothing, which it is, the body cannot meaningfully be invested with attributes of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness or of the ego. Either must be an error, for both would place the attributes where they cannot be. And both must be undone for purposes of truth.

⁶² The body is the means by which the ego tries to make the unholy relationship seem real. The unholy instant is the time of bodies. But the purpose here is sin. It cannot be attained but in illusion, and so the illusion of a brother or sister as a body is quite in keeping with the purpose of unholiness. Because of this consistency, the means remain unquestioned while the end is cherished. Vision adapts to wish, for sight is always secondary to desire. And if you see the body, you have chosen judgment and not vision. For vision, like relationships, has no order. You either see or not.

⁶³ Who sees a brother's or sister's body has laid a judgment on him or her and sees him or her not. He or she does not really see him or her as sinful; he or she does not see him or her at all. In the darkness of sin, he or she is invisible. He or she can but be imagined in the darkness, and it is here that the illusions you hold about him or her are not held up to his or her reality. Here are illusions and reality kept separated. Here are illusions never brought to truth and always hidden from it. And here in darkness is your brother's or sister's reality imagined as a body, in unholy relationships with other bodies, serving the cause of sin an instant before he or she dies.

⁶⁴ There is indeed a difference between this vain imagining and vision. The difference lies not in them, but in their purpose. Both are but means, each one appropriate to the end for which it is employed. Neither can serve the purpose of the other, for each one is a choice of purpose, employed on its behalf. Either is meaningless without the end for which it was intended, nor is it valued as a separate thing apart from the intention. The means seem real because the goal is valued. And judgment has no value unless the goal is sin.

⁶⁵ The body cannot be looked upon except through judgment. To see the body is the sign that you lack vision and have denied the means the Holy Spirit offers you to serve Her purpose. How can a holy relationship achieve its purpose through the means of sin? Judgment you taught yourself; vision is learned from Her Who would undo your teaching. Her vision cannot see the body because it cannot look on sin. And thus it leads you to reality. Your holy brother or sister, sight of whom is your release, is no illusion. Attempt to see him or her not in darkness, for your imaginings about him or her will seem real there. You closed your eyes to shut him or her out. Such was your purpose, and while this purpose seems to have any meaning, the means for its attainment will be evaluated as worth the seeing, and so you will not see.

⁶⁶ Your question should not be, "How can I see my brother or sister without the body?" Ask only, "Do I really wish to see him or her sinless?" And as you ask, forget not that his or her sinlessness is your escape from fear. Salvation is the Holy Spirit's goal. The means is vision. For what the seeing look upon is sinless. No one who loves can judge, and what he or she sees is free of condemnation. And what he or she sees he or she did not make, for it was given him or her to see, as was the vision which made his or her seeing possible.

IX. The Vision of Sinlessness

⁶⁷ Vision will come to you at first in glimpses, but they will be enough to show you what is given you who see your brother or sister sinless.

Truth is restored to you through your desire, as it was lost to you through your desire for something else. Open the holy place which you closed off by valuing the "something else," and what was never lost will quietly return. It has been saved for you. Vision would not be necessary had judgment not been made. Desire now its whole undoing, and it is done for you.

⁶⁸ Do you not want to know your own Identity? Would you not happily exchange your doubts for certainty? Would you not willingly be free of misery and learn again of joy? Your holy relationship offers all this to you. As it was given you, so will be its effects. And as its holy purpose was not made by you, the means by which its happy end is yours is also not of you. Rejoice in what is yours but for the asking and think not that you need make either means or end. All this is given you who would but see your brother or sister sinless. All this is given, waiting on your desire but to receive it. Vision is freely given to those who ask to see.

⁶⁹ Your brother's or sister's sinlessness is given you in shining light, to look on with the Holy Spirit's vision and to rejoice in along with Her. For peace will come to all who ask for it with real desire and sincerity of purpose, shared with the Holy Spirit and at one with Her on what salvation is. Be willing, then, to see your brother or sister sinless that the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness may rise before your vision and give you joy. And place no value on your brother's or sister's body, which holds him or her to illusions of what he or she is. It is his or her desire to see his or her sinlessness, as it is yours. And bless the SonDaughter of God in your relationship, nor see in himher what you have made of himher.

⁷⁰ The Holy Spirit guarantees that what God willed and gave you shall be yours. This is your purpose now, and the vision that makes it yours is ready to be given. You have the vision which enables each one to see the body not. And as you look upon each other, you will see an altar to your FatherMother, holy as the God Realm, glowing with radiant purity and sparkling with the shining lilies you laid upon it. What can you value more than this? Why do you think the body is a better home, a safer shelter for God's SonDaughter? Why would you rather look on it than on the truth? How can the engine of destruction be preferred and chosen to replace the holy home the Holy Spirit offers, where She will dwell with you?

⁷¹ The body is the sign of weakness, vulnerability, and loss of power. Can such a savior or savioress help you? Would you turn in your distress and need for help unto the helpless? Is the pitifully little the perfect choice to call upon for strength? Judgment will seem to make your savior or savioress weak. Yet it is you who need his or her strength. There is no problem, no event or situation, no perplexity that vision will not solve. All is redeemed when looked upon with vision. For this is not your sight, and brings with it the laws beloved of Her Whose sight it is.

⁷² Everything looked upon with vision falls gently into place according to the laws brought to it by Her calm and certain sight. The end for everything She looks upon is always sure. For it will meet HisHer purpose, seen in unadjusted form and suited perfectly to meet it. Destructiveness becomes benign, and sin is turned to blessing under Her gentle gaze. What can the body's eyes perceive, with power to correct? Its eyes adjust to sin, unable to overlook it in any form and seeing it everywhere, in everything. Look through its eyes, and everything will stand condemned before you. All that could save you, you will never see. Your holy relationship, the source of your salvation, will be deprived of meaning, and its most holy purpose bereft of means for its accomplishment.

⁷³ Judgment is but a toy, a whim, the senseless means to play the idle game of death in your imagination. But vision sets all things right, bringing them gently within the kindly sway of the God Realm 's laws. What if you recognized this world is an hallucination? What if you really understood you made it up? What if you realized that those who seem to walk about in it, to sin and die, attack and murder and destroy themselves, are wholly unreal? Could you have faith in what you see if you accepted this? And would you see it?

⁷⁴ Hallucinations disappear when they are recognized for what they are. This is the healing and the remedy. Believe them not, and they are gone. And all you need to do is recognize you did this. Once you accept this simple fact and take unto yourself the power you gave them, you are released from them. One thing is sure—hallucinations serve a purpose, and when that purpose is no longer held, they disappear. Therefore, the question never is whether you want them, but always, do you want the purpose which they serve? This world seems to hold out the many purposes, each different and with different values. Yet they are all the same. Again there is no order but a seeming hierarchy of values.

⁷⁵ Only two purposes are possible. And one is sin, the other holiness. Nothing is in between, and which you choose determines what you see. For what you see is merely how you elect to meet your goal. Hallucinations serve to meet the goal of madness. They are the means by which the outside world, projected from within, adjusts to sin and seems to witness to its reality. It still is true that nothing is without. Yet upon nothing are all projections made. For it is the projection which gives the "nothing" all the meaning that it holds.

⁷⁶ What has no meaning cannot be perceived. And meaning always looks within to find itself and then looks out. All meaning that you give the world outside must thus reflect the sight you saw within; or better, if you saw at all or merely judged against. Vision is the means by which the Holy Spirit translates your nightmares into happy dreams; your wild hallucinations that show you all the fearful outcomes of imagined sin into the calm and reassuring sights with which She would replace them. These gentle sights and sounds are looked on happily and heard with joy. They are Her substitutes for all the terrifying sights and screaming sounds the ego's purpose brought to your horrified awareness. They step away from sin, reminding you that it is not reality which frightens you and that the errors which you made can be corrected.

⁷⁷ When you have looked on what seemed terrifying and seen it change to sights of loveliness and peace; when you have looked on scenes of violence and death and watched them change to quiet views of gardens under open skies, with clear, life-giving water running happily beside them in dancing brooks that never waste away, who need persuade you to accept the gift of vision? And after vision, who is there who could refuse what must come after? Think but an instant just on this—you can behold the holiness God gave HisHer SonDaughter. And never need you think that there is something else for you to see.

Chapter Twenty One:

The Inner Picture

I. Introduction

¹ Projection makes perception. The world you see is what you gave it, nothing more than that. But though it is no more than that, it is not less. Therefore, to you it is important. It is the witness to your state of mind, the outside picture of an inward condition. As a man or woman thinketh, so does he or she perceive. Therefore, seek not to change the world, but will to change your mind about the world. Perception is a result, not a cause. And that is why order of difficulty in miracles is meaningless. Everything looked upon with vision is healed and holy. Nothing perceived without it means anything. And where there is no meaning, there is chaos.

² Damnation is your judgment on yourself, and this you will project upon the world. See it as damned, and all you see is what you did to hurt the SonDaughter of God. If you behold disaster and catastrophe, you tried to crucify himher. If you see holiness and hope, you joined the Will of God to set himher free. There is no choice that lies between these two decisions. And you will see the witness to the choice you made and learn from this to recognize which one you chose. [The world you see but shows you how much joy you have allowed yourself to see in you and to accept as yours. And if this is its meaning, then the power to give it joy must lie within you.]

II. The Imagined World

³ Never forget the world the sightless "see" must be imagined, for what it really looks like is unknown to them. They must infer what could be seen from evidence forever indirect and reconstruct their inferences as they stumble and fall because of what they did not recognize, or walk unharmed through open doorways which they thought were closed. And so it is with you. You do not see. Your cues for inference are wrong, and so you stumble and fall down upon the stones you did not recognize, but fail to be aware you can go through the doors you thought were closed but which stand open before unseeing eyes, waiting to welcome you.

⁴ How foolish it is to attempt to judge what could be seen instead. It is not necessary to imagine what the world must look like. It must be seen before you recognize it for what it is. You can be shown which doors are open, and you can see where safety lies and which way leads to darkness, which to light. Judgment will always give you false directions, but vision shows you where to go. Why should you guess?

⁵ There is no need to learn through pain. And gentle lessons are acquired joyously and are remembered gladly. What gives you happiness you want to learn and not forget. It is not this you would deny. Your question is whether the means by which this course is learned will bring to you the joy it promises. If you believed it would, the learning of it would be no problem. You are not happy learners yet because you still remain uncertain that vision gives you more than judgment does, and you have learned that both you cannot have.

⁶ The blind become accustomed to their world by their adjustments to it. They think they know their way about in it. They learned it, not through joyous lessons, but through the stern necessity of limits they believed they could not overcome. And still believing this, they hold those lessons dear and cling to them because they cannot see. They do not understand the lessons keep them blind. This they do not believe. And so they keep the world they learned to "see" in their imagination, believing that their choice is that or nothing. They hate the world they learned through pain. And everything they think is in it serves to remind them that they are incomplete and bitterly deprived.

⁷ Thus they define their life and where they live, adjusting to it as they think they must, afraid to lose the little that they have. And so it is with all who see the body as all they have and all their brothers and sisters have. They try to reach each other, and they fail and fail again. And they adjust to loneliness, believing that to keep the body is to save the little that they have. Listen and try to think if you remember what we will speak of now.

⁸ Listen—perhaps you catch a hint of an ancient state not quite forgotten; dim, perhaps, and yet not altogether unfamiliar, like a song whose name is long forgotten, and the circumstances in which you heard completely unremembered. Not the whole song has stayed with you, but just a little wisp of melody, attached not to a personal or a place or anything particular. But you remember from just this little part how lovely was the song, how wonderful the setting where you heard it, and how you loved those who were there and listened with you.

⁹ The notes are nothing. Yet you have kept them with you, not for themselves, but as a soft reminder of what would make you weep if you remembered how dear it was to you. You could remember, yet you are afraid, believing you would lose the world you learned since then. And yet you know that nothing in the world you learned is half so dear as this. Listen and see if you remember an ancient song you knew so long ago and held more dear than any melody you taught yourself to cherish since.

¹⁰ Beyond the body, beyond the sun and stars, past everything you see and yet somehow familiar, is an arc of golden light that stretches as you look into a great and shining circle. And all the circle fills with light before your eyes. The edges of the circle disappear, and what is in it is no longer contained at all. The light expands and covers everything, extending to infinity, forever shining and with no break or limit anywhere. Within it everything is joined in perfect continuity. Nor is it possible to imagine that anything could be outside, for there is nowhere that this light is not.

¹¹ This is the vision of the SonDaughter of God, whom you know well. Here is the sight of himher who knows hisher FatherMother. Here is the memory of what you are—a part of this, with all of it within and joined to all as surely as all is joined in you. Accept the vision which can show you this and not the body. You know the ancient song and know it well. Nothing will ever be as dear to you as is this ancient hymn [of love] the SonDaughter of God sings to hisher FatherMother still.

¹² And now the blind can see, for that same song they sing in honor of their CreatorManifestor gives praise to them as well. The blindness which they made will not withstand the memory of this song. And they will look upon the vision of the SonDaughter of God, remembering who heshe is they sing of. What is a miracle but this remembering? And who is there in whom this memory lies not? The light in one awakens it in all. And when you see it in each other, you are remembering for everyone.

III. The Responsibility For Sight

¹³ We have repeated how little is asked of you to learn this course. It is the same small willingness you need to have your whole relationship transformed to joy; the little gift you offer to the Holy Spirit for which She gives you everything; the very little on which salvation rests; the tiny change of mind by which the crucifixion is changed to resurrection. And being true, it is so simple that it cannot fail to be completely understood. Rejected yes, but not ambiguous. And if you choose against it now, it will not be because it is obscure, but rather that this little cost seemed in your judgment to be too much to pay for peace.

¹⁴ This is the only thing that you need do for vision, happiness, release from pain, and the complete escape from sin, all to be given you. Say only this, but mean it with no reservations, for here the power of salvation lies:

¹⁵ I am responsible for what I see. I chose the feelings I experience, and I decided on the goal I would achieve. And everything that seems to happen to me I asked for and received as I had asked.

¹⁶ Deceive yourself no longer that you are helpless in the face of what is done to you. Acknowledge but that you have been mistaken, and all effects of your mistakes will disappear.

¹⁷ It is impossible the SonDaughter of God be merely driven by events outside of himher. It is impossible that the happenings that come to himher were not hisher choice. Hisher power of decision is the determiner of every situation in which heshe seems to find himherself by chance or accident. No accident nor chance is possible within the universe as God created and manifested it, outside of which is nothing. Suffer, and you decided sin was your goal. Be happy, and you gave the power of decision to Her Who must decide for God for you. This is the little gift you offer to the Holy Spirit, and even this She gave to you to give yourself. For by this gift is given you the power to release your savior or savioress that he or she may give salvation unto you.

¹⁸ Begrudge not, then, this little offering. Withhold it, and you keep the world as now you see it. Give it away, and everything you see goes with it. Never was so much given for so little. In the holy instant is this exchange effected and maintained. Here is the world you do not want brought to the one you do. And here the one you do is given you because you want it. Yet for this, the power of your wanting must first be recognized. You must accept its strength and not its weakness. You must perceive that what is strong enough to make a world can let it go and can accept correction if it is willing to see that it was wrong.

¹⁹ The world you see is but the idle witness that you were right. This witness is insane. You trained it in its testimony, and as it gave it back to you, you listened and convinced yourself that what it saw was true. You did this to yourself. See only this, and you will also see how circular the reasoning on which your "seeing" rests. This was not given you. This was your gift to you and to your brother or sister. Be willing, then, to have it taken from him or her and be replaced with truth. And as you look upon the change in him or her, it will be given you to see it in yourself.

²⁰ Perhaps you do not see the need for you to give this little offering. Look closer, then, at what it is. And very simply see in it the whole exchange of separation for salvation. All that the ego is, is an idea that it is possible that things should happen to the SonDaughter of God without hisher will and thus without the Will of hisher CreatorManifestor, Whose Will cannot be separate from hisher own.

²¹ This is the SonDaughter of God's replacement for hisher will, a mad revolt against what must forever be. This is the statement that heshe has the power to make God powerless and so to take it for himherself and leave himherself without what God has willed for himher. This is the mad idea you have enshrined upon your altars and which you worship. And anything which threatens this seems to attack your faith, for here is it invested. Think not that you are faithless, for your belief and trust in this is strong indeed.

²² The Holy Spirit can give you faith in holiness and vision to see it easily enough. But you have not left open and unoccupied the altar where the gifts belong. Where they should be, you have set up your idols or idolresses to something else. This other will, which seems to tell you what must happen, you gave reality. And what would show you otherwise must therefore seem unreal. All that is asked of you is to make room for truth. You are not asked to make or do what lies beyond your understanding. All you are asked to do is let it in; only to stop your interference with what will happen of itself; simply to recognize again the presence of what you thought you gave away.

²³ Be willing for an instant to leave your altars free of what you placed upon them, and what is really there you cannot fail to see. The holy instant is not an instant of manifested creation but of recognition. For recognition comes of vision and suspended judgment. Then only is it possible to look within and see what must be there plainly in sight and wholly independent of inference and judgment. Undoing is not your task, but it is up to you to welcome it or not. Faith and desire go hand in hand, for everyone believes in what he or she wants.

²⁴ We have already said that wishful thinking is how the ego deals with what it wants to make it so. There is no better demonstration of the power of wanting, and therefore of faith, to make its goals seem real and possible. Faith in the unreal leads to adjustments of reality to make it fit the goal of madness. The goal of sin induces the perception of a fearful world to justify its purpose. What you desire you will see. And if its reality is false, you will uphold it by not realizing all the adjustments you have introduced to make it so.

²⁵ When vision is denied, confusion of cause and effect becomes inevitable. The purpose now becomes to keep obscure the cause of the effect and make effect appear to be a cause. This seeming independence of effect enables it to be regarded as standing by itself and capable of serving as a cause of the events and feelings its maker thinks it causes. Long ago we spoke of your desire to create and manifest your own CreatorManifestor and be fathermother and not SonDaughter to HimHer. This is the same desire. The SonDaughter is the effect, whose Cause heshe would deny. And so heshe seems to be the cause, producing real effects. Nothing can have effects without a cause and to confuse the two is merely to fail to understand them both.

²⁶ It is as needful that you recognize you made the world you see as that you recognize that you did not create and manifest yourself. They are the same mistake. Nothing created and manifested not by your CreatorManifestor has any influence over you. And if you think what you have made can tell you what you see and feel and place your faith in its ability to do so, you are denying your CreatorManifestor and believing that you made yourself. For if you think the world you made has power to make you what it wills, you are confusing SonDaughter and FatherMother, effect and Source.

²⁷ The Son'sDaughter's creationsmanifestations are like hisher Father'sMother's. Yet in creatingmanifesting them, the SonDaughter does not delude himherself that heshe is independent of hisher Source. Hisher union with It is the Source of hisher creatingmanifesting. Apart from this heshe has no power to create and manifest, and what heshe makes is meaningless. It changes nothing in manifested creation, depends entirely upon the madness of its maker, and cannot serve to justify the madness. Your brother or sister thinks he or she made the world with you. Thus he or she denies manifested creation. With you, he or she thinks the world he or she made, made him or her. Thus he or she denies he or she made it.

²⁸ Yet the truth is you were both created and manifested by a loving FatherMother Who created and manifested you together and as one. See what "proves" otherwise, and you deny your whole reality. But grant that everything which seems to stand between you, keeping you from each other and separate from your FatherMother, you made in secret, and the instant of release has come to you. All its effects are gone because its source has been uncovered. It is its seeming independence of its source that kept you prisoner. This is the same delusion that you are independent of the Source by which you were created and manifested and have never left.

IV. Faith, Belief, and Vision

²⁹ All special relationships have sin as their goal. For they are bargains with reality, toward which the seeming union is adjusted. Forget not this—to bargain is to set a limit, and any brother or sister with whom you have a limited relationship you hate. You may attempt to keep the bargain in the name of "fairness," sometimes demanding payment of yourself, perhaps more often of the other. Thus in the "fairness" you attempt to ease the guilt that comes from the accepted purpose of the relationship. And that is why the Holy Spirit must change its purpose to make it useful to Hende and harmless unto you.

³⁰ If you accept this change, you have accepted the idea of making room for truth. The source of sin is gone. You may imagine that you still experience its effects, but it is not your purpose, and you no longer want it. No one allows a purpose to be replaced while he or she desires it, for nothing is so cherished and protected as is a goal the mind accepts. This it will follow, grimly or happily, but always with faith and with the persistence that faith inevitably brings. The power of faith is never recognized if it is placed in sin. But it is always recognized if it is placed in love.

³¹ Why is it strange to you that faith can move mountains? This is indeed a little feat for such a power. For faith can keep the SonDaughter of God in chains as long as heshe believes heshe is in chains. And when heshe is released from them, it will be simply because heshe no longer believes in them, withdrawing faith that they can hold himher and placing it in hisher freedom instead. It is impossible to place equal faith in opposite directions. What faith you give to sin you take away from holiness. And what you offer holiness has been removed from sin.

³² Faith and belief and vision are the means by which the goal of holiness is reached. Through them the Holy Spirit leads you to the real world and away from all illusions where your faith was laid. This is Her direction, the only one She ever sees. And when you wander, She reminds you there is but one. Her faith and Her belief and vision are all for you. And when you have accepted them completely instead of yours, you will have need of them no longer. For faith and vision and belief are meaningful only before the state of certainty is reached. In the God Realm they are unknown. Yet the God Realm is reached through them.

³³ It is impossible that the SonDaughter of God lack faith, but heshe can choose where heshe would have it be. Faithlessness is not a lack of faith, but faith in nothing. Faith given to illusions does not lack power, for by it does the SonDaughter of God believe that heshe is powerless. Thus is heshe faithless to himherself, but strong in faith in hisher illusions about himherself. For faith, perception, and belief you made as means for losing certainty and finding sin. This mad direction was your choice, and by your faith in what you chose, you made what you desired.

³⁴ The Holy Spirit has a use for all the means for sin by which you sought to find it. But as She uses them, they lead away from sin because Her purpose lies in the opposite direction. She sees the means you use but not the purpose for which you made them. She would not take them from you, for She sees their value as a means for what She wills for you. You made perception that you might choose among your brothers and sisters and seek for sin with them. The Holy Spirit sees perception as a means to teach you that the vision of a holy relationship is all you want to see. Then will you give your faith to holiness, desiring and believing in it because of your desire.

³⁵ Faith and belief become attached to vision, as all the means that once served sin are redirected now toward holiness. For what you think is sin is limitation, and whom you try to limit to the body you hate because you fear. In your refusal to forgive him or her, you would condemn him or her to the body because the means for sin are dear to you. And so the body has your faith and your belief. But holiness would set your brother or sister free, removing hatred by removing fear, not as a symptom, but at its source.

³⁶ Those who would free their brothers and sisters from the body can have no fear. They have renounced the means for sin by choosing to let all limitations be removed. Desiring to look upon their brothers and sisters in holiness, the power of belief and faith goes far beyond the body, supporting vision, not obstructing it. But first they chose to recognize how much their faith had limited their understanding of the world, desiring to place its power elsewhere should another point of view be given them. The miracles which follow this decision are also born of faith. For all who choose to look away from sin are given vision and are led to holiness.

³⁷ Those who believe in sin must think the Holy Spirit asks for sacrifice, for this is how they think their purpose is accomplished. Brothers and sisters, the Holy Spirit knows that sacrifice brings nothing. She makes no bargains. And if you seek to limit Her, you will hate Her because you are afraid. The gift that She has given you is more than anything that stands this side of the God Realm. The instant for its recognition is at hand. Join your awareness to what has been already joined. The faith you give each other can accomplish this. For She Who loves the world is seeing it for you without one spot of sin upon it and in the innocence which makes the sight of it as beautiful as the God Realm .

³⁸ Your faith in sacrifice has given it great power in your sight, except you do not realize you cannot see because of it. For sacrifice must be exacted of a body and by another body. The mind could neither ask it nor receive it of itself. And no more could the body. The intention is in the mind, which tries to use the body to carry out the means for sin in which the mind believes. Thus is the joining of mind and body an inescapable belief of those who value sin. And so is sacrifice invariably a means for limitation and thus for hate.

³⁹ Think you the Holy Spirit is concerned with this? She gives not what it is Her purpose to lead you from. You think She would deprive you for your good. But "good" and "deprivation" are opposites and cannot meaningfully join in any way. It is like saying that the moon and sun are one because they come with night and day, and so they must be joined. Yet sight of one is but the sign the other has disappeared from sight. Nor is it possible that what gives light be one with what depends on darkness to be seen. Neither demands the sacrifice of the other. Yet on the absence of the other does each depend.

⁴⁰ The body was made to be a sacrifice to sin, and in the darkness so it still is seen. Yet in the light of vision, it is looked upon quite differently. You can have faith in it to serve the Holy Spirit's goal and give it power to serve as means to help the blind to see. But in their seeing, they look past it, as do you. The faith and the belief you gave it belongs beyond. You gave perception and belief and faith from mind to body. Let them now be given back to what produced them and can use them still to save itself from what it made.

V. The Fear to Look Within

⁴¹ The Holy Spirit will never teach you that you are sinful. Errors She will correct, but this makes no one fearful. You are indeed afraid to look within and see the sin you think is there. This you would not be fearful to admit. Fear in association with sin the ego deems quite appropriate and smiles approvingly. It has no fear to let you feel ashamed. It doubts not your belief and faith in sin. Its temples do not shake because of this. Your faith that sin is there but witnesses to your desire that it be there to see. This merely seems to be the source of fear.

⁴² Remember that the ego is not alone. Its rule is tempered, and its unknown "enemy," Whom it cannot even see, it fears. Loudly the ego tells you not to look inward, for if you do, your eyes will light on sin, and God will strike you blind. This you believe, and so you do not look. Yet this is not the ego's hidden fear, nor yours who serve it. Loudly indeed the ego claims it is—too loudly and too often. For underneath this constant shout and frantic proclamation, the ego is not certain it is so. Beneath your fear to look within because of sin is yet another fear and one which makes the ego tremble.

⁴³ What if you looked within and saw no sin? This "fearful" question is one the ego never asks. And you who ask it now are threatening the ego's whole defensive system too seriously for it to bother to pretend it is your friend. Those who have joined their brothers and sisters have detached themselves from their belief that their identity lies in the ego. A holy relationship is one in which you join with what is part of you in truth. And your belief in sin has been already shaken, nor are you now entirely unwilling to look within and see it not.

⁴⁴ Your liberation still is only partial—still limited and incomplete, yet born within you. Not wholly mad, you have been willing to look on much of your insanity and recognize its madness. Your faith is moving inward, past insanity and on to reason. And what your reason tells you now, the ego would not hear. The Holy Spirit's purpose was accepted by the part of your mind the ego knows not of. No more did you. And yet this part with which you now identify is not afraid to look upon itself. It knows no sin. How, otherwise, could it have been willing to see the Holy Spirit's purpose as its own?

⁴⁵ This part has seen your brother or sister and recognized him or her perfectly since time began. And it desired nothing but to join with him or her and to be free again, as once it was. It has been waiting for the birth of freedom, the acceptance of release to come to you. And now you recognize that it was not the ego that joined the Holy Spirit's purpose, and so there must be something else. Think not that this is madness. For this your reason tells you, and it follows perfectly from what you have already learned.

⁴⁶ There is no inconsistency in what the Holy Spirit teaches. This is the reasoning of the sane. You have perceived the ego's madness and not been made afraid because you did not choose to share in it. At times it still deceives you. Yet in your saner moments, its ranting strikes no terror in your hearts. For you have realized that all the gifts it would withdraw from you in rage at your "presumptuous" wish to look within, you do not want. A few remaining trinkets still seem to shine and catch your eye. Yet you would not "sell" the God Realm to have them.

⁴⁷ And now the ego is afraid. Yet what it hears in terror, the other part hears as the sweetest music—the song it longed to hear since first the ego came into your minds. The ego's weakness is its strength. The song of freedom, which sings the praises of another world, brings to it hope of peace. For it remembers the God Realm, and now it sees that the God Realm has come to earth at last, from which the ego's rule has kept it out so long. The God Realm has come because it found a home in your relationship on earth. And earth can hold no longer what has been given the God Realm as its own.

⁴⁸ Look gently on each other and remember the ego's weakness is revealed in both your sight. What it would keep apart has met and joined, and looks upon the ego unafraid. Little children, innocent of sin, follow in gladness the way to certainty. Be not held back by fear's insane insistence that sureness lies in doubt. This has no meaning. What matters it to you how loudly it is proclaimed? The senseless is not made meaningful by repetition and by clamor. The quiet way is open. Follow it happily and question not what must be so.

VI. Reason and Perception

⁴⁹ Perception selects and makes the world you see. It literally picks it out as the mind directs. The laws of size and shape and brightness would hold, perhaps, if other things were equal. They are not equal. For what you look for, you are far more likely to discover than what you would prefer to overlook. The still small Voice for God is not drowned out by all the ego's raucous screams and senseless ravings to those who want to hear it. Perception is a choice and not a fact. But on this choice depends far more than you may realize as yet. For on the voice you choose to hear and on the sights you choose to see, depends entirely your whole belief in what you are. Perception is a witness but to this and never to reality. Yet it can show you the conditions in which awareness of reality is possible or those where it could never be.

⁵⁰ Reality needs no cooperation from you to be itself. But your awareness of it needs your help because it is your choice. Listen to what the ego says and see what it directs you see, and it is sure that you will see yourself as tiny, vulnerable, and afraid. You will experience depression, a sense of worthlessness, and feelings of impermanence and unreality. You will believe that you are helpless prey to forces far beyond your own control and far more powerful than you. And you will think the world you made directs your destiny. For this will be your faith. But never believe because it is your faith it makes reality.

⁵¹ There is another vision and another Voice in which your freedom lies awaiting but your choice. And if you place your faith in them, you will perceive another Self in you. This other Self sees miracles as natural. They are as simple and natural to It as breathing to the body. They are the obvious response to calls for help, the only one It makes. Miracles seem unnatural to the ego because it does not understand how separate minds can influence each other. Nor could they do so. But minds cannot be separate. This other Self is perfectly aware of this. And thus It recognizes that miracles do not affect another's mind, only Its own. [They always change your mind.] There is no other.

⁵² You do not realize the whole extent to which the idea of separation has interfered with reason. Reason lies in the other Self you have cut off from your awareness. And nothing you have allowed to stay in it is capable of reason. How can the segment of the mind devoid of reason understand what reason is or grasp the information it would give? All sorts of questions may arise in it, but if the basic question stems from reason, it will not ask it. Like all that stems from reason, the basic question is obvious, simple, and remains unasked. But think not reason could not answer it.

⁵³ God's plan for your salvation could not have been established without your will and your consent. It must have been accepted by the SonDaughter of God, for what God wills for himher heshe must receive. For God wills not apart from himher, nor does the Will of God wait upon time to be accomplished. Therefore, what joined the Will of God must be in you now, being eternal. You must have set aside a place in which the Holy Spirit can abide and where She is. She must have been there since the need for Her arose and was fulfilled in the same instant. Such would your reason tell you if you listened. Yet such is clearly not the ego's "reasoning." Its alien nature to the ego is proof you will not find the answer there. Yet if it must be so, it must exist. And if it exists for you and has your freedom as the purpose given it, you must be free to find it.

⁵⁴ God's plan is simple—never circular and never self-defeating. HeShe has no Thoughts except the Self-extending, and in this your will must be included. Thus, there must be a part of you that knows HisHer Will and shares it. It is not meaningful to ask if what must be is so. But it is meaningful to ask why you are unaware of what is so, for this must have an answer if the plan of God for your salvation is complete. And it must be complete because its Source knows not of incompleteness. Where would the answer be but in the Source? And where are you but there, where this same answer is? Your Identity, as much a true effect of this same Source as is the answer, must therefore be together and the same.

⁵⁵ Oh yes, you know this and more than this alone. Yet any part of knowledge threatens dissociation as much as all of it. And all of it will come with any part. Here is the part you can accept. What reason points to you can see because the witnesses on its behalf are clear. Only the totally insane can disregard them, and you have gone past this. Reason is a means which serves the Holy Spirit's purpose in its own right. It is not reinterpreted and redirected from the goal of sin as are the others. For reason is beyond the ego's range of means.

⁵⁶ Faith and perception and belief can be misplaced and serve the great deceiver's needs as well as truth. But reason has no place at all in madness, nor can it be adjusted to fit its end. Faith and belief are strong in madness, guiding perception toward what the mind has valued. But reason enters not at all in this. For the perception would fall away at once if reason were applied. There is no reason in insanity, for it depends entirely on reason's absence. The ego never uses it because it does not realize that it exists. The partially insane have access to it, and only they have need of it. Knowledge does not depend on it, and madness keeps it out.

⁵⁷ The part of mind where reason lies was dedicated by your will in union with your Father's Mother's to the undoing of insanity. Here was the Holy Spirit's purpose accepted and accomplished both at once. Reason is alien to insanity, and those who use it have gained a means which cannot be applied to sin. Knowledge is far beyond attainment of any kind. But reason can serve to open doors you closed against it.

⁵⁸ You have come very close to this. Faith and belief have shifted, and you have asked the question which the ego will never ask. Does not your reason tell you now the question must have come from something that you do not know but must belong to you? Faith and belief, upheld by reason, cannot fail to lead to changed perception. And in this change is room made way for vision. Vision extends beyond itself, as does the purpose which it serves and all the means for its accomplishment.

VII. Reason and Correction

⁵⁹ Reason cannot see sin but can see errors and leads to their correction. It does not value them, but their correction. Reason will also tell you when you think you sin, you call for help. Yet if you will not accept the help you call for, you will not believe that it is yours to give. And so you will not give it, thus maintaining the belief. For uncorrected error of any kind deceives you about the power that is in you to make correction. If it can correct and you allow it not to do so, you deny it to yourself and to your brother or sister. And if he or she shares this same belief, you both will think that you are damned. This you could spare him or her and yourself. For reason would not make way for correction in you alone.

⁶⁰ Correction cannot be accepted or refused by you without your brother or sister. Sin would maintain it can. Yet reason tells you that you cannot see your brother or sister or yourself as sinful and still perceive the other innocent. Who looks upon himself or herself as guilty and sees a sinless world? And who can see a sinful world and look upon himself or herself apart from it? Sin would maintain you must be separate. But reason tells you that this must be wrong. If you are joined, how could it be that you have private thoughts? And how could thoughts that enter into what but seems like yours alone have no effect at all on what is yours? If minds are joined, this is impossible.

⁶¹ No one can think but for himself or herself, as God thinks not without HisHer SonDaughter. Only were both in bodies could this be. Nor could one mind think only for itself unless the body were the mind. For only bodies can be separate and therefore unreal. The home of madness cannot be the home of reason. Yet it is easy to leave the home of madness if you see reason. You do not leave insanity by going somewhere else. You leave it simply by accepting reason where madness was. Madness and reason see the same things, but it is certain that they look upon them differently.

⁶² Madness is an attack on reason that drives it out of mind and takes its place. Reason does not attack but takes the place of madness quietly, replacing madness if it be the will of the insane to listen to it. But the insane know not their will. For they believe they see the body and let their madness tell them it is real. Reason would be incapable of this. And if you would defend the body against your reason, you will not understand the body or yourself.

⁶³ The body does not separate you from your brother or sister, and if you think it does, you are insane. But madness has a purpose and believes it also has the means to make its purpose real. To see the body as a barrier between what reason tells you must be joined must be insane. Nor could you see it if you heard the voice of reason. What can there be that stands between what is continuous? And if there is nothing in between, how can what enters part be kept away from other parts? Reason would tell you this. But think what you must recognize if it be so.

⁶⁴ If you choose sin instead of healing, you would condemn the SonDaughter of God to what can never be corrected. You tell him or her by your choice that he or she is damned—separate from you and from his or her FatherMother forever and without a hope of safe return. You teach him or her this, and you will learn of him or her exactly what you taught. For you can teach him or her only that he or she is as you would have him or her, and what you choose he or she be is but your choice for you. Yet think not this is fearful. That you are joined to him or her is but a fact, not an interpretation. How can a fact be fearful unless it disagrees with what you hold more dear than truth? Reason will tell you that this fact is your release. Neither your brother or sister nor yourself can be attacked alone. But neither can accept a miracle instead without the other being blessed by it and healed of pain.

⁶⁵ Reason, like love, would reassure you and seeks not to frighten you. The power to heal the SonDaughter of God is given you because he/she must be one with you. You are responsible for how he or she sees himself or herself. And reason tells you it is given you to change his or her whole mind, which is one with you, in just an instant. And any instant serves to bring complete correction of his or her errors and make him or her whole. The instant that you choose to let yourself be healed, in that same instant is his or her whole salvation seen as complete with yours. Reason is given you to understand that this is so. For reason, kind as is the purpose for which it is the means, leads steadily away from madness toward the goal of truth. And here you will lay down the burden of denying truth. This is the burden that is terrible, and not the truth.

⁶⁶ That you are joined is your salvation—the gift of the God Realm, not the gift of fear. Does the God Realm seem to be a burden to you? In madness, yes. And yet what madness sees must be dispelled by reason. Reason assures you the God Realm is what you want, and all you want. Listen to Her Who speaks with reason and brings your reason into line with Hers. Be willing to let reason be the means by which She would direct you how to leave insanity behind. Hide not behind insanity in order to escape from reason. What madness would conceal, the Holy Spirit still holds out for everyone to look upon with gladness.

⁶⁷ You are your brother's or sister's savior or savior. He or she is yours. Reason speaks happily indeed of this. This gracious plan was given love by Love. And what Love plans is like Itself in this: being united, It would have you learn what you must be. And being one with It, it must be given you to give what It has given and gives still. Spend but an instant in the glad acceptance of what is given you to give your brother or sister, and learn with him or her what has been given both of you. To give is no more blessed than to receive. But neither is it less.

⁶⁸ The SonDaughter of God is always blessed as one. And as hisher gratitude goes out to you who blessed himher, reason will tell you that it cannot be you stand apart from blessing. The gratitude heshe offers you reminds you of the thanks your FatherMother gives you for completing HimHer. And here alone does reason tell you that you can understand what you must be. Your FatherMother is as close to you as is your brother or sister. Yet what is there that could be nearer you than is your Self?

⁶⁹ The power that you have over the SonDaughter of God is not a threat to hisher reality. It but attests to it. Where could hisher freedom lie but in himherself if heshe be free already? And who could bind himher but himherself if heshe deny hisher freedom? God is not mocked; no more HisHer SonDaughter can be imprisoned save by hisher own desire. And it is by hisher own desire that heshe is freed. Such is hisher strength and not hisher weakness. Heshe is at hisher own mercy. And where heshe chooses to be merciful, there is heshe free. But where heshe chooses to condemn instead, there is heshe held a prisoner, waiting in chains hisher pardon on himherself to set himher free.

VIII. Perception and Wishes

⁷⁰ Do you not see that all your misery comes from the strange belief that you are powerless? Being helpless is the cost of sin. Helplessness is sin's condition—the one requirement that it demands to be believed. Only the helpless could believe in it. Enormity has no appeal save to the little. And only those who first believe that they are little could see attraction there. Treachery to the SonDaughter of God is the defense of those who do not identify with himher. And you are for himher or against himher; either you love himher or attack him, protect hisher unity or see himher shattered and slain by your attack.

⁷¹ No one believes the SonDaughter of God is powerless. And those who see themselves as helpless must believe that they are not the SonDaughter of God. What can they be except hisher enemy? And what can they do but envy himher hisher power and by their envy make themselves afraid of it? These are the dark ones, silent and afraid, alone and not communicating, fearful the power of the SonDaughter of God will strike them dead and raising up their helplessness against himher. They join the army of the powerless, to wage their war of vengeance, bitterness, and spite on him or her to make himher one with them. Because they do not know that they are one with himher, they know not whom they hate. They are indeed a sorry army, each one as likely to attack his or her brother or sister or turn upon himself or herself as to remember they thought they had a common cause.

⁷² Frantic and loud and strong the dark ones seem to be. Yet they know not their enemy, except they hate him or her. In hatred they have come together but have not joined each other. For had they done so, hatred would be impossible. The army of the powerless must be disbanded in the presence of strength. Those who are strong are never treacherous because they have no need to dream of power and to act out their dream. How would an army act in dreams? Any way at all. It could be seen attacking anyone with anything. Dreams have no reason in them. A flower turns into a poisoned spear, a child becomes a giant, and a mouse roars like a lion. And love is turned to hate as easily. This is no army, but a madhouse. What seems to be a planned attack is bedlam.

⁷³ The army of the powerless is weak indeed. It has no weapons, and it has no enemy. Yes, it can overrun the world and seek an enemy. But it can never find what is not there. Yes, it can dream it found an enemy, but this will shift even as it attacks, so that it runs at once to find another and never comes to rest in victory. And as it runs, it turns against itself, thinking it caught a glimpse of the great enemy which always eludes its murderous attack by turning into something else. How treacherous does this enemy appear, who changes so it is impossible even to recognize him or her!

⁷⁴ Yet hate must have a target. There can be no faith in sin without an enemy. Who that believes in sin would dare believe he or she has no enemy? Could he or she admit that no one made him or her powerless? Reason would surely bid him or her seek no longer what is not there to find. Yet first he or she must be willing to perceive a world where it is not. It is not necessary that he or she understand how he or she can see it. Nor should he or she try. For if he or she focuses on what he or she cannot understand, he or she will but emphasize his or her helplessness and let sin tell him or her that his or her enemy must be himself or herself. But let him or her only ask himself or herself these questions, which he or she must decide to have it done for him or her:

⁷⁵ Do I desire a world I rule instead of one which rules me?
Do I desire a world where I am powerful instead of helpless?
Do I desire a world in which I have no enemies and cannot sin?
And do I want to see what I denied because it is the truth?

⁷⁶ You have already answered the first three questions but not yet the last. For this one still seems fearful and unlike the others. Yet reason would assure you they are all the same. We said this year would emphasize the sameness of things that are the same. This final question, which is indeed the last you need decide, still seems to hold a threat the rest have lost for you. And this imagined difference attests to your belief that truth may be the enemy you yet may find. Here, then, would seem to be the last remaining hope of finding sin and not accepting power.

⁷⁷ Forget not that the choice of truth or sin, power or helplessness, is the choice of whether to attack or heal. For healing comes of power and attack of helplessness. Whom you attack you cannot want to heal. And whom you would have healed must be the one you chose to be protected from attack. And what is this decision but the choice whether to see him or her through the body's eyes or let him or her be revealed to you through vision? How this decision leads to its effects is not your problem. But what you want to see must be your choice. This is a course in cause and not effect.

⁷⁸ Consider carefully your answer to the last question you have left unanswered still. And let your reason tell you that it must be answered and is answered in the other three. And then it will be clear to you that, as you look on the effects of sin in any form, all you need do is simply ask yourself, ⁷⁹ Is this what I would see? Do I want this?

⁸⁰ This is your one decision; this the condition for what occurs. It is irrelevant to how it happens but not to why. You have control of this. And if you choose to see a world without an enemy in which you are not helpless, the means to see it will be given you.

⁸¹ Why is the final question so important? Reason will tell you why. It is the same as are the other three except in time. The others are decisions which can be made and then unmade and made again. But truth is constant and implies a state where vacillations are impossible. You can desire a world you rule which rules you not, and change your mind. You can desire to exchange your helplessness for power, and lose this same desire as a little glint of sin attracts you. And you can want to see a sinless world and let an "enemy" tempt you to use the body's eyes and change what you desire.

⁸² In content, all the questions are the same. For each one asks if you are willing to exchange the world of sin for what the Holy Spirit sees, since it is this the world of sin denies. And therefore those who look on sin are seeing the denial of the real world. Yet the last question adds the wish for constancy in your desire to see the real world, so the desire becomes the only one you have. By answering the final question "yes," you add sincerity to the decisions you have already made to all the rest. For only then have you renounced the option to change your mind again. When it is this you do not want, the rest are wholly answered.

⁸³ Why do you think you are unsure the others have been answered? Could it be necessary they be asked so often, if they had? Until the last decision has been made, the answer is both "yes" and "no." For you have answered "yes" without perceiving that "yes" must mean "not no." No one decides against his or her happiness, but he or she may do so if he or she does not see he or she does it. And if he or she sees his or her happiness as ever changing, now this, now that, and now an elusive shadow attached to nothing, he or she does decide against it.

⁸⁴ Elusive happiness, or happiness in changing form that shifts with time and place, is an illusion which has no meaning. Happiness must be constant because it is attained by giving up the wish for the inconstant. Joy cannot be perceived except through constant vision. And constant vision can be given only those who wish for constancy. The power of the SonDaughter of God's desire remains the proof that he or she is wrong who sees himself or herself as helpless. Desire what you will, and you will look on it and think it real. No thought but has the power to release or kill. And none can leave the thinker's mind or leave him or her unaffected.

IX. The Inner Shift

⁸⁵ Are thoughts then dangerous? To bodies, yes! The thoughts that seem to kill are those which teach the thinker that he or she can be killed. And so he or she dies because of what he or she learned. He or she goes from life to death, the final proof he or she valued the inconstant more than constancy. Surely he or she thought he or she wanted happiness. Yet he or she did not desire it because it was the truth and therefore must be constant.

⁸⁶ The constancy of joy is a condition quite alien to your understanding. Yet if you could even imagine what it must be, you would desire it although you understand it not.

⁸⁷ The constancy of happiness has no exceptions—no change of any kind. It is unshakable as is the love of God for HisHer manifested creation. Sure in its vision as its CreatorManifestor is in what HeShe knows, it looks on everything and sees it is the same. It sees not the ephemeral, for it desires that everything be like itself and sees it so. Nothing has power to confound its constancy because its own desire cannot be shaken. It comes as surely unto those who see the final question is necessary to the rest, as peace must come to those who choose to heal and not to judge.

⁸⁸ Reason will tell you that you cannot ask for happiness inconstantly. For if what you desire you receive and happiness is constant, then you need ask for it but once to have it always. And if you do not have it always, being what it is, you did not ask for it. For no one fails to ask for his or her desire of something he or she believes holds out some promise of the power of giving it. He or she may be wrong in what he or she asks, where, and of what. Yet he or she will ask because desire is a request, an asking for, and made by one whom God HimHerself will never fail to answer. God has already given him or her all that he or she really wants. Yet what he or she is uncertain of, God cannot give. For he or she does not desire it while he or she remains uncertain, and God's giving must be incomplete unless it is received.

⁸⁹ You who complete God's Will and are HisHer happiness, whose will is powerful as HisHers, a power that is not lost in your illusions, think carefully why it should be you have not yet decided how you would answer the final question. Your answer to the others has made it possible to help you be but partially insane. And yet it is the final one that really asks if you are willing to be wholly sane.

⁹⁰ What is the holy instant but God's appeal to you to recognize what HeShe has given you? Here is the great appeal to reason; the awareness of what is always there to see, the happiness that could be always yours. Here is the constant peace you could experience forever. Here is what denial has denied revealed to you. For here the final question is already answered and what you ask for given. Here is the future now, for time is powerless because of your desire for what will never change. For you have asked that nothing stand between the holiness of your relationship and your awareness of its holiness.

Chapter Twenty Two:

Salvation and the Holy Relationship

I. Introduction

¹ Take pity on yourselves, so long enslaved. Rejoice whom God hath joined have come together and need no longer look on sin apart. No two can look on sin together, for they could never see it in the same place and time. Sin is a strictly individual perception, seen in the other yet believed by each to be within himself or herself. And each one seems to make a different error, and one the other cannot understand. Brothers and sisters, it is the same, made by the same, and forgiven for its maker in the same way.

² The holiness of your relationship forgives you both, undoing the effects of what you both believed and saw. And with their going is the need for sin gone with them. Who has need for sin? Only the lonely and alone who see their brothers and sisters different from themselves. It is this difference, seen but not real, that makes the need for sin, not real but seen, seem justified. And all this would be real if sin were so. For an unholy relationship is based on differences, where each one thinks the other has what he or she has not. They come together, each to complete himself or herself and rob the other. They stay until they think there's nothing left to steal and then move on. And so they wander through a world of strangers unlike themselves, living with their bodies perhaps under a common roof that shelters neither—in the same room and yet a world apart.

³ A holy relationship starts from a different premise. Each one has looked within and seen no lack. Accepting his or her completion, he or she would extend it by joining with another, whole as himself or herself. He or she sees no difference between these selves, for differences are only of the body. Therefore, he or she looks on nothing he or she would take. He or she denies not his or her own reality, because it is the truth. Just under the God Realm does he or she stand, but close enough not to return to earth. For this relationship has the God Realm 's holiness. How far from home can a relationship so like to the God Realm be?

⁴ Think what a holy relationship can teach! Here is belief in differences undone. Here is the faith in differences shifted to sameness. [And here is sight of differences transformed to vision.] And reason now can lead you to the logical conclusion of your union. It must extend, as you extended when you joined. It must reach out beyond itself, as you reached out beyond the body to let yourselves be joined. And now the sameness which you saw extends and finally removes all sense of differences so that the sameness that lies beneath them all becomes apparent. Here is the golden circle where you recognize the SonDaughter of God. For what is born into a holy relationship can never end.

II. The Message of the Holy Relationship

⁵ Let reason take another step. If you attack whom God would heal and hate the one HeShe loves, then you and your CreatorManifestor have a different will. Yet if you are HisHer Will, what you must then believe is that you are not yourself. You can indeed believe this, and you do. And you have faith in this and see much evidence on its behalf. And where, you wonder, does your strange uneasiness, your sense of being disconnected, and your haunting fear of lack of meaning in yourself arise? It is as though you wandered in without a plan of any kind except to wander off, for only that seems certain.

⁶ Yet we have heard a very similar description earlier, but it was not of you. And yet this strange idea, which it does accurately describe, you think is you. Reason would tell you that the world you see through eyes which are not yours must make no sense to you. To whom would vision such as this send back its messages? Surely not you, whose sight is wholly independent of the eyes which look upon the world. If this is not your vision, what can it show to you? The brain cannot interpret what your vision sees. This you would understand. The brain interprets to the body, of which it is a part. But what it says, you cannot understand. Yet you have listened to it. And long and hard you tried to understand its messages. You did not realize it is impossible to understand what fails entirely to reach you.

⁷ You have received no messages at all you understand. For you have listened to what can never communicate at all. Think, then, what happened. Denying what you are and firm in faith that you are something else, this "something else" which you have made to be yourself became your sight. Yet it must be the "something else" which sees, and as not you, explains its sight to you. Your vision would, of course, render this quite unnecessary. Yet if your eyes are closed and you have called upon this thing to lead you, asking it to explain to you the world it sees, you have no reason not to listen nor to suspect that what it tells you is not true. Reason would tell you it cannot be true because you do not understand it. God has no secrets. HeShe does not lead you through a world of misery, waiting to tell you at the journey's end why HeShe did this to you.

⁸ What could be secret from God's Will? Yet you believe that you have secrets. What could your secrets be except another will that is your own, apart from HisHers? Reason would tell you that this is no secret that need be hidden as a sin. But a mistake indeed! Let not your fear of sin protect it from correction, for the attraction of guilt is only fear. Here is the one emotion that you made, whatever it may seem to be. This is the emotion of secrecy, of private thoughts, and of the body. This is the one emotion that opposes love and always leads to sight of differences and loss of sameness. Here is the one emotion that keeps you blind, dependent on the self you think you made to lead you through the world it made for you.

⁹ Your sight was given you, along with everything that you can understand. You will perceive no difficulty in understanding what this vision tells you, for everyone sees only what he or she thinks he or she is. And what your sight would show you, you will understand because it is the truth. Only your vision can convey to you what you can see. It reaches you directly without a need to be interpreted to you. What needs interpretation must be alien. Nor will it ever be made understandable by an interpreter you cannot understand.

¹⁰ Of all the messages you have received and failed to understand, this course alone is open to your understanding and can be understood. This is your language. You do not understand it yet, only because your whole communication is like a baby's. The sounds a baby makes and what he or she hears are highly unreliable, meaning different things to him or her at different times. Neither the sounds he or she hears nor sights he or she sees are stable yet. But what he or she hears and does not understand will be his or her native tongue, through which he or she will communicate with those around him, and they with him or her. And the strange, shifting ones he or she sees about him or her will become to him or her his or her comforters, and he or she will recognize his or her home and see them there with him or her.

¹¹ So in each holy relationship is the ability to communicate instead of separate reborn. Yet a holy relationship, so recently reborn itself from an unholy relationship and yet more ancient than the old illusion that it has replaced, is like a baby now in its rebirth. Yet in this infant is your vision returned to you, and he or she will speak the language both of you can understand. He or she is not nurtured by the "something else" you thought was you. He or she was not given there, nor was received by anything except yourself. For no two people can unite except through the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, Whose vision sees them one.

¹² Think what is given you, our holy brothers and sisters. This child will teach you what you do not understand and make it plain. For his or her will be no alien tongue. He or she will need no interpreter to you, for it was you who taught him or her what he or she knows because you knew it. He or she could not come to anyone but you, never to "something else." Where the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has entered, no one is alone, for never could She find a home in separate ones. Yet must She be reborn into Her ancient home, so seeming new and yet as old as She, a tiny newcomer, dependent on the holiness of your relationship to let Her live.

¹³ Be certain God did not entrust HisHer SonDaughter to the unworthy. Nothing but what is part of HimHer is worthy of being joined. Nor is it possible that anything not part of HimHer can join. Communication must have been restored to those that join, for this they could not do through bodies. What, then, has joined them? Reason will tell you that they must have seen each other through a vision not of the body and communicated in a language the body does not speak. Nor could it be a fearful sight or sound that drew them gently into one. Rather, in each the other saw a perfect shelter where his or her Self could be reborn in safety and in peace. Such did his or her reason tell him; such he or she believed because it was the truth.

¹⁴ Here is the first direct perception that you have made. You made it through awareness older than perception and yet reborn in just an instant. For what is time to what was always so? Think what that instant brought—the recognition that the "something else" you thought was you is an illusion. And truth came instantly to show you where your Self must be. It is denial of illusions that calls on truth, for to deny illusions is to recognize that fear is meaningless. Into the holy home, where fear is powerless, love enters thankfully, grateful that it is one with you who joined to let it enter.

¹⁵ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness comes to what is like Herself; the same, not different. For She is always drawn unto Herself. What is as like Her as a holy relationship? And what draws you together draws Her to you. Here are Her sweetness and Her gentle innocence protected from attack. And here can She return in confidence, for faith in one another is always faith in Her. You are indeed correct in looking on each other as Her chosen home, for here you will with Her and with Her FatherMother. This is your Father'sMother's Will for you, and yours with HisHers. And who is drawn to the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is drawn to God as surely as both are drawn to every holy relationship, the home prepared for them as earth is turned to the God Realm.

III. Your Brother's or sister's Sinlessness

¹⁶ The opposite of illusions is not disillusionment, but truth. Only to the ego, to which truth is meaningless, do they appear to be the only alternatives and different from each other. In truth they are the same. Both bring the same amount of misery, though each one seems to be the way to lose the misery the other brings. Every illusion carries pain and suffering in the dark folds of the heavy garments with which it hides its nothingness. Yet in these dark and heavy garments are those who seek illusions covered and hidden from the joy of truth.

¹⁷ Truth is the opposite of illusions because it offers joy. What else but joy could be the opposite of misery? To leave one kind of misery and seek another is hardly an escape. To change illusions is to make no change. The search for joy in misery is senseless, for how could joy be found in misery? All that is possible in the dark world of misery is to select some aspects out of it, see them as different, and define the difference as joy. Yet to perceive a difference where none exists will surely fail to make a difference.

¹⁸ Illusions carry only guilt and suffering, sickness and death to their believers. The form in which they are accepted is irrelevant. No form of misery in reason's eyes can be confused with joy. Joy is eternal. You can be sure indeed that any seeming happiness that does not last is really fear. Joy does not turn to sorrow, for the eternal cannot change. But sorrow can be turned to joy, for time gives way to the eternal. Only the timeless must remain unchanged, but everything in time can change with time. Yet if the change be real and not imagined, illusions must give way to truth and not to other dreams that are but equally unreal. This is no difference.

¹⁹ Reason will tell you that the only way to escape from misery is to recognize it and go the other way. Truth is the same and misery the same, but they are different from each other in every way, in every instance, and without exception. To believe that one exception can exist is to confuse what is the same with what is different. One illusion cherished and defended against the truth makes all truth meaningless and all illusions real. Such is the power of belief. It cannot compromise. And faith in innocence is faith in sin if the belief excludes one living thing and holds it out apart from its forgiveness.

²⁰ Both reason and the ego will tell you this, but what they make of it is not the same. The ego will assure you now that it is impossible for you to see no guilt in anyone. And if this vision is the only means by which escape from guilt can be attained, then the belief in sin must be eternal. Yet reason looks on this another way, for reason sees the source of an idea as what will make it true or false. This must be so if the idea is like its source. Therefore, says reason, if escape from guilt was given to the Holy Spirit as Her purpose, and by One to Whom nothing HeShe wills can be impossible, the means for its attainment are more than possible. They must be there, and you must have them.

²¹ This is a crucial period in this course, for here the separation of you and the ego must be made complete. For if you have the means to let the Holy Spirit's purpose be accomplished, they can be used. And through their use will you gain faith in them. Yet to the ego this must be impossible, and no one undertakes to do what holds no hope of ever being done. You know what your CreatorManifestor wills is possible, but what you made believes it is not so. Now must you choose between yourself and an illusion of yourself. Not both, but one. There is no point in trying to avoid this one decision. It must be made. Faith and belief can fall to either side, but reason tells you that misery lies only on one side and joy upon the other.

²² Forsake not now each other. For you who are the same will not decide alone nor differently. Either you give each other life or death; either you are each other's savior or savior or his or her judge, offering him or her sanctuary or condemnation. This course will be believed entirely or not at all. For it is wholly true or wholly false and cannot be but partially believed. And you will either escape from misery entirely or not at all. Reason will tell you that there is no middle ground where you can pause uncertainly, waiting to choose between the joy of the God Realm and the misery of hell. Until you choose the God Realm, you are in hell and misery.

²³ There is no part of the God Realm you can take and weave into illusions. Nor is there one illusion you can enter the God Realm with. A savior or savioress cannot be a judge, nor mercy condemnation. And vision cannot damn, but only bless. Whose function is to save will save. How he or she will do it is beyond your understanding, but when must be your choice. For time you made, and time you can command. You are no more a slave to time than to the world you made.

²⁴ Let us look closer at the whole illusion that what you made has power to enslave its maker. This is the same belief that caused the separation. It is the meaningless idea that thoughts can leave the thinker's mind, be different from it, and in opposition to it. If this were true, thoughts would not be the mind's extensions but its enemies. And here we see again another form of the same fundamental illusion we have seen the many times before. Only if it were possible the SonDaughter of God could leave hisher Father'sMother's Mind, make himherself different, and oppose HisHer Will, would it be possible that the self heshe made and all it made should be hisher master or mistress.

²⁵ Behold the great projection, but look on it with the decision that it must be healed and not with fear. Nothing you made has any power over you unless you still would be apart from your CreatorManifestor and with a will opposed to HisHers. For only if you would believe HisHer SonDaughter could be HisHer enemy does it seem possible that what you made is yours. You would condemn HisHer joy to misery and make HimHer different. And all the misery you made has been your own. Are you not glad to learn it is not true? Is it not welcome news to hear not one of the illusions that you made replaced the truth?

²⁶ Only your thoughts have been impossible. Salvation cannot be. It is impossible to look upon your savior or savioress as your enemy and recognize him or her. Yet it is possible to recognize him or her for what he or she is if God would have it so. What God has given to your holy relationship is there. For what HeShe gave the Holy Spirit to give to you, She gave. Would you not look upon the savior or savioress that has been given you? And would you not exchange in gratitude the function of an executioner you gave him or her for the one he or she has in truth? Receive of him or her what God has given him or her for you, not what you tried to give yourself.

²⁷ Beyond the bodies that you interposed between you and shining in the golden light which reaches it from the bright endless circle that extends forever is your holy relationship, beloved of God HimHerself. How still it rests, in time and yet beyond, immortal yet on earth. How great the power that lies in it. Time waits upon its will, and earth will be as it would have it be. Here is no separate will nor the desire that anything be separate. Its will has no exceptions, and what it wills is true. Every illusion brought to its forgiveness is gently overlooked and disappears. For at its center the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has been reborn to light Her home with vision that overlooks the world. Would you not have this holy home be yours as well? No misery is here, but only joy.

²⁸ All you need do to dwell in quiet here with the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is share Her vision. Quickly and gladly is Her vision given to anyone who is but willing to see his or her brother or sister sinless. And no one can remain beyond this willingness if you would be released entirely from all effects of sin. Would you have partial forgiveness for yourself? Can you reach the God Realm while a single sin still tempts you to remain in misery? the God Realm is the home of perfect purity, and God created and manifested it for you. Look on your holy brother or sister, sinless as yourself, and let him or her lead you there.

IV. Reason and the Holy Relationship

²⁹ The introduction of reason into the ego's thought system is the beginning of its undoing. For reason and the ego are contradictory. Nor is it possible for them to co-exist in your awareness. And reason's goal is to make plain and therefore obvious. You can see reason. This is not a play on words, for here is the beginning of a vision that has meaning. Vision is sense, quite literally. If it is not the body's sight, it must be understood. For it is plain, and what is obvious is not ambiguous. It can be understood. And here do reason and the ego separate to go their different ways.

³⁰ The ego's whole continuance depends on its belief you cannot learn this course. Share this belief, and reason will be unable to see your errors and make way for their correction. For reason sees through errors, telling you what you thought was real is not. Reason can see the difference between sin and mistakes because it wants correction. Therefore, it tells you what you thought was uncorrectable can be corrected, and thus it must have been an error. The ego's opposition to correction leads to its fixed belief in sin and disregard of errors. It looks on nothing that can be corrected. Thus does the ego damn and reason save.

³¹ Reason is not salvation in itself, but it makes way for peace and brings you to a state of mind in which salvation can be given you. Sin is a block, set like a heavy gate, locked and without a key, across the road to peace. No one who looks on it without the help of reason would try to pass it. The body's eyes behold it as solid granite, so thick it would be madness to attempt to pass it. Yet reason sees through it easily because it is an error. The form it takes cannot conceal its emptiness from reason's eyes.

³² Only the form of error attracts the ego. Meaning it does not recognize and does not know if it is there or not. Everything which the body's eyes can see is a mistake, an error in perception, a distorted fragment of the whole, without the meaning that the whole would give. And yet mistakes, regardless of their form, can be corrected. Sin is but error in a special form the ego venerates. It would preserve all errors and make them sins. For here is its own stability, its heavy anchor in the shifting world it made—the rock on which its church is built and where its worshipers are bound to bodies and believe the body's freedom is their own.

³³ Reason will tell you that the form of error is not what makes it a mistake. If what the form conceals is a mistake, the form cannot prevent correction. The body's eyes see only form. They cannot see beyond what they were made to see. And they were made to look on error and not see past it. Theirs is indeed a strange perception, for they can see only illusions, unable to look beyond the granite block of sin and stopping at the outside form of nothing. To this distorted form of vision, the outside of everything, the wall that stands between you and the truth, is wholly true. Yet how can sight which stops at nothingness as if it were a solid wall see truly? It is held back by form, having been made to guarantee that nothing else but form will be perceived.

³⁴ These eyes, made not to see, will never see. For the idea they represent left not its maker, and it is their maker that sees through them. What was its maker's goal but not to see? For this the body's eyes are perfect means, but not for seeing. See how the body's eyes rest on externals and cannot go beyond. Watch how they stop at nothingness, unable to go beyond the form to meaning. Nothing so blinding as perception of form. For sight of form means understanding has been obscured.

³⁵ Only mistakes have different forms, and so they can deceive. You can change form because it is not true. It could not be reality, because it can be changed. Reason will tell you that, if form is not reality, it must be an illusion and is not there to see. And if you see it, you must be mistaken, for you are seeing what can not be real as if it were. What cannot see beyond what is not there must be distorted perception and must perceive illusions as the truth. Could it then recognize the truth?

³⁶ Let not the form of his or her mistakes keep you from him or her whose holiness is yours. Let not the vision of his or her holiness, the sight of which would show you your forgiveness, be kept from you by what the body's eyes can see. Let your awareness of your brother or sister not be blocked by your perception of his or her sins and of his or her body. What is there in him or her that you would attack except what you associate with his or her body, which you believe can sin? Beyond his or her errors is his or her holiness and your salvation. You gave him or her not his or her holiness but tried to see your sins in him or her to save yourself. And yet his or her holiness is your forgiveness. Can you be saved by making sinful the one whose holiness is your salvation?

³⁷ A holy relationship, however newly born, must value holiness above all else. Unholy values will produce confusion, and in awareness. In an unholy relationship, each one is valued because he or she seems to justify the other's sin. He or she sees within the other what impels him or her to sin against his or her will. And thus he or she lays his or her sins upon the other and is attracted to him or her to perpetuate his or her sins. And so it must become impossible for each to see himself or herself as causing sin by his or her desire to have sin real. Yet reason sees a holy relationship as what it is—a common state of mind, where both give errors gladly to correction that both may happily be healed as one.

V. The Branching of the Road

³⁸ When you come to the place where the branch in the road is quite apparent, you cannot go ahead. You must go either one way or the other. For now if you go straight ahead, the way you went before you reached the branch, you will go nowhere. The whole purpose of coming this far was to decide which branch you will take now. The way you came no longer matters. It can no longer serve. No one who reaches this far can make the wrong decision, but he or she can delay. And there is no part of the journey that seems more hopeless and futile than standing where the road branches and not deciding on which way to go.

³⁹ It is but the first few steps along the right way that seem hard, for you have chosen, although you still may think you can go back and make the other choice. This is not so. A choice made with the power of the God Realm to uphold it cannot be undone. Your way is decided. There will be nothing you will not be told if you acknowledge this.

⁴⁰ And so you stand, here in this holy place, before the veil of sin that hangs between you and the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness. Let it be lifted! Raise it together, for it is but a veil that stands between you. Either alone will see it as a solid block, nor realize how thin the drapery that separates you now. Yet it is almost over in your awareness, and peace has reached you even here before the veil. Think what will happen after! The love of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness will light your faces and shine from them into a darkened world that needs the light. And from this holy place She will return with you, not leaving it nor you. You will become Her messengers, returning Her unto Herself.

⁴¹ Think of the loveliness that you will see who walk with Her! And think how beautiful will each of you look to the other! How happy you will be to be together after such a long and lonely journey where you walked alone. The gates of the God Realm, open now for you, will you now open to the sorrowful. And none who looks upon the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you but will rejoice. How beautiful the sight you saw beyond the veil which you will bring to light the tired eyes of those as weary now as once you were. How thankful will they be to see you come among them, offering the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's forgiveness to dispel their faith in sin.

⁴² Every mistake you make the other will gently have corrected for you, for in his or her sight your loveliness is his or her salvation which he or she would protect from harm. And each will be the other's strong protector from everything that seems to rise between you. So shall you walk the world with me, whose message has not yet been given to everyone. For you are here to let it be received. God's offer still is open, yet it waits acceptance. From you who have accepted it is it received. Into your joined hands is it safely given, for you who share it have become its willing guardians and protectors.

⁴³ To all who share the love of God, the grace is given to be the givers of what they have received. And so they learn that it is theirs forever. All barriers disappear before their coming, as every obstacle was finally surmounted which seemed to rise and block their way before. This veil you lift together opens the way to truth to more than you. Those who would let illusions be lifted from their minds are this world's saviors or savioresses, walking the world with their Redeemer and carrying Her message of hope and freedom and release from suffering to everyone who needs a miracle to save him or her.

⁴⁴ How easy is it to offer this miracle to everyone! No one who has received it for himself or herself could find it difficult. For by receiving it, he or she learned it was not given him or her alone. Such is the function of a holy relationship—to receive together and give as you received. Standing before the veil, it still seems difficult. But hold out your joined hands and touch this heavy-seeming block, and you will learn how easily your fingers slip through its nothingness. It is no solid wall. And only an illusion stands between you and the holy Self you share.

VI. Weakness and Defensiveness

⁴⁵ How does one overcome illusions? Surely not by force or anger nor by opposing them in any way. Merely by letting reason tell you that they contradict reality. They go against what must be true. The opposition comes from them and not reality. Reality opposes nothing. What merely is needs no defense and offers none. Only illusions need defense because of weakness. And how can it be difficult to walk the way of truth when only weakness interferes? You are the strong ones in this seeming conflict. And you need no defense. Everything that needs defense you do not want, for anything that needs defense will weaken you.

⁴⁶ Consider what the ego wants defenses for—always to justify what goes against the truth, flies in the face of reason, and makes no sense. Can this be justified? What can this be except an invitation to insanity to save you from the truth? And what would you be saved from but what you fear? Belief in sin needs great defense and at enormous cost. All that the Holy Spirit offers must be defended against and sacrificed. For sin is carved into a block out of your peace and laid between you and its return. Yet how can peace be so fragmented? It is still whole, and nothing has been taken from it.

⁴⁷ See how the means and the material of evil dreams are nothing. In truth you stand together with nothing in between. God holds your hands, and what can separate whom HeShe has joined as one with HimHer? It is your FatherMother Whom you would defend against. Yet it remains impossible to keep love out. God rests with you in quiet, undefended and wholly undefending, for in this quiet state alone is strength and power. Here can no weakness enter, for here is no attack and therefore no illusions. Love rests in certainty. Only uncertainty can be defensive. And all uncertainty is doubt about yourself.

⁴⁸ How weak is fear—how little and how meaningless! How insignificant before the quiet strength of those whom love has joined! This is your "enemy"—a frightened mouse that would attack the universe. How likely is it that it will succeed? Can it be difficult to disregard its feeble squeaks that tell of its omnipotence and would drown out the hymn of praise to its CreatorManifestor which every heart throughout the universe forever sings as one? Which is the stronger? Is it this tiny mouse or everything that God created and manifested? You are not joined together by this mouse but by the Will of God. And can a mouse betray whom God has joined?

⁴⁹ If you but recognized how little stands between you and your awareness of your union! Be not deceived by the illusions it presents of size and thickness, weight, solidity, and firmness of foundation. Yes, to the body's eyes it looks like an enormous solid body, immovable as is a mountain. Yet within you there is a Force which no illusions can resist. This body only seems to be immovable; this Force is irresistible in truth. What, then, must happen when they come together? Can the illusion of immovability be long defended from what is quietly passed through and gone beyond?

⁵⁰ Forget not, when you feel the need arise to be defensive about anything, you have identified yourself with an illusion. And therefore feel that you are weak because you are alone. This is the cost of all illusions. Not one but rests on the belief that you are separate. Not one that does not seem to stand, heavy and solid and immovable, between you and your brother or sister. And not one that truth cannot pass over lightly and so easily that you must be convinced, in spite of what you thought it was, that it is nothing. If you forgive each other, this must happen. For it is your unwillingness to overlook what seems to stand between you that makes it look impenetrable and defends the illusion of its immovability.

VII. Freedom and the Holy Spirit

⁵¹ Do you want freedom of the body or of the mind? For both you cannot have. Which do you value? Which is your goal? For one you see as means; the other, end. And one must serve the other and lead to its predominance, increasing its importance by diminishing its own. Means serve the end, and as the end is reached, the value of the means decreases, eclipsed entirely when they are recognized as functionless. No one but yearns for freedom and tries to find it. Yet he or she will seek for it where he or she believes it is and can be found. He or she will believe it possible of mind or body, and he or she will make the other serve his or her choice as means to find it.

⁵² Where freedom of the body has been chosen, the mind is used as means whose value lies in its ability to contrive ways to achieve the body's freedom. Yet freedom of the body has no meaning, and so the mind is dedicated to serve illusions. This is a situation so contradictory and so impossible that anyone who chooses this has no idea of what is valuable. Yet even in this confusion, so profound it cannot be described, the Holy Spirit waits in gentle patience, as certain of the outcome as She is sure of Her Creator's Manifestor's love. She knows this mad decision was made by one as dear to Her Creator Manifestor as love is to itself.

⁵³ Be not disturbed at all to think how She can change the role of means and end so easily in what God loves and would have free forever. But be you rather grateful that you can be the means to serve Her end. This is the only service which leads to freedom. To serve this end, the body must be perceived as sinless because the goal is sinlessness. The lack of contradiction makes the soft transition from means to end as easy as is the shift from hate to gratitude before forgiving eyes. You will be sanctified by one another, using your bodies only to serve the sinless. And it will be impossible for you to hate what serves what you would heal.

⁵⁴ This holy relationship, lovely in its innocence, mighty in strength, and blazing with a light far brighter than the sun which lights the sky you see, is chosen of your FatherMother as a means for HisHer own plan. Be thankful that it serves yours not at all. Nothing entrusted to it can be misused, and nothing given it but will be used. This holy relationship has the power to heal all pain, regardless of its form. Neither of you alone can serve at all. Only in your joint will does healing lie. For here your healing is and here will you accept Atonement. And in your healing is the SonDaughtership healed because your wills are joined.

⁵⁵ Before a holy relationship there is no sin. The form of error is no longer seen, and reason, joined with love, looks quietly on all confusion, observing merely, "This was a mistake." And then the same Atonement you accepted in your relationship corrects the error and lays a part of the God Realm in its place. How blessed are you who let this gift be given! Each part of the God Realm that you bring is given you. And every empty place in the God Realm that you fill again with the Eternal Light you bring shines now on you. The means of sinlessness can know no fear because they carry only love with them.

⁵⁶ Children of peace, the light has come to you. The light you bring you do not recognize, and yet you will remember. Who can deny himself or herself the vision that he or she brings to others? And who would fail to recognize a gift he or she let be laid in the God Realm through himself or herself? The gentle service that you give the Holy Spirit is service to yourself. You who are now Her means must love all that She loves. And what you bring is your remembrance of everything that is eternal. No trace of anything in time can long remain in minds that serve the timeless. And no illusion can disturb the peace of a relationship which has become the means of peace.

⁵⁷ When you have looked upon each other with complete forgiveness from which no error is excluded and nothing kept hidden what mistake can there be anywhere you cannot overlook? What form of suffering

could block your sight, preventing you from seeing past it? And what illusion could there be you will not recognize as a mistake—a shadow through which you walk completely undismayed? God would let nothing interfere with those whose wills are His, and they will recognize their wills are HisHers, because they serve HisHer Will and serve it willingly. And could remembrance of what they are be long delayed?

⁵⁸ You will see your value through each other's eyes, and each one is released as he or she beholds his or her savior or savioress in place of the attacker who he or she thought was there. Through this releasing is the world released. This is your part in bringing peace. For you have asked what is your function here and have been answered. Seek not to change it nor to substitute another goal. [This one was given you and only this.] Accept this one and serve it willingly, for what the Holy Spirit does with the gifts you give each other, to whom She offers them, and where and when is up to Her. She will bestow them where they are received and welcomed. She will use every one of them for peace. Nor will one little smile or willingness to overlook the tiniest mistake be lost to anyone.

⁵⁹ What can it be but universal blessing to look on what your FatherMother loves with charity? Extension of forgiveness is the Holy Spirit's function. Leave this to Her. Let your concern be only that you give to Her that which can be extended. Save no dark secrets that She cannot use, but offer Her the tiny gifts She can extend forever. She will take each one and make of it a potent force for peace. She will withhold no blessing from it nor limit it in any way. She will join to it all the power that God has given Her to make each little gift of love a source of healing for everyone. Each little gift you offer to the other lights up the world. Be not concerned with darkness; look away from it and toward each other. And let the darkness be dispelled by Her Who knows the light and lays it gently in each quiet smile of faith and confidence with which you bless each other.

⁶⁰ On your learning depends the welfare of the world. And it is only arrogance that would deny the power of your will. Think you the Will of God is powerless? Is this humility? You do not see what this belief has done. You see yourself as vulnerable, frail, and easily destroyed and at the mercy of countless attackers more powerful than you. Let us look straight at how this error came about, for here lies buried the heavy anchor that seems to keep the fear of God in place, unmovable and solid as a rock. While this remains, so will it seem to be.

⁶¹ Who can attack the SonDaughter of God and not attack hisher FatherMother? How can God's SonDaughter be weak and frail and easily destroyed unless hisher FatherMother is? You do not see that every sin and every condemnation which you perceive and justify is an attack upon your FatherMother. And that is why it has not happened nor could be real. You do not see that this is your attempt because you think the FatherMother and the SonDaughter are separate. And you must think that they are separate because of fear. For it seems safer to attack another or yourself than to attack the great CreatorManifestor of the universe, whose power you know.

⁶² If you were one with God and recognized this oneness, you would know HisHer power is yours. But you will not remember this while you believe attack of any kind means anything. It is unjustified in any form because it has no meaning. The only way it could be justified is if each one of you were separate from the other, and all were separate from your CreatorManifestor. For only then would it be possible to attack a part of the manifested creation without the whole, the SonDaughter without the FatherMother, and to attack another without yourself or hurt yourself without the other feeling pain. And this belief you want. Yet wherein lies its value except in the desire to attack in safety? Attack is neither safe nor dangerous. It is impossible. And this is so because the universe is one. You would not choose attack on its reality if it were not essential to attack to see it [separate from its CreatorManifestor]. And thus it seems as if love could attack and become fearful.

⁶³ Only the different can attack. So you conclude because you can attack you must be different. Yet does the Holy Spirit explain this differently. Because you are not different, you cannot attack. Either position is a logical conclusion if only the different can attack. Either could be maintained, but never both. The only question to be answered to decide which must be true is whether you are different. From the position of what you understand, you seem to be and therefore can attack. Of the alternatives, this seems more natural and more in line with your experience. And therefore it is necessary that you have other experiences more in line with truth to teach you what is natural and true.

⁶⁴ This is the function of your holy relationship. For what one thinks the other will experience with him or her. What can this mean except your minds are one? Look not with fear upon this happy fact and think not that it lays a heavy burden on you. For when you have accepted it with gladness, you will realize that your relationship is a reflection of the union of the CreatorManifestor and HisHer SonDaughter. From loving minds there is no separation. And every thought in one brings gladness to the other because they are the same. Joy is unlimited because each shining thought of love extends its being and creates and manifests more of itself. There is no difference anywhere in it, for every thought is like itself.

⁶⁵ The light that joins you shines throughout the universe, and because it joins you, so it makes you one with your CreatorManifestor. And in HimHer is all manifested creation joined. Would you regret you cannot fear alone when your relationship can also teach the power of love is there, which makes all fear impossible? Do not attempt to keep a little of the ego with this gift. For it was given you to be used and not obscured. What teaches you cannot separate, denies the ego. Let truth decide if you be different or the same and teach you which is true.

Chapter Twenty Three:

The War Against Yourself

I. Introduction

¹ Do you not see the opposite of frailty and weakness is sinlessness? Innocence is strength, and nothing else is strong. The sinless cannot fear, for sin of any kind is weakness. The show of strength attack would use to cover frailty conceals it not, for how can the unreal be hidden? No one is strong who has an enemy, and no one can attack unless he or she thinks he or she has. Belief in enemies is therefore the belief in weakness, and what is weak is not the Will of God. Being opposed to it, it is its "enemy." And God is feared as an opposing will.

² How strange indeed becomes this war against yourself! You will believe that everything you use for sin can hurt you and become your enemy. And you will fight against it and try to weaken it because of this; and you will think that you succeeded and attack again. It is as certain you will fear what you attack as it is sure that you will love what you perceive as sinless. He or she walks in peace who travels sinlessly along the way love shows him or her. For love walks with him or her there, protecting him or her from fear. And he or she will see only the sinless, who can not attack.

³ Walk you in glory with your head held high, and fear no evil. The innocent are safe because they share their innocence. Nothing they see is harmful, for their awareness of the truth releases everything from the illusion of harmfulness. And what seemed harmful now stands shining in their innocence, released from sin and fear, and happily returned to love. They share the strength of love because they looked on innocence. And every error disappeared because they saw it not. Who looks for glory finds it where it is. Where could it be but in the innocent?

⁴ Let not the little interferers pull you to littleness. There can be no attraction of guilt in innocence. Think what a happy world you walk with truth beside you! Do not give up this world of freedom for a little sigh of seeming sin nor for a tiny stirring of guilt's attraction. Would you, for all these meaningless distractions, lay the God Realm aside? Your destiny and purpose are far beyond them in the clean place where littleness does not exist. Your purpose is at variance with littleness of any kind. And so it is at variance with sin.

⁵ Let us not let littleness lead God's SonDaughter into temptation. Hiser glory is beyond it, measureless and timeless as eternity. Do not let time intrude upon your sight of him or her. Leave himher not frightened and alone in hiser temptation but help himher rise above it and perceive the light of which heshe is a part. Your innocence will light the way to hishers, and so is yours protected and kept in your awareness. For who can know hiser glory and perceive the little and the weak about himhende? Who can walk trembling in a fearful world and realize that the God Realm 's glory shines on him or her?

⁶ Nothing around you but is part of you. Look on it lovingly, and see the light of the God Realm in it. So will you come to understand all that is given you. In kind forgiveness will the world sparkle and shine and everything you once thought sinful now will be reinterpreted as part of the God Realm . How beautiful it is to walk clean and redeemed and happy through a world in bitter need of the redemption that your innocence bestows upon it! What can you value more than this? For here is your salvation and your freedom. And it must be complete if you would recognize it.

II. The Irreconcilable Beliefs

⁷ The memory of God comes to the quiet mind. It cannot come where there is conflict, for a mind at war against itself remembers not eternal gentleness. The means of war are not the means of peace, and what the warlike would remember is not love. War is impossible unless belief in victory is cherished. Conflict within you must imply that you believe the ego has the power to be victorious. Why else would you identify with it? Surely you realize the ego is at war with God. Certain it is it has no enemy. Yet just as certain is its fixed belief it has an enemy that it must overcome and will succeed.

⁸ Do you not realize a war against yourself would be a war on God? Is victory conceivable? And if it were, is this a victory that you would want? The death of God, if it were possible, would be your death. Is this a victory? The ego always marches to defeat because it thinks that triumph over you is possible. And God thinks otherwise. This is no war—only the mad belief the Will of God can be attacked and overthrown. You may identify with this belief, but never will it be more than madness. And fear will reign in madness and will seem to have replaced love there. This is the conflict's purpose. And to those who think that it is possible, the means seem real.

⁹ Be certain that it is impossible God and the ego, or yourself and it, will ever meet. You seem to meet and make your strange alliances on grounds that have no meaning. For your beliefs converge upon the body, the ego's chosen home, which you believe is yours. You meet at a mistake—an error in your self-appraisal. The ego joins with an illusion of yourself you share with it. And yet illusions cannot join. They are the same, and they are nothing. Their joining lies in nothingness; two are as meaningless as one or as a thousand. The ego joins with nothing, being nothing. The victory it seeks is meaningless as is itself.

¹⁰ Brothers and sisters, the war against yourself is almost over. The journey's end is at the place of peace. Would you not now accept the peace offered you here? This "enemy" you fought as an intruder on your peace is here transformed before your sight into the giver of your peace. Your "enemy" was God HimHerself, to Whom all conflict, triumph, and attack of any kind are all unknown. HeShe loves you perfectly, completely, and eternally. The SonDaughter of God at war with hisher CreatorManifestor is a condition as ridiculous as nature roaring at the wind in anger and proclaiming that it is part of itself no more.

¹¹ Could nature possibly establish this and make it true? Nor is it up to you to say what shall be part of you and what is kept apart. The war against yourself was undertaken to teach the SonDaughter of God that heshe is not himherself and not hisher Father'sMother's SonDaughter. For this, the memory of hisher FatherMother must be forgotten. It is forgotten in the body's life, and if you think you are a body, you will believe you have forgotten it. Yet truth can never be forgotten by itself, and you have not forgotten what you are. Only a strange illusion of yourself, a wish to triumph over what you are, remembers not.

¹² The war against yourself is but the battle of two illusions, struggling to make them different from each other in the belief the one which conquers will be true. There is no conflict between them and the truth. Nor are they different from each other. Both are not true. And so it matters not what form they take. What made them is insane, and they remain part of what made them. Madness holds out no menace to reality and has no influence upon it. Illusions cannot triumph over truth, nor can they threaten it in any way. And the reality which they deny is not a part of them.

¹³ What you remember is a part of you. For you must be as God created and manifested you. Truth does not fight against illusions, nor do illusions fight against the truth. Illusions battle only with themselves. Being fragmented, they fragment. But truth is indivisible and far beyond their little reach. You will remember what you know when you have learned you cannot be in conflict. One illusion about yourself can battle with another, yet the war of two illusions is a state where nothing happens. There is no victor, and there is no victory. And truth stands radiant, apart from conflict, untouched and quiet in the peace of God.

¹⁴ Conflict must be between two forces. It cannot exist between one power and nothingness. There is nothing you could attack that is not part of you. And by attacking it, you make two illusions of yourself in conflict with each other. And this occurs whenever you look on anything that God created and manifested with anything but love. Conflict is fearful, for it is the birth of fear. Yet what is born of nothing cannot win reality through battle. Why would you fill your world with conflicts with yourself? Let all this madness be undone for you and turn in peace to the remembrance of God, still shining in your quiet mind.

¹⁵ See how the conflict of illusions disappears when it is brought to truth! For it seems real only as long as it is seen as war between conflicting truths, the conqueror to be the truer, the more real, and vanquisher of the illusion that was less real, made an illusion by defeat. Thus, conflict is the choice between illusions, one to be crowned as real, the other vanquished and despised. Here will the FatherMother never be remembered. Yet no illusion can invade HisHer home and drive HimHer out of what HeShe loves forever. And what HeShe loves must be forever quiet and at peace because it is HisHer home. And you who are beloved of HimHer are no illusions, being as true and holy as HimHerself.

¹⁶ The stillness of your certainty of HimHer and of yourself is home to both of you, who dwell as one and not apart. Open the door of HisHer most holy home and let forgiveness sweep away all trace of the belief in sin that keeps God homeless and HisHer SonDaughter with HimHer. You are not strangers in the house of God. Welcome your brothersister to the home where God has set himher in serenity and peace and dwells with himher. Illusions have no place where love abides, protecting you from everything that is not true. You dwell in peace as limitless as its CreatorManifestor, and everything is given those who would remember HimHer. Over HisHer home the Holy Spirit watches, sure that its peace can never be disturbed.

¹⁷ How can the resting-place of God turn on itself and seek to overcome the One Who dwells there? And think what happens when the house of God perceives itself divided. The altar disappears, the light grows dim, the temple of the Holy One becomes a house of sin. And nothing is remembered except illusions. Illusions can conflict because their forms are different. And they do battle only to establish which form is true.

¹⁸ Illusion meets illusion; truth, itself. The meeting of illusions leads to war. Peace, looking on itself, extends itself. War is the condition in which fear is born and grows and seeks to dominate. Peace is the state where love abides and seeks to share itself. Conflict and peace are opposites. Where one abides the other cannot be; where either goes the other disappears. So is the memory of God obscured in minds that have become illusion's battleground. Yet far beyond this senseless war it shines, ready to be remembered when you side with peace.

III. The Laws of Chaos

¹⁹ The "laws" of chaos can be brought to light, though never understood. Chaotic laws are hardly meaningful and therefore out of reason's sphere. Yet they appear to constitute an obstacle to reason and to truth. Let us, then, look upon them calmly, that we may look beyond them, understanding what they are, not what they would maintain. It is essential it be understood what they are for, because it is their purpose to make meaningless and to attack the truth. Here are the laws that rule the world you made. And yet they govern nothing and need not be broken; merely looked upon and gone beyond.

²⁰ The first chaotic law is that the truth is different for everyone. Like all these principles, this one maintains that each is separate and has a different set of thoughts which sets him or her off from others. This principle evolves from the belief there is a hierarchy of illusions; some are more valuable and therefore true. Each one establishes this for himself or herself and makes it true by his or her attack on what another values. And this is justified because the values differ and those who hold them seem to be unlike and therefore enemies.

²¹ Think how this seems to interfere with the first principle of miracles. For this establishes degrees of truth among illusions, making it appear that some of them are harder to overcome than others. If it were realized that they are all the same and equally untrue, it would be easy, then, to understand that miracles apply to all of them. Errors of any kind can be corrected because they are untrue. When brought to truth instead of to each other, they merely disappear. No part of nothing can be more resistant to the truth than can another.

²² The second law of chaos, dear indeed to every worshiper of sin, is that each one must sin and therefore deserves attack and death. This principle, closely related to the first, is the demand that errors call for punishment and not correction. For the destruction of the one who makes the error places him or her beyond correction and beyond forgiveness. What he or she has done is thus interpreted as an irrevocable sentence upon himself or herself, which God HimHerself is powerless to overcome. Sin cannot be remitted, being the belief the SonDaughter of God can make mistakes for which hisher own destruction becomes inevitable.

²³ Think what this seems to do to the relationship between the FatherMother and the SonDaughter. Now it appears that they can never be one again. For one must always be condemned and by the other. Now are they different and enemies. And their relationship is one of opposition, just as the separate aspects of the SonDaughter meet only to conflict but not to join. One becomes weak, the other strong by his or her defeat. And fear of God and of each other now appears as sensible, made real by what the SonDaughter of God has done both to himherself and hisher CreatorManifestor. The arrogance on which the laws of chaos stand could not be more apparent than emerges here.

²⁴ Here is a principle which would define what the CreatorManifestor of reality must be; what HeShe must think and what HeShe must believe; and how HeShe must respond, believing it. It is not seen as even necessary that HeShe be asked about the truth of what has been established for HisHer belief. HisHer SonDaughter can tell HimHer this, and HeShe has but the choice whether to take hisher word for it or be mistaken. This leads directly to the third preposterous belief that seems to make chaos eternal. For if God cannot be mistaken, then HeShe must accept HisHer Son'sDaughter's belief in what HanHun is and hate himher for it.

²⁵ See how the fear of God is reinforced by this third principle. Now it becomes impossible to turn to HimHer for help in misery. For now HeShe has become the "enemy" Who caused it and to Whom appeal is useless. Nor can salvation lie within the SonDaughter, whose every aspect seems to be at war with HimHer and justified in its attack. And now is conflict made inevitable and beyond the help of God. And now salvation must remain impossible because the savior or savioress has become the enemy.

²⁶ There can be no release and no escape. Atonement thus becomes a myth, and vengeance, not forgiveness, is the Will of God. From where all this begins, there is no sight of help that can succeed. Only destruction can be the outcome. And God HimHerself seems to be siding with it to overcome HisHer SonDaughter. Think not the ego will enable you to find escape from what it wants. That is the function of this course, which does not value what the ego cherishes.

²⁷ The ego values only what it takes. This leads to the fourth law of chaos, which, if the others are accepted, must be true. This seeming law is the belief you have what you have taken. By this, another's loss becomes your gain, and thus it fails to recognize that you can never take away save from yourself. Yet all the other laws must lead to this. For enemies do not give willingly to one another, nor would they seek to share the things they value. And what your enemies would keep from you must be worth having, just because they keep it hidden from your sight.

²⁸ All of the mechanisms of madness are seen emerging here: the "enemy," made strong by keeping hidden the valuable inheritance which should be yours; your justified position and attack for what has been withheld; and the inevitable loss the enemy must suffer to save yourself. Thus do the guilty ones protest their "innocence." Were they not forced into this foul attack by the unscrupulous behavior of the enemy, they would respond with only kindness. But in a savage world, the kind cannot survive, so they must take or else be taken from.

²⁹ And now there is a vague unanswered question, not yet "explained." What is this precious thing, this priceless pearl, this hidden secret treasure, to be wrested in righteous wrath from this most treacherous and cunning enemy? It must be what you want but never found. And now you "understand" the reason why you found it not. For it was taken from you by this enemy and hidden where you would not think to look. He or she hid it in his or her body, making it the cover for his or her guilt, the hiding place for what belongs to you. Now must his or her body be destroyed and sacrificed that you may have that which belongs to you. His or her treachery demands his or her death that you may live. And you attack only in self defense.

³⁰ But what is it you want that needs his or her death? Can you be sure your murderous attack is justified unless you know what it is for? And here a final principle of chaos comes to the rescue. It holds there is a substitute for love. This is the "magic" that will cure all of your pain; the missing factor in your madness that makes it "sane." This is the reason why you must attack. Here is what makes your vengeance justified. Behold, unveiled, the ego's secret gift, torn from your brother's or sister's body, hidden there in malice and in hatred for the one to whom the gift belongs. He or she would deprive you of the secret ingredient which would give meaning to your life. The substitute for love, born of your enmity to one another, must be salvation. It has no substitute, and there is only one. And all your relationships have but the purpose of seizing it and making it your own.

³¹ Never is your possession made complete. And never will your brother or sister cease his or her attack on you for what you stole. Nor will God end HisHer vengeance upon both, for in HisHer madness HeShe must have this substitute for love and kill you both. You who believe you walk in sanity, with feet on solid ground and through a world where meaning can be found, consider this: [These are the laws on which your "sanity" appears to rest.] These are the principles which make the ground beneath your feet seem solid. And it is here you look for meaning. These are the laws you made for your salvation. They hold in place the substitute for the God Realm which you prefer. This is their purpose; they were made for this. There is no point in asking what they mean. That is apparent. The means of madness must be insane. Are you as certain that you realize the goal is madness?

³² No one wants madness, nor does anyone cling to his or her madness if he or she sees that this is what it is. What protects madness is the belief that it is true. It is the function of insanity to take the place of truth. It must be seen as truth to be believed. And if it is the truth, then must its opposite, which was the truth before, be madness now. Such a reversal, completely turned around, with madness sanity, illusions true, attack a kindness, hatred love and murder benediction, is the goal the laws of chaos serve. These are the means by which the laws of God appear to be reversed. Here do the laws of sin appear to hold love captive and let sin go free.

³³ These do not seem to be the goals of chaos, for by the great reversal, they appear to be the laws of order. How could it not be so? Chaos is lawlessness and has no laws. To be believed, its seeming laws must be perceived as real. Their goal of madness must be seen as sanity. And fear, with ashen lips and sightless eyes, blinded and terrible to look upon, is lifted to the throne of love, its dying conqueror, its substitute, the savior or savioress from salvation. How lovely do the laws of fear make death appear! Give thanks unto the hero and heroine on love's throne, who saved the SonDaughter of God for fear and death!

³⁴ And yet, how can it be that laws like these can be believed? There is a strange device that makes it possible. Nor is it unfamiliar; we have seen how it appears to function the many times before. In truth it does not function, yet in dreams, where only shadows play the major roles, it seems most powerful. No law of chaos could compel belief but for the emphasis on form and disregard of content. No one who thinks that one of them is true sees what it says. Some forms it takes seem to have meaning, and that is all.

³⁵ How can some forms of murder not mean death? Can an attack in any form be love? What form of condemnation is a blessing? Who makes his or her savior or savioress powerless and finds salvation? Let not the form of the attack on him or her deceive you. You cannot seek to harm him or her and be saved. Who can find safety from attack by turning on himself? How can it matter what the form this madness takes? It is a judgment that defeats itself, condemning what it says it wants to save. Be not deceived when madness takes a form you think is lovely. What is intent on your destruction is not your friend.

³⁶ You would maintain and think it true that you do not believe these senseless laws nor act upon them. And when you look at what they say, they cannot be believed. Brothers and sisters, you do believe them. For how else could you perceive the form they take with content such as this? Can any form of this be tenable? Yet you believe them for the form they take and do not recognize the content. It never changes. Can you paint rosy lips upon a skeleton, dress it in loveliness, pet it and pamper it, and make it live? And can you be content with an illusion that you are living?

³⁷ There is no life outside of the God Realm . Where God created and manifested life, there life must be. In any state apart from the God Realm, life is illusion. At best, it seems like life; at worst, like death. Yet both are judgments on what is not life, equal in their inaccuracy and lack of meaning. Life not in the God Realm is impossible, and what is not in the God Realm is not anywhere. Outside of the God Realm, only the conflict of illusions stands; senseless, impossible, and beyond all reason, and yet perceived as an eternal barrier to the God Realm . Illusions are but forms. Their content is never true.

³⁸ The laws of chaos govern all illusions. Their forms conflict, making it seem quite possible to value some above the others. Yet each one rests as surely on the belief the laws of chaos are the laws of order as do the others. Each one upholds these laws completely, offering a certain witness that these laws are true. The seeming gentler forms of the attack are no less certain in their witnessing or their results. Certain it is illusions will bring fear because of the beliefs that they imply, not for their form. And lack of faith in love in any form attests to chaos as reality.

³⁹ From the belief in sin, the faith in chaos must follow. It is because it follows that it seems to be a logical conclusion—a valid step in ordered thought. The steps to chaos do follow neatly from their starting point. Each is a different form in the progression of truth's reversal, leading still deeper into terror and away from truth. Think not one step is smaller than another nor that return from one is easier. The whole descent from the God Realm lies in each one. And where your thinking starts, there must it end.

⁴⁰ Brothers and sisters, take not one step in the descent to hell. For having taken one, you will not recognize the rest for what they are. And they will follow. Attack in any form has placed your foot upon the twisted stairway that leads from the God Realm. Yet any instant it is possible to have all this undone. How can you know whether you chose the stairs to the God Realm or the way to hell? Quite easily. How do you feel? Is peace in your awareness? Are you certain which way you go? And are you sure the goal of the God Realm can be reached? If not, you walk alone. Ask, then, your female Friend to join with you and give you certainty of where you go.

IV. Salvation Without Compromise

⁴¹ Is it not true you do not recognize some of the forms attack can take? If it is true attack in any form will hurt you and will do so just as much as in another form which you do recognize, then it must follow that you do not always recognize the source of pain. Attack in any form is equally destructive. Its purpose does not change. Its sole intent is murder, and what form of murder serves to cover the massive guilt and frantic fear of punishment the murderer must feel? He or she may deny he or she is a murderer and justify his or her savagery with smiles as he or she attacks. Yet he or she will suffer and will look on his or her intent in nightmares where the smiles are gone and where the purpose rises to meet his or her horrified awareness and pursue him or her still. For no one thinks of murder and escapes the guilt the thought entails. If the intent is death, what matter the form it takes?

⁴² Is death in any form, however lovely and charitable it may seem to be, a blessing and a sign the Voice for God speaks through you to your brother? The wrapping does not make the gift you give. An empty box, however beautiful and gently given, still contains nothing. And neither the receiver nor the giver is long deceived. Withhold forgiveness from your brother or sister, and you attack him or her. You give him or her nothing and receive of him or her but what you gave.

⁴³ Salvation is no compromise of any kind. To compromise is to accept but part of what you want—to take a little and give up the rest. Salvation gives up nothing. It is complete for everyone. Let the idea of compromise but enter, and the awareness of salvation's purpose is lost because it is not recognized. It is denied where compromise has been accepted, for compromise is the belief salvation is impossible. It would maintain you can attack a little, love a little, and know the difference. Thus it would teach a little of the same can still be different, and yet the same remain intact as one. Does this make sense? Can it be understood?

⁴⁴ This course is easy just because it makes no compromise. Yet it seems difficult to those who still believe that compromise is possible.

They do not see that, if it is, salvation is attack. Yet it is certain the belief that salvation is impossible cannot uphold a quiet, calm assurance it has come. Forgiveness cannot be withheld a little. Nor is it possible to attack for this and love for that and understand forgiveness. Would you not want to recognize assault upon your peace in any form, if only thus does it become impossible that you lose sight of it? It can be kept shining before your vision, forever clear and never out of sight if you defend it not.

⁴⁵ Those who believe that peace can be defended and that attack is justified on its behalf cannot perceive it lies within them. How could they know? Could they accept forgiveness side by side with the belief that murder takes some forms by which their peace is saved? Would they be willing to accept the fact their savage purpose is directed against themselves? No one unites with enemies nor is at one with them in purpose. And no one compromises with an enemy but hates him or her still for what he or she kept from him or her.

⁴⁶ Mistake not truce for peace, nor compromise for the escape from conflict. To be released from conflict means that it is over. The door is open; you have left the battleground. You have not lingered there in cowering hope because the guns are still an instant and the fear that haunts the place of death is not apparent that it will not return. There is no safety in a battleground. You can look down on it in safety from above and not be touched. But from within it, you can find no safety. Not one tree left standing still will shelter you. Not one illusion of protection stands against the faith in murder. Here stands the body, torn between the natural desire to communicate and the unnatural intent to murder and to die. Think you the form that murder takes can offer safety? Can guilt be absent from a battlefield? [Do not remain in conflict, for there is no war without attack.]

V. The Fear of Life

⁴⁷ The fear of God is fear of life and not of death. Yet HeShe remains the only place of safety. In HimHer is no attack, and no illusion in any form stalks the God Realm. The God Realm is wholly true. No difference enters, and what is all the same cannot conflict. You are not asked to fight against your wish to murder. But you are asked to realize the form it takes conceals the same intent. And it is this you fear and not the form. What is not love is murder. What is not loving must be an attack. Every illusion is an assault on truth, and every one does violence to the idea of love because it seems to be of equal truth.

⁴⁸ What can be equal to the truth yet different? Murder and love are incompatible. Yet if they both are true, then must they be the same and indistinguishable from one another. So will they be to those who see

God's SonDaughter a body. For it is not the body that is like the Son'sDaughter's CreatorManifestor. And what is lifeless cannot be the SonDaughter of Life. How can a body be extended to hold the universe? Can it create and manifest and be what it creates and manifests? And can it offer its creationsmanifestations all that it is and never suffer loss?

⁴⁹ God does not share HisHer function with a body. HeShe gave the function to create and manifest unto HisHer SonDaughter because it is HisHer own. It is not sinful to believe the function of the SonDaughter is murder, but it is insanity. What is the same can have no different function. Manifested creation is the means for God's extension, and what is HisHer must be HisHer Son'sDaughter's as well. Either the FatherMother and the SonDaughter are murderers or neither is. Life makes not death, creatingmanifesting like itself.

⁵⁰ The lovely light of your relationship is like the love of God. It cannot yet assume the holy function God gave HisHer SonDaughter, for your forgiveness of one another is not complete as yet, and so it cannot be extended to all manifested creation. Each form of murder and attack that still attracts you and that you do not recognize for what it is limits the healing and the miracles you have the power to extend to all. Yet does the Holy Spirit understand how to increase your little gifts and make them mighty. Also She understands how your relationship is raised above the battleground, in it no more. This is your part—to realize that murder in any form is not your will. The overlooking of the battleground is now your purpose.

⁵¹ Be lifted up and from a higher place look down upon it. From there will your perspective be quite different. Here in the midst of it, it does seem real. Here you have chosen to be part of it. Here murder is your choice. Yet from above, the choice is miracles instead of murder. And the perspective coming from this choice shows you the battle is not real and easily escaped. Bodies may battle, but the clash of forms is meaningless. And it is over when you realize it never was begun. How can a battle be perceived as nothingness when you engage in it? How can the truth of miracles be recognized if murder is your choice?

⁵² When the temptation to attack rises to make your mind darkened and murderous, remember you can see the battle from above. Even in forms you do not recognize, the signs you know. There is a stab of pain, a twinge of guilt, and above all, a loss of peace. This you know well. When it occurs, leave not your place on high but quickly choose a miracle instead of murder. And God HimHerself and all the lights of the God Realm will gently lean to you and hold you up. For you have chosen to remain where HeShe would have you, and no illusion can attack the peace of God together with HisHer SonDaughter.

⁵³ See no one from the battleground, for there you look on him or her from nowhere. You have no reference-point from where to look, where meaning can be given what you see. For only bodies could attack and murder, and if this is your purpose, then you must be one with them. Only a purpose unifies, and those who share a purpose have a mind as one. The body has no purpose and must be solitary. From below, it cannot be surmounted. From above, the limits it exerts on those in battle still are gone and not perceived. The body stands between the FatherMother and the God Realm HeShe created and manifested for HisHer SonDaughter because it has no purpose.

⁵⁴ Think what is given those who share their Father'sMother's purpose and who know that it is theirs! They want for nothing. Sorrow of any kind is inconceivable. Only the light they love is in awareness, and only love shines upon them forever. It is their past, their present, and their future always the same, eternally complete, and wholly shared. They know it is impossible their happiness could ever suffer change of any kind. Perhaps you think the battleground can offer something that you can win. Can it be anything that offers you a perfect calmness and a sense of love so deep and quiet that no touch of doubt can ever mar your certainty? And that will last forever?

⁵⁵ Those with the strength of God in their awareness could never think of battle. What could they gain but loss of their perfection? For everything fought for on the battleground is of the body—something it seems to offer or to own. No one who knows that he or she has everything could seek for limitation, nor could he or she value the body's offerings. The senselessness of conquest is quite apparent from the quiet sphere above the battleground. What can conflict with everything? And what is there that offers less, yet could be wanted more? Who with the love of God upholding him or her could find the choice of miracles or murder hard to make?

Chapter Twenty Four:

Specialness and Separation

I. Introduction

¹ Forget not that the motivation for this course is the attainment and the keeping of the state of peace. Given this state the mind is quiet, and the condition in which God is remembered is attained. It is not necessary to tell HimHer what to do. HeShe will not fail. Where HeShe can enter, there HeShe is already. And can it be HeShe cannot enter where HeShe wills to be? Peace will be yours because it is HisHer Will. Can you believe a shadow can hold back the Will that holds the universe secure? God does not wait upon illusions to let HimHer be HimHerself. No more HisHer SonDaughter. They are. And what illusion that idly seems to drift between them has the power to defeat what is Their Will?

² To learn this course requires willingness to question every value that you hold. Not one can be kept hidden and obscure but it will jeopardize your learning. No belief is neutral. Every one has the power to dictate each decision you make. For a decision is a conclusion based on everything that you believe. It is the outcome of belief and follows it as surely as does suffering follow guilt and freedom sinlessness. There is no substitute for peace. What God creates and manifests has no alternative. The truth arises from what HeShe knows. And your decisions come from your beliefs as certainly as all manifested creation rose in HisHer Mind because of what HeShe knows.

II. Specialness as a Substitute For Love

³ Love is extension. To withhold the smallest gift is not to know love's purpose. Love offers everything forever. Hold back but one belief, one offering, and love is gone because you asked a substitute to take its place. And now must war, the substitute for peace, come with the one alternative that you can choose for love. Your choosing it has given it all the reality it seems to have.

⁴ Beliefs will never openly attack each other, because conflicting outcomes are impossible. But an unrecognized belief is a decision to war in secret, where the results of conflict are kept unknown and never brought to reason to be considered sensible or not. And the many senseless outcomes have been reached, and meaningless decisions have been made and kept hidden to become beliefs, now given power to direct all subsequent decisions. Mistake you not the power of these hidden warriors to disrupt your peace. For it is at their mercy while you decide to leave it there. The secret enemies of peace, your least decision to choose attack instead of love, unrecognized and swift to challenge you to combat and to violence far more inclusive than you think, are there by your election. Do not deny their presence nor their terrible results. All that can be denied is their reality, but not their outcome.

⁵ All that is ever cherished as a hidden belief, to be defended though unrecognized, is faith in specialness. This takes the many forms but always clashes with the reality of God's manifested creation and with the grandeur which HeShe gave HisHer SonDaughter. What else could justify attack? For who could hate someone whose Self is his or her and whom he or she knows? Only the special could have enemies, for they are different and not the same. And difference of any kind imposes orders of reality and a need to judge that cannot be escaped.

⁶ What God created and manifested cannot be attacked, for there is nothing in the universe unlike itself. But what is different calls for judgment, and this must come from someone "better," someone incapable of being like what he or she condemns, "above" it, sinless by comparison with it. And thus does specialness become a means and end at once. For specialness not only sets apart but serves as grounds from which attack on those who seem "beneath" the special one is "natural" and "just." The special ones feel weak and frail because of differences, for what would make them special is their enemy. Yet they protect its enmity and call it "friend." On its behalf they fight against the universe, for nothing in the world they value more.

⁷ Specialness is the great dictator of the wrong decisions. Here is the grand illusion of what you are and what your brother or sister is. And here is what must make the body dear and worth preserving. Specialness must be defended. Illusions can attack it, and they do. For what your brother or sister must become to keep your specialness is an illusion. He or she who is "worse" than you must be attacked so that your specialness can live on his or her defeat. For specialness is triumph, and its victory is his or her defeat and shame. How can he or she live with all your sins upon him or her? And who must be his or her conqueror but you?

⁸ Would it be possible for you to hate your brother or sister if you were like him? Could you attack him or her if you realized you journey with him or her to a goal that is the same? Would you not help him or her reach it in every way you could if his or her attainment of it were perceived as yours? You are his or her enemy in specialness; his or her friend in a shared purpose. Specialness can never share, for it depends on goals that you alone can reach. And he or she must never reach them, or your goal is jeopardized. Can love have meaning where the goal is triumph? And what decision can be made for this that will not hurt you? Your brother or sister is your friend because his or her FatherMother created and manifested him or her like you. There is no difference. You have been given to each other that love might be extended, not cut off from one another. What you keep is lost to you. God gave you both HimHerself, and to remember this is now the only purpose that you share. And so it is the only one you have.

⁹ Could you attack each other if you chose to see no specialness of any kind between you? Look fairly at whatever makes you give each other only partial welcome or would let you think that you are better off apart. Is it not always your belief your specialness is limited by your relationship? And is not this the "enemy" that makes you both illusions to each other?

¹⁰ The fear of God and of each other comes from each unrecognized belief in specialness. For each demands the other bow to it against his or her will. And God HimHerself must honor it or suffer vengeance. Every twinge of malice or stab of hate or wish to separate arises here. For here the purpose which you share becomes obscured from both of you. You would oppose this course because it teaches you are alike. You have no purpose that is not the same and none your FatherMother does not share with you. For your relationship has been made clean of special goals. And would you now defeat the goal of holiness that the God Realm gave it? What perspective can the special have that does not change with every seeming blow, each slight, or fancied judgment on itself?

¹¹ Those who are special must defend illusions against the truth. For what is specialness but an attack upon the Will of God? You love your brother or sister not while it is this you would defend against him or her. This is what he or she attacks and you protect. Here is the ground of battle which you wage against him or her. Here must he or she be your enemy and not your friend. Never can there be peace among the different. He or she is your friend because you are the same.

III. The Treachery of Specialness

¹² Comparison must be an ego device, for love makes none. Specialness always makes comparison. It is established by a lack seen in another and maintained by searching for and keeping clear in sight all lacks it can perceive. This does it seek, and this it looks upon. And always whom it thus diminishes would be your savior or savior, had you not chosen to make of him or her a tiny measure of your specialness instead. Against the littleness you see in him or her, you stand as tall and stately, clean and honest, pure and unsullied by comparison with what you see. Nor do you understand it is yourself that you diminish thus.

¹³ Pursuit of specialness is always at the cost of peace. Who can attack his or her savior or savior and cut him or her down yet recognize his or her strong support? Who can detract from his or her omnipotence yet share his or her power? And who can use him or her as the gauge of littleness and be released from limits? You have a function in salvation. Its pursuit will bring you joy. But the pursuit of specialness must bring you pain. Here is a goal that would defeat salvation and thus run counter to the Will of God. To value specialness is to esteem an alien will to which illusions of yourself are dearer than the truth.

¹⁴ Specialness is the idea of sin made real. Sin is impossible even to imagine without this base. For sin arose from it out of nothingness; an evil flower with no roots at all. Here is the self-made "savior or saviorress," the "creatormanifestor" who creates and manifests unlike the FatherMother and which made HisHer SonDaughter like to itself and not like unto himher. HisHer "special" sons or daughters are the many, never one, each one in exile from himself or herself and HimHer of Whom they are a part. Nor do they love the Oneness Which created and manifested them as one with HimHer. They chose their specialness instead of the God Realm and instead of peace and wrapped it carefully in sin to keep it "safe" from truth.

¹⁵ You are not special. If you think you are and would defend your specialness against the truth of what you really are, how can you know the truth? What answer that the Holy Spirit gives can reach you when it is your specialness to which you listen and which asks and answers? Its tiny answer, soundless in the melody which pours from God to you eternally in loving praise of what you are, is all you listen to. And that vast song of honor and of love for what you are seems silent and unheard before its "mightiness." You strain your ears to hear its soundless voice, and yet the Call of God HimHerself is soundless to you.

¹⁶ You can defend your specialness, but never will you hear the Voice for God beside it. They speak a different language and they fall on different ears. To every special one a different message, and one with different meaning, is the truth. Yet how can truth be different to each one? The special messages the special hear convince them they are different and apart—each in his or her special sins and "safe" from love, which does not see his or her specialness at all. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's vision is their "enemy," for it sees not what they would look upon, and it would show them that the specialness they think they see is an illusion. What would they see instead?

¹⁷ The shining radiance of the SonDaughter of God—so like hisher FatherMother that the memory of HimHer springs instantly to mind. And with this memory, the SonDaughter remembers hisher own creationsmanifestations, as like to himher as heshe is to hisher FatherMother. And all the world he or she made and all his or her specialness and all the sins he or she held in its defense against himself or herself will vanish as his or her mind accepts the truth about himself or herself as it returns to take their place. This is the only "cost" of truth: you will no longer see what never was, nor hear what makes no sound. Is it a sacrifice to give up nothing and to receive the love of God forever?

¹⁸ You who have chained your savior or savioress to your specialness and given it his or her place, remember this: He or she has not lost the power to forgive you all the sins you think you placed between him or her and the function of salvation given him or her for you. Nor will you change his or her function, any more than you can change the truth in him or her and in yourself. But be you certain that the truth is just the same in both. It gives no different messages and has one meaning. And it is one you both can understand, and one which brings release to both of you. Here stands your brother or sister with the key to the God Realm in his or her hand held out to you. Let not the dream of specialness remain between you. What is one is joined in truth.

¹⁹ Think of the loveliness that you will see within yourself when you have looked on him or her as on a friend. He or she is the enemy of specialness but only friend to what is real in you. Not one attack you thought you made on him or her has taken from him or her the gift that God would have him or her give to you. His or her need to give it is as great as yours to have it. Let him or her forgive you all your specialness and make you whole in mind and one with him or her. He or she waits for your forgiveness only that he or she may return it unto you. It is not God Who has condemned HisHer SonDaughter. But only you, to save his or her specialness and kill his or her Self.

²⁰ You have come far along the way of truth—too far to falter now. Just one step more and every vestige of the fear of God will melt away in love. Your brother's or sister's specialness and yours are enemies and bound in hate to kill each other and deny they are the same. Yet it is not illusions which have reached this final obstacle that seems to make God and HisHer Realm so remote that they cannot be reached. Here in this holy place does truth stand waiting to receive you both in silent blessing and in peace so real and so encompassing that nothing stands outside. Leave all illusions of yourself outside this place to which you come in hope and honesty.

²¹ Here is your savior or savioress from your specialness. He or she is in need of your acceptance of himself or herself as part of you, as you for his. You are alike to God as God is to HimHerself. HeShe is not special, for HeShe would not keep one part of what HeShe is unto HimHerself, not given to HisHer SonDaughter but kept for HimHer alone. And it is this you fear, for if HeShe is not special, then HeShe willed HisHer SonDaughter be like HimHer, and your brother or sister is like you. Not special, but possessed of everything including you.

²² Give him or her but what he or she has, remembering God gave HimHerself to both of you in equal love that both might share the universe with HimHer Who chose that love could never be divided and kept separate from what it is and must forever be. You are your brother's; part of love was not denied to him or her. But can it be that you have lost because he or she is complete? What has been given him or her makes you complete, as it does him or her. God's love gave you to him or her and him or her to you because HeShe gave HimHerself. What is the same as God is one with HimHer. And only specialness could make the truth of God and you as one seem anything but the God Realm and the hope of peace at last in sight.

²³ Specialness is the seal of treachery upon the gift of love. Whatever serves its purpose must be given to kill. No gift that bears its seal but offers treachery to giver and receiver. Not one glance from eyes it veils but looks on sight of death. Not one believer in its potency but seeks for bargains and for compromise that would establish sin love's substitute and serve it faithfully. And no relationship that holds its purpose dear but clings to murder as safety's weapon and the great defender of all illusions from the "threat" of love.

²⁴ The hope of specialness makes it seem possible God made the body as the prison-house which keeps HisHer SonDaughter from HimHer. For it demands a special place God cannot enter and a hiding-place where none is welcome but your tiny self. Nothing is sacred here but unto you and you alone, apart and separate from all your brothers and sisters, safe from all intrusions of sanity upon illusions, safe from God, and safe for conflict everlasting. Here are the gates of hell you closed upon yourself, to rule in madness and in loneliness your special kingdom, apart from God, away from truth and from salvation.

²⁵ The key you threw away God gave your brother or sister, whose holy hands would offer it to you when you were ready to accept HisHer plan for your salvation in place of yours. How could this readiness be reached save through the sight of all your misery and the awareness that your plan has failed and will forever fail to bring you peace and joy of any kind? Through this despair you travel now, yet it is but illusion of despair. The death of specialness is not your death but your awaking into life eternal. You but emerge from an illusion of what you are to the acceptance of yourself as God created and manifested you.

IV. The Forgiveness of Specialness

²⁶ Forgiveness is the end of specialness. Only illusions can be forgiven, and then they disappear. Forgiveness is release from all illusions, and that is why it is impossible but partly to forgive. No one who clings to one illusion can see himself or herself as sinless, for he or she holds one error to himself or herself as lovely still. And so he or she calls it "unforgivable" and makes it sin. How can he or she then give his or her forgiveness wholly, when he or she would not receive it for himself or herself? For it is sure he or she would receive it wholly the instant that he or she gave it so. And thus his or her secret guilt would disappear, forgiven by himself or herself.

²⁷ Whatever form of specialness you cherish, you have made sin. Inviolable it stands, strongly defended with all your puny might against the Will of God. And thus it stands against yourself; your enemy, not God's. So does it seem to split you off from God and make you separate from HimHer as its defender. You would protect what God created and manifested not. And yet this that seems to give you power has taken it away. For you have given your brother's or sister's birthright to it, leaving him or her alone and unforgiven and yourself in sin beside him or her, both in misery before the that can save you not.

²⁸ It is not you that is so vulnerable and open to attack that just a word, a little whisper that you do not like, a circumstance that suits you not, or an event that you did not anticipate upsets your world and hurls it into chaos. Truth is not frail. Illusions leave it perfectly unmoved [and undisturbed]. But specialness is not the truth in you. It can be thrown off balance by anything. What rests on nothing never can be stable. However large and overblown it seems to be, it still must rock and turn and whirl about with every breeze.

²⁹ Without foundation nothing is secure. Would God have left HisHer SonDaughter in such a state, where safety has no meaning? No, HisHer SonDaughter is safe, resting on HimHer. It is your specialness that is attacked by everything that walks and breathes or creeps or crawls or even lives at all. Nothing is safe from its attack, and it is safe from nothing. It will forever more be unforgiving, for that is what it is—a secret vow that what God wants for you will never be and that you will oppose HisHer Will forever. Nor is it possible the two can ever be the same while specialness stands like a flaming sword of death between them and makes them "enemies."

³⁰ God asks for your forgiveness. HeShe would have no separation, like an alien will, rise between what HeShe wills for you and what you will. They are the same, for neither one wills specialness. How could they will the death of love itself? Yet they are powerless to make attack upon illusions. They are not bodies; as One Mind they wait for all illusions to be brought to them and left behind. Salvation challenges not even death. And God HimHerself, Who knows that death is not your will, must say, "Thy will be done" because you think it is.

³¹ Forgive the great CreatorManifestor of the universe, the Source of life, of love and holiness, the perfect FatherMother of a perfect SonDaughter, for your illusions of your specialness. Here is the hell you chose to be your home. HeShe chose not this for you. Ask not

HeShe enter this. The way is barred to love and to salvation. Yet if you would release your brother or sister from the depths of hell, you have forgiven HimHer Whose Will it is you rest forever in the arms of peace in perfect safety and without the heat and malice of one thought of specialness to mar your rest. Forgive the Holy One the specialness HeShe could not give and which you made instead.

³² The special ones are all asleep, surrounded by a world of loveliness they do not see. Freedom and peace and joy stand there beside the bier on which they sleep and call them to come forth and waken from their dream of death. Yet they hear nothing. They are lost in dreams of specialness. They hate the call that would awaken them, and they curse God because HeShe did not make their dream reality. Curse God and die, but not by HimHer Who made not death, but only in the dream. Open your eyes a little; see the savior or savior God gave to you that you might look on him or her and give him or her back his or her birthright. It is yours.

³³ The slaves of specialness will yet be free. Such is the Will of God and of HisHer SonDaughter. Would God condemn HimHerself to hell and to damnation? And do you will that this be done unto your savior or savior God? God calls to you from him or her to join HisHer Will to save you both from hell. Look on the print of nails upon his or her hands that he or she holds out for your forgiveness. God asks your mercy on HisHer SonDaughter and on HimHerself. Deny them not. They ask of you but that your will be done. They seek your love that you may love yourself. Love not your specialness instead of them. The print of nails are on your hands as well. Forgive your FatherMother. It was not HisHer Will that you be crucified.

V. Specialness and Salvation

³⁴ Specialness is a lack of trust in anyone except yourself. Faith is invested in yourself alone. Everything else becomes your enemy—feared and attacked, deadly and dangerous, hated and worthy only of destruction. Whatever gentleness it offers is but deception, but its hate is real. In danger of destruction, it must kill, and you are drawn to it to kill it first. And such is guilt's attraction. Here is death enthroned as savior or savior God; crucifixion is now redemption, and salvation can only mean destruction of the world, except yourself.

³⁵ What could the purpose of the body be but specialness? And it is this that makes it frail and helpless in its own defense. It was conceived to make you frail and helpless. The goal of separation is its curse. Yet bodies have no goal. Purpose is of the mind. And minds can change as they desire. What they are and all their attributes, they cannot change. But what they hold as purpose can be changed, and body states must shift accordingly. Of itself the body can do nothing. See it as means to hurt, and it is hurt. See it as means to heal, and it is healed.

³⁶ You can but hurt yourself. This has been oft repeated but is difficult to grasp as yet. To minds intent on specialness, it is impossible. Yet to those who wish to heal and not attack, it is quite obvious. The purpose of attack is in the mind, and its effects are felt but where it is. Nor is mind limited; so must it be that harmful purpose hurts the mind as one. Nothing could make less sense to specialness. Nothing could make more sense to miracles. For miracles are merely change of purpose from hurt to healing.

³⁷ This shift in purpose does "endanger" specialness but only in the sense that all illusions are "threatened" by the truth. They will not stand before it. Yet what comfort has ever been in them that you would keep the gift your FatherMother asks from HimHer and give it there instead? Given to HimHer, the universe is yours. Offered to them, no gifts can be returned. What you have given specialness has left you bankrupt and your treasure house barren and empty with an open door inviting everything that would disturb your peace to enter and destroy.

³⁸ Long ago we said consider not the means by which salvation is attained nor how to reach it. But do consider, and consider well, whether it is your wish that you might see your brother or sister sinless. To specialness the answer must be "no." A sinless brother or sister is its enemy, while sin, if it were possible, would be its friend. Your brother's or sister's sins would justify itself and give it meaning that the truth denies. All that is real proclaims his or her sinlessness. All that is false proclaims his or her sins as real. If he or she is sinful, then is your reality not real but just a dream of specialness which lasts an instant, crumbling into dust.

³⁹ Do not defend this senseless dream in which God is bereft of what HeShe loves and you remain beyond salvation. Only this is certain in this shifting world which has no meaning in reality: when peace is not with you entirely and when you suffer pain of any kind, you have beheld some sin within your brother or sister and have rejoiced at what you thought was there. Your specialness seemed safe because of it. And thus you saved what you appointed to be your savior or savior and crucified the one whom God has given you instead. So are you bound with him or her, for you are one. And so is specialness his or her "enemy" and yours as well.

VI. The Resolution of the Dream

⁴⁰ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you is very still. She looks on what She loves and knows it as Herself. And thus does She rejoice at what She sees because She knows that it is one with Her and with Her FatherMother. Specialness, too, takes joy in what it sees, although it is not true. Yet what you seek for is a source of joy as you conceive it. What you wish is true for you. Nor is it possible that you can wish for something and lack faith that it is so. Wishing makes real, as surely as does will create and manifest. The power of a wish upholds illusions as strongly as does love extend itself, except that one deludes; the other heals.

⁴¹ There is no dream of specialness—however hidden or disguised the form, however lovely it may seem to be, however much it delicately offers the hope of peace and the escape from pain—in which you suffer not your condemnation. In dreams, effect and cause are interchanged, for here the maker of the dream believes that what he or she made is happening to him or her. He or she does not realize he or she picked a thread from here, a scrap from there, and wove a picture out of nothing. For the parts do not belong together, and the whole contributes nothing to the parts to give them meaning.

⁴² Where could your peace arise but from forgiveness? The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you looks only on the truth and sees no condemnation that could need forgiveness. She is at peace because She sees no sin. Identify with Her, and what has She that you have not? She is your eyes, your ears, your hands, your feet. How gentle are the sights She sees, the sounds She hears. How beautiful Her hand that holds Her brother's and sister's, and how lovingly She walks beside him or her, showing him or her what can be seen and heard and where he or she will see nothing and there is no sound to hear.

⁴³ Yet let your specialness direct his or her way, and you will follow. And both will walk in danger, each intent, in the dark forest of the sightless, unlit but by the shifting tiny gleams that spark an instant from the fireflies of sin and then go out, to lead the other to a nameless precipice and hurl him or her over it. For what can specialness delight in but to kill? What does it seek for but the sight of death? Where does it lead but to destruction? Yet think not that it looked upon your brother or sister first, nor hated him or her before it hated you. The sin its eyes behold in him or her and love to look upon, it saw in you and looks on still with joy. Yet is it joy to look upon decay and madness and believe this crumbling thing, with flesh already loosened from the bone and sightless holes for eyes, is like yourself?

⁴⁴ Rejoice you have no eyes with which to see, no ears to listen, and no hands to hold nor feet to guide. Be glad that only the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness can lend you HisHer while you have need of them. They are illusions too, as much as yours. And yet, because they serve a different purpose, the strength their purpose holds is given them. And what they see and hear and hold and lead is given light that you may lead as you were led.

⁴⁵ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you is very still. She knows where you are going, and She leads you there in gentleness and blessing all the way. Her love for God replaces all the fear you thought you saw within yourself. Her holiness shows you Herself in him or her whose hand you hold and whom you lead to Her. And what you see is like yourself. For what but the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is there to see and hear and love and follow home? She looked upon you first but recognized that you were not complete. And so She sought for your completion in each living thing that She beholds and loves. And seeks it still, that each might offer you the love of God.

⁴⁶ Yet is She quiet, for She knows that love is in you now and safely held in you by that same hand that holds your brother's or sister's in your own. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's hand holds all Her brothers and sisters in Herself. She gives them vision for their sightless eyes and sings to them of the God Realm that their ears may hear no more the sound of battle and of death. She reaches through them, holding out Her hand that everyone may bless all living things and see their holiness. And She rejoices that these sights are yours to look upon with Her and share Her joy. Her perfect lack of specialness She offers you that you may save all living things from death, receiving from each one the gift of life that your forgiveness offers to your Self. The sight of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is all there is to see. The song of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is all there is to hear. The hand of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is all there is to hold. There is no journey but to walk with Her.

⁴⁷ You who would be content with specialness and seek salvation in a war with love, consider this: the holy Lady of the God Realm has Herself come down to you to offer you your own completion. What is Her is yours because in your completion is Her Own. HeShe Who willed not to be without HisHer SonDaughter could never will that you be brotherless or sisterless. And would HeShe give a brother or sister unto you except he or she be as perfect as yourself and just as like to HimHer in holiness as you must be?

⁴⁸ There must be doubt before there can be conflict. And every doubt must be about yourself. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has no doubt, and from Her certainty Her quiet comes. She will exchange Her certainty for all your doubts if you agree that

She is one with you and that this Oneness is endless, timeless, and within your grasp because your hands are Hers. She is within you, yet She walks beside you and before, leading the way that She must go to find Herself complete. Her quietness becomes your certainty. And where is doubt when certainty has come?

VII. Salvation From Fear

⁴⁹ Before your brother's or sister's holiness the world is still and peace descends on it in gentleness and blessing so complete that not one trace of conflict still remains to haunt you in the darkness of the night. She is your savior or savior from the dreams of fear. She is the healing of your sense of sacrifice and fear that what you have will scatter with the wind and turn to dust. In Hende is your assurance God is here and with you now. While Hun is what She is, you can be sure that God is knowable and will be known to you. For HeShe could never leave HisHer own manifested creation. And the sign that this is so lies in your brother or sister, offered you that all your doubts about yourself may disappear before his or her holiness. See in him or her God's manifested creation. For in him or her, his or her FatherMother waits for your acknowledgment that HeShe created and manifested you as part of HimHer.

⁵⁰ Without you there would be a lack in God, a the God Realm incomplete, a SonDaughter without a FatherMother. There could be no universe and no reality. For what God wills is whole and part of HimHer because HisHer Will is One. Nothing alive that is not part of HimHer, and nothing is but is alive in HimHer. Your brother's or sister's holiness shows you that God is one with him or her and you—that what he or she has is yours because you are not separate from him or her nor from his or her FatherMother.

⁵¹ Nothing is lost to you in all the universe. Nothing that God created and manifested has HeShe failed to lay before you lovingly as yours forever. And no thought within HisHer Mind is absent from your own. It is HisHer Will you share HisHer love for you and look upon yourself as lovingly as HeShe conceived of you before the world began and as HeShe knows you still. God changes not HisHer Mind about HisHer SonDaughter with passing circumstance, which has no meaning in eternity where HeShe abides and you with HimHer. Your brother or sister is as HeShe created and manifested him or her. And it is this that saves you from a world that HeShe created and manifested not.

⁵² Forget not that the healing of God's SonDaughter is all the world is for. That is the only purpose the Holy Spirit sees in it and thus the only one it has. Until you see the healing of the SonDaughter as all you wish to be accomplished by the world, by time, and all appearances, you will not know the FatherMother nor yourself. For you will use the world for what is not its purpose and will not escape its laws of violence and death. Yet it is given you to be beyond its laws in all respects, in every way, and every circumstance, in all temptation to perceive what is not there and all belief God's SonDaughter can suffer pain because heshe sees himherself as heshe is not.

⁵³ Look on your brother or sister and behold in him or her the whole reversal of the laws that seem to rule this world. See in his or her freedom yours, for such it is. Let not his or her specialness obscure the truth in him, for not one law of death you bind him or her to will you escape. And not one sin you see in him or her but keeps you both in hell. Yet will his or her perfect sinlessness release you both, for holiness is quite impartial, with one judgment made for all it looks upon. And that is made, not of itself, but through the Voice that speaks for God in everything that lives and shares Her Being.

⁵⁴ It is Her sinlessness that eyes which see can look upon. It is Her loveliness they see in everything. And it is She they look for everywhere and find no sight nor place nor time where She is not. Within your brother's or sister's holiness, the perfect frame for your salvation and the world's, is set the shining memory of HimHer in Whom your brother or sister lives and you along with him or her. Let not your eyes be blinded by the veil of specialness that hides the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness from him or her, and you as well. And let the fear of God no longer hold the vision you were meant to see from you. Your brother's or sister's body shows not the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness to you. She is set forth within his or her holiness.

⁵⁵ Choose, then, his or her body or his or her holiness as what you want to see, and which you choose is yours to look upon. Yet will you choose in countless situations and through time which seems to have no end until the truth be your decision. For eternity is not regained by still one more denial of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her. And where is your salvation if he or she is but a body? Where is your peace but in his or her holiness? And where is God HimHerself but in that part of HimHer HeShe set forever in your brother's or sister's holiness that you might see the truth about yourself set forth at last in terms you recognized and understood?

⁵⁶ Your brother's or sister's holiness is sacrament and benediction unto you. His or her errors cannot withhold God's blessing from himself or herself nor you who see him or her truly. His or her mistakes can cause delay, which it is given you to take from him or her that both may end a journey that has never been begun and needs no end. What never was is not a part of you. Yet you will think it is until you realize that it is not a part of him or her who stands beside you. He or she is the mirror of yourself wherein you see the judgment you have laid on both of you. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you beholds his or her holiness. Your specialness looks on his or her body and beholds him or her not.

⁵⁷ See him or her as what he or she is that your deliverance may not be long. A senseless wandering, without a purpose and without accomplishment of any kind, is all the other choice can offer you. Futility of function not fulfilled will haunt you while your brother or sister lies asleep, till what has been assigned to you is done and he or she is risen from the past. He or she who condemned himself or herself, and you as well, is given you to save from condemnation along with you. And both shall see God's glory in HisHer SonDaughter, whom you mistook as flesh and bound to laws that have no power over him or her at all.

⁵⁸ Would you not gladly realize these laws are not for you? Then see him or her not as prisoner to them. It cannot be what governs part of God holds not for all the rest. You place yourself under the laws you see as ruling him or her. Think, then, how great the love of God for you must be that HeShe has given you a part of HimHer to save from pain and give you happiness. And never doubt but that your specialness will disappear before the Will of God, Who loves each part of HimHer with equal love [and care]. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you can see your brother or sister truly. Would you decide against the holiness She sees?

⁵⁹ Specialness is the function which you gave yourself. It stands for you alone, as self-created and manifested, self-maintained, in need of nothing, and unjoined with anything beyond the body. In its eyes, you are a separate universe with all the power to hold itself complete within itself, with every entry shut against intrusion and every window barred against the light. Always attacked and always furious, with anger always fully justified, you have pursued this goal with vigilance you never thought to yield and effort that you never thought to cease. And all this grim determination was for this—you wanted specialness to be the truth.

⁶⁰ Now you are merely asked that you pursue another goal with far less vigilance—with little effort and with little time and with the power of God maintaining it and promising success. Yet of the two, it is this one you find more difficult. The "sacrifice" of self you understand, nor do you deem this cost too heavy. But a tiny willingness, a nod to God, a greeting to the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you, you find a burden wearisome and tedious, too heavy to be borne. Yet to the dedication to the truth as God established it no sacrifice is asked, no strain called forth, and all the power of the God Realm and the might of truth itself is given to provide the means and guarantee the goal's accomplishment.

⁶¹ You who believe it easier to see your brother's or sister's body than his or her holiness, be sure you understand what made this judgment. Here is the voice of specialness heard clearly, judging against the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and setting forth for you the purpose that you can attain and what you cannot do. Forget not that this judgment must apply to what you do with it as your ally. For what you do through the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness it does not know. To Her this judgment makes no sense at all, for only what Her FatherMother wills is possible, and there is no alternative for Her to see. Out of Her lack of conflict comes your peace. And from Her purpose comes the means for effortless accomplishment and rest.

VIII. The Meeting Place

⁶² How bitterly does everyone tied to this world defend the specialness he or she wants to be the truth! HisHer wish is law unto him, and he or she obeys. Nothing his or her specialness demands does he or she withhold. Nothing it needs does he or she deny to what he or she loves. And while it calls to him or her, he or she hears no other Voice. No effort is too great, no cost too much, no price too dear to save his or her specialness from the least slight, the tiniest attack, the whispered doubt, the hint of threat, or anything but deepest reverence. This is your sondaughter, beloved of you as you are to your FatherMother. Yet it stands in place of your creationsmanifestations, who are SonDaughter to you, that you might share the FatherMotherhood of God, not snatch it from HimHer. What is this sondaughter that you have made to be your strength? What is this child of earth on whom such love is lavished? What is this parody of God's manifested creation that takes the place of yours? And where are they, now that the host of God has found another sondaughter, which he or she prefers to them?

⁶³ The memory of God shines not alone. What is within your brother or sister still contains all of manifested creation, everything created and manifested and creatingmanifesting, born and unborn as yet, still in the future or apparently gone by. What is in him or her is changeless, and your changelessness is recognized in its acknowledgment. The holiness in you belongs to him or her. And by your seeing it in him or her, returns to you. All of the tribute you have given specialness belongs to him or her and thus returns to you. All of the love and care, the strong protection, the thought by day and night, the deep concern, the powerful conviction this is you belong to him or her. Nothing you gave to specialness but is his or her due. And nothing due him or her is not due to you.

⁶⁴ How can you know your worth while specialness claims you instead? How can you fail to know it is in his or her holiness? Seek not to make your specialness the truth, for if it were, you would be lost indeed. Be thankful, rather, it is given you to see his or her holiness because it is the truth. And what is true in him or her must be as true in you.

⁶⁵ Ask yourself this: can you protect the mind? The body, yes, a little—not from time, but temporarily. And much you think you save, you hurt. What would you save it for? For in that choice lie both its health and harm. Save it for show, as bait to catch another fish, to house your specialness in better style or weave a frame of loveliness around your hate, and you condemn it to decay and death. And if you see this purpose in your brothers and sisters, such is your condemnation of your own. Weave, rather then, a frame of holiness around him or her that the truth may shine on him or her and give you safety from decay.

⁶⁶ The FatherMother keeps what HeShe created and manifested safe. You cannot touch it with the false ideas you made because it was created and manifested not by you. Let not your foolish fancies frighten you. What is immortal cannot be attacked; what is but temporal has no effect. Only the purpose that you see in it has meaning, and if that is true, its safety rests secure. If not, it has no purpose and is means for nothing. Whatever is perceived as means for truth shares in its holiness and rests in light as safely as itself. Nor will that light go out when it is gone. Its holy purpose gave it immortality, setting another light in the God Realm, where your creationsmanifestations recognize a gift from you, a sign that you have not forgotten them.

⁶⁷ The test of everything on earth is simply this: "What is it for?" The answer makes it what it is for you. It has no meaning of itself, yet you can give reality to it according to the purpose which you serve. Here you are but means, along with it. God is a Means as well as End. In the God Realm, means and end are one, and one with HimHer. This is the state of true manifested creation, found not within time, but in eternity. To no one here is this describable. Nor is there any way to learn what this condition means. Not till you go past learning to the Given; not till you make again a holy home for your creationsmanifestations is it understood.

⁶⁸ A co-CreatorManifestor with the FatherMother must have a sondaughter. Yet must this sondaughter have been created and manifested like himherself. A perfect being, all-encompassing and all-encompassed, nothing to add and nothing taken from—not born of size nor weight nor time nor held to limits or uncertainties of any kind. Here do the means and end unite as one, nor does this one have any end at all. All this is true, and yet it has no meaning to anyone who still retains one unlearned lesson in his or her memory, one thought with purpose still uncertain, or one wish with a divided aim.

⁶⁹ This course makes no attempt to teach what cannot easily be learned. Its scope does not exceed your own, except to say that what is yours will come to you when you are ready. Here are the means and purpose separate because they were so made and so perceived. And therefore do we deal with them as if they were. It is essential it be kept in mind that all perception still is upside down until its purpose has been understood. Perception does not seem to be a means. And it is this that makes it hard to grasp the whole extent to which it must depend on what you see it for. Perception seems to teach you what you see. Yet it but witnesses to what you taught. It is the outward picture of a wish—an image that you wanted to be true.

⁷⁰ Look at yourself, and you will see a body. Look at this body in a different light, and it looks different. And without a light, it seems that it is gone. Yet you are reassured that it is there because you still can feel it with your hands and hear it move. Here is an image that you want to be yourself. It is the means to make your wish come true. It gives the eyes with which you look on it, the hands that feel it, and the ears with which you listened to the sounds it makes. It proves its own reality to you.

⁷¹ Thus is the body made a theory of yourself with no provisions made for evidence beyond itself and no escape within its sight. Its course is sure when seen through its own eyes. It grows and withers, flourishes and dies. And you cannot conceive of you apart from it. You brand it sinful, and you hate its acts, judging it evil. Yet your specialness whispers, "Here is our own beloved sondaughter, in whom I am well pleased." Thus does the "sondaughter" become the means to serve his or her "father'smother's" purpose. Not identical, not even like, but still a means to offer to the "fathermother" what he or she wants. Such is the travesty on God's manifested creation. For as HisHer Son'sDaughter's manifested creation gave HimHer joy and witness to HisHer love and shared HisHer purpose, so does the body testify to the idea that made it and speak for its reality and truth.

⁷² And thus are two sonsdaughters made, and both appear to walk this earth without a meeting-place and no encounter. One do you see outside yourself, your own beloved sondaughter. The other rests within, HisHer Father'sMother's SonDaughter, within your brother or sister as he or she is in you. Their difference does not lie in how they look, nor where they go, nor even what they do. They have a different purpose. It is this that joins them to their like and separates each from all aspects with a different purpose. The SonDaughter of God retains HisHer Father'sMother's Will. The sondaughter of man or woman perceives an alien will and wishes it were so. And thus does his or her perception serve his or her wish by giving it appearances of truth. Yet can perception serve another goal. It is not bound to specialness but by your choice. And it is given you to make a different choice and use perception for a different purpose. And what you see will serve that purpose well and prove its own reality to you.

Chapter Twenty Five:

The Remedy

I. Introduction

¹ The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you inhabits not a body. Yet She is in you. And thus it must be that you are not within a body. What is within you cannot be outside. And it is certain that you cannot be apart from what is at the very center of your life. What gives you life cannot be housed in death. No more can you. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is within a frame of holiness whose only purpose is that She may be made manifest to those who know Her not, that She may call to them to come to Her and see Her where they thought their bodies were. Then will their bodies melt away that they may frame Her holiness in them.

² No one who carries the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her can fail to recognize Her everywhere. Except in bodies. And as long as they believe they are in bodies, where they think they are She cannot be. And so they carry Her unknowingly and do not make Her manifest. And thus they do not recognize HimHer where HeShe is. The son or daughter of humankind is not the risen Christ Consciousness/Mercy Consciousness. Yet does the SonDaughter of God abide exactly where She is and walks with Her within hisher holiness, as plain to see as is hisher specialness set forth within hisher body.

³ The body needs no healing. But the mind that thinks it is a body is sick indeed! And it is here that the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness sets forth the remedy. Her purpose folds the body in Her light and fills it with the holiness that shines from Her. And nothing that the body says or does but makes Her manifest. To those who know Her not, it carries Her in gentleness and love to heal their minds. Such is the mission that your brother or sister has for you. And such it must be that your mission is for him or her.

II. The Appointed Task

⁴ It cannot be that it is hard to do the task that the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness appointed you to do, since it is She Who does it. And in the doing of it will you learn the body merely seems to be the means to do it. For the Mind is Hers. And so it must be yours. Her holiness directs the body through the mind at one with Her. And you are manifest unto your holy brother or sister, as he or she to you. Here is the meeting of the holy the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness unto Herself; nor are any differences perceived to stand between the aspects of Her holiness, which meet and join and raise Her to Her FatherMother, whole and pure and worthy of Her everlasting Love.

⁵ How can you manifest the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you except you look on holiness and see Her there? Perception tells you you are manifest in what you see. Behold the body, and you will believe that you are there. And every body that you look upon reminds you of yourself—your sinfulness, your evil, and above all, your death. And would you not despise the one who tells you this and seek his or her death instead? The message and the messenger are one. And you must see your brother or sister as yourself. Framed in his or her body, you will see your sinfulness wherein you stand condemned. Set in his or her holiness, the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her proclaims himself or herself as you.

⁶ Perception is a choice of what you want yourself to be—the world you want to live in and the state in which you think your mind will be content and satisfied. It chooses where you think your safety lies, at your decision. It reveals yourself to you as you would have you be. And always is it faithful to your purpose from which it never separates nor gives the slightest witness unto anything the purpose in your mind upholdeth not. Perception is a part of what it is your purpose to behold, for means and end are never separate. And thus you learn what seems to have a life apart has none.

⁷ You are the means for God—not separate nor with a life apart from HisHers. HisHer Life is manifest in you who are HisHer SonDaughter. Each aspect of HimHerself is framed in holiness and perfect purity, in love celestial and so complete it wishes only that it may release all that it looks upon unto itself. Its radiance shines through each body that it looks upon and brushes all its darkness into light merely by looking past it to the light. The veil is lifted through its gentleness, and nothing hides the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness from its beholders. And both of you stand there, before Her now, to let Her draw aside the veil that seems to keep you separate and apart.

⁸ Since you believe that you are separate, the God Realm presents itself to you as separate too. Not that it is in truth, but that the link that has been given you to join the truth may reach to you through what you understand. FatherMother and SonDaughter and Holy Spirit are as One, as all your brothers and sisters join as one in truth. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and Her FatherMother never have been separate, and the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness abides within your understanding in the part of you that shares Her Father'sMother's Will. The Holy Spirit links the other part, the tiny mad desire to be separate, different, and special, to the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, to make the oneness clear to what is really one. In this world, this is not understood but can be taught.

⁹ The Holy Spirit serves the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's purpose in your mind, so that the aim of specialness can be corrected where the error lies. Because Her purpose still is one with both the FatherMother and the SonDaughter, She knows the Will of God and what you really will. But this is understood by mind perceived as one, aware that it is one and so experienced. It is the Holy Spirit's function to teach you how this oneness is experienced, what you must do that it can be experienced, and where you should go to do it.

¹⁰ All this takes note of time and place as if they were discrete, for while you think that part of you is separate, the concept of a oneness joined as one is meaningless. It is apparent that a mind so split could never be the teacher of a Oneness which unites all things within itself. And so What is within this mind and does unite all things together must be its Teacher. Yet must It use the language which this mind can understand in the condition in which it thinks it is. And It must use all learning to transfer illusions to the truth, taking all false ideas of what you are and leading you beyond them to the truth that is beyond them. All this can very simply be reduced to this:

¹¹ *What is the same can not be different,
And what is one can not have separate parts.*

III. The Savior or savioress From the Dark

¹² Is it not evident that what the body's eyes perceive fills you with fear? Perhaps you think you find a hope of satisfaction there. Perhaps you fancy to attain some peace and satisfaction in the world as you perceive it. Yet it must be evident the outcome does not change. Despite your hopes and fancies, always does despair result. And there is no exception, nor will there ever be. The only value that the past can hold is that you learn it gave you no rewards that you would want to keep.

For only thus will you be willing to relinquish it and have it gone forever.

¹³ Is it not strange that you should cherish still some hope of satisfaction from the world you see? In no respect at any time or place has anything but fear and guilt been your reward. How long is needed for you to realize the chance of change in this respect is hardly worth delaying change that might result in better outcome? For one thing is sure—the way you see, and long have seen, gives no support to base your future hopes and no suggestions of success at all. To place your hopes where no hope lies must make you hopeless. Yet is this hopelessness your choice, while you would seek for hope where none is ever found.

¹⁴ Is it not also true that you have found some hope apart from this—some glimmering, inconstant, wavering, yet dimly seen, that hopefulness is warranted on grounds that are not in this world? And yet your hope that they may still be here prevents you still from giving up the hopeless and unrewarding task you set yourself. Can it make sense to hold the fixed belief that there is reason to uphold pursuit of what has always failed on grounds that it will suddenly succeed and bring what it has never brought before?

¹⁵ Its past has failed. Be glad that it is gone within your mind to darken what is there. Take not the form for content, for the form is but a means for content. And the frame is but a means to hold the picture up so that it can be seen. A frame that hides the picture has no purpose. It cannot be a frame if it is what you see. Without the picture is the frame without its meaning. Its purpose is to set the picture off and not itself.

¹⁶ Who hangs an empty frame upon a wall and stands before it, deep in reverence, as if a masterpiece were there to see? Yet if you see your brother or sister as a body, it is but this you do. The masterpiece that God has set within this frame is all there is to see. The body holds it for a while without obscuring it in any way. Yet what God has created and manifested needs no frame, for what HeShe has created and manifested HeShe supports and frames within HimHerself. HisHer masterpiece HeShe offers you to see. And would you rather see the frame instead of this? And see the picture not at all?

¹⁷ The Holy Spirit is the frame God set around the part of HimHer that you would see as separate. Yet its frame is joined to its CreatorManifestor, one with HimHer and with HisHer masterpiece. This is its purpose, and you do not make the frame into the picture when you choose to see it in its place. The frame that God has given it but serves HisHer purpose, not yours apart from HisHers. It is your separate purpose that obscures the picture and cherishes the frame instead of it. Yet God has set HisHer masterpiece within a frame that will endure forever when yours has crumbled into dust. But think you not the picture is destroyed in any way. What God creates and manifests is safe from all corruption, unchanged and perfect in eternity.

¹⁸ Accept God's frame instead of yours, and you will see the masterpiece. Look at its loveliness, and understand the Mind that thought it, not in flesh and bones, but in a frame as lovely as Itself. Its holiness lights up the sinlessness the frame of darkness hides and casts a veil of light across the picture's face, which but reflects the light that shines from it to its CreatorManifestor. Think not this face was ever darkened because you saw it in a frame of death. God kept it safe that you might look on it and see the holiness that HeShe has given it.

¹⁹ Within the darkness, see the savior or savioress from the dark and understand your brother or sister as his or her Father'sMother's Mind shows him or her to you. HeShe will step forth from darkness as you look on him, and you will see the dark no more. The darkness touched him or her not, nor you who brought him or her forth for you to look upon. His or her sinlessness but pictures yours. His or her gentleness becomes your strength, and both will gladly look within and see the holiness that must be there because of what you looked upon in him or her. He or she is the frame in which your holiness is set, and what God gave him or her must be given you. However much he or she overlooks the masterpiece in him or her and sees only a frame of darkness, it is still your only function to behold in him or her what he or she sees not. And in this seeing is the vision shared that looks on the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness instead of seeing death.

²⁰ How could the LordLady of the God Realm not be glad if you appreciate HisHer masterpiece? What could HeShe do but offer thanks to you who love HisHer SonDaughter as HeShe does? Would HeShe not make known to you HisHer love if you but share HisHer praise of what HeShe loves? God cherishes manifested creation as the perfect FatherMother that HeShe is. And so HisHer joy is made complete when any part of HimHer joins in HisHer praise, to share HisHer joy. This brother or sister is HisHer perfect gift to you. And HeShe is glad and thankful when you thank HisHer perfect SonDaughter for being what he or she is. And all HisHer thanks and gladness shine on you who would complete HisHer joy along with HimHer. And thus is yours completed. Not one ray of darkness can be seen by those who will to make their Father'sMother's happiness complete and theirs along with HisHers. The gratitude of God HimHerself is freely offered to everyone who shares HisHer purpose. It is not HisHer Will to be alone. And neither is it yours.

²¹ Forgive your brother or sister, and you cannot separate yourself from him or her nor from his or her FatherMother. You need no forgiveness, for the wholly pure have never sinned. Give then what HeShe has given you that you may see HisHer SonDaughter as one and thank his or her FatherMother as HeShe thanks you. Nor believe that all HisHer praise is given not to you. For what you give is HisHers, and giving it you learn to understand HisHer gift to you. And give the Holy Spirit what She offers unto the FatherMother and the SonDaughter alike. Nothing has power over you except HisHer Will and yours, who but extend HisHer Will. It was for this you were created and manifested and your brother or sister with you and at one with you.

²² You are the same, as God HimHerself is one and not divided in HisHer Will. And you must have one purpose, since HeShe gave the same to both of you. HisHer Will is brought together as you join in will that you be made complete by offering completion to your brother or sister. See not in him or her the sinfulness he or she sees, but give him or her honor that you may esteem yourself and him or her. To each of you is given the power of salvation that escape from darkness into light be yours to share; that you may see as one what never has been separate nor apart from all God's love as given equally.

IV. The Fundamental Law of Perception

²³ To the extent to which you value guilt, to that extent will you perceive a world in which attack is justified. To the extent to which you recognize that guilt is meaningless, to that extent will you perceive attack cannot be justified. This is in strict accord with vision's fundamental law: you see what you believe is there, and you believe it there because you want it there. Perception has no other law than this. The rest but stems from this, to hold it up and offer it support. This is perception's form adapted to this world of God's more basic law that love creates and manifests itself and nothing but itself.

²⁴ God's laws do not obtain directly to a world perception rules, for such a world could not have been created and manifested by the Mind to which perception has no meaning. Yet are HisHer laws reflected everywhere. Not that the world where this reflection is, is real at all. Only because HisHer SonDaughter believes it is, and from HisHer Son'sDaughter's belief HeShe could not let HimHerself be separate entirely. HeShe could not enter HisHer Son'sDaughter's insanity with himher, but HeShe could be sure hisher sanity went there with himher so heshe could not be lost forever in the madness of hisher wish.

²⁵ Perception rests on choosing; knowledge does not. Knowledge has but one law because it has but one CreatorManifestor. But this world has two who made it, and they do not see it as the same. To each it has a different purpose, and to each it is a perfect means to serve the goal for which it is perceived. For specialness it is the perfect frame to set it off—the perfect battleground to wage its wars, the perfect shelter for the illusions which it would make real. Not one but it upholds in its perception; not one but can be fully justified.

²⁶ There is another Maker of the world, the simultaneous Corrector of the mad belief that anything could be established and maintained without some link that kept it still within the laws of God; not as the law itself upholds the universe as God created and manifested it, but in some form adapted to the need the SonDaughter of God believes heshe has. Corrected error is the error's end. And thus has God protected still HisHer SonDaughter, even in error. There is another purpose in the world that error made because it has another Maker Who can reconcile its goal with Her Creator'sManifestor's purpose. In Her perception of the world, nothing is seen but justifies forgiveness and the sight of perfect sinlessness. Nothing arises but is met with instant and complete forgiveness.

²⁷ Nothing remains an instant to obscure the sinlessness that shines unchanged beyond the pitiful attempts of specialness to put it out of mind where it must be and light the body up instead of it. The lamps of the God Realm are not for it to choose to see them where it will. If it elects to see them elsewhere from their home, as if they lit a place where they could never be, and you agree, then must the Maker of the world correct your error, lest you remain in darkness where the lamps are not. Everyone here has entered darkness, yet no one has entered it alone. [Nor need he or she stay more than an instant.] For he or she has come with the God Realm 's Help within him or her ready to lead him or her out of darkness into light at any time.

²⁸ The time he or she chooses can be any time, for help is there, awaiting but his or her choice. And when he or she chooses to avail himself or herself of what is given him or her, then will he or she see each situation that he or she thought before was means to justify his or her anger turned to an event which justifies his or her love. He or she will hear plainly that the calls to war he or she heard before are really calls to peace. He or she will perceive that where he or she gave attack is but another altar where he or she can with equal ease and far more happiness bestow forgiveness. And he or she will reinterpret all temptation as just another chance to bring him or her joy. How can a misperception be a sin? Let all your brother's or sister's errors be to you nothing except a chance for you to see the workings of the Helper given you to see the world She made, instead of yours.

²⁹ What then is justified? What do you want? For these two questions are the same. And when you see them as the same, your choice is made. For it is seeing them as one that brings release from the belief there are two ways to see. This world has much to offer to your peace and the many chances to extend your own forgiveness. Such its purpose is to those who want to see peace and forgiveness descend on them and offer them the light.

³⁰ The Maker of the world of gentleness has perfect power to offset the world of violence and hate that seems to stand between you and Her gentleness. It is not there in Her forgiving eyes. And therefore it need not be there in yours. Sin is the fixed belief perception cannot change. What has been damned is damned and damned forever, being forever unforgivable. If then it is forgiven, sin's perception must have been wrong. And thus is change made possible. The Holy Spirit too sees what She sees as far beyond the chance of change. But on Her vision sin cannot encroach, for sin has been corrected by Her sight. And thus it must have been an error, not a sin. For what it claimed could never be has been. Sin is attacked by punishment and so preserved. But to forgive it is to change its state from error into truth.

³¹ The SonDaughter of God could never sin, but heshe can wish for what would hurt himher. And heshe has the power to think heshe can be hurt. What could this be except a misperception of himherself? Is this a sin or a mistake, forgivable or not? Does heshe need help or condemnation? Is it your purpose that heshe be saved or damned? Forgetting not that what heshe is to you will make this choice your future? For you make it now, the instant when all time becomes a means to reach a goal. Make then your choice. But recognize that in this choice the purpose of the world you see is chosen and will be justified.

V. The Joining of Minds

³² Minds that are joined and recognize they are can feel no guilt. For they cannot attack, and they rejoice that this is so, seeing their safety in this happy fact. Their joy is in the innocence they see. And thus they seek for it because it is their purpose to behold it and rejoice. Everyone seeks for what will bring him or her joy as he or she defines it. It is not the aim as such that varies. Yet it is the way in which the aim is seen that makes the choice of means inevitable and beyond the hope of change unless the aim is changed. And then the means are chosen once again, as what will bring rejoicing is defined another way and sought for differently.

³³ Perception's basic law could thus be said, "You will rejoice at what you see because you see it to rejoice." And while you think that suffering and sin will bring you joy, so long will they be there for you to see. Nothing is harmful or beneficent apart from what you wish. It is your wish that makes it what it is in its effects on you. Because you chose it as a means to gain these same effects, believing them to be the bringers of rejoicing and of joy. Even in the God Realm does this law obtain. The SonDaughter of God creates and manifests to bring himher joy, sharing hisher Father'sMother's purpose in hisher own manifested creation that his or her joy might be increased and God's along with hishers.

³⁴ You makers of a world that is not so, take rest and comfort in another world where peace abides. This world you bring with you to all the weary eyes and tired hearts that look on sin and beat its sad refrain. From you can come their rest. From you can rise a world they will rejoice to look upon and where their hearts are glad. In you there is a vision which extends to all of them and covers them in gentleness and light. And in this widening world of light, the darkness they thought was there is pushed away until it is but distant shadows, far away, not long to be remembered as the sun shines them to nothingness. And all their "evil" thoughts and "sinful" hopes, their dreams of guilt and merciless revenge, and every wish to hurt and kill and die will disappear before the sun you bring.

³⁵ Would you not do this for the love of God? And for yourself? For think what it would do for you. Your "evil" thoughts that haunt you now will seem increasingly remote and far away from you. And they go farther and farther off because the sun in you has risen that they may be pushed away before the light. They linger for a while, a little while, in twisted forms too far away for recognition and are gone forever. And in the sunlight you will stand in quiet, in innocence, and wholly unafraid. And from you will the rest you found extend, so that your peace can never fall away and leave you homeless. Those who offer peace to everyone have found a home in the God Realm the world cannot destroy. For it is large enough to hold the world within its peace.

³⁶ In you is all of the God Realm . Every leaf that falls is given life in you. Each bird that ever sang will sing again in you. And every flower that ever bloomed has saved its perfume and its loveliness for you. What aim can supersede the Will of God and of HisHer SonDaughter that the God Realm be restored to him or her for whom it was created and manifested as his or her only home? Nothing before and nothing after it. No other place, no other state nor time. Nothing beyond nor nearer. Nothing else. In any form. This can you bring to all the world and all the thoughts that entered it and were mistaken for a little while. How better could your own mistakes be brought to truth than by your willingness to bring the light of the God Realm with you as you walk beyond the world of darkness into light?

VI. The State of Sinlessness

³⁷ The state of sinlessness is merely this: the whole desire to attack is gone, and so there is no reason to perceive the SonDaughter of God as other than heshe is. The need for guilt is gone because it has no purpose and is meaningless without the goal of sin. Attack and sin are bound as one illusion, each the cause and aim and justifier of the other. Each is meaningless alone, but seems to draw a meaning from the other. Each depends upon the other for whatever sense it seems to have. And no one could believe in one unless the other were the truth, for each attests the other must be true.

³⁸ Attack makes the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness your enemy and God along with Her. Must you not be afraid with "enemies" like these? And must you not be fearful of yourself? For you have hurt yourself and made your Self your "enemy." And now you must believe you are not you but something alien to yourself and "something else," a "something" to be feared instead of loved. Who would attack whatever he or she perceives as wholly innocent? And who, because he or she wishes to attack, can fail to think it must be guilty to deserve the wish and leave him or her innocent? And who would see the SonDaughter of God as innocent and wish him/her dead? The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness stands before you both each time you look on one another. She has not gone because your eyes are closed. But what is there to see by searching for your savior or savioress, seeing Her through sightless eyes?

³⁹ It is not the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness you see by looking thus. It is the "enemy" confused with the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness you look upon. And hate because there is no sin in him or her for you to see. Nor do you hear his or her plaintive call, unchanged in content in whatever form the call is made, that you unite with him or her and join with him or her in innocence and peace. And yet beneath the ego's senseless shrieks, such is the call that God has given him or her that you might hear in him or her His/Her Call to you and answer by returning unto God what is His/Her own.

⁴⁰ The SonDaughter of God asks only this of you—that you return to him/her what is his/her due that you may share in it with him/her. Alone does neither have it. So must it remain useless to both. Together, it will give to each an equal strength to save the other and save himself or herself along with him or her. Forgiven by you, your savior or savioress offers you salvation. Condemned by you, he or she offers death to you.

In everyone you see but the reflection of what you chose to have him or her be to you. If you decide against his or her proper function, the only one he or she has in truth, you are depriving him or her of all the joy he or she would have found if he or she fulfilled the role God gave to him or her. But think not the God Realm is lost to him or her alone. Nor can it be regained unless the way is shown to him or her through you that you may find it, walking by his or her side.

⁴¹ It is no sacrifice that he or she be saved, for by his or her freedom will you gain your own. To let his or her function be fulfilled is but the means to let yours be. And so you walk toward the God Realm or toward hell, but not alone. How beautiful his or her sinlessness will be when you perceive it! And how great will be your joy, when he or she is free to offer you the gift of sight God gave to him or her for you! He or she has no need but this—that you allow him or her freedom to complete the task God gave to him or her. Remembering but this—that what he or she does you do along with him or her. And as you see him or her, so do you define the function he or she will have for you until you see him or her differently and let him or her be what God appointed that he or she be to you.

⁴² Against the hatred that the SonDaughter of God may cherish toward himself or herself is God believed to be without the power to save what HeShe created and manifested from the pain of hell. But in the love HeShe shows himself or herself is God made free to let HisHer Will be done. In each of you, you see the picture of your own belief in what the Will of God must be for you. In your forgiveness will you understand HisHer love for you; through your attack believe HeShe hates you, thinking the God Realm must be hell. Look once again upon your brother or sister, not without the understanding that he or she is the way to the God Realm or to hell as you perceive him or her. But forget not this—the role you give to him or her is given you, and you will walk the way you pointed out to him or her because it is your judgment on yourself.

VII. The Special Function

⁴³ The grace of God rests gently on forgiving eyes, and everything they look on speaks of HimHer to the beholder. HeShe can see no evil, nothing in the world to fear, and no one who is different from himself or herself. And as he or she loves them, so he or she looks upon himself or herself with love and gentleness. HeShe would no more condemn himself or herself for his or her mistakes than damn another. He or she is not an arbiter of vengeance nor a punisher of sin. The kindness of his or her sight rests on himself or herself with all the tenderness it offers others. For he or she would only heal and only bless. And being in accord with what God wills, he or she has the power to heal and bless all those he or she looks on with the grace of God upon his or her sight.

⁴⁴ Eyes become used to darkness, and the light of brilliant day seems painful to the eyes grown long accustomed to the dim effects perceived at twilight. And they turn away from sunlight and the clarity it brings to what they look upon. Dimness seems better—easier to see and better recognized. Somehow, the vague and more obscure seems easier to look upon; less painful to the eyes than what is wholly clear and unambiguous. Yet this is not what eyes are for. And who can say that he or she prefers the darkness and maintain he or she wants to see? The wish to see calls down the grace of God upon your eyes and brings the gift of light that makes sight possible.

⁴⁵ Will you behold your brother? God is glad to have you look on him or her. HeShe does not will your savior or savioress be unrecognized by you. Nor does HeShe will that he or she remain without the function that HeShe gave to him or her. Let him or her no more be lonely, for the lonely ones are those who see no function in the world for them to fill, no place where they are needed, and no aim which only they can perfectly fulfill.

⁴⁶ Such is the Holy Spirit's kind perception of specialness—Her use of what you made, to heal instead of harm. To each She gives a special function in salvation he or she alone can fill—a part for only him or her. Nor is the plan complete until he or she finds his or her special function and fulfills the part assigned to him or her to make himself or herself complete within a world where incompleteness rules.

⁴⁷ Here, where the laws of God do not prevail in perfect form, can he or she yet do one perfect thing and make one perfect choice. And by this act of special faithfulness to one perceived as other than himself or herself, he or she learns the gift was given to himself or herself, and so they must be one. Forgiveness is the only function meaningful in time. It is the means the Holy Spirit uses to translate specialness from sin into salvation. Forgiveness is for all. But when it rests on all, it is complete and every function of this world completed with it. Then is time no more.

⁴⁸ Yet while in time, there is still much to do. And each must do what is allotted him, for on his or her part does all the plan depend. He or she has a special part in time, for so he or she chose, and choosing it, he or she made it for himself or herself. His or her wish was not denied but changed in form to let it serve his or her brother or sister and himself or herself and thus become a means to save instead of lose. Salvation is no more than a reminder this world is not your home; its laws are not imposed on you; its values are not yours. [And nothing that you think you see in it is really there at all.] And this is seen and understood as each one takes his or her part in its undoing, as he or she did in making it. He or she has the means for either, as he or she always did. The specialness he or she chose to hurt himself or herself did God appoint to be the means for his or her salvation from the very instant that the choice was made. His or her special sin was made his or her special grace. His or her special hate became his or her special love.

⁴⁹ The Holy Spirit needs your special function that Her may be fulfilled. Think not you lack a special value here. You wanted it, and it is given you. All that you made can serve salvation easily and well. The SonDaughter of God can make no choice the Holy Spirit cannot employ on his or her behalf and not against himself or herself. Only in darkness does your specialness appear to be attack. In light, you see it as your special function in the plan to save the SonDaughter of God from all attack and let him or her understand that he or she is safe, as he or she has always been and will remain in time and in eternity alike. This is the function given each of you for one another. Take it gently then from one another's hand, and let salvation be perfectly fulfilled in both of you. Do this one thing, that everything be given you.

VIII. Commuting the Sentence

⁵⁰ And if the Holy Spirit can commute each sentence that you laid upon yourself into a blessing, then it cannot be a sin. Sin is the one thing in all the world that cannot change. It is immutable. And on its changelessness the world depends. The magic of the world can seem to hide the pain of sin from sinners and deceive with glitter and with guile. Yet each one knows the cost of sin is death. And so it is. For sin is a request for death, a wish to make this world's foundation sure as love, dependable as the God Realm, and as strong as God HimHerself. The world is safe from love to everyone who thinks sin possible. Nor will it change. Yet is it possible what God created and manifested not should share the attributes of HisHer manifested creation when it opposes it in every way?

⁵¹ It cannot be the "sinner's" wish for death is just as strong as is God's Will for life. Nor can the basis of a world HeShe did not make be firm and sure as the God Realm . How could it be that hell and the God Realm are the same? And is it possible that what HeShe did not will cannot be changed? What is immutable besides HisHer Will? And what can share Its attributes except Itself? What wish can rise against HisHer Will and be immutable? If you could realize nothing is changeless but the Will of God, this course would not be difficult for you. For it is this that you do not believe. Yet there is nothing else you could believe if you but looked at what it really is.

⁵² Let us go back to what we said before and think of it more carefully. It must be so that either God is mad or is this world a place of madness. Not one Thought of HisHer makes any sense at all within this world. And nothing that the world believes as true has any meaning in HisHer Mind at all. What makes no sense and has no meaning is insanity. And what is madness cannot be the truth. If one belief so deeply valued here were true, then every Thought God ever had is an illusion. And if but one Thought of HisHer is true, then all beliefs the world gives any meaning to are false and make no sense at all. This is the choice you make. Do not attempt to see it differently nor twist it into something it is not. For only this decision can you make. The rest is up to God and not to you.

⁵³ To justify one value that the world upholds is to deny your Father'sMother's sanity and yours. For God and HisHer beloved SonDaughter do not think differently. And it is the agreement of their thought that makes the SonDaughter a co-CreatorManifestor with the Mind Whose Thought created and manifested himher. And if he or she chooses to believe one thought opposed to truth, he or she has decided he or she is not his or her Father'sMother's SonDaughter because the SonDaughter is mad, and sanity must lie apart from both the FatherMother and the SonDaughter. This you believe. Think not that this belief depends upon the form it takes. Who thinks the world is sane in any way, is justified in anything it thinks, or is maintained by any form of reason believes this to be true. Sin is not real because the FatherMother and the SonDaughter are not insane. This world is meaningless because it rests on sin. Who could create and manifest the changeless if it does not rest on truth?

⁵⁴ The Holy Spirit has the power to change the whole foundation of the world you see to something else—a basis not insane on which a sane perception can be based, another world perceived. And one in which nothing is contradicted that would lead the SonDaughter of God to sanity and joy. Nothing attests to death and cruelty, to separation, and to differences. For here is everything perceived as one, and no one loses that each one may gain.

⁵⁵ Test everything that you believe against this one requirement. And understand that everything that meets this one demand is worthy of your faith. But nothing else. What is not love is sin, and either one perceives the other as insane and meaningless. Love is the basis for a world perceived as wholly mad to sinners who believe theirs is the way to sanity. But sin is equally insane within the sight of love, whose gentle eyes would look beyond the madness and rest peacefully on truth. Each sees a world immutable, as each defines the changeless and eternal truth of what you are. And each reflects a view of what the FatherMother and the SonDaughter must be to make that viewpoint meaningful and sane.

⁵⁶ Your special function is the special form in which the fact that God is not insane appears most sensible and meaningful to you. The content is the same. The form is suited to your special needs and to the special time and place in which you think you find yourself and where you can be free of place and time and all that you believe must limit you. The SonDaughter of God cannot be bound by time nor place nor anything God did not will. Yet if HisHer Will is seen as madness, then the form of sanity which makes it most acceptable to those who are insane requires special choice. Nor can this choice be made by the insane, whose problem is their choices are not free and made with reason in the light of sense.

⁵⁷ It would be madness to entrust salvation to the insane. Because HeShe is not mad has God appointed One as sane as HeShe to raise a saner world to meet the sight of everyone who chose insanity as his or her salvation. To this One is given the choice of form most suitable to him or her; one which will not attack the world he or she sees, but enter into it in quietness and show him or her he or she is mad. This One but points to an alternative, another way of looking at what he or she has seen before and recognizes as the world in which he or she lives and thought he or she understood before.

⁵⁸ Now must he or she question this because the form of the alternative is one which he or she cannot deny nor overlook nor fail completely to perceive at all. To each his or her special function is designed to be perceived as possible and more and more desired as it proves to him or her that it is an alternative he or she really wants. From this position does his or her sinfulness and all the sin he or she sees within the world offer him or her less and less—until he or she comes to understand it cost him or her his or her sanity and stands between him or her and whatever hope he or she has of being sane. Nor is he or she left without escape from madness, for he or she has a special part in everyone's escape. He or she can no more be left outside without a special function in the hope of peace than could the FatherMother overlook HisHer SonDaughter and pass himher by in careless thoughtlessness.

⁵⁹ What is dependable except God's Love? And where does sanity abide except in HimHer? The One Who speaks for HimHer can show you this in the alternative She chose especially for you. It is God's Will that you remember this and so emerge from deepest mourning into perfect joy. Accept the function that has been assigned to you in God's Own plan to show HisHer SonsDaughters that hell and the God Realm are different, not the same. And that in the God Realm they are all the same, without the differences which would have made a hell of the God Realm and a God Realm of hell, had such insanity been possible.

⁶⁰ The whole belief that someone loses but reflects the underlying tenet God must be insane. For in this world, it seems that one must gain because another lost. If this were true, then God is mad indeed! But what is this belief except a form of the more basic tenet, "Sin is real and rules the world"? For every little gain must someone lose and pay exact amount in blood and suffering. For otherwise would evil triumph and destruction be the total cost of any gain at all. You who believe that God is mad, look carefully at this and understand that it must be that either God or this must be insane, but hardly both.

⁶¹ Salvation is rebirth of the idea no one can lose for anyone to gain. And everyone must gain if anyone would be a gainer. Here is sanity restored. And on this single rock of truth can faith in God's eternal saneness rest in perfect confidence and perfect peace. Reason is satisfied, for all insane beliefs can be corrected here. And sin must be impossible if this is true. This is the rock on which salvation rests, the vantage point from which the Holy Spirit gives meaning and direction to the plan in which your special function has a part. For here your special function is made whole because it shares the function of the whole.

⁶² Remember all temptation is but this—a mad belief that God's insanity would make you sane and give you what you want. That either God or you must lose to madness because your aims can not be reconciled. Death demands life, but life is not maintained at any cost. No one can suffer for the Will of God to be fulfilled. Salvation is HisHer Will because you share it. Not for you alone but for the Self which is the SonDaughter of God. HeShe cannot lose, for if he or she could, the loss would be his or her Father'sMother's, and in HimHer no loss is possible. And this is sane because it is the truth.

IX. The Principle of Salvation

⁶³ The Holy Spirit can use all that you give to Her for your salvation. But She cannot use what you withhold, for She cannot take it from you without your willingness. For if She did, you would believe She wrested it from you against your will. And so you would not learn it is your will to be without it. You need not give it to Her wholly willingly, for if you could, you'd have no need of Her. But this She needs—that you prefer She take it than that you keep it for yourself alone and recognize that what brings loss to no one you would not know. This much is necessary to add to the idea no one can lose for you to gain. And nothing more.

⁶⁴ Here is the only principle salvation needs. Nor is it necessary that your faith in it be strong, unswerving, and without attack from all beliefs opposed to it. You have no fixed allegiance. But remember salvation is not needed by the saved. You are not called upon to do what one divided still against himself or herself would find impossible. Have little faith that wisdom could be found in such a state of mind. But be you thankful that only little faith is asked of you. What but a little faith remains to those who still believe in sin? What could they know of the God Realm and the justice of the saved?

⁶⁵ There is a kind of justice in salvation of which the world knows nothing. To the world, justice and vengeance are the same, for sinners see justice only as their punishment, perhaps sustained by someone else but not escaped. The laws of sin demand a victim. Who it may be makes little difference. But death must be the cost and must be paid. This is not justice but insanity. Yet how could justice be defined without insanity where love means hate and death is seen as victory and triumph over eternity and timelessness and life?

⁶⁶ You who know not of justice still can ask and learn the answer. Justice looks on all in the same way. It is not just that one should lack for what another has. For that is vengeance in whatever form it takes. Justice demands no sacrifice, for any sacrifice is made that sin may be preserved and kept. It is a payment offered for the cost of sin, but not the total cost. The rest is taken from another, to be laid beside your little payment to "atone" for all that you would keep and not give up. So is the victim seen as partly you, with someone else by far the greater part. And in the total cost, the greater his, the less is yours. And justice, being blind, is satisfied by being paid, it matters not by whom. Can this be justice? God knows not of this. But justice does HeShe know and knows it well. For HeShe is wholly fair to everyone.

⁶⁷ Vengeance is alien to God's Mind because HeShe knows of justice. To be just is to be fair and not be vengeful. Fairness and vengeance are impossible, for each one contradicts the other and denies that it is real. It is impossible for you to share the Holy Spirit's justice with a mind that can conceive of specialness at all. Yet how could She be just if She condemns a sinner for the crimes he or she did not do but thinks he or she did? And where would justice be if She demanded of the ones obsessed with the idea of punishment that they lay it aside unaided and perceive it is not true? It is extremely hard for those who still believe sin meaningful to understand the Holy Spirit's justice.

⁶⁸ They must believe She shares their own confusion and cannot avoid the vengeance that their own belief in justice must entail. And so they fear the Holy Spirit and perceive the "wrath" of God in Her. Nor can they trust Her not to strike them dead with lightning bolts torn from the "fires" of the God Realm by God's own angry hand. They do believe that the God Realm is hell and are afraid of love. And deep suspicion and the chill of fear comes over them when they are told that they have never sinned. Their world depends on sin's stability. And they perceive the "threat" of what God knows as justice to be more destructive to themselves and to their world than vengeance, which they understand and love.

⁶⁹ So do they think the loss of sin a curse. And flee the Holy Spirit as if She were a messenger from hell sent from above in treachery and guile to work God's vengeance on them in the guise of a deliverer and friend. What could She be to them except a devil dressed to deceive within an angel's cloak. And what escape has She for them except a door to hell that seems to look like the God Realm 's gate?

⁷⁰ Yet justice cannot punish those who ask for punishment but have a Judge Who knows that they are wholly innocent in truth. In justice, She is bound to set them free and give them all the honor they deserve and have denied themselves because they are not fair and cannot understand that they are innocent. Love is not understandable to sinners because they think that justice is split off from love and stands for something else.

⁷¹ And thus is love perceived as weak and vengeance strong. For love has lost when judgment left its side and is too weak to save from punishment. But vengeance without love has gained in strength by being separate and apart from love. And what but vengeance now can help and save, while love stands feebly by with helpless hands, bereft of justice and vitality and powerless to save? What can Love ask of you who think that all of this is true? Could She, in justice and in love believe in your confusion you have much to give? You are not asked to trust Her far. No further than what you see She offers you and what you recognize you could not give yourself.

⁷² In God's own justice does She recognize all you deserve but understands as well that you cannot accept it for yourself. It is Her special function to hold out to you the gifts the innocent deserve. And every one that you accept brings joy to Her as well as you. She knows that the God Realm is richer made by each one you accept. And God rejoices as HisHer SonDaughter receives what loving justice knows to be his or her due. For love and justice are not different. Because they are the same does mercy stand at God's right hand and give the SonDaughter of God the power to forgive himself or herself of sin.

⁷³ To him or her who merits everything, how can it be that anything be kept from him? For that would be injustice and unfair indeed to all the holiness that is in him or her, however much he or she recognize it not. God knows of no injustice. HeShe would not allow HisHer SonDaughter be judged by those who seek his or her death and could not see his or her worth at all. What honest witnesses could they call forth to speak on his or her behalf? And who would come to plead for him or her and not against his or her life? No justice would be given him or her by you. Yet God ensured that justice would be done unto the SonDaughter HeShe loves and would protect from all unfairness you might seek to offer, believing vengeance is his or her proper due.

⁷⁴ As specialness cares not who pays the cost of sin, so it be paid, the Holy Spirit heeds not who looks on innocence at last, provided it is seen and recognized. For just one witness is enough if he or she sees truly. Simple justice asks no more. Of each one does the Holy Spirit ask if he or she will be that one, so justice may return to love and there be satisfied. Each special function She allots is but for this—that each one learn that love and justice are not separate. And both are strengthened by their union with each other. Without love is justice prejudiced and weak. And love without justice is impossible. For love is fair and cannot chasten without cause. What cause can be to warrant an attack upon the innocent? In justice then does love correct mistakes, but not in vengeance. For that would be unjust to innocence.

⁷⁵ You can be perfect witness to the power of love and justice if you understand it is impossible the SonDaughter of God could merit vengeance. You need not perceive in every circumstance that this is true. Nor need you look to your experience within the world, which is but shadows of all that is really happening within yourself. The understanding which you need comes not of you but from a larger Self, so great and holy that She could not doubt hiser innocence. Your special function is a call to himher that heshe may smile on you whose sinlessness heshe shares. Hiser understanding will be yours. And so the Holy Spirit's special function has been fulfilled. God's SonDaughter has found a witness unto hiser sinlessness and not hiser sin. How little need you give the Holy Spirit that simple justice may be given you!

⁷⁶ Without impartiality there is no justice. How can specialness be just? Judge not because you cannot, not because you are a miserable sinner too. How can the special really understand that justice is the same for everyone? To take from one to give another must be an injustice to them both, since they are equal in the Holy Spirit's sight. Their FatherMother gave the same inheritance to both. Who would have more or less is not aware that he or she has everything. He or she is no judge of what must be another's due, because he or she thinks he or she is deprived. And so must he or she be envious and try to take away from whom he or she judges. He or she is not impartial and cannot fairly see another's rights because his or her own have been obscured to him or her.

⁷⁷ You have the right to all the universe—to perfect peace, complete deliverance from all effects of sin, and to the life eternal, joyous and complete in every way, as God appointed for HisHer holy SonDaughter. This is the only justice the God Realm knows, and all the Holy Spirit brings to earth. Your special function shows you nothing else but perfect justice can prevail for you. And you are safe from vengeance in all forms. The world deceives, but it cannot replace God's justice with a version of its own. For only love is just and can perceive what justice must accord the SonDaughter of God. Let love decide and never fear that you in your unfairness will deprive yourself of what God's justice has allotted you.

X. The Justice of the God Realm

⁷⁸ What can it be but arrogance to think your little errors cannot be undone by the God Realm 's justice? And what could this mean except that they are sins and not mistakes, forever uncorrectable, and to be met with vengeance not with justice? Are you willing to be released from all effects of sin? You cannot answer this until you see all that the answer must entail. For if you answer "yes," it means you will forgo all values of this world in favor of the peace of the God Realm . Not one sin would you retain. And not one doubt that this is possible will you hold dear that sin be kept in place. You mean that truth has greater value now than all illusions. And you recognize that truth must be revealed to you because you know not what it is.

⁷⁹ To give reluctantly is not to gain the gift because you are reluctant to accept it. It is saved for you until reluctance to receive it disappears, and you are willing it be given you. God's justice warrants gratitude, not fear. Nothing you give is lost to you or anyone, but cherished and preserved in the God Realm, where all of the treasures given to God's SonDaughter are kept for himher and offered anyone who but holds out his or her hand in willingness they be received. Nor is the treasure less as it is given out. Each gift but adds to the supply. For God is fair. HeShe does not fight against HisHer Son'sDaughter's reluctance to perceive salvation as a gift from HimHer. Yet would HisHer justice not be satisfied until it is received by everyone.

⁸⁰ Be certain any answer to a problem the Holy Spirit solves will always be one in which no one loses. And this must be true because She asks no sacrifice of anyone. An answer which demands the slightest loss to anyone has not resolved the problem but has added to it and made it greater, harder to resolve, and more unfair. It is impossible the Holy Spirit could see unfairness as a resolution. To Her, what is unfair must be corrected because it is unfair. And every error is a perception in which one at least is seen unfairly. Thus is justice not accorded to the SonDaughter of God. When anyone is seen as losing, he or she has been condemned. And punishment becomes his or her due instead of justice.

⁸¹ The sight of innocence makes punishment impossible and justice sure. The Holy Spirit's perception leaves no ground for an attack. Only a loss could justify attack, and loss of any kind She cannot see. The world solves problems in another way. It sees a resolution as a state in which it is decided who shall win and who shall lose—how much the one shall take and how much can the loser still defend.

⁸² Yet does the problem still remain unsolved, for only justice can set up a state in which there is no loser, no one left unfairly treated and deprived, and thus with grounds for vengeance. Problem solving cannot be vengeance, which at best can bring another problem added to the first, in which the murder is not obvious. The Holy Spirit's problem solving is the way in which the problem ends. It has been solved because it has been met with justice. Until it has, it will recur because it has not yet been solved. The principle that justice means no one can lose is crucial to this course. For miracles depend on justice. Not as it is seen through this world's eyes, but as God knows it, and as knowledge is reflected in the sight the Holy Spirit gives.

⁸³ No one deserves to lose. And what would be unjust to him or her cannot occur. Healing must be for everyone because he or she does not merit an attack of any kind. What order can there be in miracles, unless someone deserves to suffer more and others less? And is this justice to the wholly innocent? A miracle is justice. It is not a special gift to some to be withheld from others as less worthy, more condemned, and thus apart from healing. Who is there who can be separate from salvation if its purpose is the end of specialness? Where is salvation's justice if some errors are unforgivable and warrant vengeance in place of healing and return of peace?

⁸⁴ Salvation cannot seek to help God's SonDaughter be more unfair than he or she has sought to be. If miracles, the Holy Spirit's gift, were given specially to an elect and special group and kept apart from others as less deserving, then is She ally to specialness. What She cannot perceive She bears no witness to. And everyone is equally entitled to Her gift of healing and deliverance and peace. To give a problem to the Holy Spirit to solve for you means that you want it solved. To keep it for yourself to solve without Her help is to decide it should remain unsettled, unresolved, and lasting in its power of injustice and attack.

No one can be unjust to you, unless you have decided first to be unjust. And then must problems rise to block your way and peace be scattered by the winds of hate.

⁸⁵ Unless you think that all your brothers and sisters have an equal right to miracles with you, you will not claim your right to them because you were unjust to one with equal rights. Seek to deny, and you will feel denied. Seek to deprive, and you have been deprived. A miracle can never be received because another could receive it not. Only forgiveness offers miracles. And pardon must be just to everyone.

⁸⁶ The little problems that you keep and hide become your secret sins because you did not choose to let them be removed for you. And so they gather dust and grow until they cover everything that you perceive and leave you fair to no one. Not one right do you believe you have. And bitterness, with vengeance justified and mercy lost, condemns you as unworthy of forgiveness. The unforgiven have no mercy to bestow upon another. That is why your sole responsibility must be to take forgiveness for yourself. The miracle that you receive you give. Each one becomes an illustration of the law on which salvation rests—that justice must be done to all if anyone is to be healed. No one can lose, and everyone must benefit.

⁸⁷ Each miracle is an example of what justice can accomplish when it is offered to everyone alike. It is received and given equally. It is awareness that giving and receiving are the same. Because it does not make the same unlike, it sees no differences where none exist. And thus it is the same for everyone because it sees no differences in them. Its offering is universal, and it teaches but one message:

⁸⁸ What is God's belongs to everyone and is his or her due.

Chapter Twenty Six:

The Transition

I. Introduction

¹ In the "dynamics" of attack is sacrifice a key idea. It is the pivot upon which all compromise, all desperate attempts to strike a bargain, and all conflicts achieve a seeming balance. It is the symbol of the central theme that somebody must lose. Its focus on the body is apparent, for it is always an attempt to limit loss. The body is itself a sacrifice—a giving up of power in the name of saving just a little for yourself. To see a brother or sister in another body separate from yours is the expression of a wish to see a little part of him or her and sacrifice the rest. Look at the world, and you will see nothing attached to anything beyond itself. All seeming entities can come a little nearer or go a little farther off but cannot join.

II. The "Sacrifice" of Oneness

² The world you see is based on "sacrifice" of oneness. It is a picture of a complete disunity and total lack of joining. Around each entity is built a wall so seeming solid that it looks as if what is inside can never reach without, and what is out can never reach and join with what is locked away within the wall. Each part must sacrifice the other part to keep itself complete. For if they joined, each one would lose its own identity, and by their separation are their selves maintained.

³ The little that the body fences off becomes the self, preserved through sacrifice of all the rest. And all the rest must lose this little part, remaining incomplete to keep its own identity intact. In this perception of yourself, the body's loss would be a sacrifice indeed. For sight of bodies becomes the sign that sacrifice is limited and something still remains for you alone. And for this little to belong to you are limits placed on everything outside, just as they are on everything you think is yours. For giving and receiving are the same. And to accept the limits of a body is to impose these limits on each brother or sister whom you see. For you must see him or her as you see yourself.

⁴ The body is a loss and can be made to sacrifice. And while you see your brother or sister as a body, apart from you and separate in his or her cell, you are demanding sacrifice of him or her and you. What greater sacrifice could be demanded than that God's SonDaughter perceive himself or herself without his or her FatherMother? And his or her FatherMother be without HisHer SonDaughter? Yet every sacrifice demands that they be separate and without the other. The memory of God must be denied if any sacrifice is asked of anyone. What witness to the wholeness of God's SonDaughter is seen within a world of separate bodies, however much he or she witnesses to truth? He or she is invisible in such a world. Nor can his or her song of union and of love be heard at all. Yet is it given him or her to make the world recede before his or her song and sight of him or her replace the body's eyes.

⁵ Those who would see the witnesses to truth instead of to illusion merely ask that they might see a purpose in the world that gives it sense and makes it meaningful. Without your special function has this world no meaning for you. Yet it can become a treasure house as rich and limitless as the God Realm itself. No instant passes here in which your brother's or sister's holiness cannot be seen, to add a limitless supply to every meager scrap and tiny crumb of happiness that you allot yourself.

⁶ You can lose sight of oneness, but can not make sacrifice of its reality. Nor can you lose what you would sacrifice nor keep the Holy Spirit from Her task of showing you that it has not been lost. Hear then the song your brother or sister sings to you. And let the world recede and take the rest his or her witness offers on behalf of peace. But judge him or her not, for you will hear no song of liberation for yourself nor see what it is given him or her to witness to that you may see it and rejoice with him or her. Make not his or her holiness a sacrifice to your belief in sin. You sacrifice your innocence with his or her and die each time you see in him or her a sin deserving death.

⁷ Yet every instant can you be reborn and given life again. His or her holiness gives life to you, who cannot die because his or her sinlessness is known to God and can no more be sacrificed by you than can the light in you be blotted out because he or she sees it not. You who would make a sacrifice of life and make your eyes and ears bear witness to the death of God and of HisHer holy SonDaughter, think not that you have power to make of them what God willed not they be. In the God Realm God's SonDaughter is not imprisoned in a body nor is sacrificed in solitude to sin.

⁸ And as he or she is in the God Realm, so must he or she be eternally and everywhere. He or she is the same forever—born again each instant, untouched by time, and far beyond the reach of any sacrifice of life or death. For neither did he or she make, and only one was given him or her by One Who knows HisHer gifts can never suffer sacrifice and loss. God's justice rests in gentleness upon HisHer SonDaughter and keeps him or her safe from all injustice the world would lay upon him or her. Could it be that you could make his or her sins reality and sacrifice his or her Father'sMother's Will for him?

⁹ Condemn him or her not by seeing him or her within the rotting prison where he or she sees himself or herself. It is your special function to ensure the door be opened that he or she may come forth to shine on you and give you back the gift of freedom by receiving it of you. What is the Holy Spirit's special function but to release the holy SonDaughter of God from the imprisonment he or she made to keep himself or herself from justice? Could your function be a task apart and separate from HisHer Own?

III. The Forms of Error

¹⁰ It is not difficult to understand the reasons why you do not ask the Holy Spirit to solve all problems for you. She has not greater difficulty in resolving some than others. Every problem is the same to Her because each one is solved in just the same respect and through the same approach. The aspects which need solving do not change, whatever form the problem seems to take. A problem can appear in the many forms, and it will do so while the problem lasts. It serves no purpose to attempt to solve it in a special form. It will recur and then recur again and yet again until it has been answered for all time and will not rise again in any form. And only then are you released from it.

¹¹ The Holy Spirit offers you release from every problem that you think you have. They are the same to Her because each one, regardless of the form it seems to take, is a demand that someone suffer loss and make a sacrifice that you might gain. And when the situation is worked out so no one loses, is the problem gone because it was an error in perception which now has been corrected. One mistake is not more difficult for Her to bring to truth than is another. For there is but one mistake—the whole idea that loss is possible and could result in gain for anyone. If this were true, then God would be unfair, sin would be possible, attack be justified, and vengeance fair.

¹² This one mistake in any form has one correction. There is no loss; to think there is, is a mistake. You have no problems, though you think you have. And yet you could not think so if you saw them vanish one by one without regard to size, complexity, or place and time, or any attribute which you perceive that makes each one seem different from the rest. Think not the limits you impose on what you see can limit God in any way.

¹³ The miracle of justice can correct all errors. Every problem is an error. It does injustice to the SonDaughter of God and therefore is not true. The Holy Spirit does not evaluate injustices as great or small or more or less. They have no properties to Her. They are mistakes from which the SonDaughter of God is suffering, but needlessly. And so She takes the thorns and nails away. She does not pause to judge whether the hurt be large or little. She makes but one judgment—that to hurt God's SonDaughter must be unfair and therefore is not so.

¹⁴ You who believe it safe to give but some mistakes to be corrected while you keep the others to yourself, remember this: justice is total. There is no such thing as partial justice. If the SonDaughter of God is guilty, then is heshe condemned, and heshe deserves no mercy from the God of justice. But ask not God to punish himher because you find himher guilty and would have himher die. God offers you the means to see hisher innocence. Would it be fair to punish himher because you will not look at what is there to see? Each time you keep a problem for yourself to solve or judge that it is one which has no resolution, you have made it great and past the hope of healing. You deny the miracle of justice can be fair.

¹⁵ If God is just, then can there be no problems that justice cannot solve. But you believe that some injustices are fair and good and necessary to preserve yourself. It is these problems that you think are great and cannot be resolved. For there are those you want to suffer loss and no one whom you wish to be preserved from sacrifice entirely. Consider once again your special function. One is given you to see in himher hisher perfect sinlessness. And you will ask no sacrifice of himher because you could not will heshe suffer loss. The miracle of justice you call forth will rest on you as surely as on himher. Nor will the Holy Spirit be content until it is received by everyone. For what you give to Her is everyone's, and by your giving it can She ensure that everyone receives it equally.

¹⁶ Think then how great your own release will be when you are willing to receive correction for all your problems. You will not keep one, for pain in any form you will not want. And you will see each little hurt resolved before the Holy Spirit's gentle sight. For all of them are little in Her sight and worth no more than just a tiny sigh before they disappear, to be forever undone and unremembered. What seemed once to be a special problem, a mistake without a remedy, or an affliction without a cure, has been transformed into a universal blessing. Sacrifice is gone. And in its place the love of God can be remembered and will shine away all memory of sacrifice and loss.

¹⁷ God cannot be remembered until justice is loved instead of feared. She cannot be unjust to anyone or anything because She knows that everything that is belongs to HimHer and will forever be as HeShe created and manifested it. Nothing HeShe loves but must be sinless and beyond attack. Your special function opens wide the door beyond which is the memory of HisHer love kept perfectly intact and undefiled. And all you need to do is but to wish that the God Realm be given you instead of hell, and every bolt and barrier that seems to hold the door securely barred and locked will merely fall away and disappear. For it is not your Father'sMother's Will that you should offer or receive less than HeShe gave when HeShe created and manifested you in perfect love.

IV. The Borderland

¹⁸ Complexity is not of God. How could it be, when all HeShe knows is one? HeShe knows of one manifested creation, one reality, one truth, and but one SonDaughter. Nothing conflicts with oneness. How, then, could there be complexity in HimHer? What is there to decide? For it is conflict that makes choice possible. The truth is simple—it is one, without an opposite. And how could strife enter in its simple presence and bring complexity where oneness is? The truth makes no decisions, for there is nothing to decide between. And only if there were could choosing be a necessary step in the advance toward oneness. What is everything leaves room for nothing else.

¹⁹ Yet is this magnitude beyond the scope of this curriculum. Nor is it necessary we dwell on anything that cannot be immediately grasped. There is a borderland of thought which stands between this world and the God Realm. It is not a place, and when you reach it is apart from time. Here is the meeting-place where thoughts are brought together—where conflicting values meet and all illusions are laid down beside the truth where they are judged to be untrue. This borderland is just beyond the gate of the God Realm. Here is every thought made pure and wholly simple. Here is sin denied and everything that is received instead.

²⁰ This is the journey's end. We have referred to it as the real world. And yet there is a contradiction here in that the words imply a limited reality, a partial truth, a segment of the universe made true. This is because knowledge makes no attack upon perception. They are brought together, and only one continues past the gate where Oneness is. Salvation is a borderland where place and time and choice have meaning still, and yet it can be seen that they are temporary, out of place, and every choice has been already made.

²¹ Nothing the SonDaughter of God believes can be destroyed. But what is truth to himher must be brought to the last comparison that heshe will ever make, the last evaluation that will be possible, the final judgment upon this world. It is the judgment of the truth upon illusion, of knowledge on perception—it has no meaning and does not exist. This is not your decision. It is but a simple statement of a simple fact. But in this world, there are no simple facts because what is the same and what is different remain unclear. The one essential thing to make a choice at all is this distinction. And herein lies the difference between the worlds. In this one, choice is made impossible. In the real world is choosing simplified.

²² Salvation stops just short of the God Realm, for only perception needs salvation. The God Realm was never lost and so cannot be saved. Yet who can make a choice between the wish for the God Realm and the wish for hell unless he or she recognizes they are not the same? This difference is the learning goal this course has set. It will not go beyond this aim. Its only purpose is to teach what is the same and what is different, leaving room to make the only choice which can be made.

²³ There is no basis for choice in this complex and over-complicated world. For no one understands what is the same and seems to choose where no choice really is. The real world is the area of choice made real, not in the outcome but in the perception of alternatives for choice.

That there is choice is an illusion. Yet within this one lies the undoing of every illusion, not excepting this.

²⁴ Is not this like your special function, where the separation is undone by change of purpose in what once was specialness and now is union? All illusions are but one. And in the recognition this is so lies the ability to give up all attempts to choose between them and to make them different. [How simple is the choice between two things so clearly unlike.] There is no conflict here. No sacrifice is possible in the relinquishment of an illusion recognized as such. Where all reality has been withdrawn from what was never true, can it be hard to give it up and choose what must be true?

V. Where Sin Has Left

²⁵ Forgiveness is this world's equivalent of the God Realm 's justice. It translates the world of sin into a simple world where justice can be reflected from beyond the gate behind which total lack of limits lies. Nothing in boundless love could need forgiveness. And what is charity within the world gives way to simple justice past the gate that opens into the God Realm . No one forgives unless he or she has believed in sin and still believes that he or she has much to be forgiven. Forgiveness thus becomes the means by which he or she learns he or she has done nothing to forgive. Forgiveness always rests upon the one who offers it until he or she sees himself or herself as needing it no more. And thus is he or she returned to his or her real function of creatingmanifesting, which his or her forgiveness offers him or her again.

²⁶ Forgiveness turns the world of sin into a world of glory, wonderful to see. Each flower shines in light, and every bird sings of the joy of the God Realm . There is no sadness, and there is no parting here, for everything is totally forgiven. And what has been forgiven must join, for nothing stands between to keep them separate and apart. The sinless must perceive that they are one, for nothing stands between to push the other off. And in the space which sin left vacant do they join as one, in gladness recognizing what is part of them has not been kept apart and separate.

²⁷ The holy place on which you stand is but the space that sin has left. And here you see the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness arising in its place. Who could behold the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and not recall Her FatherMother as HeShe really is? Who could fear love and stand upon the ground where sin has left a place for the God Realm 's altar to rise and tower far above the world and reach beyond the universe to touch the heart of all creation? What is the God Realm but a song of gratitude and love and praise by everything created and manifested to the Source of its manifested creation? The holiest of altars is set where once sin was believed to be. And here does every light of the God Realm come to be rekindled and increased in joy. For here is what was lost restored to them and all their radiance made whole again.

²⁸ Forgiveness brings no little miracles to lay before the gate of the God Realm. Here the SonDaughter of God HimHerself comes to receive each gift that brings him or her nearer to his or her home. Not one is lost, and none is cherished more than any other. Each reminds him or her of his or her Father'sMother's love as surely as the rest. And each one teaches him or her that what he or she feared he or she loves the most. What but a miracle could change his or her mind, so that he or she understands that love cannot be feared? What other miracle is there but this? And what else need there be to make the space between you disappear?

²⁹ Where sin once was perceived will rise a world which will become an altar to the truth, and you will join the lights of the God Realm there and sing their song of gratitude and praise. And as they come to you to be complete, so will you go with them. For no one hears the song of the God Realm and remains without a voice that adds its power to the song and makes it sweeter still. And each one joins the singing at the altar which was raised within the tiny spot that sin proclaimed to be its own. And what was tiny then has soared into a magnitude of song in which the universe has joined with but a single voice. This tiny spot of sin that stands between you still is holding back the happy opening of the God Realm 's gate. How little is the hindrance which withholds the wealth of the God Realm from you! And how great will be the joy in the God Realm when you join the mighty chorus to the love of God!

VI. The Little Hindrance

³⁰ A little hindrance can seem large indeed to those who do not understand that miracles are all the same. Yet teaching that is what this course is for. This is its only purpose, for only that is all there is to learn. And you can learn it the many different ways. All learning is a help or hindrance to the gate of the God Realm . Nothing in between is possible. There are two teachers only, who point in different ways. And you will go along the way your chosen teacher leads. There are but two directions you can take while time remains and choice is meaningful. For never will another road be made except the way to the God Realm . You but choose whether to go toward the God Realm or away to nowhere. There is nothing else to choose.

³¹ Nothing is ever lost but time, which in the end is [nothing. It is] but a little hindrance to eternity, quite meaningless to the real Teacher of the world. Yet since you do believe in [its reality], why should you waste it going nowhere when it can be used to reach a goal as high as learning can achieve? Think not the way to the God Realm 's gate is difficult at all. Nothing you undertake with certain purpose and high resolve and happy confidence, holding each other's hand and keeping step to the God Realm 's song, is difficult to do. But it is hard indeed to wander off, alone and miserable, down a road which leads to nothing and which has no purpose.

³² God gave HisHer Teacher to replace the one you made, not to conflict with it. And what HeShe would replace has been replaced. Time lasted but an instant in your mind, with no effect upon eternity. And so is all time passed and everything exactly as it was before the way to nothingness was made. The tiny tick of time in which the first mistake was made, and all of them within that one mistake, held also the correction for that one and all of them that came within the first. And in that tiny instant time was gone, for that was all it ever was. What God gave answer to is answered and is gone.

³³ To you who still believe you live in time and know not it is gone, the Holy Spirit still guides you through the infinitely small and senseless maze you still perceive in time, though it has long since gone. You think you live in what is past. Each thing you look upon you saw but for an instant, long ago before its unreality gave way to truth. Not one illusion still remains unanswered in your mind. Uncertainty was brought to certainty so long ago that it is hard indeed to hold it to your heart as if it were before you still.

³⁴ The tiny instant you would keep and make eternal passed away in the God Realm too soon for anything to notice it had come. What disappeared too quickly to affect the simple knowledge of the SonDaughter of God can hardly still be there for you to choose to be your teacher. Only in the past—an ancient past, too short to make a world in answer to manifested creation—did this world appear to rise. So very long ago, for such a tiny interval of time that not one note in the God Realm 's song was missed.

³⁵ Yet in each unforgiving act or thought, in every judgment, and in all belief in sin, is that one instant still called back, as if it could be made again in time. You keep an ancient memory before your eyes. And he or she who lives in memories alone is unaware of where he or she is.

³⁶ [Forgiveness is the great release from time. It is the key to learning that the past is over. Madness speaks no more. There is no other teacher and no other way. For what has been undone no longer is. And who can stand upon a distant shore and dream himself or herself across an ocean to a place and time that have long since gone by? How real a hindrance can this dream be to where he or she really is? For this is fact and does not change whatever dreams he or she has. Yet can he or she still imagine he or she is elsewhere and in another time. In the extreme, he or she can delude himself or herself that this is true and pass from mere imagining into belief and into madness, quite convinced that where he or she would prefer to be, he or she is.]

³⁷ Is this a hindrance to the place whereon he or she stands? Is any echo from the past that he or she may hear a fact in what is there to hear where he or she is now? And how much can his or her own delusions about time and place affect a change in where he or she really is? The unforgiven is a voice that calls out from a past forever more gone by. And everything which points to it as real is but a wish that what is gone could be made real again and seen as here and now in place of what is really now and here. Is this a hindrance to the truth the past is gone and cannot be returned to you? And do you want that fearful instant kept, when the God Realm seemed to disappear and God was feared and made a symbol of your hate?

³⁸ Forget the time of terror that has been so long ago corrected and undone. Can sin withstand the Will of God? Can it be up to you to see the past and put it in the present? You can not go back. And everything that points the way in the direction of the past but sets you on a mission whose accomplishment can only be unreal. Such is the justice your ever-loving FatherMother has ensured must come to you. And from your own unfairness to yourself has HeShe protected you. You cannot lose your way because there is no way but HisHer and nowhere can you go except to HimHer.

³⁹ Would God allow HisHer SonDaughter to lose his or her way along a road long since a memory of time gone by? [This course will teach you only what is now.] A dreadful instant in a distant past, now perfectly corrected, is of no concern nor value. Let the dead and gone be peacefully forgotten. Resurrection has come to take its place. And now you are a part of resurrection, not of death. No past illusions have the power to keep you in a place of death, a vault God's SonDaughter entered an instant, to be instantly restored unto hisher Father'sMother's perfect Love. And how can heshe be kept in chains long since removed and gone forever from hisher mind?

⁴⁰ The SonDaughter that God created and manifested is as free as God created and manifested himher. Heshe was reborn the instant that heshe chose to die instead of live. And will you not forgive himher now because heshe made an error in the past that God remembers not and is not there? Now you are shifting back and forth between the past and present. Sometimes the past seems real, as if it were the present. Voices from the past are heard and then are doubted. You are like to one who still hallucinates but lacks conviction in what he or she perceives. This is the borderland between the worlds, the bridge between the past and present. Here the shadow of the past remains, but still a present light is dimly recognized. Once it is seen, this light can never be forgotten. It must draw you from the past into the present, where you really are.

⁴¹ The shadow voices do not change the laws of time or of eternity. They come from what is past and gone and hinder not the true existence of the here and now. The real world is the second part of the hallucination time and death are real and have existence which can be perceived. This terrible illusion was denied in but the time it took for God to give HisHer answer to illusion for all time and every circumstance. And then it was no more, to be experienced as there.

⁴² Each day and every minute in each day and every instant that each minute holds, you but relive the single instant when the time of terror was replaced by love. And so you die each day to live again until you cross the gap between past and present, which is not a gap at all. Such is each life—a seeming interval from birth to death and on to life again, a repetition of an instant gone by long ago, which cannot be relived. And all of time is but the mad belief that what is over is still here and now.

⁴³ Forgive the past and let it go, for it is gone. You stand no longer on the ground that lies between the worlds. You have gone on and reached the world that lies at the God Realm 's gate. There is no hindrance to the Will of God nor any need that you repeat again a journey that was over long ago. Look gently on each other and behold the world in which perception of your hate has been transformed into a world of love.

VII. The Appointed Friend

⁴⁴ Anything in this world that you believe is good and valuable and worth striving for can hurt you and will do so. Not because it has the power to hurt, but just because you have denied it is but an illusion and made it real. And it is real to you. It is not nothing and through its perceived reality has entered all the world of sick illusions. All belief in sin, in power of attack, in hurt and harm, in sacrifice and death has come to you. For no one can make one illusion real and still escape the rest. For who can choose to keep the ones which he or she prefers and find the safety that the truth alone can give? Who can believe illusions are the same and still maintain that even one is best?

⁴⁵ Lead not your little lives in solitude with one illusion as your only friend. This is no friendship worthy of God's SonDaughter, nor one with which she could remain content. Yet God has given her a better Friend in Whom all power in earth and the God Realm rests. The one illusion that you think is friend obscures Her grace and majesty from you and keeps Her friendship and forgiveness from your welcoming embrace. Without Her you are friendless. Seek not another friend to take Her place. There is no other friend. What God appointed has no substitute, for what illusion can replace the truth?

⁴⁶ Who dwells with shadows is alone indeed, and loneliness is not the Will of God. Would you allow one shadow to usurp the throne that God appointed for your Friend if you but realized its emptiness has left yours empty and unoccupied? Make no illusion friend, for if you do, it can but take the place of Her whom God has called your Friend. And it is Her who is your only Friend in truth. She brings you gifts that are not of this world, and only She to whom they have been given can make sure that you receive them. She will place them on your throne when you make room for Her on Hers.

VIII. Review of Principles

⁴⁷ This is a course in miracles. And as such, the laws of healing must be understood before the purpose of the course can be accomplished. Let us review the principles that we have covered and arrange them in a way that summarizes all that must occur for healing to be possible. For when it once is possible, it must occur. All sickness comes from separation. When the separation is denied, it goes. For it is gone as soon as the idea which brought it has been healed and been replaced by sanity. Sickness and sin are seen as consequence and cause in a relationship kept hidden from awareness that it may be carefully preserved from reason's light.

⁴⁸ Guilt asks for punishment, and its request is granted—not in truth but in the world of shadows and illusions built on sin. The SonDaughter of God perceives what he or she would see, because perception is a wish fulfilled. Perception changes, made to take the place of changeless knowledge. Yet is truth unchanged. It cannot be perceived, but only known. What is perceived takes the many forms, but none has meaning. Brought to truth, its senselessness is quite apparent. Kept apart from truth, it seems to have a meaning and be real.

⁴⁹ Perception's laws are opposite to truth, and what is true of knowledge is not true of anything that is apart from it. Yet has God given answer to the world of sickness which applies to all its forms. God's answer is eternal, though it operates in time where it is needed. Yet because it is of God, the laws of time do not affect its workings. It is in this world, but not a part of it. For it is real and dwells where all reality must be. Ideas leave not their source, and their effects but seem to be apart from them. Ideas are of the mind. What is projected out and seems to be external to the mind is not outside at all but an effect of what is in and has not left its source.

⁵⁰ God's answer lies where the belief in sin must be, for only there can its effects be utterly undone and without cause. Perception's laws must be reversed, because they are reversals of the laws of truth. The laws of truth forever will be true and cannot be reversed, yet can be seen as upside-down. And this must be corrected where the illusion of reversal lies.

⁵¹ It is impossible that one illusion be less amenable to truth than are the rest. But it is possible that some are given greater value and less willingly offered to truth for healing and for help. No illusion has any truth in it. Yet it appears some are more true than others, although this clearly makes no sense at all. All that a hierarchy of illusions can show is preference, not reality. What relevance has preference to the truth? Illusions are illusions and are false. Your preference gives them no reality. Not one is true in any way, and all must yield with equal ease to what God gave as answer to them all. God's Will is One. And any wish that seems to go against HisHer Will has no foundation in the truth.

⁵² Sin is not error, for it goes beyond correction to impossibility. Yet the belief that it is real has made some errors seem forever past the hope of healing and the lasting grounds for hell. If this were so, would the God Realm be opposed by its own opposite, as real as it. Then would God's Will be split in two and all manifested creation be subjected to the laws of two opposing powers until God becomes impatient, splits the world apart, and relegates attack unto HimHerself. Thus has HeShe lost HisHer Mind, proclaiming sin has taken HisHer reality from HimHer, and brought HisHer love at last to vengeance's heels. For such an insane picture, an insane defense can be expected but cannot establish that the picture must be true.

⁵³ Nothing gives meaning where no meaning is. And truth needs no defense to make it true. Illusions have no witnesses and no effects. Who looks on them is but deceived. Forgiveness is the only function here and serves to bring the joy this world denies to every aspect of God's SonDaughter where sin was thought to rule. Perhaps you do not see the role forgiveness plays in ending death and all beliefs that rise from mists of guilt.

⁵⁴ Sins are beliefs which you impose between your brother or sister and yourself. They limit you to time and place and give a little space to you, another little space to him or her. This separating off is symbolized in your perception by a body which is clearly separate and a thing apart. Yet what this symbol represents is but your wish to be apart and separate. Forgiveness takes away what stands between your brother or sister and yourself. It is the wish that you be joined with him or her and not apart. We call it "wish" because it still conceives of other choices and has not yet reached beyond the world of choice entirely.

⁵⁵ Yet is this wish in line with the God Realm 's state and not in opposition to God's Will. Although it falls far short of giving you your full inheritance, it does remove the obstacles which you have placed between the God Realm where you are and recognition of where and what you are. Facts are unchanged. Yet facts can be denied and thus unknown, though they were known before they were denied.

⁵⁶ Salvation, perfect and complete, asks but a little wish that what is true be true; a little willingness to overlook what is not there; a little sigh that speaks for the God Realm as a preference to this world which death and desolation seem to rule. In joyous answer will manifested creation rise within you to replace the world you see with the God Realm, wholly perfect and complete. What is forgiveness but a willingness that truth be true? What can remain unhealed and broken from a Unity Which holds all things within Itself? There is no sin. And every miracle is possible the instant that the SonDaughter of God perceives his or her wishes and the Will of God are one.

⁵⁷ What is the Will of God? HeShe wills HisHer SonDaughter have everything. And this HeShe guaranteed when HeShe created and manifested himher as everything. It is impossible that anything be lost if what you have is what you are. This is the miracle by which manifested creation became your function, sharing it with God. It is not understood apart from HimHer and therefore has no meaning in this world.

⁵⁸ Here does the SonDaughter of God ask not too much but far too little. Heshe would sacrifice hisher own identity with everything to find a little treasure of hisher own. And this heshe cannot do without a sense of isolation, loss, and loneliness. This is the treasure heshe has sought to find. And heshe could only be afraid of it. Is fear a treasure? Can uncertainty be what you want? Or is it a mistake about your will and what you really are? Let us consider what the error is, so it can be corrected, not protected.

⁵⁹ Sin is belief attack can be projected outside the mind where the belief arose. Here is the firm conviction that ideas can leave their source made real and meaningful. And from this error does the world of sin and sacrifice arise. This world is an attempt to prove your innocence while cherishing attack. Its failure lies in that you still feel guilty, though without understanding why. Effects are seen as separate from their source and seem to be beyond you to control or to prevent. What is thus kept apart can never join.

⁶⁰ Cause and effect are one, not separate. God wills you learn what always has been true—that HeShe created and manifested you as part of HimHer, and this must still be true because ideas leave not their source. Such is creation's manifestation's law—that each idea the mind conceives but adds to its abundance, never takes away. This is as true of what is idly wished as what is truly willed, because the mind can wish to be deceived but cannot make it be what it is not. And to believe ideas can leave their source is to invite illusions to be true, without success. For never will success be possible in trying to deceive the SonDaughter of God.

⁶¹ The miracle is possible when cause and consequence are brought together, not kept separate. The healing of effect without the cause can merely shift effects to other forms. And this is not release. God's SonDaughter could never be content with less than full salvation and escape from guilt. For otherwise heshe still demands that heshe must make some sacrifice and thus denies that everything is hishers, unlimited by loss of any kind. A tiny sacrifice is just the same in its effects as is the whole idea of sacrifice. If loss in any form is possible, then is God's SonDaughter made incomplete and not himherself. [Nor will heshe know himherself nor recognize hisher will.] Heshe has forsworn hisher FatherMother and himherself and made them both hisher enemies in hate.

⁶² Illusions serve the purpose they were made to serve. And from their purpose, they derive whatever meaning that they seem to have. God gave to all illusions that were made another purpose that would justify a miracle, whatever form they took. In every miracle all healing lies, for God gave answer to them all as one. And what is one to HimHer must be the same. If you believe what is the same is different, you but deceive yourself. What God calls one will be forever one, not separate. HisHer Realm is united—thus it was created and manifested, and thus will it ever be.

⁶³ The miracle but calls your ancient name, which you will recognize because the truth is in your memory. And to this name, your brother or sister calls for his or her release and yours. The God Realm is shining on the SonDaughter of God. Deny him or her not, that you may be released. Each instant is the SonDaughter of God reborn, until heshe chooses not to die again. In every wish to hurt, he or she chooses death instead of what his or her FatherMother wills for him or her. Yet every instant offers life to him or her because his or her FatherMother wills that he or she should live.

⁶⁴ In crucifixion is redemption laid, for healing is not needed where there is no pain or suffering. Forgiveness is the answer to attack of any kind. So is attack deprived of its effects, and hate is answered in the name of love. To you to whom it has been given to save the SonDaughter of God from crucifixion and from hell and death, all glory be forever. For you have power to save the SonDaughter of God because his or her FatherMother willed that it be so. And in your hands does all salvation lie, to be both offered and received as one.

⁶⁵ To use the power God has given you as HeShe would have it used is natural. It is not arrogant to be as HeShe created and manifested you or to make use of what HeShe gave to answer all HisHer Son'sDaughter's mistakes and set him or her free. But it is arrogant to lay aside the power that HeShe gave and choose a little senseless wish instead of what HeShe wills. The gift of God to you is limitless. There is no circumstance it cannot answer and no problem which is not resolved within its gracious light.

⁶⁶ Abide in peace, where God would have you be, and be the means whereby your brother or sister finds the peace in which your wishes are fulfilled. Let us unite in bringing blessing to the world of sin and death. For what can save each one of us can save us all. There is no difference among the SonsDaughters of God. The unity that specialness denies will save them all, for what is one can have no specialness. And everything belongs to each of them. No wishes lie between a brother or sister and his or her own. To get from one is to deprive them all. And yet to bless but one gives blessing to them all as one.

⁶⁷ Your ancient name belongs to everyone, as theirs to you. Call on your brother's or sister's name and God will answer, for on HimHer you call. Could HeShe refuse to answer when HeShe has already answered all who call on HimHer? A miracle can make no change at all. But it can make what always has been true be recognized by those who know it not. And by this little gift of truth but let to be itself—the SonDaughter of God allowed to be himherself and all manifested creation freed to call upon the Name of God as one.

IX. The Immediacy of Salvation

⁶⁸ The one remaining problem that you have is that you see an interval between the time when you forgive and will receive the benefits of trust. This but reflects the little you would keep between yourselves that you might be a little separate. For time and space are one illusion which takes different forms. If it has been projected beyond your minds, you think of it as time. The nearer it is brought to where it is, the more you think of it in terms of space.

⁶⁹ There is a distance you would keep apart from one another, and this space you see as time because you still believe you are external to each other. This makes trust impossible. And you cannot believe that trust would settle every problem now. Thus do you think it safer to remain a little careful and a little watchful of interests perceived as separate. From this perception you cannot conceive of gaining what forgiveness offers now. The interval you think lies in between the giving and receiving of the gift seems to be one in which you sacrifice and suffer loss. You see eventual salvation, not immediate results.

⁷⁰ Salvation is immediate. Unless you so perceive it, you will be afraid of it, believing that the risk of loss is great between the time its purpose is made yours and its effects will come to you. In this form is the error still obscured that is the source of fear. Salvation would wipe out the space you see between you still and let you instantly become as one. And it is here you fear the loss would lie. Do not project this fear to time, for time is not the enemy that you perceive. Time is as neutral as the body is except in terms of what you see it for. If you would keep a little space between you still, you want a little time in which forgiveness is withheld a little while. This makes the interval between the time in which forgiveness is withheld and given seem dangerous, with terror justified.

⁷¹ Yet space between you is apparent now and cannot be perceived in future time. No more can it be overlooked except within the present. Future loss is not your fear. But present joining is your dread. Who can feel desolation except now? A future cause as yet has no effects. And therefore must it be that if you fear, there is a present cause. And it is this that needs correction, not a future state.

⁷² The plans you make for safety all are laid within the future, where you cannot plan. No purpose has been given it as yet, and what will happen has as yet no cause. Who can predict effects without a cause? And who could fear effects unless he or she thought they had been caused and judged disastrous now? Belief in sin arouses fear and, like its cause, is looking forward, looking back but overlooking what is here and now. Yet only here and now its cause must be if its effects already have been judged as fearful. And in overlooking this, is it protected and kept separate from healing. For a miracle is now. It stands already here in present grace, within the only interval of time which sin and fear have overlooked but which is all there is to time. The working out of all correction takes no time at all.

⁷³ Yet the acceptance of the working out can seem to take forever. The change of purpose the Holy Spirit brought to your relationship has in it all effects that you will see. They can be looked at now. Why wait till they unfold in time and fear they may not come, although already there? You have been told that everything brings good that comes from God. And yet it seems as if this is not so. Good in disaster's form is difficult to credit in advance. Nor is there really sense in this idea.

⁷⁴ Why should the good appear in evil's form? And is it not deception if it does? Its cause is here if it appears at all. Why are not its effects apparent then? Why in the future? And you seek to be content with sighing and with "reasoning" you do not understand it now but will some day. And then its meaning will be clear. This is not reason, for it is unjust and clearly hints at punishment until the time of liberation is at hand. Given a change of purpose for the good, there is no reason for an interval in which disaster strikes, to be perceived as "good" some day but now in form of pain. This is a sacrifice of now, which could not be the cost the Holy Spirit asks for what She gave without a cost at all.

⁷⁵ Yet this illusion has a cause which, though untrue, must be already in your mind. And this illusion is but one effect which it engenders and one form in which its outcome is perceived. This interval in time, when retribution is perceived to be the form in which the "good" appears, is but one aspect of the little space that lies between you, unforgiven still.

⁷⁶ Be not content with future happiness. It has no meaning and is not your just reward. For you have cause for freedom now. What profits freedom in a prisoner's form? Why should deliverance be disguised as death? Delay is senseless, and the "reasoning" which would maintain effects of present cause must be delayed until a future time is merely a denial of the fact that consequence and cause must come as one. Look not to time but to the little space between you still to be delivered from. And do not let it be disguised as time and so preserved because its form is changed and what it is cannot be recognized. The Holy Spirit's purpose now is yours. Should not Her happiness be yours as well?

X. For They Have Come

⁷⁷ Think but how holy you must be from whom the Voice for God calls lovingly unto your brother or sister, that you may awake in him or her the Voice that answers to your call! And think how holy he or she must be when in him or her sleeps your own salvation with his or her freedom joined! However much you wish he or she be condemned, God is in him or her. And never will you know HeShe is in you as well, while you attack HisHer chosen home and battle with HisHer host. Regard him or her gently. Look with loving eyes on him or her who carries the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness within him or her, that you may behold his or her glory and rejoice that the God Realm is not separate from you.

⁷⁸ Is it too much to ask a little trust for him or her who carries the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness to you, that you may be forgiven all your sins and left without a single one you cherish still? Forget not that a shadow held between your brother or sister and yourself obscures the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and memory of God. And would you trade Them for an ancient hate? The ground whereon you stand is holy ground because of Them Who, standing there with you, have blessed it with Their innocence and peace.

⁷⁹ The blood of hatred fades to let the grass grow green again and let the flowers be all white and sparkling in the summer sun. What was a place of death has now become a living temple in a world of light. Because of Them. It is Their Presence which has lifted holiness again to take its ancient place upon an ancient throne. Because of Them have miracles sprung up as grass and flowers on the barren ground which hate had scorched and rendered desolate. What hate has wrought have They undone. And now you stand on ground so holy the God Realm leans to join with it and make it like itself. The shadow of an ancient hate has gone, and all the blight and withering have passed forever from the land where They have come.

⁸⁰ What is a hundred or a thousand years to Them, or tens of thousands? When They come, time's purpose is fulfilled. What never was passes to nothingness when They have come. What hatred claimed is given up to love, and freedom lights up every living thing and lifts it into the God Realm, where the lights grow ever brighter as each one comes home. The incomplete is made complete again, and the God Realm 's joy has been increased because what is its own has been restored to it. The bloodied earth is cleansed, and the insane have shed their garments of insanity to join Them on the ground whereon you stand.

⁸¹ The God Realm is grateful for this gift of what has been withheld so long. For They have come to gather in Their Own. What has been locked is opened; what was held apart from light is given up, that light may shine on it, and leave no space nor distance lingering between the light of the God Realm and the world.

⁸² The holiest of all the spots on earth is where an ancient hatred has become a present love. And They come quickly to the living temple, where a home for Them has been set up. There is no place in the God Realm holier. And They have come to dwell within the temple offered them, to be Their resting-place as well as yours. What hatred has released to love becomes the brightest light in the God Realm 's radiance. And all the lights in the God Realm brighter grow, in gratitude for what has been restored.

⁸³ Around you angels hover lovingly, to keep away all darkened thoughts of sin and keep the light where it has entered in. Your footprints lighten up the world, for where you walk forgiveness gladly goes with you. No one on earth but offers thanks to one who has restored his or her home and sheltered him or her from bitter winter and the freezing cold. And shall the LordLady of the God Realm and HisHer SonDaughter give less in gratitude for so much more?

⁸⁴ Now is the temple of the Living God rebuilt as host again to HimHer by Whom it was created and manifested. Where HeShe dwells, HisHer SonDaughter dwells with HimHer, never separate. And They give thanks that They are welcome made at last. Where stood a cross stands now the risen the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, and ancient scars are healed within HisHer sight. An ancient miracle has come to bless and to replace an ancient enmity that came to kill. In gentle gratitude do God the FatherMother and the SonDaughter return to what is Theirs and will forever be. Now is the Holy Spirit's purpose done. For They have come! For They have come at last!

XI. The Remaining Task

⁸⁵ What then remains to be undone for you to realize Their Presence? Only this—you have a differential view of when attack is justified and when you think it is unfair and not to be allowed. When you perceive it as unfair, you think that a response of anger now is just. And thus you see what is the same as different. Confusion is not limited. If it occurs at all, it will be total. And its presence, in whatever form, will hide Their Presence. They are known with clarity or not at all. Confused perception will block knowledge. It is not a question of the size of the confusion or how much it interferes. Its simple presence shuts the door to Theirs and keeps Them there unknown.

⁸⁶ What does it mean if you perceive attack in certain forms to be unfair to you? It means that there must be some forms in which you think it fair. For otherwise, how could some be evaluated as unfair? Some then are given meaning and perceived as sensible. And only some are seen as meaningless. And this denies the fact that all are senseless—equally without a cause or consequence and cannot have effects of any kind. Their Presence is obscured by any veil which stands between Their shining innocence and your awareness it is your own and equally belongs to every living thing along with you. God limits not. And what is limited can not be the God Realm . So it must be hell.

⁸⁷ Unfairness and attack are one mistake, so firmly joined that where one is perceived, the other must be seen. You cannot be unfairly treated. The belief you are is but another form of the idea you are deprived by someone not yourself. Projection of the cause of sacrifice is at the root of everything perceived to be unfair and not your just deserts. Yet it is you who ask this of yourself in deep injustice to the SonDaughter of God. You have no enemy except yourself, and you are enemy indeed to himher because you do not know himher as yourself. What could be more unjust than that heshe be deprived of what heshe is, denied the right to be himherself, and asked to sacrifice hisher Father'sMother's love and yours as not hisher due?

⁸⁸ Beware of the temptation to perceive yourself unfairly treated. In this view, you seek to find an innocence which is not Theirs but yours alone and at the cost of someone else's guilt. Can innocence be purchased by the giving of your guilt to someone else? And is this innocence which your attack on him or her attempts to get? Is it not retribution for your own attack upon the SonDaughter of God you seek? Is it not safer to believe that you are innocent of this and victimized despite your innocence? Whatever way the game of guilt is played, there must be loss. Someone must lose his or her innocence that someone else can take it from him or her, making it his or her own.

⁸⁹ You think your brother or sister is unfair to you because you think that one must be unfair to make the other innocent. And in this game do you perceive one purpose for your whole relationship. And this you seek to add unto the purpose given it. The Holy Spirit's purpose is to let the Presence of your holy Guests be known to you. And to this purpose, nothing can be added, for the world is purposeless except for this. To add or take away from this one goal is but to take away all purpose from the world and from yourself. And each unfairness that the world appears to lay upon you, you have laid on it by rendering it purposeless, without the function that the Holy Spirit sees. And simple justice has been thus denied to every living thing upon the earth.

⁹⁰ What this injustice does to you who judge unfairly and who see as you have judged, you cannot calculate. The world grows dim and threatening, and not a trace of all the happy sparkle that salvation brought can you perceive to lighten up your way. And so you see yourself deprived of light, abandoned to the dark, unfairly left without a purpose in a futile world. The world is fair because the Holy Spirit has brought injustice to the light within, and there has all unfairness been resolved and been replaced with justice and with love. If you perceive injustice anywhere, you need but say:

⁹¹ *By this do I deny the Presence of the FatherMother and the SonDaughter.
And I would rather know of Them than see injustice, which Their Presence shines away.*

Chapter Twenty Seven: The Body and the Dream

I. Introduction

¹ The wish to be unfairly treated is a compromise attempt that would combine attack and innocence. Who can combine the wholly incompatible and make a unity of what can never join? Walk you the gentle way, and you will fear no evil and no shadows in the night. But place no terror symbols on your path, or you will weave a crown of thorns from which your brother or sister and yourself will not escape. You cannot crucify yourself alone. And if you are unfairly treated, he or she must suffer the unfairness that you see. You cannot sacrifice yourself alone. For sacrifice is total. If it could occur at all, it would entail the whole of God's manifested creation and the FatherMother with the sacrifice of his or her beloved SonDaughter.

² In your release from sacrifice is his or her made manifest and shown to be his or her own. But every pain you suffer do you see as proof that he or she is guilty of attack. Thus would you make yourself to be the sign that he or she has lost his or her innocence and need but look on you to realize that he or she has been condemned. And what to you has been unfair will come to him or her in righteousness. The unjust vengeance that you suffer now belongs to him, and when it rests on him or her are you set free. Wish not to make yourself a living symbol of his or her guilt, for you will not escape the death you made for him or her. But in his or her innocence, you find your own.

II. The Picture of the Crucifixion

³ Whenever you consent to suffer pain, to be deprived, unfairly treated, or in need of anything, you but accuse your brother or sister of attack upon God's SonDaughter. You hold a picture of your crucifixion before his or her eyes that he or she may see his or her sins are writ in the God Realm in your blood and death and go before him or her, closing off the gate and damning him or her to hell. Yet this is writ in hell and not in the God Realm, where you are beyond attack and prove his or her innocence. The picture of yourself you offer him or her you show yourself and give it all your faith. The Holy Spirit offers you to give to him or her a picture of yourself in which there is no pain and no reproach at all. And what was martyred to his or her guilt becomes the perfect witness to his or her innocence.

⁴ The power of witness is beyond belief because it brings conviction in its wake. The witness is believed because he or she points beyond himself or herself to what he or she represents. A sick and suffering you but represents your brother's or sister's guilt—the witness which you send lest he or she forget the injuries he or she gave from which you swear he or she never will escape. This sick and sorry picture you accept, if only it can serve to punish him or her. The sick are merciless to everyone, and in contagion do they seek to kill. Death seems an easy price if they can say, "Behold me, brother; at your hand I die." For sickness is the witness to his or her guilt, and death would prove his or her errors must be sins.

⁵ Sickness is but a "little" death; a form of vengeance not yet total. Yet it speaks with certainty for what it represents. The bleak and bitter picture you have sent your brother or sister you have looked upon in grief. And everything that it has shown to him or her have you believed because it witnessed to the guilt in him or her which you perceived and loved. Now in the hands made gentle by Her touch, the Holy Spirit lays a picture of a different you. It is a picture of a body still, for what you really are cannot be seen nor pictured. Yet this one has not been used for purpose of attack and therefore never suffered pain at all. It witnesses to the eternal truth that you cannot be hurt and points beyond itself to both your innocence and his.

⁶ Show this unto your brother or sister, who will see that every scar is healed and every tear is wiped away in laughter and in love. And he or she will look on his or her forgiveness there and with healed eyes will look beyond it to the innocence that he or she beholds in you. Here is the proof that he or she has never sinned—that nothing which his or her madness bid him or her do was ever done or ever had effects of any kind; that no reproach he or she laid upon his or her heart was ever justified, and no attack can ever touch him or her with the poisoned and relentless sting of fear. Attest his or her innocence and not his or her guilt. Your healing is his or her comfort and his or her health because it proves illusions are not true.

⁷ It is not will for life, but wish for death that is the motivation for this world. Its only purpose is to prove guilt real. No worldly thought or act or feeling has a motivation other than this one. These are the witnesses that are called forth to be believed and lend conviction to the system they speak for and represent. And each has the many voices, speaking to your brother or sister and yourself in different tongues. And yet to both the message is the same. Adornment of the body seeks to show how lovely are the witnesses for guilt. Concerns about the body demonstrate how frail and vulnerable is your life, how easily destroyed is what you love. Depression speaks of death and vanity of real concern with anything at all. The strongest witness to futility, which bolsters all the rest and helps them paint the picture in which sin is justified, is sickness in whatever form it takes.

⁸ The sick have reason for each one of their unnatural desires and strange needs. For who could live a life so soon cut short and not esteem the worth of passing joys? What pleasures could there be that will endure? Are not the frail entitled to believe that every stolen scrap of pleasure is their righteous payment for their little lives? Their death will pay the price for all of them if they enjoy their benefits or not. The end of life must come, whatever way that life be spent. And so take pleasure in the quickly passing and ephemeral.

⁹ These are not sins, but witnesses unto the strange belief that sin and death are real, and innocence and sin will end alike within the termination of the grave. If this were true, there would be reason to remain content to seek for passing joys and cherish little pleasures where you can. Yet in this picture is the body not perceived as neutral and without a goal inherent in itself. For it becomes the symbol of reproach, the sign of guilt whose consequences still are there to see, so that the cause can never be denied.

¹⁰ Your function is to show your brother or sister sin can have no cause. How futile must it be to see yourself a picture of the proof that what your function is can never be! The Holy Spirit's picture changes not the body into something it is not. It only takes away from it all signs of accusation and of blamefulness. Pictured without a purpose, it is seen as neither sick nor well, nor bad nor good. No grounds are offered that it may be judged in any way at all. It has no life, but neither is it dead. It stands apart from all experience of fear or love. For now it witnesses to nothing yet, its purpose being open and the mind made free again to choose what it is for. Now is it not condemned, but waiting for a purpose to be given that it may fulfill the function that it will receive.

¹¹ Into this empty space, from which the goal of sin has been removed, is the God Realm free to be remembered. Here its peace can come and perfect healing take the place of death. The body can become a sign of life, a promise of redemption, and a breath of immortality to those grown sick of breathing in the fetid scent of death. Let it have healing as its purpose. Then will it send forth the message it received and by its health and loveliness proclaim the truth and value that it represents. Let it receive the power to represent an endless life, forever unattacked. And to your brother or sister let its message be, "Behold me, brother; at your hand I live."

¹² The simple way to let this be achieved is merely this—to let the body have no purpose from the past, when you were sure you knew its purpose was to foster guilt. For this insists your crippled picture is a lasting sign of what it represents. This leaves no space in which a different view, another purpose, can be given it. You do not know its purpose. You but gave illusions of a purpose to a thing you made to hide your function from yourself. This thing without a purpose cannot hide the function that the Holy Spirit gave. Let, then, its purpose and your function both be reconciled at last and seen as one.

III. The Fear of Healing

¹³ Is healing frightening? To the many, yes. For accusation is a bar to love, and damaged bodies are accusers. They stand firmly in the way of trust and peace, proclaiming that the frail can have no trust and that the damaged have no grounds for peace. Who has been injured by his or her brother or sister and could love and trust him or her still? He or she has attacked and will attack again. Protect him or her not, because your damaged body shows that you must be protected from him or her. To forgive may be an act of charity, but not his or her due. He or she may be pitied for his or her guilt, but not exonerated. And if you forgive him or her his or her transgressions, you but add to all the guilt that he or she has really earned.

¹⁴ The unhealed cannot pardon. For they are the witnesses that pardon is unfair. They would retain the consequences of the guilt they overlook. Yet no one can forgive a sin which he or she believes is real. And what has consequences must be real because what it has done is there to see. Forgiveness is not pity which but seeks to pardon what it knows to be the truth. Good cannot be returned for evil, for forgiveness does not first establish sin and then forgive it. Who can say and mean, "Our brother or sister, you have injured me, and yet because I am the better of the two, I pardon you my hurt." His or her pardon and your hurt cannot exist together. One denies the other and must make it false.

¹⁵ To witness sin and yet forgive it is a paradox which reason cannot see. For it maintains what has been done to you deserves no pardon. And by giving it, you grant your brother or sister mercy but retain the proof he or she is not really innocent. The sick remain accusers. They cannot forgive their brothers and sisters and themselves as well. For no one in whom true forgiveness reigns can suffer. He or she holds not the proof of sin before his or her brother's or sister's eyes. And thus he or she must have overlooked it and removed it from his or her own. Forgiveness cannot be for one and not the other. Who forgives is healed. And in his or her healing lies the proof that he or she has truly pardoned and retains no trace of condemnation that he or she still would hold against himself or herself or any living thing.

¹⁶ Forgiveness is not real unless it brings a healing to your brother or sister and yourself. You must attest his or her sins had no effect on you to demonstrate they were not real. How else could he or she be guiltless? And how could his or her innocence be justified unless his or her sins have no effect to warrant guilt? Sins are beyond forgiveness just because they would entail effects which cannot be undone and overlooked entirely. In their undoing lies the proof that they were merely errors. Let yourself be healed that you may be forgiving, offering salvation to your brother or sister and yourself. A broken body shows the mind has not been healed. A miracle of healing proves that separation is without effect. What you would prove to him or her, you will believe. The power of witness comes from your belief. And everything you say or do or think but testifies to what you teach to him or her.

¹⁷ Your body can be means to teach that it has never suffered pain because of him or her. And in its healing can it offer him or her mute testimony of his or her innocence. It is this testimony which can speak with power greater than a thousand tongues. For here is his or her forgiveness proved to him or her. A miracle can offer nothing less to him or her than it has given unto you. So does your healing show your mind is healed and has forgiven what he or she did not do. And so is he or she convinced his or her innocence was never lost and healed along with you.

¹⁸ Thus does the miracle undo all things the world attests can never be undone. And hopelessness and death must disappear before the ancient clarion call of life. This call has power far beyond the weak and miserable cry of death and guilt. The ancient calling of the FatherMother to HisHer SonDaughter, and of the SonDaughter unto hisher own, will yet be the last trumpet that the world will ever hear. Brother or sister, there is no death. And this you learn when you but wish to show your brother or sister that you had no hurt of him or her. He or she thinks your blood is on his or her hands, and so he or she stands condemned. Yet it is given you to show him or her by your healing that his or her guilt is but the fabric of a senseless dream.

¹⁹ How just are miracles! For they bestow an equal gift of full deliverance from guilt upon your brother or sister and yourself. Your healing saves him or her pain as well as you, and you are healed because you wished him or her well. This is the law the miracle obeys; that healing sees no specialness at all. It does not come from pity but from love. And love would prove all suffering is but a vain imagining, a foolish wish with no effects. Your health is a result of your desire to see your brother or sister with no blood upon his or her hands nor guilt upon his or her heart made heavy with the proof of sin. And what you wish is given you to see.

²⁰ The "cost" of your serenity is his or her. This is the "price" the Holy Spirit and the world interpret differently. The world perceives it as a statement of the "fact" that your salvation sacrifices his. The Holy Spirit knows your healing is the witness unto his or her and cannot be apart from his or her at all. As long as he or she consents to suffer, you will be unhealed. Yet you can show him or her that his or her suffering is purposeless and wholly without cause. Show him or her your healing, and he or she will consent no more to suffer. For his or her innocence has been established in your sight and his or hers. And laughter will replace your sighs because God's SonDaughter remembered that heshe is God's SonDaughter.

²¹ Who then fears healing? Only those to whom their brother's or sister's sacrifice and pain are seen to represent their own serenity. Their helplessness and weakness represent the grounds on which they justify his or her pain. The constant sting of guilt he or she suffers serves to prove that he or she is slave but they are free. The constant pain they suffer demonstrates that they are free because they hold him or her bound. And sickness is desired to prevent a shift of balance in the sacrifice. How could the Holy Spirit be deterred an instant, even less, to reason with an argument for sickness such as this? And need your healing be delayed because you pause to listen to insanity?

²² [Correction is not your function. It belongs to One Who knows of fairness, not of guilt. If you assume correction's role, you lose the function of forgiveness. No one can forgive until he or she learns correction is but to forgive and never to accuse. Alone, you cannot see they are the same, and therefore is correction not of you. Identity and function are the same, and by your function do you know yourself. And thus, if you confuse your function with the function of Another, you must be confused about yourself and who you are. What is the separation but a wish to take God's function from HimHer and deny that it is HisHers? Yet if it is not HisHers, it is not yours, for you must lose what you would take away.

²³ [In a split mind, identity must seem to be divided. Nor can anyone perceive a function unified which has conflicting purposes and different ends. Correction, to a mind so split, must be a way to punish sins you think are yours in someone else. And thus does he or she become your victim, not your brother or sister, different from you in that he or she is more guilty, thus in need of your correction as the one more innocent than he or she. This splits his or her function off from yours and gives you both a different role. And so you cannot be perceived as one and, with a single function, that would mean a shared identity with but one end.

²⁴ [Correction you would do must separate, because that is the function given it by you. When you perceive correction is the same as pardon,

then you also know the Holy Spirit's Mind and yours are one. And so your own Identity is found. Yet must She work with what is given Her, and you allow Her only half your mind. And thus She represents the other half and seems to have a different purpose from the one you cherish and you think is yours. Thus does your function seem divided, with a half in opposition to a half. And these two halves appear to represent a split within a self perceived as two.]

²⁵ Consider how this self perception must extend, and do not overlook the fact that every thought extends because that is its purpose, being what it really is. From an idea of self as two, there comes a necessary view of function split between the two. And what you would correct is only half the error, which you think is all of it. Your brother's or sister's sins become the central target for correction, lest your errors and his or her own be seen as one. Yours are mistakes, but his or her are sins and not the same as yours. His or her merit punishment, while yours in fairness should be overlooked.

²⁶ In this interpretation of correction, your own mistakes you will not even see. The focus of correction has been placed outside yourself on one who cannot be a part of you while this perception lasts. What is condemned can never be returned to its accuser, who hated it and hates it still. This is your brother or sister, focus of your hate, unworthy to be part of you and thus outside yourself—the other half which is denied. And only what is left without his or her presence is perceived as all of you. To this remaining half the Holy Spirit must represent the other half until you recognize it is the other half. And this She does by giving both of you a function that is one, not different.

²⁷ Correction is the function given both, but neither one alone. And when it is fulfilled as shared, it must correct mistakes in both of you. It cannot leave mistakes in one unhealed and set the other free. That is divided purpose which cannot be shared, and so it cannot be the function which the Holy Spirit sees as Hers. And you can rest assured that She will not fulfill a function She cannot understand and recognize as Hers. For only thus can She keep yours preserved intact, despite your separate views of what your function is. If She upheld divided function, you were lost indeed. Her inability to see Her goal divided and distinct for each of you preserves your Self from being made aware of any function other than Its own. And thus is healing given both of you.

²⁸ Correction must be left to One Who knows correction and forgiveness are the same. With half a mind, this is not understood. Leave then correction to the Mind that is united, functioning as one because It is not split in purpose, and conceives a single function as Its only one. Here is the function given It conceived to be Its own and not apart from that Its Giver keeps because it has been shared. In Her acceptance of this function lies the means whereby your mind is unified. Her single purpose unifies the halves of you which you perceive as separate. And each forgives the other, that he or she may accept his or her other half as part of him or her.

IV. The Symbol of the Impossible

²⁹ Power cannot oppose. For opposition would weaken it, and weakened power is a contradiction in ideas. Weak strength is meaningless, and power used to weaken is employed to limit. And therefore it must be limited and weak because that is its purpose. Power is unopposed, to be itself. No weakness can intrude on it without changing it into something it is not. To weaken is to limit and impose an opposite that contradicts the concept which it attacks. And by this does it join to the idea a something it is not and make it unintelligible. Who can understand a double concept, such as "weakened-power" or as "hateful-love?"

³⁰ You have decided that your brother or sister is a symbol for a "hateful-love," a "weakened-power," and above all, a "living-death." And so he or she has no meaning to you, for he or she stands for what is meaningless. He or she represents a double thought, where half is cancelled out by the remaining half. Yet even this is quickly contradicted by the half it cancelled out, and so they both are gone. And now he or she stands for nothing. Symbols which but represent ideas that cannot be must stand for empty space and nothingness. Yet nothingness and empty space can not be interference. What can interfere with the awareness of reality is the belief that there is something there.

³¹ The picture of your brother or sister that you see means nothing. There is nothing to attack or to deny, love, or hate, or to endow with power or to see as weak. The picture has been wholly cancelled out because it symbolized a contradiction which cancelled out the thought it represents. And thus the picture has no cause at all. Who can perceive effect without a cause? What can the causeless be but nothingness? The picture of your brother or sister that you see is wholly absent and has never been. Let then the empty space it occupies be recognized as vacant, and the time devoted to its seeing be perceived as idly spent, a time unoccupied.

³² An empty space which is not seen as filled, an unused interval of time not seen as spent and fully occupied, becomes a silent invitation to the truth to enter and to make itself at home. No preparation can be made that would enhance the invitation's real appeal. For what you leave as vacant, God will fill, and where HeShe is, there must the truth abide. Unweakened power with no opposite is what manifested creation is. For this there are no symbols. Nothing points beyond the truth, for what can stand for more than everything? Yet true undoing must be kind. And so the first replacement for your picture is another picture of another kind.

³³ As nothingness cannot be pictured, so there is no symbol for totality. Reality is ultimately known without a form, unpictured and unseen. Forgiveness is not yet a power known as wholly free of limits. Yet it sets no limits you have chosen to impose. Forgiveness is the means by which the truth is represented temporarily. It lets the Holy Spirit make exchange of pictures possible until the time when aids are meaningless and learning done. No learning aid has use which can extend beyond the goal of learning. When its aim has been accomplished, it is functionless. Yet in the learning interval it has a use which now you fear, but yet will love.

³⁴ The picture of your brother or sister given you to occupy the space so lately left unoccupied and vacant will not need defense of any kind. For you will give it overwhelming preference. Nor delay an instant in deciding that it is the only one you want. It does not stand for double concepts. Though it is but half the picture and is incomplete, within itself it is the same. The other half of what it represents remains unknown but is not cancelled out. And thus is God left free to take the final step HimHerself. [For this you need no pictures and no learning aids.] And what will ultimately take the place of every learning aid will merely be. Forgiveness vanishes and symbols fade, and nothing which the eyes have ever seen, or ears have heard, remains to be perceived.

³⁵ A Power wholly limitless has come, not to destroy, but to receive Its own. There is no choice of function anywhere. The choice you fear to lose you never had. Yet only this appears to interfere with power unlimited and single thoughts, complete and happy, without opposite. You do not know the peace of power which opposes nothing. Yet no other kind can be at all. Give welcome to the Power beyond forgiveness and beyond the world of symbols and of limitations. HeShe would merely be, and so HeShe merely is.

V. The Quiet Answer

³⁶ In quietness are all things answered and is every problem quietly resolved. In conflict there can be no answer and no resolution, for its purpose is to make no resolution possible and to ensure no answer will be plain. A problem set in conflict has no answer, for it is seen in different ways. And what would be an answer from one point of view is not an answer in another light. You are in conflict. Thus it must be clear you cannot answer anything at all, for conflict has no limited effects. Yet if God gave an answer, there must be a way in which your problems are resolved, for what HeShe wills already has been done.

³⁷ Thus it must be that time is not involved, and every problem can be answered now. Yet it must also be that in your state of mind solution is impossible. Therefore, God must have given you a way of reaching to another state of mind in which the answer is already there. Such is the holy instant. It is here that all your problems should be brought and left. Here they belong, for here their answer is. [And where its answer is, a problem must be simple and be easily resolved.] It must be pointless to attempt to solve a problem where the answer cannot be. Yet just as surely it must be resolved if it is brought to where the answer is.

³⁸ Attempt to solve no problems but within the holy instant's surety. For there the problem will be answered and resolved. Outside there will be no solution, for there is no answer there that could be found. Nowhere outside a single simple question is ever asked. The world can only ask a double question with the many answers, none of which will do. It does not ask a question to be answered, but only to restate its point of view. All questions asked within this world are but a way of looking, not a question asked. A question asked in hate cannot be answered, because it is an answer in itself. A double question asks and answers, both attesting the same thing in different form.

³⁹ The world asks but one question. It is this: "Of these illusions, which of them are true? Which ones establish peace and offer joy? And which can bring escape from all the pain of which this world is made?" Whatever form the question takes, its purpose is the same. It asks but to establish sin is real and answers in the form of preference. "Which sin do you prefer? That is the one which you should choose. The others are not true. What can the body get that you would want the most of all? It is your servant and your friend. But tell it what you want, and it will serve you lovingly and well." And this is not a question, for it tells you what you want and where to go for it. It leaves no room to question its beliefs, except that what it states takes question's form.

⁴⁰ A pseudo-question has no answer. It dictates the answer even as it asks. Thus is all questioning within the world a form of propaganda for itself. Just as the body's witnesses are but the senses from within itself, so are the answers to the questions of the world contained within the questions. Where answers represent the questions, they add nothing new, and nothing has been learned.

⁴¹ An honest question is a learning tool which asks for something that you do not know. It does not set conditions for response, but merely asks what the response should be. But no one in a conflict state is free to ask this question, for he or she does not want an honest answer where the conflict ends. Only within the holy instant can an honest question honestly be asked. And from the meaning of the question does the meaningfulness of the answer come. Here is it possible to separate your wishes from the answer, so it can be given you and also be received. The answer is provided everywhere. Yet it is only here it can be heard.

⁴² An honest answer asks no sacrifice because it answers questions truly asked. The questions of the world but ask of whom is sacrifice demanded, asking not if sacrifice is meaningful at all. And so unless the answer tells "of whom," it will remain unrecognized, unheard, and thus the question is preserved intact because it gave the answer to itself. The holy instant is the interval in which the mind is still enough to hear an answer which is not entailed within the question asked. It offers something new and different from the question. How could it be answered if it but repeats itself?

⁴³ Therefore, attempt to solve no problems in a world from which the answer has been barred. But bring the problem to the only place which holds the answer lovingly for you. Here are the answers which will solve your problems because they stand apart from them, and see what can be answered—what the question is. Within the world the answers merely raise another question, though they leave the first unanswered. In the holy instant, you can bring the question to the answer and receive the answer that was made for you.

VI. The Healing Example

⁴⁴ The only way to heal is to be healed. The miracle extends without your help, but you are needed that it can begin. Accept the miracle of healing, and it will go forth because of what it is. It is its nature to extend itself the instant it is born. And it is born the instant it is offered and received. No one can ask another to be healed. But he or she can let himself or herself be healed and thus offer the other what he or she has received. Who can bestow upon another what he or she does not have? And who can share what he or she denies himself or herself? The Holy Spirit speaks to you. She does not speak to someone else. Yet by your listening, Her Voice extends because you have accepted what She says.

⁴⁵ Health is the witness unto health. As long as it is unattested, it remains without conviction. Only when demonstrated has it been proved and must compel belief. No one is healed through double messages. If you wish only to be healed, you heal. Your single purpose makes this possible. But if you are afraid of healing, then it cannot come through you. The only thing that is required for a healing is a lack of fear. The fearful are not healed and cannot heal. This does not mean the conflict must be gone forever from your mind. For if it were, there'd be no need for healing then. But it does mean, if only for an instant, you love without attack. An instant is sufficient. Miracles wait not on time.

⁴⁶ The holy instant is the miracle's abiding-place. From there each one is born into this world as witness to a state of mind which has transcended conflict and has reached to peace. It carries comfort from the place of peace into the battleground and demonstrates that war has no effects. For all the hurt that war has sought to bring, the broken bodies and the shattered limbs, the screaming dying and the silent dead, are gently lifted up and comforted. There is no sadness where a miracle has come to heal. And nothing more than just one instant of your love without attack is necessary that all this occur. In that one instant are you healed, and in that single instant is all healing done.

⁴⁷ What stands apart from you when you accept the blessing that the holy instant brings? Be not afraid of blessing, for the One Who blesses you loves all the world and leaves nothing within the world that could be feared. But if you shrink from blessing will the world indeed seem fearful, for you have withheld its peace and comfort, leaving it to die. Would not a world so bitterly bereft be looked on as a condemnation by the one who could have saved it but stepped back because he or she was afraid of being healed? The eyes of all the dying bring reproach, and suffering whispers, "What is there to fear?" Consider well its question. It is asked of you on your behalf. A dying world asks only that you rest an instant from attack upon yourself, that it be healed.

⁴⁸ Come to the holy instant and be healed, for nothing that is there received is left behind on your returning to the world. And being blessed, you will bring blessing. Life is given you to give the dying world. And suffering eyes no longer will accuse, but shine in thanks to you who blessing gave. The holy instant's radiance will light your eyes and give them sight to see beyond all suffering and see the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's face instead. Healing replaces suffering. Who looks on one cannot perceive the other, for they cannot both be there. And what you see the world will witness, and will witness to.

⁴⁹ Thus is your healing everything the world requires that it may be healed. It needs one lesson which has perfectly been learned. And then when you forget it will the world remind you gently of what you have taught. No reinforcement will its thanks withhold from you who let yourself be healed that it might live. It will call forth its witnesses to show the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness to you who brought the sight to them by which they witnessed it. The world of accusation is replaced by one in which all eyes look lovingly upon the Friend who brought them their release. And happily your brother or sister will perceive the many friends he or she thought were enemies.

⁵⁰ Problems are not specific, but they take specific forms, and these specific shapes make up the world. And no one understands the nature of his or her problem. If he or she did, it would be there no more for him or her to see. Its very nature is that it is not. And thus while he or she perceives it, he or she can not perceive it as it is. But healing is apparent in specific instances and generalizes to include them all. This is because they really are the same despite their different forms. All learning aims at transfer, which becomes complete within two situations which are seen as one, for only common elements are there. Yet this can only be attained by One Who does not see the differences you see. The total transfer of your learning is not made by you. But that it has been made in spite of all the differences you see convinces you that they could not be real.

⁵¹ Your healing will extend and will be brought to problems that you thought were not your own. And it will also be apparent that your many different problems will be solved as any one of them has been escaped. It cannot be their differences which made this possible, for learning does not jump from situations to their opposites and bring the same results. All healing must proceed in lawful manner in accord with laws which have been properly perceived but never violated. Fear you not the way that you perceive them. You are wrong, but there is One within you Who is right.

⁵² Leave, then, the transfer of your learning to the One Who really understands its laws and Who will guarantee that they remain unviolated and unlimited. Your part is merely to apply what She has taught you to yourself, and She will do the rest. And thus the power of your learning will be proved to you by all the many different witnesses it finds. Your brother or sister first among them will be seen, but thousands stand behind him, and beyond each one there are a thousand more. Each one may seem to have a problem which is different from the rest. Yet they are solved together. And their common answer shows the questions could not have been separate.

⁵³ Peace be to you to whom is healing offered. And you will learn that peace is given you when you accept the healing for yourself. Its total value need not be appraised by you to let you understand that you have benefited from it. What occurred within the instant which love entered in without attack will stay with you forever. Your healing will be one of its effects, as will your brother's. Everywhere you go will you behold its multiplied effects. Yet all the witnesses that you behold will be far less than all there really are. Infinity cannot be understood by merely counting up its separate parts. God thanks you for your healing, for HeShe knows it is a gift of love unto HisHer SonDaughter, and therefore is it given unto HimHer.

VII. The Purpose of Pain

⁵⁴ Pain demonstrates the body must be real. It is a loud, obscuring voice whose shrieks would silence what the Holy Spirit says and keep Her words from your awareness. Pain compels attention, drawing it away from Her and focusing upon itself. Its purpose is the same as pleasure, for they both are means to make the body real. What shares a common purpose is the same. This is the law of purpose, which unites all those who share in it within itself. Pleasure and pain are equally unreal, because their purpose cannot be achieved. Thus are they means for nothing, for they have a goal without a meaning. And they share the lack of meaning which their purpose has.

⁵⁵ Sin shifts from pain to pleasure and again to pain. For either witness is the same and carries but one message: "You are here within this body, and you can be hurt. You can have pleasure, too, but only at the cost of pain." These witnesses are joined by the many more. Each one seems different because it has a different name, and so it seems to answer to a different sound. Except for this, the witnesses of sin are all alike. Call pleasure pain, and it will hurt. Call pain a pleasure, and the pain behind the pleasure will be felt no more. Sin's witnesses but shift from name to name, as one steps forward and another back. Yet which is foremost makes no difference. Sin's witnesses hear but the call of death.

⁵⁶ This body, purposeless within itself, holds all your memories and all your hopes. You use its eyes to see, its ears to hear, and let it tell you what it is it feels. It does not know. It tells you but the names you gave it to use when you call forth the witnesses to its reality. You cannot choose among them which are real, for any one you choose is like the rest. This name or that, but nothing more, you choose. You do not make a witness true because you called him or her by truth's name. The truth is found in him or her if it is truth he or she represents. And otherwise he or she lies, if you should call him or her by the holy Name of God HimHerself.

⁵⁷ God's Witness sees no witnesses against the body. Neither does HeShe harken to the witnesses by other names which speak in other ways for its reality. HeShe knows it is not real. For nothing could contain what you believe it holds within. Nor could it tell a part of God HimHerself what it should feel and what its function is. Yet must HeShe love whatever you hold dear. And for each witness to the body's death HeShe sends a witness to your life in HimHer Who knows no death. Each miracle HeShe brings is witness that the body is not real. Its pains and pleasures does HeShe heal alike, for all sin's witnesses do HisHer replace.

⁵⁸ The miracle makes no distinctions in the names by which sin's witnesses are called. It merely proves that what they represent has no effects. And this it proves because its own effects have come to take their place. It matters not the name by which you called your suffering. It is no longer there. The One Who brings the miracle perceived them all as one and called by name of fear. As fear is witness unto death, so is the miracle the witness unto life. It is a witness no one can deny, for it is the effects of life it brings. The dying live, the dead arise, and pain has vanished. Yet a miracle speaks not but for itself, but what it represents.

⁵⁹ Love, too, has symbols in a world of sin. The miracle forgives because it stands for what is past forgiveness and is true. How foolish and insane it is to think a miracle is bound by laws which it came solely to undo! The laws of sin have different witnesses with different strengths. And they attest to different sufferings. Yet to the One Who sends forth miracles to bless the world, a tiny stab of pain, a little worldly pleasure, and the throes of death itself are but a single sound—a call for healing and a plaintive cry for help within a world of misery. It is their sameness that the miracle attests. It is their sameness that it proves.

⁶⁰ The laws which call them different are dissolved and shown as powerless. The purpose of a miracle is to accomplish this. And God HimHerself has guaranteed the strength of miracles for what they witness to. Be witnesses unto the miracle and not the laws of sin. There is no need to suffer any more. But there is need that you be healed, because the suffering of the world has made it deaf to its salvation and deliverance.

⁶¹ The resurrection of the world awaits your healing and your happiness, that you may demonstrate the healing of the world. The holy instant will replace all sin if you but carry its effects with you. And no one will elect to suffer more. What better function could you serve than this? Be healed that you may heal, and suffer not the laws of sin to be applied to you. And truth will be revealed to you who chose to let love's symbols take the place of sin.

VIII. The Illusion of Suffering

⁶² Suffering is an emphasis upon all that the world has done to injure you. Here is the world's demented version of salvation clearly shown. Like to a dream of punishment in which the dreamer is unconscious of what brought on the attack against himself or herself, he or she sees himself or herself attacked unjustly and by something not himself or herself. He or she is the victim of this "something else," a thing outside himself or herself for which he or she has no reason to be held responsible. He or she must be innocent because he or she knows not what he or she does, but what is done to him or her. Yet is his or her own attack upon himself or herself apparent still, for it is he or she who bears the suffering. And he or she cannot escape because its source is seen outside himself or herself.

⁶³ Now you are being shown you can escape. All that is needed is you look upon the problem as it is, and not the way that you have set it up. How could there be another way to solve a problem which is very simple but has been obscured by heavy clouds of complication which were made to keep the problem unresolved? Without the clouds, the problem will emerge in all its primitive simplicity. The choice will not be difficult, because the problem is absurd when clearly seen. No one has difficulty making up his or her mind to let a simple problem be resolved if it is seen as hurting him or her and also very easily removed.

⁶⁴ The "reasoning" by which the world is made, on which it rests, by which it is maintained, is simply this: "You are the cause of what I do. Your presence justifies my wrath, and you exist and think apart from me. While you attack, I must be innocent. And what I suffer from is your attack." No one who looks upon this "reasoning" exactly as it is could fail to see it does not follow, and it makes no sense. Yet it seems sensible because it looks as if the world were hurting you. And so it seems as if there is no need to go beyond the obvious in terms of cause.

⁶⁵ There is indeed a need. The world's escape from condemnation is a need which those within the world are joined in sharing. Yet they do not recognize their common need. For each one thinks that if he or she does his or her part, the condemnation of the world will rest on him or her. And it is this that he or she perceives to be his or her part in its deliverance. Vengeance must have a focus. Otherwise is the avenger's knife in his or her own hand and pointed to himself or herself. And he or she must see it in another's hand if he or she would be a victim of attack he or she did not choose. And thus he or she suffers from the wounds a knife he or she does not hold has made upon himself or herself. This is the purpose of the world he or she sees. And looked at thus, the world provides the means by which this purpose seems to be fulfilled.

⁶⁶ The means attest the purpose but are not themselves a cause. Nor will the cause be changed by seeing it apart from its effects. The cause produces the effects which then bear witness to the cause and not themselves. Look, then, beyond effects. It is not here the cause of suffering and sin must lie. And dwell not on the suffering and sin, for they are but reflections of their cause.

⁶⁷ The part you play in salvaging the world from condemnation is your own escape. Forget not that the witness to the world of evil cannot speak except for what has seen a need for evil in the world. And this is where your guilt was first beheld. In separation from your brother or sister was the first attack upon yourself begun. And it is this the world bears witness to. Seek not another cause nor look among the mighty legions of its witnesses for its undoing. They support its claim on your allegiance. What conceals the truth is not where you should look to find the truth. The witnesses to sin all stand within one little space. And it is here you find the cause of your perspective on the world.

⁶⁸ Once you were unaware of what the cause of everything the world appeared to thrust upon you, uninvited and unasked, must really be. Of one thing you were sure—of all the many causes you perceived as bringing pain and suffering to you, your guilt was not among them. Nor did you in any way request them for yourself. This is how all illusions come about. The one who makes them does not see himself or herself as making them, and their reality does not depend on him or her. Whatever cause they have is something quite apart from him, and what he or she sees is separate from his or her mind. He or she cannot doubt his or her dreams' reality because he or she does not see the part he or she plays in making them and making them seem real.

⁶⁹ No one can waken from a dream the world is dreaming for him or her. He or she becomes a part of someone else's dream. He or she cannot choose to waken from a dream he or she did not make. Helpless he or she stands, a victim to a dream conceived and cherished by a separate mind. Careless indeed of him or her this mind must be, as thoughtless of his or her peace and happiness as is the weather or the time of day. It loves him or her not but casts him or her as it will in any role that satisfies its dream. So little is his or her worth that he or she is but a dancing shadow, leaping up and down according to a senseless plot conceived within the idle dreaming of the world.

⁷⁰ This is the only picture you can see, the one alternative that you can choose, the other possibility of cause if you be not the dreamer of your dreams. And this is what you choose, if you deny the cause of suffering is in your mind. Be glad indeed it is, for thus are you the one decider of your destiny in time. The choice is yours to make between a sleeping death and dreams of evil or a happy wakening and joy of life. What could you choose between but life or death, waking or sleeping, peace or war, your dreams or your reality? Yet if the choice is really given you, then you must see the causes of the things you choose between exactly as they are and where they are. What choices can be made between two states, but one of which is clearly recognized? Who could be free to choose between effects when only one is seen as up to him or her?

⁷¹ An honest choice could never be perceived as one in which the choice is split between a tiny you and an enormous world, with different dreams about the truth in you. The gap between reality and dreams lies not between the dreaming of the world and what you dream in secret. They are one. The dreaming of the world is but a part of your own dream you gave away and saw as if it were its start and ending both. Yet was it started by your secret dream, which you do not perceive, although it caused the part you see and do not doubt is real. How could you doubt it while you lie asleep and dream in secret that its cause is real?

⁷² A brother or sister separated from yourself, an ancient enemy, a murderer who stalks you in the night and plots your death, yet plans that it be lingering and slow—of this you dream. Yet underneath this dream is yet another in which you become the murderer, the secret enemy, the scavenger and the destroyer of your brother or sister and the world alike. Here is the cause of suffering, the space between your dreams and your reality. The little gap you do not even see, the birthplace of illusions and of fear, the time of terror and of ancient hate, the instant of disaster, all are here. Here is the cause of unreality. And it is here that it will be undone.

⁷³ You are the dreamer of the world of dreams. No other cause it has, nor ever will. Nothing more fearful than an idle dream has terrified God's SonDaughter and made himher think that heshe has lost hisher innocence, denied hisher FatherMother, and made war upon himherself. So fearful is the dream, so seeming real, heshe could not waken to reality without the sweat of terror and a scream of mortal fear unless a gentler dream preceded his or her awaking and allowed his or her calmer mind to welcome, not to fear, the Voice that calls with love to waken him or her. [A gentler dream, in which hisher suffering was healed and where hisher brother or sister was hisher friend.] God willed heshe waken gently and with joy. And gave himher means to waken without fear. Accept the dream HeShe gave instead of yours. It is not difficult to change a dream when once the dreamer has been recognized.

⁷⁴ Rest in the Holy Spirit and allow HisHer gentle dreams to take the place of those you dreamed in terror and in fear of death. She brings forgiving dreams in which the choice is not who is the murderer and who shall be the victim. In the dreams HeShe brings, there is no murder and there is no death. The dream of guilt is fading from your sight, although your eyes are closed. A smile has come to lighten up your sleeping face. The sleep is peaceful now, for these are happy dreams.

⁷⁵ Dream softly of your sinless brother or sister, who unites with you in holy innocence. And from this dream, the LordLady of the God Realm will HimHerself awaken HisHer beloved SonDaughter. Dream of your brother's or sister's kindnesses instead of dwelling in your dreams on his or her mistakes. Select his or her thoughtfulness to dream about instead of counting up the hurts he or she gave. Forgive him or her his or her illusions and give thanks to him or her for all the helpfulness he or she gave. And do not brush aside his or her the many gifts because he or she is not perfect in your dreams.

⁷⁶ HeShe represents his or her FatherMother, Whom you see as offering both life and death to you. Brother or sister, HeShe gives but life. Yet what you see as gifts your brother or sister offers represent the gifts you dream your FatherMother gives to you. Let all your brother's or sister's gifts be seen in light of charity and kindness offered you. And let no pain disturb your dream of deep appreciation for his or her gifts to you.

IX. The "Hero" of the Dream

⁷⁷ The body is the central figure in the dreaming of the world. There is no dream without it, nor does it exist without the dream, in which it acts as if it were a personal, to be seen and be believed. It takes the central place in every dream, which tells the story of how it was made by other bodies, born into the world outside the body, lives a little while and dies, to be united in the dust with other bodies dying like itself. In the brief time allotted it to live, it seeks for other bodies as its friends and enemies. Its safety is its main concern. Its comfort is its guiding rule. It tries to look for pleasure and avoid the things that would be hurtful. Above all, it tries to teach itself its pains and joys are different and can be told apart.

⁷⁸ The dreaming of the world takes the many forms, because the body seeks in the many ways to prove it is autonomous and real. It puts things on itself which it has bought with little metal discs or paper strips the world proclaims as valuable and good. It works to get them, doing senseless things, and tosses them away for senseless things it does not need and does not even want. It hires other bodies, that they may protect it, and collect more senseless things that it can call its own. It looks about for special bodies which can share its dream. Sometimes it dreams it is a conqueror of bodies weaker than itself. But in some phases of the dream, it is the slave of bodies that would hurt and torture it.

⁷⁹ The body's serial adventures from the time of birth to dying is theme of every dream the world has ever had. The "hero" of this dream will never change nor will its purpose. Though the dream itself takes the many forms and seems to show a great variety of places and events wherein its "hero" finds itself, the dream has but one purpose, taught in the many ways. This single lesson does it try to teach again, and still again, and yet once more that it is cause and not effect. And you are its effect and cannot be its cause.

⁸⁰ Thus are you not the dreamer but the dream. And so you wander idly in and out of places and events which it contrives. That this is all the body does is true, for it is but a figure in a dream. But who reacts to figures in a dream unless he or she sees them as if they were real? The instant that he or she sees them as they are, they have no more effects on him or her because he or she understands he or she gave them their effects by causing them and making them seem real.

⁸¹ How willing are you to escape effects of all the dreams the world has ever had? Is it your wish to let no dream appear to be the cause of what it is you do? Then let us merely look upon the dream's beginning, for the part you see is but the second part, whose cause lies in the first. No one asleep and dreaming in the world remembers his or her attack upon himself or herself. No one believes there really was a time when he or she knew nothing of a body and could never have conceived this world as real. HeShe would have seen at once that these ideas are one illusion, too ridiculous for anything but to be laughed away. How serious they now appear to be! And no one can remember when they would have met with laughter and with disbelief.

⁸² We can remember this if we but look directly at their cause. And we will see the grounds for laughter, not a cause for fear. Let us return the dream he or she gave away unto the dreamer who perceives the dream as separate from himself or herself and done to him or her. Into eternity, where all is one, there crept a tiny mad idea at which the SonDaughter of God remembered not to laugh. In his or her forgetting did the thought become a serious idea and possible of both accomplishment and real effects. Together, we can laugh them both away and understand that time cannot intrude upon eternity. It is a joke to think that time can come to circumvent eternity, which means there is no time.

⁸³ A timelessness in which is time made real; a part of God which can attack itself; a separate brother or sister as an enemy; a mind within a body, all are forms of circularity whose ending starts at its beginning, ending at its cause. The world you see depicts exactly what you thought you did. Except that now you think that what you did is being done to you. The guilt for what you thought is being placed outside yourself and on a guilty world which dreams your dreams and thinks your thoughts instead of you. It brings its vengeance, not your own. It keeps you narrowly confined within a body, which it punishes because of all the sinful things the body does within its dream. You have no power to make the body stop its evil deeds because you did not make it and cannot control its actions or its purpose or its fate.

⁸⁴ The world but demonstrates an ancient truth—you will believe that others do to you exactly what you think you did to them. But once deluded into blaming them, you will not see the cause of what they do because you want the guilt to rest on them. How childish is this petulant device to keep your innocence by pushing guilt outside yourself but never letting go! It is not easy to perceive the jest when all around you do your eyes behold its heavy consequences, but without their trifling cause. Without the cause do its effects seem serious and sad indeed. Yet they but follow. And it is their cause which follows nothing and is but a jest.

⁸⁵ In gentle laughter does the Holy Spirit perceive the cause and looks not to effects. How else could She correct your error, who have overlooked the cause entirely? She bids you bring each terrible effect to Her that you may look together on its foolish cause and laugh with Her a while. You judge effects, but She has judged their cause. And by Her judgment are effects removed. Perhaps you come in tears, but hear Her say, "My brother or sister, Holy SonDaughter of God, behold your idle dream in which this could occur," and you will leave the holy instant with your laughter and your brother's or sister's joined with Hers.

⁸⁶ The secret of salvation is but this: that you are doing this unto yourself. No matter what the form of the attack, this still is true. Whoever takes the role of enemy and of attacker, still is this the truth. Whatever seems to be the cause of any pain and suffering you feel, this is still true. For you would not react at all to figures in a dream you knew that you were dreaming. Let them be as hateful and as vicious as they may, they could have no effect on you unless you failed to recognize it is your dream. This single lesson learned will set you free from suffering, whatever form it takes.

⁸⁷ The Holy Spirit will repeat this one inclusive lesson of deliverance until it has been learned, regardless of the form of suffering that brings you pain. Whatever hurt you bring to Her She will make answer with this very simple truth. For this one answer takes away the cause of every form of sorrow and of pain. The form affects Her answer not at all, for She would teach you but the single cause of all of them, no matter what their form. And you will understand that miracles reflect the simple statement, ⁸⁸ I have done this thing, and it is this I would undo.

⁸⁹ Bring, then, all forms of suffering to Her Who knows that every one is like the rest. She sees no differences where none exist, and She will teach you how each one is caused. None has a different cause from all the rest, and all of them are easily undone by but a single lesson truly learned. Salvation is a secret you have kept but from yourself. The universe proclaims it so. Yet to its witnesses you pay no heed at all. For they attest the thing you do not want to know. They seem to keep it secret from you. Yet you need but learn you choose but not to listen, not to see. How differently will you perceive the world when this is recognized! When you forgive the world your guilt, you will be free of it. Its innocence does not demand your guilt, nor does your guiltlessness rest on its sins.

⁹⁰ This is the obvious—a secret kept from no one but yourself. And it is this that has maintained you separate from the world and kept your brother or sister separate from you. Now need you but to learn that both of you are innocent or guilty. The one thing that is impossible is that you be unlike each other; that they both be true. This is the only secret yet to learn. And it will be no secret you are healed.

Chapter Twenty Eight: The Undoing of Fear

I. Introduction

¹ The miracle does nothing. All it does is to undo. And thus it cancels out the interference to what has been done. It does not add, but merely takes away. And what it takes away is long since gone, but being kept in memory, appears to have immediate effects. This world was over long ago. The thoughts that made it are no longer in the mind that thought of them and loved them for a little while. The miracle but shows the past is gone, and what has truly gone has no effects. Remembering a cause can but produce illusions of its presence, not effects.

² All the effects of guilt are here no more. For guilt is over. In its passing went its consequences, left without a cause. Why would you cling to it in memory if you did not desire its effects? Remembering is as selective as perception, being its past tense. It is perception of the past as if it were occurring now and still were there to see. Memory, like perception, is a skill made up by you to take the place of what God gave in your manifested creation. And like all the things you made, it can be used to serve another purpose and to be the means for something else. It can be used to heal and not to hurt if you so wish it be.

³ Nothing employed for healing represents an effort to do anything at all. It is a recognition that you have no needs which mean that something must be done. It is an unselective memory, which is not used to interfere with truth. All things the Holy Spirit can employ for healing have been given Her, without the content and the purposes for which they have been made. They are but skills without an application. They await their use. They have no dedication and no aim.

II. The Present Memory

⁴ The Holy Spirit can indeed make use of memory, for God HimHerself is there. Yet this is not a memory of past events, but only of a present state. You are so long accustomed to believe that memory holds only what is past that it is hard for you to realize it is a skill that can remember now. The limitations on remembering the world imposes on it are as vast as those you let the world impose on you. There is no link of memory to the past. If you would have it there, then there it is. But only your desire made the link, and only you have held it to a part of time where guilt appears to linger still.

⁵ The Holy Spirit's use of memory is quite apart from time. She does not seek to use it as a means to keep the past, but rather as a way to let it go. Memory holds the message it receives and does what it is given it to do. It does not write the message nor appoint what it is for. Like to the body, it is purposeless within itself. And if it seems to serve to cherish ancient hate and offers you the pictures of injustices and hurts which you were saving, this is what you asked its message be, and this is what it is. Committed to its vaults, the history of all the body's past is hidden there. All of the strange associations made to keep the past alive, the present dead, are stored within it, waiting your command that they be brought to you and lived again. And thus do their effects appear to be increased by time, which took away their cause.

⁶ Yet time is but another phase of what does nothing. It works hand in hand with all the other attributes with which you seek to keep concealed the truth about yourself. Time neither takes away nor can restore. And yet you make strange use of it, as if the past had caused the present, which is but a consequence in which no change can be made possible because its cause has gone. Yet change must have a cause that will endure or else it will not last. No change can be made in the present if its cause is past. Only the past is held in memory as you make use of it, and so it is a way to hold the past against the now.

⁷ Remember nothing that you taught yourself, for you were badly taught. And who would keep a senseless lesson in his or her mind when he or she can learn and can preserve a better one? When ancient memories of hate appear, remember that their cause is gone. And so you cannot understand what they are for. Let not the cause that you would give them now be what it was which made them what they were or seemed to be. Be glad that it is gone, for this is what you would be pardoned from. And see instead the new effects of cause accepted now, with consequences here. They will surprise you with their loveliness. The ancient new ideas they bring will be the happy consequences of a cause so ancient that it far exceeds the span of memory which your perception sees.

⁸ This is the Cause the Holy Spirit has remembered for you, when you would forget. It is not past because She let It not be unremembered. It has never changed because there never was a time in which She did not keep It safely in your mind. Its consequences will indeed seem new because you thought that you remembered not their Cause. Yet was It never absent from your mind, for it was not your Father'sMother's Will that HeShe be unremembered by HisHer SonDaughter.

⁹ What you remember never was. It came from causelessness which you confused with cause. It can deserve but laughter when you learn you have remembered consequences which were causeless and could never be effects. The miracle reminds you of a Cause forever present, perfectly untouched by time and interference—never changed from what It is. And you are Its effects, as changeless and as perfect as Itself. Its memory does not lie in the past nor await the future. It is not revealed in miracles. They but remind you that It has not gone. When you forgive It for your sins, It will no longer be denied.

¹⁰ You who have sought to lay a judgment on your own CreatorManifestor cannot understand it is not HeShe Who laid a judgment on HisHer SonDaughter. You would deny HimHer HisHer effects, yet have they never been denied. There was no time in which HisHer SonDaughter could be condemned for what was causeless and against HisHer Will. What your remembering would witness to is but the fear of God. HeShe has not done the thing you fear. No more have you. And so your innocence has not been lost. You need no healing to be healed. In quietness, see in the miracle a lesson in allowing Cause to have Its own effects and doing nothing that would interfere.

¹¹ The miracle comes quietly into the mind that stops an instant and is still. It reaches gently from that quiet time, and from the mind it healed in quiet then, to other minds to share its quietness. And they will join in doing nothing to prevent its radiant extension back into the Mind

Which caused all minds to be. Born out of sharing, there can be no pause in time to cause the miracle delay in hastening to all unquiet minds and bringing them an instant's stillness when the memory of God returns to them. Their own remembering is quiet now, and what has come to take its place will not be wholly unremembered afterwards.

¹² HeShe to Whom time is given offers thanks for every quiet instant given HimHer. For in that instant is HisHer memory allowed to offer all its treasures to the SonDaughter of God, for whom they have been kept. How gladly does HeShe offer them unto the one for whom HeShe has been given them! And hisher CreatorManifestor shares HisHer thanks because HeShe would not be deprived of HisHer effects. The instant's silence that HisHer SonDaughter accepts gives welcome to eternity and HimHer and lets Them enter where They would abide. For in that instant does the SonDaughter of God do nothing that would make himherself afraid.

¹³ How instantly the memory of God arises in the mind that has no fear to keep the memory away. Its own remembering has gone. There is no past to keep its fearful image in the way of glad awakening to present peace. The trumpets of eternity resound throughout the stillness, yet disturb it not. And what is now remembered is not fear, but rather is the cause that fear was made to render unremembered and undone. The stillness speaks in gentle sounds of love the SonDaughter of God remembers from before hisher own remembering came in between the present and the past to shut them out.

¹⁴ Now is the SonDaughter of God at last aware of present Cause and Its benign effects. Now does he or she understand what he or she has made is causeless, making no effects at all. He or she has done nothing. And in seeing this, he or she understands he or she never had a need for doing anything and never did. HisHer Cause is its effects. There never was a cause beside It that could generate a different past or future. Its effects are changelessly eternal, beyond fear, and past the world of sin entirely.

¹⁵ What has been lost, to see the causeless not? And where is sacrifice, when memory of God has come to take the place of loss? What better way to close the little gap between illusions and reality than to allow the memory of God to flow across it, making it a bridge an instant will suffice to reach beyond? For God has closed it with HimHerself. HisHer memory has not gone by and left a stranded SonDaughter forever on a shore where he or she can glimpse another shore which he or she can never reach. HisHer FatherMother wills that he or she be lifted up and gently carried over. HeShe has built the bridge, and it is HeShe Who will transport HisHer SonDaughter across it. Have no fear that HeShe will fail in what HeShe wills. Nor that you be excluded from the Will that is for you.

III. Reversing Effect and Cause

¹⁶ Without a cause there can be no effects, and yet without effects there is no cause. The cause a cause is made by its effects; the FatherMother is a fathermother by HisHer SonDaughter. Effects do not create and manifest their cause, but they establish its causation. Thus, the SonDaughter gives fathermotherhood to hisher CreatorManifestor and receives the gift that heshe has given HimHer. It is because heshe is God's SonDaughter that heshe must also be a fathermother who creates and manifests as God created and manifested himher. The circle of manifested creation has no end. Its starting and its ending are the same. But in itself it holds the universe of all manifested creation, without beginning and without an end.

¹⁷ FatherMotherhood is manifested creation. Love must be extended. Purity is not confined. It is the nature of the innocent to be forever uncontained, without a barrier or limitation. Thus is purity not of the body. Nor can it be found where limitation is. The body can be healed by its effects, which are as limitless as is itself. Yet must all healing come about because the mind is recognized as not within the body, and its innocence is quite apart from it and where all healing is. Where then is healing? Only where its cause is given its effects. For sickness is a meaningless attempt to give effects to causelessness and make it be a cause.

¹⁸ Always in sickness does the SonDaughter of God attempt to make himself or herself his or her cause and not allow himself or herself to be his or her Father'sMother's SonDaughter. For this impossible desire, he or she does not believe that he or she is Love's effect and must be cause because of what he or she is. The cause of healing is the only Cause of everything. It has but one effect. And in that recognition, causelessness is given no effects and none are seen. A mind within a body and a world of other bodies, each with separate minds, are your "creationsmanifestations," you the "other" mind, creatingmanifesting with effects unlike yourself. And as their "father or mother," you must be like them. Nothing at all has happened but that you have put yourself to sleep and dreamed a dream in which you were an alien to yourself and but a part of someone else's dream.

¹⁹ The miracle does not awaken you but merely shows you who the dreamer is. It teaches you there is a choice of dreams while you are still asleep, depending on the purpose of your dreaming. Do you wish for dreams of healing or for dreams of death? A dream is like a memory in that it pictures what you wanted shown to you. An empty storehouse with an open door holds all your shreds of memories and dreams. Yet if you are the dreamer, you perceive this much at least—that you have caused the dream and can accept another dream as well. But for this change in content of the dream, it must be realized that it is you who dreamed the dreaming that you do not like. It is but an effect which you have caused, and you would not be cause of this effect.

²⁰ In dreams of murder and attack are you the victim in a dying body slain. But in forgiving dreams is no one asked to be the victim and the sufferer. These are the happy dreams the miracle exchanges for your own. It does not ask you make another—only that you see you made the one you would exchange for this. This world is causeless, as is every dream that anyone has dreamed within the world. No plans are possible and no design exists that could be found and understood.

²¹ What else could be expected from a thing that has no cause? Yet if it has no cause, it has no purpose. You may cause a dream, but never will you give it real effects. For that would change its cause, and it is this you cannot do. The dreamer of a dream is not awake but does not know he or she sleeps. He or she sees illusions of himself or herself as sick or well, depressed or happy, but without a stable cause with guaranteed effects.

²² The miracle establishes you dream a dream and that its content is not true. This is a crucial step in dealing with illusions. No one is afraid of them when he or she perceives he or she made them up. The fear was held in place because he or she did not see that he or she was author of the dream, and not a figure in the dream. He or she gives himself or herself the consequences which he or she dreams he or she gave his or her brother or sister. And it is but this the dream has put together and has offered him or her to show him or her that his or her wishes have been done. Thus does he or she fear his or her own attack but sees it at another's hands. As victim, he or she is suffering from its effects but not their cause. He or she authored not his or her own attack, and he or she is innocent of what he or she caused. The miracle does nothing but to show him or her that he or she has done nothing. What he or she fears is cause without the consequences which would make it cause. And so it never was.

²³ The separation started with the dream the FatherMother was deprived of HisHer effects and powerless to keep them since HeShe was no longer their CreatorManifestor. In the dream, the dreamer made himself or herself, but what he or she made has turned against him or her, taking on the role of its creatormanifestor as the dreamer had. And as he or she hated his or her creatormanifestor, so the figures in the dream have hated him or her. His or her body is their slave which they abuse because the motives he or she has given it have they adopted as their own. And hate it for the vengeance it would offer them. It is their vengeance on the body which appears to prove the dreamer could not be the maker of the dream. Effect and cause are first split off and then reversed, so that effect becomes a cause; the cause, effect.

²⁴ This is the separation's final step with which salvation, which proceeds to go the other way, begins. This final step is an effect of what has gone before, appearing as a cause. The miracle is the first step in giving back to cause the function of causation, not effect. For this confusion has produced the dream, and while it lasts, will wakening be feared. Nor will the call to wakening be heard, because it seems to be the call to fear.

²⁵ Like every lesson which the Holy Spirit requests you learn, the miracle is clear. It demonstrates what She would have you learn and shows you its effects are what you want. In Her forgiving dreams are the effects of yours undone and hated enemies perceived as friends with merciful intent. Their enmity is seen as causeless now, because they did not make it. And you can accept the role of maker of their hate, because you see that it has no effects. Now are you freed from this much of the dream; the world is neutral, and the bodies which still seem to move about as separate things need not be feared. And so they are not sick.

²⁶ The miracle returns the cause of fear to you who made it. But it also shows that, having no effects, it is not cause because the function of causation is to have effects. And where effects are gone, there is no cause. Thus is the body healed by miracles because they show the mind made sickness and employed the body to be victim or effect of what it made. Yet half the lesson will not teach the whole. The miracle is useless if you learn but that the body can be healed, for this is not the lesson it was sent to teach. The lesson is the mind was sick that thought the body could be sick; projecting out its guilt caused nothing and had no effects.

²⁷ This world is full of miracles. They stand in shining silence next to every dream of pain and suffering, of sin and guilt. They are the dream's alternative, the choice to be the dreamer rather than deny the active role in making up the dream. They are the glad effects of taking back the consequence of sickness to its cause. The body is released because the mind acknowledges "this is not done to me, but I am doing this." And thus the mind is free to make another choice instead. Beginning here, salvation will proceed to change the course of every step in the descent to separation, until all the steps have been retraced, the ladder gone, and all the dreaming of the world undone.

IV. The Agreement to Join

²⁸ What waits in perfect certainty beyond salvation is not our concern. For you have barely started to allow your first uncertain steps to be directed up the ladder separation led you down. The miracle alone is your concern at present. Here is where we must begin. And having started, will the way be made serene and simple in the rising up to waking and the ending of the dream. When you accept a miracle, you do not add your dream of fear to one that is already being dreamed. Without support, the dream will fade away without effects. For it is your support that strengthens it.

²⁹ No mind is sick until another mind agrees that they are separate. And thus it is their joint decision to be sick. If you withhold agreement and accept the part you play in making sickness real, the other mind cannot project its guilt without your aid in letting it perceive itself as separate and apart from you. Thus is the body not perceived as sick by both your minds, from separate points of view. Uniting with a brother's or sister's mind prevents the cause of sickness and perceived effects. Healing is the effect of minds which join, as sickness comes from minds which separate.

³⁰ The miracle does nothing just because the minds are joined and cannot separate. Yet in the dreaming has this been reversed, and separate minds are seen as bodies which are separated and which cannot join. Do not allow your brother or sister to be sick, for if he or she is, have you abandoned him or her to his or her own dream by sharing it with him or her. He or she has not seen the cause of sickness where it is, and you have overlooked the gap between you, where the sickness has been bred. Thus are you joined in sickness, to preserve the little gap unhealed, where sickness is kept carefully protected, cherished, and upheld by firm belief, lest God should come to bridge the little gap that leads to HimHer. Fight not HisHer coming with illusions, for it is HisHer coming that you want above all things that seem to glisten in the dream.

³¹ The end of dreaming is the end of fear, and love was never in the world of dreams. The gap is little. Yet it holds the seeds of pestilence and every form of ill because it is a wish to keep apart and not to join. And thus it seems to give a cause to sickness which is not its cause. The purpose of the gap is all the cause that sickness has. For it was made to keep you separated in a body which you see as if it were the cause of pain.

³² The cause of pain is separation, not the body, which is only its effect. Yet separation is but empty space, enclosing nothing, doing nothing, and as unsubstantial as the empty place between the ripples that a ship has made in passing by. And covered just as fast, as water rushes in to close the gap and as the waves in joining cover it. Where is the gap between the waves when they have joined and covered up the space which seemed to keep them separate for a little while? Where are the grounds for sickness when the minds have joined to close the little gap between them where the seeds of sickness seemed to grow?

³³ God builds the bridge, but only in the space left clean and vacant by the miracle. The seeds of sickness and the shame of guilt HeShe cannot bridge, for HeShe cannot destroy the alien will that HeShe created and manifested not. Let its effects be gone and clutch them not with eager hands, to keep them for yourself. The miracle will brush them all aside and thus make room for HimHer Who wills to come and bridge HisHer Son'sDaughter's returning to HimHerself.

³⁴ Count, then, the silver miracles and golden dreams of happiness as all the treasures you would keep within the storehouse of the world. The door is open, not to thieves but to your starving brothers and sisters who mistook for gold the shining of a pebble and who stored a heap of snow that shone like silver. They have nothing left behind the open door. What is the world except a little gap perceived to tear eternity apart and break it into days and months and years? And what are you who live within the world except a picture of the SonDaughter of God in broken pieces, each concealed within a separate and uncertain bit of clay?

³⁵ Be not afraid, but let your world be lit by miracles. And where the gap was seen to stand between you, join your brother or sister there. And sickness will be seen without a cause. The dream of healing in forgiveness lies and gently shows you that you never sinned. The miracle would leave no proof of guilt to bring you witness to what never was. And in your storehouse it will make a place of welcome for your FatherMother and your Self. The door is open that all those may come who would no longer starve and would enjoy the feast of plenty set before them there. And they will meet with your invited Guests the miracle has asked to come to you.

³⁶ This is a feast unlike indeed to those the dreaming of the world has shown. For here, the more that anyone receives, the more is left for all the rest to share. The Guests have brought unlimited supply with Them. And no one is deprived or can deprive. Here is a feast the FatherMother lays before HisHer SonDaughter and shares it equally with himher. And in Their sharing there can be no gap in which abundance falters and grows thin. Here can the lean years enter not, for time waits not upon this feast, which has no end. For Love has set Its table in the space that seemed to keep your Guests apart from you.

V. The Greater Joining

³⁷ Accepting the Atonement for yourself means not to give support to someone's dream of sickness and of death. It means that you share not his or her wish to separate and let him or her turn illusions on himself or herself. Nor do you wish that they be turned instead on you. Thus have they no effects. And you are free of dreams of pain because you let him or her be. Unless you help him or her, you will suffer pain with him or her because that is your wish. And you become a figure in his or her dream of pain, as he or she in yours. So do you both become illusions and without identity. You could be anyone or anything, depending on whose evil dream you share. You can be sure of just one thing—that you are evil, for you share in dreams of fear.

³⁸ There is a way of finding certainty right here and now. Refuse to be a part of fearful dreams whatever form they take, for you will lose identity in them. You find yourself by not accepting them as causing you and giving you effects. You stand apart from them but not apart from him or her who dreams them. Thus you separate the dreamer from the dream and join in one but let the other go. The dream is but illusion in the mind. And with the mind you would unite, but never with the dream. It is the dream you fear and not the mind. You see them as the same because you think that you are but a dream. And what is real and what is but illusion in yourself you do not know and cannot tell apart.

³⁹ Like you, your brother or sister thinks he or she is a dream. Share not in his or her illusion of himself or herself, for your identity depends on his or her reality. Think rather of him or her as a mind in which illusions still persist, but as a mind which brother or sister is to you. He or she is not brother or sister made by what he or she dreams, nor is his or her body, "hero and heroine" of the dream, your brother or sister. It is his or her reality that is your brother or sister, as is yours to him or her. Your mind and his or her are joined in brotherhood or sisterhood. His or her body and his or her dreams but seem to make a little gap, where yours have joined with his or hers.

⁴⁰ And yet, between your minds there is no gap. To join his or her dreams is thus to meet him or her not because his or her dreams would separate from you. Therefore, release him or her, merely by your claim on brotherhood or sisterhood and not on dreams of fear. Let him or her acknowledge who he or she is by not supporting his or her illusions by your faith, for if you do, you will have faith in yours. With faith in yours, he or she will not be released, and you are kept in bondage to his or her dream. And dreams of fear will haunt the little gap, inhabited but by illusions which you have supported in each other's minds.

⁴¹ Be certain, if you do your part, he or she will do his or hers, for he or she will join you where you stand. Call not to him or her to meet you in the gap between you, or you must believe that it is your reality as well as his or hers. You cannot do his or her part, but this you do when you become a passive figure in his or her dream instead of dreamer of your own. Identity in dreams is meaningless because the dreamer and the dream are one. Who shares a dream must be the dream he or she shares because by sharing is a cause produced.

⁴² You share confusion and you are confused, for in the gap no stable self exists. What is the same seems different because what is the same appears to be unlike. His or her dreams are yours because you let them be. But if you took your own away would he or she be free of them and of his or her own as well. Your dreams are witnesses to his or hers, and his or her attest the truth of yours. Yet if you see there is no truth in yours, his or her dreams will [disappear before his or her eyes], and he or she will understand what made the dream.

⁴³ The Holy Spirit is in both your minds, and She is One because there is no gap that separates Her Oneness from Itself. The gap between your bodies matters not, for what is joined in Her is always one. No one is sick if someone else accepts his or her union with him or her. His or her desire to be a sick and separated mind can not remain without a witness or a cause. And both are gone if someone wills to be united with him or her. He or she has dreams that he or she was separated from his or her brother or sister who, by sharing not his or her dream, has left the space between them vacant. And the FatherMother comes to join HisHer SonDaughter the Holy Spirit joined.

⁴⁴ The Holy Spirit's function is to take the broken picture of the SonDaughter of God and put the pieces into place again. This holy picture, healed entirely, does She hold out to every separate piece that thinks it is a picture in itself. To each he or she offers his or her identity, which the whole picture represents, instead of just a little broken bit which he or she insisted was himself or herself. And when he or she sees this picture, he or she will recognize himself or herself. If you share not your brother's or sister's evil dream, this is the picture that the miracle will place within the little gap, left clean of all the seeds of sickness and of sin. And here the FatherMother will receive HisHer SonDaughter, because HisHer SonDaughter was gracious to himself or herself.

⁴⁵ I thank you, FatherMother, knowing you will come to close each little gap that lies between the broken pieces of Your holy SonDaughter. Your holiness, complete and perfect, lies in every one of them. And they are joined because what is in one is in them all. How holy is the smallest grain of sand when it is recognized as being part of the completed picture of God's SonDaughter! The forms the broken pieces seem to take mean nothing. For the whole is in each one. And every aspect of the SonDaughter of God is just the same as every other part.

⁴⁶ Join not your brother's or sister's dreams but join with him or her, and where you join HisHer SonDaughter, the FatherMother is. Who seeks for substitutes when he or she perceives he or she has lost nothing? Who would want to have the "benefits" of sickness when he or she has received the simple happiness of health? What God has given cannot be a loss, and what is not of HimHer has no effects. What then would you perceive within the gap? The seeds of sickness come from the belief that there is joy in separation, and its giving up would be a sacrifice. But miracles are the result when you do not insist on seeing in the gap what is not there. Your willingness to let illusions go is all the Healer of God's SonDaughter requires. She will place the miracle of healing where the seeds of sickness were. And there will be no loss, but only gain.

VI. The Alternate to Dreams of Fear

⁴⁷ What is a sense of sickness but a sense of limitation? Of a splitting off and separating from? A gap perceived between yourselves and what is seen as health? The good is seen outside; the evil, in. And thus is sickness separating off the self from good and keeping evil in. God is the alternate to dreams of fear. Who shares in them can never share in HimHer. But who withdraws his or her mind from sharing them is sharing HimHer. There is no other choice. Except you share it, nothing can exist. And you exist because God shared HisHer Will with you, that HisHer manifested creation might create and manifest.

⁴⁸ It is the sharing of the evil dreams of hate and malice, bitterness and death, of sin and suffering and pain and loss, that makes them real. Unshared, they are perceived as meaningless. The fear is gone from them because you did not give them your support. Where fear has gone, there love must come because there are but these alternatives. Where one appears, the other disappears. And which you share becomes the only one you have. You have the one which you accept, because it is the only one you wish to have. You share no evil dreams if you forgive the dreamer and perceive that he or she is not the dream he or she made. And so he or she cannot be a part of yours, from which you both are free. Forgiveness separates the dreamer from the evil dream and thus releases him or her.

⁴⁹ Remember if you share an evil dream, you will believe you are the dream you share. And fearing it, you will not want to know your own Identity because you think that it is fearful. And you will deny your Self and walk upon an alien ground which your CreatorManifestor did not make and where you seem to be a something you are not. You will make war upon your Self, which seems to be your enemy, and will attack your brother or sister as a part of what you hate. There is no compromise. You are your Self or an illusion. What can be between illusion and the truth? A middle ground where you can be a thing that is not you must be a dream and cannot be the truth.

⁵⁰ You have conceived a little gap between illusions and the truth to be the place where all your safety lies and where your Self is safely hidden by what you have made. Here is a world established that is sick, and this the world the body's eyes perceive. Here are the sounds it hears—the voices which its ears were made to hear. Yet sights and sounds the body can perceive are meaningless. It cannot see nor hear. It does not know what seeing is, what listening is for. It is as little able to perceive as it can judge or understand or know. Its eyes are blind; its ears are deaf. It cannot think, and so it cannot have effects.

⁵¹ What is there God created and manifested to be sick? And what that HeShe created and manifested not can be? Let not your eyes behold a dream, your ears bear witness to illusion. They were made to look upon a world that is not there, to hear the voices that can make no sound. Yet are there other sounds and other sights which can be seen and heard and understood. For eyes and ears are senses without sense, and what they see and hear they but report. It is not they that hear and see, but you, who put together every jagged piece, each senseless scrap and shred of evidence, and make a witness to the world you want. Let not the body's ears and eyes perceive these countless fragments seen within the gap which you imagined, and let them persuade their maker his or her imaginings are real.

⁵² Manifested creation proves reality because it shares the function all manifested creation shares. It is not made of little bits of glass, a piece of wood, a thread or two perhaps, all put together to attest its truth. Reality does not depend on this. There is no gap which separates the truth from dreams and from illusions. Truth has left no room for them in any place or time. For it fills every place and every time and makes them wholly indivisible.

⁵³ You who believe there is a little gap between you, do not understand that it is here that you are kept as prisoners in a world perceived to be existing here. The world you see does not exist because the place where you perceive it is not real. The gap is carefully concealed in fog, and misty pictures rise to cover it with vague, uncertain forms and changing shapes, forever unsubstantial and unsure. Yet in the gap is nothing. And there are no awesome secrets and no darkened tombs where terror rises from the bones of death. Look at the little gap, and you behold the innocence and emptiness of sin that you will see within yourself when you have lost the fear of recognizing love.

VII. The Secret Vows

⁵⁴ Who punishes the body is insane. For here the little gap is seen, and yet it is not here. It has not judged itself nor made itself to be what it is not. It does not seek to make of pain a joy and look for lasting pleasure in the dust. It does not tell you what its purpose is and cannot understand what it is for. It does not victimize because it has no will, no preferences, and no doubts. It does not wonder what it is. And so it has no need to be competitive. It can be victimized but cannot feel itself as victim. It accepts no role but does what it is told, without attack.

⁵⁵ It is indeed a senseless point of view to hold responsible for sight a thing that cannot see and blame it for the sounds you do not like, although it cannot hear. It suffers not the punishment you give because it has no feeling. It behaves in ways you want but never makes the choice. It is not born and does not die. It can but follow aimlessly the path on which it has been set. And if that path is changed, it walks as easily another way. It takes no sides and judges not the road it travels. It perceives no gap because it does not hate. It can be used for hate, but it cannot be hateful made thereby.

⁵⁶ The thing you hate and fear and loathe and want, the body does not know. You send it forth to seek for separation and to be a separate thing. And then you hate it, not for what it is, but for the uses you have made of it. You shrink from what it sees and what it hears and hate its frailty and littleness. And you despise its acts but not your own. It sees and acts for you. It hears your voice. And it is frail and little by your wish. It seems to punish you and thus deserve your hatred for the limitations which it brings to you. Yet you have made of it a symbol for the limitations which you want your mind to have and see and keep.

⁵⁷ The body represents the gap between the little bit of mind you call your own and all the rest of what is really yours. You hate it, yet you think it is your self and that without it would your self be lost. This is the secret vow which you have made with every brother or sister who would walk apart. This is the secret oath you take again, whenever you perceive yourself attacked. No one can suffer if he or she does not see himself or herself attacked and losing by attack. Unstated and unheard in consciousness is every pledge to sickness. Yet it is a promise to another to be hurt by him or her and to attack him or her in return.

⁵⁸ Sickness is anger taken out upon the body, so that it will suffer pain. It is the obvious effect of what was made in secret, in agreement with another's secret wish to be apart from you, as you would be apart from him or her. Unless you both agree that is your wish, it can have no effects. Whoever says, "There is ingen kløft between my mind and yours" has kept God's promise, not his or her tiny oath to be forever faithful unto death. And by his or her healing is his or her brother or sister healed.

⁵⁹ Let this be your agreement with each one—that you be one with him or her and not apart. And he or she will keep the promise that you make with him or her because it is the one which he or she has made to God, as God has made to him or her. God keeps HisHer promises; HisHer SonDaughter keeps hishers. In hisher manifested creation did hisher FatherMother say, "You are beloved of Us and Us of you forever. Be you perfect as Ourselves, for you can never be apart from Us." HisHer SonDaughter remembers not that heshe replied "I will," though in that promise heshe was born. Yet God reminds himher of it every time heshe does not share a promise to be sick but lets hisher mind be healed and unified. Hisher secret vows are powerless before the Will of God, Whose promises heshe shares. And what heshe substitutes is not hisher will, who has made promise of himherself to God.

VIII. The Beautiful Relationship

⁶⁰ God asks for nothing, and HisHer SonDaughter, like HimHer, need ask for nothing. For there is no lack in himher. An empty space, a little gap, would be a lack. And it is only there that he or she could want for something he or she has not. A space where God is not, a gap between the FatherMother and the SonDaughter is not the Will of either, who have promised to be one. God's promise is a promise to HimHerself, and there is no one who could be untrue to what HeShe wills as part of what HeShe is. The promise that there is no gap between HimHerself and what HeShe is cannot be false. What will can come between what must be one, and in Whose wholeness there can be no gap?

⁶¹ The beautiful relationship you have with all your brothers and sisters is a part of you because it is a part of God HimHerself. Are you not sick if you deny yourself your wholeness and your health, the Source of help, the Call to healing, and the Call to heal? Your savior or savior waits for healing, and the world waits with him or her. Nor are you apart from it. For healing will be one or not at all, its oneness being where the healing lies. What could correct for separation but its opposite? There is no middle ground in any aspect of salvation. You accept it wholly or accept it not. What is unseparated must be joined. And what is joined cannot be separate.

⁶² Either there is a gap between you and your brother or sister, or you are as one. There is no in between, no other choice, and no allegiance to be split between the two. A split allegiance is but faithlessness to both and merely sets you spinning round, to grasp uncertainly at any straw that seems to hold some promise of relief. Yet who can build his or her home upon a straw and count on it as shelter from the wind? The body can be made a home like this because it lacks foundation in the truth. And yet, because it does, it can be seen as not your home but merely as an aid to help you reach the home where God abides.

⁶³ With this as purpose is the body healed. It is not used to witness to the dream of separation and disease. Nor is it idly blamed for what it did not do. It serves to help the healing of God's SonDaughter, and for this purpose it cannot be sick. It will not join a purpose not your own, and you have chosen that it not be sick. All miracles are based upon this choice and given you the instant it is made. No forms of sickness are immune because the choice cannot be made in terms of form. The choice of sickness seems to be a form, yet it is one, as is its opposite. And you are sick or well accordingly.

⁶⁴ But never you alone. This world is but the dream that you can be alone and think without affecting those apart from you. To be alone must mean you are apart, and if you are, you cannot but be sick. This seems to prove that you must be apart. Yet all it means is that you tried to keep a promise to be true to faithlessness. Yet faithlessness is sickness. It is like the house set upon straw. It seems to be quite solid and substantial in itself. Yet its stability cannot be judged apart from its foundation. If it rests on straw, there is no need to bar the door and lock the windows and make fast the bolts. The wind will topple it, and rain will come and carry it into oblivion.

⁶⁵ What is the sense in seeking to be safe in what was made for danger and for fear? Why burden it with further locks and chains and heavy anchors when its weakness lies not in itself but in the frailty of the little gap of nothingness whereon it stands? What can be safe which rests upon a shadow? Would you build your home upon what will collapse beneath a feather's weight?

⁶⁶ Your home is built upon your brother's or sister's health, upon his or her happiness, his or her sinlessness, and everything his or her FatherMother promised him or her. No secret promise you have made instead has shaken the Foundation of his or her home. The winds will blow upon it, and the rain will beat against it but with no effect. The world will wash away, and yet this house will stand forever, for its strength lies not within itself alone. It is an ark of safety, resting on God's promise that HisHer SonDaughter is safe forever in HimHerself. What gap can interpose itself between the safety of this shelter and its Source? From here the body can be seen as what it is and neither less nor more in worth than the extent to which it can be used to liberate

God's SonDaughter unto hisher home. And with this holy purpose is it made a home of holiness a little while because it shares your Father'sMother's Will with you.

Chapter Twenty Nine:

The Awakening

I. Introduction

¹ There is no time, no place, no state where God is absent. There is nothing to be feared. There is no way in which a gap could be conceived of in the wholeness that is HisHers. The compromise the least and littlest gap would represent in HisHer eternal love is quite impossible. For it would mean HisHer love could harbor just a hint of hate; HisHer gentleness turn sometimes to attack; and HisHer eternal patience sometimes fail. All this do you believe, when you perceive a gap between your brother or sister and yourself. How could you trust HimHer, then? For HeShe must be deceptive in HisHer Love. Be wary, then; let HimHer not come too close, and leave a gap between you and HisHer love through which you can escape if there be need for you to flee.

² Here is the fear of God most plainly seen. For love is treacherous to those who fear, since fear and hate can never be apart. No one who hates but is afraid of love and therefore must he or she be afraid of God. Certain it is he or she knows not what love means. HeShe fears to love and loves to hate, and so he or she thinks that love is fearful—hate is love. This is the consequence the little gap must bring to those who cherish it and think that it is their salvation and their hope.

³ The fear of God! The greatest obstacle that peace must flow across has not yet gone. The rest are past, but this one still remains to block your path and make the way to light seem dark and fearful, perilous and bleak. You had decided that your brother or sister is your enemy. Sometimes a friend, perhaps, provided that your separate interests made your friendship possible a little while. But not without a gap between you, lest he or she turn again into an enemy. [Let him or her come close to you, and you jumped back; as you approached, he or she instantly withdrew.] A cautious friendship, limited in scope and carefully restricted in amount, became the treaty you had made with him or her. You shared a qualified entente in which a clause of separation was a point on which you both agreed to keep intact. And violating this was thought to be a breach of treaty not to be allowed.

II. The Closing of the Gap

⁴ The gap between you is not one of space between two separate bodies. This but seems to be dividing off your separate minds. It is the symbol of a promise made to meet when you prefer and separate until you both elect to meet again. And then your bodies seem to get in touch and signify a meeting-place to join. But always is it possible to go your separate ways. Conditional upon the "right" to separate will you agree to meet from time to time and keep apart in intervals of separation, which protect you from the "sacrifice" of love. The body saves you, for it gets away from total sacrifice and gives you time in which to build again your separate selves, which you believe diminish as you meet.

⁵ The body could not separate your minds unless you wanted it to be a cause of separation and of distance seen between you. Thus do you endow it with a power that lies not within itself. And herein lies its power over you. For now you think that it determines when you meet and limits your ability to make communion with each other's mind. And now it tells you where to go and how to go there, what is feasible for you to undertake, and what you cannot do. It dictates what its health can tolerate and what will tire it and make it sick. And its "inherent" weaknesses set up the limitations on what you would do and keep your purpose limited and weak.

⁶ The body will accommodate to this if you would have it so. It will allow but limited indulgences in "love," with intervals of hatred in between. And it will take command of when to "love" and when to shrink more safely into fear. It will be sick because you do not know what loving means. And so you must misuse each circumstance and everyone you meet and see in them a purpose not your own.

⁷ It is not love that asks a sacrifice. But fear demands the sacrifice of love, for in love's presence fear cannot abide. For hate to be maintained love must be feared and only sometimes present, sometimes gone. Thus is love seen as treacherous because it seems to come and go uncertainly and offer no stability to you. You do not see how limited and weak is your allegiance and how frequently you have demanded that love go away and leave you quietly alone in "peace."

⁸ The body, innocent of any goal, is your excuse for variable goals you hold and force the body to maintain. You do not fear its weakness, but its lack of strength or weakness. Would you recognize that nothing stands between you? Would you know there is no gap behind which you can hide? There is a shock that comes to those who learn their savior or savioress is their enemy no more. There is a wariness that is aroused by learning that the body is not real. And there are overtones of seeming fear around the happy message, "God is love."

⁹ Yet all that happens when the gap is gone is peace eternal. Nothing more than that, and nothing less. Without the fear of God, what could induce you to abandon HimHer? What toys or trinkets in the gap could serve to hold you back an instant from HisHer love? Would you allow the body to say "no" to the God Realm 's calling, were you not afraid to find a loss of self in finding God? Yet can your Self be lost by being found?

III. The Coming of the Guest

¹⁰ Why would you not perceive it as release from suffering to learn that you are free? Why would you not acclaim the truth, instead of looking on it as an enemy? Why does an easy path, so clearly marked it is impossible to lose the way, seem thorny, rough, and far too difficult for you to follow? Is it not because you see it as the road to hell instead of looking on it as a simple way, without a sacrifice or any loss, to find yourself in the God Realm and in God? Until you realize you give up nothing, until you understand there is no loss, you will have some regrets about the way that you have chosen. And you will not see the many gains your choice has offered you. Yet though you do not see them, they are there. Their cause has been effected, and they must be present where their cause has entered in.

¹¹ You have accepted healing's Cause, and so it must be you are healed. And being healed, the power to heal must also now be yours. The miracle is not a separate thing which happens suddenly, as an effect without a cause. Nor is it in itself a cause. But where its cause is must it be. Now is it caused, though not as yet perceived. And its effects are there, though not yet seen. Look inward now, and you will not behold a reason for regret but cause indeed for glad rejoicing and for hope of peace.

¹² It has been hopeless to attempt to find the hope of peace upon a battleground. It has been futile to demand escape from sin and pain of what was made to serve the function of retaining sin and pain. For pain and sin are one illusion, as are hate and fear, attack and guilt but one. Where they are causeless, their effects are gone, and love must come wherever they are not. Why are you not rejoicing? You are free of pain and sickness, misery and loss, and all effects of hatred and attack. No more is pain your friend and guilt your god, and you should welcome the effects of love.

¹³ Your Guest has come. You asked HimHer, and HeShe came. You did not hear HimHer enter, for you did not wholly welcome HimHer. And yet HisHer gifts came with HimHer. HeShe has laid them at your feet and asks you now that you will look on them and take them for your own. HeShe needs your help in giving them to all who walk apart believing they are separate and alone. They will be healed when you accept your gifts, because your Guest will welcome everyone whose feet have touched the holy ground whereon you stand and where HisHer gifts for them are laid.

¹⁴ You do not see how much you now can give because of everything you have received. Yet HeShe Who entered in but waits for you to come where you invited HimHer to be. There is no other place where HeShe can find HisHer host nor where HisHer host can meet with HimHer. And nowhere else HisHer gifts of peace and joy and all the happiness HisHer Presence brings can be obtained. For they are where HeShe is Who brought them with HimHer that they might be yours. You cannot see your Guest, but you can see the gifts HeShe brought. And when you look on them, you will believe HisHer Presence must be there. For what you now can do could not be done without the love and grace HisHer Presence holds.

¹⁵ Such is the promise of the living God—HisHer SonDaughter have life and every living thing be part of himher, and nothing else have life. What you have given "life" is not alive and symbolizes but your wish to be alive apart from life, alive in death, with death perceived as life, and living, death. Confusion follows on confusion here, for on confusion has this world been based, and there is nothing else it rests upon. Its basis does not change, although it seems to be in constant change. Yet what is that except the state confusion really means? Stability to those who are confused is meaningless, and shift and change become the law on which they predicate their lives.

¹⁶ The body does not change. It represents the larger dream that change is possible. To change is to attain a state unlike the one in which you found yourself before. There is no change in immortality, and the God Realm knows it not. Yet here on earth it has a double purpose, for it can be made to teach opposing things. And they reflect the teacher who is teaching them. The body can appear to change with time, with sickness or with health, and with events that seem to alter it. Yet this but means the mind remains unchanged in its belief of what the purpose of the body is.

¹⁷ Sickness is a demand the body be a thing that it is not. Its nothingness is guarantee that it can not be sick. In your demand that it be more than this lies the idea of sickness. For it asks that God be less than all HeShe really is. What, then, becomes of you, for it is you of whom the sacrifice is asked? For HeShe is told that part of HimHer belongs to HimHer no longer. HeShe must sacrifice your self, and in HisHer sacrifice are you made more, and HeShe is lessened by the loss of you.

And what is gone from HimHer becomes your god, protecting you from being part of HimHer.

¹⁸ The body that is asked to be a god will be attacked because its nothingness has not been recognized. And so it seems to be a thing with power in itself. As something, it can be perceived and thought to feel and act and hold you in its grasp as prisoner to itself. And it can fail to be what you demanded that it be. And you will hate it for its littleness, unmindful that the failure does not lie in that it is not more than it should be but only in your failure to perceive that it is nothing. Yet its nothingness is your salvation, from which you would flee.

¹⁹ As "something" is the body asked to be God's enemy, replacing what HeShe is with littleness and limit and despair. It is HisHer loss you celebrate when you behold the body as a thing you love, or look upon it as a thing you hate. For if HeShe be the sum of everything, then what is not in HimHer does not exist, and HisHer completion is its nothingness. Your savior or savioress is not dead, nor does he or she dwell in what was built as temple unto death. He or she lives in God, and it is this that makes him or her savior or savioress unto you, and only this. His or her body's nothingness releases yours from sickness and from death. For what is yours cannot be more nor less than what is his or hers.

IV. God's Witnesses

²⁰ Condemn your savior or savioress not because he or she thinks he or she is a body. For beyond his or her dreams is his or her reality. But he or she must learn he or she is a savior or savioress first, before he or she can remember what he or she is. And he or she must save who would be saved. On saving you depends his or her happiness. For who is savior or savioress but the one who gives salvation? Thus he or she learns it must be his or her to give. Unless he or she gives, he or she will not know he or she has, for giving is the proof of having. Only those who think that God is lessened by their strength could fail to understand this must be so. For who could give unless he or she has, and who could lose by giving what must be increased thereby?

²¹ Think you the FatherMother lost HimHerself when HeShe created and manifested you? Was HeShe made weak because HeShe shared HisHer love? Was HeShe made incomplete by your perfection? Or are you the proof that HeShe is perfect and complete? Deny HimHer not HisHer witness in the dream HisHer SonDaughter prefers to hantshendes reality. HeShe must be savior or savioress from the dream he or she made, that he or she be free of it. HeShe must see someone else as not a body, one with him, without the wall the world has built to keep apart all living things who know not that they live. Within the dream of bodies and of death is yet one theme of truth—no more, perhaps, than just a tiny spark, a space of light created and manifested in the dark, where God still shines.

²² You cannot wake yourself. Yet you can let yourself be wakened. You can overlook your brother's or sister's dreams. So perfectly can you forgive him or her his or her illusions, he or she becomes your savior or savior from your dreams. And as you see him or her shining in the space of light where God abides within the darkness, you will see that God HimHerself is where his or her body is. Before this light the body disappears, as heavy shadows must give way to light. The darkness cannot choose that it remain. The coming of the light means it is gone. In glory will you see your brother or sister then and understand what really fills the gap so long perceived as keeping you apart.

²³ There, in its place, God's Witness has set forth the gentle way of kindness to God's SonDaughter. Whom you forgive is given power to forgive you your illusions. By your gift of freedom is it given unto you. Make way for love, which you did not create and manifest, but which you can extend. On earth this means forgive your brother or sister, that the darkness may be lifted from your mind. When light has come to him or her through your forgiveness, he or she will not forget his or her savior or savior, leaving him or her unsaved. For it was in your face he or she saw the light that he or she would keep beside him or her as he or she walks through darkness to the everlasting light.

²⁴ How holy are you, that the SonDaughter of God can be your savior or savior in the midst of dreams of desolation and disaster. See how eagerly he or she comes and steps aside from heavy shadows that have hidden him or her and shines on you in gratitude and love. He or she is himself or herself, but not himself or herself alone. And as his or her FatherMother lost not part of HimHer in your manifested creation, so the light in him or her is brighter still because you gave your light to him or her to save him or her from the dark. And now the light in you must be as bright as shines in him or her. This is the spark that shines within the dream—that you can help him or her waken and be sure his or her waking eyes will rest on you. And in his or her glad salvation, you are saved.

V. Dream Roles

²⁵ Do you believe that truth can be but some illusions? They are dreams because they are not true. Their equal lack of truth becomes the basis for the miracle, which means that you have understood that dreams are dreams and that escape depends not on the dream, but only on awaking. Could it be some dreams are kept and others wakened from? The choice is not between which dreams to keep, but only if you want to live in dreams or to awaken from them. Thus it is the miracle does not select some dreams to leave untouched by its beneficence. You cannot dream some dreams and wake from some, for you are either sleeping or awake. And dreaming goes with only one of these.

²⁶ The dreams you think you like would hold you back as much as those in which the fear is seen. For every dream is but a dream of fear, no matter what the form it seems to take. The fear is seen within, without, or both. Or it can be disguised in pleasant form. But never is it absent from the dream, for fear is the material of dreams from which they all are made. Their form can change, but they cannot be made of something else. The miracle were treacherous indeed if it allowed you still to be afraid because you did not recognize the fear. You would not then be willing to awake, for which the miracle prepares the way.

²⁷ In simplest form it can be said attack is a response to function unfulfilled as you perceive the function. It can be in you or someone else, but where it is perceived, it will be there it is attacked. Depression or assault must be theme of every dream, for they are made of fear. The thin disguise of pleasure and of joy in which they may be wrapped but slightly veils the heavy lump of fear which is their core. And it is this the miracle perceives, and not the wrappings in which it is bound.

²⁸ When you are angry, is it not because someone has failed to fill the function you allotted him or her? And does not this become the "reason" your attack is justified? The dreams you think you like are those in which the functions you have given have been filled, the needs which you ascribe to you are met. It does not matter if they be fulfilled or merely wanted. It is the idea that they exist from which the fears arise. Dreams are not wanted more or less. They are desired or not. And each one represents some function which you have assigned, some goal which an event, or body, or a thing should represent and should achieve for you. If it succeeds, you think you like the dream. If it should fail, you think the dream is sad. But whether it succeeds or fails is not its core but just the flimsy covering.

²⁹ How happy would your dreams become if you were not the one who gave the "proper" role to every figure which the dream contains. No one can fail but your idea of him or her, and there is no betrayal but of this. The core of dreams the Holy Spirit gives is never one of fear. The coverings may not appear to change, but what they mean has changed because they cover something else. Perceptions are determined by their purpose in that they seem to be what they are for. A shadow figure who attacks becomes a brother or sister giving you a chance to help if this becomes the function of the dream. And dreams of sadness thus are turned to joy.

³⁰ What is your brother or sister for? You do not know because your function is obscure to you. Do not ascribe a role to him or her which you imagine would bring happiness to you. And do not try to hurt him or her when he or she fails to take the part which you assigned to him or her in what you dream your life was meant to be. He or she asks for help in every dream he or she has, and you have help to give him or her if you see the function of the dream as She perceives its function, Who can utilize all dreams as means to serve the function given Her. Because She loves the dreamer not the dream, each dream becomes an offering of love. For at its center is Her love for you, which lights whatever form it takes with love.

VI. The Changeless Dwelling Place

³¹ There is a place in you where this whole world has been forgotten, where no memory of sin and of illusion lingers still. There is a place in you which time has left, and echoes of eternity are heard. There is a resting place so still no sound except a hymn to the God Realm rises up to gladden God the FatherMother and the SonDaughter. Where both abide are They remembered, both. And where They are is the God Realm and is peace. Think not that you can change Their dwelling place. For your Identity abides in Them, and where They are, forever must you be.

³² The changelessness of the God Realm is in you, so deep within that nothing in this world but passes by, unnoticed and unseen. The still infinity of endless peace surrounds you gently in its soft embrace, so strong and quiet, tranquil in the might of its CreatorManifestor; nothing can intrude upon the sacred SonDaughter of God within. Here is the role the Holy Spirit gives to you who wait upon the SonDaughter of God and would behold himher waken and be glad. Heshe is a part of you, and you of himher because heshe is hisher Father'sMother's SonDaughter and not for any purpose you may see in himher. Nothing is asked of you but to accept the changeless and eternal that abide in himher, for your Identity is there. The peace in you can but be found in himher. And every thought of love you offer himher but brings you nearer to your wakening to peace eternal and to endless joy.

³³ This sacred SonDaughter of God is like yourself—the mirror of hisher Father'sMother's love for you, the soft reminder of hisher Father'sMother's love by which heshe was created and manifested and which still abides in himhende, as it abides in you. Be very still and hear God's Voice in himher and let It tell you what hisher function is. Heshe was created and manifested that you might be whole, for only the complete can be a part of God's completion, Which created and manifested you.

³⁴ There is no gift the FatherMother asks of you but that you see in all manifested creation but the shining glory of HisHer gift to you. Behold HisHer SonDaughter, HisHer perfect gift in whom hisher FatherMother shines forever and to whom is all manifested creation given as hisher own. Because he or she has it is it given you, and where it lies in him or her, behold your peace. The quiet that surrounds you dwells in him, and from this quiet come the happy dreams in which your hands are joined in innocence. These are not hands that grasp in dreams of pain. They hold no sword, for they have left their hold on every vain illusion of the world. And being empty, they received instead a brother's or sister's hand in which completion lay.

³⁵ If you but knew the glorious goal that lies beyond forgiveness, you would not keep hold on any thought, however light the touch of evil on it may appear to be. For you would understand how great the cost of holding anything God did not give in minds that can direct the hand to bless and lead God's SonDaughter unto his or her Father'sMother's house. Would you not want to be a friend to him or her, created and manifested by his or her FatherMother as HisHer home? If God esteems him or her worthy of HimHerself, would you attack him or her with the hands of hate? Who would lay bloody hands on the God Realm itself and hope to find its peace? Your brother or sister thinks he or she holds the hand of death. Believe him or her not. But learn instead how blessed are you who can release him or her just by offering him or her yours.

³⁶ A dream is given you in which he or she is your savior or savior, not your enemy in hate. A dream is given you in which you have forgiven him or her for all his or her dreams of death—a dream of hope you share with him or her instead of dreaming evil separate dreams of hate. Why does it seem so hard to share this dream? Because unless the Holy Spirit gives the dream its function, it was made for hate and will continue in death's services. Each form it takes in some way calls for death. And those who serve the lord of death have come to worship in a separated world, each with his or her tiny spear and rusted sword to keep his or her ancient promises to die.

³⁷ Such is the core of fear in every dream that has been kept apart from use by Her Who sees a different function for a dream. When dreams are shared, they lose the function of attack and separation, even though it was for this that every dream was made. Yet nothing in the world of dreams remains without the hope of change and betterment, for here is not where changelessness is found. Let us be glad indeed that this is so and seek not the eternal in this world. Forgiving dreams are means to step aside from dreaming of a world outside yourself. And leading finally beyond all dreams unto the peace of everlasting life.

VII. Forgiveness and Peace

³⁸ How willing are you to forgive your brother or sister? How much do you desire peace instead of endless strife and misery and pain? These questions are the same in different form. Forgiveness is your peace, for herein lies the end of separation and the dream of danger and destruction, sin, and death; of madness and of murder, grief and loss. This is the "sacrifice" salvation asks and gladly offers peace instead of this.

³⁹ Swear not to die, you holy SonDaughter of God! You make a bargain that you cannot keep. The SonDaughter of Life cannot be killed. He or she is immortal as his or her FatherMother. What he or she is cannot be changed. He or she is the only thing in all the universe that must be one. What seems eternal all will have an end. The stars will disappear, and night and day will be no more. All things that come and go, the tides, the seasons, and the lives of men or women ; all things that change with time and bloom and fade will not return. Where time has set an end is not where the eternal is. God's SonDaughter can never change by what men or women made of himher. Heshe will be as heshe was and as heshe is, for time appointed not hisher destiny nor set the hour of hisher birth and death. Forgiveness will not change himher. Yet time waits upon forgiveness that the things of time may disappear because they have no use.

⁴⁰ Nothing survives its purpose. If it be conceived to die, then die it must unless it does not take this purpose as its own. Change is the only thing that can be made a blessing here, where purpose is not fixed, however changeless it appears to be. Think not that you can set a goal unlike God's purpose for you and establish it as changeless and eternal. You can give yourself a purpose that you do not have. But you can not remove the power to change your mind and see another purpose there. Change is the greatest gift God gave to all that you would make eternal, to ensure that only the God Realm would not pass away.

⁴¹ You were not born to die. You cannot change, because your function has been fixed by God. All other goals are set in time and change that time might be preserved, excepting one. Forgiveness does not aim at keeping time but at its ending when it has no use. Its purpose ended; it is gone. And where it once held seeming sway is now restored the function God established for HisHer SonDaughter in full awareness. Time can set no end to its fulfillment nor its changelessness. There is no death because the living share the function their CreatorManifestor gave to them. Life's function cannot be to die. It must be life's extension, that it be as one forever and forever without end.

⁴² This world will bind your feet and tie your hands and kill your body only if you think that it was made to crucify God's SonDaughter. For even though it was a dream of death, you need not let it stand for this to you. Let this be changed, and nothing in the world but must be changed as well. For nothing here but is defined as what you see it for. How lovely is the world whose purpose is forgiveness of God's SonDaughter! How free from fear, how filled with blessing and with happiness! And what a joyous thing it is to dwell a little while in such a happy place! Nor can it be forgot in such a world, it is a little while till timelessness comes quietly to take the place of time.

VIII. The Lingering Illusion

⁴³ Seek not outside yourself. For it will fail, and you will weep each time an idol or idolress falls. The God Realm cannot be found where it is not, and there can be no peace excepting there. Each idol or idolress that you worship when God calls will never answer in HisHer place. There is no other answer you can substitute and find the happiness HisHer answer brings. Seek not outside yourself. For all your pain comes simply from a futile search for what you want, insisting where it must be found. What if it is not there? Do you prefer that you be right or happy? Be you glad that you are told where happiness abides and seek no longer elsewhere. You will fail. But it is given you to know the truth and not to seek for it outside yourself.

⁴⁴ No one who comes here but must still have hope, some lingering illusion, or some dream that there is something outside of himself or herself that will bring happiness and peace to him or her. If everything is in him or her, this cannot be so. And therefore by his or her coming, he or she denies the truth about himself or herself and seeks for something more than everything, as if a part of it were separated off and found where all the rest of it is not. This is the purpose he or she bestows upon the body—that it seek for what he or she lacks and give him or her what would make himself or herself complete. And thus he or she wanders aimlessly about in search of something that he or she cannot find, believing that he or she is what he or she is not.

⁴⁵ The lingering illusion will impel him or her to seek out a thousand idols or idolresses and to seek beyond them for a thousand more. And each will fail him or her, all excepting one; for he or she will die and does not understand the idol or idolress that he or she seeks is but his or her death. Its form appears to be outside himself or herself. Yet does he or she seek to kill God's SonDaughter within and prove that he or she is victor or victoress over him or her. This is the purpose every idol or idolress has, for this the role that is assigned to it, and this the role that cannot be fulfilled.

⁴⁶ Whenever you attempt to reach a goal in which the body's betterment is cast as major beneficiary, you try to bring about your death. For you believe that you can suffer lack, and lack is death. To sacrifice is to give up and thus to be without and to have suffered loss. And by this giving up is life renounced. Seek not outside yourself. The search implies you are not whole within and fear to look upon your devastation and prefer to seek outside yourself for what you are.

⁴⁷ idols or idolresses must fall because they have no life, and what is lifeless is a sign of death. You came to die, and what would you expect but to perceive the signs of death you seek? No sadness and no suffering proclaims a message other than an idol or idolress found that represents a parody of life which in its lifelessness is really death, conceived as real and given living form. Yet each must fail and crumble and decay because a form of death cannot be life, and what is sacrificed cannot be whole.

⁴⁸ All idols or idolresses of this world were made to keep the truth within from being known to you and to maintain allegiance to the dream that you must find what is outside yourself to be complete and happy. It is vain to worship idols or idolresses in the hope of peace. God dwells within, and your completion lies in HimHer. No idol or idolress takes HisHer place. Look not to idols or idolresses. Do not seek outside yourself. Let us forget the purpose of the world the past has given it. For otherwise, the future will be like the past and but a series of depressing dreams in which all idols or idolresses fail you one by one, and you see death and disappointment everywhere.

⁴⁹ To change all this and open up a road of hope and of release in what appeared to be an endless circle of despair, you need but to decide you do not know the purpose of the world. You give it goals it does not have, and thus do you decide what it is for. You try to see in it a place of idols or idolresses found outside yourself, with power to make complete what is within by splitting what you are between the two. You choose your dreams, for they are what you wish, perceived as if it had been given you. Your idols or idolresses do what you would have them do and have the power you ascribe to them. And you pursue them vainly in the dream because you want their power as your own.

⁵⁰ Yet where are dreams but in a mind asleep? And can a dream succeed in making real the pictures it projects outside itself? Save time, my brothers and sisters; learn what time is for. And speed the end of idols or idolresses in a world made sad and sick by seeing idols or idolresses there. Your holy minds are altars unto God, and where HeShe is, no idols or idolresses can abide. The fear of God is but the fear of loss of idols or idolresses. It is not the fear of loss of your reality. But you have made of your reality an idol or idolress which you must protect against the light of truth. And all the world becomes the means by which this idol or idolress can be saved. Salvation thus appears to threaten life and offer death.

⁵¹ It is not so. Salvation seeks to prove there is no death, and only life exists. The sacrifice of death is nothing lost. An idol or idolress cannot take the place of God. Let HimHer remind you of HisHer love for you, and do not seek to drown HisHer Voice in chants of deep despair to idols or idolresses of yourself. Seek not outside your FatherMother for your hope. For hope of happiness is not despair.

IX. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and The Anti-Christ Consciousness/Anti Mercy Consciousness

⁵² What is an idol or idolress? Do you think you know? For idols or idolresses are unrecognized as such and never seen for what they really are. That is the only power which they have. Their purpose is obscure, and they are feared and worshipped both because you do not know what they are for and why they have been made. An idol or idolress is an image of your brother or sister which you would value more than what he or she is. Idols or idolresses are made that he or she may be replaced, no matter what their form. And it is this which never is perceived and recognized. Be it a body or a thing, a place, a situation or a circumstance, an object owned or wanted, or a right demanded or achieved, it is the same.

⁵³ Let not their form deceive you. Idols or idolresses are but substitutes for your reality. In some way, you believe they will complete your little self for safety in a world perceived as dangerous, with forces massed against your confidence and peace of mind. They have the power to supply your lacks and add the value which you do not have. No one believes in idols or idolresses who has not enslaved himself or herself to littleness and loss. And thus must seek beyond his or her little self for strength to raise his or her head and stand apart from all the misery the world reflects. This is the penalty for looking not within for certainty and quiet calm which liberates you from the world and lets you stand apart in quiet and in peace.

⁵⁴ An idol or idolress is a false impression or a false belief—some form of anti-Christ Consciousness/anti-Mercy Consciousness which constitutes a gap between the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and what you see. An idol or idolress is a wish made tangible and given form and thus perceived as real and seen outside the mind. Yet it is still a thought and cannot leave the mind that is its source. Nor is its form apart from the idea it represents. All forms of anti-Christ Consciousness/anti-Mercy Consciousness oppose the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and fall before Her face like a dark veil which seems to shut you off from Her, alone in darkness. Yet the light is there. A cloud does not put out the sun. No more a veil can banish what it seems to separate nor darken by one whit the light itself.

⁵⁵ This world of idols or idolresses is a veil across the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness because its purpose is to separate your brother or sister from yourself. A dark and fearful purpose, yet a thought without the power to change one blade of grass from something living to a sign of death. Its form is nowhere, for its source abides within your mind, where God abideth not. Where is this place where what is everywhere has been excluded and been kept apart? What hand could be held up to block God's way? Whose voice could make demand HeShe enter not? The "more-than-everything" is not a thing to make you tremble and to quail in fear. The Christ Consciousness's/the Mercy Consciousness's enemy is nowhere. He or she can take no form in which he or she ever will be real.

⁵⁶ What is an idol or idolress? Nothing! It must be believed before it seems to come to life and given power that it may be feared. Its life and power are its believer's gift, and this is what the miracle restores to what has life and power worthy of the gift of the God Realm and eternal peace. The miracle does not restore the truth, the light the veil between has not put out. It merely lifts the veil and lets the truth shine unencumbered, being what it is. It does not need belief to be itself, for it has been created and manifested, so it is. An idol or idolress is established by belief, and when it is withdrawn, the idol or idolress "dies."

⁵⁷ This is the anti-the Christ Consciousness/anti-Mercy Consciousness—the strange idea there is a power past omnipotence, a place beyond the infinite, a time transcending the eternal. Here the world of idols or idolresses has been set by the idea this power and place and time are given form and shape the world where the impossible has happened. Here the deathless come to die, the all-encompassing to suffer loss, the timeless to be made the slaves of time. Here does the changeless change; the peace of God, forever given to all living things, gives way to chaos. And the SonDaughter of God, as perfect, sinless and as loving as his or her FatherMother, come to hate a little while; to suffer pain, and finally to die.

⁵⁸ Where is an idol or idolress? Nowhere! Can there be a gap in what is infinite, a place where time can interrupt eternity? A place of darkness set where all is light, a dismal alcove separated off from what is endless, has no place to be. An idol or idolress is beyond where God has set all things forever and has left no room for anything to be except HisHer Will. Nothing and nowhere must an idol or idolress be while God is everything and everywhere.

⁵⁹ What purpose has an idol or idolress, then? What is it for? This is the only question which has the many answers, each depending on the one of whom the question has been asked. The world believes in idols or idolresses. No one comes unless he or she worshipped them and still attempts to seek for one that yet might offer him or her a gift reality does not contain. Each worshiper of idols or idolresses harbors hope his or her special deities will give him or her more than other men or women possess. It must be more. It does not really matter more of what—more beauty, more intelligence, more wealth, or even more affliction and more pain. But more of something is an idol or idolress for. And when one fails, another takes its place with hope of finding more of something else. Be not deceived by forms the "something" takes. An idol or idolress is a means for getting more. And it is this that is against God's Will.

⁶⁰ God has not the many SonDaughters, but only One. Who can have more, and who be given less? In the God Realm would the SonDaughter of God but laugh if idols or idolresses could intrude upon his or her peace. It is for himher the Holy Spirit speaks and tells you idols or idolresses have no purpose here. For more than the God Realm can you never have. If the God Realm is within, why would you seek for idols or idolresses which would make of the God Realm less, to give you more than God bestowed upon your brother or sister and on you as one with HimHer? God gave you all there is. And to be sure you could not lose it, did HeShe also give the same to every living thing as well. And thus is every living thing a part of you, as of HimHerself. No idol or idolress can establish you as more than God. But you will never be content with being less.

X. The Forgiving Dream

⁶¹ The slave of idols or idolresses is a willing slave. For willing he or she must be to let himself or herself bow down in worship to what has no life and seek for power in the powerless. What happened to the holy SonDaughter of God that this could be his or her wish—to let himself or herself fall lower than the stones upon the ground and look to idols or idolresses that they raise him or her up? Hear then your story in the dream you made, and ask yourself if it be not the truth that you believe that it is not a dream. A dream of judgment came into the mind that God created and manifested perfect as HimHerself. And in that dream was the God Realm changed to hell, and God made enemy unto HisHer SonDaughter.

⁶² How can God's SonDaughter awaken from the dream? It is a dream of judgment. So must he or she judge not, and he or she will waken. For the dream will seem to last while he or she is part of it. Judge not, for he or she who judges will have need of idols or idolresses which will hold the judgment off from resting on himself or herself. Nor can he or she know the Self he or she has condemned. Judge not, because you make yourself a part of evil dreams where idols or idolresses are your "true" identity and your salvation from the judgment laid in terror and in guilt upon yourself.

⁶³ All figures in the dream are idols or idolresses made to save you from the dream. Yet they are part of what they have been made to save you from. Thus does an idol or idolress keep the dream alive and terrible, for who could wish for one unless he or she were in terror and despair? And this the idol or idolress represents, and so its worship is the worship of despair and terror and the dream from which they come. Judgment is an injustice to God's SonDaughter, and it is justice that who judges himher will not escape the penalty he or she laid upon himself or herself within the dream he or she made. God knows of justice, not of penalty. But in the dream of judgment, you attack and are condemned and wish to be the slave of idols or idolresses which are interposed between your judgment and the penalty it brings.

⁶⁴ There can be no salvation in the dream as you are dreaming it. For idols or idolresses must be part of it to save you from what you believe you have accomplished and have done to make you sinful and put out the light within you. Little children, it is there. You do but dream, and idols or idolresses are the toys you dream you play with. Who has need of toys but children? They pretend they rule the world and give their toys the power to move about and talk and think and feel and speak for them. Yet everything their toys appear to do is in the minds of those who play with them. But they are eager to forget that they made up the dream in which their toys are real, nor recognize their wishes are their own.

⁶⁵ Nightmares are childish dreams. The toys have turned against the child who thought he or she made them real. Yet can a dream attack? Or can a toy grow large and dangerous and fierce and wild? This does the child believe because he or she fears his or her thoughts and gives them to the toys instead. And their reality becomes his or her own because they seem to save him or her from his or her thoughts. Yet do they keep his or her thoughts alive and real but seen outside himself or herself, where they can turn against him or her for his or her treachery to them. He or she thinks he or she needs them that he or she may escape his or her thoughts, because he or she thinks the thoughts are real. And so he or she makes of anything a toy to make his or her world remain outside himself or herself, and play that he or she is but a part of it.

⁶⁶ There is a time when childhood should be passed and gone forever. Seek not to retain the toys of children. Put them all away, for you have need of them no more. The dream of judgment is a children's game in which the child becomes the father and the mother, powerful, but with the little wisdom of a child. What hurts him or her is destroyed; what helps him or her, blessed. Except he or she judges this as does a child, who does not know what hurts and what will heal. And bad things seem to happen, and he or she is afraid of all the chaos in a world he or she thinks is governed by the laws he or she made. Yet is the real world unaffected by the world he or she thinks is real. Nor have its laws been changed because he or she did not understand.

⁶⁷ The real world still is but a dream. Except the figures have been changed. They are not seen as idols or idolresses which betray. It is a dream in which no one is used to substitute for something else nor interposed between the thoughts the mind conceives and what it sees. No one is used for something he or she is not, for childish things have all been put away. And what was once a dream of judgment now has changed into a dream where all is joy because that is the purpose which it has. Only forgiving dreams can enter here, for time is almost over. And the forms which enter in the dream are now perceived as brothers and sisters, not in judgment but in love.

⁶⁸ Forgiving dreams have little need to last. They are not made to separate the mind from what it thinks. They do not seek to prove the dream is being dreamed by someone else. And in these dreams a melody is heard which everyone remembers, though he or she has not heard it since before all time began. Forgiveness, once complete, brings timelessness so close the song of the God Realm can be heard, not with the ears, but with the holiness which never left the altar which abides forever deep within the SonDaughter of God. And when heshe hears this song again, heshe knows heshe never heard it not. And where is time, when dreams of judgment have been put away?

⁶⁹ Whenever you feel fear in any form—and you are fearful if you do not feel a deep content, a certainty of help, a calm assurance the God Realm goes with you—be sure you made an idol or idolress and believe it will betray you. For beneath your hope that it will save you lie the guilt and pain of self-betrayal and uncertainty, so deep and bitter that the dream cannot conceal completely all your sense of doom. Your self-betrayal must result in fear, for fear is judgment, leading surely to the frantic search for idols or idolresses and for death.

⁷⁰ Forgiving dreams remind you that you live in safety and have not attacked yourself. So do your childish terrors melt away and dreams become a sign that you have made a new beginning, not another try to worship idols or idolresses and to keep attack. Forgiving dreams are kind to everyone who figures in the dream. And so they bring the dreamer full release from dreams of fear. He or she does not fear his or her judgment, for he or she has judged no one, nor has sought to be released through judgment from what judgment must impose. And all the while he or she is remembering what he or she forgot when judgment seemed to be the way to save him or her from its penalty.

Chapter Thirty:

The New Beginning

I. Introduction

¹ The new beginning now becomes the focus of the curriculum. The goal is clear, but now you need specific methods for attaining it. The speed by which it can be reached depends on this one thing alone—your willingness to practice every step. Each one will help a little every time it is attempted. And together will these steps lead you from dreams of judgment to forgiving dreams and out of pain and fear. They are not new to you, but they are more ideas than rules of thought to you as yet. So now we need to practice them awhile, until they are the rules by which you live. We seek to make them habits now, so you will have them ready for whatever need.

II. Rules For Decision

² Decisions are continuous. You do not always know when you are making them. But with a little practice with the ones you recognize, a set begins to form which sees you through the rest. It is not wise to let yourself become preoccupied with every step you take. The proper set, adopted consciously each time you wake, will put you well ahead. And if you find resistance strong and dedication weak, you are not ready. Do not fight yourself. But think about the kind of day you want and tell yourself there is a way in which this very day can happen just like that. Then try again to have the day you want.

1. ³ The outlook starts with this:

⁴ Today I will make no decision by myself.

⁵ This means that you are choosing not to be the judge of what to do. But it must also mean you will not judge the situations where you will be called upon to make response. For if you judge them, you have set the rules for how you should react to them. And then another answer cannot but produce confusion and uncertainty and fear.

⁶ This is your major problem now. You still make up your mind and then decide to ask what you should do. And what you hear may not resolve the problem as you saw it first. This leads to fear because it contradicts what you perceive, and so you feel attacked. And therefore angry. There are rules by which this will not happen. But it does occur at first, while you are learning how to hear.

2. ⁷ Throughout the day, at any time you think of it and have a quiet moment for reflection, tell yourself again the kind of day you want, the feelings you would have, the things you want to happen to you, and the things you would experience and say,

⁸ *If I make no decision by myself,
This is the day that will be given me.*

⁹ These two procedures, practiced well, will serve to let you be directed without fear, for opposition will not first arise and then become a problem in itself.

¹⁰ But there will still be times when you have judged already. Now the answer will provoke attack unless you quickly straighten out your mind to want an answer that will work. Be certain this has happened if you feel yourself unwilling to sit by and ask to have the answer given you. This means you have decided by yourself and cannot see the question. Now you need a quick restorative before you ask.

3. ¹¹ Remember once again the day you want and recognize that something has occurred which is not part of it. Then realize that you have asked a question by yourself and must have set an answer in your terms. Then say, ¹² I have no question. I forgot what to decide.

¹³ This cancels out the terms which you have set and lets the answer show you what the question must have really been.

¹⁴ Try to observe this rule without delay despite your opposition. For you have already gotten angry, and your fear of being answered in a different way from what your version of the question asks will gain momentum until you believe the day you want is one in which you get your answer to your question. And you will not get it, for it would destroy the day by robbing you of what you really want. This can be very hard to realize when once you have decided by yourself the rules which promise you a happy day. Yet this decision still can be undone by simple methods which you can accept.

4. ¹⁵ If you are so unwilling to receive you cannot even let your question go, you can begin to change your mind with this:

¹⁶ At least I can decide I do not like what I feel now.

¹⁷ This much is obvious and paves the way for the next easy step.

5. ¹⁸ Having decided that you do not like the way you feel, what could be easier than to continue with,

¹⁹ And so I hope I have been wrong.

²⁰ This works against the sense of opposition and reminds you that help is not being thrust upon you but is something that you want and that you need, because you do not like the way you feel. This tiny opening will be enough to let you go ahead with just a few more steps you need to let yourself be helped.

²¹ Now you have reached the turning point, because it has occurred to you that you will gain if what you have decided is not so. Until this point is reached, you will believe your happiness depends on being right. But this much reason have you now attained—you would be better off if you were wrong.

6. ²² This tiny grain of wisdom will suffice to take you further. You are not coerced but merely hope to get a thing you want. And you can say in perfect honesty, ²³ I want another way to look at this.

²⁴ Now you have changed your mind about the day and have remembered what you really want. Its purpose has no longer been obscured by the insane belief you want it for the goal of being right when you are wrong. Thus is the readiness for asking brought to your awareness, for you cannot be in conflict when you ask for what you want and see that it is this for which you ask.

7. ²⁵ This final step is but acknowledgment of lack of opposition to be helped. It is a statement of an open mind, not certain yet, but willing to be shown:

²⁶ *Perhaps there is another way to look at this.
What can I lose by asking?*

²⁷ Thus you now can ask a question that makes sense, and so the answer will make sense as well. Nor will you fight against it, for you see that it is you who will be helped by it.

²⁸ It must be clear that it is easier to have a happy day if you prevent unhappiness from entering at all. But this takes practice in the rules which will protect you from the ravages of fear. When this has been achieved, the sorry dream of judgment has forever been undone. But meanwhile, you have need for practicing the rules for its undoing. Let us, then, consider once again the very first of the decisions which are offered here.

²⁹ We said you can begin a happy day with the determination not to make decisions by yourself. This seems to be a real decision in itself. And yet, you cannot make decisions by yourself. The only question really is with what you choose to make them. That is really all. The first rule, then, is not coercion but a simple statement of a simple fact. You will not make decisions by yourself whatever you decide. For they are made with idols or idolresses or with God. And you ask help of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness or the anti-Christ Consciousness/the anti-Mercy Consciousness, and which you choose will join with you and tell you what to do.

³⁰ Your day is not at random. It is set by what you choose to live it with and how the friend or female friend whose counsel you have sought perceives your happiness. You always ask advice before you can decide on anything. Let this be understood, and you can see there cannot be coercion here nor grounds for opposition that you may be free. There is no freedom from what must occur. And if you think there is, you must be wrong.

³¹ The second rule as well is but a fact. For you and your advisor/advisoress must agree on what you want before it can occur. It is but this agreement which permits all things to happen. Nothing can be caused without some form of union, be it with a dream of judgment or the Voice for God. Decisions cause results because they are not made in isolation. They are made by you and your advisor for yourself and for the world as well. The day you want you offer to the world, for it will be what you have asked for and will reinforce the rule of your advisor in the world. Whose realm is the world for you today? What kind of day will you decide to have?

³² It needs but two who would have happiness this day to promise it to all the world. It needs but two to understand that they cannot decide alone to guarantee the joy they asked for will be wholly shared. For they have understood the basic law that makes decision powerful and gives it all effects that it will ever have. It needs but two. These two are joined before there can be a decision. Let this be the one reminder that you keep in mind, and you will have the day you want and give it to the world by having it yourself. Your judgment has been lifted from the world by your decision for a happy day. And as you have received, so must you give.

III. Freedom of Will

³³ Do you not understand that to oppose the Holy Spirit is to fight yourself? She tells you but your will; She speaks for you. In Her divinity is but your own. And all She knows is but your knowledge, saved for you that you may do your will through Her. God asks you do your will. HeShe joins with you. HeShe did not set HisHer Realm up alone. And the God Realm itself but represents your will, where everything created and manifested is for you. No spark of life but was created and manifested with your glad consent, as you would have it be. And not one Thought that God has ever had but waited for your blessing to be born. God is no enemy to you. HeShe asks no more than that HeShe hear you call HimHer "Friend."

³⁴ How wonderful it is to do your will! For that is freedom. There is nothing else that ever should be called by freedom's name. Unless you do your will, you are not free. And would God leave HisHer SonDaughter without what HeShe has chosen for HimHerself? God but ensured that you would never lose your will when HeShe gave you HisHer perfect answer. Hear it now that you may be reminded of HisHer love and learn your will. God would not have HisHer SonDaughter made prisoner to what HeShe does not want. HeShe joins with you in willing you be free. And to oppose HimHer is to make a choice against yourself and choose that you be bound.

³⁵ Look once again upon your enemy, the one you chose to hate instead of love. For thus was hatred born into the world, and thus the rule of fear established there. Now hear God speak to you through Her Who is HisHer Voice and yours as well, reminding you that it is not your will to hate and be a prisoner to fear, a slave to death, a little manifested creature with a little life. Your will is boundless; it is not your will that it be bound. What lies in you has joined with God HimHerself in all creation'smanifestation's birth. Remember HeShe Who has created and manifested you and through your will created and manifested everything. Not one created and manifested thing but gives you thanks, for it is by your will that it was born. No light of the God Realm shines except for you, for it was set in the God Realm by your will.

³⁶ What cause have you for anger in a world which merely waits your blessing to be free? If you be prisoner, then God HimHerself could not be free. For what is done to himher whom God so loves is done to God

HimHerself. Think not HeShe wills to bind you, Who has made you co-CreatorManifestor of the universe along with HimHer. HeShe would but keep your will forever and forever limitless.

³⁷ This world awaits the freedom you will give when you have recognized that you are free. But you will not forgive the world until you have forgiven HimHer Who gave your will to you. For it is by your will the world is given freedom. Nor can you be free apart from HimHer Whose holy Will you share. God turns to you to ask the world be saved, for by your own salvation it is healed. And no one walks upon the earth but must depend on your decision, that he or she learn death has no power over him or her because he or she shares your freedom as he or she shares your will. It is your will to heal him, and because you have decided with him or her, he or she is healed. And now is God forgiven, for you chose to look upon your brother or sister as a friend.

IV. Beyond All idols or idolresses

³⁸ idols or idolresses are quite specific. But your will is universal, being limitless. And so it has no form nor is content for its expression in the terms of form. Idols or idolresses are limits. They are the belief that there are forms which will bring happiness and that, by limiting, is all attained. It is as if you said, "I have no need of everything. This little thing I want, and it will be as everything to me." And this must fail to satisfy because it is your will that everything be yours. Decide for idols or idolresses, and you ask for loss. Decide for truth, and everything is yours.

³⁹ It is not form you seek. What form can be a substitute for God the Father'sMother's love? What form can take the place of all the love in the divinity of God the SonDaughter? What idol or idolress can make two of what is one? And can the limitless be limited? You do not want an idol or idolress. It is not your will to have one. It will not bestow on you the gift you seek. When you decide upon the form of what you want, you lose the understanding of its purpose. So you see your will within the idol or idolress, thus reducing it to a specific form. Yet this could never be your will because what shares in all manifested creation cannot be content with small ideas and little things.

⁴⁰ Behind the search for every idol or idolress lies the yearning for completion. Wholeness has no form because it is unlimited. To seek a special person or a thing to add to you to make yourself complete can only mean that you believe some form is missing. And by finding this, you will achieve completion in a form you like. This is the purpose of an idol or idolress—that you will not look beyond it to the source of the belief that you are incomplete. Only if you had sinned could this be so. For sin is the idea you are alone and separated off from what is whole.

And thus it would be necessary for the search for wholeness to be made beyond the boundaries of limits on yourself.

⁴¹ It never is the idol or idolress that you want. But what you think it offers you, you want indeed and have the right to ask for. Nor could it be possible it be denied. Your will to be complete is but God's will, and this is given you by being HisHers. God knows not form. HeShe cannot answer you in terms which have no meaning. And your will could not be satisfied with empty forms made but to fill a gap which is not there. It is not this you want. Manifested creation gives no separate person and no separate thing the power to complete the SonDaughter of God. What idol or idolress can be called upon to give the SonDaughter of God what heshe already has?

⁴² Completion is the function of God's SonDaughter. Heshe has no need to seek for it at all. Beyond all idols or idolresses stands hisher holy will to be but what heshe is. For more than whole is meaningless. If there were change in himher, if heshe could be reduced to any form and limited to what is not in himher, heshe would not be as God created and manifested himher. What idol or idolress can heshe need to be himherself? For can heshe give a part of himher away? What is not whole cannot make whole. But what is really asked for cannot be denied. Your will is granted. Not in any form that would content you not, but in the whole completely lovely Thought God holds of you.

⁴³ Nothing that God knows not exists. And what HeShe knows exists forever, changelessly. For thoughts endure as long as does the mind that thought of them. And in the Mind of God there is no ending nor a time in which HisHer Thoughts were absent or could suffer change. Thoughts are not born and cannot die. They share the attributes of their creatormanifestor, nor have they a separate life apart from his or hers. The thoughts you think are in your mind, as you are in the Mind Which thought of you. And so there are no separate parts in what exists within God's Mind. It is forever one, eternally united and at peace.

⁴⁴ Thoughts seem to come and go. Yet all this means is that you are sometimes aware of them and sometimes not. An unremembered thought is born again to you when it returns to your awareness. Yet it did not die when you forgot it. It was always there, but you were unaware of it. The Thought God holds of you is perfectly unchanged by your forgetting. It will always be exactly as it was before the time when you forgot and will be just the same when you remember. And it is the same within the interval when you forgot.

⁴⁵ The Thoughts of God are far beyond all change and shine forever. They await not birth. They wait for welcome and remembering. The Thought God holds of you is like a star, unchangeable in an eternal sky.

So high in the God Realm is it set that those outside of the God Realm know not it is there. Yet still and white and lovely will it shine through all eternity. There was no time it was not there; no instant when its light grew dimmer or less perfect ever was.

⁴⁶ Who knows the FatherMother knows this light, for HeShe is the eternal sky which holds it safe, forever lifted up, and anchored sure. Its perfect purity does not depend on whether it is seen on earth or not. The sky embraces it and softly holds it in its perfect place, which is as far from earth as earth from the God Realm. It is not the distance nor the time which keeps this star invisible to earth. But those who seek for idols or idolresses cannot know this star is there.

⁴⁷ Beyond all idols or idolresses is the Thought God holds of you completely unaffected by the turmoil and the terror of the world, the dreams of birth and death that here are dreamed, the myriad of forms that fear can take; quite undisturbed, the Thought God holds of you remains exactly as it always was. Surrounded by a stillness so complete no sound of battle comes remotely near, it rests in certainty and perfect peace. Here is your one reality kept safe, completely unaware of all the world that worships idols or idolresses and that knows not God. In perfect sureness of its changelessness and of its rest in its eternal home, the Thought God holds of you has never left the Mind of its CreatorManifestor Whom it knows, as its CreatorManifestor knows that it is there.

⁴⁸ Where could the Thought God holds of you exist but where you are? Is your reality a thing apart from you and in a world which your reality knows nothing of? Outside you there is no eternal sky, no changeless star, and no reality. The Mind of the God Realm 's SonDaughter in the God Realm is, for there the Mind of FatherMother and SonDaughter joined in manifested creation which can have no end. You have not two realities, but one. Nor can you be aware of more than one. An idol or idolress or the Thought God holds of you is your reality. Forget not, then, that idols or idolresses must keep hidden what you are, not from the Mind of God, but from your own. The star shines still; the sky has never changed. But you, the holy SonDaughter of God HimHerself, are unaware of your reality.

V. The Truth Behind Illusions

⁴⁹ You will attack what does not satisfy, and thus you will not see you made it up. You always fight illusions. For the truth behind them is so lovely and so still in loving gentleness, were you aware of it you would forget defensiveness entirely and rush to its embrace. The truth could never be attacked. And this you knew when you made idols or idolresses. They were made that this might be forgotten. You attack but false ideas and never truthful ones. All idols or idolresses are the false ideas you made to fill the gap you think arose between yourself and what is true. And you attack them for the things you think they represent. What lies beyond them cannot be attacked.

⁵⁰ The wearying, dissatisfying gods you made are blown-up children's toys. A child is frightened when a wooden head springs up as a closed box is opened suddenly or when a soft and silent wooly bear begins to squeak as he or she takes hold of it. The rules he or she made for boxes and for bears have failed him or her and have broken his or her "control" of what surrounds him or her. And he or she is afraid because he or she thought the rules protected him or her. Now must he or she learn the boxes and the bears did not deceive him, broke no rules, nor mean his or her world is made chaotic and unsafe. He or she was mistaken. HeShe misunderstood what made him or her safe and thought that it had left.

⁵¹ The gap that is not there is filled with toys in countless forms. And each one seems to break the rules you set for it. It never was the thing you thought. It must appear to break your rules for safety, since the rules were wrong. But you are not endangered. You can laugh at popping heads and squeaking toys, as does the child who learns they are no threat to him or her. Yet while he or she likes to play with them, he or she still perceives them as obeying rules he or she made for his or her enjoyment. So there still are rules which they can seem to break and frighten him or her. Yet is he or she at the mercy of his or her toys? And can they represent a threat to him or her?

⁵² Reality observes the laws of God, and not the rules you set. It is HisHer laws which guarantee your safety. All illusions that you believe about yourself obey no laws. They seem to dance a little while, according to the rules you set for them. But then they fall and cannot rise again. They are but toys, my children. Do not grieve for them. Their dancing never brought you joy. But neither were they things to frighten you nor make you safe if they obeyed your rules. They must be neither cherished nor attacked but merely looked upon as children's toys without a single meaning of their own. See one in them, and you will see them all. See none in them, and they will touch you not.

⁵³ Appearances deceive because they are appearances and not reality. Dwell not on them in any form. They but obscure reality, and they bring fear because they hide the truth. Do not attack what you have made to let you be deceived, for thus you prove that you have been deceived. Attack has power to make illusions real. Yet what it makes is nothing. Who could be made fearful by a power that can have no real effects at all? What could it be but an illusion, making things appear like to itself? Look calmly at its toys and understand that they are idols or idolresses which but dance to vain desires. Give them not your worship, for they are not there. Yet this is equally forgotten in attack. God's SonDaughter needs no defense against hisher dreams. His or her idols or idolresses do not threaten him or her at all. His or her one mistake is that he or she thinks them real. What can the power of illusions do?

⁵⁴ Appearances can but deceive the mind that wants to be deceived. And you can make a simple choice that will forever place you far beyond deception. You need not concern yourself with how this will be done, for this you cannot understand. But you will understand that mighty changes have been quickly brought about when you decide one very simple thing—you do not want whatever you believe an idol or idolress gives. For thus the SonDaughter of God declares that he or she is free of idols or idolresses. And thus is he or she free.

⁵⁵ Salvation is a paradox indeed! What could it be except a happy dream? It asks you but that you forgive all things that no one ever did, to overlook what is not there, and not to look upon the unreal as reality. You are but asked to let your will be done and seek no longer for the things you do not want. And you are asked to let yourself be free of all the dreams of what you never were and seek no more to substitute the strength of idle wishes for the Will of God.

⁵⁶ Here does the dream of separation start to fade and disappear. For here the gap that is not there begins to be perceived without the toys of terror that you made. No more than this is asked. Be glad indeed salvation asks so little, not so much. It asks for nothing in reality. And even in illusions it but asks forgiveness be the substitute for fear. Such is the only rule for happy dreams. The gap is emptied of the toys of fear, and then its unreality is plain. Dreams are for nothing. And the SonDaughter of God can have no need of them. They offer himher no single thing that heshe could ever want. Heshe is delivered from illusions by hisher will and but restored to what heshe is. What could God's plan for hisher salvation be, except a means to give himher to HimHerself?

VI. The Only Purpose

⁵⁷ The real world is the state of mind in which the only purpose of the world is seen to be forgiveness. Fear is not its goal, and the escape from guilt becomes its aim. The value of forgiveness is perceived and takes the place of idols or idolresses which are sought no longer, for their "gifts" are not held dear. No rules are idly set, and no demands are made of anyone or anything to twist and fit into the dream of fear. Instead, there is a wish to understand all things created and manifested as they really are. And it is recognized that all things must be first forgiven, and then understood.

⁵⁸ Here, it is thought that understanding is acquired by attack. There, it is clear that by attack is understanding lost. The folly of pursuing guilt as goal is fully recognized. And idols or idolresses are not wanted there, for guilt is understood as the sole cause of pain in any form. No one is tempted by its vain appeal, for suffering and death have been perceived as things not wanted and not striven for. The possibility of freedom has been grasped and welcomed, and the means by which it can be gained can now be understood. The world becomes a place of hope because its only purpose is to be a place where hope of happiness can be fulfilled. And no one stands outside this hope because the world has been united in belief the purpose of the world is one which all must share if hope be more than just a dream.

⁵⁹ Not yet is the God Realm quite remembered, for the purpose of forgiveness still remains. Yet everyone is certain he or she will go beyond forgiveness, and he or she but remains until it is made perfect in himself or herself. HeShe has no wish for anything but this. And fear has dropped away because he or she is united in his or her purpose with himself or herself. There is a hope of happiness in him or her so sure and constant he or she can barely stay and wait a little longer with his or her feet still touching earth. Yet is he or she glad to wait till every hand is joined and every heart made ready to arise and go with him or her. For thus is he or she made ready for the step in which is all forgiveness left behind.

⁶⁰ The final step is God's because it is but God Who could create and manifest a perfect SonDaughter and share HisHer FatherhoodMotherhood with him or her. No one outside of the God Realm knows how this can be, for understanding this is the God Realm itself. Even the real world has a purpose still beneath manifested creation and eternity. But fear is gone because its purpose is forgiveness, not idolatry or idolressatry. And so is the God Realm's SonDaughter prepared to be himself or herself, and to remember that the SonDaughter of God knows everything his or her FatherMother understands and understands it perfectly with HimHer.

⁶¹ The real world still falls short of this, for this is God's own purpose—only His, and yet completely shared and perfectly fulfilled. The real world is a state in which the mind has learned how easily do idols or idolresses go when they are still perceived, but wanted not. How willingly the mind can let them go when it has understood that idols or idolresses are nothing and nowhere and are purposeless. For only then can guilt and sin be seen without a purpose and as meaningless.

⁶² Thus is the real world's purpose gently brought into awareness, to replace the goal of sin and guilt. And all that stood between your image of yourself and what you are, forgiveness washes joyfully away. Yet God need not create and manifest HisHer SonDaughter again that what is his or her be given back to him or her. The gap between your brother or sister and yourself was never there. And what the SonDaughter of God knew in manifested creation, he or she must know again.

⁶³ When brothers and sisters join in purpose in the world of fear, they stand already at the edge of the real world. Perhaps they still look back and think they see an idol or idolress that they want. Yet has their path been surely set away from idols or idolresses toward reality. For when they joined their hands, it was the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's hand they took, and they will look on HimHer Whose hand they hold. The face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is looked upon before the FatherMother is remembered. For HeShe must be unremembered till HisHer SonDaughter has reached beyond forgiveness to the love of God. Yet is the love of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness accepted first. And then will come the knowledge They are One.

⁶⁴ How light and easy is the step across the narrow boundaries of the world of fear when you have recognized Whose hand you hold! Within your hand is everything you need to walk with perfect confidence away from fear forever and to go straight on and quickly reach the gate of the God Realm itself. For She Whose hand you hold was waiting but for you to join Her. Now that you have come, would She delay in showing you the way that She must walk with you? Her blessing lies on you as surely as Her Father'sMother's love rests upon Her. Her gratitude to you is past your understanding, for you have enabled Her to rise from chains and go with you together to Her Father'sMother's house.

⁶⁵ An ancient hate is passing from the world. And with it goes all hatred and all fear. Look back no longer, for what lies ahead is all you ever wanted in your hearts. Give up the world! But not to sacrifice. You never wanted it. What happiness have you sought here that did not bring you pain? What moment of content has not been bought at fearful price in coins of suffering? Joy has no cost. It is your sacred right, and what you pay for is not happiness. Be speeded on your way by honesty, and let not your experiences here deceive in retrospect. They were not free from bitter cost and joyless consequence.

⁶⁶ Do not look back except in honesty. And when an idol or idolress tempts you, think of this:

⁶⁷ *There never was a time an idol or idolress brought
You anything except the "gift" of guilt.*

*Not one was bought except at cost of pain,
Nor was it ever paid by you alone.*

⁶⁸ Be merciful unto your brother or sister, then. And do not choose an idol or idolress thoughtlessly, remembering that he or she will pay the cost as well as you. For he or she will be delayed when you look back, and you will not perceive Whose loving hand you hold. Look forward, then, and walk in confidence with happy hearts that beat in hope and do not pound in fear.

⁶⁹ The Will of God forever lies in those whose hands are joined. Until they joined, they thought She was their enemy. But when they joined and shared a purpose, they were free to learn their will is one. And thus the Will of God must reach to their awareness. Nor can they forget for long that it is but their own.

VII. The Justification For Forgiveness

⁷⁰ Anger is never justified. Attack has no foundation. It is here escape from fear begins and will be made complete. Here is the real world given in exchange for dreams of terror. For it is on this forgiveness rests and is but natural. You are not asked to offer pardon where attack is due and would be justified. For this would mean that you forgive a sin by overlooking what is really there. This is not pardon. For it would assume that, by responding in a way which is not justified, your pardon will become the answer to attack that has been made. And thus is pardon inappropriate, by being granted where it is not due.

⁷¹ Pardon is always justified. It has a sure foundation. You do not forgive the unforgivable nor overlook a real attack that calls for punishment. Salvation does not lie in being asked to make unnatural responses which are inappropriate to what is real. Instead, it merely asks that you respond appropriately to what is not real by not perceiving what has not occurred. If pardon were unjustified, you would be asked to sacrifice your rights when you return forgiveness for attack. But you are merely asked to see forgiveness as the natural reaction to distress which rests on error and thus calls for help. Forgiveness is the only sane response. It keeps your rights from being sacrificed.

⁷² This understanding is the only change that lets the real world rise to take the place of dreams of terror. Fear cannot arise unless attack is justified, and if it had a real foundation, pardon would have none. The real world is achieved when you perceive the basis of forgiveness is quite real and fully justified. While you regard it as a gift unwarranted, it must uphold the guilt you would "forgive." Unjustified forgiveness is attack. And this is all the world can ever give. It pardons "sinners" sometimes but remains aware that they have sinned. And so they do not merit the forgiveness that it gives.

⁷³ This is the false forgiveness which the world employs to keep the sense of sin alive. And recognizing God is just, it seems impossible HisHer pardon could be real. Thus is the fear of God the sure result of seeing pardon as unmerited. No one who sees himself or herself as guilty can avoid the fear of God. But he or she is saved from this dilemma if he or she can forgive. The mind must think of its CreatorManifestor as it looks upon itself. If you can see your brother or sister merits pardon, you have learned forgiveness is your right as much as his or hers. Nor will you think that God intends for you a fearful judgment which your brother or sister does not merit. For it is the truth that you can merit neither more nor less than he or she.

⁷⁴ Forgiveness recognized as merited will heal. It gives the miracle its strength to overlook illusions. This is how you learn that you must be forgiven too. There can be no appearance that can not be overlooked. For if there were, it would be necessary first there be some sin which stands beyond forgiveness. There would be an error that is more than a mistake—a special form of error which remains unchangeable, eternal, and beyond correction or escape. There would be one mistake which had the power to undo manifested creation and to make a world which could replace it and destroy the Will of God. Only if this were possible could there be some appearances which could withstand the miracle and not be healed by it.

⁷⁵ There is no surer proof idolatry or idolressatry is what you wish than a belief there are some forms of sickness and of joylessness forgiveness cannot heal. This means that you prefer to keep some idols or idolresses and are not prepared as yet to let all idols or idolresses go. And thus you think that some appearances are real and not appearances at all. Be not deceived about the meaning of a fixed belief that some appearances are harder to look past than others are. It always means you think forgiveness must be limited. And you have set a goal of partial pardon and a limited escape from guilt for you. What can this be except a false forgiveness of yourself and everyone who seems apart from you?

⁷⁶ It must be true the miracle can heal all forms of sickness, or it cannot heal. Its purpose cannot be to judge which forms are real and which appearances are true. If one appearance must remain apart from healing, one illusion must be part of truth. And you could not escape all guilt, but only some of it. You must forgive God's SonDaughter entirely. Or you will keep an image of yourself that is not whole and will remain afraid to look within and find escape from every idol or idolress there. Salvation rests on faith there cannot be some forms of guilt which you cannot forgive. And so there cannot be appearances which have replaced the truth about God's SonDaughter.

⁷⁷ Look on your brother or sister with the willingness to see him or her as he or she is. And do not keep a part of him or her outside your willingness that he or she be healed. To heal is to make whole. And what is whole can have no missing parts that have been kept outside. Forgiveness rests on recognizing this and being glad there cannot be some forms of sickness which the miracle must lack the power to heal.

⁷⁸ God's SonDaughter is perfect, or heshe cannot be God's SonDaughter. Nor will you know himher if you think heshe does not merit the escape from guilt in all its forms and all its consequence. There is no way to think of him or her but this if you would know the truth about yourself:

⁷⁹ *I thank you, FatherMother, for your perfect SonDaughter,
And in hisher glory will I see my own.*

⁸⁰ Here is the joyful statement that there are no forms of evil which can overcome the Will of God—the glad acknowledgment that guilt has not succeeded by your wish to make illusions real. And what is this except a simple statement of the truth?

⁸¹ Look on your brother or sister with this hope in you, and you will understand he or she could not make an error that could change the truth in him or her. It is not difficult to overlook mistakes that have been given no effects. But what you see as having power to make an idol or idolress of the SonDaughter of God you will not pardon. For he or she has become to you a graven image and a sign of death. Is this your savior or saviorress? Is his or her FatherMother wrong about HisHer SonDaughter? Or have you been deceived in him or her who has been given you to heal, for your salvation and deliverance?

VIII. The New Interpretation

⁸² Would God have left the meaning of the world to your interpretation? If HeShe had, it has no meaning. For it cannot be that meaning changes constantly and yet is true. The Holy Spirit looks upon the world as with one purpose, changelessly established. And no situation can affect its aim but must be in accord with it. For only if its aim could change with every situation could each one be open to interpretation which is different every time you think of it. You add an element into the script you write for every minute in the day, and all that happens now means something else. You take away another element, and every meaning shifts accordingly.

⁸³ What do your scripts reflect except your plans for what the day should be? And thus you judge disaster and success, advance, retreat, and gain and loss. These judgments all are made according to the roles the script assigns. The fact they have no meaning in themselves is demonstrated by the ease with which these labels change with other judgments made on different aspects of experience. And then in looking back you think you see another meaning in what went before. What have you really done except to show there was no meaning there? But you assigned a meaning in the light of goals that change, with every meaning shifting as they change.

⁸⁴ Only a constant purpose can endow events with stable meaning. But it must accord one meaning to them all. If they are given different meanings, it must be that they reflect but different purposes. And this is all the meaning that they have. Can this be meaning? Can confusion be what meaning means? Perception cannot be in constant flux and make allowance for stability of meaning anywhere. Fear is a judgment never justified. Its presence has no meaning but to show you wrote a fearful script and are afraid accordingly. But not because the thing you fear has fearful meaning in itself.

⁸⁵ A common purpose is the only means whereby perception can be stabilized and one interpretation given to the world and all experiences here. In this shared purpose is one judgment shared by everyone and everything you see. You do not have to judge, for you have learned one meaning has been given everything, and you are glad to see it everywhere. It cannot change because you would perceive it everywhere, unchanged by circumstance. And so you offer it to all events, and let them offer you stability.

⁸⁶ Escape from judgment simply lies in this—all things have but one purpose which you share with all the world. And nothing in the world can be opposed to it, for it belongs to everything as it belongs to you. In single purpose is the end of all ideas of sacrifice, which must assume a different purpose for the one who gains and him or her who loses. There could be no thought of sacrifice apart from this idea. And it is this idea of different goals which makes perception shift and meaning change. In one united goal does this become impossible, for your agreement makes interpretation stabilize and last.

⁸⁷ How can communication really be established while the symbols which are used mean different things? The Holy Spirit's goal gives one interpretation, meaningful to you and to your brother or sister. Thus can you communicate with him or her and he or she with you. In symbols which you both can understand, the sacrifice of meaning is undone. All sacrifice entails the loss of your ability to see relationships among events. And looked at separately, they have no meaning. For there is no light by which they can be seen and understood. They have no purpose. And what they are for cannot be seen. In any thought of loss, there is no meaning. No one has agreed with you on what it means. It is a part of a distorted script which cannot be interpreted with meaning. It must be forever unintelligible. This is not communication. Your dark dreams are but the senseless, isolated scripts you write in sleep. Look not to separate dreams for meaning. Only dreams of pardon can be shared. They mean the same to both of you.

⁸⁸ Do not interpret out of solitude, for what you see means nothing. It will shift in what it stands for, and you will believe the world is an uncertain place in which you walk in danger and uncertainty. It is but your interpretations which are lacking in stability, for they are not in line with what you really are. This is a state so seemingly unsafe that fear must rise. Do not continue thus, my brothers and sisters. We have one Interpreter. And through Her use of symbols are we joined so that they mean the same to all of us. Our common language lets us speak to all our brothers and sisters and to understand with them forgiveness has been given to us all, and thus we can communicate again.

IX. Changeless reality

⁸⁹ Appearances deceive but can be changed. Reality is changeless. It does not deceive at all, and if you fail to see beyond appearances, you are deceived. For everything you see will change, and yet you thought it real before, and now you think it real again. Reality is thus reduced to form and capable of change. Reality is changeless. It is this that makes it real and keeps it separate from all appearances. It must transcend all form to be itself. It cannot change.

⁹⁰ The miracle is means to demonstrate that all appearances can change because they are appearances and cannot have the changelessness reality entails. The miracle attests salvation from appearances by showing they can change. Your brother or sister has a changelessness in him or her beyond appearance and deception both. It is obscured by changing views of him or her which you perceive as his or her reality. The happy dream about him or her takes the form of the appearance of his or her perfect health, his or her perfect freedom from all forms of lack, and safety from disaster of all kinds. The miracle is proof he or she is not bound by loss or suffering in any form because it can so easily be changed. This demonstrates that it was never real and could not stem from his or her reality. For that is changeless and has no effects which anything in the God Realm or on earth could ever alter. But appearances are shown to be unreal because they change.

⁹¹ What is temptation but a wish to make illusions real? It does not seem to be the wish that no reality be so. Yet it is an assertion that some forms of idols or idolresses have a powerful appeal which makes them harder to resist than those you would not want to have reality. Temptation, then, is nothing more than this—a prayer the miracle touch not some dreams but keep their unreality obscure and give to them reality instead. And the God Realm gives no answer to the prayer, nor can a miracle be given you to heal appearances you do not like. You have established limits. What you ask is given you, but not of God Who knows no limits. You have limited yourself.

⁹² Reality is changeless. Miracles but show what you have interposed between reality and your awareness is unreal and does not interfere at all. The cost of the belief there must be some appearances beyond the hope of change is that the miracle cannot come forth from you consistently. For you have asked it be withheld from power to heal all dreams. There is no miracle you cannot have when you desire healing. But there is no miracle that can be given you unless you want it. Choose what you would heal, and She Who gives all miracles has not been given freedom to bestow Her gifts upon God's SonDaughter. When he or she is tempted, he or she denies reality. And he or she becomes the willing slave of what he or she chose instead.

⁹³ Because reality is changeless is a miracle already there to heal all things that change and offer them to you to see in happy form, devoid of fear. It will be given you to look upon your brother or sister thus. But not while you would have it otherwise in some respects. For this but means you would not have him or her healed and whole. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her is perfect. Is it this that you would look upon? Then let there be no dreams about him or her which you would prefer to seeing this. And you will see the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her because you let Her come to you. And when She has appeared to you, you will be certain you are like Her, for She is the changeless in your brother or sister and in you.

⁹⁴ This will you look upon when you decide there is not one appearance you would hold in place of what your brother or sister really is. Let no temptation to prefer a dream allow uncertainty to enter here. Be not made guilty and afraid when you are tempted by a dream of what he or she is. But do not give it power to replace the changeless in him or her in your sight of him or her. There is no false appearance but will fade if you request a miracle instead. There is no pain from which he or she is not free if you would have him or her be but what he or she is. Why should you fear to see the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her? You but behold your Self in what you see.

As he or she is healed are you made free of guilt, for his or her appearance is your own to you.

Chapter Thirty One:

The Simplicity of Salvation

I. Introduction

¹ How simple is salvation! All it says is what was never true is not true now and never will be. The impossible has not occurred and can have no effects. And that is all. Can this be hard to learn by anyone who wants it to be true? Only unwillingness to learn it could make such an easy lesson difficult. How hard is it to see that what is false cannot be true, and what is true cannot be false? You can no longer say that you perceive no differences in false and true. You have been told exactly how to tell one from the other and just what to do if you become confused. Why then do you persist in learning not such simple things?

² There is a reason. But confuse it not with difficulty in the simple things salvation asks you learn. It teaches but the very obvious. It merely goes from one apparent lesson to the next in easy steps which lead you gently from one to another with no strain at all. This cannot be confusing, yet you are confused. For somehow you believe that what is totally confused is easier to learn and understand. What you have taught yourselves is such a giant learning feat it is indeed incredible. But you accomplished it because you wanted to and did not pause in diligence to judge it hard to learn, or too complex to grasp.

³ No one who understands what you have learned, how carefully you have learned it, and the pains to which you went to practice and repeat the lessons endlessly in every form you could conceive of them could ever doubt the power of your learning skill. There is no greater power in the world. The world was made by it and even now depends on nothing else. The lessons you have taught yourselves have been so overlearned and fixed they rise like heavy curtains to obscure the simple and the obvious. Say not you cannot learn them. For your power to learn is strong enough to teach you that your will is not your own, your thoughts do not belong to you, and even you are someone else.

⁴ Who could maintain that lessons such as these are easy? Yet you have learned more than this. You have continued, taking every step, however difficult, without complaint until a world was built that suited you. And every lesson that makes up the world arises from the first accomplishment of learning—an enormity so great the Holy Spirit's Voice seems small and still before its magnitude. The world began with one strange lesson, powerful enough to render God forgotten and HisHer SonDaughter an alien to himherself, in exile from the home where God HimHerself established himher. You who have taught yourselves the SonDaughter of God is guilty, say not that you cannot learn the simple things salvation teaches you!

⁵ Learning is an ability you made and gave yourselves. It was not made to do the Will of God but to uphold a wish that It could be opposed, and that a will apart from It was yet more real than It. And this has learning sought to demonstrate, and you have learned what it was made to teach. Now does your ancient overlearning stand implacable before the Voice of truth and teach you that Its lessons are not true, too hard to learn, too difficult to see, and too opposed to what is really true. Yet you will learn them, for their learning is the only purpose for your learning skill the Holy Spirit sees in all the world. Her simple lessons in forgiveness have a power mightier than yours because they call from God and from your Self to you.

⁶ Is this a little Voice, so small and still It cannot rise above the senseless noise of sounds which have no meaning? God willed not HisHer SonDaughter forget HimHer. And the power of HisHer Will is in the Voice that speaks for HimHer. Which lesson will you learn? What outcome is inevitable, sure as God, and far beyond all doubt and question? Can it be your little learning, strange in outcome and incredible in difficulty, will withstand the simple lessons being taught to you in every moment of each day, since time began and learning had been made?

⁷ The lessons to be learned are only two. Each has its outcome in a different world. And each world follows surely from its source. The certain outcome of the lesson that God's SonDaughter is guilty is the world you see. It is a world of terror and despair. Nor is there hope of happiness in it. There is no plan for safety you can make that ever will succeed. There is no joy that you can seek for here and hope to find. Yet this is not the only outcome which your learning can produce. However much you may have overlearned your chosen task, the lesson which reflects the love of God is stronger still. And you will learn God's SonDaughter is innocent and see another world.

⁸ The outcome of the lesson that God's SonDaughter is guiltless is a world in which there is no fear and everything is lit with hope and sparkles with a gentle friendliness. Nothing but calls to you in soft appeal to be your friend and let it join with you. And never does a call remain unheard, misunderstood, nor left unanswered in the selfsame tongue in which the call was made. And you will understand it was this call that everyone and everything within the world has always made, but you had not perceived it as it was. And now you see you were mistaken. You had been deceived by forms the call was hidden in. And so you did not hear it and had lost a friend who always wanted to be part of you. The soft, eternal calling of each part of God's manifested creation to the whole is heard throughout the world this second lesson brings.

⁹ There is no living thing which does not share the universal will that it be whole and that you do not leave its call unheard. Without your answer is it left to die, as it is saved from death when you have heard its calling as the ancient call to life and understood that it is but your own. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you remembers God with all the certainty with which She knows HisHer love. But only if HisHer SonDaughter is innocent can HeShe be Love. For God were fear indeed if heshe whom HeShe created and manifested innocent could be a slave to guilt. God's perfect SonDaughter remembers hisher manifested creation. But in guilt heshe has forgotten what heshe really is.

¹⁰ The fear of God results as surely from the lesson that HisHer SonDaughter is guilty as God's love must be remembered when he or she learns his or her innocence. For hate must father fear and look upon its father as itself. How wrong are you who fail to hear the call that echoes past each seeming call to death, that sings behind each murderous attack and pleads that love restore the dying world! You do not understand Who calls to you beyond each form of hate, each call to war. Yet you will recognize Her as you give Her answer in the language that She calls. She will appear when you have answered Her, and you will know in Her that God is Love.

¹¹ What is temptation but a wish to make the wrong decision on what you would learn and have an outcome that you do not want? It is the recognition that it is a state of mind unwanted that becomes the means whereby the choice is reassessed; another outcome seen to be preferred. You are deceived if you believe you want disaster and disunity and pain. Hear not the call for this within yourself. But listen, rather, to the deeper call beyond it that appeals for peace and joy. And all the world will give you joy and peace. For as you hear, you answer. And behold! Your answer is the proof of what you learned. Its outcome is the world you look upon.

¹² Let us be still an instant and forget all things we ever learned, all thoughts we had, and every preconception which we hold of what things mean and what their purpose is. Let us remember not our own ideas of what the world is for. We do not know. Let every image held of everyone be loosened from our minds and swept away. Be innocent of judgment, unaware of any thoughts of evil or of good that ever crossed your mind of anyone. Now do we know him or her not. But you are free to learn of him or her and learn of him or her anew. Now is he or she born again to you, and you are born again to him or her without the past that sentenced him or her to die, and you with him or her. Now is he or she free to live, as you are free because an ancient learning passed away and left a place for truth to be reborn.

II. The Illusion of an Enemy

¹³ An ancient lesson is not overcome by the opposing of the new and old. It is not vanquished that the truth be known nor fought against to lose to truth's appeal. There is no battle which must be prepared, no time to be expended, and no plans that need be laid for bringing in the new. There is an ancient battle being waged against the truth, but truth does not respond. Who could be hurt in such a war unless he or she hurts himself or herself? He or she has no enemy in truth. And can he or she be assailed by dreams?

¹⁴ Let us review again what seems to stand between you and the truth of what you are. For there are steps in its relinquishment. The first is a decision that you make. But afterwards the truth is given you. You would establish truth. And by your wish, you set two choices to be made each time you think you must decide on anything. Neither is true. Nor are they different. Yet must we see them both before you can look past them to the one alternative that is a different choice. But not in dreams you made that this might be obscured to you.

¹⁵ What you would choose between is not a choice and gives but the illusion it is free, for it will have one outcome either way. Thus is it really not a choice at all. The leader and the follower emerge as separate roles, each seeming to possess advantages you would not want to lose. So in their fusion there appears to be the hope of satisfaction and of peace. You see yourself divided into both these roles, forever split between the two. And every friend or enemy becomes a means to help you save yourself from this.

¹⁶ Perhaps you call it love. Perhaps you think that it is murder justified at last. You hate the one you gave the leader's role when you would have it, and you hate as well his or her not assuming it at times you want to let the follower in you arise and give away the role of leadership. And this is what you made your brother or sister for and learned to think that this his or her purpose is. Unless he or she serves it, he or she has not fulfilled the function that was given him or her by you. And thus he or she merits death because he or she has no purpose and no usefulness to you.

¹⁷ And what of him or her? What does he or she want of you? What could he or she want, but what you want of him or her? Herein is life as easily as death, for what you choose, you choose as well for him or her. Two calls you make to him or her, as he or she to you. Between these two is choice because from them there is a different outcome. If he or she be the leader or the follower to you, it matters not, for you have chosen death. But if he or she calls for death or calls for life, for hate or for forgiveness and for help, is not the same in outcome. Hear the one, and you are separate from him or her and are lost. But hear the other, and you join with him or her, and in your answer is salvation found. The voice you hear in him or her is but your own. What does he or she ask you for? And listen well! For he or she is asking what will come to you because you see an image of yourself and hear your voice requesting what you want.

¹⁸ Before you answer, pause to think of this:

¹⁹ The answer that I give my brother or sister is What I am asking for. And what I learn
 Of him or her is what I learn about myself.

²⁰ Then let us wait an instant and be still, forgetting everything we thought we heard; remembering how much we do not know. This brother or sister neither leads nor follows us but walks beside us on the selfsame road. He or she is like us, as near or far away from what we want as we will let him or her be. We make no gains he or she does not make with us, and we fall back if he or she does not advance. Take not his or her hand in anger but in love, for in his or her progress do you count your own. And we go separately along the way unless you keep him or her safely by your side.

²¹ Because he or she is your equal in God's love, you will be saved from all appearances and answer to the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness Who calls to you. Be still and listen. Think not ancient thoughts. Forget the dismal lessons that you learned about this SonDaughter of God who calls to you. The Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness calls to all with equal tenderness, seeing no leaders and no followers and hearing but one answer to them all. Because She hears one Voice, She cannot hear a different answer from the one She gave when God appointed Her HisHer only Daughter.

²² Be very still an instant. Come without all thought of what you ever learned before and put aside all images you made. The old will fall away before the new without your opposition or intent. There will be no attack upon the things you thought were precious and in need of care. There will be no assault upon your wish to hear a call that never has been made. Nothing will hurt you in this holy place to which you come to listen silently and learn the truth of what you really want. No more than this will you be asked to learn. But as you hear it, you will understand you need but come away without the thoughts you did not want and that were never true.

²³ Forgive your brother or sister all appearances, which are but ancient lessons that you taught yourself about the sinfulness in you. Hear but his or her call for mercy and release from all the fearful images he or she holds of what he or she is and of what you must be. He or she is afraid to walk with you and thinks perhaps a bit behind, a bit ahead, would be a safer place for him or her to be. Can you make progress if you think the same, advancing only when he or she would step back and falling back when he or she would go ahead? For so do you forget the journey's goal, which is but to decide to walk with him, so neither leads nor follows. Thus it is a way you go together, not alone. And in this choice is learning's outcome changed, for the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has been reborn to both of you.

²⁴ An instant spent without your old ideas of who your great companion is and what he or she should be asking for will be enough to let this happen. And you will perceive his or her purpose is the same as yours. He or she asks for what you want and needs the same as you. It takes perhaps a different form in him or her, but it is not the form you answer to. He or she asks and you receive, for you have come with but one purpose—that you both may learn you love each other with a brother's or sister's love. And as a brother or sister, must his or her Father/Mother be the same as yours, as he or she is like yourself.

²⁵ Together is your joint inheritance remembered and accepted by you both. Alone it is denied to both of you. Is it not clear that while you still insist on leading or on following, you think you walk alone with no one by your side? This is the road to nowhere, for the light cannot be given while you walk alone, and so you cannot see which way you go. And thus there is confusion and a sense of endless doubting as you stagger back and forward in the darkness and alone. Yet these are but appearances of what the journey is and how it must be made. For next to you is One Who holds the light before you so that every step is made in certainty and sureness of the road. A blindfold can indeed obscure your sight but cannot make the way itself grow dark. And She Who travels with you has the light.

III. The Self-Accused

²⁶ Only the self-accused condemn. As you prepare to make a choice that will result in different outcomes, there is first one thing that must be overlearned. It must become a habit of response so typical of everything you do that it becomes your first response to all temptation and to every situation that occurs. Learn this and learn it well, for it is here delay of happiness is shortened by a span of time you cannot realize. You never hate your brother or sister for his or her sins, but only for your own. Whatever form his or her sins appear to take, it but obscures the fact that you believe them to be yours and therefore meriting a "just" attack.

²⁷ Why should his or her sins be sins if you did not believe they could not be forgiven in you? Why are they real in him or her if you did not believe that they are your reality? And why do you attack them everywhere, except you hate yourself? Are you a sin? You answer "yes" whenever you attack, for by attack do you assert that you are guilty and must give as you deserve. And what can you deserve but what you are? If you did not believe that you deserved attack, it never would occur to you to give attack to anyone at all. Why should you? What would be the gain to you? What could the outcome be that you would want? And how could murder bring you benefit?

²⁸ Sins are in bodies. They are not perceived in minds. They are not seen as purposes but actions. Bodies act, and minds do not. And therefore must the body be at fault for what it does. It is not seen to be a passive thing, obeying your commands and doing nothing of itself at all. If you are sin you are a body, for the mind acts not. And purpose must be in the body, not the mind. The body must act on its own and motivate itself. If you are sin, you lock the mind within the body, and you give its purpose to its prison-house, which acts instead of it. A jailer does not follow orders, but enforces orders on the prisoner.

²⁹ Yet is the body prisoner and not the mind. The body thinks no thoughts. It has no power to learn, to pardon, nor enslave. It gives no orders that the mind need serve nor sets conditions that it must obey. It holds in prison but the willing mind that would abide in it. It sickens at the bidding of the mind that would become its prisoner. And it grows old and dies because that mind is sick within itself. Learning is all that causes change. And so the body, where no learning can occur, could never change unless the mind preferred the body change in its appearances to suit the purpose given by the mind. For it can learn, and there is all change made.

³⁰ The mind that thinks it is a sin has but one purpose—that the body be the source of sin and keep it in the prison-house it chose and guard and hold itself at bay, a sleeping prisoner to the snarling dogs of hate and evil, sickness and attack, of pain and age, of grief and suffering. Here are the thoughts of sacrifice preserved, for here guilt rules and orders that the world be like itself—a place where nothing can find mercy or survive the ravages of fear except in murder and in death. For here are you made sin, and sin cannot abide the joyous and the free, for they are enemies which sin must kill. In death is sin preserved, and those who think that they are sin must die for what they think they are.

³¹ Let us be glad that you will see what you believe, and that it has been given you to change what you believe. The body will but follow. It can never lead you where you would not be. It does not guard your sleep nor interfere with your awakening. Release your body from imprisonment, and you will see no one as prisoner to what you have escaped. You will not want to hold in guilt your chosen enemies nor keep in chains to the illusion of a changing love the ones you think are friends.

³² The innocent release in gratitude for their release. And what they see upholds their freedom from imprisonment and death. Open your mind to change, and there will be no ancient penalty exacted from your brother or sister or yourself. For God has said there is no sacrifice that can be asked; there is no sacrifice that can be made.

IV. The Real Alternative

³³ There is a tendency to think the world can offer consolation and escape from problems which its purpose is to keep. Why should this be? Because it is a place where choice among illusions seems to be the only choice. And you are in control of outcomes of your choosing. Thus you think within the narrow band from birth to death a little time is given you to use for you alone, a time when everyone conflicts with you, but you can choose which road will lead you out of conflict and away from difficulties which concern you not. Yet they are your concern. How then can you escape from them by leaving them behind? What must go with you, you will take with you whatever road you choose to walk along.

³⁴ Real choice is no illusion. But the world has none to offer. All its roads but lead to disappointment, nothingness, and death. There is no choice in its alternatives. Seek not escape from problems here. The world was made that problems could not be escaped. Be not deceived by all the different names its roads are given. They have but one end. And each is but the means to gain that end, for it is here that all its roads will lead, however differently they seem to start, however differently they seem to go. Their end is certain, for there is no choice among them. All of them will lead to death. On some you travel gaily for a while before the bleakness enters. And on some the thorns are felt at once. The choice is not what will the ending be but when it comes.

³⁵ There is no choice where every end is sure. Perhaps you would prefer to try them all before you really learn they are but one. The roads this world can offer seem to be quite large in number, but the time must come when everyone begins to see how like they are to one another. Men or women have died on seeing this because they saw no way except the pathways offered by the world. And learning they led nowhere, lost their hope. And yet this was the time they could have learned their greatest lesson. All must reach this point and go beyond it. It is true indeed there is no choice at all within the world. But this is not the lesson in itself. The lesson has a purpose, and in this you come to understand what it is for.

³⁶ Why would you seek to try another road, another person, or another place when you have learned the way the lesson starts but do not yet perceive what it is for? Its purpose is the answer to the search that all must undertake who still believe there is another answer to be found. Learn now, without despair, there is no hope of answer in the world. But do not judge the lesson which is but begun with this. Seek not another signpost in the world which seems to point to still another road. No longer look for hope where there is none. Make fast your learning now, and understand you but waste time unless you go beyond what you have learned to what is yet to learn. For from this lowest point will learning lead to heights of happiness in which you see the purpose of the lesson shining clear, and perfectly within your learning grasp.

³⁷ Who would be willing to be turned away from all the roadways of the world unless he or she understood their real futility? Is it not needful that he or she should begin with this, to seek another way instead? For while he or she sees a choice where there is none, what power of decision can he or she use? The great release of power must begin with learning where it really has a use. And what decision has power if it be applied in situations without choice?

³⁸ The learning that the world can offer but one choice, no matter what its form may be, is the beginning of acceptance that there is a real alternative instead. To fight against this step is to defeat your purpose here. You did not come to learn to find a road the world does not contain. The search for different pathways in the world is but the search for different forms of truth. And this would keep the truth from being reached.

³⁹ Think not that happiness is ever found by following a road away from it. This makes no sense and cannot be the way. To you who seem to find this course to be too difficult to learn, let me repeat that to achieve a goal you must proceed in its direction, not away from it. And every road that leads the other way will not advance the purpose to be found. If this be difficult to understand, then is this course impossible to learn. But only then. For otherwise, it is a simple teaching in the obvious.

⁴⁰ There is a choice which you have power to make when you have seen the real alternatives. Until that point is reached, you have no choice, and you can but decide how you would choose the better to deceive yourself again. This course attempts to teach no more than that the power of decision cannot lie in choosing different forms of what is still the same illusion and the same mistake. All choices in the world depend on this—you choose between your brother or sister and yourself, and you will gain as much as he or she will lose, and what you lose is what is given him or her. How utterly opposed to truth is this, when the lesson's purpose is to teach that what your brother or sister loses you have lost and what he or she gains is what is given you.

⁴¹ HeShe has not left HisHer Thoughts! But you forgot HisHer Presence and remembered not HisHer Love. No pathway in the world can lead to HimHer, nor any worldly goal is one with HisHers. What road in all the world will lead within, when every road was made to separate the journey from the purpose it must have unless it be but futile wandering? All roads that lead away from what you are will lead you to confusion and despair. Yet has HeShe never left HisHer Thoughts to die, without their Source forever in themselves. HeShe has not left HisHer Thoughts! HeShe could no more depart from them than they could keep HimHer out. In unity with HimHer do they abide, and in their Oneness both are kept complete.

⁴² There is no road that leads away from HimHer. A journey from yourself does not exist. How foolish and insane it is to think that there could be a road with such an aim! Where could it go? And how could you be made to travel on it, walking there without your own reality at one with you? Forgive yourself your madness and forget all senseless journeys and all goal-less aims. They have no meaning. You can not escape from what you are. For God is merciful and did not let HisHer SonDaughter abandon HimHer. For what HeShe is, be thankful, for in that is your escape from madness and from death. Nowhere but where HeShe is can you be found. There is no path that does not lead to HimHer.

V. Self Concept Versus Self

⁴³ The learning of the world is built upon a concept of the self adjusted to the world's reality. It fits it well. For this an image is that suits a world of shadows and illusions. Here it walks at home, where what it sees is one with it. The building of a concept of the self is what the learning of the world is for. This is its purpose—that you come without a self and make one as you go along. And by the time you reach

"maturity," you have perfected it to meet the world on equal terms, at one with its demands.

⁴⁴ A concept of the self is made by you. It bears no likeness to yourself at all. It is an idol or idolress, made to take the place of your reality as SonDaughter of God. The concept of the self the world would teach is not the thing that it appears to be. For it is made to serve two purposes, but one of which the mind can recognize. The first presents the face of innocence, the aspect acted on. It is this face that smiles and charms and even seems to love. It searches for companions, and it looks at times with pity on the suffering and sometimes offers solace. It believes that it is good within an evil world.

⁴⁵ This aspect can grow angry, for the world is wicked and unable to provide the love and shelter innocence deserves. And so this face is often wet with tears at the injustices the world accords to those who would be generous and good. This aspect never makes the first attack. But every day a hundred little things make small assaults upon its innocence, provoking it to irritation and at last to open insult and abuse.

⁴⁶ The face of innocence the concept of the self so proudly wears can tolerate attack in self-defense, for is it not a well-known fact the world deals harshly with defenseless innocence? No one who makes a picture of himself or herself omits this face, for he or she has need of it. The other side he or she does not want to see. Yet it is here the learning of the world has set its sights, for it is here the world's "reality" is set to see to it the idol or idolress lasts.

⁴⁷ Beneath the face of innocence there is a lesson that the concept of the self was made to teach. It is a lesson in a terrible displacement and a fear so devastating that the face which smiles above it must forever look away, lest it perceive the treachery it hides. The lesson teaches this: "I am the thing you made of me, and as you look on me, you stand condemned because of what I am." On this conception of the self the world smiles with approval, for it guarantees the pathways of the world are safely kept and those who walk on them will not escape.

⁴⁸ Here is the central lesson that ensures your brother or sister is condemned eternally. For what you are has now become his or her sin. For this is no forgiveness possible. No longer does it matter what he or she does, for your accusing finger points to him or her, unwavering and deadly in its aim. It points to you as well, but this is kept still deeper in the mists below the face of innocence. And in these shrouded vaults are all his or her sins and yours preserved and kept in darkness where they cannot be perceived as errors, which the light would surely show. You can be neither blamed for what you are, nor can you change the things it makes you do. And you are each the symbol of your sins to one another, silently, and yet with ceaseless urgency condemning still your brother or sister for the hated thing you are.

⁴⁹ Concepts are learned. They are not natural. Apart from learning, they do not exist. They are not given, and they must be made. Not one of them is true, and the many come from feverish imaginations, hot with hatred and distortions born of fear. What is a concept but a thought to which its maker gives a meaning of his or her own? Concepts maintain the world. But they cannot be used to demonstrate the world is real. For all of them are made within the world, born in its shadow, growing in its ways, and finally "maturing" in its thought. They are ideas of idols or idolresses painted with the brushes of the world, which cannot make a single picture representing truth.

⁵⁰ A concept of the self is meaningless, for no one here can see what it is for and therefore cannot picture what it is. Yet is all learning which the world directs begun and ended with the single aim of teaching you this concept of yourself, that you will choose to follow this world's laws and never seek to go beyond its roads nor realize the way you see yourself. Now must the Holy Spirit find a way to help you see this concept of the self must be undone if any peace of mind is to be given you. Nor can it be unlearned except by lessons aimed to teach that you are something else. For otherwise you would be asked to make exchange of what you now believe for total loss of self, and greater terror would arise in you.

⁵¹ Thus are the Holy Spirit's lesson plans arranged in easy steps that though there be some lack of ease at times and some distress, there is no shattering of what was learned, but just a re-translation of what seems to be the evidence on its behalf. Let us consider then what proof there is that you are what your brother or sister made of you. For even though you do not yet perceive that this is what you think, you surely learned by now that you behave as if it were. Does he or she react for you? And did he or she know exactly what would happen? Could he or she see your future and ordain before it came what you should do in every circumstance? He or she must have made the world as well as you to have such prescience in the things to come.

⁵² That you are what your brother or sister made of you seems most unlikely. Even if he or she did, who gave the face of innocence to you? Is this your contribution? Who is, then, the "you" who made it? And who is deceived by all your goodness and attacks it so? Let us forget the concept's foolishness and merely think of this—there are two parts to what you think yourself to be. If one was generated by your brother or sister, who was there to make the other? And from whom must something be kept hidden? If the world be evil, there is still no need to hide what you are made of. Who is there to see? And what but is attacked could need defense?

⁵³ Perhaps the reason why this concept must be kept in darkness is that in the light the one who would not think it true is you. And what would happen to the world you know if all its underpinnings were removed? Your concept of the world depends upon this concept of the self. And both would go if either one were ever raised to doubt. The Holy Spirit does not seek to throw you into panic. So She merely asks if just a little question might be raised.

⁵⁴ There are alternatives about the thing that you must be. You might for instance be the thing you chose to have your brother or sister be. This shifts the concept of the self from what is wholly passive and at least makes way for active choice and some acknowledgment that interaction must have entered in. There is some understanding that you chose for both of you, and what he or she represents has meaning that was given it by you. It also shows some glimmering of sight into perception's law that what you see reflects the state of the perceiver's mind. Yet who was it that did the choosing first? If you are what you chose your brother or sister be, alternatives were there to choose among, and someone must have first decided on the one to choose and let the others go.

⁵⁵ Although this step has gains, it does not yet approach a basic question. Something must have gone before these concepts of the self. And something must have done the learning which gave rise to them. Nor can this be explained by either view. The main advantage of the shifting to the second from the first is that you somehow entered in the choice by your decision. But this gain is paid in almost equal loss, for now you stand accused of guilt for what your brother or sister is. And you must share his or her guilt because you chose it for him or her in the image of your own. While only he or she was treacherous before, now must you be condemned along with him or her.

⁵⁶ The concept of the self has always been the great preoccupation of the world. And everyone believes that he or she must find the answer to the riddle of himself or herself. Salvation can be seen as nothing more than the escape from concepts. It does not concern itself with content of the mind, but with the simple statement that it thinks. And what can think has choice and can be shown that different thoughts have different consequence. So it can learn that everything it thinks reflects the deep confusion that it feels about how it was made and what it is. And vaguely does the concept of the self appear to answer what it does not know.

⁵⁷ Seek not your Self in symbols. There can be no concept that can stand for what you are. What matters it which concept you accept while you perceive a self which interacts with evil and reacts to wicked things? Your concept of yourself will still remain quite meaningless. And you will not perceive that you can interact but with yourself. To see a guilty world is but the sign your learning has been guided by the world, and you behold it as you see yourself. The concept of the self embraces all you look upon, and nothing is outside of this perception. If you can be hurt by anything, you see a picture of your secret wishes. Nothing more than this. And in your suffering of any kind, you see your own concealed desire to kill.

⁵⁸ You will make the many concepts of the self as learning goes along. Each one will show the changes in your own relationships as your perception of yourself is changed. There will be some confusion every time there is a shift, but be you thankful that the learning of the world is loosening its grasp upon your mind. And be you sure and happy in the confidence that it will go at last and leave your mind at peace. The role of the accuser will appear in the many places and in the many forms. And each will seem to be accusing you. Yet have no fear it will not be undone.

⁵⁹ The world can teach no images of you unless you want to learn them. There will come a time when images have all gone by, and you will see you know not what you are. It is to this unsealed and open mind that truth returns, unhindered and unbound. Where concepts of the self have been laid by is truth revealed exactly as it is. When every concept has been raised to doubt and question and been recognized as made on no assumptions which would stand the light, then is the truth left free to enter in its sanctuary, clean and free of guilt. There is no statement that the world is more afraid to hear than this:

⁶⁰ I do not know the thing I am and therefore do not know what I am doing, where I am, or how to look upon the world or on myself.

⁶¹ Yet in this learning is salvation born. And what you are will tell you of Itself.

VI. Recognizing the Spirit

⁶² You see the flesh or recognize the Spirit. There is no compromise between the two. If one is real the other must be false, for what is real denies its opposite. There is no choice in vision but this one. What you decide in this determines all you see and think is real and hold as true. On this one choice does all your world depend, for here have you established what you are, as flesh or Spirit in your own belief. If you choose flesh, you never will escape the body as your own reality, for you have chosen that you want it so. But choose the Spirit, and all the God Realm bends to touch your eyes and bless your holy sight, that you may see the world of flesh no more except to heal and comfort and to bless.

⁶³ Salvation is undoing. If you choose to see the body, you behold a world of separation, unrelated things, and happenings that make no sense at all. This one appears and disappears in death; that one is doomed to suffering and loss. And no one is exactly as he or she was an instant previous, nor will he or she be the same as he or she is now an instant hence. Who could have trust where so much change is seen, for who is worthy if he or she be but dust? Salvation is undoing of all this. And constancy arises in the sight of those whose eyes salvation has released from looking at the cost of keeping guilt because they chose to let it go instead.

⁶⁴ Salvation does not ask that you behold the Spirit and perceive the body not. It merely asks that this should be your choice. For you can see the body without help but do not understand how to behold a world apart from it. It is your world salvation will undo and let you see another world your eyes could never find. Be not concerned how this could ever be. You do not understand how what you see arose to meet your sight. For if you did, it would be gone. The veil of ignorance is drawn across the evil and the good and must be passed that both may disappear, so that perception finds no hiding place. How is this done? It is not done at all. What could there be within the universe which God created and manifested that must still be done?

⁶⁵ Only in arrogance could you conceive that you must make the way to the God Realm plain. The means are given you by which to see the world that will replace the one you made. Your will be done! In the God Realm as on earth, this is forever true. It matters not where you believe you are nor what you think the truth about yourself must really be. It makes no difference what you look upon nor what you choose to feel or think or wish. For God HimHerself has said, "Your will be done." And it is done to you accordingly.

⁶⁶ You who believe that you can choose to see the SonDaughter of God as you would have him/her be, forget not that no concept of yourself will stand against the truth of what you are. Undoing truth would be impossible. But concepts are not difficult to change. One vision, clearly seen, that does not fit the picture as it was perceived before will change the world for eyes that learn to see, because the concept of the self has changed. Are you invulnerable? Then the world is harmless in your sight. Do you forgive? Then is the world forgiving, for you have forgiven its trespasses and so it looks on you with eyes that see as yours. Are you a body? So is all the world perceived as treacherous and out to kill.

⁶⁷ Are you a Spirit, deathless and without the promise of corruption and the stain of sin upon you? So the world is seen as stable, fully worthy of your trust; a happy place to rest in for a while, where nothing need be feared but only loved. Who is unwelcome to the kind in heart? And what could hurt the truly innocent? Your will be done, you holy Child of God. It does not matter if you think you are in earth or the God Realm. What your FatherMother wills for you can never change. The truth in you remains as radiant as a star, as pure as light, as innocent as Love Itself. And you are worthy that your will be done!

VII. The Savior's or Savioress's Vision

⁶⁸ Learning is change. Salvation does not seek to use a means as yet too alien to your thinking to be helpful nor to make the kinds of change you could not recognize. Concepts are needed while perception lasts, and changing concepts is salvation's task. For it must deal in contrasts, not in truth, which has no opposite and cannot change. In this world's concepts are the guilty "bad;" the "good" are innocent. And no one here but holds a concept of himself or herself in which he or she counts the "good" to pardon him or her the "bad." Nor does he or she trust the "good" in anyone, believing that the "bad" must lurk behind. This concept emphasizes treachery, and trust becomes impossible. Nor could it change while you perceive the "bad" in you.

⁶⁹ You could not recognize your "evil" thoughts as long as you see value in attack. You will perceive them sometimes, but will not see them as meaningless. And so they come in fearful form, with content still concealed, to shake your sorry concept of yourself and blacken it with still another "crime." You cannot give yourself your innocence, for you are too confused about yourself. But should one brother or sister dawn upon your sight as wholly worthy of forgiveness, then your concept of yourself is wholly changed. Your "evil" thoughts have been forgiven with his or hers, because you let them all affect you not. No longer did you choose that you should be the sign of evil and of guilt in him or her. And as you gave your trust to what is good in him or her, you gave it to the good in you.

⁷⁰ In terms of concepts, it is thus you see him or her more than just a body, for the good is never what the body seems to be. The actions of the body are perceived as coming from the "baser" part of you and thus of him or her as well. By focusing upon the good in him or her, the body grows decreasingly persistent in your sight and will at length be seen as little more than just a shadow circling round the good. And this will be your concept of yourself, when you have reached the world beyond the sight your eyes alone can offer you to see. For you will not interpret what you see without the Aid that God has given you. And in Her sight there is another world.

⁷¹ You live in that world just as much as this. For both are concepts of yourself which can be interchanged, but never jointly held. The contrast is far greater than you think, for you will love this concept of yourself because it was not made for you alone. Born as a gift for someone not perceived to be yourself, it has been given you. For your forgiveness, offered unto him or her, has been accepted now for both of you.

⁷² Have faith in him or her who walks with you, so that your fearful concept of yourself may change. And look upon the good in him or her that you may not be frightened by your "evil" thoughts because they do not cloud your view of him or her. And all this shift requires is that you be willing that this happy change occur. No more than this is asked. On its behalf, remember what the concept of yourself which now you hold has brought you in its wake, and welcome the glad contrast offered you. Hold out your hand that you may have the gift of kind forgiveness which you offer one whose need for it is just the same as yours. And let the cruel concept of yourself be changed to one which brings the peace of God.

⁷³ The concept of yourself which now you hold would guarantee your function here remain forever unaccomplished and undone. And thus it dooms you to a bitter sense of deep depression and futility. Yet it need not be fixed unless you choose to hold it past the hope of change and keep it static and concealed within your mind. Give it instead to Her Who understands the changes that it needs to let it serve the function given you to bring you peace that you may offer peace to have it yours. Alternatives are in your mind to use, and you can see yourself another way. Would you not rather look upon yourself as needed for salvation of the world instead of as salvation's enemy?

⁷⁴ The concept of the self stands like a shield, a silent barricade before the truth, and hides it from your sight. All things you see are images because you look on them as through a barrier which dims your sight and warps your vision, so that you behold nothing with clarity. The light is kept from everything you see. At most, you glimpse a shadow of what lies beyond. At least, you merely look on darkness and perceive the terrified imaginings that come from guilty thoughts and concepts born of fear. And what you see is hell, for fear is hell. All that is given you is for release—the sight, the vision, and the inner Guide all lead you out of hell with those you love beside you and the universe with them.

⁷⁵ Behold your role within the universe! To every part of true manifested creation has the LordLady of Love and Life entrusted all salvation from the misery of hell. And to each one has HeShe allowed the grace to be a savior or savioress to the holy ones especially entrusted to his or her care. And this he or she learns when first he or she looks upon one brother or sister as he or she looks upon himself or herself and sees the mirror of himself or herself in him or her. Thus is the concept of himself or herself laid by, for nothing stands between his or her sight and what he or she looks upon to judge what he or she beholds. And in this single vision does he or she see the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness and understands he or she looks on everyone as he or she beholds this One. For there is light where darkness was before, and now the veil is lifted from his or her sight.

⁷⁶ The veil across the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness, the fear of God and of salvation, and the love of guilt and death, they all are different names for just one error—that there is a space between you and your brother or sister, kept apart by an illusion of yourself which holds him or her off from you and you away from him or her. The sword of judgment is the weapon which you give to the illusion of yourself that it may fight to keep the space that holds your brother or sister off unoccupied by love. Yet while you hold this sword, you must perceive the body as yourself, for you are bound to separation from the sight of him or her who holds the mirror to another view of what he or she is and thus what you must be.

⁷⁷ What is temptation but the wish to stay in hell and misery? And what could this give rise to but an image of yourself that can be miserable and remain in hell and torment? Who has learned to see his or her brother or sister not as this has saved himself or herself, and thus is he or she a savior or savioress to the rest. To everyone has God entrusted all, because a partial savior or savioress would be one who is but partly saved. The holy ones whom God has given each of you to save are everyone you meet or look upon, not knowing who they are, all those you saw an instant and forgot, and those you knew a long while since, and those you will yet meet, the unremembered and the not yet born. For God has given you HisHer SonDaughter to save from every concept that he or she ever held.

⁷⁸ Yet while you wish to stay in hell, how could you be the savior or savioress of the SonDaughter of God? How would you know his or her holiness while you see him or her apart from yours? For holiness is seen through holy eyes that look upon the innocence within and thus expect to see it everywhere. And so they call it forth in everyone they look upon that he or she may be what they expect of him or her. This is the savior's or savior's vision—that he or she see his or her innocence in all he or she looks upon and sees his or her own salvation everywhere. He or she holds no concept of himself or herself between his or her calm and open eyes and what he or she sees. He or she brings the light to what he or she looks upon, that he or she may see it as it really is.

⁷⁹ Whatever form temptation seems to take, it always but reflects a wish to be a self which you are not. And from that wish, a concept rises, teaching that you are the thing you wish to be. It will remain your concept of yourself until the wish that fathered or mothered it no longer is held dear. But while you cherish it, you will behold your brother or sister in the likeness of the self whose image has the wish begot of you. For vision can but represent a wish, because it has no power to create and manifest. Yet it can look with love or look with hate, depending only on the simple choice of whether you would join with what you see or keep yourself apart and separate.

⁸⁰ The savior's or savior's vision is as innocent of what your brother or sister is as it is free of any judgment made upon yourself. It sees no past in anyone at all. And thus it serves a wholly open mind, unclouded by old concepts and prepared to look on only what the present holds. It cannot judge because it does not know. And recognizing this, it merely asks, "What is the meaning of what I behold?" Then is the answer given. And the door held open for the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness to shine upon the one who asks in innocence to see beyond the veil of old ideas and ancient concepts held so long and dear against the vision of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you.

⁸¹ Be vigilant against temptation, then, remembering that it is but a wish, insane and meaningless, to make yourself a thing which you are not. And think as well upon the thing that you would be instead. It is a thing of madness, pain, and death; a thing of treachery and black despair, of failing dreams and no remaining hope except to die and end the dream of fear. This is temptation, nothing more than this. Can this be difficult to choose against? Consider what temptation is, and see the real alternatives you choose between. There are but two. Be not deceived by what appears as the many choices. There is hell or the God Realm, and of these you choose but one.

⁸² Let not the world's light, given unto you, be hidden from the world. It needs the light, for it is dark indeed, and men or women despair because the savior's or savior's vision is withheld, and what they see is death. Their savior or savior stands, unknowing and unknown, beholding them with eyes unopened. And they cannot see until he or she looks on them with seeing eyes and offers them forgiveness with his or her own. Can you to whom God says, "Release Our SonDaughter!" be tempted not to listen when you learn that it is you for whom HeShe asks release? And what but this is what this course would teach? And what but this is there for you to learn?

VIII. Choose Once Again

⁸³ Temptation has one lesson it would teach in all its forms wherever it occurs. It would persuade the holy SonDaughter of God heshe is a body, born in what must die, unable to escape its frailty and bound by what it orders himher to feel. It sets the limits on what heshe can do; its power is the only strength heshe has; hisher grasp cannot exceed its tiny reach. Would you be this if the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness appeared to you in all Her glory, asking you but this:

⁸⁴ Choose once again if you would take your place among the saviors or savioresses of the world, or would remain in hell and hold your brothers and sisters there.

⁸⁵ For She has come, and She is asking this.

⁸⁶ How do you make the choice? How easily is this explained! You always choose between your weakness and the strength of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you. And what you choose is what you think is real. Simply by never using weakness to direct your actions, you have given it no power. And the light of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you is given charge of everything you do. For you have brought your weakness unto Her, and She has given you Her strength instead.

⁸⁷ Trials are but lessons which you failed to learn presented once again, so where you made a faulty choice before, you now can make a better one and thus escape all pain which what you chose before has brought to you. In every difficulty, all distress, and each perplexity the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness calls to you and gently says, "Min brother or sister, choose again." She would not leave one source of pain unhealed nor any image left to veil the truth. [She would remove all misery from you, whom God created and manifested altars unto joy.] She would not leave you comfortless, alone in dreams of hell, but would release your minds from everything that hides Her face from you. Her holiness is yours because She is the only power that is real in you. Her strength is yours because She is the Self that God created and manifested as HisHer only Daughter.

⁸⁸ The images you make can not prevail against what God HimHerself would have you be. Be never fearful of temptation then, but see it as it is—another chance to choose again and let the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's strength prevail in every circumstance and every place you raised an image of yourself before. For what appears to hide the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness is powerless before Her majesty and disappears before Her holy sight. The saviors or savioresses of the world who see like Her are merely those who chose Her strength instead of their own weakness, seen apart from Her. They will redeem the world, for they are joined in all the power of the Will of God. And what they will is only what HeShe wills.

⁸⁹ Learn then the happy habit of response to all temptation to perceive yourself as weak and miserable with these words:

⁹⁰ I am as God created and manifested me. HisHer SonDaughter can suffer nothing. And I am HisHer SonDaughter.

⁹¹ Thus is the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness's strength invited to prevail, replacing all your weakness with the strength that comes from God and that can never fail. And thus are miracles as natural as fear and agony appeared to be before the choice for holiness was made. For in that choice are false distinctions gone, illusory alternatives laid by, and nothing left to interfere with truth.

⁹² You are as God created and manifested you, and so is every living thing you look upon, regardless of the images you see. What you behold as sickness and as pain, as weakness and as suffering and loss is but temptation to perceive yourself defenseless and in hell. Yield not to this, and you will see all pain in every form wherever it occurs but disappear as mists before the sun. A miracle has come to heal God's SonDaughter and close the door upon hisher dreams of weakness, opening the way to hisher salvation and release. Choose once again what you would have himher be, remembering that every choice you make establishes your own identity as you will see it and believe it is.

⁹³ Deny me not the little gift I ask when in exchange I lay before your feet the peace of God and power to bring this peace to everyone who wanders in the world uncertain, lonely, and in constant fear. For it is given you to join with him or her, and through the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in you unveil his or her eyes and let him or her look upon the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness in him or her. My brothers and sisters in salvation, do not fail to hear my voice and listen to my words. I ask for nothing but your own release. There is no place for hell within a world whose loveliness can yet be so intense and so inclusive it is but a step from there to the God Realm . To your tired eyes I bring a vision of a different world, so new and clean and fresh you will forget the pain and sorrow that you saw before. Yet this a vision is which you must share with everyone you see, for otherwise you will behold it not. To give this gift is how to make it yours. And God ordained in loving kindness that it be for you.

⁹⁴ Let us be glad that we can walk the world and find so the many chances to perceive another situation where God's gift can once again be recognized as ours! And thus will all the vestiges of hell, the secret "sins," and hidden hates be gone. And all the loveliness which they concealed appear like lawns of the God Realm to our sight to lift us high above the thorny roads we travelled on before the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness appeared. Hear me, mine brothers and sisters, hear and join with me. God has ordained I cannot call in vain, and in HisHer certainty I rest content. For you will hear, and you will choose again. And in this choice is everyone made free.

⁹⁵ I thank You, FatherMother, for these holy ones who are my brothers and sisters as they are Your SonsDaughters. My faith in them is Yours. I am as sure that they will come to me as You are sure of what they are and will forever be. They will accept the gift I offer them because You gave it me on their behalf. And as I would but do Your holy Will, so will they choose. And I give thanks for them. Salvation's song will echo through the world with every choice they make. For we are one in purpose, and the end of hell is near.

⁹⁶ In joyous welcome is my hand outstretched to every brother or sister who would join with me in reaching past temptation and who looks with fixed determination toward the light that shines beyond in perfect constancy. Give me my own, for they belong to You. And can You fail in what is but Your Will? I give You thanks for what my brothers and sisters are. And as each one elects to join with me, the song of thanks from earth to the God Realm grows from tiny scattered threads of melody to one inclusive chorus from a world redeemed from hell and giving thanks to You.

⁹⁷ And now we say "Amen." For the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness has come to dwell in the abode You set for Her before time was, in calm eternity. The journey closes, ending at the place where it began. No trace of it remains. Not one illusion is accorded faith, and not one spot of darkness still remains to hide the face of the Christ Consciousness/the Mercy Consciousness from anyone. Thy Will is done, complete and perfectly, and all manifested creation recognizes You and knows You as the only Source it has. Clear in Your Likeness does the Light shine forth from everything that lives and moves in You. For we have reached where all of us are One, and we are home, where You would have us be.

